The hardest years,
The darkest years,
The roarin' years,
The fallen years,
These should not be Forgotten years.
The hardest years,
The wildest years,
The desperate
and divided years.
We will remember...

WORDS THAT INSPIRE...

YOU CAN TEACH A STUDENT A LESSON FOR A DAY; BUT IF YOU CAN TEACH HIM TO LEARN BY CREATING CURIOSITY, HE WILL CONTINUE THE LEARNING PROCESS AS LONG AS HE LIVES.

Clay P. Bedford

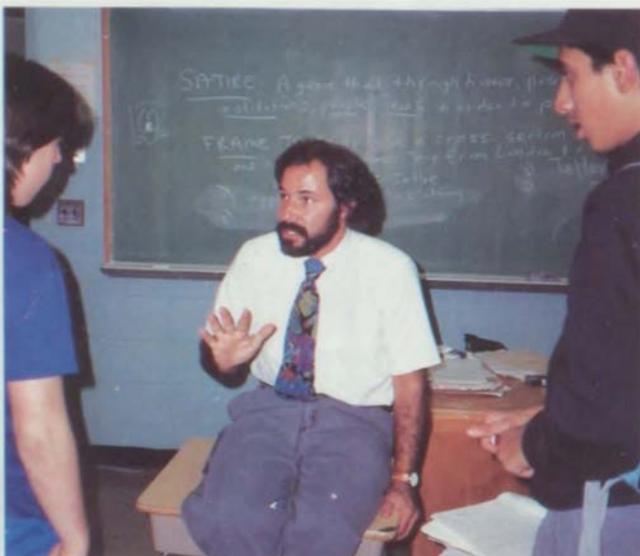

While it may be difficult to define the qualities that make a teacher great, we seem to know them when we see them. In dedicating SHADOWS 1992 to Mr. Ken Luks, the Class of '92 is sure it is honoring one of the finest.

His love for literature and his love for teaching are obvious in his enthusiasm in the classroom. Every student seems to see English in a different light after experiencing it through Mr. Luks' eyes. No student of his can ever forget a Mark Antony speech, a passionate rendering of a Jonathan Edwards sermon, or a re-enactment of a witches scene from Macbeth, complete with the clenched fists, wild eyes, and booming voice that are so uniquely Mr. Luks.

Although his academic demands can be rigorous and his expectations are high, his students always know that their efforts will be supported and rewarded. He has a remarkable ability to make his students feel that no answer is wrong, and every contribution they make has value and merit. He makes you want to participate rather than feel you are forced to. He is a teacher who believes that he can learn as much from his students as they can learn from him. His constant support encourages all his students to strive for their absolute best.

It is in recognition of his total commitment to his students and his profession that the Class of '92 salutes Mr. Ken Luks.

We've been together
Since we were young,
Enjoying days
Of endless sun.

As times changed
And we moved on,

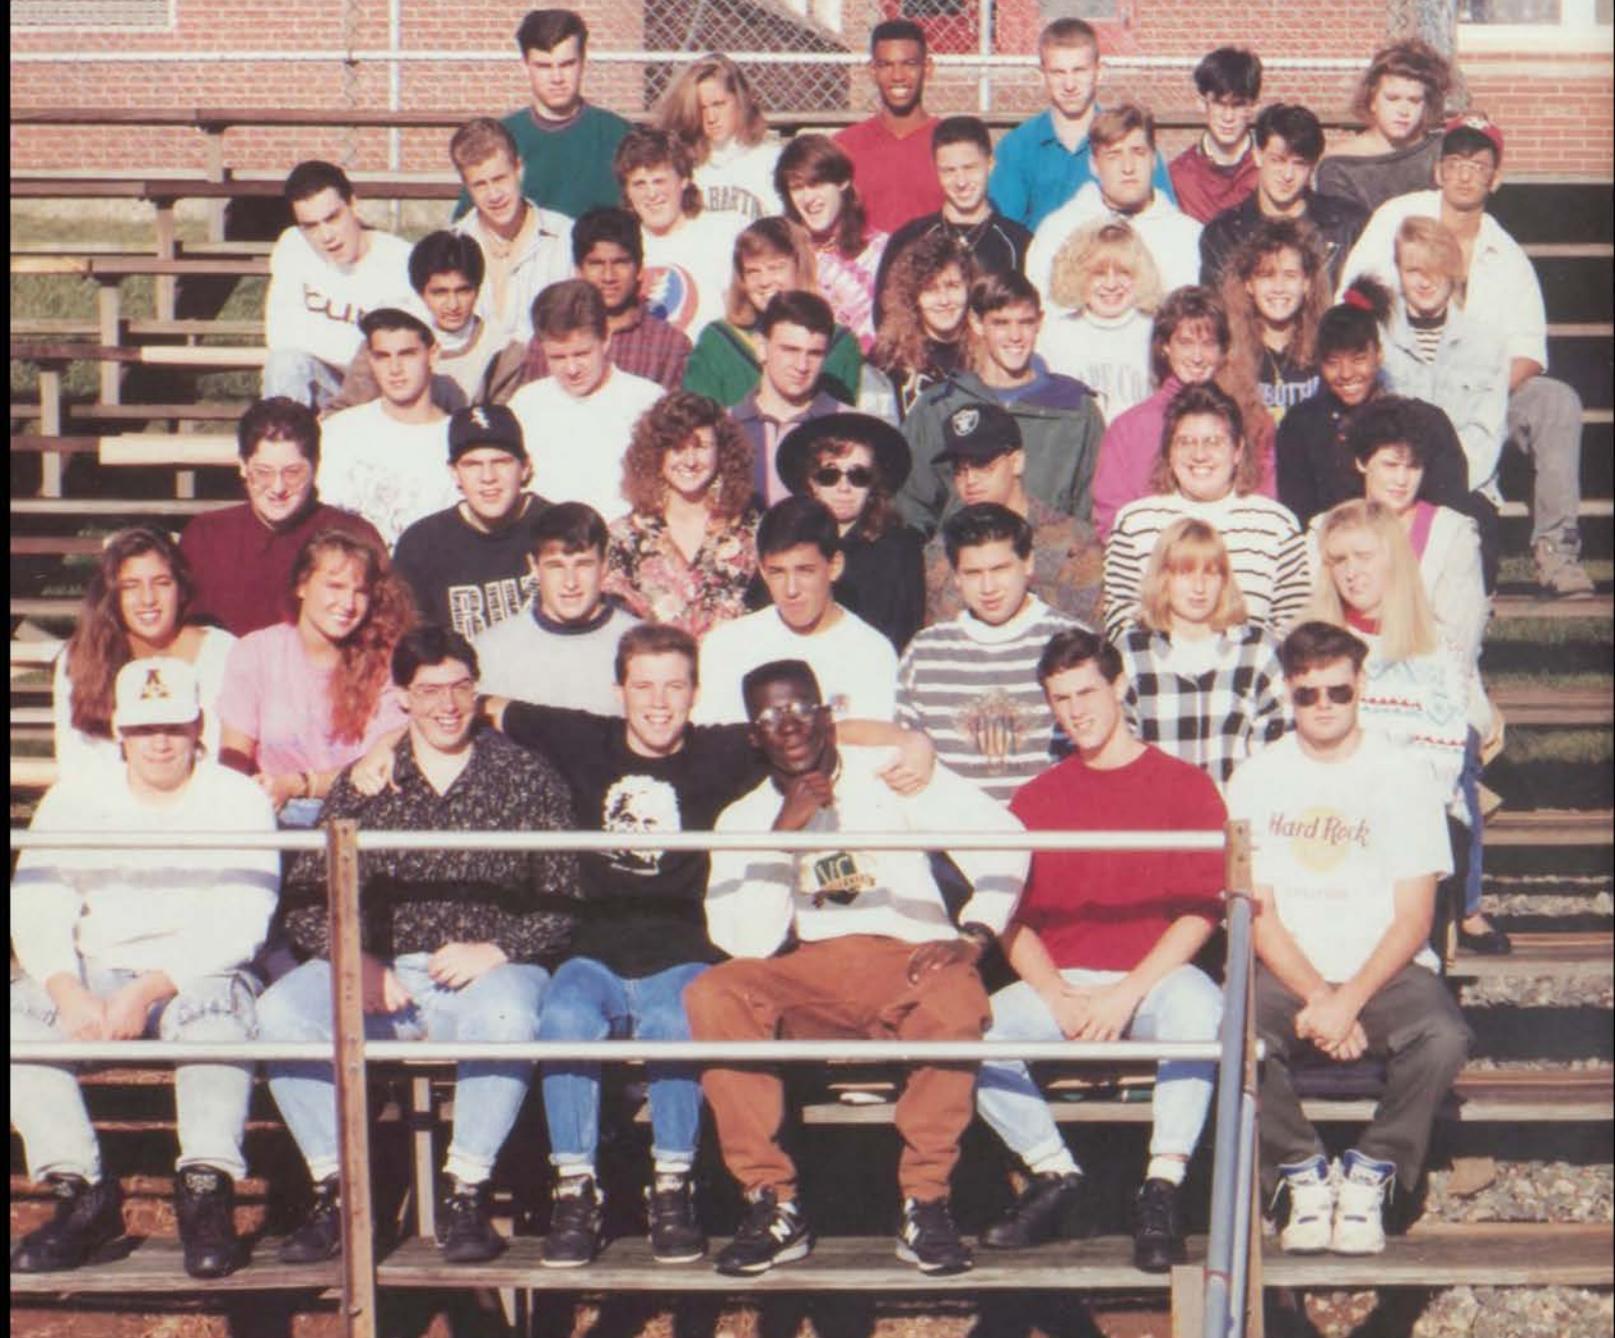

Childhood
memories
Remained close at heart,
Reminding us that Underneath our differences
We are so much alike.

We entered high school
Sharing the same
hopes and fears,

9

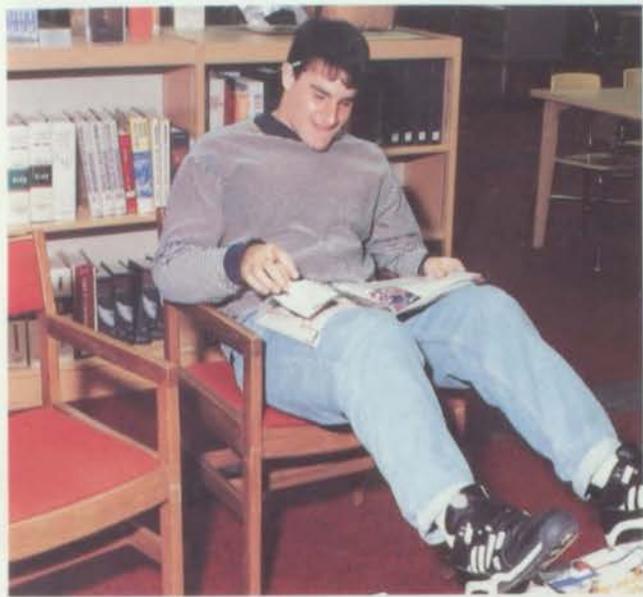

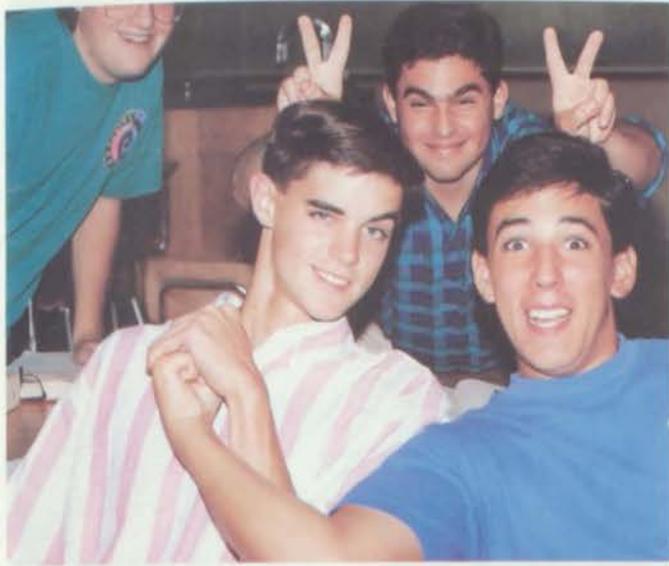

2

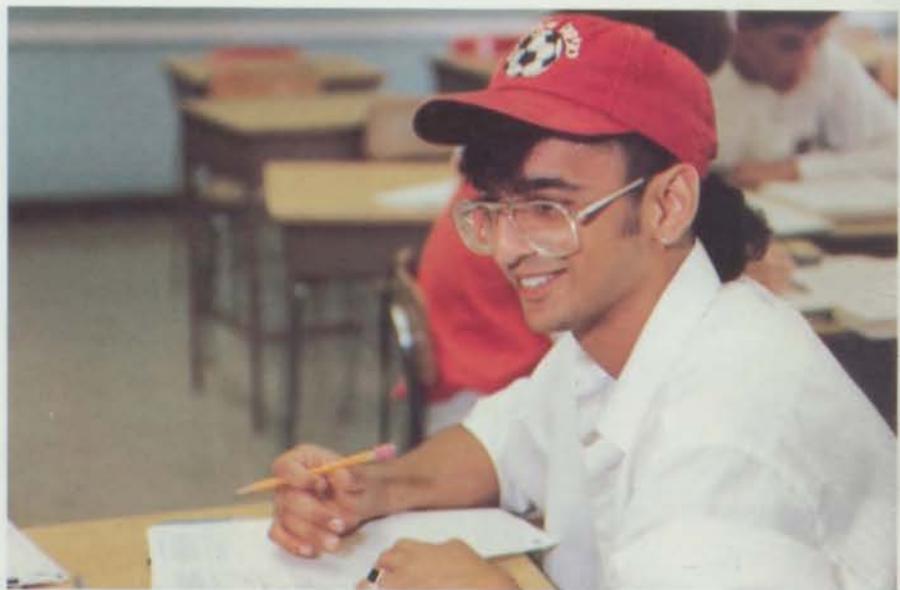

With our dreams
for tomorrow
And our memories
of past years.

Now the “real world”
Is right around the corner,
With its promise of
new faces
And different,
exciting places.

There will be choices
We'll have to make;
There will be chances
We'll be dared to take.

There are memories
We'll carry with us,
And others we'll choose
To leave behind.

We've seen each other
Through heartache
and pain,
Through laughter
and tears,
But now it's time
to part.

So remember me
And I'll remember
you,
And never forget
The Class of '92.

Dawn Gibian

The past is gone;
The present is full
Of confusion;
And the future scares
The heck out of me!
David Lewis Stein

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
Any direction you choose.
You're on your own.
And you know what you know.
And you are the guy
Who'll decide where to go.
Dr. Seuss

INTERNATIONAL WEEKEND

The weekend of January 30 to February 2 marked Verona High School's annual tradition of International Weekend. Verona students act as hosts to students from countries in Asia, Europe, and North and South America who have come to the United States to spend six months to a year studying in schools throughout New Jersey. Activities such as a welcoming party, a band and choir concert, a buffet, Olympic games, a dance, and a Sunday morning brunch take place throughout the weekend.

Sport is education, the truest kind of education, that of character.

"It's hard to believe we went into our last game 2-6," said senior Page Parsels, captain of the varsity football team. The squad looked impressive in early scrimmages against much bigger and faster opponents, but once the season started, it lost its first three games, two of them to playoff teams — Mountain Lakes and Bayley Ellard. Verona did, however, defeat rival Cedar Grove this year at the annual Thanksgiving Game.

After those first three losses, Verona came back and defeated Whippany Park 11-0, but once again hit a rut and dropped its next three. Parsels stated, "We played tough in every game, but it boils down to inexperience because the mistakes we made cost us a lot of those games." Verona chalked up its second win of the season by beating Bernards.

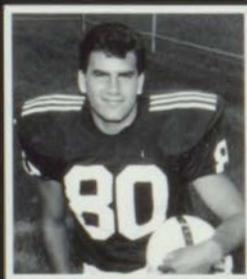

According to co-captain Steve Cunniffe, injuries hurt the team. "When you have a small team in numbers and then you get key people hurt, it is a real problem to overcome, but I think everyone involved had a lot of fun."

Although the 1991 VHS Girls Tennis Team did not have a successful season, first year coach Mr. Joseph Sabaday believes that "Their record did not reflect the girls' hard work and dedication."

The singles players were all underclassmen, led by junior Francesca Fraser at first singles. Fraser came away with wins against Montclair Immaculate, Caldwell, Bayley Ellard and West Orange.

Sophomore Karen Kealy played at second singles, but missed part of the year due to an injury. Freshman Vicky Mukovozov played steadily at third singles.

The doubles pairs were senior captains Nealy Russo and Carla Marino at first doubles and Pam Ochab and a rotation of Tina Marta and Raluca Vlad at second doubles.

Conference honors went to Carla Marino and Nealy Russo who received Honorable Mention.

The VHS Varsity Boys Soccer Team finished with a 2-16 record. The team's two wins came against Bayley Ellard and Kinnelon, by scores of 4-0 and 1-0 respectively.

Senior Keith Burkhard led the team in both goals and assists. Second to Burkhard in both categories was senior Brian Fuller. Conference honors went to Burkhard, who was nominated to Second Team and Fuller, who received Honorable Mention.

Jason Ancillai, Tony Santamaria, and John Dunn rounded out the list of seniors. The remainder of the team was dominated by underclassmen, 10 in all.

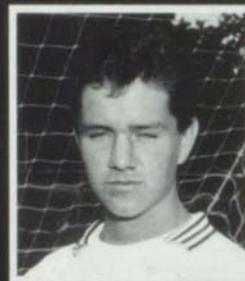

A rule change in game format this year to two forty-minute halftimes instead of four twenty-minute quarters proved to be a real challenge because of the team's small size and consequent lack of substitutes.

Bottom Row: Jennifer Wohlrahe, Eileen Meehan, Brenda Kloss, Shari Juhasz, Sharon Rodgers, Monika Rossi, and Claudine Pietrucha.

The 1991 Girls Soccer team ended their season with a 5-11 record.

The girls' season featured several exciting highlights including a 3-2 overtime victory against Bernards, and a winning goal against Kinnelon in the last three seconds of regulation time.

This year's team had to overcome the obstacle of losing its junior varsity program, which was cancelled due to an insufficient number of players. Consequently, Coach Bob Graham lost his assistant, Dave Conlon.

The Girls Soccer team was led by tri-captains Eileen Meehan, Kim Hansen, and Shari Juhasz.

Four girls received conference honors: Brenda Kloss, Eileen Meehan, and Brett Sanders were awarded Second-Team-All-Conference while Kim Hansen received Honorable Mention.

Although the 1991 VHS football and soccer teams did not have winning seasons, the Varsity Cheerleaders were full of spirit on the sidelines.

For the first time in the history of VHS, the girls worked on the traditional Thanksgiving Day dance, while also learning and performing a short dance for the Homecoming Game.

First year coach Lori Henicle, who plans to continue coaching the cheerleaders, says that "under the excellent supervision of their captains, 15 varsity cheerleaders completed a memorable season filled with laughter and joy."

The 1991-92 Varsity Cheerleading Squad started the season a little different than past squads. The team selected was larger than it had been in previous years, but the girls used it as an advantage. With more girls, the team was able to perform more difficult stunts. Maureen and Debbie Glennon choreographed a dance performed by the squad at basketball games. Experienced tri-captains, Debbie Glennon, Lauren Nelson, and Monika Rossi led the girls in cheering for both boys and girls basketball games and wrestling matches. Captain Debbie Glennon feels that, "Although the winter cheerleaders have a difficult and time-consuming job, it's worth it!"

When the season started, some may have had their doubts as to the future of Verona basketball and its ability to be competitive despite declining enrollment. First year coach Steve Mate brought with him a fiery attitude and a mission to answer all the skeptics. The boys started off with a bang in their conference, winning their first four games. Scoring leader Dan Nigro and rebounding leader Clavon Browning paced the Hillbillies' attack. The starting five was rounded out by Chris Lupi, Mike Ball and Rich Malone and fought hard to stay near the top of the Colonial Hills Conference all year.

The 1991-92 VHS Girls Basketball team was apprehensive at the beginning of the season due to the fact that they only returned one starter. Hard work and dedication from the other four seniors, and from the underclassmen filled in the gap. Tri-captain Cathy Macfarlane was the team's leader in both scoring and rebounding. Strong efforts on the boards and on defense by tri-captains Andi Ball and Dawn Gibian, by Sharon and Susan Rodgers, and by junior Fran Fraser helped pull the team together. After an injury to starter Brett Sanders, Brenda Kloss and Jenn Hansen stepped up to make key plays on offense and get the job done. Highlights of the season include a 55-40 win against rival Cedar Grove and 3-point buzzer beater by Cathy Macfarlane to give Verona a 45-42 victory against Chatham.

In most sports, the squads need teamwork in order to succeed. In wrestling, however, it is one on one, and each match is won or lost by the individual. This year's wrestling team often entered its matches as underdogs because of the fact that it was often unable to fill all the individual weight classes, while many opponents had a full slate. Despite the team's overall poor record, several individuals had great seasons. Senior captain Mike Reising posted many impressive victories at 170 pounds, as did juniors Jamie Falcone and Jason VanOostendorp. Jason Cocuzza, always a crowd pleaser, posted one of the quickest pins in the school's history, dropping one opponent in eight seconds. Senior Ed Brech challenged for the school record in victories. Says Reising, "Practice isn't a lot of fun at times, but the feeling of self-accomplishment you get after a pin makes it all worthwhile."

In just its third year as a varsity sport, the Verona Ice Hockey Team shocked many with a very successful season. Led by senior forwards Kevin Goodwin, Pete Scaraggi, Bill Wrovsky and junior centerman Chris Bellino, the team had its most successful season ever in the American "B" conference. The defensive corps was anchored by seniors Jeremy DiStefano, Dave Skinner and junior Brad Springstead. The goaltending chores were handled by junior Claudine Pietrucha. Season highlights included a first place finish in the

T Tradition

OUR ROOTS GO DOWN DEEP. We've grown up in Verona and the surrounding areas. We know its families, its traditions, and you know us.

You know that we've been serving your family, your parents and their parents for many years. The Prout name has been relied on since 1924 to provide compassionate assistance and efficient service at a time of great distress and anxiety. At a time when you need a friend, and afterwards as well.

YOU'VE MADE US WHAT WE ARE— a tradition in Essex County. Your family and our family go a long way back, our history together goes down deep.

YOUR FAMILY AND OUR FAMILY, We've been friends a long, long time.
