DEDICATION

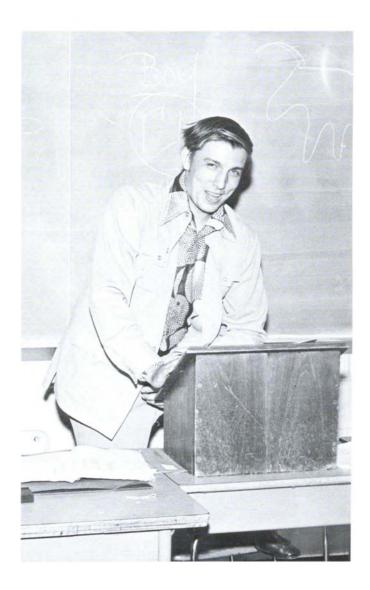

THOMAS G. KERRIGAN

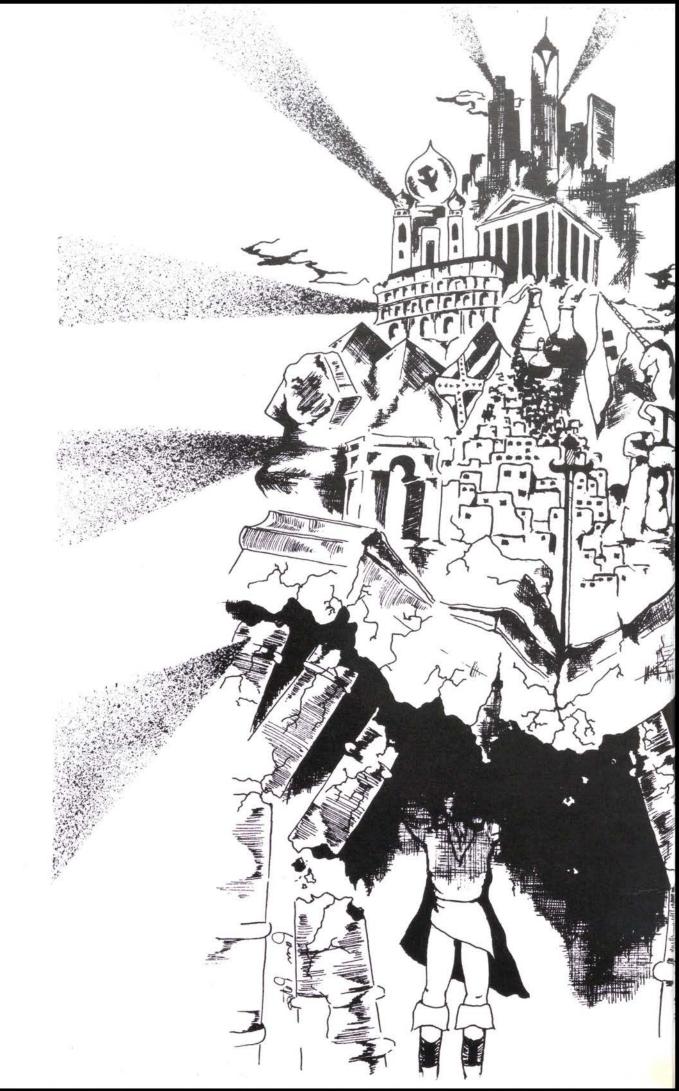

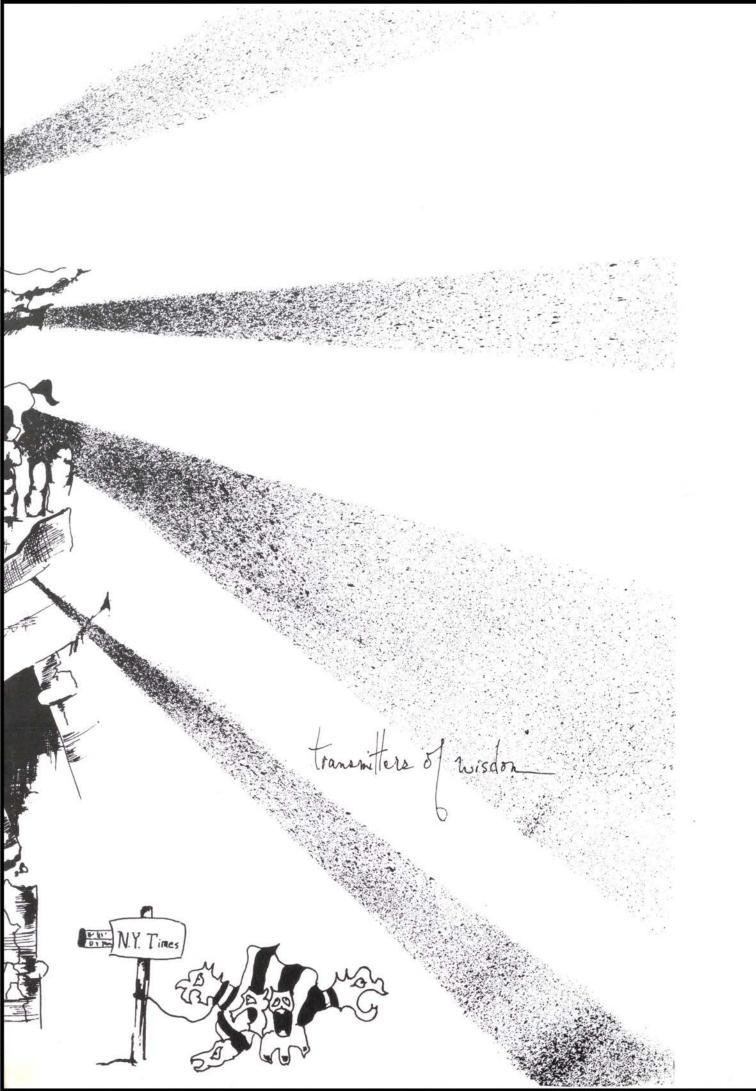

Tom Kerrigan has devoted his time and efforts to Verona High School and to the Class of '78. As a member of the history department, he has always been a favorite of the VHS students. For being a teacher and a friend, and more important, for believing in us, the senior class takes great pride in dedicating SHADOWS '78 to Mr. Thomas Kerrigan.

MISIONS OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

YEARBOOK

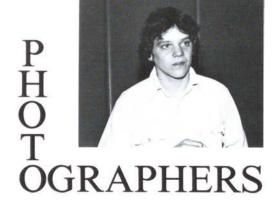

Under the direction of Mr. Ken Luks, the 1978 Shadows staff began work on the yearbook in the summer of 1977. With a new publisher and the decision to elect no editor-in-chief, each member had to adjust to this new system. Obviously this change strengthened group cooperation and made this year's 1978 Shadows so interesting and innovative. The 1978 yearbook staff is proud to present Shadows to Verona High School.

SHADOWS '78

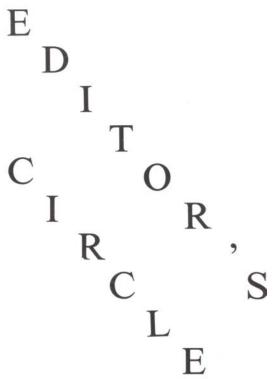

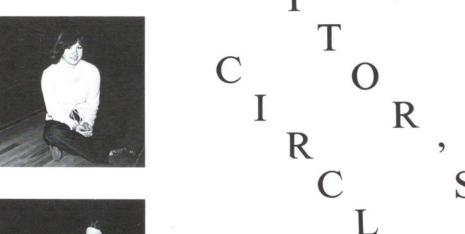

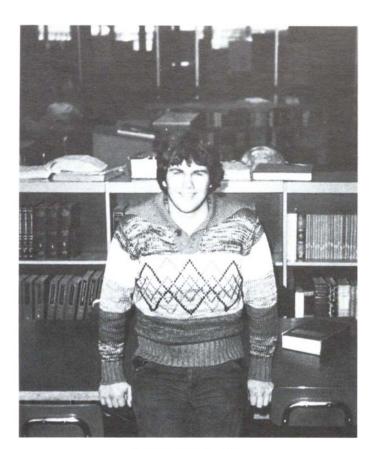

Brian Bannon, President

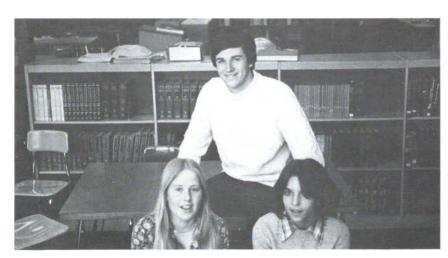

Although this year's Student Council began with certain financial difficulties, it was able to understand these problems and eventually solve them. Under the leadership of President Brian Bannon, the 35-member Council purchased a banner for the new High School gym. Other successful activities were an Olympic Marathon Fund and a rock concert.

The Student Council ended the 1977-78 school year on an optimistic note and believes that a bright future awaits student government for the class of 1979.

MARCHING BAND

Asst. Director - Tony Schmaus; Director - Harry Owens

This year the Verona High School Marching Maroon and White entered many competitions. One of its most successful performances was in Morris Knolls, where the band won first place and received the Shepard Grand Award for the best band in both the A and B classes. In order to accomplish these facts and to make superior showings at the football games, the band was often practicing on the field, under the direction of Harry Owens, at the crack of dawn!

CONCERT BAND '77-'78

Band Seniors

Not only did the 1978 Verona High School Concert Band compete in Canada, where they proved to be the best band, but they also participated in many other activities. The year opened with a demonstration in Atlantic City at the New Jersey Teacher's Convention and ended with the Band Banquet. The year was also filled with weeks of practicing, performing, and selling family memberships and hoagies. The band presented a February winter concert and a May spring performance. The 1978 Concert Band continued its proud tradition of touring other states by playing at several schools in Pennsylvania, including Wilkes College.

COLOR GUARD

Carol Schutt, Captain

Ann Horton

Mary Ellen Soda

The Verona Color Guard, under the direction of Mr. Anthony Schmaus, consisted of sixteen flags, eight weapons, and an American section of two. Successful marching band and competition seasons included the hosting of the annual Verona competition in March, the All-Eastern Championship, and the trip to Wildwood, New Jersey to participate for the third year in the National Music Festival.

CONCERT CHOIR

Muriel Griffin, President; Lynn Katsafouros, Manager

This year's innovative choir program has proven to be a great success for both the concert choir and the chamber singers. The first group, open to all students, has participated in many activities ranging from orange and grape-fruit sales to participation in "Music In Our Schools" to the Mansfield College Festival in April. Meeting everyday first period, the concert choir prepared for two programs during the school year, and always seemed to have an approaching project, organized by director David Deitz.

CHAMBER SINGERS

The newly formed 1977-78 Chamber Singers had a wide variety of activities ranging from orange and grapefruit sales to choir performances. Meeting every day 8th period, and often after school, the Chamber Singers, under the direction of David Deitz, devoted a great deal of time in preparation for their May trip to Nashville, Tennessee. All choir members had a fun time and also a great learning experience as they developed a sense of musical appreciation and of their own musical ability.

The Honor Society once again spent the year serving the High School community. The thirty-one dedicated members tutored, baked, and ushered. Taking inventory at Korvette's was the year's largest and most effective fundraiser. The proceeds of the entire year's work were given away in the form of two scholarships. The society proved, this year, why it is an "Honor Society"

The Fairviewer

The High School newspaper, The Fairviewer, had a very unique feature this year — an all-female staff. At the start of the school year, the staff attended a literary workshop to become better acquainted with various reporting techniques. Under the direction of Mrs. Pat Koenig, the paper had an extremely successful year, but hopes it will be published more often in the future.

Are We That Bad?!

... The juniors ('76-'77) have been termed as being unmotivated, rowdy, uncontrollable, and disrespectful, and as having a low mentality level and a considerable lack of responsibility. How can these things possibly be applied to approximately 250 students - a great number of which are enrolled in accelerated courses and are involved with extracurricular activities? Granted, there are always some students in every grade level who tend to abuse their privileges and cause trouble, but it is unfair to stereotype an entire class, because of the antics of an extremely small minority. In this respect, are the juniors to be castigated any more than the freshmen, sophomores, and seniors?!

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Lynda Clarizio, Outstanding Justice

The Model United Nations Club offers students interested in international relations the chance to publicly speak, to write resolutions, and, most importantly, to understand the foreign policies of other nations. The highlight of this year was a trip in February to the Georgetown Model United Nations Conference. For four intense days, ten delegates represented the United Arab Emirates on various committees of the General Assembly, while Lynda Clarizio and Pam Petro were justices on the International Court of Justice. Lynda Clarizio returned with a highly commended justice award.

The group, accompanied by advisor Ronald Wolfe, had an enjoyable and successful learning experience in Georgetown, in which they encountered the complexities of the United Nations and the difficult task of attaining world peace.

AVANT-GARDE

The Avant-Garde is a literary magazine that provides a creative outlet for interested students. It contains numerous selections of poetry, prose, art, and word games. The magazine also makes students aware of the creative talents of their fellow classmates. Students who would like to have their work printed in the Avant-Garde are encouraged to submit it to the members of the club. Participation in Avant-Garde can prove to be a very rewarding experience. It allows for a discovery of a new form of expression while enhancing an individual's selfconfidence.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club this year consisted of about 15 students advised by Dr. Collura. Up until this point in the school year, we have had several meetings and had our annual Noel celebration at the Clos Normand restaurant in New York. Plans for the coming months include a visit with the French Consulate to the United Nations. Bon chance a la cercle francaise et a la classe de '78!

INTERNATIONAL

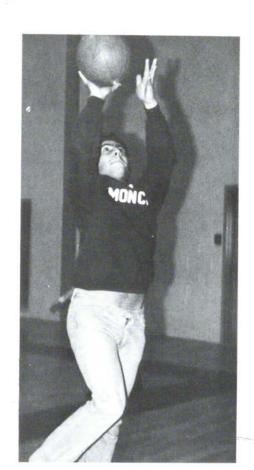

Cindy Weinstein, Lynda Clarizio, Chairwomen; Terri Fryer, Advisor

International Weekend is Verona's unique way of furthering international cooperation and communication. This year's International Weekend proved to be one of the most successful ever at Verona High School. A record number of foreign students attended the Weekend. The culmination of the activity was the International Buffet on Friday night. Under the dynamic guidance of Mrs. Terri Fryer, the activity not only had community-wide importance, but also state-wide significance. Mrs. Fryer was invited to an American Field Service program to explain International Weekend at Verona High School.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Mr. Jim Walsh, Advisor

The 1977-78 Dramatics Club has been quite active this year, not only with its stage productions, but also behind the scenes in acting workshops and training programs for backstage crews. Its production of "The Good Doctor" in November was a great success, and many of the club members have been contributing their talents to the annual musical, "Hello Dolly." Rounding out their season, the involved students presented an act of "Our Town" at the Bucks County High School Drama Festival in May. The Dramatics Club Members, under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Jim Walsh, have both reinforced past learning experiences and acquired new insights into this valuable art during the year.

CHESS

The 1978 Chess Club has proven to be one of the most competitive teams in the area with an outstanding record of 8-0. Under the direction of Mr. Somers, the 7-member team met twice a week in order to devise new strategies. The improvement of Verona High School's Chess Club was so notable that it was invited for the first time to a state tournament in Philadelphia.

HOME ECONOMY SHOP

The principles of the 1978 Home Economy Shop were to increase the productivity of students and to help parents with the often disrupted routine of cooking. The Shop, under the guidance of Mrs. Lipman, and student chairpeople Gaye Tancke and Ann Connell, prepared breads, cakes, soups, and casseroles. With the accumulated funds, the students went to a fine restaurant, and enjoyed the food prepared by others!

COOPERATIVE INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

The Cooperative Industrial Education Program aims to educate the student training in the world of work via sequential experiences in school and on the job.

COOPERATIVE OFFICE EDUCATION

"Cooperative Office Education at Verona High School is intended to bridge the gap for the secondary school student between the termination of secondary school experiences and the beginning of a useful career in the business community," according to Jeanne Bryne, coordinator of Cooperative Office Education.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

Distributive Education, co-ordinated by Joseph Pirrello, combines academic discipline of marketing with a practical, developmental part-time job experience," according to the release from Verona High School.

BARI MICHELLE DUBOWSKY
Once in a vision,
I came on some woods
And stood at a fork in the road.
My choices were clear,
Yet I froze with fear
Of not knowing which way to go.
One road was simple
Acceptance of life.
The other road offered sweet peace.
When I made my decision,
My vision became my release.

LORRAINE ZALES

The time has come to release ourselves, to discover new worlds, to take our dreams and use them, and to part from many people we hold dear. Friends are a special part of ourselves and their smiles will linger through the fog of fading memories.

YVONNE M. WILSON

They'll be times when the people will discourage

And erase all the beauty of your style, Just relax and hold on to your egotistic pride

And hold on to all your hope for a little while.

For he who has health has hope And he who has hope has everything.

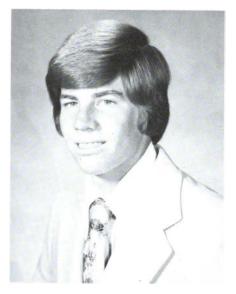

MELISSA ZELEN

FRESHMEN '74-'75

Once upon a time, there were 250 frightened earthlings who entered a new planet. They participated in many new occupations such as "Music Man", girls' ski team, the winning delegation of the Georgetown Model U.N., the choir exchange with Mt. Pocono, the first place Jazz Band at Berkeley, the successful referendum, the second place Band at Syracuse, and they encountered a whole new atmosphere of fears and aspirations.

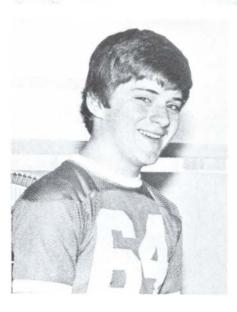

SOPHOMORES '75-'76

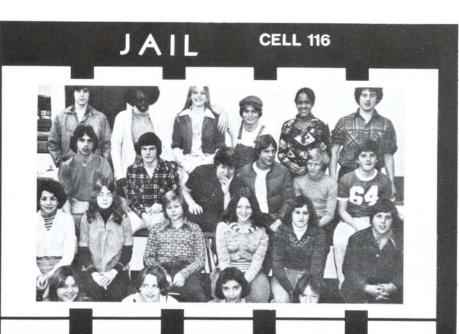

These tiny creatures continued their development and furthered their powers in this new habitat. They immersed themselves in planetary divisions with "Carousel", the Horseheads choir exchange, the victorious band at Atlantic City, the 1st-place jazz band at Berkeley, and the N.Y. Model U.N. They expended their energies in the 7-7 tie with Madison, the championship Group II Section II soccer team, the Girls Suburban Conference basketball champs, and the West Orange basketball game. Their intellectual and social development grew with biological dissections, English term papers, and the Sophomore ring dance.

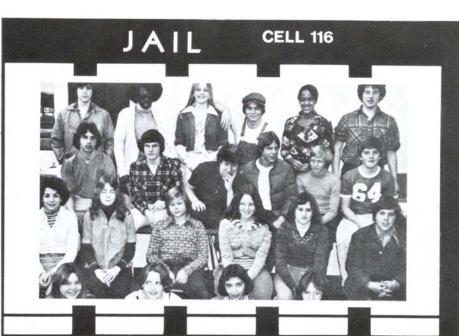

JUNIORS '76-'77

Suddenly, the once ascending forces became what are called "upperclassmen". For some unknown reason, "who says the juniors don't care" became a popular slogan. They continued their earthling development through a bagel sale, barbecue, the building of a new gym and library, a bonfire, and band awards at Toronto; Model U.N. at Harvard and Mr. Atkinson; the Prom and PSAT's; Smyle, "Scapino", SAT's, and the State soccer championship; the "Hobbit" and Honor Society; cars and chemistry.

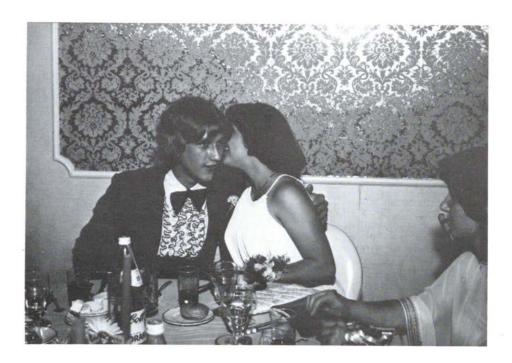

"LAND OF ENCHANTMENT"

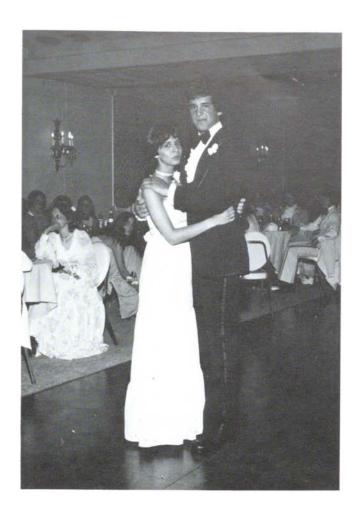

Once upon a time there was a great Ball for the inhabitants of Vee Aych Ess. On May 13, 1977 at the Westmount Country Club, they elected a King and a Queen, Steven Danieli and Aimee Fucetola, and a Prince and Princess, Tim O'Donnell and Lisa DelliSanti. It was heartwarming to see the people so content in one another's company.

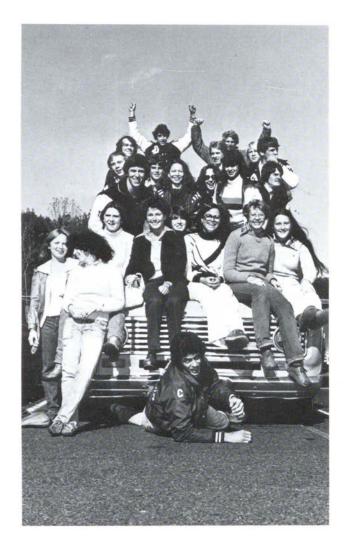

"If"

If a man could be two places at one time
I'd be with you
Tomorrow and today, beside you all the way.
If the world should stop revolving
Spinning slowly down to die,
I'd spend the end with you,
And when my life is through
Then one-by-one, the stars
would all go out
Then you and I would simply fly away.

SENIORS '77-'78

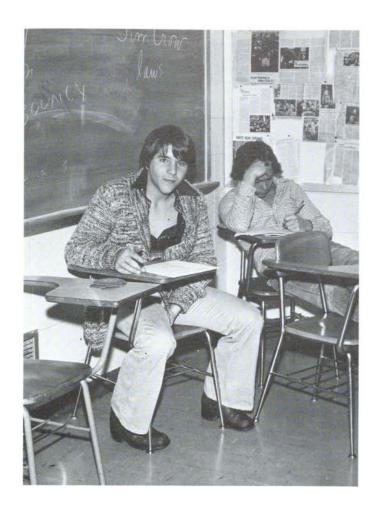

At last the original 250 reached their full power. International relations increased with the best International Weekend ever, the Georgetown Model U.N., and every teacher having a baby. Tensions grew with the coming of a new age through colleges, hopeful exam exemptions, constant snow, yearbook deadlines, sex ed., and the disappearing senior lounge. Competition was keen in Girls' basketball, soccer victories, the State football tournament, Honor Society, and the High School Bowl. Arts and imaginations soared in "Hello Dolly", the Ball 'n Chain concert, choir trips to Mansfield and Tennessee, and Halloween. The once ascending forces had indeed reached their apparent potential as present powers.

If I leave here tomorrow,
Will you still remember me?
I must be travelling on now,
'Cause there's too many places I've got to see.
If I stay here with you now,
Things just couldn't be the same.
'Cause I'm as free as a bird now,
And this bird you'll never change.

Bye bye babe - it's been sweet love, Though this feeling I can't change. But please don't take it so badly, 'Cause the Lord knows I'm to blame. If I stay here with you now, Things just wouldn't be the same. 'Cause I'm as free as a bird now, And this bird you'll never change.
