FOREWORD

Sails of our sturdy ship leading us to a safe
Harbor of wisdom and knowledge
Acquired during our voyage over often turbulent waters
During these four years —
Our noble skippers have guided us wisely and
We the crew, sighting the horizons of success,
Strive for a straight course.

QUARTER-MASTER

We, the class of '53, wish to dedicate this, our book, to the guiding light of our class, who guided us wisely through the storms and fair weather of our high school voyage, keeping our ship away from the shallows of inexperience and off the rocks of bad judgement. Our gratitude to you, our friend—

SEPT. 1949. Weighed anchor with a strong wind toward learning, destination unknown. As swabbies, we relied on the experience of our advisors and the leadership of our helmsmen, Charlie Opdyke, Dan Jerbasi, and Elaine Schermerhorn. Admiral Wilkins told us the parts of the verb, "da-fino." Bobbie Jennings, Steve Kott, Charlie Opdyke and Joe Gagliano aroused our interest in the Student Court by presenting it to the student body. Betsy Hauck represented the class in "Hangman's Noose." Climaxing a successful maiden voyage, Karnival Kapers brought everyone to the fair and added much gold to our treasure chest. After we cast ballots in the box for Student Council we felt we were really official members of the crew.

SEPT. 1950. The second lap of our voyage begins! With superiority we laughed at the confused freshmen in boot camp. Accepted as an important part of our school, we proved our worth in sports, scholastics, and social life. On the court, track, field, and diamond, Hoover, Brown, and McKinley led our ranks, with Pat Edlehausser, Alda DiTrani, and Margie Fitzpatrick cheering them on. Our skipper, Steve Kott with his first mate, Tompson and second mate, Blose supervised our second dance, "South of the Rio," a real victory for us! After a stop for Christmas vacation, our ship gained speed and cruised toward the end of the year and our promotion to the rank of first class seamen.

SEPT. 1951. We found ourselves cruising into our Junior year with our class well represented in all fields of athletics. Many of our boys returned to action to become key men in football, basketball, and baseball. Another new venture undertaken during this trip was the canteen which proved to be enjoyable to everyone. Physics, geometry, and bookkeeping II required a little more work than we had anticipated, but you can't always have smooth sailing. We also were well represented in "Men are Like Streetcars" which was the annual school play. Evelyn Hella did a magnificent job in the lead role while juniors Joe Gagliano, Janet Hinckley, Nancy Trimmer, Rosemary Lane and Pat Gifford also added their talents. College boards were met and they proved to be a hurricane in our otherwise fairly smooth trip. These were weathered, although they did leave us minus a little self-confidence. The biggest project, of course, was our Prom, "The Arabian Nights." A little pond in the center of the floor filled with goldfish, was just one of the many features which everyone agreed was the most beautiful they had seen. A second storm at sea arose when exams were sighted the second week in June. We survived, only to come face to face with the fact that we were approaching the most important part of our voyage—our Senior year.

SEPT. 1952. Land Ho! Our destination began to take shape on the horizon as our craft sailed speedily toward it. On the football field our boys captured the Suburban Conference crown. Our class was on the Bridge with Tompson wielding the gavel and Cartabona issuing the decrees. Blue lights and tinsel put us in the mood for "The Silver Swirl," which was our last but by no means our least. Hail King Dick and Queen Elaine. The Seniors were in the limelight, in the Senior play "Spreading The News," the octet, The Honor Society, and the School play. More and more skippers were accepted at colleges and jobs. Spring activities swept closer and closer. The Glee Club presented "The Lowland Sea," while Joe Gagliano and George Hoover led the baseball team.

It arrived at last—the promised land, graduation; an end and a beginning. It was here we realized the last voyage is always the shortest. It was here also we had to leave the shelter of our ship, "The S.S. Verona High" and set out alone to conquer new countries and enter the problems of the world.

Class Will

We of Class of 1953, being of the omniscient Kott mind and the magnificent Boris body with the sanction of our Honorable Judge Tompson, hereby declare this document our Last Will and Testament. To all those tolerant of the Class of 1953, we bequeath a conglomeration of our talents, traits, and possessions.

Don Coates gives his keyboard ability to Carol Werheim. Jim Wade and Larry Kingham leave "the yell" to Ronnie De Chesser. Louise Alescio and Loraine Kandel leave their polka to next-year's gym classes. Dick Munn and Elaine Schermerhorn will bequeath his leadership to Rex Peterson. Marilyn Hogg leaves her outstanding voice to Betty Percvault. Dan Jerbasi and Ellen Boltz assign their business efficiency to Betty Anne Sing and Laura Caputo.

The following idiosyncrasies are respectfully presented to our privileged counterparts. Pat Carroll wills her glib tongue to Gail Graman. Edith Puleo and Pat Harrison joshingly leave their giggles to Elaine Wands and Diane Grodowsky. To Vickie Inglesino, Rosemary Lane leaves her nice complexion. Joan Dartnell leaves her willingness to help with dances to her kid sister. Alan Dobson and Al Skrzypek leave gladly, while Ed Chesnut left—not so gladly. To next year's SHADOWS Editor, Don Laford leaves a bottle of aspirin. Gay Griffith and Harry Smithers present their "hot rods" to Jack Nolfi. Pat Edelhausser would like to leave her hair but she couldn't do without it. Elber Stearns leaves his mania for taking notes in class to all you note writers.

Janice Watson receives Barry Nann's extensive vocabulary. Bob Charman bequeaths his size thirteens to Don Shultz. Kay and Fred Fernald leave their twin disputes to Jack and Toni Windolf. Bobbie Jennings gives Ursula Lombardi her horsetail, while Les Lewis and Gerry Carlson bestow their D. A.'s on Dick De Masi. Eleanor Eaton leaves the chem. lab to anyone who wants to blow the place up. The Senior Girls leave their "fruit boots" to John Smith.
To the delight of her parents Carol Anderson presents Roddy Smith with her dumb remarks. Lynne Garrabrant leaves an alarm clock to the next president of the 8:25 club. Pat Walscheid leaves her freckles to Red Varian. The Senior Members of the football team leave Mr. Wermuth fond memories of those Friday nite meetings. To Doc Goeltz and Harry Bergstrom the Seniors of the soccer team leave hopes for a winning season. To Jerry De Stefano we leave one class of "safe" drivers.
To Mr. Johnson the Chemistry classes return a hydrogen balloon. Along with articulate diction, we leave Mr. Reidenbaugh a life-time supply of bow ties.

Signed, sealed, and published on the Ninth day of June in the Year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

CLASSMEN

As we moved into our Junior year, we finally left the title of "underclassmen" behind us and started to assume the duties and responsibilities of "upperclassmen" under the able leadership of Ralph Ostella, Helmer Pearson, and Gladys Kusenburg, who helped lead us through this very important year.

Our class was well represented in student activities such as Student Council, Student Court, Shadows, and the White Hornet, with Rex Peterson, vice-president, and Lynn Dartnell, secretary, very ably fulfilling their hard and important jobs.

With much ability we represented Verona in football, soccer, basketball, baseball, and track as well as in cheerleading. The football cheerleaders, under captain Gladys Kusenburg, cheered our teams to many victories. We all feel sure that next year's teams with Peterson, Bergstrom, Smith and the other team captains will bring many athletic awards to our school. Also the band was led this year by head majorette Mary Ann Adams.

Our class rings finally arrived in February and were displayed by everyone. Ideas for our Junior Prom started to materialize and the class decided on a musical background and theme. Most of the remainder of the year was spent working very industriously on the decorations for the Prom as our Junior year slowly but very surely came to a close.

Morton, Peterson, Bergstrom, Springer, Schultz, Hathaway, Norcott, Gibbs, Tebo, Askling, R. Smith, Shuttleworth, Varian, Berry.

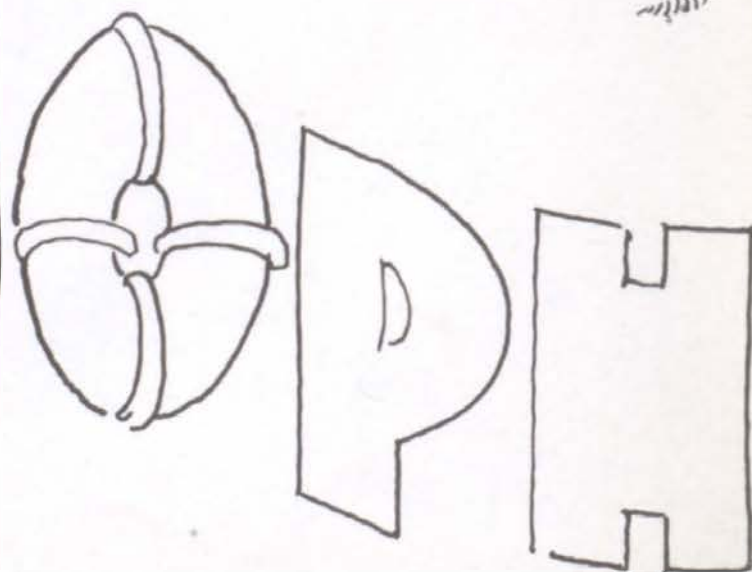

Even though coming back to school in 1952 meant giving up summer vacation, the Sophomore class was determined to better our good standing as Freshmen. We had elected Joey Haufler secretary-treasurer, in June of 1952.

We started off the school year successfully by sponsoring a dance. The dance, held on October 14, was called "The Hillbilly Huddle." Miss Shockney and Mr. Wermuth, our class advisers, helped us very much in making this dance a success.

The sophomores were well represented in fall sports. The sophomore football players, highlighted by Dan Denton and Jerry DeLuca, were cheered on by sophomore cheerleaders Nancy Edlehauser and Bonnie Bush. Richard Williams helped the soccer team to win many games as did other sophomore boys. The sophomores, who made up most of the basketball squad, appeared in numerous J. V. games and occasionally in varsity games. We were also represented in baseball and track. Andy Wohlgenuth starred in the high jump.

It is getting harder and harder for the class of '55 to stay on the scholastic level at which they think they should be. With ablative absolutes, quadratic equations, and lab sessions in biology the A's and B's seemed to drift farther away.

Many sophomores are active in extra curricular activities such as, supporting Shadows and White Hornet, Glee Club, Front Page Club, Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y, Student Court, and Student Council. With this year's achievements in mind we will tackle the responsibility of being upperclassmen.

OMORES

At last we have become Freshmen! The first few days were confusing but as we began to get used to things, High School became real and alive.

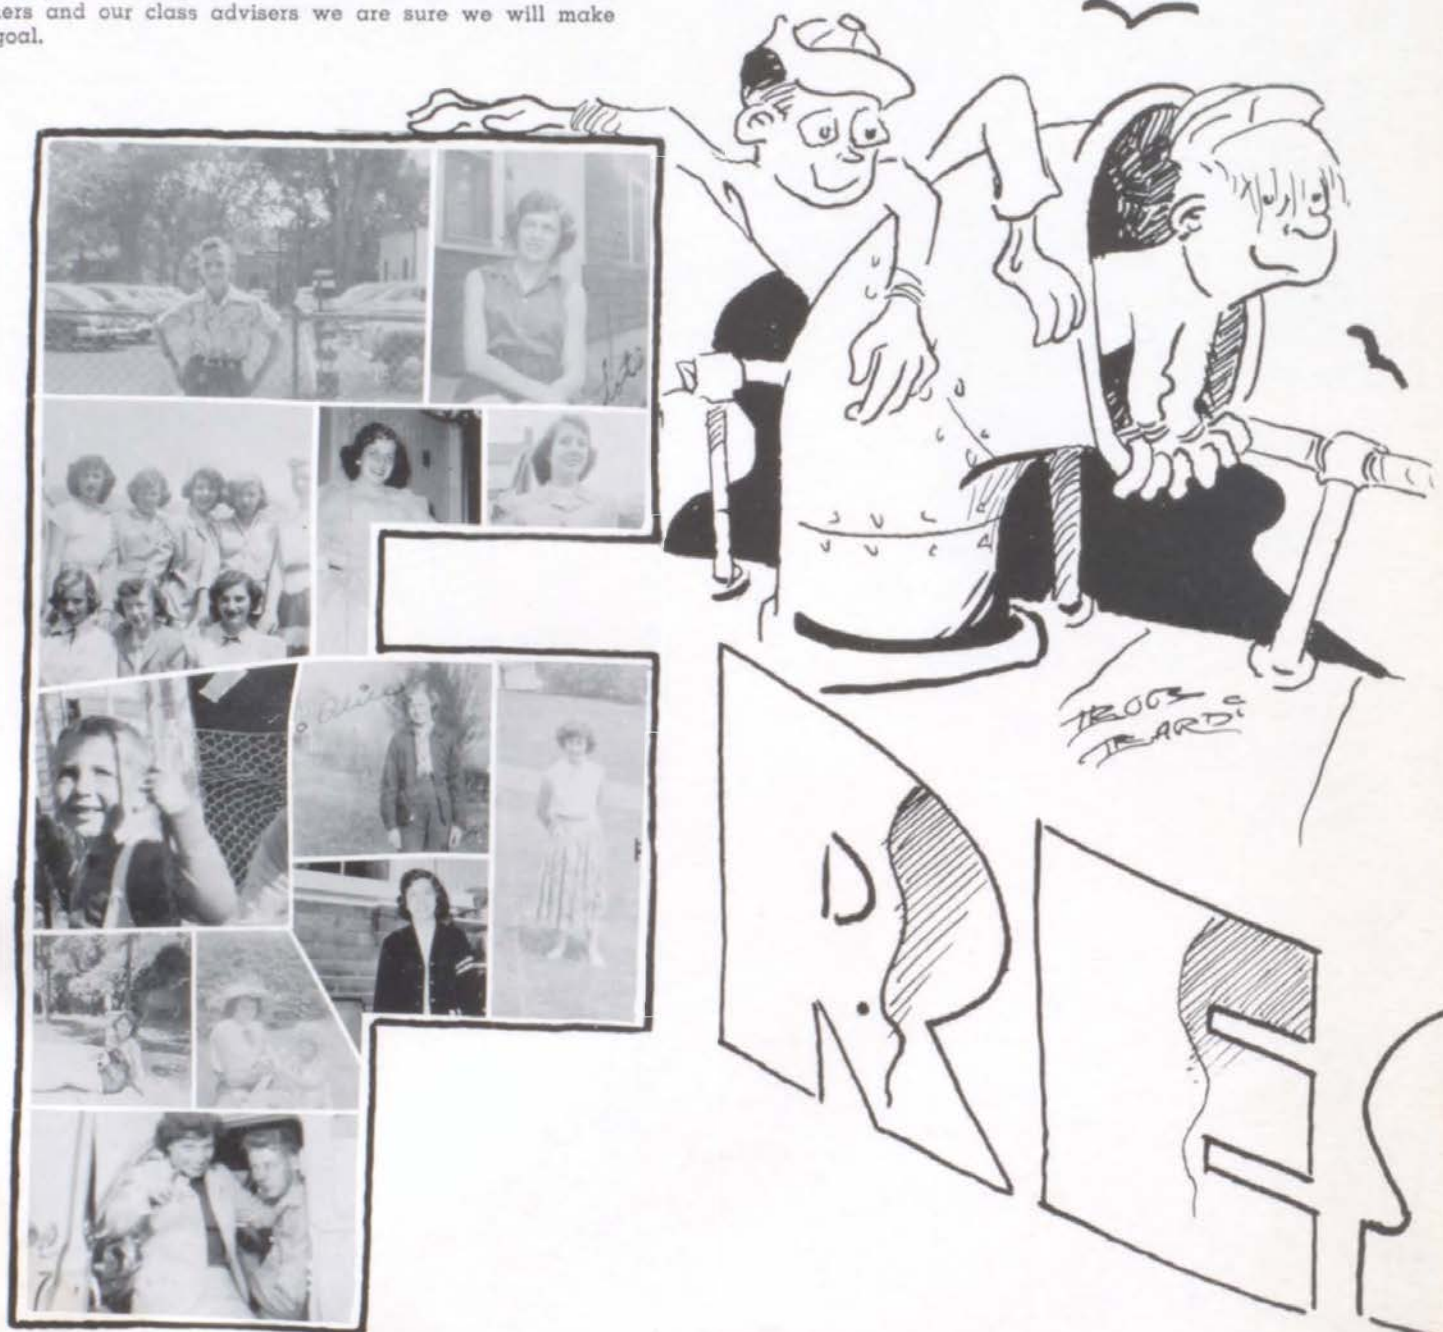

In June of 1952 we had elected Lyn Carlin as president, Jerry Buermann vice-president and Alice Chamberlain secretary-treasurer.

In the fall our freshmen football team played long and hard. They won two games and lost three games. Our last game was very exciting because we lost it by only one point. The freshmen are very proud of John Pearson and Henry Tanke who made varsity football and we are sure that there are other boys in our class who will play varsity next year. Some of our freshmen boys also played soccer. The basketball team has been fairly successful. The girls are also taking part in athletics such as basketball and bowling.

The members of our class are participating in various activities such as Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y, Dramatic Club, Shadows and the White Hornet.

Some of our subjects this year are entirely different, especially Latin. The A's and B's just seem to wander in the other direction.

The freshmen class is looking forward to a very successful four years in High School. With all of our wonderful teachers and our class advisers we are sure we will make our goal.

SENIORS

Shadows Staff

Early in the year the Shadows staff began their annual work of piecing together the yearbook. As usual the staff worked industriously and conscientiously in their valiant effort to make the yearbook of 1953 truly representative of the students of V.H.S.

The staff under the capable guidance of Mr. Dimmers heaved a sigh of relief as the series of deadlines finally came to an end and V.H.S. may chalk up another job well done.

First row: Miller, Jerbasi, Laford, Bardi, Mascuch, Jennings, Gray, Chamberlain, Coates. Second row: C. Rademacher, Trimmer, Kusenbergl, L. Dartnell, Curtis, Sutton, T. Windolf, Hoaglund, J. Miller, Winner, C. Towne, Dodge, B. Hauck, Gifford, Herr, Coe, Apple, B. Hauck, Dougherty. Third row: P. Connolly, M. Miller, Boltz, Barney, Churchill, Baker, N. Rademacher, Varian, J. Connolly, Coad, Lindow, J. Watson, Palmer, Gurney, Lissner, Urban, Gifol, Bartley. Fourth row: P. Marx, Hella, Blose, Rowell, Kenworthy, Rambo, Nelson, Lane, K. Fernald, J. Dartnell, Eaton, Sager, M. De Francisco, A. DiTrani, Hayden, Carroll, Grant, McLaughlin, Harrison. Fifth row: Mr. Dimmers, Lipkin, R. Opdyke, Greene, Nann, Potter, J. Smith, Charman, White, G. Brown, Kott, Hochheiser.

White Hornet

Ten issues—what an order to fill between September and June! That meant an issue every three weeks!—How could it ever be done? SIMPLE—just meet all the deadlines—THAT'S ALL!!

Well—the staff did it! By hook or by crook the four pages were filled, rushed to the printers, proof read and finally received by the students.

Many headaches plus a barrel of laughs are left not too willingly to next year's staff.

First row: J. Miller, Schermerhorn, Lissner, Bartley, McGinn, Charman, F. Fernald, Tompson, Boltz, Lane, J. Dartnell, Gifford, K. Fernald, Gifol, Sager, Kott, D. Jerbasi, Nann, Grant, Carroll, C. Towne. Second row: G. Hanley, N. Edelhauser, D. Walschied, Bush, Hauffer, Johnson, N. Nelson, Rambo, Hectus, Porter, Abbey, Baldwin, Dodge, Palmer, Apple, B. Hauck, Herr, Novack, Coe, Haggbloom, Dougherty, C. Towne, Dittmar. Third row: Hoagland, Clark, Dean, Allhusen, Sherman, Blose, P. Brown, Kenworthy, Coad, Held,

Student Council

Front: Hoover, B. Cartabona, L. Dartnell, Gifford, Apple, Steen, McGinn. Back: Peterson, K. Fernald, Raithel, Brown, Munn, J. Dartnell, J. Chamberlin, McKinley, Schermerhorn.

The Student Council under the leadership of Bob Cartabona, Rex Peterson and Lynn Dartnell met every other Wednesday at 12:20 in room 23. The council is made up of the homerooms and the heads of all the various committees.

In the Council meetings the problems of the school are ironed out. The members discuss school problems and give their ideas on how to improve the school. These suggestions are then taken by the president and acted upon to correct any problem in question.

Front: Peterson, B. Cartabona, Dartnell. Center: Voss, Wolff, Sutton, Coe, McLaughlin, Weldon, McKinley, J. Jerbasi, G. Brown. Back: Charman, J. Smith, Denton, Bergstrom, Lytle, Leach, Farnsworth, Pearson.

Student Court

Front: Davenport, Fulton, D. Thompson, Charman, K. Fernald, Palm, DeVito. Center: Beck, Congleton, Hoover, Shuttleworth, Rowell, Gifford, Price, McKinley, Skrzypek. Back: Moore, Potter, Williams, Meeker, R. Miller,

Operating under an entirely different system for the first time in seven years the Court has achieved better student cooperation and therefore more has been accomplished this year. Another innovation is that several Freshmen have attended each Court meeting as part of the present program.

The Court feels that its success depends upon the student body's interest and helpful contribution. Thus the Court extends its thanks to the student body for making this year a successful one.

Traffic Patrol

The Traffic patrol is the oldest student organization in the school. Other than the direction of traffic, the patrol is composed of two other sections, the fire drill committee and the assembly committee. The main purpose of this patrol is to keep traffic running smoothly throughout the day and to conduct orderly fire drills.

Boys' Locker Patrol

The Locker patrol, like any other patrol, is in existence to keep order and to keep things running smoothly.

The three most important things a patrol member does is to see that there isn't any eating, fooling around, or noise in the locker room.

Back: J. Connolly, Barry, Kingham, Denton, D. Heyer, McKinley, Kiefer. Center: Hoover.

Girls' Locker Patrol

The Locker patrol is one of the important organizations of V. H. S. Without it we would find much disorder in the locker room. Its main purpose is to obtain notes from anyone entering the locker room, preventing unnecessary actions and excess noise.

Concessions Committee

The Concessions Committee, which was instituted at Verona last year, played a very important part in the Fall sports program. The members of the committee derived much enjoyment from serving the fans and by adding to the funds of the Student Council. The committee feels that it has had a very successful year.

Hall Patrol

This year the Hall patrol evolved a new lunch schedule with the purpose of having students finish lunch before sixth period. The new arrangement was satisfactory, and the seven members, who were on duty from 11:45 to 1:00 kept students from loitering and talking in the halls.

Cafeteria Committee

The Cafeteria patrol was set up for the purpose of maintaining quiet, as well as order, in the cafeteria during both lunch periods. Pupils that can't abide by the few simple rules are sent to Student Court. The Cafeteria patrol, like the Traffic patrol and Hall patrol, consists of voluntary members.

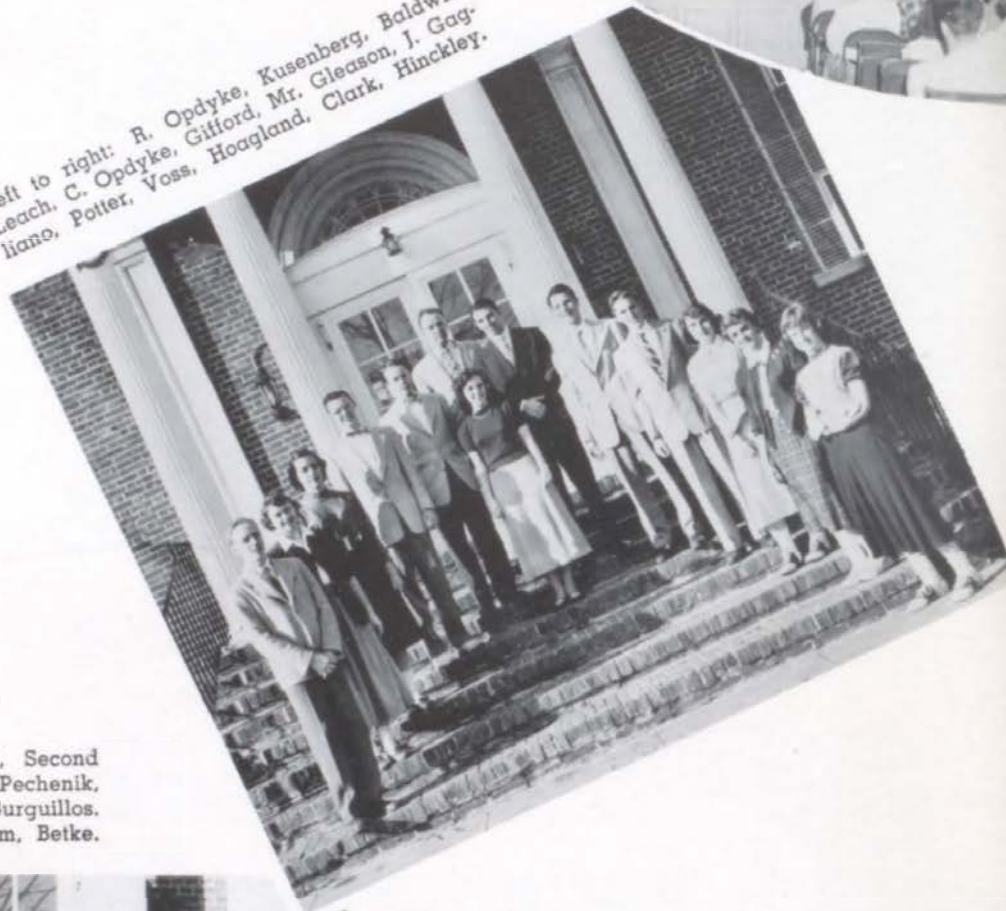

The patrol has appreciated the cooperation that it has received so far, and hopes it will continue.

Assembly Committee

This year, under the able guidance of Mr. Gleason, the Assembly Committee did a great job in leading the students in the opening exercises and helping to make our assemblies successful. Each member was very conscientious in seeing that the assembly of which they were in charge went along very smoothly.

Hi-Y

This year the members of the Verona Hi-Y have participated in many interesting and varied activities. In addition to taking part in a basketball tournament and sending boys to Hi-Y conventions at Atlantic City and Trenton, we had numerous educational speakers and films.

We owe a great deal of gratitude to Mr. Burguillos, our adviser, and Bob Raithel, our president.

National Honor Society

The Verona Chapter of the National Honor Society is a school organization which is designed to merit those who have ranked high among their classmates in the field of leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

Miss Shockney, Mr. Dimmers, and Mr. Gleason are the faculty advisors of this organization. The Society renders any services possible to its school and community.

Front: D. Jerbasi, C. Opdyke, Rowell, Schermerhorn.
Center: Lane, K. Fernald, Gifford, J. Dartnell.
Back: Miss Shockney, Charman, Stearns, Nann, Kott, Gagliano, White, Rathel, Thompson, D. Munn, Mr. Reidenbaugh.

Tri-Hi-Y

As a member of the National Tri-Hi-Y, the Verona Chapter has existed for three years. It has accomplished many things this year such as cookie sales and a dance. Also members have attended conventions and camps in order to exchange ideas and broaden the circle of friends.

First row: Haufler, Kilbury, Haggblom, Dougherty, Hauck, Apple, Herr, Novack, Coe, Palmer, Adams, Turano, McGinn, Fernald, Lissner, Blose, Lane, Gifford, J. Dartnell, Jennings Edelhauser, Eaton, Bartley, McLaughlin. Second row: Bush, Allhusen, Sherman, Hogg, Towne, Goldweber, Sacks, Urban, Gurney, M. Smith, Sager, Schermerhorn, Hauck, Coad, Luzzi, Burns, Gianetti, Barresse, MacDonald, Newcomb, Marx, C. Towne, Citrano. Third row: N. Edelhauser, Hoagland, Sigrist, Payne, Steen, Carroll, Baldwin, Abbey, Goldberg, Hochheiser, Rademacher, Connolly, Hinckley, Connolly, Curtis, Barney, Churchill, L. Dartnell, Kenworthy, Rowell, Volckmar, Boltz, Trimmer. Fourth row: Clark, Rademacher, Palm, Porter, Gifol, Johnson, Weber, Hall, Dittmar, Dodge, Garrabrant, Hella, Held, Connolly, Grant, Harrison, P. Brown, Johnson, Windolf, Hanley. Fifth row: Hochheiser, Hayne, Burnett, Mr. Butterworth, Halsteader, Lipkin, R. Opdyke.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The members of the largest and one of the most busiest clubs started an active year by revising its constitution. The annual trip was made into New York to see "Wish You Were Here." Last but not least they combined their efforts with their director Mr. Butterworth and felt quite proud of themselves after their yearly production.

First row: Sager, Volckmar, Held, Kenworthy, Rowell, Johnson, Boltz, Blose, Rambo, Nelson, Lane, Fernald, J. Dartnell, Gifford, Hauck, McGinn, Schermerhorn, Churchill, Herr, Lissner, Gurney, L. Dartnell, Herrmann. Second row: Burns, Puleo, P. Brown, Leslie, Abbey, Baldwin, Towne, Blood, Gradowsky, Sutton, Windolf, Hoagland, Coad, Winner, Lindow, Carroll, Grant, McLaughlin, Harrison, Hella, M. Smith, Kilbury, Alesio. Third row: Hanley, Hautler, Hectus, Timmons, Furbeck, C. Smith, Wyble, Barsikow, Baker, Rademacher, Varian, Connolly, Rademacher, Rusconi, Goldberg, Porter, Marchetti, Marin, Cox, Morton, Alexander. Fourth row: G. Johnson, Bush, MacDonald, Payne, Newcomb, Karcher, Laramy, Brower, Skrzypek, Marx, Breithut, C. Towne, Farrar, Hordynsky, Dean, Walschied, Dalton, Lytle, Hanley, Olsen, Sigrist, Bollinger, Burke, Marx. Fifth row: Clark, Palm, Edelhauser, Allhusen, Sherman, Faiss, Rider, Lentz, Citrano, Weber, Intile, Dunn, Valentine, Moritz, Cutrone, Riccardi, Le Vecchi, Lawson, Bartolo, Fahr, Donatell, Albanese, Schnetter, Johnson, Scriven, Connolly. Sixth row: Fulton, Hogg, Kurmes, Hinckley, Garrabrant, Corell, Chamberlin, Delapenha, Rush, Kearney, Toltesy, Nelson, Simpson, Lavallo, Messinger, Yates, Wright, Krohn Hochheiser, De Maio, Leoni, Ware, Kaptein, Percevault, Luzzi. Seventh row: Mrs. Lenardson, Denton, Love, Koch, Thompson, Wolff, Betke, Meeker, Lambert, Tancke, Griffith, Rickert, Goeller, Opdyke, Lytle.

The Choral department of the Verona High School has had a year full of activity. On December 14th the combined choral groups of the school gave a Christmas concert with the Verona Choral Society at the F. N. Brown auditorium. The same week the groups gave programs for the Junior and Senior High Assemblies.

During the month of February, twenty-four members of our various singing groups took part in the Operatic Festival at Westfield, New Jersey, singing with a massed chorus of three hundred singers.

May 1st was selected as the date of the Spring Choral Concert.

GLEE CLUB

THOMAS

Since its founding in the Spring of 1951, the Front Page Club has been writing local news for the Verona Cedar Grove Times. With the aid of its sponsors, Miss Shockney and Mr. Reidenbaugh, the club's aim is better technique in all types of newspaper writing.

Front Page Club

This year the Junior Red Cross Club was directed under Cary Lou Apple and Miss Spaide, the adviser.

This club has done numerous things this year. Some members have gone to the chapter house in Caldwell to help out the Red Cross members with the Blood Bank, and some have collected money for the annual drive.

Red Cross

Audio Visual Committee

The Audio Visual Committee under Mr. Burguillos has tried its best to serve the school in every way possible. Sometimes due to film breaks and other mishaps the committee has been a bit late. The committee, however, would like to thank Mr. Burguillos for the advice and assistance he gave both old and new members.

Bulletin Board Committee

The Bulletin Board Committee has had a great deal of fun this year keeping the halls interesting with different displays. Under the leadership of Phyllis Brown, chairman, and Miss Deal, adviser, the committee was always thinking of better ideas to make the bulletin boards throughout the school more interesting to the students of V. H. S.

Again Mr. Litwhiler has very capably directed the band through a successful year.

This year the band was able to display their new uniforms at all the football games. They worked out new and different half-time routines and were commended for their originality.

A dance was put on for the purpose of making money for awards, and during the remainder of the year they worked hard in rehearsals preparing for their annual spring concert.

Under the skillful leadership of Edmund Schill, the orchestra succeeded once again in having a successful year.

The orchestra could always be counted upon to play in assembly programs, concerts, and other activities requiring their services.

One of the more enjoyable electives, the orchestra, meets only one period a week to accomplish the heavy schedule it has planned, but hard work and fun go together and delightful memories will always be remembered by former members.

MAL WHITE

AL SKRYZPEK

In pre-season forecasts, little was expected of Verona's eleven, due to heavy losses incurred through graduation. However, under the superb leadership of co-captains George Hoover and Bob Cartabona, the teams, displaying overpowering drive and determination, went on to win eight of nine games and cop the Suburban Conference crown.

Much of the credit for the showing of the team can be attributed to the excellent coaching of "Dutch" Wermuth, Pierson Fellows, and Jerry DeStefano. Other factors were the hard and elusive ball toting of Cartabona, Morton and Brown; the fierce blocking of the forward wall headed by Dobson, White, Peterson, Hoover and Denton; the deadly accuracy of Rod Smith's passing coupled with the sensational receiving of end Bob Charman; and finally the jarring tackling of Tompson, Heyer, Skrzypek, DeLucca, and Richardson.

The climax of the season was the hard-earned Thanksgiving Day triumph over arch-rival Caldwell to gain undisputed possession of the conference title. Two second-half touchdowns enabled Verona to emerge with a spotless record in conference play.

Ten seniors, all of whom played regularly, will be missing from next year's cast. They are Cartabona, Hoover, Charman, Tompson, Heyer, Dobson, White, Brown, Skrzypek, and Lewis. The vast rebuilding job will fall on co-captains-elect Rod Smith and Rex Peterson, Jim Morton, Charlie Richardson, John Smith, Bob Shuttleworth, Dan Denton, and Jerry DeLucca.

SOCCER

Under the tutelage of its veteran mentor Doc Goeltz for the 25th year, the soccer team compiled a record of seven wins, four losses and three ties. Sporting a 5-1-1 record at the season's halfway point, the team faltered slightly, finally losing to Chatham and ending all hopes for a state championship. However, the team, paced by Dean Vold and Charlie Opdyke with seven and six goals respectively, outscored its opponents 20-12.

Eleven seniors, co-captains Charlie Opdyke and Dan Jerbasi, Bob Raithel, Jim Chamberlin, Barry Nann, Dick Munn, Larry Kingham, Bruce Wolff, Fred Fernald, Joe Gagliano and Ed Chestnut wish captain-elect Harry Bergstrom and the 1953 squad a most successful season.

BASKETBALL

The nine won, eight lost record posted by Skipper Smith's cage squad does not give a true picture of the '52-'53 season. This is because it was a hot and cold team, playing exceptionally well for a few games and then slipping for a few. Many games were close and a reversal of the breaks could have changed the decisions. However, a 46-44 triumph over Glen Ridge assured a bid to the state tournament.

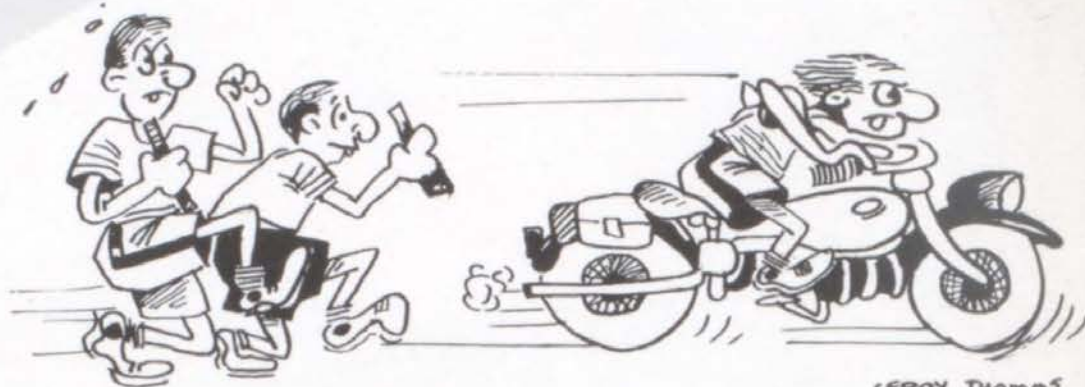

George Hoover, the team's captain and playmaker, Gordon Brown, high scorer, Bob Charman, Gerry Lytle, George Fisher, Dick Munn and Joe Gagliano will be lost through graduation. Nevertheless, with such performers as Rod Smith, Jim Morton and Bob Shuttleworth returning, a successful season is anticipated next year.

This year Nelson Smith's thinclads will be out to regain the Suburban Conference championship which they lost last season and to hold the state title which they have possessed for a number of years.

Co-captains Bob McKinley and Jim Morton will compete in the mile, high jump, low hurdles, dashes, and broad jump. Andy Walgemuth will work on his specialty, the high jump. Eric Thorpe will be back for the javelin, while Rex Peterson will run the 440. Others looked to for valuable contributions are Helmar Pearson, LeRoy Roemer, Oscar Lindstrom, Dick Munn, Jim Chamberlin, Heinz Kuhne and Dan Denton.

BASEBALL

The nucleus of this year's baseball team will consist of six returning lettermen, co-captains George Hoover and Joe Gagliano, Dan Jerbasi, Gordon Brown, George Fisher and Rod Smith. Others expected to fill in remaining positions on coach Woody Litwhiler's nine are Bob Charman, Bob Cartabona, Jim Barry, Stan Reber and Dick Williams. The latter two are from Jerry DeStefano's Junior Varsity ranks.

Pitching is the big question mark this season. If Jerbasi and Fisher can come through with some more good performances the record should be pretty good. On the receiving end of the battery one is likely to find Bob Charman. Comprising the infield will be George Hoover, Jim Barry, Stan Reber, Joe Gagliano and Rod Smith. The outfield will show Gordon Brown, Bob Cartabona and Dick Williams.

BOWLING TEAM

The bowling team, again coached by Luther Falconer, was captained by seniors Lee Dodd and Bob Raithel. Others who contributed were Harvey Janoff, Bob Tebo, Al Kiefer, Bob Cresbaugh, and George Jacobus. Verona's entry finished fifth in the North Jersey Interscholastic Bowling League.

GOLF TEAM

Coach Doc Goeltz has high hopes for improvement on the record of last year's golf team which finished second in the Suburban Conference race. The squad will be selected from five seniors, Larry Kingham, captain, Jim Wade, Barry Nann, Bruce Wolff, Don Coates and Ron De Cheser, Dan O'Rawe, and Don Voss.

TENNIS TEAM

This year the tennis squad has hopes of continuing its climb to prominence in Suburban Conference tennis circles. Led by captain Steve Kott and Bob Raithel, Mr. "C's" netsters expect to better their 4-6 record of last year. Lettermen who will lend their valuable experience are Charlie Opdyke, Fred Fernald, Bruce Potter and Elber Stearns. Additional help is expected from newcomers George Betke and Jimmy Stewart.

LYNNE GARRABRANT

(Co-Captains)

GLADYS KUSENBERG

Cheerleaders

Two squads comprised the cheerleading forces, one for the football and soccer games and one for the basketball contests. Captaining the former squad which included Jean Sager, Janet Hinckley, Libby Coe, Sandra Barney, Nancy Edelhauser, Polly Ruggerio, Alice Kaczmark and substitute Bonny Bush, was Gladys Kusenberg. Lynne Garrabrant was captain of the basketball cheerleaders who were Lynn Dartnell, Barbara Ingold and Anne Curtis. Mrs. Harms, the adviser, deserves much credit for her aid.

FORE

June 20, 1965. A man approaches the gang-plank of the S. S. Laford, named after the famous sea captain, Don Laford. Off to the left the man notices a small crowd and upon further examination finds the renowned reporter, Rosemary Lane, interviewing the well-known business tycoon, Mr. Daniel Jerbasi.

While standing at the rail a woman brushes past him garbed in the newest McGinn creation. His attention is again drawn to the waving crowd below, where a group of teen-age fans are reluctantly saying goodbye to their favorite crooner, Fred Fernald.

During the first day at sea, Captain Elber Stearns becomes seasick, and the only available physician, Lynne Garrabrant horse specialist, and her nurse, Janet Hinckley, succeed in curing his illness.

He arrives in Miami just in time to see Jean Sager capture the women's swimming title. That evening he takes in the show at the Kohler Klub, which features the Raithel Rockettes, Nancy Johnson, Arlene Hermann, and Pat Walscheid, torch singer, Nancy Trimmer, and the singing head waiter, "Bubbles" Brown.

The next morning his ship sails for New Orleans and the Mardi Gras where Dick Munn and Elaine Schermerhorn are reigning as king and queen of the festival attended by Eleanor Eaton, Alberta Gray, and Ruth Hectus. The crazy rhythm of "Jazzy Chazzy" Opdyke, "Gone" Don Coates, and Gerry "Cool Cat" Carlson lures him to Basin Street. Mexico City is the next stop on the journey. Ex-Mayor O'Heyer takes his leave closely shadowed by G. Oliver Hoover of the F.B.I. The Mascuch Movie Company, starring Ev Hella and Margie Fitzpatrick with Jackie Gifol, choreographer, and Bob Bardi, scenic director, disembarks to make an on-location picture.

During the voyage through the Panama Canal to Hawaii, the passengers are entertained by Bobbie Jennings and her trained horses, assisted by Bonnie Held and Mary De. Marilyn Hogg shows movies of her recent African safari. On T.V. he sees the two famous red-heads in "The Red Fisher Show" which follows "I Love Ditimar". While strolling around the deck he picks up the latest copy of "Variety" and sees that the fabulous trio, Betty Hayden, Moe Miller, and Carol Steen has replaced the Marx Brothers in their act. Continuing his stroll, he makes the acquaintance of Jim Chamberlin and Don Fulton, the jet pilots who broke the light barrier. Attending the millionaires' convention in the ship's lounge, were Richard Melbourne, Wyoming tycoon, Larry Kingham, Dairy Maid magnate, Gay Griffith, automobile multimillionaire and Lee Dodd, the Bowling Alley King. He also met Jimmy Barry, brilliant outfielder for the New York Yankees.

The next morning the ship sails into Honolulu Harbor. Walking along the beach, he spies hulu girls, Nancy Nelson, Marcia Leslie, and Grace Hogan, who are able students of the Pussy Kott Dance Studio. As the ship steams away, Dave Ackerman, Bob Mabey, Jerry Manson, "Vinegar Ben" Wade, members of Beachcombers' Local 942, wave "aloha".

At Singapore he drops in on Johnnie Lim, the world-famed veterinarian. At the American Embassy he finds Martin, Marchetti, Weber, Bratsch, and Kaptein engaged as confidential secretaries.

The next stop is to see Shah Charman, the Sheik of Araby, and his harem which includes his number one wife, Pat Gifford.
