CROSSROADS

*"you know I've heard about people like me but I never made the connection they walk one road to set them free and find they've gone the wrong direction
there's no need for turning back
'cause all roads lead to where I stand and I believe I'll walk them all no matter what I may have planned"*

Don McLean

The directions our lives took as children were mainly determined by our parents. As we grew older teachers suggested new pathways. New friends showed us new roads. By high school we had discovered that each person must plot his own direction. There are no right or wrong directions — only different directions. So here are four years of highways, byways, alleys, and avenues. Here are the Directions of the Class of 1974.

The EDITORS

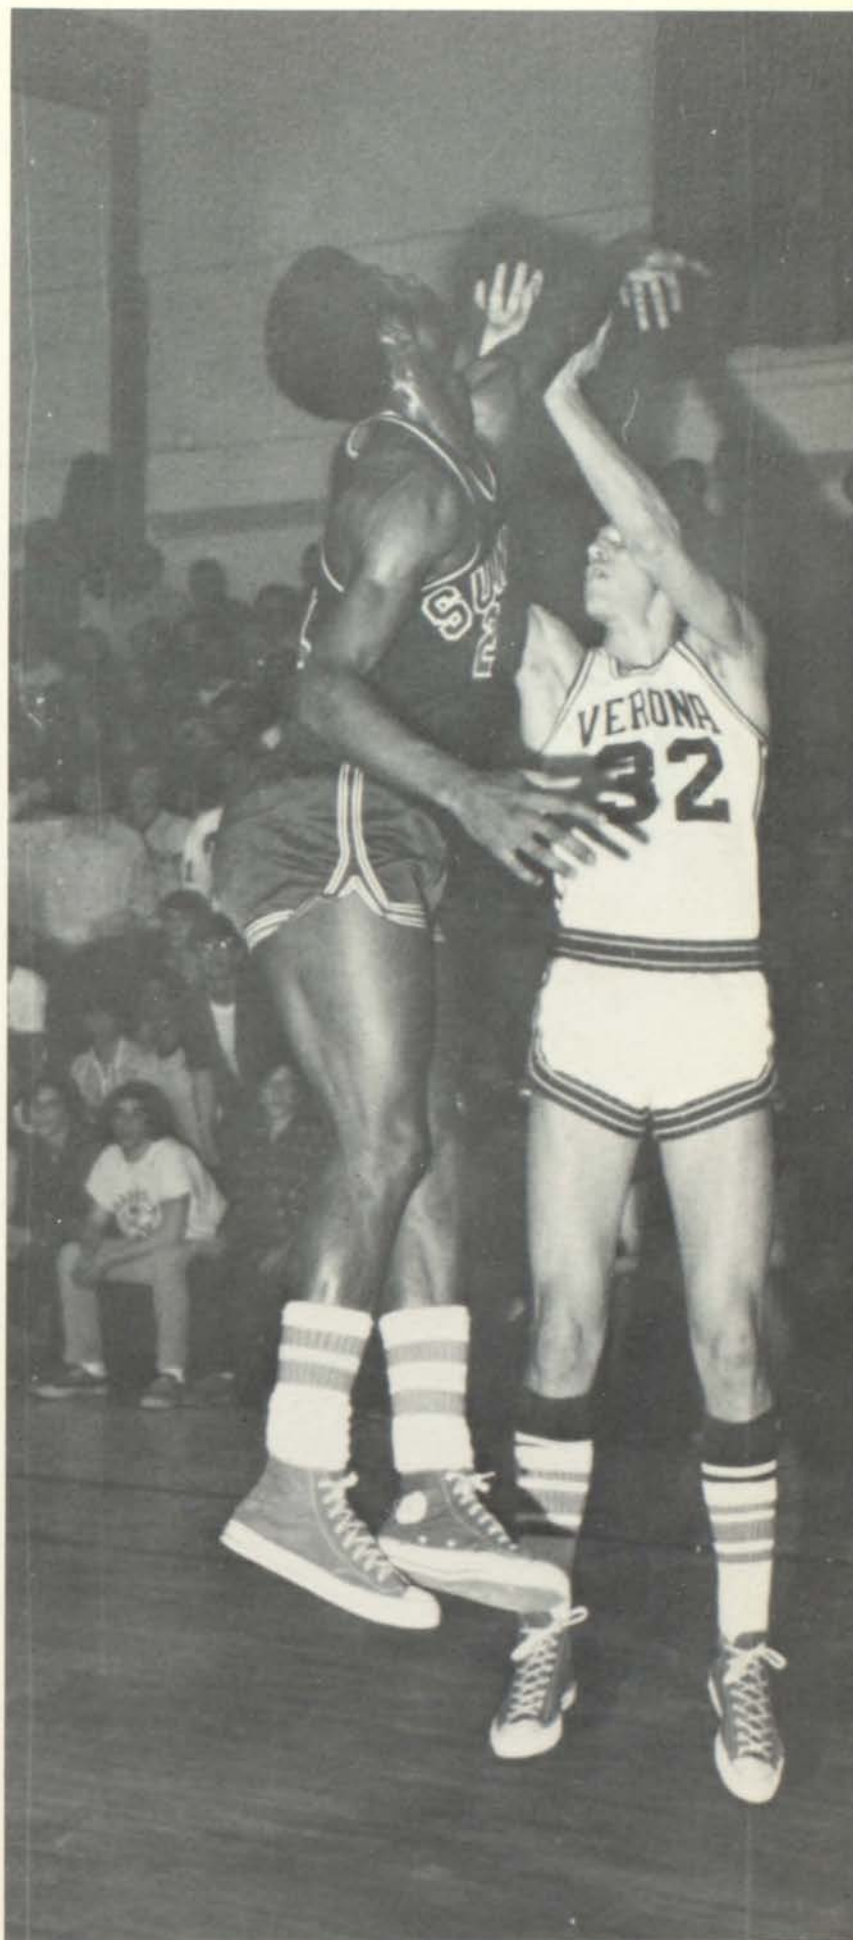

"Would you tell me, please, which way I ought to go from here?"
 "That depends a good deal on where you want to get to," said the Cat.
 "I don't much care where—" said Alice.
 "Then it doesn't matter which way you go," said the Cat.
 "—so long as I get somewhere," Alice added as an explanation.
 "Oh, you're sure to do that," said the Cat, "if you only walk long enough."

DEDICATION

ALLEINE P. GRAEF

ANTHONY P. IUSO

HARRY S. OWENS

ROBERT ROMA

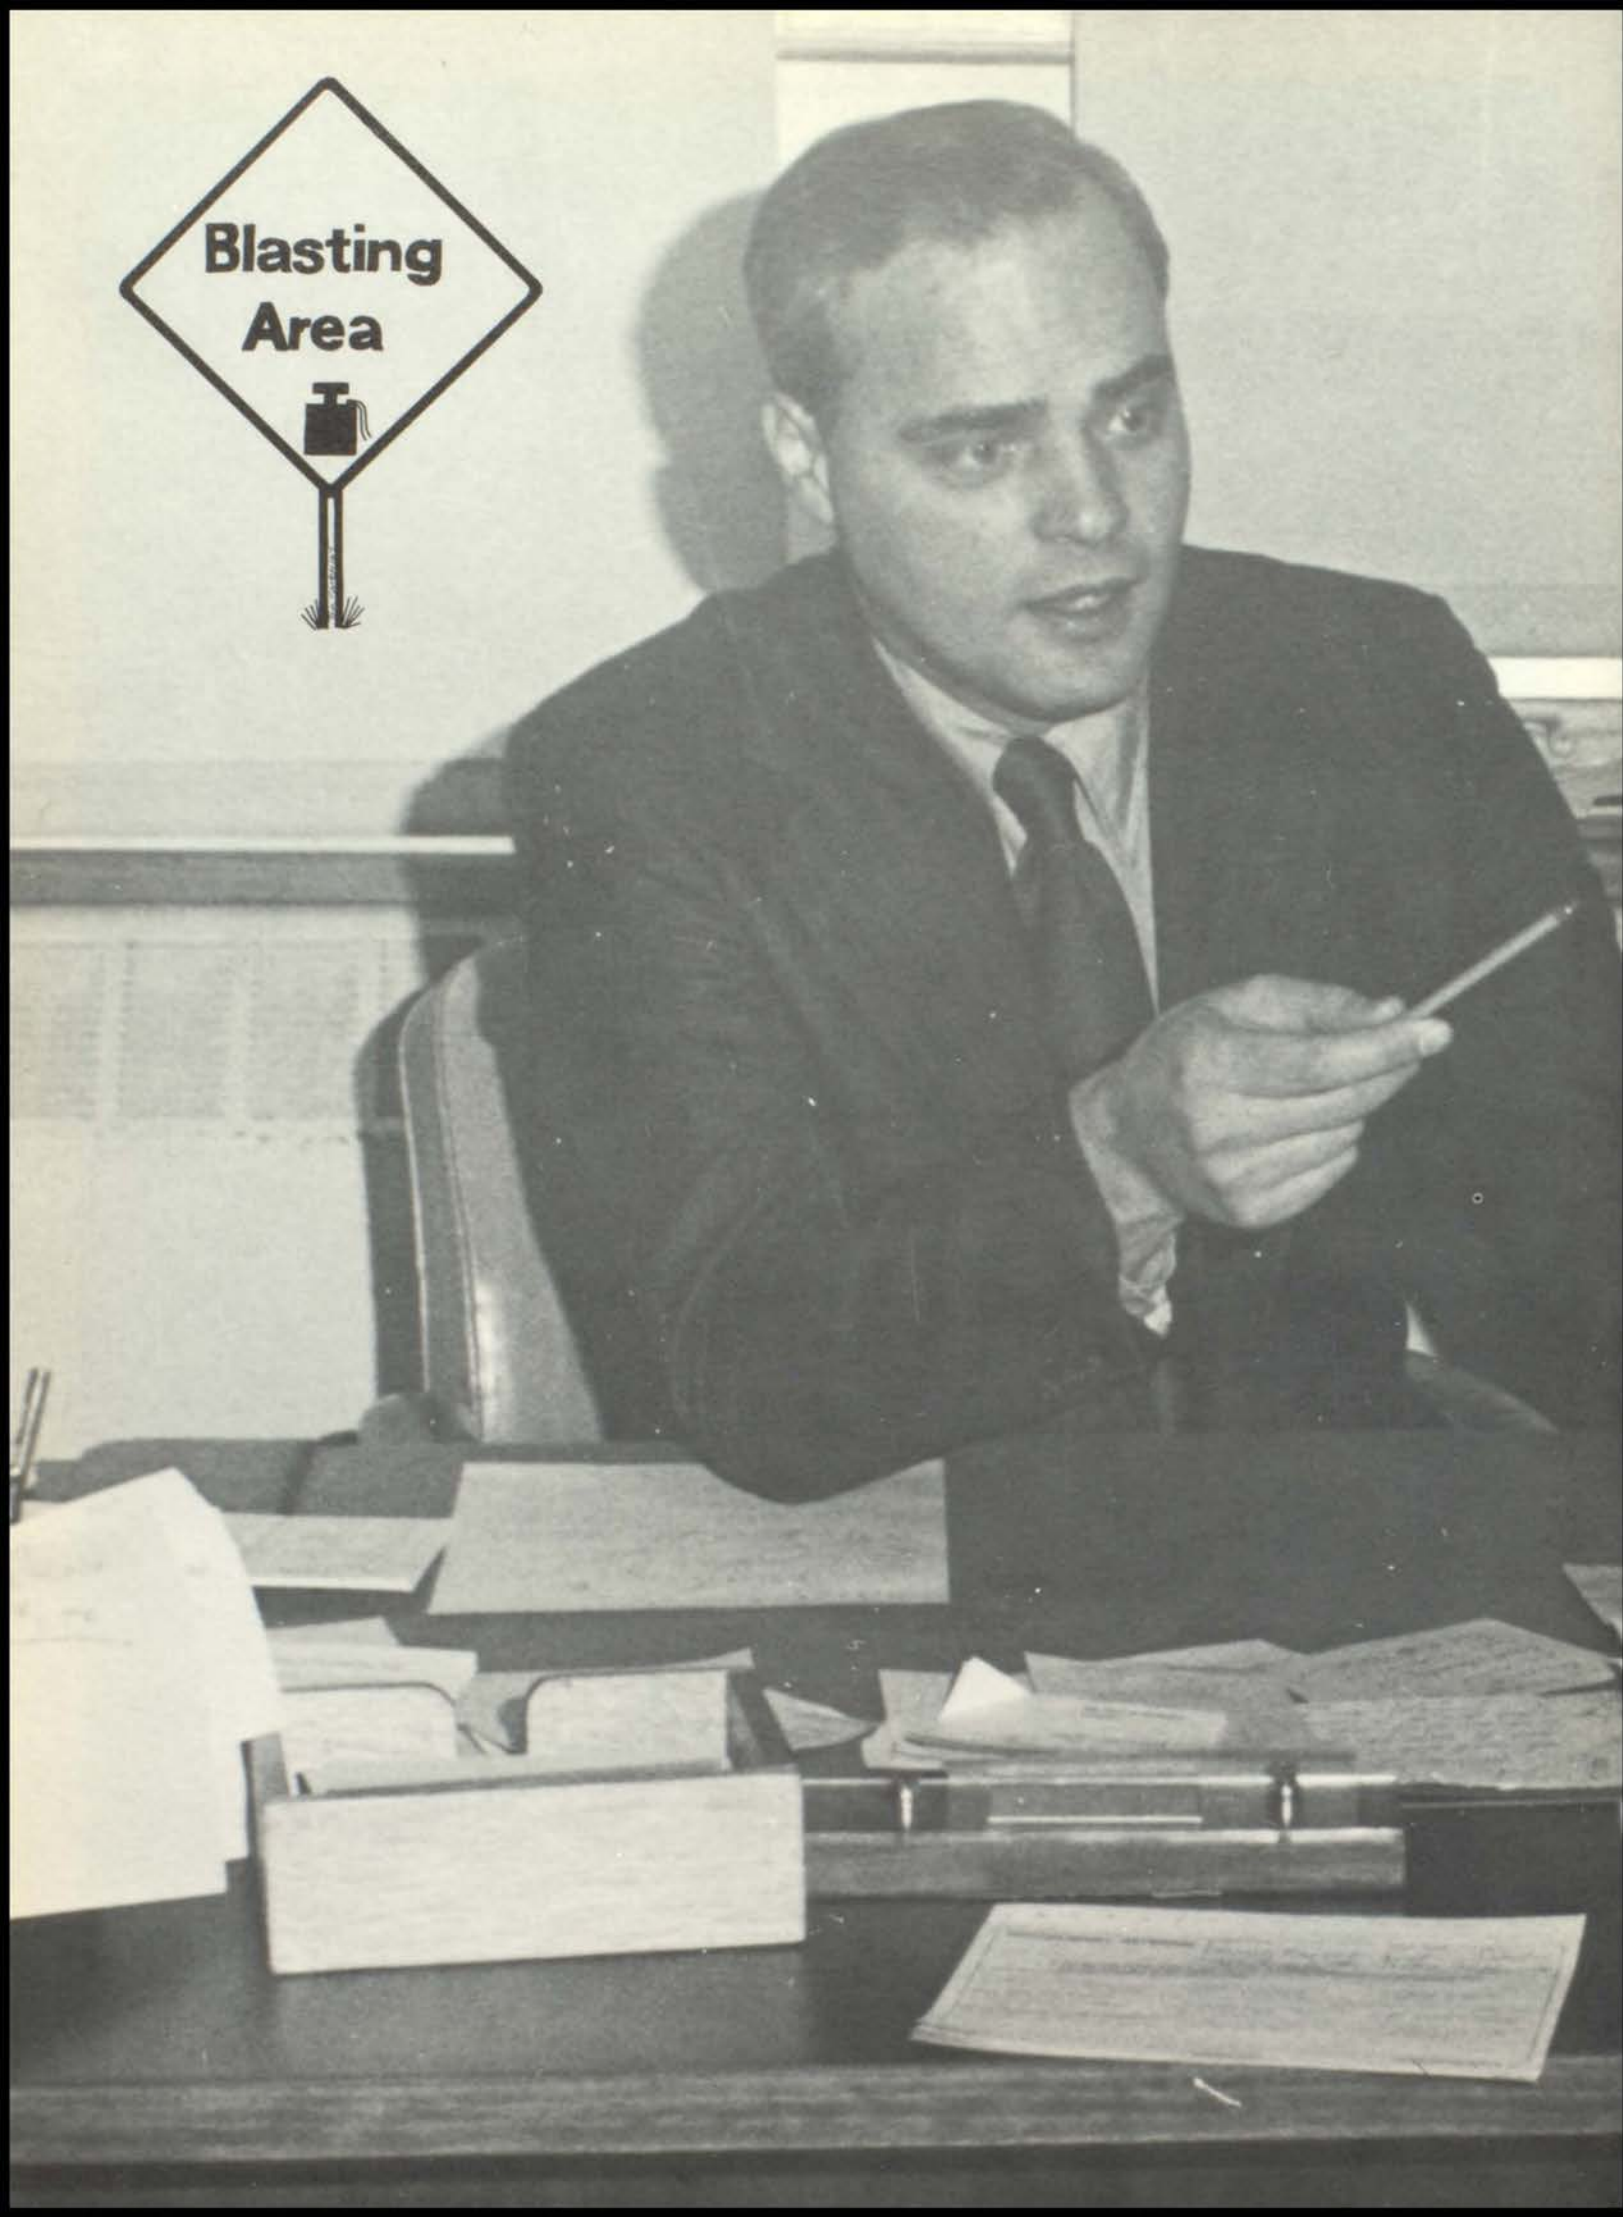

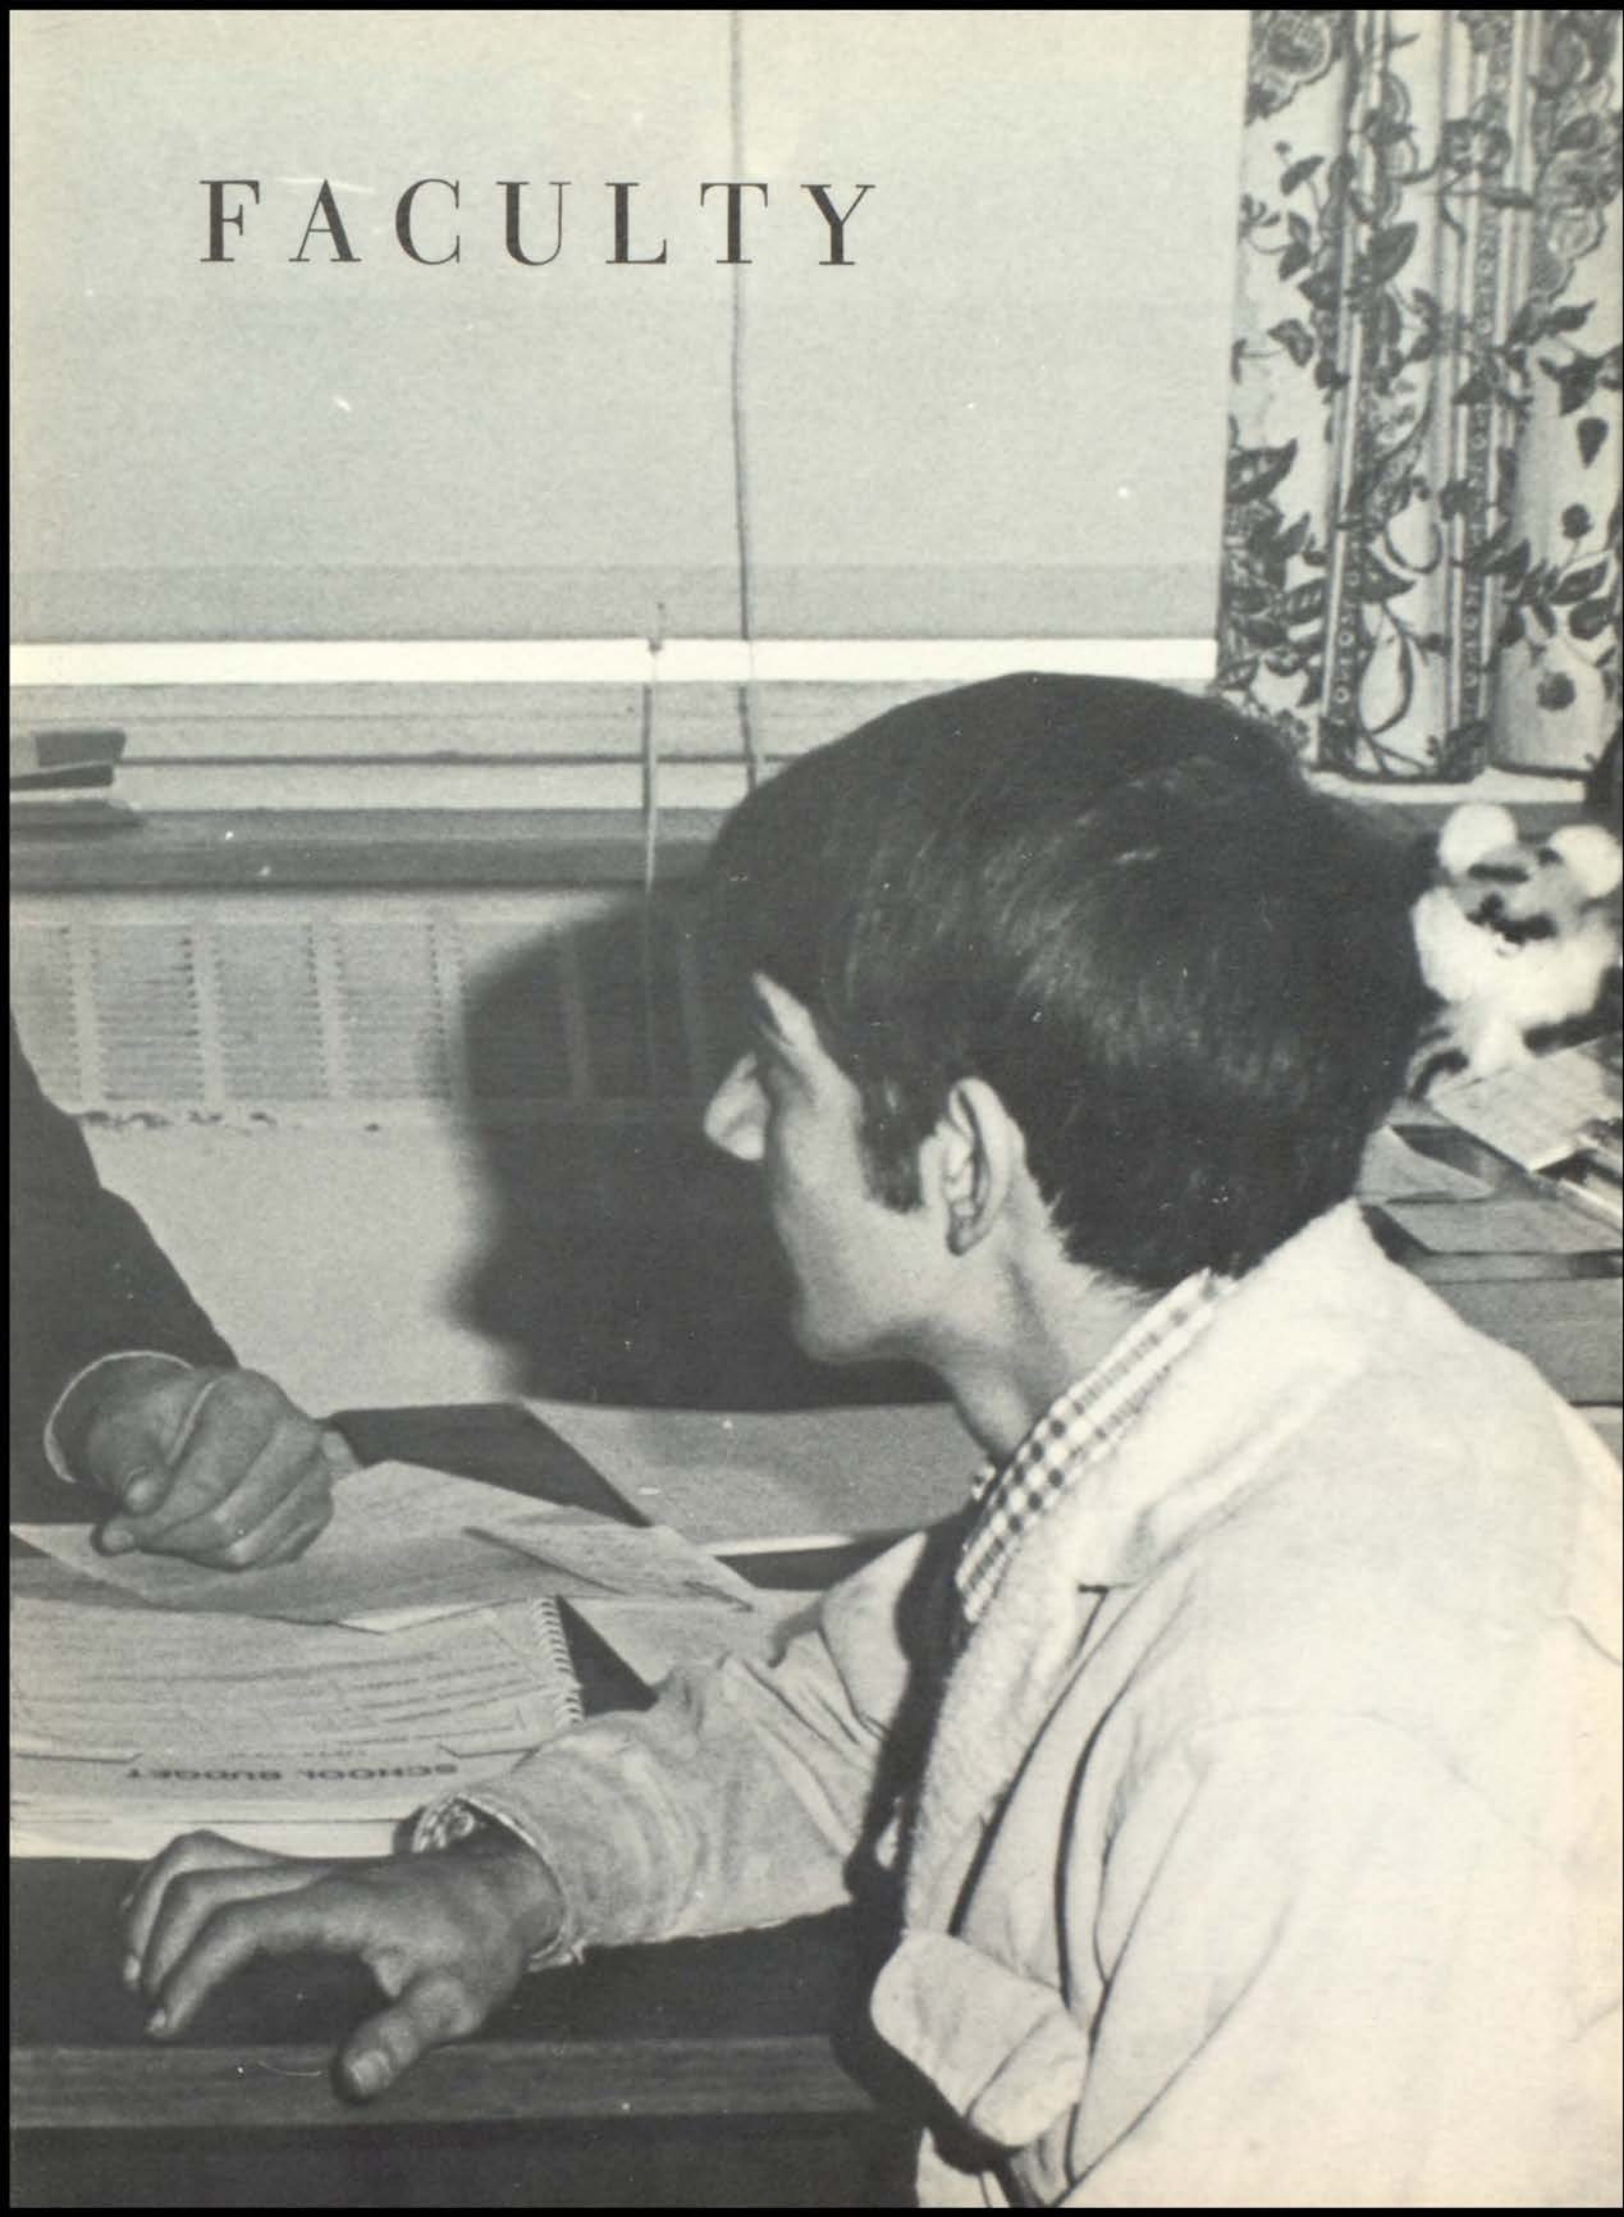

No one person can symbolize the many directions our lives have taken or will take in the future. The Class of '74 has received instruction, guidance, and moral support from too many people to dedicate their yearbook to just one. Therefore, the Senior Class has chosen four people for the dedication. Our special thanks to these four and all the others who have helped us throughout our four years at VHS.

SENIOR

As the demolition dust from the 1st high school in Verona settled over the 2nd high school in Verona, HBW, the Class of '74 entered the 3rd high school in Verona, VHS. There was a war in Southeast Asia and college campus' were recovering from the Kent State incident. General DeGaulle and Louis Armstrong died. Two Apollos went to the moon while Baltimore beat Dallas in the Super Bowl. An amendment to the constitution gave 18 year olds the right to vote. Fashion news concerned the mini, midi, maxi conflict. Everyone flocked to see "Love Story" or to listen to The Who or Ralph Nader. In Verona the population was up 9%. The town purchased a new $55,000 rescue unit and the high school received a new scoreboard. There was flooding along the Peckman River and a folk festival in the park. At VHS the poor Frosh were being told that Room 116 was on the second floor. Despite the hassle from the upperclassmen the Frosh Football team went on to capture first place in the Suburban Conference. There were Dress-Up Days, John Holt Day, and Drug Day. The bomb scare and the murder on the tracks left everyone talking for weeks. Mr. Willard left and Mr. Procopio arrived. The drama club presented "Up the Down Staircase" and the band traveled to Apponoquet. Our Rotary exchange students were Sikander Rashid, Sten Luden, and Suzanne Furno. Donkey Basketball was a first for VHS while everyone was sick and tired of those Frosh and their "Wanna buy a pen?" The Frosh learned what school rivalry was about at the Verona-Cedar Grove basketball game and the fight afterwards. The students even went as far as almost going on strike. The Class of '74 will always remember Mr. O with the pumpkin head, Mrs. Velez, Mr. Muir, and Randy. Freshman year ended with the terror of first exams and a picnic at the pool.

Just as the world was learning about the Pentagon papers the Class of '74 was learning about being Sophomores. President Nixon traveled to China and the USSR, while the Winter Olympics were being held in Sapporo, Japan. My Lai, IT&T, and Clifford Irving were names everyone discussed. The American dollar was devalued and the Wage, Price, and Rent Freeze, Phase I was put into effect. An assassination attempt was made on Alabama's Governor Wallace. Former President Hoover died, as did Life magazine and the Newark Evening News. The movies featured "The Godfather", music — Don McClean's "American Pie", and fashion — "hot pants." Locally, the Verona Eagles sponsored the "Welcome Weekend" exchange with an Omaha, Nebraska team. Evenson's moved into its new addition. Discussed at Board of Education meetings were the tennis courts, the smoking lounge, and the morale issue. At VHS the smoking patrol and the morale issue were also greatly talked about. A school day made up of seven short segments didn't leave much time for digestion of either food or subject matter. The Sophomores showed their class spirit superiority when they won the Spirit Chain and pulled off the first Sophomore Dance in several years, "Friends". The football team became co-conference champs, despite a few singed Pom-Poms, the day they tied Summit 20-20 in the last few seconds. No one will ever forget seeing "Signal 30", "Night of the Living Dead", the "Peace and Posters" assembly, the GAA Spring Show "Disney", or the Dramatics Club "Harvey". The Don Ellis band came to VHS, the Jazz Ensemble traveled to Montreux, Switzerland, and the band went to Rockville, Md. Ildieu Campolina and Yoriko Motomuro were the Rotary Exchange students. The Hunger Walk for Bangladesh drew many participants from VHS. 3rd period gym was shared by all 250 Sophomores, even in the winter when they square danced with Mr. Rotella. The Class of '74 will always remember Miss Howell, Mrs. Leonardson, Mr. Falconer, and Mr. Butterworth. In some ways they were like any other Sophomore class — Tale of Two Cities, frogs' legs fights in lunch, candy bars, and ordering school rings. But in many ways they weren't like anyone else. They were unique.

Watergate was the event everyone talked about. But there were other things happening. Names like Mark Spitz and Olga Korbut emerged from the tragic Summer Olympics in Munich. The POW's came home and Skylab took off. Former presidents Truman and LBJ died, as did Pablo Casals, and Roberto Clemente. There was renewed fighting in the Middle East and continued battle in Ireland. Secretariat and Bobby Fischer were big names on the sports scene. Watkins Glen was the new Woodstock with over 600,000 people attending. Rising food costs drove housewives to boycott meat. In Verona, the Public Library celebrated its 80th anniversary. There was extensive flooding along the Peckman River. In the center of town a new park was created on the site of the old Bloomfield Ave. school. A survey was conducted among the Senior Citizens to determine their needs and Rev. John Martin moved from OLL to a new parish in Newark. At VHS the 7 over 9 schedule had some students coming in at 7:50, others leaving at 3:40, and all students with short lunches. Changes included Dr. Whyte and Mr. Procopio's departures and Dr. Rainey and Mr. Iuso's appointments. Volleyball was co-ed, the soccer team was the undefeated Suburban conference champs and the basketball team beat Summit. The magazine drive reached new heights as the Chemistry grades reached new depths, but "Chemistry is a Joy!" The Color Guard placed in several competitions, the band traveled to Toronto, and the Drama Club presented "Arsenic and Old Lace". Although the golf course parties were less formal, they were as socially successful as the Prom, "A Time For Us". No one will ever forget the disturbance the basketball caused with the Fire Department or the "floods" in Mr. Throne's classes. The Class of '74 will always remember Mr. Donnelly, Mr. Cleary, and Mrs. Garoni. While all of us were anticipating Behind the Wheel, silly things like PSAT's, NMSQT's, SAT's, and ACH's had priority. But for many of the Juniors the year ended with the biggest test — the Driver Test.

HISTORY

Senior year was the year of the energy crisis. There were repeated flare-ups in the Middle East and continued battles in Ireland. England's Princess Anne married Mark Phillips. Watergate was still important. Spiro Agnew resigned as vice president and Gerald Ford took his place. While the Oakland A's beat the NY Mets and the Miami Dolphins beat the Minnesota Vikings, Billie Jean King struck a blow for women's lib and beat Bobby Riggs. Gene Krupa, Betty Grable and David Ben-Gurion died. Kung Fu hit the movie industry and Jim Croce hit the music industry. Platform shoes and polished fingernails were the latest fashion. In Verona, the new tennis courts at the HS opened. A town ordinance was passed forbidding the consumption of alcohol on public grounds. Due to the energy crisis, the Christmas lights were not lit along Bloomfield Avenue dimming the Christmas season. At VHS students rejoiced over the extension of vacation but sulked over the lack of gasoline. Instead of riding around, they spent their Saturday nights in the school parking lot, Burger King or the "Star". The soccer team was the undefeated Conference Champs and the football team, although they lost to Summit, were Group II, Section II State Champs. Assemblies covered subjects from Rock 'N Roll music to Hypnosis to Honor Society Inductions. The Model UN Club took high honors at Harvard and the Marching Maroon & White placed in the West Essex Competition. "Oliver!" and the Prom were the two big events of the spring. Official Senior privileges like dressing-up on Halloween, Senior lounge during study halls, and exam exemptions were almost as important as the unofficial ones like out-to-lunch. There were many little bothers like applying to colleges and toe exercises that almost got in the way of going down the shore, but the Seniors still succeeded in going when Spring Fever and Senior Slump arrived. Julie Kenealy from Australia and Fernando Favaro from Brazil were the exchange students. The Class of '74 will always remember all the people who helped them throughout their four years at VHS. The last few days before graduation were a blur of caps & gowns, yearbooks, parties and tears.

We leave four years of growing up behind us at VHS to go out and find new directions.

This year proved to be beneficial and busy for the Junior Class. The Magazine Drive started off the year as a preliminary fund-raiser for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Looking forward to May 10, the Juniors added to their treasury with the Thanksgiving Day Corsage Sale and the ever popular Bagel Sale. Their hard work will soon be rewarded as they inherit the coveted Senior Lounge.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"I knew you'd put in a good word for me, Scott."

Ushers, vendors, hosts and teachers. Does that sound like an Honor Society? It should. Each member of this year's Honor Society served in these capacities at least once this year. It all began last May, when 12 members of the Class of '74 were inducted. They were soon put to work ushering for 8th grade orientation and graduation. In September, the Honor Society began to tutor and to struggle through doing the Bulletin Board in the cafeteria each Friday afternoon. They ushered parents on Election Day and Go-to-School Night. They gave a Wassail Party during the holiday time for the VHS Alumni. An old-fashioned induction ceremony, including candles, flowers, and an honorary member highlighted their spring work. Proceeds from selling refreshments at the baseball games went to the scholarships presented by the Honor Society at the Senior Awards Assembly.

"Do you think anyone would notice if we put it in upside down?"

The Honor Society organizes the refreshments for the baseball games.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Magazine Drive thermometer inches it way up.

"Dear Dr. Rainey, We don't know how to tell you this . . ."

This year's student council showed greater involvement in the social and educational life of V.H.S. Its main committees, the Social, Curriculum and Policy committees spent the year working on proposals that will benefit all students and teachers. The Council's large treasury enabled it to give financial support to many chartered clubs.

From last June to this past April, the Shadows staff has organized pages; designed layouts; taken, developed and printed pictures; typed copy; and spent whole weekends and entire evenings, (until 3:30 a.m.!), getting the book to press on time. Magic? Hardly!

EXCHANGE

JULIE ANN KENEALY
Australia

While walking down the halls this year, you might have heard an occasional "Bonjour" or "Bloody!" If you had you shouldn't have been surprised. They were probably exchange students. There were two Rotary Exchange Students this year. Julie Kenealy of Melbourne, Australia arrived January of last year and left this January. Julie left her mark on VHS through Shadows, football and her award-winning Oliver poster. Fernando Favaro from Brazil arrived this January and will be here through next January. Flávia Menezes of Caruaru, Brazil was here for three months as an AFS exchange student.

Twelve Verona students traveled to Paris, France this February under the auspices of the Cultural Institute Exchange and Miss Louise Fricke. In March, fifteen Parisien students returned the visit, spending one month in Verona. They attended VHS for three weeks and then spent a week traveling around the Eastern Coast.

These students, under the leadership of Nancy Cohen, chairwoman, Pam Erickson, co-chairwoman and Mr. Moore, program coordinator, were part of the Newark Tutoring Program. Although the program had it's problems, the high school students and little ones have developed a relationship from which everyone has benefited.

COIN CLUB

As participation in extra-curricular activities grew this year, so did the number of clubs at VHS. The Conservation Club of last year became the Ecology Club of this year. The club's big project was the collection and recycling of the school's waste paper. A new idea, the Coin Club, drew interested students to its meetings. The Cycle Club took several long bike hikes. The Shemp Club was formed in the latter part of the year.

CHOIR

This year the choir is composed of members from all grades and over half of them performed in the musical "Oliver". Several choir members were selected for leads in the exciting production. Under the direction of Mr. Timothy White, they presented a concert in December and went caroling at the elementary schools. In March the choir sang for two assemblies at H. B. Whitehorne. Then in May, the choir and band united for a joint concert. For the first time in the choir's history, they participated in an exchange with James Caldwell High School. The choir is looking forward to similar activities in the future.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Again, G.A.A. had the most participation of any club in the school, offering to it's members such activities as soccer, volleyball, basketball, gymnastics and softball. The clubs first big activity of the year, "Dig Your Daddy Night", was a huge success. The beginning of February brought the start of plans for the Spring Show. G.A.A. ended it's year with a weekend trip and a banquet.

Distributive Education Club of America enables students to attend school in the morning and have a job in the afternoon. Cooperative Office Education trains students for secretarial work. Cooperative Industrial Education trains students in the industrial arts. Over fifty students were provided jobs through the work programs. A successful year ended with a most enjoyable banquet.

A duet for drum and clarinet?

The Concert Band's year opens with the family membership drive and closes with the Band Banquet. Somewhere in between comes weeks of practice, playing, and performance. Canvassing the town in their new uniforms during October the band sold over 530 family tickets. They played concerts at all four elementary schools, the Middle School, and at the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester, Va. The band presented a winter concert in January and joined forces with the choir for a spring concert in May. March 2nd the band put together 5,000 hoagies in a record 2½ hours time. A slide presentation, awards, and "gifts" highlighted the banquet in June.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Did you happen to go to a Jazz Ensemble concert this year and swear you heard two soloists, but your eyes saw only one? The reason behind this strange phenomena was a small machine called an echoplex. This, along with a new set of conga drums, became part of the Jazz Band's sound. The music they played was written for Kenton, Ferguson, and Rich, but it was V.H.S. musicians who played tough festivals like Glassboro, Ramapo and Quinnipiac where they screeched notes, kept tempos, and won trophies.

Student involvement in clubs grew this year, thanks to a new schedule and a wider variety of clubs. The Model U.N. attended conferences at Harvard and Georgetown. Many members of the group were honored individually, with the entire club receiving special recognition. "Oliver!", the first musical presented at V.H.S., was a great success for the Dramatics Club and Music Department. Many old club were revived this year, while the Conservation Club became the Ecology Club and went into the re-cycling business.

THE 1973 VHS VARSITY and JV FOOTBALL SQUADS

FOOTBALL

The varsity football squad enjoyed a most successful '73 season in which we rallied to an 8-1 record. Our senior dominated team had all the qualities needed for a winning season. We had tremendous physical ability; a winning attitude, without which no team can obtain success; outstanding leadership from within the team and a highly knowledgeable coaching staff. Added to all those was the continuous support of our school and especially our parents. VHS is truly proud of our '73 football squad.

MARCHING BAND

What is Maroon & White, has 268 legs, makes a great deal of noise, and appears on football fields at sunrise? A sports-loving centipede? No, the V.H.S. Marching Maroon & White! This year the Marching Band entered competitions at Randolph Twp. and West Essex, taking 2nd place in the latter. May 2, 3, 4, and 5 found the band in Winchester, Virginia for the Apple Blossom Festival, where they placed 2nd in the B division of the Marching Band Competition.

When not out marching during football season, the twirling squad could be found scrounging for practice time in the gym. When it got too cold on the field, the squad moved indoors for winter competition. What the girls' hope for next year is longsleeved uniforms for those cold games.

"Guard, march!" Each Monday night the gym is filled with 20 members of the Color Guard going thorough their routine. Guns flying and flags twirling, they practice hours every week. Under the direction of Mr. Fred Auriemma and Mr. Anthony Schmaus, the squad took 3rd place in two festivals and hosted their own successful festival on April 6th.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The Girls Tennis Team was an example of the many changes at VHS this year. It was the first Girls Tennis Team; the first Girls team to use the new school courts; the first Girls team to follow a Suburban Conference schedule; and one of the first two girls teams to receive varsity letters! Another first was that it was Coach Rose Ann Spina's first year as coach at VHS. Despite all the firsts, the season was not as successful as hoped for.

SOCCER

Again, the Varsity Soccer team came through and brought great fame to VHS. This undefeated team, with nine seniors, became the Suburban Conference champs. A highlight of the season was Mr. Stiefbold's 200th win. The JV team also had a great year. This year's Freshman Soccer team also had a fantastic year and they, too, were the Suburban Conference champs.

FIELD HOCKEY

The record of the VHS Girls Field Hockey team is really no indication of the hard work the girls put forth during their fall season. The girls practiced at least three times a week from early September to late November in all types of weather. The new advantage of playing their home games on the varsity football field finally gave the girls the edge they needed to win when they beat Cedar Grove 2 - 1 on the home turf. The 1973 season was a building year for the team but the coming year should prove to be better as all the girls except one graduating senior shall be returning for the new season.

CHEERLEADERS

"Let's go, Verona. On to victory!" From early September to late February that cry can be heard around the halls and fields of VHS. Each squad practiced every day during the fall and at least three days a week from then on. The Varsity cheerleaders cheered for Varsity football and basketball games. The Soccer cheerleaders cheered Varsity soccer and JV basketball games. The Frosh cheerleaders covered the Frosh football and basketball games.

BOWLING

This year, the bowling team's strength was in its age, as there was only one underclassman. As a result, they rolled their way to 2nd place in the Suburban Conference. The team was coached by Mr. John Burguillos. This year's All-Conference team included Dave Lyon on first team, and Scott Mulcahy and Randy Weinglass on second team.

TRACK

VHS had a large track team this year with over 80 students participating. The boys were involved in the broad jump, pole vault, shot put, javelin, and running events. Led by Coaches Pecoraro, Rotella, and Sutter, the team enjoyed much success over its long spring season.

Through the help of Coach Bob Roma and a new pitching machine, Verona enjoyed a great varsity season. Verona's other pitching machines were Bruce Brown and Phil Parsels, with back-ups from Jim Hughes, Joe Costa and Frank Albano. On the receiving end of the ball were catchers Ralph Betcher and Tom Ciccone. When the opponents finally managed to hit a ball into the outfield there were Tom Basil, Jim Hughes, Paul Zeller, and Frank Albano waiting to catch it. Rounding out the bases were Gary Hartwig, Nick Mastro, Mike Traettino, George Lanzo, and Rich Mascera.
