VERONA HIGH SCHOOL

TIMES HAVE CHANGED.
ALL THE GOOD TIMES WE HAD
ARE GONE NOW.
PASSED THIS WAY
ONLY MEMORIES WILL REMAIN
TOMORROW.

Laura Nyro

Time has passed swiftly.
 We depart with a myriad of memories;
 Tears, joy, and much laughter.
 In a pocket of recollection
 Will be a subject of our gratitude;
 A man whom we wish to thank
 For his guidance understanding concern
 For his being
 A friend.

ANTHONY P. IUSO

DEDICATION

His caring quiet concern dedication to young people to an institution
a learning process
a sharing of knowledge deepened by years . . .
fulfillment of his belief in himself and our belief in him.

MANY LONG HOURS
DEVOTING THEIR TIME AND ENERGY
TO THE STUDENTS.
MOLDING US INTO YOUNG ADULTS
PREPARING US FOR

ACTIVITIES

Craig Lawrence reprimands someone in the back row of the library for not keeping close enough guard of the change machine.

Secretary Joan Oremland, President Craig Lawrence, and Vice-President Kevin Shaw are the officers of the 1968-1969 Action Student Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council has proved itself by initiating several new programs as well as continuing activities of previous years. President Craig Lawrence, Vice-President Kevin Shaw, Secretary Joan Oremland, and advisor Mr. Albert Weissbach began the year with the introduction of a change in the length of lunch periods, and the organization of an Auxiliary Student Council to help provide more communication between the Student Body and the Administration. Other activities included the coffee and bun hour in the mornings, the maintenance of the juke box, a dance-of-the-month, a talent show, a student exchange with Barringer High School, Student Council Conferences at Rutgers University and Millburn High School, and the presentation of scholarships to graduation seniors.

Ronnie McCoy and Donna Miller beam at the Shadows photographers as they collect money for the coffee sold during the "Coffee and Bun" hour sponsored by the Student Council.

Norm Liedtke and Sue Montsieur laugh as Fred Krupp, Mark Rogan, and Nick Hill Lament over the broken juke box.

HONOR SOCIETY

Composed of twenty-nine members from the top quarter of the Senior Class, the Verona Chapter of the National Honor Society receives members elected by the faculty in June and December. Candidates are judged on service to the school, leadership, character, and scholarship. Under the direction of Miss Mary Alice Shockney, advisor, and Willie Trimmer, President, the Honor Society performed such services as selling the New York Times to students in the fall, maintaining the cafeteria bulletin board, providing a tutoring service for students, and acting as ushers at Commencement, Go to School Night, and at the Senior Awards Assembly. At the end of the year, the Verona Chapter presents two scholarships to deserving seniors.

Shadows Co-Editors: Nance Struhl and Russell Scott

Shadows staff members wonder about some funny (?) captions.

"But Russ, the yearbook is two months behind schedule!" exclaims Mr. K.

"What's a SHADOWS?" asks Linda of Russ as Bob tries to destroy some bad pictures.

Nance tries to salvage some pictures before staff members Ken and Jim walk off with them.

SHADOWS

Shadows '69 almost didn't make it. However, through the efforts of Mr. Richard Kleissler, advisor; Russell Scott, Editor-in-Chief; Nancy Struhl, Co-Editor; and many major emergency meetings in people's basements, this year's yearbook finally went to press. The staff began early in September and got off to a rousing start with their subscription drive. As the year progressed, the dilligent working members of the staff overcame such obstacles as financial difficulties, missing pictures, lost write-ups, missing editors, and broken typewriters. The editors are extremely proud of being the first yearbook squad in 15 years to meet two out of 4 deadlines on time. We feel that "Shadows '69" reflects the many hours of hard work that were put into bringing this publication to you.

John Tesser explains the format of the editorial page as his staff members listen intently.

FAIRVIEWER

Despite minor difficulties like April Fool's issue coming April 2, the "ninth best paper in the state" continued on its way winning Awards at Columbia and Caldwell College Journalism Conventions. Co-edited by Ellen Straus and Elisa Weitz, and co-advised by Mr. Velcamp and Miss Holland, with a staff of varying size, The Fairviewer brought news, sports, editorial comments, feature stories, and readable bookcovers to the VHS student.

"Maybe it is funny" think Ted Lowenthal and Joan Oremland about an article for The Fairviewer.

Fairviewer staff members Matt Cahen, Laura Threlkeld, Bob Janett, Jean Vadeboncouer, Dan Potts, and Goia Morongel chat before the Fairviewer meeting comes to order.

Bob Janet, Alan Pockriss, and Matt Cohen ponder the question, "Should this picture go in the next issue of the 'Fairviewer'?"

Co-editors-in-chief of the best newspaper in VHS are Ellen Straus and Elissa Weitz.

Miss Harmon and Sue Mondabaugh stoop to the level of some of the material submitted to "Tapestry."

TAPESTRY

Tapestry, the Verona High School Literary Magazine, is an outlet for the serious artistic and writing expression of the student body. Headed by Vivian Lewis and Sarah Melidosian, and advisor Nancy Harmon, the publication has grown in the field of artwork and original compositions, poems and essays. Each piece of literature and art must be judged and approved by the Literary Board before being printed in Tapestry.

"Tapestry's" Editors: Vivian Lewis and Sarah Melidosian

Andee Hahn, and her smiling flock of reporters take a break from writing to pose for their yearbook picture.

LATIN CLUB

"Latin lives today," insist the twenty members of the Latin Club, under the direction of Mr. Richard Kleissler. To prove the point, President Ricki Cohen and co-officers David Feinstein, Ben Lo-Cicero, and Mary Rose plan crossword puzzle games, word derivations, and stories about Roman life for their meetings. A Roman Banquet with Latin entertainment, food, and garb will climax the year.

Latin lovers of today include: (sitting) Ben Lo Cicero, Ricki Cohn, Mary Rose, Dave Feinstein, (standing) Alan Pockriss, Janis Anderson, Barbie Kastner, Andee Hahn, Barbara Kapnik, Stella Tsai, and Ed Trimmer.

French Club officers are Frank Charleton, President; James La Baugh, Secretary; Joyce Rice, Chairman of Program; Andy Hahn, Vice-President; and Sandy Burns, Treasurer.

FRONT PAGE CLUB

"All the news that's fit to print" is published weekly in the Verona-Cedar Grove Times. The club behind this news is the Front Page Club. Topics are handed out by the Editor Andee Hahn and faculty advisor Mrs. Natalie O'Reilly each week. Staff members report on such events as clubs, assemblies, Student Council Meetings and various activities at VHS for the interested residents of the community.

FRENCH CLUB

Together with the traditional "Marseilles" at the Societe meeting, the traditional French plays, the traditional French cookies, and the traditional French, Hawaiian Punch, are the main attractions at the Societe Français gatherings.

With Mme. Adams as moderator of this enthusiastic and surprisingly large club of 100; La Societe Français has plans for this year, which include; a concert by a leading, popular, French singer and an entire day set aside for the purpose of visiting art museums and viewing original French paintings.

The officers, and true Frenchmen, are: Frank Carleton, President; Andy Hahn, Vice President; James LaBaugh, Secretary; Sandy Burns, Treasurer; Joyce Rice, Chairman of Program.

Meridians prepare clothing for Appalachian clothing drive.

Meridian Ricki Cohn prepares to ship Jasmine Yousoufian off to Appalachia.

MERIDIANS

This purposeful organization has been working diligently at bettering human relations on a cosmic as well as a local level. Meridians presents the opportunity for the student to give of himself without material benefit through their various annual projects and drives. These are: Have a Heart Day, Flower Power Day, Appalachian Bundle Days, and tutoring. With Miss Fricke as the club's advisor, this year's officers are: as co-presidents, Kathy Smith and Dave Feinstein; Recording Secretary, Dale Linneman; Corresponding Secretary, Rhonda Johns, and as Treasurer, Daryl Ward.

Wendy Kreidt and Elaine Booker ask Miss Fricke about some future plans for the Meridians.

Julie Mau and her exchange student, Rosa, take time out to have their picture taken.

Members of VHS and students from the International Weekend watch the dance progress as they sit this one out.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

The doors opened to many foreign students this year at VHS. Rosa Maria Jiminez came for a ten-week exchange from Los Lagos, Chile. During her stay at VHS, Rosa lived with Julie Mau. Another event involving foreigners was held during a weekend in February when 20 students from South America joined the students of Mrs. Fagan's Spanish III (fles) class for 3 days of panel discussions, parties and other planned activities.

Debbie Congdon and Debbie Workman surround visitor from South American school as the International Weekend begins.

Students from South America air their views on problems of International Living.

ASSEMBLY LEADERS

Under the chairmanship of Janis Hersh and the direction of Mrs. Blauvelt, the Assembly Committee attempted to provide a proper atmosphere at assemblies by reading appropriate pieces of literature. They also introduced speakers and led the student body in the National Anthem, Flag Salute, and the Alma Mater. This year's program included presentations on music, art, and poetry, with talks on manners and drug addiction, as well as the traditional Thanksgiving and Christmas Assemblies.

Assembly leaders Bruce Cohn, Andee Hahn, Winthrop Cameron, Janis Hersh and Vivian Lewis pose for their yearbook picture.

Back from running errands for the Nurse are Cheerie Aids Jill Herman, Margie Meidling, and Jackie Lublang.

CHEERY AIDES

Under the supervision of Mrs. Geraldine Kaminsky, the Cherry Aids volunteered their services at Mountainside Hospital. The girls work two hours a week and after forty two hours of service, receive their caps during the Awards Assembly. Their services include: running errands for the nurses, feeding the patients, watering flowers, and playing with the children in the pediatrics ward.

FUTURE PHYSICIANS

The Future Physicians listen intently to Mr. Johnson as he tells them that the knee bone is connected to the thigh bone.

NURSES AIDES

It is the job of the Nurses Aids to assist the nurse in taking care of the hoards of students that besiege the Nurse's Office daily. Several students give up their free periods and perform several services as assisting in physical examinations, filling out charts, and keeping accurate records of the students who visit the Nurse during the day.

FUTURE NURSES

Under the direction of Mrs. Kaminsky, the Future Nurses Club meets regularly. The girls in the club are interested in careers in nursing and other medical professions. Activities planned by the Future Nurses include films and guest lecturers, also trips to local hospitals.

Future Nurses Carol Finkelstein, Judy Lieberman, Barbara Nathanson, Carol Galender, and Wendy Allen pose for their yearbook picture.

To raise money for the West Essex Chapter of the Red Cross and perform services for the community are the goals of the Red Cross Club under the chairmanship of Linda Collani. With the help of Mrs. Harriet Holloway the group conducted an enrollment drive and volunteered at Red Cross Headquarters, nursing homes, and hospitals.

Cast members Craig Slatin, Gary Rochette, Leslie Hoders, JoAnne Meyer, Elisa Weitz, and Scott Friedland of the student-directed play "The Ugly Duckling" look pretty for their picture.

DRAMATICS CLUB

This year's Dramatics Club activities were somewhat limited due to the lack of a faculty director. The club did, however, manage to produce a student-directed version of A.A. Milne's "The Ugly Duckling" which was presented on Friday, January 10 to about 200 students, teachers, and parents. The club also participated in the Fine Arts Festival by giving dramatic readings. This year's adviser was Miss Glucksman; President, Janis Hersh; Vice-President, Vivian Lewis; Recording Secretary, Hetty Kadison; Corresponding Secretary, Ingrid Crapps.

Elisa Weitz prepares for big role in "The Ugly Duckling."

In a concerted effort, Joe Soboti and Jimmy Jacobs work to produce and direct "The Ugly Duckling." Here they wait for cast members to begin rehearsal.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club made a big comeback this year under the organization of the Student Council and chairman Mona Gould. This club sits together at football and basketball games to aid the cheerleaders in promoting school spirit. The members also make posters publicizing the upcoming games and charter buses for away games.

The Pep Club begins to cheer the Hillbillies to another victory as the rest of the spectators join in.

David Dixon, Darryl Fox, Barbara Loomis, Jane Alvard, Sue Linde and Dennis Coffee present Mark Hassert with another idea as their picture is taken.

V.T.R.C.

The Verona Teen Recreation Committee has performed many services for the students of VHS. In addition to organizing many dances at the school and pool parties in the summer, the V.T.R.C., under the leadership of President Mark Hassert and the Verona Recreation Department, has also arranged a Christmas Carol Hayride, and the presentation of movies for the students.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

In the darkrooms, a little-known corner of VHS, the ten members of the Photography Club learn the techniques of printing, enlarging, and good composition. Under the leadership of Robert Janett and Mr. Thomas Nedrow, the group is also planning to present a photography show.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB: Robert Janett, Jerry Youst, Bob Griffiths, Art Acquaviva, Dave Dixon, Bill DeWitt.

GREENHOUSE CLUB

That little room attached to the biology room is the school greenhouse. Members of the Greenhouse Club meet regularly to set up schedules for the upkeep of the plants and trees in and around the halls of VHS. Mrs. Graef is the faculty advisor.

SITTING: Ben LoCicero, Jr., Winnie Cameron. STANDING: Art Acquaviva, Robert Brau, Steve Flair, Ed Kowalski.

LIGHTING CLUB AND STAGE CREW

Assemblies, performances, and other community functions are seen and heard through the efforts of the Lighting Squad and Stage Crew. Co-chairmen Mark Hassert and Barry Anspach, with the help of Mr. Albert H. Loesch, advisor, have taught the members of the crew to handle highly specialized pieces of equipment and to create the various special effects that are used in the functions of the school.

AUDIO-VISUAL AIDS

Everyone in Verona High comes in contact with the Audio-Visual Squad at some time. The squad is responsible for all projectors, record players, tape recorders and tapes, and the handling and ordering of films. One of the more unusual functions of the squad is taping assemblies as a record of these events. Some member of the squad is always on the alert to aid the faculty with information or equipment. John Kratsios, the general chairman, and Mr. Loesch, the faculty advisor, keep the squad on the go.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club at VHS has had a successful, and challenging year. Under the direction of Mr. Orlando, they have met students from many different high schools, public and parochial and engaged them in chess matches.

BACK ROW: Dale McKinley, Mike Mancini, Al Makovky. FRONT ROW: Dennis Makovsky, Barry Cohen, Pete Wannemacher, Adrienne Roy.

F.T.A.

The F.T.A. provides its members with an opportunity to explore teaching as a career. Meetings are sometimes highlighted with lectures by guest speakers concerning specialized fields. This year the F.T.A. sponsored a service project where table favors were made for people at Overbrook for Christmas. The F.T.A. has the responsibility of showing parents around the school at election time. President Bob Brau, Vice-President Pat Wilde, Secretary Wendy Kriedt.

MODEL U.N.

The United Nations was created for the purpose of bringing peace to the world through international understanding. Verona High School's chapter of the Model U. N. helps the United Nations achieve its purposes by acquainting V.H.S. students with the works of the organization. This year the club, under the direction of Larry Levine as president and Mr. Iatesta as advisor, sent delegates to both the 12th East Coast Model U. N. and the sixth North American Invitational Model United Nations. Essays, speeches and various tests were used to select the students who would be most effective as delegates from various nations to the U. N.

CAMELBACK CAPER CLUB

The CCC was organized one clear, crisp morning in January. Organized by Kenny Jacobsen, the 16 members drove off into the wilds of Pennsylvania for a skiing holiday. Upon returning, 13 of the members were greeted with early morning detention for up to 16 days. The other 3 members of this daring and adventurous club have yet to be caught. Keep trying Mr. Weissbach. Future activities included a Monday shore trip which was cancelled due to inclement weather. The club officers, President John Kratsios, and Vice-president Bruce Comiskey.

STOCK CLUB

Under the supervision of Mrs. Natalie O'Reilly, advisor; Larry Levine, President; Dick Barrett, Vice-President; and Mario Brossi, Treasurer; the Stock Club helps students acquire information about The thirty members visited the New York the Stock Market by actually investing. Stock Exchange and heard talks on stocks and investing.

KNEELING: Elaine Booker, Sue Fischer. FIRST ROW: Mona Gould, Hildy Dudas, Jill Herman. SECOND ROW: Cathy Burguillos, Pam Mascio, Holly Grim, Janet Steel.

TRAFFIC PATROL

The Traffic Patrol is a service organization composed of senior girls with Holly Grim as chairman and Mr. Axel Johnson as advisor. These girls can usually be seen directing traffic in the crowded halls, during fire drills, or guiding students to assigned seats at assemblies.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

From the time the VHS student wanders into the library in the morning to the time he ambles out in the afternoon at least one of the eleven members of the Library Assistants is there to assist him.

Processing and shelving books, working at the circulation desk, and other routine tasks are among the duties of a library assistant, designed to aid the student and also our librarian Mrs. Moore run an efficient and orderly library. President of this worthwhile service organization is Kathy Wolfe.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS: Daryl Fox, Sue Tobías, Robin Hayworth, Jackie Lublang, Andee Hahn, Debbie Kastner, Julie Nathanson.

LOST AND FOUND — LEFT TO RIGHT: Patty Wilde, Elaine Booker, Cathy Burguillos.

LOST AND FOUND

After losing his favorite pair of gym shorts, or only raincoat, the V. H. S. student, depressed, downtrodden and with nowhere to turn, always has the Lost and Found for comfort.

The purpose of this service organization is to collect and make available to the school all the lost and misplaced articles and books that are brought to its attention. This year's officers are Cathy Burguillos, President; Elaine Booker, Vice President; Patricia Wilde, Vice President.

D.E.C.A.

Distributive Education Clubs of America, otherwise known as DECA, is a club set up for the members of the Distributive Education program. This club gives the students a chance to participate in community services while being in an extra-curricular activity. Setting window displays in the halls of VHS and the annual DECA car wash are two activities of the club of which John Jacobus is the president.

D.E.C.A. OFFICERS: John Jacobus, President; Marlene DiMaio, Secretary; Carolyn Ferraiolo, Vice-President; Dianne Barnes, Treasurer.

FRONT ROW: Mark Holmes, Robin Klehr, Mike Santoro, Fred Jenny, Eric Jeffreys. BACK ROW: Ted Lowenthal, Sandy Burns, Jane Alvord, John Tesser, Craig Slatin.

The Student Advisory Council was first formed this year by John Tesser. This council is similar to the Faculty Advisory Council headed by Mr. Willard. The Student Council met independently with selected members of the faculty on such matters as revising the dress code. The main purposes of this council is to be better the inter-relationships between faculty and students and to provide a medium for change.

STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

SKI CLUB

The active members of the Ski Club challenged the Slopes of Hunter Mountain and Bellayre on two of their many ski trips this year. Lead by Barry Anspach, Pepper Redd, and David Stetson and advisor Joseph Sabaday, the 158 members of the club look forward to days of snow-plowing, going on lifts and just falling in the snow.

FRONT ROW: Mary Rose, Lynn Bielecke, Gioia Morongell, Valerie Mascia, Julie Nathanson, Stella Tsai, Janis Trimmer, Robin Hayworth. THIRD ROW: Connie DeMiro, Bibsy Raff, Judy Jacobus, Sue Fischer, Marcia Wannemacher, Roberta Crosby, Elissa Weitz, Mary Wiren, Elaine Booker.

G.L.O.

The Girl's Leadership Organization is designed to assist the physical education teachers in gym classes by being referees, score keepers, time keepers, and spotters in tumbling. Besides aiding the gym teachers, GLO allows girls to develop their qualities of leadership. Girls are chosen by application by Miss Wendt and Mrs. Roberts.

After school, many students can be found in the gym working out on the heavy apparatus. Under the direction of the gym teachers, the members of the gymnastics club can prove their co-operation on the even and uneven bars, tumbling mats, ropes and other equipment.

GYMNASTICS CLUB

Amy Schnetter shows off her skill on the uneven parallel bars.

FOOTBALL

1968 was a special year for the V.H.S. Football Team. After four frustrating years, "the streak" was finally broken. Verona's new coach, Mr. Al Rotella, inspired the Hillbilly gridders to produce a 6-3 record, second best in the Suburban Conference.

West Orange Mountain was the first victim. The ensuing victories, including an especially sweet triumph over Madison, left Verona with a chance to cop the Conference Crown. The climax of the season came in the eighth game, when Verona defeated Summit.

Despite a final game letdown against Caldwell which denied the Hillbillies the championship, Verona football players received their share of honors. Six players filled seven positions on the first string, All-Suburban Conference squad, and one player received second team honors.

Rich Bryan (31) breaks through for a big gain.

Jamie Rotella evades Cedar Grove tacklers to aid in another Verona victory.

BACK ROW: Dan Potts, Howard Cohen, Eric Jeffreys, Wendel Murray, Pepper Redd, Larry Levine, Craig Levinsky, Nick Hill, Bob Goman, Rick Lynch, Ken Jacobsen, Joe Kaplan, Dan Seymour, Dave Olsen, Coach Stiefboldt. FRONT ROW: Mark Holmes, Bruce Eisdorfer, Scott Ingold, Larry Peterson, Al Price, Rich Lorenson, Pat Sullivan, Don Overholser, Lewis Seagull, Dave Oremland, Paul Ericson, Randy Mulford.

SOCCER

Winning seems to be an obsession with VHS soccer teams. 1968 was no exception as Coach Stiefboldt's booters rolled to a 14-4-1 record. Under the leadership of tri-captains Don Overholser, Rich Lorenson, and Pat Sullivan, the Hillbillies placed second in the State Soccer Tournament Group II Competition, and in the Suburban Conference.

The high point of the season came when David Oremland, the "scoreless wonder," scored en route to a tie game with Caldwell. Four Verona players were picked to the first-team, All-Conference squad, and three of those performances gained All-County and All-State recognition.

Don Overholser in his visiting uniform does a little fancy footwork to evade the opponents.

"Sully" warms up before a big match.

Captain Rich Lorenson manages to get rid of the ball even though he's covered by two Point Pleasant defenders in the state finals.

Larry Peterson moves in on the New Providence goal as Dan Potts, Dave Olsen, and Don Overholser wait for a pass.

Dave Oremland outwits New Providence foe.

Ken Jacobsen warms up before big game.

Coach Stiefbold gives his team a half-time pep talk.

"Gomer" lays one up as a New Providence defender watches helplessly.

Norm Liedtke gets the added inches he needs to shoot over defender.

Gary Kistner flips a shot in for two points.

"Sully" and "Rote" team up against a Madison defender to grab a rebound.

Bud Hart outjumps New Providence foe and comes through with a basket.

BASKETBALL

In the fall and winter of 1968, all Verona athletic teams came close to winning championships. The basketball team did. The Hillbilly Cagers lost their first two conference tilts before running up twelve consecutive wins. However, in the first round of the State Tournament, Verona ran into a roadblock, Irvington Tech, and the season ended. The Hillbillies produced a 15-3 record for Coach Doug Gaffney. Not bad for a team that four years ago finished last in the conference.

Don't get caught Rich.

Packed stands enjoy game at Caldwell.

BASEBALL

Coach Tom Morris assembled one of the most talented baseball teams Verona has had in his quest for a fifth Suburban Conference Crown in seven years of coaching the team. Among the outstanding stars were Pat Sullivan, Jamie Rottella, Don Overholser, Glen Oliver, Gary Kistner, Bud Hart and Jim Barrett. Although the team started slow, as soon as Conference competition began, the Hillbillies flexed their muscles and regularly topped their foes.

Kistner safe at third.

TRACK

Coach William Pecorara's efforts of the past four years were culminated in the finest track team Verona has seen in years. Early season victories over Whippany Park, Butler and Mountain enforced the team's anticipation of a fine season. This year's cindermen were also adept at establishing new school records, especially in the two-mile and pole vault events.

Jeff Jacobson shows the "oomph" he puts into every shotput throw.

Bruce Comiskey and Mike Coppolo box out a West Essex defender.

Gordon Boronow shows his perfect form while jumping the high hurdles.

Ed Trimmer is way out front, as usual, in the mile.

Ron Cooper practices broad jump as spectators from VHS observe.

Dennis Loar and Barry Cohen lead the Hillbilly trotters to victory.

If you happened to see a group of boys running down a Verona street this fall, followed by Mr. Pecorara on a bicycle, you were seeing the Cross Country team at practice. It was only the second season of competition for the team at VHS, and their hard work paid off. In Cross Country competition, the squad with the lowest point total wins, and the Hillbilly Harriers, led by captain Jim La Baugh, scored few enough points to place third in the Suburban Conference.

Dick Barret and Jim LaBaugh are way out ahead in Cross Country race at park.

BOWLING

LEFT TO RIGHT: John Burguillos, Randy Mulford, Bob Brau, Steve Bushberg, Barry Giblin.

Lead by Captain Steve Bushberg, the Bowling Team compiled a good record. Many bowling matches took place and showed that the many hours of practice under Advisor John Burguillos paid off. Because most of the team members were underclassmen, the bowling team should be a strong sport at VHS in coming years.

TENNIS

Rick Gustavson displays perfect form in his serve.

TENNIS TEAM, Kneeling: Al Price, Jerry Youst. STANDING: Dan Potts, Eric Gustavson, Jeff Cohen, Russ Bershad, Frank Carlton, Coach Robert Graham.

In three years the tennis team lost three men by graduation. This year six returning letter-winners made the netmen a dark-horse contender for the conference championship. With the five of seven starters returning, Coach Robert Graham can look forward to a championship next year.

GOLF

Al Makovsky practices his swing in anticipation of big match.

GOLF TEAM, front: Wendal Murray, Dennis Makousky. BACK: Rich Lorenson, Mike Mancini, Al Makousky.

The Verona High School golf team, guided by five seniors and a junior, got off to a good start this spring. Although the golfers ran into some tough Suburban Conference competition, they held their own. The leading man on the team was Captain Mike Mancini.

CHEERLEADERS

The Cheerleaders of V.H.S. have the responsibility of creating and encouraging enthusiasm and school spirit as well as publicizing the various sporting events. If a person walked down the halls of V.H.S., he would be confronted with posters for football, soccer, and basketball games. The Cheerleaders put in long hours of practice and planning for their pep rallies and Bon Fires, as well as actually cheering at the games. The various types of Cheerleaders are varsity football, soccer, and basketball as well as freshman football and basketball.

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS: Holly Grim, Beth Dean, Barb Meisner, Jean Osmun, Mary Rose, Connie DeMiro, Patti Carrik, Kathy Moran. HOLDING BALL: Co-Captains Judy Jacobus and Linda Fried.

COLOR GUARD

The Color Guard bears the colors of VHS and the American Flag at the football games and in the school assemblies. Under the leadership of Captain Valerie Mascia, the girls also march in formation with the band and participate in original gun and sword routines.

The VHS Cheerleaders run back to the field after half-time to continue our fight to victory.

BACK ROW: Denise Vala, Barbara Illowsky, Anita Aquila, Nancy Mehegan, Kathy Amadon. FRONT ROW: Joan Oremland, Theresa Tsai, Sarah Melidosian.

Sarah Melidosian and Joan Oremland lead the twirlers in routine during a pep rally.

TWIRLERS

The Twirlers are most prominent during the football season although they work throughout the year. The fall is busy with hours of practice which reveal themselves at the twirlers performance at football games and pep rallies. With the coming of spring, the girls prepare for the year's try-outs and their participation in the annual band exchange.

BAND

The Verona High School Band has had an extremely active year. In the fall, the band practiced daily to present a half-time show for the spectators and to aid in creating team spirit. Directed by John W. Harper, and aided by Ken Jacobsen, Band President, the band continued its musical efforts in order to raise money for the second annual band exchange, this year with Annendale, Va. To finance this, the band gave special concerts and sold Verona jackets.

Other activities included the Stage Band, group ensembles, and participating in the Fine Arts Festival.

Mr. Harper leads the Band in a rendition of a "Short Ballet for Awkward Band Members."

Mike Weiss and Lew Herman rehearse for a Stage Band concert.

Joe Kaplan sleeps during the Stage Band rehearsal while Bill Hersh and Rich Bierenbaum fill in.

Holly Grim, Vice-President; Lucy De Pompa, Secretary; Sarah Melidosian, President; and Valerie Mascia, Treasurer; are this year's officers of G.A.A.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association of Verona High School is the only extra curricular organization which offers any girl the opportunity to participate in team sports and to develop their physical fitness and skill. Among the team sports this year were Field Hockey, Basketball, Tennis, and Softball. The Field Hockey Team, under the direction of Miss Diane Wendt, experienced its first winning season. The highlight for the senior members was a weekend camping trip. The officers of this year's G.A.A. are Sarah Melidosian, President; Holly Grim, Vice-President; Lucy DePompa, secretary; and Valerie Mascia, Treasurer.

Nick looks down in hope of finding the cheat sheet.

FRESHMEN

Nick tries to put the shot in while Kent and George await possible rebound.

Many events took place for the Class of '72 this year. Headed by President Nick Rolli, Vice-President Alice Robinson, and Secretary Robyn Klehr, each activity went through with overwhelming success. The annual Pen Sale was held during the winter under the leadership of Co-captains Al D'Alessio and Eric Kraeutler. To supplement the class treasury, a Tee-shirt Sale, the first in the history of VHS, was held. Janet Kaplan, Fran Santomeno, and Diane Straus were the tri-captains of this successful sale. A highlight of the year was the Freshman Ski Trip to Vernon Valley with their class advisor, Miss Frances Garthwaite, and also under the leadership of Larry Brooks, Wyn Gold, and Diane Straus. The last event of the year was the traditional class picnic.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class, under the leadership of Bill Rodman, President; Dennis Casale, Vice-President; Lynn Conticcio, Secretary; and Advisor Mrs. Alleine P. Graef, had a very successful year. The Sophomore Dance, "Carousel," had an overwhelming attendance and featured live music. The traditional "Candy Sale" was held in early spring in order to add to the class treasury. The last event planned for the Class of '71 was the "Sophomore Picnic."

JUNIORS

I WANT A RING-DING JUNIOR

Well now take a look at the Class of '70
It looks like one big magical mystery mess
Why, who can say what this crew is with sobriety
When the exact nature is anyone's guess.
This class has canthers like Courtney who like to intercept
And there are also those scholars like Christopher T.
These juniors had a sophomore dance hard to accept
Because Chaperone Sabates (she came) found no one to see.
Ah! But don't forget this class has a serious place
Such as an athletic standing better than most
Or a genuine spirit sometimes worth more than the value of face
But even without this, these juniors have a lot to boast.
For this class has a great group of people willing to say
That their goal in the future is to better mankind
For when the pressure is on, this class has a way
Of keeping their cool and as well, peace of mind.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS — CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: Sandy Burns, Secretary; Larry Levine, President; Steve Moore, Vice-President.

Chris Courtney: "It's throws like this that make me wonder how I ever made the basketball team."

Craig Levinsky: "Oh no! I can't remember which goal is ours!"

Mario Bossi, Ellis Waller, Sue Maher, Jed Rubin, Jeff Everett, Gail Ditri, Debbie Workman, Ed Kowalski, Robyn Rader, Marilyn Matulis, Steve Moore, Sue Curran, Jeanne Osmun, Chris Tomachek and Judy Brody sing "Beer, beer for old VHS."

"Would you believe that 99 44/100% of the Junior football team spends half their time on the bench?" Right to left: Rich Bryan, Joe Gazdalsky, Chuck Bahr, Wayne Heike, Albert Mercuro, Dean Leurzarder, and Steve Frommel.

"We know you want to leave us, but we refuse to let you go!"

Jim Gregoric trailing Mike Fogarty: "I wonder if its my deodorant?"

JUNIOR CLASS BOARD OF DIRECTORS — FRONT ROW: Robyn Rader, Edith Dixon, Lewis Seagull, Steve Moore, Larry Levine, Gary Gusoff. SECOND ROW: Debbie Workman, Barry Anspach. LAST ROW: Ted Lowenthal Sandy Burns, Marcy Brooks.

SENIORS

JAMES PETER FERGUSON

"As the grass grows, so doth the weed."

"Ferg" is known to his friends as being argumentative. Jim plans to major in business administration in college, and then pursue a career in the business or political field. Jim disliked the liberal attitude of the school and the students who had no respect for authority, but he liked the great kids and teachers of VHS, and will always remember the football game with Mountain. He advises underclassmen, "Don't be apathetic," and he was most proud of being elected President of the Senior Class.

ANN MARIETTA ARELLA

"Reason without passion is sterile; but passion without reason is hysterical."

"Annie" plans to attend college and major in Vocal Music. She is most proud of getting into the National Honor Society and being a member of the All-State Chorus '68. Ann will never forget the Junior Prom, wild parties at 247 Grove Avenue, and arranging and re-arranging the Senior bulletin board to please "Ferg". Her advice to underclassmen is, "Study hard and strive for happiness in all you do."

HOLLY PATRICIA GRIM

"Do I contradict myself? Very well then, I contradict myself, I am large, I contain multitudes."

"Grimmin", who can be described as spirited and enthusiastic, can always be recognized by her long, blond hair. Holly plans to attend college and major in physical education. She will never forget all the fun she had being a cheerleader. Grim's advice to underclassmen is, "Learn from all your experience—good or bad."

ADRIENNE AARON

Adrienne is that quiet senior girl who is most proud of graduating. Coming to VHS in her sophomore year, Adrienne has made many friends while here. Mr. Bigger's PAD class will be remembered by Adrienne for a long time.

ANTHONY WILLIAM AQUILA III

"You're young yet."

Tony plans to attend college and major in business administration. He is most proud of breaking the losing streak in football. Tony disliked all the "brownies" at VHS, but will always remember fun with "Linc" and all-night card games. His words of wisdom are, "Take what you can get when you can get it".

WENDY SARA ALLEN

"Be slow in choosing a friend, slower in changing."

This quiet senior liked her senior year because of senior privileges and because it was her last. Wendy is most proud of getting her driver's license. She plans to attend college and major in elementary education. Wendy's advice to underclassmen is, "Work hard now so that you can relax when you're a senior."

JAMES R. AIELLO

*"Don't let it get you down;
life's too short to worry."*

Jay, a talkative senior, plans to go to college; major in biology, and travel. He is most proud of having Miss Fricke four years in a row. Even though he disliked lunch lines and no senior privileges, he liked Mr. K's Latin I class. His advice to underclassmen is, "Take everything easy."

JOANNE BAHR

"H-e-l-l-o Sweetie!"

Known for getting paid for dropping her tray in 6th period lunch, "Clepto" disliked cold classrooms and 7:30 detention. After graduation she will miss Mr. Johnson's 8th period Chemistry class and T.H.E. Group! To the underclassmen Jay says, "Keep smiling . . . it can't be all that bad." Her ambitions are to attend college and study to be a physical therapist, and someday marry and have plenty of kids.

DIANNE BARNES

"Keep true to the dreams of youth."

"Barney" got a kick out of sex education and disliked the phony people at VHS. She will always remember first period class in her Jr. year. She advises underclassmen, "It's not that bad!" After high school Dianne plans to go to designing school.

RUSSELL BERSHAD

"The wise man looks ahead."

In the future, Russ plans to be a successful lawyer or businessman, and own his own airplane and yacht. While he liked Mr. Yaniro's half-time lectures during JV basketball, "Bersh" disliked writing half the Fairviewer sports page. Russ feels his greatest accomplishments in VHS was holding Dave back in chemistry, and starting the coffee hour. He leaves this advice to underclassmen, "Make the most of VHS."

ELAINE NANCY BOOKER

"Man lives in the hope of becoming a memory."

Elaine, a lively senior, never really cared for the cafeteria food. She will remember the Lost & Found and eighth period P.A.D. with Mr. Iatesta. After high school, "Book" plans to go to college and eventually to teach.

JAMES PATRICK BARRETT

"I have not yet begun to fight."

"Barr" plans to go to college, teach physical education, coach, and then get married. Jim liked Mr. Rotella's gym classes and will remember winning our first football game. Jim's greatest achievement was getting an A on his English final in his junior year.

MICHAEL ANTHONY BONITO JR.

"Easy!"

This "out of sight" senior known as "Bombo" plans to attend Essex County College. He is most proud of graduating. Even though he disliked getting up in the morning, he liked breaking our 32 game losing streak. Mike's advice to underclassmen is, "Better you than me".

LINDA CATHERINE BORGEN

"To love and to be loved is the most beautiful happiness of existence."

"Lulu" is that unpredictable senior who will never forget walking in the halls with a certain someone. Most proud of graduating, Linda will enter beautician school and marry a certain Cooke. "Graduate!" is Linda's advice to all underclassmen.

LAWRENCE STANLEY
BURDETT

"Take a walk!"

After high school, this lazy, fun-loving senior plans to major in architecture, get married, set up his own practice, get rich, and travel around the world. "Chunks" is proudest of passing chemistry. He liked Latin I with Mr. K., but disliked the lack of senior privileges. He will always remember Mr. Bigger's history classes and finally winning a football game. Larry advises underclassmen to, "Work hard enough to pass, but have fun doing it."

KATHIE LOUISE BURRILL

"Hi, Luc!"

"Kaye" is most proud of getting her license and for never getting caught that day at Seaside. Although she disliked the lack of senior privileges, she will always remember the parties at Jacobus', Mr. Bigger's history class, football games with Carol, and chemistry with Mr. J. Her plans after high school are to become a medical technologist and get married. Kathie leaves this advice for underclassmen, "Play it right and you won't get caught."

JAMES THOMAS CALLAHAN

"Life is too short to waste time doing things you don't want to do."

Jimmy, whose future plans are to attend Thomas Nelson Community College in Hampton, Virginia, and major in commercial art, is most proud of not having 7:30 detention and becoming a senior. Although he disliked the shortage of senior privileges, he will always remember Mr. Bigger's U.S. I class, and his senior year, because it is his last. Even though he found V.H.S. bearable, he advises underclassmen . . . "Don't let V.H.S. interfere with your education."

KEVIN THOMAS CAMPBELL

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

"Wall boy" is an imaginative senior who is most proud of winning that football game. He liked the people, and Mr. Jacobs, but disliked the regulations about clothing and leaving for lunch. Kevin will always remember football practices. He advises underclassmen to, "Give everyone you meet the respect you would expect from them." After graduation, he plans to go to college and travel during the summers.

CATHERINE E. BURGUILLOS

"Be careful what you set your heart upon— for it will surely be yours."

Cathy is most proud of being selected as a delegate to Girls' State. She plans to attend college and major in home economics and later teach. Cathy enjoyed Mr. Johnson's sense of humor, but disliked getting to school at 7:15 for Mr. Jacob's 8:00 Shakespeare class. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Remember you only get out of something what you put into it."

STEVEN I. BUSHBERG

"Sure!"

Known for being timid, "Bush" disliked the freshmen, but will always remember when he was a freshman. Most proud of being captain of a Varsity team as a sophomore, he advises underclassmen to, "Strive for learning, not grades." After graduation, Steve plans to go to college and major in business administration.

CAROL DIANNE CARLSON

*"A bell isn't a bell 'till you ring it.
A song isn't a song 'till you sing it.
The love in your heart wasn't put there to stay.*

Love isn't love 'till you give it away."
This nutty senior is proudest of all the times "we" never got caught, and getting out of VHS. Carol missed the senior privileges, but liked the football games and Mr. Bigger's history class. She advises underclassmen to, "Have fun in school." After graduation, she will attend drafting school.

JACQUELINE CICCOTTI

"The measure of love is love immeasurable."

Jackie is most proud of being a member of the Student Council for three years. After graduation, she plans to marry and raise a family.

DONALD WILLIAM CLEAVES

"Can't win them all."

Known for being co-operative, Don enjoyed singing in the choir for three years, and Miss Fricke's and Mr. Butterworth's classes. He hopes to go to college and become an engineer. His advice to underclassmen is, "You only get out of school what you put into it."

BRUCE SIMON COMISKEY

"Remember the Alamo!"

"Comisk", a suave but naive senior, is most proud of driving around West Orange to remind them of our win. He plans to major in English in college and eventually enter the field of journalism. Bruce liked the friendly spirit in Verona, and will always remember the buttered rolls in the cafeteria.

JOAN CONNOLLY

"Be Nice!"

"Alki", who is known for being happy-go-lucky, plans to work in New York City and to travel. She is most proud of getting her driver's license and becoming a senior. She dislikes 7:00 detention, but will always remember Cooke's party and cruising around in a '64 Impala after the '67 Junior Prom. Her advice to underclassmen is to, "Take it slow."

BRUCE COHN

*"We can understand one another;
but each of us is able to interpret himself to himself alone."*

Bruce is the aloof senior who will always remember singing "Alice's Restaurant" with full orchestration and five part harmony during a concert in the concessions booth. Floating down the Amazon River in a bubble, and continuing the fight against the Blue Meanies, are included in Bruce's plans for the future.

MAUREEN LYNN CONROY

"Man lives in the hope of becoming a memory."

Maureen is most proud of learning how to drive, and will always remember Mr. Iatesta's helpful advice. She advises underclassmen to, "Study hard now because you will be competing the rest of your life." After high school she plans to go to college and then to graduate school to get a M.A. in education.

ELYN IRIS CONSTANTIN

"A success is one who decided to succeed—and worked."

"A failure is one who decided to succeed—and wished."

"Ellie" is most proud of never having detention in her four years of VHS. Senior year was Elyn's favorite because there were so many Senior parties and Senior trips. Upon graduation, Elyn will attend college to become a medical technologist. Elyn will never forget Mr. Bigger's PAD class with Nance. "Have lots of fun because school's over quicker than you think," advises Elyn to the underclassmen.

MARIANNE DAMIANO

"A person reveals what is in him long before he is ready to see it himself."

"Mar" plans to attend college and major in elementary education. She would also like to travel to Europe and someday get married. Marianne is most proud of assisting Mr. Velcamp with his English classes. She liked Mr. Johnson's chemistry class, and the slumber parties, but disliked the confusion in the halls near the planters. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Study hard, and have fun."

ROBERTA CROSBY

"To love and to be loved is the greatest happiness of existence."

"Bing" is most proud of being a senior the year the Hillbillies broke the losing streak and won so many football games. Roberta plans to major in elementary education in college and then marry someone exactly like (?!!) and raise 12 children. She will always remember the kids of VHS, and Mr. Iatesta's organized way of teaching PAD. To underclassmen, she says, "Be sure to support your school by going to all the games, and by being a member of the Student Council."

CAROLE R. CONTICCHIO

"Love thy neighbor as thyself."

This friendly senior will always remember the wild slumber parties and Mr. Bigger's history class. Carole is most proud of our first football victory. After high school, she plans to major in elementary education in college, marry, and raise a family. She advises underclassmen, to, "Study hard, but have fun along the way."

JULIE ANN DAWSON

"What is beautiful is good, and who is good will so be beautiful."

Studying art in Europe and college are Julie's plans after graduation. "Jules" is most proud of getting art as a major and learning how to ski. She will never forget winning the Verona-Mountain football game in 1968.

ANTHONY DEIORIO JR.

"Don't be facetious."

This cheerful senior will always remember the day someone drove a nail into his motorcycle. Tony is most proud of graduating and after doing so, will travel to the coast on his motorcycle. His biggest gripe about VHS was the 7:30 club. Tony advises underclassmen to, "Learn from your experiences; good and bad."

ROBERT JOHN DICKERSON

*"Never say what you think,
It can get you in trouble."*

This quiet senior would like to go to college, join the Air Force, and then get a steady job. Bob disliked the boring assemblies and his senior homeroom. However, he liked the down-to-earth teachers and the chemistry classes with the great Mr. Johnson. He will always remember the good times he had and the good kids he met. He leaves this advice for underclassmen. "The years go fast, so make the best of them."

LUCIA ANNA MARIE DePOMPA

"All's fair in love and war."

Lucy is the happy senior who can always be found laughing. Known for her friendly personality, Lucy plans to attend Montclair State College and major in languages. She will never forget Mr. Bigger's history classes.

CONTANCE ANN DEMIRO

"The harder the conflict, the more glorious the victory."

Connie is the cute cheerleader who is known for always being seen with a certain alumnus. Although she disliked people who thought they were too good to talk to you, she will always remember the Friday night team room meetings with the cheerleaders, a certain junior, and Lucy's lunches. To attend college and major in physical education and become a cheerleader for the "Chicago Bears" are among her future plans. Her advice to underclassmen, "Keep up the school spirit."

JEROME DeSTEFANO

*"If at first you don't succeed;
try, try again."*

Jerry, known for his quiet disposition, is most proud of being on the football team the year the losing streak was broken. Upon graduation Jerry plans to further his graduation in a liberal arts college. Words of wisdom to underclassmen, "Stick it out and graduate."

MARLENE DiMAIO

"To have a friend is to be one."

"Mar" is noted for originating the word "sma" and for always being happy. She will always remember going to the Junior Prom with a certain someone, and her talks with "Rocco". She disliked the lack of senior privileges, and is most proud of being a part of the D.E. program. After high school, Marlene plans to become a commercial artist and then get married.

ROBERT JOSEPH DiTRANI

"He who laughs last usually doesn't get the joke."

"Deo" is a happy, wild senior who plans to play college football after graduation. Bob is most proud of starting right guard on the first VHS team to win a game in four years. Eight period gym class with Mr. Sutter and the Correlli Brothers will always be remembered by "Deo", who foresees a career with IBM. Bob's advice to underclassmen is, "Keep Mr. Rotella happy and you will win football games."

ERIC DOUGE

Eric, known for his flashy clothes, is most proud of being manager of the baseball team as a freshman. He will always remember Mr. Johnson's chemistry class and the wild experiments.

HILDEGARD ANN DUDAS

"Small cheer and great welcome make a merry feast."

This cheerful senior can usually be found driving her Mustang or working on the Traffic Patrol. Hildy will never forget Mr. Johnson's eighth period chemistry class or the crowded halls of VHS. College, marriage, and a career in marine biology are among Hildy's plans for the future. She advises underclassmen to, "Study hard while you can, it will only benefit you."

LANA GALE DORMAN

"Dorm" plans to attend college and major in biology. She is most proud of getting up at 6:30 A.M. for Shakespeare class. Lana disliked getting trampled in the halls, but she will always remember working on "Our Town", and the wild debates at lunch. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Do it Now!"

ROSINE DOUGE

"La patience est amere, mais son fruit est doux."

Rosine enjoyed working hard during her years at VHS, and has definite plans for further education. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Don't rush, you don't realize how quickly you become a senior."

SALLY DUNAY

Sally is the happy senior girl who can be seen working in Gruning's with Sue. Most proud of her license, Sally will never forget the D.E. classes at VHS.

JAMES CRAIG FERGUSON

"There is no success like failure, and that's not success at all."

"J.C." plans to major in business administration, join the Air Force, marry, and get a job with an airline. This conservative senior is most proud of graduating, and will always remember sixth and seventh periods in his junior year because of the fun with Mr. Roccasecca and Mona.

SUSAN JAYNE FISCHER

"I shall never change, love me."

Our first victorious football game and her years with a certain boy will never be forgotten by this unpredictable senior. Sue liked her junior year, the prom, and the two Mr. I's. She advises underclassmen to, "Study hard and try not to get too serious with one person." After high school, Sue will go to college and then get married.

JUDITH MARIE FORTUNATO

"Do what you want as long as you are happy."

Judy plans to attend college, major in elementary education, and later get married. She is most proud of paying Jay to drop her tray in sixth period lunch. Judy liked those wild experiments in Mr. Johnson's eighth period chemistry class, but disliked the curtain in the auditorium. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Have more than one locker—it saves time!"

GERGORY NORMAND FONTAINE

"He who laughs last laughs best."

"Fonts" plans to major in engineering, join the service, and then get married. Greg liked the small school atmosphere of VHS, and the school spirit. He will always remember Mario and the Immortals at the school dances. Greg advises underclassmen, "The four years in high school are the most important in your life, so make the most of them."

ROBIN BETH FREEDENFELD

"To find happiness is to live each day."

"Robbo" is proud of making last minute decisions and never getting caught. She liked Mr. Johnson's chemistry class and the school spirit the Class of '69 never lost, but she will most remember Mr. Bigger's history class. Robin advises underclassmen to, "Live for today because tomorrow may never come." After VHS, she plans to major in art in college.

CAROLYN MARY FERRAILOLO

"If work interferes with pleasure, the heck with work."

"Gatch", who plans to go to beautician school with Slim, can usually be found doing something for DECA. Carolyn is most proud of being in D.E. and was a delegate to the DECA State Convention as a junior. Carolyn liked the Junior Prom and would have enjoyed more Senior privileges.

JOHN THOMAS FREEMAN

"What did I do wrong now?"

Jack plans to major in art and travel around the U. S. until he finds a place to begin his career in art, either teaching it, or in the commercial field. He disliked the kids who used to crush him because of his size and the lousy lunches. He is most proud of the creative writing he submitted to Perspective. Jack advises underclassmen to, "Avoid being small in character. Grow and let yourself be heard. Be an individualist and break away from the herd."

LINDA FRIED

"Love makes the world go round."

Linda, known for her small senior parties, can usually be found at cheering practice, or with that certain someone. Most proud of being a varsity cheerleader for two years, Linda will never forget the great football games of 1968, or the parties after the games.

CAROL ANN GALENDER

"I feel I give to you, my friend, today and each tomorrow."

This noisy senior enjoyed eighth period chemistry with Jiffy, the chocolate caterpillar, the rides down at Seaside, and Robin's Halloween party with a certain hairy cheerleader. Carol plans to go into secretarial work and then get married. She is most proud of Tony and graduating.

ALAN S. FREY

"Whoopie!"

This persistent senior plans to attend college and major in electronics. Al is most proud of becoming a senior. Even though he disliked Monday mornings, he liked Miss Pelligra's analogies, Mr. Sutter's driver education class, and Mr. Rotella's gym class. He will remember walking through the halls with a certain junior and Mr. Butterworth's Algebra II class. Al's advice to underclassmen is, "Study hard during your first three years; it's hard to make it up during your senior year."

KEVIN E. GEFTIC

Kevin is that quiet senior who is most proud of staying on the football team for his four years at VHS. Since "Gef" is interested in engineering, he will attend college and major in that field. Kevin offers the same advice to underclassmen he received—none.

SCOTT A. FRIEDLAND

"Love . . . and tongue-tied simplicity in least speak most, to my capacity."

"Cliff", a quiet radical, has done more than you'd think. He plans to major in electrical engineering and then in theater or psychology. Scott also plans to travel as far as he can and not to get married for quite some time. He liked the Dramatics Club, certain people, and certain parties, but disliked the school building, certain people, the lack of enthusiasm, dark halls, and the lousy coffee. Scott advises underclassmen, "Get involved with life and human relations, they're more interesting than school."

RICHARD GENTRY

"They didn't say nothin' "

"Gent", a nervous senior, liked his senior year but disliked the other three. He is most proud of graduating, and after doing so he will go into college, majoring in business. "Gent" advises underclassmen to, "Become upperclassmen so that you can give some learned advice to the underclassmen."

CYNTHIA ANNE GILLESPIE

"We want the world and we want it now!"

"Cyn" is an unpredictable senior who is most proud of finding that certain someone. She disliked the absence of senior privileges, and will always remember the dedication of Mr. Pirrello. She advises underclassmen to "Keep your head up high." After high school, "Cyn" hopes to become an airline stewardess and eventually get married.

PATTI GLASSER

"Sure, why not?"

"The Kid" is a rambunctious senior who is most proud of getting straight A's in book-keeping. Patti disliked the greasy halls of VHS, and plans to go to a business college, majoring in accounting. Her advice to underclassmen, "Transfer."

ELIZABETH HELENA GIBLIN

"It's a nice day for shooting elephants."

"Bets," a quiet senior, is most proud of riding to Dunkin' Donuts at 3 a.m. on a bicycle and "convincing the people we were a girl scout troop out for our bicycle badges." She liked the weekends and all the trips but disliked the weekdays. Betsy advises underclassmen to "Get involved in something now." This summer she intends to drive around the continent in a VW bus.

RODERICK ANDREW GILMORE

"Verbum sapientis satis est (?)"

Known for his flaming red hair and his subtle humor, Rod plans to attend college and become an electrical engineer. He is most proud of graduating and will always remember Mr. Iatesta's PAD class. Rod's advice to underclassmen is, "Graduate, you fools!"

ELIZABETH ANN GOTLIEB

Interested in music, writing, and travel, Liz will remember the rehearsals for "J.B." for a long time and trips to the city with Hetty. An avid fan of Mrs. Krupp's lectures on Peter the Great, her favorite places were the auditorium and the art room. Although Liz is not known for being a great student, she is most proud of getting through her junior year. Her advice to underclassmen is, "The worst thing that can happen to you is to cut yourself loose from other people."

MONA LYNN GOULD

"Let your life be like arithmetic; joys added, sorrows subtracted, friends multiplied, and love undivided."

Mr. Roccasecca's 6th and 7th period history and English classes, and the football games are memories which this vivacious senior will never forget. Mona is proudest of getting her license. After college, she plans to major in physical education and then get married. She advises underclassmen to have a good time.

ERIC JEFFERY GUSTAVSON

"It isn't the cough that carries you off, it's the coffin they carry you off in."

"Gus" is most proud of having Miss Fricke for four years of French. He plans to major in English or French, go to Paris, be a commercial airplane pilot, and own a Ferrari 275-GTB-4. He enjoyed the first football victory for VHS in thirty-two games, but disliked beat-up '57 Chevy's and '61 Dodges. His advice to underclassmen is, "Play things by ear until your sophomore year, but buckle down in your junior and senior years."

BARBARA ELLEN HARRIS

"Judge not lest ye be judged"

"Milton" is most proud of being a member of D.E., holding one of D.E.'s best jobs, and having blond hair in her junior year. Barbara plans to become a buyer for a retail store and later get married. She disliked the lack of senior privileges, but liked long talks with Mrs. Rader and Mr. Pirrello. Her favorite phrase is "There goes Richie's Coke truck!" Barbara's advice to underclassmen is, "Be young, be foolish, but be happy!"

JUDITH GUIDO

"Jude", known by her friends as being quiet, is most proud of graduating from VHS. She will never forget the friends she made here or the great teachers. Judy advises underclassmen to, "Work hard in high school, it will make all the difference in the future."

BRUCE HARING

Bruce can usually be seen walking in and out of the A.V. room at VHS. Known for wearing a sports jacket almost every day, Bruce is most proud of graduating under the five year plan.

PHILLIP R. HART

"What good are ya?"

Bud is most proud of being captain of the football team. He plans to enter college in the fall. Bud disliked the Corelli Brothers as a group, and thinks that VHS offers many opportunities that other schools don't. His advice to underclassmen is, "Stay away from the girls!"

MARK A. HASSERT

"Beautiful!"

Mark is proudest of working over a hot spotlight for six hours during the "Our Town" rehearsals . . . and living. He'll never forget John's parties and winning our first football game. Attending Rutgers and a career in Engineering are included in Mark's plans after graduation. He advises underclassmen, "If you work hard now, you'll benefit later."

CAROL JILL HERMAN

"Remember, today is the first day of the rest of your life."

Jill will always remember the day we won our first football game. She advises underclassmen to "Always finish what you start, and do your best at it." After high school, she plans to go to college and then to travel before marriage.

SARA LYNN HILL

"O' what may man within him hide, Though angel on the outworld side!"

This impervious senior plans to go to architectural school and eventually open a private, independent practice in addition to working for an architectural firm. She is proud of being the first girl to have ever gone through four years of mechanical drawing. "Swedey" enjoyed the frequent Saturday night escapades with "the girls", but didn't like being the only Verona soccer fan at away games. She will remember finally mastering the art of public speaking for Mr. Jacobs. Sara leaves this pearl of wisdom for underclassmen, "Take it slow."

JANIS SUSAN HERSH

"Joindre les mains, c'est bien; Mais les ouvrir, c'est mieux."

Janis plans to work abroad, and find out about life, and then get settled, if it isn't too much of a "hassle". Janis, with "ESP", is most proud of acting and working on "J.B." and working with the Dramatics Club. She will remember all those "fun" chemistry and gym classes in her junior year, but she disliked being blamed for the bad assemblies. Janis leaves this advice to underclassmen, "Don't complain about V.H.S.—make it what you want it to be."

SUSAN HEDDEN

"Friendship often ends in love, but love in friendship, never."

Sue missed the senior privileges of VHS but she will always remember her talks with Mr. Wermuth. She is proud of getting through Alg. II. After high school, Sue wants to major in elementary education in college and travel through England. She advises underclassmen to keep the marks up but not to forget to have fun.

HAROLD J. HOLLER

"Winning isn't everything, but wanting to win is."

Harry plans to attend college, major in engineering, and eventually make it his career. He is most proud of announcing the football games, especially the victorious ones.

JAMES E. HOLLER

"Have you seen Carol?"

This "ambitious" senior is most proud of graduating. "Jimbo" plans to join the Navy, and later to attend college and be a manufacturer's representative. Jim dislikes not having clocks in the halls. His advice to underclassmen is, "Graduate as soon as possible!"

STEVEN P. HORVATH

Steve, usually found working in Shop-Rite or cruising around in his Grand Prix, is most proud of being a Freshman twice and still graduating in four years. He likes getting out early for work, and plans to attend college.

JAMES EDWARD JACOBS

"He heard, he heard, he sent a bird!"

"Gumbo" plans to attend college and possibly major in speech or drama. He is most proud of being in Mr. Jacobs' plays and sleeping in the nurse's office for seven periods in a row. He will always remember the fun times with "Jodey", "Stein", "Moishe", and the guys, but disliked Stein's mind. Jim's advice to underclassmen is, "Enjoy your seven vitals."

ELISE DANETTE HOOD

"Leave me alone".

"Elsie" plans to go to a school of business and then get married. Elise disliked having "fewer" senior privileges. She will always remember Mrs. Babb's English Class and homeroom 23. Her advice to underclassmen is "Study hard and get good grades so you can get into college".

GLENDA HYDLER

"Glen", known by her friends as having a wild personality, can usually be found driving to school in her green and white jeep. Making so many friends at VHS will be Glenda's biggest achievement at VHS, as well as going to the football games in 1968. "Glen" advises underclassmen to, "Have fun—it's worth it."

KENNETH ALAN JACOBSEN

"The elevator to success runs so seldom, it's best to take the stairs."

This active senior is most proud of being president of the band. "Jake" plans to attend college and major in biology. He disliked homework, boring classes, and Mondays, but liked lunch periods, 3:00 p.m., Fridays, and the dance of the month. Ken's advice to underclassmen is, "Stay on the good side of the teachers; do well so you can get out as fast as possible."

JOHN THOMAS JACOBUS

"The butler did it."

"J-bird" is most proud of being absent only once in a marking period. He feels that VHS was really great but going to classes was terrible. The school time parties on Pine Street at the Barn are memories John will never forget. He advises underclassmen to "Be sure to get back early after intermissions if you go to any plays with the senior class." After high school, "J-bird" plans to go to college and eventually work.

JUDITH MARIE JACOBUS

"Howdy Rowdy"

This fun-loving senior is most proud of cheerleading for four years. "Jude" plans to attend college, major in physical education and later be a stewardess and travel all over the world. Judy disliked the long lunch lines, but liked pep-rallies and will always remember the days she wasn't in VHS while waiting for a certain phone call with other members of the gang. Her advice to underclassmen is, "If you plan on staying home from school, make sure your phones are off the hook!"

HETTY JADE KADISON

"... to be wounded by your own understanding of love, and to bleed willingly and joyfully."

"Hed" plans to major in drama or psychology and someday to tour the U. S. in a VW bus. The achievement she is most proud of is being in Mr. Jacobs' plays. Hetty liked speech class in her senior year, the 7:15 Shakespeare Club, her junior year, and the fine food and tranquilizing atmosphere of the VHS cafeteria. She will remember most of all that enjoyable evening spent with Chief Rock at Deb-Deb's party!

NANCY HOPE KANAS

"Today is the first day of the rest of my life."

Nance will probably be remembered for being the youngest member of the senior class and for always being absent on Wednesdays. If she ever learns how to wake up in the morning, Nancy's plans will materialize. She may well become the greatest female tycoon on Wall Street. Nancy leaves VHS with fond memories of Mrs. Krupp's P.A.D. class and her realization of the amount of material that can be covered in such a short class period.

KATHERINE ALICIA JAMES

"Let us not live to be useless."

Kathy is most proud of her letter of Commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Program. She plans to go to college and major in Elementary Education. Kathy's advice to underclassmen is, "Work as hard as you can."

ROBERTA JUNE JOFFRE

Roberta plans to become a social welfare technician or a dental assistant, and later get married. She is most proud of getting her driver's license and graduating. Roberta disliked homework but will always remember Cooke's party after the Junior Prom and cruising around with a certain person in a white Fairlane. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Every day should be passed as if it were to be our last."

ALAN STUART KAPLAN

"Take a sad song and make it better."

Al, known for being a non-conformist, liked working on Student Advisory Committee for two years. After graduation, Al wants to work his way through college by playing in his band.

ARTHUR KELLENBERGER

Art is most proud of getting his driver's license at the end of his sophomore year and having a car in his senior year. Art plans to attend college or to join the Navy and then travel. He liked D.E., the Senior Lounge, running the quarter mile, and tearing down the goal post after our victory over Mountain High School. But he disliked kids getting suspended for smoking when the teacher's rooms were fogged with smoke! Art's advice to underclassmen is, "Study hard but don't forget the weekends!"

KEVIN KELLY

Kev plans to go on after high school to further his education. He liked all the fine accomplishments the Student Council made in recent years. Kevin's advice to the underclassmen is, "Get out while you can."

ROBERT KELLENBERGER

"Cars are like girls—they cost a fortune, give you a lot of trouble, and take you for a ride—but they're both necessary."

Bob is most proud of becoming aware of the importance of an education, and hopes it's not too late. He plans to enter some branch of the service. Bob disliked report cards and regrets not trying harder. His advice to underclassmen is, "Study now. These four years determine what you will do for the next fifty."

JOAN FAITH KATZ

This ambitious senior has the desire to study art in a foreign country besides going to college and traveling. Joan enjoyed the art classes at VHS. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Wake up before it's too late."

BRIAN KESSLER

"I think before I am"

This easygoing senior says "Yeah right!", and is proud of maturing while at VHS. He advises underclassmen to "Work hard so it will be easier later." Brian plans to major in psychology at college.

MICHAEL S. KILLIAN

"Shut up, stupid!"

This senior, known for being happy-go-lucky, is most proud of being a part of the D.E. program. "Killse" disliked the preference towards college bound students and the detention system, but he especially liked the D.E. program. He advises underclassmen that if you care, you will pass. Mike will go to a junior college and then to a data programming school.

JOSEPH FREDERICK KRACKENFELS

"Krack" is proud that he tied the old record for the least amount of schedule changes. Joe liked Miss Pelligra's chemistry class and will always remember Mr. Sutter. He plans to go to college and major in business.

WENDY ANN KRIEDT

"It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy that makes happiness."

This talented senior plans to go to college and major in art. She liked roaming the halls before and after school and she will most remember Mr. Iatesta's history class.

GARY A. KISTNER

"What time's practice?"

Most proud of winning the Suburban Conference championship in baseball in 1968, Gary plans to pursue his athletic interests in the field of coaching. "Kis" disliked cold showers and the bus rides before the games, but he did like vacations and Mr. Sutter's Driver Education class.

JOHN GEORGE KRATSIOS

"Where's the party?"

The "Greek" will never forget sixth period in the A.V. room. This "spirited" senior is going to major in electrical engineering at Rutgers. Although he liked the A.V. room, he disliked the lack of senior privileges. John, who is known and loved for his parties, leaves this advice to underclassmen, "Don't mix your drinks!"

KATHY KROHN

"Love makes the world go round . . . I won't be surprised if it stops someday"

"Kath" plans to major and work in the field of child development and psychology, she also wants to teach school children in the slums, travel in the summer, and later get married. She liked Friday afternoons at 2:55, fire drills, and speech class, but disliked busy work, lunch lines, and the late bell. Kathy will always remember the '68 International Weekend.

ANNE BETH KRON

"If you can't say anything nice, don't say anything at all."

"Annie" is most proud of not receiving any detention at all, and being the first senior to have the T.B. test. She also is very proud of the past two years of Student Council operation. She hopes to enter either Katherine Gibbs or Berkeley Secretarial School, work for a few years, and get married. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Study hard, and girls, don't wear your skirts too short."

JAMES WESLEY LABAUGH

"Le Beau" will be remembered by the class of '69 as the captain of a winning cross country team. Jim liked eighth period gym with Mr. Sutter. After graduation, Jim will enter college and possibly a career in the Army Medical Corps. To underclassmen, Jim advises, "Join the cross country team."

STEPHEN LAFETRA

"Yea right"

"Lafet", who is considered easy-going, is most proud of passing Spanish. His future plans include going to college to study landscape design and traveling to the coast. Steve disliked the Hippies and the way they got away with breaking the rules because they were good students. He leaves to underclassmen the same advice he got—NONE!

BERNADETTE L. KUHRT

"Sorry 'bout that!"

"Dette" plans to go into the computer field and then get married. She is proudest of getting her diploma, and will always remember the faculty of VHS, especially Mrs. Kaminsky. Bernadette tells underclassmen, "High school isn't so bad, especially when you don't have to go."

MARILYN ANN LABRUNDA

"Just forget it."

"Mar" is known for being a nutty senior and is most proud of passing. She plans to attend college and work in the field of mathematics. She will always remember the great Class of '69, and advises underclassmen to, "Work hard but have fun doing it."

MARY ELIZABETH LAMBDIN

"It's up to you."

Marybeth plans to major in psychology and eventually be a child psychologist. A junior-year import, she advises underclassmen, "Have as much fun as you can while you can."

ROSEMARY L. LASALLE

"To have joy one must share it, Happiness was born a twin."

Rosie feels that graduating from VHS is her major accomplishment. She will always remember her senior year. Rosie plans to work as a dental assistant and then to get married. She advises underclassmen to "Get as much out of school as soon as possible".

CRAIG WILLIAM LAWRENCE

"But I have promises to keep and miles to go before I sleep."

"Bandit" or "Lars" is a concerned and happy senior who plans to be the first millionaire history teacher! He disliked the locked latrine and the people who dressed like slobs. Craig liked the atmosphere and will always remember the people of VHS. He is most proud of seeing the losing streak broken. He advises underclassmen to "Take it easy and have fun."

KATHY LeCAIN

Known as the other half of the set, Kathy was a new student to VHS in her senior year. Kathy liked riding around with the girls, and leaving school early to go to work.

ROBERT LAMONDE

"Beanie", a senior year import, can usually be found riding around with the guys. "Beanie" was proud to be a member of VHS when we broke our 32 game losing streak.

CAROL LAZAR

Ushering at the Clairidge Theater is where Carol can usually be found when she isn't in school. Carol liked the friendly atmosphere of VHS, and will remember the people there for a long time after graduation.

SANDY LaSTELLA

"Life is like an onion, you peel off one layer at a time, and sometimes you weep."

"Stell" considers passing Steno I with Mr. Dimmers as her most noteworthy achievement at VHS. Majoring in accounting and marrying are among Sandy's plans for the future. Although she disliked the amount of senior privileges, she liked leaving school early to go to work, and having Mr. Orlando for three years straight. "Stay out of the Senior Lounge!" advises Sandy to all underclassmen.

ELLEN LeCAIN

Known as one half of a set, Ellen came to VHS in her senior year. She considers making new friends her greatest achievement, and liked leaving school early to work at Bell Telephone.

LENORE LEHMAN

"There is nothing more precious than time—when lost, it is never found again."

"Barnio Beast's" future plans include going to college, majoring in art, and marrying a man with a moustache. This artistic senior is proudest of taking four years of French, and will always remember the International Weekend of '68. Lenore liked the advanced art classes, and the senior privileges, but disliked the congested cafeteria and freshmen. Her advice to underclassmen, "Take it as it comes."

JOHN ANTHONY LENZA

"Oh man, forget about it."

John can usually be seen in the halls with a certain underclassmen. Getting his own car is John's most notable achievement. After graduation, John hopes to attend college and major in music. Common life and routine are not for John because he dislikes conformity.

THOMAS LEONE

"A circle is perfect, but the world isn't round."

Tom is an outstanding senior who can best be described by the word "gross-out." He is most proud of the football team breaking their losing streak. Tom plans to attend college. His advice to underclassmen is, "Study just enough to get out, and don't let school interfere with your education."

JAMES LINCOLN

"Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die."

"Linc", most proud of having 25 "good" weekends in a row, can usually be seen cruising in his silver Thunderbird. The chocolate caterpillar, and eighth period English with Miss Shockney will always be remembered by Jim. "Eagles fly high at VHS," says Jim to the underclassmen.

NANCY E. LISKA

"Leave too much to chance and you won't have a chance."

This versatile senior plans to major in biology in college and then travel to Europe to study French. Nanc is most proud of never having 7:30 detention and passing chem study with the "Beast." Although she disliked crowded lunch periods, freezing cold classrooms, and picky teachers, she will always remember the International Weekend of '68, along with Kathy and Lenore. Besides always saying "You won't believe it", she says this to underclassmen, "Hope for the best, expect the worst, and take what comes."

VIVIAN LEWIS

"God has given a great deal to man, but man would like something from man."

"Fi" plans to go to college and major in special education. She hopes to spend a year in France. Vivian will always remember working in dramatics and the 1:00 A.M. rehearsals. Her advice to underclassmen is merely, "Good Luck."

NANCY C. LoPOMO

"A woman in love is a very poor judge of character."

Nancy's interest lies in secretarial work, and she plans to enter secretarial school. She is most proud of working for Mr. Pirrello, being a member of Office Occupations, and passing Mr. Ellicott's History I class. Her pet peeve is confusion in the halls and Miss Hamer's moods. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Don't make school all work and no play."

ALAN MAKOVSKY

Al plans on studying pre-med in college and going on to med school. If things work out, he plans to settle down and practice in the mid-west. The thing that he will remember most is the way everyone talked about senior privileges and the way they never materialized. He thinks that the teachers at VHS are the greatest group of people he has ever met. His advice to underclassmen is, "Study and be active in extracurricular activities."

WILLIAM ARTHUR MANN

"I care . . . right?"

"Baseball Bill" is known as the flirt of the class of '69. Making it back from the city in 9½ minutes is his most notable achievement. After high school Billy plans to go to college and then be a ski bum for one year; then he'll come back for that certain freshman. He will always remember junior year English with Mr. Velcamp.

RICHARD R. LORENSON

Rich can usually be found either on the soccer field or at the Cottage. After high school, Rich plans to attend college and major in engineering. He then hopes to fly as a commercial pilot.

MICHAEL MANCINI

"Money is a good servant, but a bad master."

"Hank", known for his height, can usually be found strolling the corridors of VHS. Everyone will remember the day Mike wore his sports jacket inside out. After graduation, Mike will enter college and enter the field of science.

VALERIE DANA MASCIA

"Where there's a will there's a way."

This easy going senior will go to college to major in art education. Val is most proud of never getting 7:30 detention. She will always remember color guard practices, the football team, and its lucky streak this year. She leaves this advice to underclassmen, "Always do your best . . . Whatever it may be."

PAMELA AMY MASCIO

*"What I had I saved. What I saved I lost.
What I gave I have."*

Pam will be remembered by her friends as the stage manager of "Our Town", and will always remember the rehearsals until 2 a.m. Pam disliked the people at VHS who did not act like themselves. "Live, don't just exist", Pam tells the underclassmen. College and traveling are included in her plans for the future.

ANNE ELIZABETH McTAGUE

"Nonchalance is the ability to look like an owl when you feel like a jackass."

Anne disliked the jammed halls and will always remember Spanish II with Lucy and periods 3 & 4 with Miss Hamer. Anne is most proud of being a part of Office Occupations and passing Mr. B's Spanish III class. She advises underclassmen to "Join Office Occupations and stay out of the senior lounge." After high school, Anne hopes to become a good secretary.

PAULINE MEDWAY

"Oh Really!"

Paula is most proud of graduating. The one thing she liked most about VHS was getting out of school early each day to go to work. This quiet senior plans to get a job and eventually marry. She advises underclassmen to "Work hard, or else!"

NANCY MEHEGAN

This lively senior is most proud of being a majorette for VHS. Nancy will never forget the twirling practices and the shows at the football games. "Work hard, but leave some time for fun," advises Nancy to the underclassmen of VHS.

MARJORIE ANN MEIDLING

"How do I love thee, let me count the ways . . ."

"Margie" plans to enter secretarial school, work as a private secretary, and later get married. She liked the Junior and Senior Proms, football games, and working with the nurse and secretaries in the office. Margie is most proud of passing Latin II with Mr. K. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Don't look down upon yourself, or others won't look up to you."

JOHN G. McSEVENEY JR.

"Don't be facetious"

"Mc Sev" is most proud of never being suspended. He plans to enter the armed forces and later to attend college. He dislikes 7:30 detention, lunch, and the lack of senior privileges, and he will always remember Mr. Johnson's chemistry class. John's advice to underclassmen is, "Keep your mouth shut unless spoken to."

BRUCE MARANTZ

Bruce, known for his quiet manner, liked the faculty and students of VHS. Although he disliked the assemblies and dress-up days, he will always remember homeroom 10.

SARAH F. MELIDOSIAN

"They will say that you are on the wrong road, if it is your own."

"Mel" is most interested in athletics and plans to attend college and major in physical education. She will remember winning our first football game in three years, and 7:30 A.M. twirling practices. Sarah is most proud of working in the G.A.A. and on the G.A.A. show.

MARTIN EDWARD MONAGHAN

Marty can usually be seen in the shoe department of Evenson's. He plans to attend college and major in biology and dentistry. He also hopes to travel around the U.S., have a good time, and get married, (in that order). Marty will remember Miss Pelligra's chemistry class, and Mr. Saba-day's physics class.

KATHLEEN DEE MORAN

"Time heals what reason cannot."

Kathy is the cute blonde senior who is most proud of cheering at almost every football game even though she was an alternate. Feb. 15, 1968 and the day she was twins with Linda will long remain memories for Kathy. After graduation, Kathy plans to study physical education in college.

JAMES M. MOSCICKI

"The springs of your car will collapse if you run over an elephant."

"Fluffy" plans to go to college to major in biology, and then go into medicine. Miss Ehrmann's biology class, he felt, was good preparation for him. Although he disliked the freshmen, he liked Mr. Roccasecca's English and History I in his junior year. Jim will always remember the trip to see "Medea" with Miss Welham. He is most proud of being almost the last person in the senior class to drive. He leaves these pearls of wisdom to underclassmen, "Don't let school, teachers, classes, and homework get you down. You only have four years."

A. WILSON MIFORD

"I don't know."

"Dino", the Casanova of VHS, will always remember spending six weeks in a cast. Wilson liked the friendly people found in Verona. "Dino's" words of wisdom are, "Have fun; you only have one life to live." A college education and becoming rich are Wilson's plans after high school.

SUSAN M. MONDABAUGH

"Who told me dragons did not exist; then led me to their lairs?"

"Monda", known by her friends for having a wild personality, is most proud of getting through VHS in the four year plan. Upon graduation, Sue hopes to major in biology in college. She advises underclassmen, "Don't mess around until you find out it's too late".

RUSSELL GEORGE MUTER

"Duh"

Russ is a funny, witty senior who plans to go to high school again. He is most proud of not going to study hall in 3 years. Mr. Roccasecca's spelling will always be a part of Russ's memory.

JEAN E. O'BRIEN

"You can't know where you're going if you don't know where you've been."

Jeanne is most proud of paying "Jay" to drop her tray in sixth period lunch. Her plans are to attend college in order to become a physical therapist and later marry. Jeanne remembers going to Craig's house in the freezing cold to sell movie benefit tickets. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Keep off the grass".

MARLENE NELSON

"Absence makes the heart grow fonder."

Marlene is the senior with the nice smile. Known for her friendly disposition, this senior can be found working as a dental assistant for a local dentist. After graduation, Marlene plans to marry that certain someone.

ROBERT J. NIGRO

"The tongue is a light organ, but few people can hold it."

"Nig" (with a long "i") is the infinitesimal senior who plans to attend college. He is most proud of getting his license and owning a '56 chevy. Even though he dislikes Mr. Weissbach's theory on discipline, he liked Mr. Valcamp's English class. Bob's advice to underclassmen is, "Enjoy yourself at all times."

ARLENE NELSON

"All's well that ends well."

"Ar", most proud of being in D.E., can usually be found working in Evenson's. Leaving VHS early for work was a favorite pastime for Arlene. She advises underclassmen to, "Join D.E."

JOHN JOSEPH PATRICK O'BRIEN

This fun-loving senior plans a successful career in engineering. "O.B." enjoyed the "Greek's" parties, and Mr. Sutter's gym classes, and is most proud of getting a D in shop. John advises underclassmen, "Don't let anyone scare you, and shop at the Acme."

MARY OLIPHANT

"Unto thine own self be true."

"Mar" enjoyed the football victories and the wonderful friends she made at VHS. Mary plans to attend college and major in English or Psychology and go into the teaching profession. Mar's advice to underclassmen is, "Make the most of every minute."

WALTER O'NEILL

"I have often regretted my speech but never my silence."

Wally is known for always being embarrassed. He is most proud of passing Algebra II with a certain tremendous teacher. Wally disliked freshmen sitting in front seats during assemblies. He will never forget Mr. Johnson's eighth period chemistry class. Wally plans to attend college and go to Europe. His advice to underclassmen is, "Don't conform to non-conformity."

JOAN HELENE OREMLAND

"I am invisible, understand, simply because people refuse to see me."

"Joanie" plans to major in biology, study medicine, and become a pediatrician. Joan is most proud of being drum majorette for two years, and being secretary of the Student Council. She will remember winning our first football game after 32 losses. Joan liked the support the student body had for their Student Council. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Promote school spirit, and your high school days will be heightened."

DAVID MICHAEL OREMLAND

"Judge not your fellow man until you have stood in his place."

To go to college, make a mint, and live it up is "Orem's" ambition. Although he disliked spending hours writing one-half of the Fairviewer sports page and being in the same homeroom with "Big Al" and "O" for four years, he will always remember the Mountain game and eighth period chemistry with the "Pig". Most proud of his high scoring soccer record, his advice to underclassmen is to "Be busy little beavers and do your propaganda project on time!"

ROBIN MARTIN O'MEARA

Robin's plans for the future include attending college and traveling around the world. While liking certain teachers he disliked others. He will remember his friends from VHS. Robin leaves this advice to underclassmen, "Graduate as soon as possible."

DONALD W. OVERHOLSER

"Big O" is most proud of playing on a championship soccer team as a sophomore. He hopes to attend Duke University and major in history. He enjoyed the Mountain game and the parties afterward, but disliked sharing the same homeroom with Dave (scoreless) Oremland. His advice to underclassmen is, "To any of those that plan to play soccer, don't follow in the footsteps of the scoreless wonder!"

NICHOLAS PASSERO

"It's dynamite"

Most proud of partying with K. B., this sharp senior will never forget his senior year. "Slick" liked strolling through the halls of VHS during classes. Upon graduation, Nick plans to go to college and become a rich, successful businessman. Marriage will also be a part of Nick's future.

ALAN THOMPSON PRICE

"Laughter is not at all a bad beginning for a friendship, and it is by far the best ending for one."

"Big Al", most proud of writing the Alma Mater for VHS, will always remember the first band exchange, and all the friends he made. Among his future plans, are to go to college, major in music education, travel as much as possible, and then get married. Al advises underclassmen to "wear a smile, it never hurts to become involved in things, meet new people, and make new friends."

MITCHELL RABINOWITZ

*"We're looking.
You'll find it, keep looking."*

"Moishe" is most proud of somehow surviving two of Mr. Jacob's plays. He disliked the air of confinement around V.H.S., but will always remember the good times he had with "the guys": Gumbo, Joe, and Stein. Mitch's desire to help people led him to the decision to work in the field of sociology or medicine. His advice to underclassmen is, "Have the right attitude about everything you do, and you'll be much happier with yourself."

KATHLEEN BRIDGET QUINN

"Two friends cannot long be friends, if they cannot forgive each other's little feeling."

This petite senior liked our spirit when the football team had such a long losing streak, and Mr. Bigger's and Mr. Velcamp's classes. She is most proud of deciding to go to college. "The Mighty Quinn" eventually plans to attend Montclair State College, and someday be a good wife and mother. Kathy advises underclassmen, "Go to school after your graduate from VHS, to further your education."

PAUL L. POTTS

"Yea, you'll get over it."

"Pottman", a college-bound senior, is proud of staying in VHS for only four years. Paul disliked the assemblies, and plans to go to college after graduation.

ELIZABETH GREER RAFF

"I only have escaped alone to tell you."

"Bibsy" is most proud of clothing the cast of "Our Town" in high collar, stiff-backed costumes. Although she disliked study hall in the cafeteria, she will always remember the non-latin III-IV classes, and Shakespeare Seminar. Bibs plans to go to college, travel, and live on the coast of Maine. Her advice to underclassmen is, "You gotta get out of this place."

TIMOTHY D. RAFTER

"One of these days . . ."

"Hippie" is most proud of becoming a senior. Tim's future plans are to go to school and become a mechanical engineer. He advises underclassmen to, "Make the most of your high school years, it means a lot."

KENNETH GARY RAU

"Anything is legal, until you get caught."

Ken plans to attend college and major in liberal arts. He disliked open field tackling drill, but liked playing football as a senior for Coach Rotella, and enjoyed Mr. Velcamp's junior English class. Ken will always remember a good time after the junior prom at Sue's, and borrowing Kevin's car. His advice to underclassmen is, "Develop your senior habits early, and don't get caught."

LOUIS RODRIGUEZ

*"The happier the time,
the more quickly it passes."*

Known for walking around the halls with a certain underclassman, Lou is most proud of graduating. He advises the underclassmen, "Do all that is required of you before it's too late."

NANCY TERRY RAMONDINI

"Love conquers all."

"Mrs. Maleki", known to be unpredictable, disliked 7:00 detention, but will always remember Mr. Pirrello's D.E. classes. After graduation, Terri intends to work and later marry that certain someone and raise a family. Terri advises underclassmen, "Have your fun while you can."

DIANA ROBINSON

"Everything has its beauty, but not everyone sees it."

"Di", one of the younger members of the class of '69, is most proud of being in D.E. Usually found with "Slim", Diane has plans for work and marriage in the future. Words of wisdom for underclassmen, "Take your work seriously but don't forget the weekends."

DONALD SCOTT ROLANDELLI

"Of course Americans trust in God, you can tell by the way they drive."

Don, known as self-containing, never ceases to amaze himself. Majoring in Marine Biology in college and serving three to four years in the Navy are "Pole's" plans for the near future. Don disliked the 6th period lunch lines because they were entirely too long, but he liked the senior parties and the blondes at VHS.

PAUL JOHN ROLLI

"If all else fails, read the directions."

"Roll-Is" proudest achievement was becoming a senior. He will always remember driving soccer players to the junior high. He plans to attend college and major in accounting, and then get married. He advises underclassmen to try to get the easy teachers.

MARK ROSENBLUTH

Because Mark was accepted to Rutgers University early decision, he is most proud of beginning his senior slump in October. Mark will always remember the great football games of his senior year, and the parties after them. "Get out while you can", advises Mark to the underclassmen. After graduation, Mark will major in engineering at Rutgers.

JAMES ROTELLA

Although Jamie was new to VHS as a senior, he helped to make the great '68 football team. This athletic senior plans to attend college and also play football. "Rote" liked VHS because he made so many friends so quickly after moving to Verona. Jamie will always remember the "locker room conversations."

JEANNE ANNE ROOS

After graduation Jeanne plans to attend secretarial school and to travel. She is most proud of passing Mr. Johnson's chemistry class. She liked senior privileges and will remember the wonderful teachers of V.H.S. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Work hard. It pays off in the end."

KAREN ROSENSTEIN

"Tell it like it is."

Karen liked the long lunch periods and will always remember Cooki's party after the Junior Prom. She is most proud of passing history. Karen plans to go to college and major in the field of science and then get married. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Make the most of your senior year."

GERALDINE ANN SALVANTE

"'Tis better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all."

Gerry is the easy-going member of the class of '69 who plans to become an elementary school teacher upon graduation from college. Paying Jay to drop her tray in 6th period lunch and having many friends will always be in Gerry's memories of VHS. Gerry advises underclassmen to, "Work hard but enjoy life; it goes by too fast."

AMY KATHRYN SCHNETTER

"Everybody's gotta be someplace"

After high school Amy plans to go to college and marry a millionaire so she can take a bubble-bath in the back of a limousine. Although she disliked underclassmen who ditched in front of her after she ditched in the lunch line, she liked looking forward to the weekend with a certain Cuban and sitting next to Mona at those great football games. Most proud of never getting detention, not doing her propaganda project, and learning how to swear in Spanish, Amy leaves this advice to underclassmen, "United you'll stand; divided you'll fall!"

MARGI SCHEPT

*"The things you keep you lose;
the things you give away you keep forever."*

This friendly senior plans a working career after high school. She will remember an interesting seventh period sex education class with Miss Wendt. Margi's pearl of true wisdom shines forth in her advice to underclassmen when she says, "If anything, I need advice!"

JAMES ARTHUR SANBORN

"Amor vincit omnia."

Jim is the mixed-up senior otherwise known as "Chase 'n." College and teaching are among Jim's plans for the future. He will always remember the great bunch of kids in the senior class. Jim advises underclassmen, "Be serious about your high school career. Remember, you only go through high school once."

RUSSELL CHARLES SCOTT

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can,

and the wisdom to know the difference."
Russ can usually be found in room 12 after school. This future architect is proudest of being Shadows editor, and meeting the first deadline. He will always remember the all night rehearsals for the plays, and those frantic Shadows rewrites. Russ liked the school spirit of VHS, and advises underclassmen, "Take it easy until you're a senior, then really mess around."

EILEEN ELIZABETH SCUORZO

"I could take a fit"

"I" is most proud of graduating. Although she disliked the crowded halls, she'll always remember the detentions in her junior year. Upon graduation, Eileen will attend beautician school, travel, and get married. "Slim" leaves this advice to underclassmen, "Stay in school because it will affect the rest of your life."

FRED SCHUG

"Winning isn't everything, but wanting to win is."

Fred is a fun-loving senior who advises underclassmen to, "Enjoy life while you can." College is included in Fred's plans for the future. "Dref" is most proud of becoming a senior and he liked the senior trips. He will always remember English IV with Mrs. Blauvelt.

STEVEN NEIL SHEFT

"Remember, a pair of heads on the slope are worth more than a pair of cons on the court."

Steve is most proud of getting the only hit during a JV game against Chatham, and will never forget his freshman homeroom with Miss Welham. He plans to go to college and major in business administration. Steve advises underclassmen, "Don't start your senior slump too early; your sophomore year is a good time."

GAIL LESLIE SIGMAN

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

This carefree and happy senior is most proud of graduating and never being sent home for short dresses. Gail's plans after high school are to go into retailing, marry "rich", and live happily ever after traveling around the world. Of V.H.S. Gail says, "It's a nice place to visit, but I wouldn't want to live here." To underclassmen she says, "Quit while you're ahead."

PAUL H. SLEEPER

"Hi"

"Feet" disliked the lack of senior privileges at VHS, and will always remember the junior movie benefit and the magazine drive. He is most proud of getting his license. Paul plans to go to college and then join the Navy in order to travel.

CRAIG FRED SLATIN

"No excellent soul is exempt from a mixture of madness."

"Che" plans to broaden his insights into life and the world by majoring in liberal arts, and enjoying lots of good music. His proudest accomplishment is doing the sound for "Our Town" and especially for "J.B." This honest and witty senior really liked Miss Welham and everything connected with her more than anything else at VHS. His profound advice to underclassmen is, "Use all methods you have to change the policies at VHS, almost to the point of abuse, and above all, get everything you can out of your education."

JANE SHIELDS

"Praise makes good men better and bad men worse."

Always seen with Monda, Jane will remember first period English with Mrs. Babb, and helping Mrs. Kaminsky. After graduation, Jane plans to enter Purdue University. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Strive for your education, not your grades."

KATHERINE JOANNE SMITH

"reach out"

"Smit" will enter college upon graduation, but has no definite major yet. Not having any advice to underclassmen, Kathy liked the "group", bonfires, Shakespeare Seminars, and gymnastics, but disliked the buzzers of VHS. She will always remember that day when Bruce jumped out of the window during Latin class when Mr. Kleissler was absent.

RANDY W. SMITH

"Right here"

"Smithers" advises underclassmen to "Work hard while you can, because your senior year is too late." He didn't like the poor locker room conditions and will remember his freshman homeroom with Miss Welham. Randy plans to go to college and then join the Navy.

DAVID SPIEGEL

"Words are like leaves and where they most abound, much fruit of sense beneath is rarely found."

"Chet" plans to go to college, major in English, and later get married. He will always remember sixth and seventh period classes with Mr. Roccasecca. Dave disliked seeing the same faces all the time, and is most proud of surviving four years at VHS without going insane. He advises underclassmen, "Don't wait until you're seniors before you realize it's too late to save yourself."

JANET ANN STEEL

"My Heart!"

This charming senior plans to go to college, get married and raise a family. Janet disliked fighting her way through the halls, and the bench in the senior lounge, but liked the friends she made while at VHS. She is most proud of being a cheerleader when Verona broke its losing streak. Janet advises underclassmen to, "Work hard, but not too hard."

JOSEPH WILLIAM SOBOTI

"What are you, crazy?"

"Jodey", known for being "sharp," has plans for the future which include winning best dressed awards all over the world. During his four years at VHS, Joe was most proud of his part in "Our Town." He disliked Stein's mind hassling, but enjoyed working at a Cabana Club during the summer with "Gumbo" and "Moishe." His appropriate advice to underclassmen is, "Don't let VHS interfere with your education."

GARY SPRAGUE

"Take it slow."

This athletic senior can usually be seen working out on the field or riding to school with a certain someone. Getting up for 7:00 detention was not an easy task for Gary. Most proud of becoming a senior and graduating, Gary will always remember Feb. 15, 1968 at Kathy's. Among Gary's plans after high school are to enter the Coast Guard.

JAMES MARTIN STEINITZ

"Two roads diverged in a wood and I took the one less traveled by, and that made all the difference."

"Stein" is most proud of playing the part of George in "Our Town". He will never forget the people at VHS, especially Witz, Gum and Jodey. After high school, Jimmy plans to attend college and travel before settling down to a career in law or advertising.

DIANE CAROL STEPHAN

"Anything's possible"

"Die" is that insane senior who is proud of passing every subject. Diane would have liked more senior privileges because there were so few. After high school, Diane will pursue her interest in art at art school. Words of wisdom from Diane are, "If you have to sneak, don't get caught."

ELLEN STRAUS

"The happiest person is the person who thinks the most interesting thoughts."

Ellen, most proud of being co-editor of the Fairviewer, will never forget the late night rewrites or the all night rehearsals for "J.B." After graduation, this intelligent senior will enter college and has plans for marriage in the future.

PATRICK JOSEPH SULLIVAN

"Sul" who is a very athletic senior, is most proud of winning the Suburban Conference in baseball. He liked Mr. Sutter's gym classes. After high school, Pat plans to go to college and play college baseball.

NANCY SHARAN STRUHL

"A woman in love is a poor judge of character."

Nance, that little Senior who is always looking for Linda, is most proud of becoming co-editor of the yearbook. Among her memories are February 15, 1968 at Kathy's, Mr. Bigger's PAD class with Elyn, and the sophomores in her senior year. She advises underclassmen to "Do your schoolwork, but have fun on weekends." Nance plans to go to college after graduation.

MARK N. STEVENS

"I'll knock your socks off."

Since "Snoozy" enjoyed his freshman year so much, he went back for a second time, however he is still a member of the class of '69. After graduation Mark plans to major in computer operation or business in college and eventually get married "after enjoying life fully". Mark advises underclassmen, "Don't let school get you down, for the worst is yet to come".

KEVIN SUPER

"Experience is the fool's best teacher, the wise do not need it."

Kevin, known for his long hair and hippie clothes, can usually be seen with Robin. He disliked the boring assemblies, but enjoyed the chance to get some sleep. Most proud of passing speech, Kevin plans to go to a liberal arts college after graduation.

WILLIAM TRIMMER

Like Newton once said, "Life is a gas."

"Wipper" will always remember Mr. Sutter's fights with Deo. He is known for being athletic and plans to play football in college before teaching on the high school level. He is proud of starting left end on the first team to win a football game in four years. "Wipper" advises underclassmen to "Go undefeated in football and win the Suburban Conference title."

JOHN ROBERT PAUL TESSER

*"Life's but a walking shadow . . .
a tale told by an idiot,*

full of sound and fury, signifying nothing."

John will always be remembered for being the good-natured class chauffeur in Hortense. He is proud of making it through VHS without totally losing his sanity, and of selling 2,000 hot dogs in stale rolls. Although John disliked the "hassle" of the school day, he will especially remember the 7:15 Shakespeare seminars on sub-zero degree mornings. This advice he leaves to the underclassmen, "See things as they are, not as you'd like them to be."

LINDA JOY TUCCI

"Could mean trouble."

This senior plans to attend business school, work, and get married. "Tuna" is most proud of making friends while she was at VHS. She disliked not being able to stay at the nurse's office when she was really sick. Linda advises underclassmen, "Pass and graduate, but also have a good time while you're doing it."

PAMELA SUE TOTTY

"Amor vincit omnia"

Pam is that friendly, sincere senior who made many friends in her two years at VHS. Her advice to underclassmen is, "Make the most of your time." She will always remember the school spirit and the Hillbillies' first victory in four years. Elementary school teaching is included in Pam's plans for the future.

THERESA EURO TSAI

"Keep your face always towards the sunshine, and the shadows will fall behind you."

This sensitive senior is most proud of surviving at least one football game without dropping her baton once. Terri's plans include college and medical school. She liked the informal atmosphere both inside and outside the classrooms, and can usually be found twirling a baton.

JOSEPHINE TURRO

"A smile cannot be bought, borrowed, or stolen, for it is something that is of no value to anyone until it is given away."

"Jo" is proudest of getting her license and becoming a senior. She plans to be an elementary school teacher after college, and eventually marry. Long lunch lines were her pet peeves, but she liked the Senior Lounge. "Jo" will never forget Mr. Yaniro's Algebra I-b class, and the excitement of those winning football games with Mona and Roberta.

MARIA ANNE VALA

"Live for today because yesterday is lost, and tomorrow may never come."

"Ri" will never forget the Verona-Mountain football game of '68. The long lunch lines bothered Maria, and she tells the underclassmen, "Not to ditch in line." After graduation, she plans to study psychology in college.

PHILIP WALKER

Most often seen cruising in his white station wagon, this senior will be remembered by his friends for being a down-to-earth nice guy. Phil will never forget the crowded halls and the cafeteria lunches of VHS.

VIRGINIA MAE WATT

Ginny liked VHS for the "friendliness of the kids" and enjoyed English and study halls. Her advice to underclassmen is to "Put your heart into your school." Ginny considers getting through a year of chemistry with Mr. Johnson her greatest achievement in VHS. She plans to attend Northeastern Collegiate Bible Institute to go into Mission work or Christian Day School teaching, and her favorite quote reflects her ambition — "Only one life 'twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last!"

ELISSA RAQUEL WEITZ

"... life never ends in the moonlit night; and despite what pretty poets say, the night is only half the day."

This "cynic" who believes in fairy tales has many plans for the future including a career in journalism or free-lance writing, hoping to have time for dramatics and art. "Lis" is most proud of getting a part in "J.B.", and working as an editor of the Fairviewer for two years without any measurable decrease in sanity. She advises underclassmen to "Keep a sense of humor handy, and she will never forget staying up all night working on the Fairviewer."

PETER R. VAN VLECK

Pete is that quiet senior who is most proud of graduating in only four years. He advises underclassmen to "Work in school before it's too late." Pete plans to attend college and hopes there will be no long or crowded lunch lines as there were at VHS.

JOHN DOUGLAS WALLACE

This tall senior disliked the crowded corridors of VHS. Most proud of passing Latin, Doug plans to enter college after four years at VHS. He advises the underclassmen, "Try to stick it out."

MARY ELIZABETH WIREN

*"Come on people now,
smile on your brother.
Everybody get together
try to love one another Right Now!"*

"Mer" considers getting through two years of French her greatest achievement in VHS. She liked the long lunch periods, disliked the assemblies, and will always remember seeing the team win a football game. Mary plans to major in biology in college and eventually become a marine biologist.

PATRICIA JEANNE WILDE

"Laughter is the best way to start a friendship, and the only way to end one."

"Tap" liked the great basketball and football games, the pep rallies, and the bonfires. Pat plans to go to college and major in elementary education, and is proudest of passing French three years in a row. She tells underclassmen "Work hard, take an active part in school activities, and stay out of the Senior Lounge!" Pat will always remember the Junior Prom.

SHARON LEE ZANDMAN

"To love and to be loved is the most beautiful happiness of existence."

"Known for wearing her contacts for great lengths of time, Sharon plans to go to college and perhaps join the Peace Corps. She'll never forget the great times with the "Big E", or the trips back and forth to Rutgers.

LINDA MARLENE ZALEWITZ

"Well, here we are."

Linda, known for always looking for Nance, can usually be seen getting a drink of water in the cafeteria. She will always remember being twins with Kathy, and she will never forget the underclassmen. Linda plans to enter college after graduation, but she has not decided about her major yet. Word of wisdom to the underclassmen — "Watch out for the senior girls!"
