CAUGHT n Film

TOASTING our Times

▶ Clockwise from right: Jamie D'Angelo and Mike DeSantis share a quiet moment of reflection. Ron Dapuzzo, Noah Schwartz, and Brian Roth may be out of control, but at least we got them to pause for a picture. After a fierce pillow fight Jenn Abele, Stefanie Shapiro, Justine Miller and Allison Cole settle down for a snooze. Laurie Bryda is in it up to her neck.

▲ Clockwise from above: Chris Roebuck, Matt Foran and Chris McKenna are taken by surprise at the 1995 Prom. Laura Vitiello is in the limelight at her Sweet Sixteen at the Atrium in West Orange. A chorus line of Mike Blaha, Steve Onofrietti, Richie Lutz and Allen Zayas kick up their heels before the prom.

Memories Last Forever

Through the years we've been together,
We've made memories that will last forever.

Memories don't die or fade away,
but the thought does of that fateful day
I hope we never have to say good-bye,
Because friendships were never meant to die.

Graduation day may tear us apart,
but our real lives will just begin to start.
Even though our years of High School went so fast,
I hope these days will always last.

In our hearts and in our minds,
Even as our paths unwind,
Please never lose touch and stay together,
and always remember that memories last forever.

WE DID IT THEN:

1. Big Bird sings the blues . . .

2. Wake up and watch cartoons on Saturday . . .

3. Running away from the opposite sex . . .

4. Plastic bottles . . .

5. In bed by eight . . .

6. Running around in diapers . . .

7. Training wheels . . .

8. "Mom, don't leave me alone . . ."

9. Garbage Pail Kids Cards . . .

10. Shopping with Mom . . .

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL Days

Counterclockwise from above: Bob McCloskey and Matt Foran display their Picasso talents on their Halloween window. Stephanie Buonomo and Tamara Mele enjoy the crowd's admiration after their second grade dance recital. Allison Cole and Jamie McAleer really ham it up for the camera. Dori Ferruggia and Charlie Snogans enjoy a chuckle before school starts. Devon Ercolano, Christina Magrans, Kara Narucki, Jenn Abele and Laura Vitiello pig out like good Indian Princesses should. Dave Occhino and Jay Decker smile at the thought of the big bucks coming from the Tooth Fairy. Abby Barnhart and Chris McKenna are preparing thirteen years in advance to drive this baby.

MIDDLE SCHOOL Days

Clockwise from top: Steve Onofrietti is dumbfounded by the sight of the Manhattan skyline on the Spirit of New Jersey. Jaime Donahue says, "Well what did YOUR hair look like in the eighth grade?" Frank Longo, Joe Ippolito, and Laurie Bryda fool around at lunchtime. Caroline McManus and Lesley DiGeronimo scope out the guys at the eighth grade dance. Seth Landsberger, Jason Decker, Frank Longo, Dave Occhino, Marcello Hernandez, Dave Weinberg, and Todd Piro compliment Steve Valente on his shirt. Erica D'Angelo feels a little seasick upon setting out on the Spirit of New Jersey. Dave DeMaio, Dave Weinberg, and Dave Occhino "bust a move" at the eighth grade dance.

HIGH SCHOOL Days

Counterclockwise from above: Mia Abeles and Charlie Snogans "just hanging around." A typical freshman night in the life of Abby Barnhart and Christina Magrans. Shana Steinman, Stefanie Shapiro, Justine Miller, and Jenn Abele all end their junior year on a happy note. Down in Wildwood, Dori Ferruggia and Mark Anico take time out for a swim. A nice hug from Bob McCloskey relieves Jamie McAleer's stress from the day. Dave Occhino and Chris Roebuck are wishing that they are 21. The junior guys think they're all that (and more).

SENIOR it is 96

Clockwise from left: Scott Bush's brain explodes due to four long years of high school stress. Class of 1996 valedictorian Todd Piro demonstrates the optional uses for the Bunsen burner. As sophomores and freshmen skitter off to their classes, Chuck Snogans has trouble remembering what book he needs. Matt Foran has so much school spirit it comes out his ears. Danielle Lanuto is riveted by one of Mr. Luks' Macbeth speeches. Knowledge awaits Bob McCloskey on the library shelves, but he can only manage a faint snore. Chris Longo, Louis Violante, Jay Casella, Jamie D'Angelo, Tim Rauschenberger and Matt Antolino release a little energy during English class. Math has lost all its excitement for Tamara Mele.

Inset: Gym class proves to be too much for Chris Roebuck. The narcissistic Ryan Pifher examines his chiseled features in art class.

What if . . .

Our high school daze are gone and overall were pretty cool . . . Left with many questions, what if Russell came to school? All the ones who didn't make it had a bag of tricks. Bornstein, Nick Serino . . . Gee, who knows what each one does? What if Tamara wasn't naturally blonde and what if Dena was? What if Louis could relax or if Leilani learned to yell? What if McGirr quit King's or Vitiello worked at Bell? What if Chuck was tense or if Frank Longo's hands could stop! What if Marcello wasn't nervous and if Gramo was a cop? What if Piro burned his books or Rich's bones were never broken? What if Ox's name was Chris or Vinny Geiger quit his smokin'? What if music wasn't Curcio's life or Dori had no cash? Or if we convinced our Donahue to throw another bash? What if Frank was not from Newark or if DeMaio never lifted weights? What if Roth spoke clearly or Evan had less dates? What if KaraLor&Er were not sarcastic . . . What if Testa chewed on dip? Or if Blaha was ever ready? What if McAleer wasn't sweet or if Mark Anico went steady? What if Ferguson murdered Smokey the Bear? What if Jordan and Chris Roebuck dressed with preppiness instead? What if Lesley didn't smell things? What if Barker liked the Dead? What if Seth was mute or Ronny's "Death Mobile" came back? What if Halpert hated ham or what if Noah had no shack? What if Weinberg left the 80's or if Pifher's truck was new? What if Kelly Lawrence took a pill that made her six foot two? What if Savino lost her voice or Steve Valente quit complaining? Or if cloud nine was not the place Occhino's always staying? What if D'Angelo spoke in a whisper, what if Tharayil didn't sing. What if Mia wasn't mentioned in this whole entire thing? And no "Ideal" adventures, statistics say it's quite a crime? What if the Class of '96 was not "the drunkest of all time . . .?"

What if . . .

What if Scott Bush and Abby Barnh rd didn't have access to Crayola Markers? What if Chris Blum was the next Tony Little? What if Steven Onofrietti ever told a believable story? What if Laurie Bryda ever took off her hat or if Jenn Abele didn't have a friend in each town in the Tri-State Area?

What if . . .

What if Shawn DePoe wore number 33 for the Celtics? What if Caroline didn't stress the phrase "Easy Boys" every single minute? What if Alyssa Conlan and Laura Prior had a fight and never made up? What if Jay Decker and Bob McCloskey ever went "weak"? What if Jenny Drappi ever came to school with dry hair?

SPORTS WEEK

Clockwise from bottom: Lori Tortorella addresses the Pep Rally crowd as her fellow senior tennis players look on. School spirit helped spur the team on to another championship season. Even in class, the seniors were spirited. Spending time in Mrs. Schoenig's Family Living class made everyone crack a smile. Todd Piro pauses for a breather from his sax playing. The band, as always, set the tone for the Pep Rally. Justine Miller helps Kevin Reilly get spirited for the fall Pep Rally by painting his face maroon ... and the crowd goes wild as the cheerleaders chant, "We are the seniors, seniors." Many senior brought confetti and balloons to get psyched for their last Pep Rally. No, it's not a war-painted Indian here. It's Ryan Pifher, all decked out for Spirit Week. Frank Velardi, Joey Ippolito and Mark Anico are grabbed by Peter Burgess's school spirit.

T R I C K O R T R E Q T

Clockwise from above: Mike Craig is found concentrating on his studies hard during this ghoulish day. Supermodel Bob McCloskey and his agent Todd Piro took VHS by storm. Caroline McManus, Lesley DiGeronimo, Dori Feruggia and Jaime Donahue tried to bring back their youth with their Halloween costumes. Apparently nobody told Mike Halpert that the pretty new exchange student is Dave DeMaio in drag. Christopher Robin would be proud of his buddy "Eeyore" Helsing for smiling. Anna Kowal got "all dolled up" for Halloween.

Did you study?

'What the mind of man can conceive and believe, it can chieve.' - Napoleon Hill

Left: A group of seniors work together and exchange ideas about the layout of Shadows 96. Mr. White and his Journalism II students attended a workshop in July at Hill-sborough High School run by the publisher of the yearbook. Right: Mr. Sauer shows his enthusiasm for Science as he teaches his class. This year, one recent addition to the Science Dept. is the Internet hook-up which allows students to learn recent topics in a variety of ways. Below : Mrs. Davis takes time out to show Anita Knipping the good points of her sketch.

Shadows & Fairviewer

This year's yearbook began production last summer when ten Journalism II students and Mr. White traveled to Hillsborough High School for Taylor Publishing Company's summer workshop. It was there that an artist helped them choose their theme "We Did It Our Way." Five deadlines, eighteen thousand pictures, four hundred shouting matches, six million headaches, three lost pages, and one threatened life later, Shadows 96 was the result. We hope you like it!

Along the way, the Journalism II classes also produced four issues of the ever-popular Fairviewer.

Those who have made this year's edition of Shadows would like to thank advisor Tom White for all of his help and more than generous amount of patience. We have been amazed all year by his ability to write passes, edit copy, chew gum, fix layouts, hop on one foot and answer five students' questions all at the same time . . . Mr. White and his students review a previous issue of Shadows to decide some new ideas for this year's publication. (Upper Left) Kara Narucki and other students work on layouts by hand and on the computers. (Middle Left) The Fairviewer's main staff this year were . . . Editor-In-Chief Jason Decker, Layout Editor Brian Gramo and Photography Editor Laura Pryor. (Middle Right) Students are seen at the yearbook camp held during the summer to gather ideas before the year began. (Bottom Left)

SPECIAL THANX TO:

Officers Joe Ballantyne and James Barry for standing still so long for their picture.

Andre Mutovic for his assistance in graphic design.

Taylor Publishing Representative Sharon Bodnarchuk for all her great ideas and advice.

Taylor Publishing Technician Steve Schroeder and staff for handling our unusual methods.

Clockwise from bottom: Taking a break from a hectic band schedule, friends pose in their "Waldo" rugbies for a shot. The woodwinds deeply concentrate on their marching and playing. "Look at us, we're walking", instructs Mr. Tintle as the band preps for the Thanksgiving day show in Cedar Grove. The VHS Colorguard poses in their new uniforms celebrating their "Best Bandfront" victory. Taking the home field, the band storms the VHS festival in exhibition. Band President and Vice President, Scott Bush and Todd Piro, lead a visiting band into competition. The colorguard stands perfectly posed, as always, while in competition. Leading VHS into victory, Mark Sirianni conducts with vigor.

SPOTLIGHT PLAYERS

The Spotlight Players, VHS's drama group, presented two major productions this year. The fall drama was "Whose Life Is It Anyway?" featuring junior Nicole Baguer as a bed-ridden quadriplegic who debates with her doctors about who should control her fate. The spring production, held in March, was Fiddler on the Roof featuring Nicole, senior Ryan Pifher, and senior Justine Miller as "the fiddler." Shown here are various publicity photos from "Whose Life" and rehearsal photos from "Fiddler," still in production at the time of yearbook publication.

The Spotlight Players, pictured at right, are (left to right): Janine Miscia, Lauren Ercolano, Matt Ball, Nicole Baguer, Sarah Spektor, John Alati, Erin Moran, Justine Miller, Sonja Schwartz, Krissy DiTrani, Ryan Pifher, Scott Piro, Kristin Symons, Mike DeGrande, Josh Liebert, Anita Knipping, Josh Knoblick, Erica Geiselmann, Leilani Grefal, Brad Burguillos, Jeff Bennett, Adam Gerenstein.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRESIDENT CLINTON

President Bill Clinton entered the third year of his term as no president has done for 40 years—with a Republican Congress. As he began this new year, he resolved to “put aside partisan differences.” Although cautious in dealing with the new Congress, Clinton has raised his profile and taken a firm stand on issues. He said he would try to work with the Republicans on their agenda, but would “no doubt” veto some of their proposals. On April 14, 1995, Clinton filed the necessary documents with the Federal Election Commission and made formal his candidacy for re-election.

WOMEN'S CONFERENCE IN CHINA

It was Hillary Clinton's first visit to China, and she made it a memorable one. In a speech to the United Nations Fourth World Conference on Women, the first lady took on the world. Her speech, delivered on Sept. 5, 1995, made a call for human rights and freedom of expression, and she said that it was indefensible that many women who registered for the conference were denied visas or were unable to fully participate. Mrs. Clinton surprised her audience and the host nation by rebuking Beijing for its treatment of private activists who said they were harassed by authorities during a parallel forum held just 30 miles away. The conference platform called for measures to alleviate women's poverty, and improve health care, job opportunities and education.

BOB DOLE CAMPAIGN

Dole became the sixth Republican to formally declare his candidacy for a move into the White House in 1996. This is the third presidential attempt for Dole. His intention is to cut taxes, balance the budget and “lead America back to her place in the sun”. If elected, Dole would be 73 years old upon entering office. This would make him the oldest newly elected president in history.

NEWT GINGRICH

In Jan. 1995, Gingrich became the first Republican Speaker of the House in 40 years. In a televised interview with Connie Chung, when asked how she felt about First Lady Hillary Clinton, Newt Gingrich's mother called her “a bitch”.

COLIN POWELL

In September, 1995, he embarked on a cross-country book tour to promote his autobiography, “My American Journey.” Powell chose his next journey to be along the campaign trail for president, however, due to personal reasons he dropped out of the race. Rumors claim that his wife was fearful that he would be assassinated.

SCIENCE

The first detailed image of a distant star shows that the red giant Betelgeuse has a single, gargantuan hot spot that may be 12,000 degrees. A Hubble Space Telescope image gives for the first time details of a star other than the sun and suggests that it may have dramatic physical differences from the sun.

WEATHER

1995 was a year filled with hurricanes. On Oct. 4, Hurricane Opal hit the coast of Florida with 125 mph winds. The sea rose 15 feet and swept away nearly everything on the lower floors of homes and businesses along the edge of the Gulf Coast. The storm killed 20 people in 4 states and caused $1.8 billion in damage to insured properties, making it the third-costliest storm in US History.

Blizzard '96 struck and we recieved a record snowfall of 66 inches of snow. School was closed for four days, as well as several businesses as everyone "dug" themselves out. Governor Whitman declared New Jersey in a state of emergency.

SUPER BOWL XXX

On Jan. 18, 1996, the Dallas Cowboys won their third Super Bowl in four seasons beating the Pittsburgh Steelers 27-17. No team has gotten that many Super Bowl titles in such a short span. The hero of the game was cornerback Larry Brown, whose career has been spent in the shadow of Troy Aikman, Emmitt Smith and Deion Sanders.

WORLD SERIES

The Cleveland Indians and the Atlanta Braves squared off in the first World Series in two years. The Braves won the Series in six games, after taking a two-games-to-none lead in their home park. They won the Series on their return to Atlanta with a 1-0 victory marked by Dave Justice's home run and the one-hit pitching of Tom Glavine, who was named Series MVP.

GRAF WINS US OPEN

Germany's Steffi Graf emerged as #1 as she beat Monica Seles in New York to win her fourth US Open title. For Graf, it was the third consecutive Grand Slam title, coming after victories at Wimbledon and at the French Open. Seles considers this loss a victor of sorts. It was the first in a dozen matches that marked her inspired return to the sport after a two year absence. Seles had been stabbed in the back by a deranged fan at a match in Germany.

WORLD EVENTS

On Aug. 24, 1995, human rights activist Harry Wu set foot on American soil after being imprisoned in China for 66 days. He was convicted on charges of stealing state secrets and was sentenced to 15 years in prison. He was released in an apparent attempt to improve delicate relations between the US and China. Wu recieved a hero's welcome when he returned to the US. On Oct. 16, 1995 hundreds of thousands of African-American men converged on the nation's capital in response to the call from Louis Farrakhan, the Nation of Islam's leader, to rally for unity and brotherhood. It was the fourth largest demonstration in Washington's history, and the largest predominately African-American gathering. Speakers included civil rights veterans Rosa Parks, Dick Gregory and the Reverend Jesse Jackson.

NUCLEAR PROTEST

On Sept. 5, 1995, France resumed underground nuclear testing when it detonated a device under a remote atoll in the South Pacific. World wide protests preceded the nuclear test, and criticism from the world followed it. Anti-nuclear demonstrations were staged in various parts of the world. Two ships, part of a Greenpeace "peace flotilla" were stormed and captured by French commandos 750 miles from the test sites. France's President Jacques Chirac defended the tests, saying they would provide information allowing France to conduct computer stimulated tests in the future. France plans more tests, but will sign a global test-ban treaty at their conclusion.

CONFLICT IN BOSNIA

In June 1995, Serbs downed a US F-16 over northern Bosnia. The pilot, Air Force Captain Scott O'Grady, hid for six days until he was rescued by US Marines. Despite peace talks, US troops arrived in Bosnia on Dec. 24, 1995. The US troops joined French soldiers already stationed there. The troops extended the curfew for Christmas Eve and Christmas. In Sarajevo, Bosnia's capital, The city's people strolled "peaceful" streets into the early morning. In spite of arriving troops, hope came with Christmas.

MIDEAST PEACE ACCORD

On Sept. 28, 1995, President Clinton oversaw the signing of an accord between Israel and the PLO that would end Israel's military occupation of West Bank cities and lay the foundation for a Palestinian state. The ceremony took place at the White House before an audience of diplomats, foreign ministers, Cabinet secretaries and members of the Congress. It was concluded with a handshake between Israel's Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and the head of the PLO.

NATIONAL NEWS

On Oct. 3, 1995, the long running, real life soap opera played its final episode. In "the trial of the century", O.J. Simpson was acquitted in the June 12, 1994 stabbing murder of his former wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and her friend, Ronald Goldman. Americans followed the trial for more than a year, listening to testimony, digesting the evidence and speculating on whether the former football superstar and film actor was guilty. The jury reached its verdict in less than four hours deliberation, after listening to 133 days of testimony and considering more than 800 pieces of evidence. Some lasting images are a white Ford Bronco leading a police chase; Simpson trying on "the murder gloves" in court; and the testimony of prosecution witness Police Detective Mark Fuhrman, whose credibility was later destroyed when it was shown that he lied under oath about his use of racial epithets. Simpson stated he will now dedicate his life to a search for the real killers. On April 19, 1995, a car bomb exploded in Oklahoma City, destroying the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building and killing scores of men, women, and young children. Shortly after the explosion, Timothy McVeigh, a Gulf War veteran, was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon. Two days later, he was recognized as one of the bombing suspects and was charged. The trial is still pending after being moved to Denver due to the fact that defense felt that McVeigh would not get a fair trial in Oklahoma.

WORLD LEADERS

Pope John Paul II visited the US in early Oct. 1995. The 75 year old religious leader began his 5-day visit by addressing the United Nations General Assembly in conjunction with the UN's 50th anniversary. During his stay the Pope celebrated many masses throughout New Jersey and New York including a rainy mass in Giants Stadium. The Pope called for greater attention to the needs of the less fortunate.

Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin was shot to death on Nov. 4, 1995, moments after telling cheering thousands that "people really want peace". The assassination, the first of an Israeli leader since the founding of the state in 1948, stunned the nation. World leaders from President Clinton to Yasser Arafat reacted with sorrow and outrage, declaring that the peace process would continue.

MUSIC

Hootie & the Blowfish received the MTV Award for best new artist in 1995. Tom Petty's "You Don't Know How It Feels" & Madonna's "Take a Bow" won for best male and female videos. TLC's "Waterfalls" won for best group video. In the 1996 awards, Alanis Morissette won for best new artist and other winners included Seal, Coolio, & Annie Lennox. On Aug. 9, 1995 music great Jerry Garcia passed away. He was co-founder of the Grateful Dead. The Deadheads, the group's followers, quickly gathered to note the passing of their fallen leader. Jerry Garcia had the rare distinction of having a Ben & Jerry's ice cream flavor named after him "Cherry Garcia".

IN MEMORY

YITZHAK RABIN

do not say a day will come bring the day
because it is not a dream and in all the streets
shout for peace

so sing a song of peace
don't whisper a prayer
it is better to sing a song of peace with a great shout

To Our Wonderful Son
Todd

With great pride, love, and joy in our hearts, we congratulate you for all of your achievements.
May you always keep your sense of honor, strive for excellence, be happy, and fulfill your dreams.

All our love,
Mom, Dad and Scott

Jennifer

You are at a wonderful time in your life —
A time of dreams and new beginnings —
As you learn and grow and try new things,
Remember that you will always have our love and support behind you.
And finally,

If happiness is gained by a willingness to work hard, by a warm, caring attitude and a smile that is truly infectious . . .

Then the future holds endless possibilities for you.

All our love,
Mommy + Stephen

Jenn:

Your potential to achieve and succeed is unlimited. We will always be there to applaud you. Aim high in life and try hard.

Congratulations to you and the class of 1996

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Bethany

Jenn,
Best of Luck Always
I Love You.

When the destination is worthwhile, even small steps can make the walk meaningful. Congratulations, Stef, on how far you've come in this journey of "life." Even when the path ahead seemed insurmountable, in spite of how tired you felt, you always kept going.

You have that special quality possessed by winners!

We're very proud of you!

Love,

Mom, Dad and Gingy

Dear Mia,

No one could make their parents prouder. You have all the answers. Continue to ask the questions. Reach for all the stars, they belong to you. We love you and support you in all you do. Nobody does it better.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Megan & Jesse

Justine ... You were a "JEM" the day you were born and are more precious with each passing day.

Jubilant
Understanding
Sensational Terrific Intelligent
Noteworthy
Energetic

Your name spells out some of your qualities. Use them to achieve the best life has to offer. Congratulations on your graduation from V.H.S. — You did a great job!!! The best is yet to come.

Lots of Love,
Dad, Mom, & John
Good Luck Class of 1996

Congratulations to
Tamara and the Class of '96

I've been happy lately
Thinking about the good things to come
And I believe it could be Something good has begun.

— Cat Stevens —

Love you now and forever,

Mom, Ben, Justin, Titan, and Mystic

Congratulations
Jamie

WHATEVER ROAD YOU TRAVEL
WHATEVER DREAMS YOU FOLLOW
MAY GOD BLESS YOU WITH A LIFE
FILLED WITH LOVE AND HAPPINESS

KEEP SMILING

LOVE,—
MOM, DAD, ERIN,
AND

Frank,

Cherish your yesterdays
Dream your tomorrows &
Live your todays.

Best of Luck in all you do!

Love,

Mom, Dad,
Carla & Larry

Congratulations
Stephanie, Prom Queen 1995
and the class of '96

To live in hearts
we leave behind is not to die.

You have made us very proud of you! You have accomplished so much!
Daddy is looking down on you and smiling from ear to ear.
May your future be blessed with love, happiness, and success.
You will always be our queen!

Love, Mom, Bob, Tom, & Michael

Congratulations
Laura
and the class of 1996!

Best of Happiness in your future.
We love you.

Mom, Mark, Keith, and Lindsay

CONGRATULATIONS

Jamie

AND THE CLASS OF '96

As we think back to those anxious moments when you were born we never dreamed our 2 LB. "Miracle" would accomplish so much. God has "been gracious" to you and blessed you with so much talent. May you continue to use it effectively.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Brian, & Jeff

Nicole,

"You may give them your love but not your thoughts, for they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls, for their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday. You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth. The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and then bends you with his might that His arrows may go swift and far."

— "The Prophet" Kahlil Gibran

Love you always,
Mom, Dad and Victoria

Congratulations to Michael and the Class of 1996!

Michael,

May your next journey be fitted with all the happiness, love, pride, "excitement", joy and friendship that you have given us. You always bring a smile and laughter to us all!

Love always,
Mom, Dad, Nick and Anthony

Jason,

And music too — Dear music that can touch
Beyond all else the soul that loves it much
Now heard far off, so far as but to seem
Like the faint exquisite music of a dream!

A son is a gift whose worth cannot be measured except by the heart.

WE LOVE YOU,
MOM and DAD

Congratulations to you and the Class of 1996

"Once, long ago, there lived four beautiful boys!"

DANIELLE-2 years of every experience i could think of, helping me to grow, to believe in myself, to care, to treat others w/ respect, to appreciate, to become more mature, and most importantly, how to love JAMIE-being my best friend and showing me he had been all along. Too many wierd, crazy, and funny things to list, but he'll understand if I just say "SASSAGE" And to those who will never be forgotten: ROB GEMMEL, UNHA, MIKE JACKSON, EDDIE RICKS, JASON WALSH, and BORNSTEIN. That concludes my thank-you's. Oh, don't worry everybody, I'll still remember all of you when I'm rich and Famous! For now the balcony is closed.

"When good friends walk
beside us,
On the trails that we must keep,
Our burdens seem less heavy,
And the hills are not so steep,

The weary miles pass
swiftly,
Taken in a joyous stride,
And all the world seems brighter, when friends walk by our side."

Love always, Alyssa & Laura
Mom, Dad, Dave, Kait, Cathy, Chrissy, & the rest of our friends & family-Thank you for your continuing love and support! We love you!

Dear Laura,
My friend, my sister. We've shared so many beautiful memories and there are still many more to come. You've influenced my life in so many ways and taught me alot about myself. You've always been there to make me smile. I'm the luckiest girl in the world to have had the chance to grow up with such a wonderful friend and even more fortunate to know that you will always be my friend for life. In years to come there may be many miles between us, but we both know that our hearts will be side by side. Reach for the stars and may all your dreams come true. You are and always will be my "bestest" friend. I love you.

Love forever and ever,
Alyssa

P.S. I'm sorry I let you fly under the car!

Alyssa, As my mom always said "Alyssa will be that one best friend that you have for life". You are not only my best friend, but my sister too. We've known each other forever and I know that we will always be there for each other. You have been there for me when I needed you and you have taught me so much in life (like how to laugh alot). Who else could remember me sticking my tongue out at my mom and getting chased around the yard. My life would have never been the same without you in it. You are The most wonderful person and I don't want anyone to ever make you think otherwise. We may be apart for a while but I want you to know that whom ever I meet along the way that they could never ever replace you. You are my BESTEST friend and I will think of you everyday that we are apart. Always remember our memories and reach for your dreams. I love you.

Love always and forever,
your SIS

"All I'm saying is that I wanna look back and say . . . I did it the best I could while I was stuck in this place; had as much fun as I could while I was stuck in this place; went as hard as I could while I was stuck in this place . . ."

DAVE W.—Friends—They were there with me during the memorable times we spent together during our four years at high school. We had great times making jokes and having fun during some of our classes. My friends and I also stuck through difficult times whether it was because of school or personal problems—The phone was an important part of our weekends; we would talk and talk about different things we wanted to do. Usually, there was enough time to fit in all that everyone wanted to do for that night.—Driving around in and out of town searching for people we know to hangout with—local hangouts at Split, Lookout, the High School Lot, the Pilgrim Diner, playing pool; Also, we spent great times together playing football and stickball up at Forest Avenue School; the parties we went to as well as getting busted by the cops. It's been a great four years of high school—Good Luck to all my friends going to college. We made it!

STEVE—These are the best friends a guy can have. Weekends not complete without wheels: Dodge 400(Occhino), Skylark(Weinberg), Brougham(Symons), Volvo(s)(Bob), Deck's multi-colored machine; Dave O.—lifting at the "Y"—will you ever work legs? Final remembrances to all: Weinberg- keep wearing those sunglasses at night; don't change a bit, "to Verona"; Symons-(Pokey)- never forget numerous "legal" rides in the Brougham- Les, Caroline, Hess, it was fun. The blockheads are on their way, but as long as you keep you're "balls of steel" you'll have no problem. Tharayil-(Dude)- we're not wanted on that island . . . at least you and Mark Burns aren't. You were always there, "dude", and I'll value that forever. Bob- too many nites spent doing what we do best. It was a ride I'll NEVER forget, and I'm glad we became such great friends. Hess-(Poet)- keep on writin', (if you're ever stuck, the boathouse should supply some cool ideas). Last but definitely not least. Occhino- best friends since kindergarten and don't think that its ending here. People like yourself don't come around often, so I guess I just got lucky. All of you guys (and girls) have truly defined the word "friend" in one way or another, and to everyone else who joined me through this venture (u know who u r), thanx, you're not forgotten. I hope you had as much fun as I did! Of course special thanx to my beloved family- Mom, Dad, and Adam. Without you I wouldn't be close to the person I am today. I love, appreciate, but most importantly thank you for your patience. Well, now its time to say farewell, but remember: "You'll find that life is still worthwhile if you just SMILE."-T. Bennett.

BOB—Looking back one can honestly say, we did it like no other. Jay, Dave, Joe, Steve and other friends- Too many fun nights. "What are you, WEAK?"- Decker. Pimp-mobles; Dave Matthews Concert; Smitty- Lawsuit; Forest chase- Deck hiding in the bushes. "I need to work my tapes"- Hess. Thanks for the good times, fellas!!

"All I need to know about life I learned from my girlfriends."

Good times are even better when they're shared-a good long talk can cure almost anything-everyone needs someone with whom to share their secrets-listening is just as important as talking-an understanding friend is better than a therapist; and cheaper too-laughter makes the world a happier place-friends are like wine, they get better with age-sometimes you just need a shoulder to cry on-great minds think alike, especially when they're female-when it comes to "bonding", females do it better-you are never too old for slumber parties-Girls just want to have fun-it's important to make time to do "girl things"-calories don't count when you're having lunch with your girlfriends-you can never have too many shoes-gems may be precious, but friendship is priceless."

Who would we be without our funny faces, corny sayings, weird noises, crazy hand motions, loud outbursts, cruel & hysterical pranks, our pretty faces. . . Class of '96: You'd die without us! We'll miss you.

Erica- Thanks to my family once again, I appreciate everything that you've done for me. You all mean the absolute world to me and you're the best family anyone could ever ask for. ILU. (Mimmy, Beek, Hawk (Meekees), and Waigeys). For those who I have shared an unlimited amount of memories with, I would just like to thank all the guys & girls (you know who you are)-It's been 4 yrs. of unforgettable memories.(special thanx to Donny, Caroline, and Les- you guys are great). Lor & Kar- you're the sisters I never had. Mrs. Tort you're a sweetie and your cooking is as perfect & delicious as my moms. To the Tortorella family- thank you very much for everything, you have been my second home since I've been born. Paul, I'll keep you in my heart, always. You finished off my high school years with a special something. I love you, Smooie! "For every ending there's a new beginning, a chance to set new goals, to dream new dreams, to rekindle the hope in our hearts. For endings are a way of rediscovering ourselves of learning who we are and what we need in life, of finding out where we want to go and who we want to be." "With God all things are possible."

Lori-I will never forget unbelievable times spent with the greatest friends. Erica-Tomorrow! I don't know how I'll survive without our daily chats about our on going saga's while listening to our famous CD collection. Thanks to you and your family for being a second home to me. Kara- if it wasn't for a quick glance in gym class 12 yrs. ago I don't know who would be putting up with my antics. I hope I can always be there for you like you're there for me. I hope we three are always, "The best best friends that ever was." James- throughout our many ups and downs I'm glad we have remained so close. I hope things always stay that way. Caroline, Leslie and Donny- you guys have been terrific friends and without you I wouldn't have laughed nearly half the times I have in the past four years. Ryan- thanks for always putting a smile on my face and a song in my heart. You have made this year very special- I love you! Last, but not least, to my family. Dad-Thanks for always allowing me to make my own decision and for trusting me. I love you for loving me even when I didn't deserve it. Bri & Paul- I know you'll miss my constant nagging next year, but try to survive.(and try to behave for Mom!) Amy- you have always been there for me, even though I sometimes wasn't there for you. I'm happy that chance made us sisters, but even happier that our hearts made us friends. Mom- I look up to you more than anyone else in the world. I don't know where I'd be without you and your constant support. Even though we never admit it, 6/23/96 will be a sad day! I love you. To the rest of my family and friends, (especially Cramps), "May the road rise to meet you, May the wind always be at your back, the sun shine warm upon your face, the rain fall soft upon your fields, and until we meet again, may God hold you in the hollow of His hand."

Kara-"Some people make the world more special just by being in it." I've had incredible memories with the greatest of friends-you know who you all are. Esp: Lori and Erica-mes meilleures amies-we've been through so much and I know it doesn't stop here. We know each other too well. To have one Goot is great, but two is incredible! I love you! Mrs. Tort & D'Angelo-Thankx for always making me feel important-I'll never learn how to deal w/your daughters, though-ILU. Caroline, Lesley, Donny and the rest of the girls and guys: A toast to all of you who helped me make the most of these 4 short, but incredible years. It's been unforgettable-keep in touch-I'll miss you! Family -Thanks again for putting up with my "999" moods. I don't deserve you guys-even though I add such excitement to our house! Mom & Dad-I couldn't have done it without you. You've given me so much and I won't let you down. I love you! Rob-I do have faith in your goals-Good Luck-I love you. Ross-"Like, maybe you'll start listening to me when I'm not around, Scoob" I'll miss my lil, but unfortunately stronger brother. You'll always be dirtier, though! We have something unique I'll never forget. "Make the most of the best and the least of the worst." Ron-Although we wish we had more time together, the time we did spend was more than I could ask for. Thanks for giving our senior year and my heart a special touch. I love you! "If you're too busy to laugh, you're entirely too busy."

i am a boy. a boy in a strange world full of wonderful things. i have two very good friends: Chris, Chuck, Scott and Matt. they think i'm kind of strange. we, the boys and i, have had many adventures in this peculiar world but nonetheless we've all had the best of times. these times come to a close upon our graduation but shall never fade from my silly mind. memorie is a fantasmical place to go to remember adventures . . .

THANX to all those who showed me the way:

There once was a TOAD who gathered up his bags late in the hazy, august days of fall to further edify his frog-self at a NEW PLACE. People like Kermit had gone before him and he knew that he, too, must go this way to succeed. And so the amphibian spat and shined his spats, slipped on his soon to be huge trousers, tied up upon his spotty breast his tie, shirt and vest, and placed atop his crown a hat. Looking timely and snazzily dressed, the youngster set forth on his walk to this NEW PLACE. During his journey, he happened upon the jestered countenance of one MR. HARE, who, by the by, had lost his spectacles yet again, Mr. Tull. Anywho, SIR HARE, seasoned with amenity and magic, looked down majestically at his friend. TOAD looked up unexpectedly with a large, s@#& eating grin spattered across his mug. "Wassup, HARE? I am on my way to SKOOL. Unfortunately, it's not OL' SKOOL because it's not that cool, and besides, it's all new to me. So, wanna come along?" "Yup," replied HARE. Now a duo, the pair continued their walk to this NEW PLACE. As they trodded along, the two glanced to the side and, engaged in a silent conversation with the shrubbery, sat a basement door bearing an inscription: "F.O.R.A.N." "What does that mean, do you suppose HARE?" "Who cares? Let's go in." "Yup," answered TOAD. With that rationale agreed upon, they walked, together, and spied, perched upon a sofa, MR. POSSUM. Alive with an air of melancholy and drunken, humorous sense, POSSUM appeared with an earwide smirk smeared on his snout. "Hello POSSUM," said TOAD. "Hello boys. Where are you headed?" "Why, to a NEW PLACE," replied TOAD. "Wanna come?" Responded MR. POSSUM, "Yup." Thus, the tripled-natured band marched from the underground hole with the tri-feeling that they had just spent 45 seconds in a place where they would ultimately spend somewhere around 5000 hours together, but with another two. Having been refreshed by their pit-stop into the nether region, they walked on. Enjoying the briskness of the weather, the group barely managed to avoid trampling upon their friend, MR. TORTOISE. "Hey! Dingleberry! Wake up!" shouted TOAD. "Oh, hi guys. Wassup?" replied the slow-moving shell. "Nothing. We're going to the NEW PLACE. Join us?" inquired TOAD. "Yup," was TORTOISE's reply. And so, now four, the procession walked on until they came upon MR. BEAVER, resting under a bush. "Hi, BEAVER. Come!" asked TOAD. "Yup," was his answer. Now complete, the five animal friends happily skipped and jumped, with the exception of MR. TORTOISE who crawled slowly on, toward the NEW PLACE. It is at this NEW PLACE, now old and used, that the 5 youngsters would grow into young-adult woodland creatures. Along the way others would help, shape, and influence them like MAMA VERA, PAPA DEE, BRO KEN, no, not broken, wise schoolteacher OWL SOLOMON, and GOD. They would always LOVE these people more than anything else, and always will. And so, having become young-adult woodland creatures, the group of 5 bid farewell to the NEW, now OLD, PLACE, to seek out new adventures in the unexplored forest. — Chris Roebuck

I've often thought upon how much my time in high school would have sucked had it not been for the friends I made in Matt, Chuck, Chris and Scott. Perhaps I would've met other friends in another place, but none could possibly possess their unique personalities and eccentricities. Although each one of us is very different, we all share a common bond which has grown over these four years — our friendship. We've done alot, seen many faces, and been to many places. We may be headed our separate ways, but I will always bear the scars of our reckless adventures with a grin and a fond remembrance. -M.F.

Four years ago, it became my time, as it does for so many other unsuspecting 14 year-old students. It became my time to enter that dark, damp, puss-filled zit on the rear-end of the world known as VHS. Immediately I was swamped, crowded in, surrounded by an overwhelming weakness full of parking lots, cliffs and boulders. Soon, I found myself being pulled toward the weakness. But one day I was brought from the darkness, to a warm, welcoming place where the Hi-C and salsa flowed like water. In this place was my salvation—four guys who would prove to be the greatest group of friends one can find. I would end up spending a lot of time in this place—almost a year's worth of time. But it would be time well spent, with this already eclectic group becoming even more so with my inclusion. Occasionally we would venture out for nights with diners, chicks, airfields, and tobacco. But we almost never went weak. It is actually quite remarkable that we were the group that we were. Five different people. Very different. Yet we were one in the same. And we had an uncanny knack for making a good time out of a horrible one. Each of our five different styles of nonsense and B.S. would mesh together to create the ultimate party environment. There are several specific people and memories which I would like to mention at this time, so here they are: From '95!! NYC, wow! Shore—SUNBURN! Thanks to Dori for that wonderful memory. Lunch w/Dave D. — Taco Wednesday!! "Hey, chico, main. Les go git some tacos!!" Workin' at LSD. Toronto '95—"I hate all these f'n rats!" Todd Piro. Thanks for being a great friend, and always there. Shore house in Belmar. Should we study or go to a party? Hmmm... tough choice. To the family, mom, dad, sis—I love you all! Bob and Pete—crusin' in the jeep—summer '95. "let's go get eats!" To the "rest" of the Foran clan — Evan, Chris M, John, Abby, Christina, Kelly, Devon, Lauren E., Laurie — I love you guys. Never forget all the great times and bashest Band buddies. Mark S., Jamie D., good times—Toronto, Florida, VaBeach! K.T. Foran and Billy—throwers of the best surprise party EVER! Coolio can park his truck on my lawn anytime! Track pals—Kerry G., Joe Stimeons, Erica G.—never forget those track memories . . . the flying snot, SCHOOL RECORDS! To Katie C., thank for being one of my best friends in the world, and for being there when I needed you. ILU! There's more, but I really can't remember them all at once. Sorry! . . . As graduation rapidly approaches, we all look towards it with a mixed emotion. The time is nearing when we will all have to go our separate ways. But I know that I will not be forgotten, and assure you that none of my friends will be either. And if there's anything I've learned from all of this, it's that a hard friend is good to find!

-Scottie B.

"Time it was and what a time it was. It was a time of innocence, a time of confidences. Long ago it must be, I held a photograph. Preserve your memories, they're all that's left to you." (Simon&Garfunkel) As we all leave this institution of scholarly guidance, I can't help but to think back upon these memories that I shall carry with me always. So many people have touched my life in ways that I can not explain. People weave in and out of my days yet each person leaves traces in me that will never die out. Although I loathe school and always have, people I come in contact with make it somewhat stomachable. I mean that in the nicest way. Dori- 17 years as best buds. from the baby pool to graduation day and beyond. So many memories from when we were just verbal. 1st meeting. Dori climbs the imaginary tree(charlie looks on in amazement), boxing in my driveway, and the infamous candy/junk drawer. You've been wonderful, I love you. Katie- You've shown me so much. we've had so many memories together that are so dear to me. From '95, two summers together, beach trips, days shopping in NY. So many feelings that well up inside and leave me speechless. I will miss you and I will always love you. -DA BOYS-well what can I say. Never a moment I didn't enjoy with you. Without you guys I'm sure I would have made it, but it would have been pretty lame. You're all pretty wierd but that's okay. Scott-Since third grade Scotty. Hershey Park with the fams. Biker squad. Basement volley ball. Back yard sledding. Scott Aust & Chuck flicks (hmm . . . remember austin). Chris-Think back, little league, 8th grade Giants, seems real long ago. since then you've been there always as the greatest friend a person could wish for. Ball-Enough comedy jokes. Help you I can. Chillin' in your room. That's the best. We all miss the Chevy days. Foran-hockey anyone. basement daze. Who is the Red Goblin? Bad hot dogs after soccer. The over age bash. Henley mobile on lawn, Coolio kickin'. K stand. Summer fun. we want the funk. Thanks to Abby, Jon, Christina, Devon, Lauren E., Bob, Pete, Col.Pis., Evan, Chris M., Dave H., Kelly, J. Donahue, and Laurie B. Thanks especially to big sister Katie Foran. My buddy. Good luck in Conn. thanks to Dave Mat.Band, GordonSting, B. Marley, P.Simon andJethro Tull for giving me the best damn tunes to jig to. Lauren-In such a short time you have come to mean so much to me. You always make my worst days sunny, lowest days high and you even can pull me out of my daily daze. It's like eerrrr! Lazy Days are the best. You've showed me just how beautiful everything can be if you look at it in the right way. I love you. Thanks Mom, Dad, Mittens and Gabby. I love you all. Michelle you're the best. Thank you for all the endless support. —"And I'll be back round again. Yes I'll walk in time with you old friend. And we'll find the place that we had danced in so long ago"DMB. -Chuck Snogans

Sorry we had to be the Mack Daddy of all the groups of friends. But just remember, we're kinda like a bag of Skittles: we've got 10% real fruit juice, "s" on our foreheads, we're bite sized, we all pack a phat flavah, and we invite you all to taste the rainbow. WE WANT THE FUNK. That's all.

*"No happy time that passes is ever really gone
If it leaves a lovely memory for looking back upon."*

NICOLE: "I've been afraid of changing cause I've built my life around you, time makes you bolder even children get older and I'm getting older too." 4 years in one paragraph. Good times with special people. Prom '94 w/ Danielle and Cristy. Memorial Day weekend '94 what a mess! Keith, I've never seen a bigger stuffed animal. Zick, you made the weekend. Danielle those were our DAZE. Miss Marinello's class don't worry about why I have it. Scoonoooo Boones. Driving the car up the snow mound. I swear it was in reverse w/ Woodland. Prom '95 was a bad night for everyone. Pocono's Keith and Tommy. 99 bottles of cheer on the wall. Christian please I don't want to go up there. My friend the oversized moth. Tamara and Vicki trying to make breakfast. M.D.W. '95 Keith he went that way oops! 4 in 1, 3 passed out, 2 in the bed, 1 on the couch and Party Joe walks in. Throw'n punches "I don't want to go home." Tamara, I woke up and rolled over to a bad night. New Years '94 I didn't make the ball '96 was much better! Corrine I refuse to talk to Jack anymore, we never did make it to Dunkin' that night. Obsessions-Vicki watch out there is a fight behind you, I ran behind Mark. Tamara and Doug looking like fools "I don't know them." 11th row Dead tickets and Christian couldn't stay awake. Keith "you left me far behind." Vick stay away from poles that jump out in front of you. 55 Summit, I knew something was going to happen, but Tamara and her straight "A's" got us out of it. Every rose has its thorn Corrine we're lost, but will never be forgotten. Joe & Gunther hanging out in the bath tub all day. Keith cruising the strip w/ the camaro. 6th period art class- Veronica, Cindy, Vicki & Danielle never forget the amazing talks. Shaky we miss you. Out to lunch crew, I waste so much on gas racing to Bell. 4th period marketing class. Mr. Throne, I wouldn't be where I am if it weren't for you. Pep Rally Lanuto and Miller driving w/ the T-tops off. We still have to go to Chip-N-Dales. D&D summer of '95 to much gossip Corrine vs. Danielle boxing match- she broke a nail. Jen we're always on a mission "Lets follow Alan or cruise to Lake Hapacon." Ian your one of a kind, but we think alike. "Crazy Coley." Alan gone w/o a trace left behind. Tommy all it takes is just a little patience. I love you. Jamie, I'm so glad I'm here to see you grow up. Mom, thanx for having patience. Fred says your crazy. I love you Nanny. Pattie, I couldn't have found a better godmother and Tommy your time will be here before you know it. I love you guys. Yesterday there were so many things that I was never taught now that I'm starting to learn, I feel I've grown old.

TAMARA: "God gives us our relatives- thank God we can choose our friends!" And boy have I chose some great friends. Kelly- The memories and injuries will never go away. Through it all we remain to be great friends: The fight in band and the stabbing of my hand. Lighting your hair on fire, the essays which were identical, and our awkward English project. We have shared so much happiness and so many tears. Thanks for being such a great friend. Vickie- my closest and weirdest friend- I would not have survived without your insults. No matter what you say I know YOU WANT ME! The chicken, Bell, and bowling just to name a few are some of the things that will put me in therapy. You have a way of cheering me up when no one else could Thank you. Now for the Misfits, Nuts, and Criminals- Where to begin? Nicole- my clueless buddy- What can I say other than "We're not confused, we're just well mixed." Unforgettable times together: the popcorn fight in 7th grade, our first butt, sharing guys, beating up Justine, Memorial Day Weekend '95, prom '95, and the Poconos. "Tommy, you need that don't burn it off." Willy and Jack our friends for life. Virginia and Rodger a "special couple." 55 Summit- one hell of an experience! No one can say I'm not a smooth talker. Tommy- my best friend- Don't forget I have the negatives to the revealing picture of you and Keith- BOTTOMS UP! Remember Tommy, you can't please everyone all the time so stop trying. To Joe, Gunther, Corrine, etc... it's been real! To Ian- we have lasted against all odds. Who would have thought that Mufasa would bring us together. I know that it has been hard going out with a nut, but remember I'M WORTH IT! I love you baby! The Roadrunner is my idol. To my family especially my mom- Thanks to you I am anything but NORMAL. That's OK though normal is boring, I prefer eccentric. Ben- thanks for everything. Justin- Promise me you will think before you act, be a leader not a follower, always remain confident in your decisions and take life with a sense of humor. I love you all and when I AM PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES I will remember those who laughed at my vision, those who promised to vote for me, and those who helped me get there. I will not disappoint you!

BAHBET "Two strange and insane individuals" Senior Year has been an adventure for us, I'll never forget Ya.Candy's here on the phone. "call again", "come on call someone else" Press 1 if you want... Holding hands in the city to get them to leave us alone, they loved it. Pladium was awesome. 7a.m. return to civil. Club Expo was great, shakin our rumps on stage. Reading X-Rated stories in P.H. Giants game- when you got kicked out for throwing snowballs, I got knocked down and Lodatos big yellow hat. Rusted Root Concert Rides to Renzo's- shining light+censor went on. Leather pants at Changes, hope they don't rip and bring an extra pair. Never got to go to Chip-n-dales, yet! Hotel Party. Jacuzzi cover my butt. Drew P.O. Steve's not your type. You work at "LACE" Night at Blinks- "WOW" Ride to Ideal- Bum$-7c's. Chiropractor (smack) "What just happened?" Let's go to the LOVE store. Eagles concert with Bud, Dad, Dianne, Darren. Hansen, Apostolick, and Dipple in softball, "I miss you guys". Missing my friends in R.P. Sharon- Especially the best. NICOLE G-Mr. Vain black truck Soph year- we were bad.
