EXPRESSIONS

Understanding people is best achieved by observing their modes of expression, whether it be through art, athletics, emotions, appearance, communication or literature. The 1973 Shadows attempts to provide insight into the people of Verona High School by discovering and capturing their EXPRESSIONS.

DEDICATION

MR. PERRY CARL ROCCASECCA

Good looks, a warm smile, "stache," G.T.O., "waffle stompers" — that's Mr. Roc.

He is not just an ordinary history teacher. We acknowledge with deep appreciation the understanding and tolerance which makes him able to relate so well to students, and the insight he brings to the study of economics. He stands out as a very special person, known to all students whether or not they have had him in class.

For his outstanding qualities as a teacher and a friend, we, the class of 1973, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Roccasecca.

MR. JOSEPH VITALE

This year V.H.S. says farewell to the head of its custodial staff, Mr. Joseph Vitale. Always there to help out, Mr. Vitale has been at V.H.S. for forty-two years. He thinks it is "a fine school," and plans to travel after his retirement. The class of 1973 and all the students of Verona High School wish Mr. Vitale much happiness in the future.

RICHARD AARON

Rich, better known as "Hank," is often seen with Doug Sunshine. The highlight of "Hank's" day was 3rd period bookkeeping in his junior year with Mr. Roma. Rich is most proud of making the varsity soccer team in his junior year. Going to college to be an accountant is this senior boy's future plan.

CONNIE ADAMS

*I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence;
Two roads diverged into a wood, and I,
I took the one less traveled by—
And that has made all the difference.*

—Robert Frost

Connie, most proud of being a member of the band, will greatly miss those early Saturday morning rehearsals with Mr. Owens. Her future plans include college and then . . . ?

SUSAN AGOSTINI

Keep smiling and the whole world will wonder what you've been up to.

"Aggie" enjoys Senior Lounge, going out to lunch, and 8th period Business Math. She is most proud of getting her license and her favorite teacher is Mr. Roma. Usually seen with Barb, Elaine, and Merrie, her future plans include work, travel and marriage. She advises underclassmen to get out to lunch before the Driver's Ed. car arrives.

BETTE AHEARN

This senior is most proud of getting through sociology class. The highlight of Bette's day is getting out at 1:30, and her favorite teacher is Miss Reed. Her future plans include secretarial school. She can usually be found with Lynn, Sheree, and John. Bette is bothered by not having enough senior privileges.

JOSEPH ROCCO ALBANO

If at first a break should go against you, don't stop; put on more steam. If a break comes your way, Score!!

Joe enjoyed electronics and his Junior year. Usually seen with "Cast," "Cake," "Herb," and "Hawk." Joe is most proud of the week he attended Boys' State and his involvement in sports. His future plans include college.
