SHADOWS

1990

Moving on to another stage . . .

Rearranging time and turning the page.

Friends who have cared and shared our thoughts and our dreams . . .

To watch time flow down a steadily stream.

We laugh and we cry . . .

Set our pride so high.

To live and to learn . . .

That the past will never die.

As we sit and wonder, it'll be just fine . . .

Nothing can break these times, yours or mine.

As time ripples, yet another stage . . .

Memories will stay and never fade.

As long as our dreams and friends remain True . . .

Time is never to shut this shade

Christopher Danieli

An Exception to the Rule: Rita Solomon

To a graduation class, the yearbook is one of its most valued treasures. Much time and effort is involved in completing such a treasure. The Class of 1990 chooses to recognize Mrs. Rita Solomon and to honor her for her hard work and dedication as yearbook advisor for the last eight years.

Although Mrs. Solomon's most visible contribution to Verona is as an English teacher, it is the extra time that she devotes to her students which makes her so very special. She is always available for any given reason at any given time. Mrs. Solomon is willing to assist with projects, papers, and recommendations. It is, therefore, with love that we dedicate SHADOWS 1990 to Mrs. Solomon.

THANK YOU

PARIS April 19-April 22 1989

Hotel Campaville, the heater, no shower curtains — no shower period, Italians, Flying mechanical birds, Kevin and Evian Water, But how'd you get it? John's camera, "This place is so safe. Look, no don't look, that guy has a gun!" The Metro, Robin yet not a bird . . . Robin hits Anthony . . . black eye, she keeps on ordering, Eiffel Tower pregnant waitress, hot chicken was cold, boat ride on the Seine, Paul meets Heather, Dave and Jenny, "You must be Americans, you smile too much!" Viks (frozen foods), The Louvre, Mona Lisa, Champs Elysees, McDonalds, Notre Dame, Pete finally gets his "lucky" Vuarnet's (rain glasses) German guy at ice cream parlor, Anthony and French friend on the Metro, Sacre Coeur, the carousel, $4 cokes, Kevin and more girlfriends, Robin and Jenny locked out, Pete and Dave left behind, Animal farm, Ant's foreign languages, one contact in, punch, Heather — clueless much? Eclairs, sounds in Paris room, Kevin on the Harley, Sloan sisters, El Drapeau — Coke please, Chocolate mousse, Chez Leon, Merci-beu coup? Jenny and Heather waking up late, "How'd you get in? The door was open!" Bread and butter, Rolling on the River, Tony's crush, Henny and Heather's room, spilt tea in bed, Heather "But he is sooo good!" Trip home — designing watches, turbulence much? John's sickness, smuggling bread, Jenny can't get back in the country.

Thanks for the memories, and a very special thanks to all who accompanied us.

Jennifer,

GOD BLESSED US WITH YOU!!

To Our Friends
and
The Class of 1990

"Who knows how long this will last
Now we've come so far so fast
Somewhere back there in the dust
That same small town in each of us
I need to remember this
So maybe give me just one kiss
And let me take a long last look
Before we say goodbye . . .
— This is the end of the innocence."

Don Henley

Thanks for the memories

Dear Dave,

You started out in grade school
Where you knew more than the teachers.
You grew up in the country
Where your Mom and Dad were preachers.
You played ball in Little League
And practiced the piano.
Then you hit the city
And became a boy soprano.
You taught your brother Chris to be a
Singer just like you.
He followed in your footsteps
And became a prefect too.
Next you came back home again
To be with Mom and Dad,
And started on the radio
That was the latest fad.
You had three years at VHS
They were lots of fun.
You begged us for a sister
And we got an extra son.
And now you're off to college
Majoring in communications.
Your family is really proud of you
So, Dave, CONGRATULATIONS!

Lots of love,
Mom, Dad, Chris, Drew and Katie Amanda
