SENIORITIS

You Know You're a Senior in the Class of '99 When.....

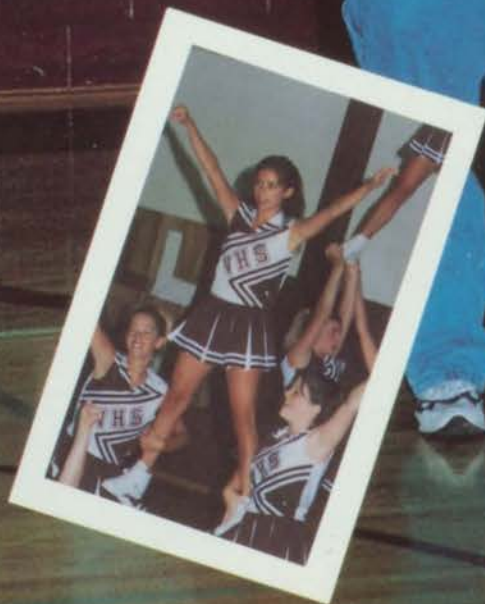

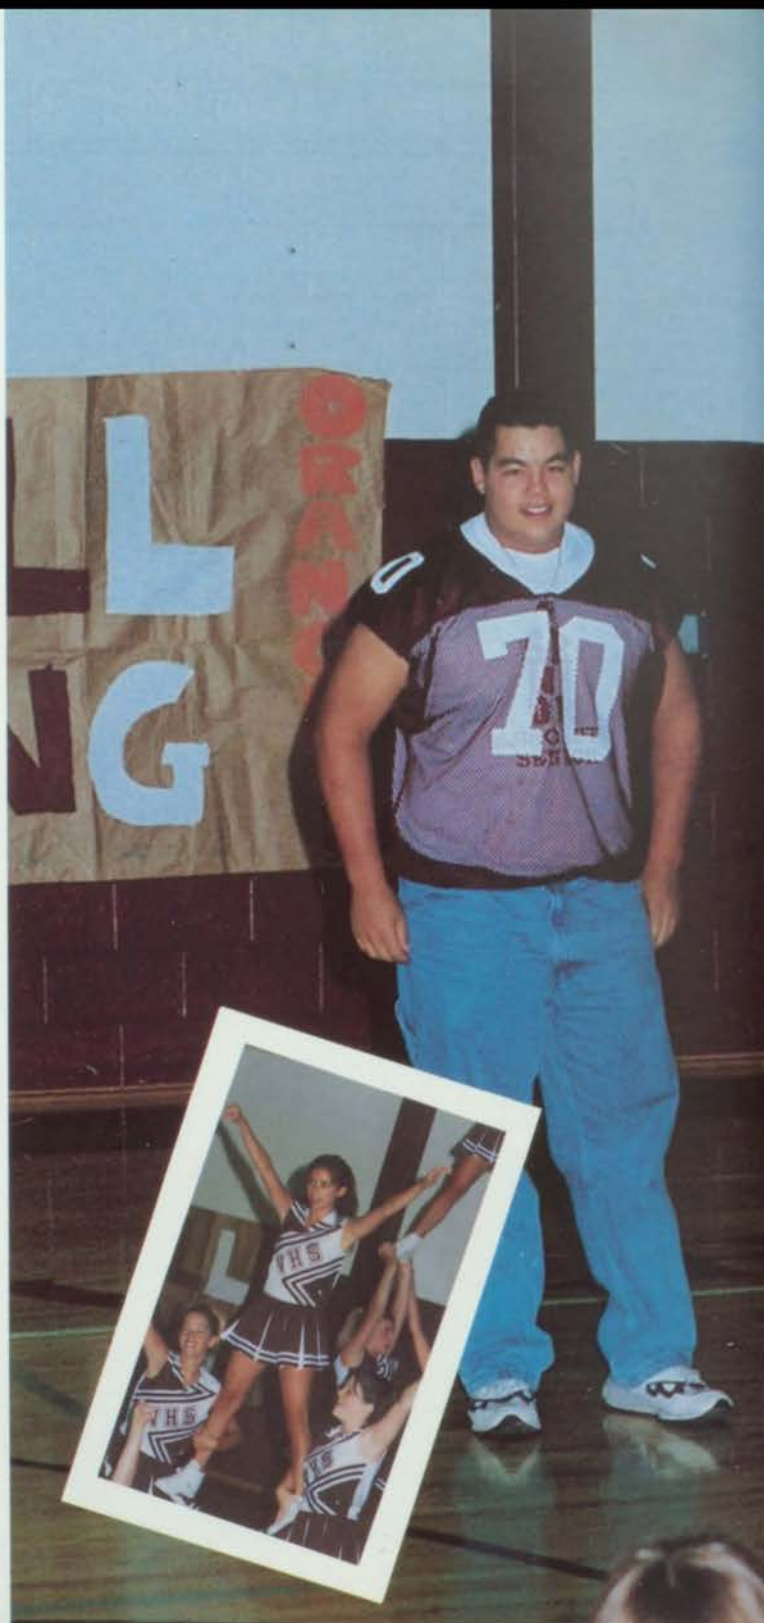

10. You sleep more in class than you do at home
9. You actually lose money at your sophomore ring dance
8. You're the guinea pigs of anything that could ever possibly change
7. You spend more time in the lot than at school
6. You have to have an 8th period
5. You know everybody's name.
4. Lookout is just a memory
3. You've had more principals than years in high school
2. You can only think of 9 things for your Top 10 List

T r a v e l

Travel Nightmares

Sara Benimeli: Our plane got delayed and they had to fly a new one from Newark to LaGuardia. That took three hours. When we finally made it to Miami, we missed our connecting flight to Jamaica. After spending a night in Miami, we got on our plane and were heading towards the runway. All of a sudden, the plane stopped and went back to the hangar because one of the passengers was on the wrong plane. After all of that, we finally made it!

Beth Abele: When I came back from Italy, the airline lost my entire family's luggage. Everyone got their luggage back the same day, but the airline decided to send my luggage on a trip around the world. My suitcase went to Sweden, Boston, New York, Belgium, and everywhere in between. Since I was on vacation for so long, all of my clothes were in the missing suitcase. When I came home, I had no clothes to wear for an entire week. It was awful!

BEST OF F R I E N D S

"What friendship means to me is trust and understanding, because if you don't have either one, then you don't really have a friend".

-Shannon McCarthy

"Friends are important in that besides your family, they are the only group of people you can trust."

-Laolu Fayanju

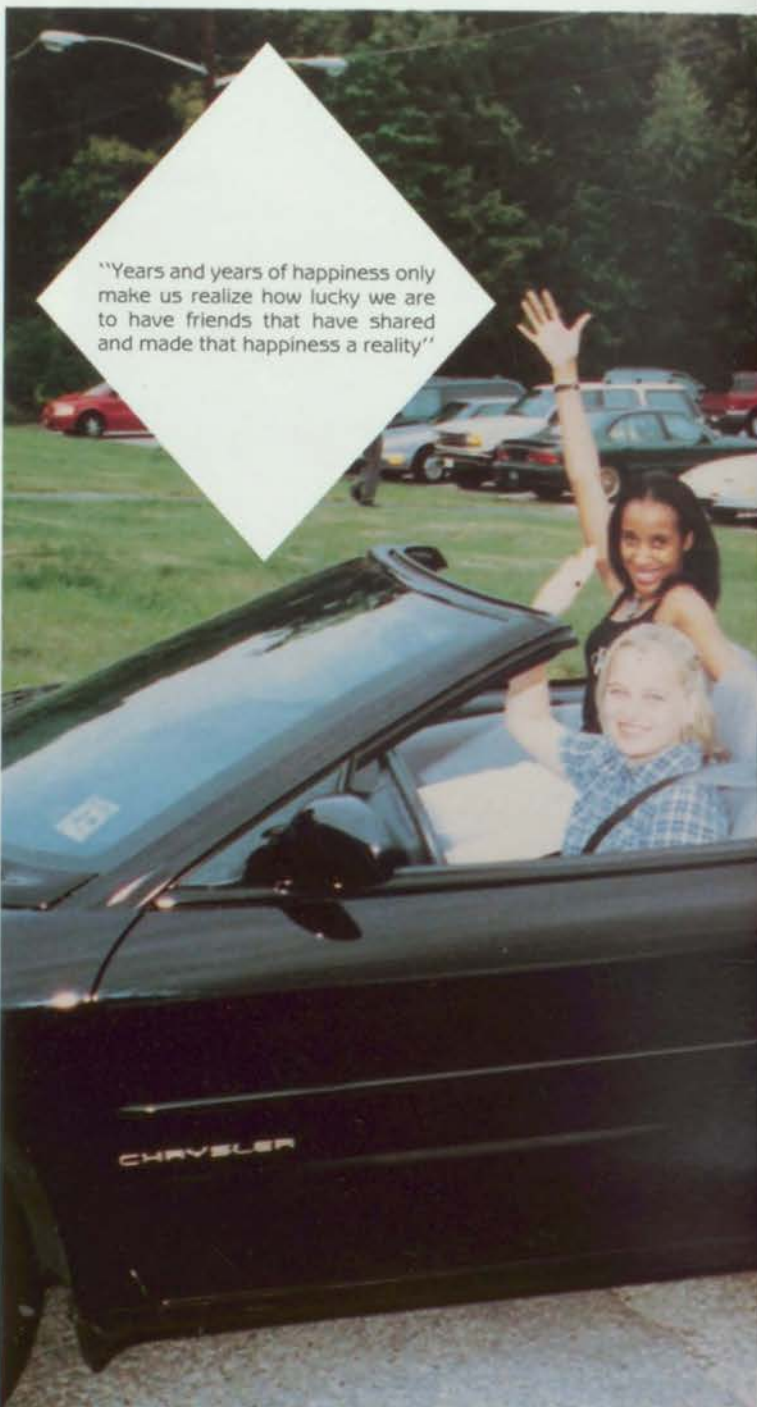

"A friend to me is someone you can trust, laugh with, and tell anything without feeling stupid. Everyone needs a best friend, without friends life would be impossible".

-Erica Toth

"Friends are like family, they're always there when you need a helping hand, a listening ear, and they know what to say to put a smile on your face."

-Michael Chua

"Years and years of happiness only make us realize how lucky we are to have friends that have shared and made that happiness a reality"

Clockwise From Below: Staci Molinaro and Amanda Potts, Verona High School's Most Wanted. Craig Casella, dressed in Goth, hugs Raggedy Ann McKinney-Prupis. Dede Giannakopoulos is ready to grant three wishes. Graham Hartke and Krissy DiTrani are dressed and ready for a night at the disco.

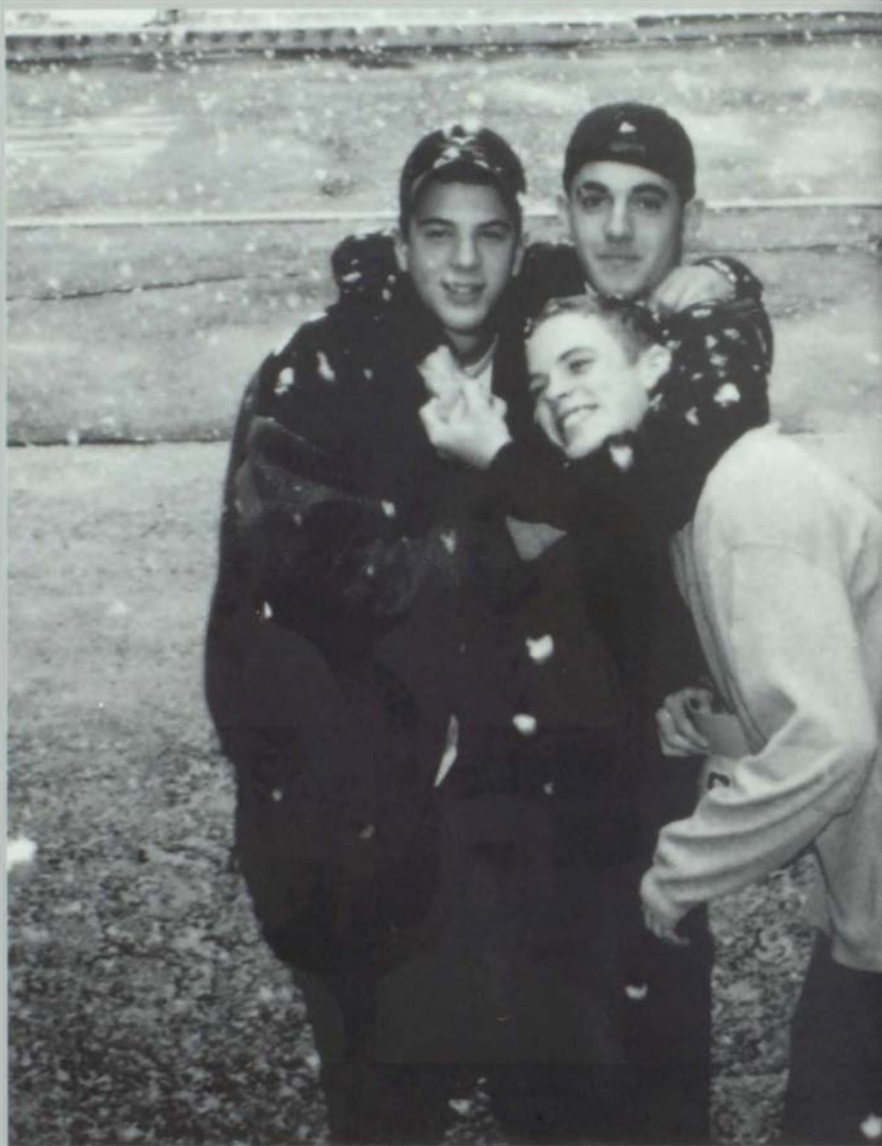

Clockwise from above: Matt Johnson and Shawn Hartwig are getting buff in their 80's gym gear. Kelly Walsh is a sweet angel ready to fly away. April Kirby transforms into Madame Butterfly. Shannon McCarthy vows silence as a mime. "I am Batman!" proclaims Scott Piro.

Saving Some Time for Our Underclassmen Buddies

In many ways, the yearbook always makes it look like seniors never hang out with underclassmen, but that is not always true. Counterclockwise from below: Senior Katie Treffinger and junior Meredith Baker take a break from building houses in Kentucky. Jenn Blum snuggles up to her boyfriend Mike Passero. It seems like senior Brian Tortorella and junior Shaun Ward have been friends for the longest time. Little Chris Nortrup is always eager to help Big Chris Yannetelli with his crutches. Toni Aquilante, Anita Knipping, and Maureen Jackson rather stay in for lunch to spend time with Cynthia Varhalmi, Holly Bruno, and Carla Reinhardt. At the prom, Kristin Pavone, Katie Groux, and Erin McGarrity take a time-out from dancing to pose with Stephanie DeSantis and Sara Ramon. Taking a break from band Jennifer Bane, Mindy Rossi, and Lauren Waiksnoris put down their instruments to relax. Sophomores Amanda Klingert, Lauren Potts, Rorey O'Connell, Jessi Goman, and Nikki Laraja enjoy messing around with senior buddy Mandy Shafer. Matt Hartke always has time to joke around with the lovable Josh Knoblick. Senior Anthony Goss loves picking on underclassmen John Bengel and Brendan Bush.

What if...

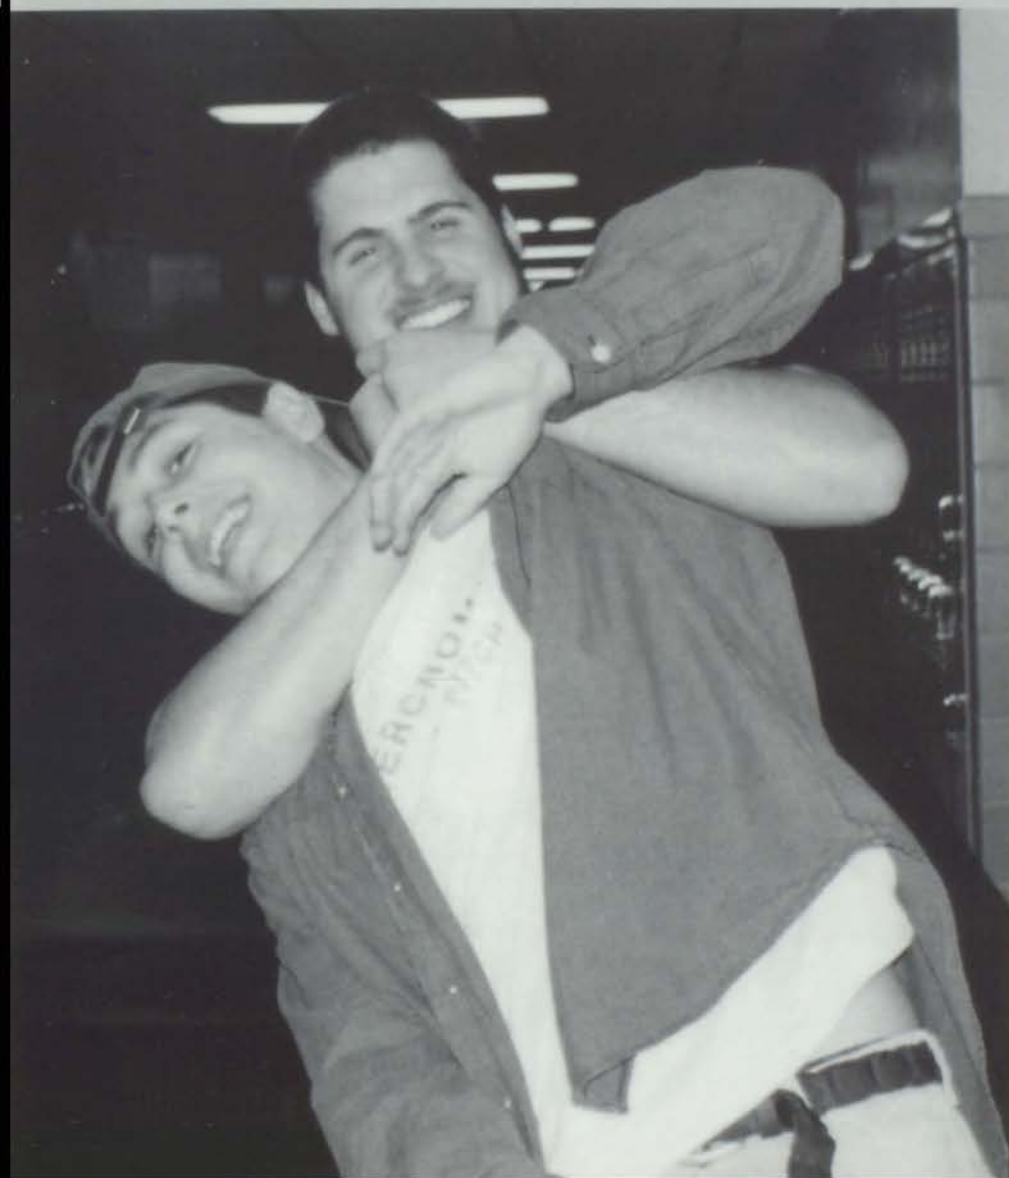

Beth Noble never locked her keys in her car... Pete Malanga didn't take care of BIZness... Beth Abele had a senior year... Tim Banta was unemployed... Matt Johnson never freaked out... Joe Donovan didn't look like he just stepped out of a coffee house... Seniors still had early dismissal... Tyler Flach ever got a ride to or from school... Dan McCarthy and Shannon McCarthy actually were twins... Aphrodite Giannakopoulos's name was Jane Smith... Mr. Treitler lost his colored markers... Tommy Gilsenan played by the rules... Graham Hartke and Melissa Goodman really weren't just friends... the crew really was tough... the class of '99 wasn't the bestest, most popularest, best lookingest class of all time... Maureen Jackson didn't like Bret Favre... We had the same principal for four years... John Tuntevski didn't have the best jump shot in the country... Josh Knoblick wasn't Tommy Boy... Junior Year Is Finally Here...

Your Junior year is finally here
They say it is the most important year.
Class rank and GPA seem to finally count
Only four more marking periods until college applications go out.
You have been waiting your whole life, your permit was a tease
Now finally you get the keys
Pick up the crew you're ready to go
It's time for the Gazebo.
You're blasting Zep or maybe Floyd
It's the cops that you try to avoid.
Wake up on Sunday to do your work
First a cup of coffee for a little perk.
Monday morning the alarm clock is a drag
You hope the first period teacher won't nag.
Lunch comes around, next year you go out
Watching all the seniors you start to pout.
In History thirty hours of community service is on the way
No need to take the final, Hip Hip Hooray.
With Fader, Treitler, Luks and White
You go to SAT course every Monday and Wednesday night.
You learn the tricks to get a good score
If you don't spend all night staring at the door.
By May the prom is 'round the bend
Time to work out the details with a friend
Try on the dress or fit the tux
Dig deep in your wallet cuz this costs big bucks!
Find a salon to get your hair and nails done
Guys, picking out the corsage should be fun.
Afterwards, right to Cha Cha's, in the city
Then time to go home, oh what a pity.
So much to do in only one year
But now there's only one left until you're out of here!!!

"Freshmen year is crazy. The switch from middle school was huge. The good thing about it is that I have friends in the upper-classes. Most 8th graders fear the wrath of the seniors, but there really is nothing to worry about."

Rob Lafalce

"The best part about Verona High School is that there are so many choices. Coming from Catholic School, there were very few choices I could make. At VHS, I can make many choices about my school day. I got to choose my schedule, clothes, and what I want for lunch."

I am a Teacher.

I was born the first moment that a question leaped from the mouth of a child.

I have been many people in many places...

Throughout the course of a day I have been called upon to be an actor, friend, nurse and doctor, coach, finder of lost articles, money lender, taxi driver, psychologist, substitute parent, salesman, politician and a keeper of the faith...

I am a paradox. I speak loudest when I listen the most. My greatest gifts are in what I am willing to appreciatively receive from my students.

Material wealth is not one of my goals, but I am a full-time treasure seeker in my quest for new opportunities for my students to use their talents and in my constant search for those talents that sometimes lie buried in self-defeat...

I am allowed to see that life is reborn each day with new questions, ideas and friendships...

A teacher knows that if he builds with love and truth, what he builds will last forever...

And so I have a past that is rich in memories. I have a present that is challenging, adventurous and fun because I am allowed to spend my days with the future.

"People are unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered - love them anyway.

If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives - do good anyway.

If you are successful, you win false friends and true enemies - succeed anyway.

Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable - be honest and frank anyway.

People really need help but may attack you if you help them - help them anyway.

Give the world the best you have and you'll get kicked in the teeth - Give the world the best you've got anyway."

Congratulations Chris and the class of 1999

Dear Chris,
 Since the day you were born you have brought so much love and happiness to our family. By the time you were three and a half years old you had taken on the responsibility of big brother to Bob and Mikey. You taught them not only to "share", but to "care" about everyone and everything. You've been an inspiration to us all. You never complain and are always ready to lend a hand and give of yourself. You have been and always will be your brothers' guiding light, and our shining star!

We are so proud of the young man you've grown to be. With the determination, responsibility, respect, and open heart that you have, we know you will succeed at whatever your dream is.

Hold on to that Dream, Chris-
 You deserve only the best.
 We love you so very much!

The Face of Success

Victoria,
There are no secrets to success;
Don't waste time looking for them.
Success is the result of perfection,
hard work, learning from failure,
Loyalty to those for whom you work
and persistence.
Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles that one has overcome while trying to succeed.
We are so proud of you.
We love you...

Graham & Adrienne

GRAHAM: Jay: you were my guitar teacher, and now you're my best friend. Remember when you were my section leader, the ski hat and insanity, dancing, waves, serious teacher attitude went away. U said "If u were my age we would be best friends." Aerocleese, Curack, Megadeath voice, Hello in Wongs face, shout outs of things that we did, outfits that our band wears, dinner with JP and SD at joes tea jays, "wrap job," Our shows in Verona, Rec Center, Church, Andy, when we walked into the Rec Center for the 1st time. Guitar teacher-Senior-friend-best friend- intern. Aerosmith at MSG (6th row), PNC (backstage, when you became insane because we were on Joe Perry's side and you didn't want to share the pass). Meadowlands (last min), much, eating dinner over while watching your parents show, "Gray, she's a spy," buying new guitars and realizing that they're for looks not sound. Talking to each other and not listening, chores- Mailing list, labels, cameras, posters, balloons, making shirts that never come out right, calling out and church, copies, folding. When u lived at my house for a week and we decorated, guess what aerosmith album this con is? Free deli, dream on, finding a name for our band, "Crazy Star," 4 of 1- gigs we've played: bene, pony, elbow room, jay harrisons-bass intonation, project grad-odel fight. Recording at big blue "porn house," CD art, CD sales, writing tunes at sisco, answering machine messages "pumpkins and candy, you tell m' Jay, Jay knows he is here." Saying the same thing at the same time, imagine us at the MTV awards, Aerosmith dreams, we're the same person, that's why we'll always be friends. Remember its always work before... "something's wrong with my head light, My window doesn't go down, how does my hair look now, rocks shirt, look at that." I started smoking again, "nothing more need to be said b/c u already know what I going to say. That's all for AOL, you're gone, don't come bababack, Feliz Navidad, someday we'll be famous. Dream On. Lorien: I always knew u were "godly," the 1st time I saw u I knew I was going to be friends with you. Thanks for always listening to me complain. I'll always have time to listen to you're problems. Don't forget the G&L book. The day I got my license we hung out. Thanks for coming out to see my band, where ever we need anything, $, or a part for you're car just call me. I'll always love you, I better be invited to you're wedding! We'll always be friends. All that you touch and all that u see is all that u'll ever be." Kristen: You have a nice smile, nice eyes, and nice hair. TIGS dance "I don't want to miss a thing." TGIF ice cream, Aerosmith concert, John Clark party: pjs at blockbuster, insult, Shitque, mama, papa, budget, Ketchup on my face. Don't forget my really gay analogies. K&G game, freezing in the park, the day of yac surprises. The 1st time I saw u I felt something special. I love u baby. Its been amazing so far. I know we'll always be together in someway. Always remember how awesome that day in the park was. U mean more to me than u'll ever know. I'll always love you Kristen Kaelin. Erin: Where do I begin? U will never be forgotten b/c, as u know already u changed my life. We had such an awesome time together when we were best friends. Remember you're sweet 16, ska master, all the fun we had with new & exciting jewish people, sara gartman, amanda, jamie r, barry, & others that I won't mention. IHOP everyday, mofo, sleeper parties at you're house, treehouse, visiting u at camp, joern issues, eating over my house on t-day, the erin song, going to the big apple gonna get myself a bite, dancing to "what people do for money," going research in the lib fresh year for bio w/microfilm, starting a key club, awful kc convention, candle sale flop, plan to better verona, u draggin me dress shopping, seeing u and Scott by accident. After our friendship diminished I think it changed for the better. Kids who care, "senior" prom, random visits to you're house & talks at 3am, I sat shotty when u got your license. I'll always love u & I'll never forget u. I'm going to make a movie of your life. If u ever need me n e time in your life I'll be here for u. Melissa: "I, want, her! The toasters on fire. I know what I want to say in my head but I can't say it out loud. We must stop the stamp act or we'll be wrecked." The party was ok, I just hung out and stuff. I talked to this guy (fill in the blank) for a while. Melissa wake the "s" & up, the seat in my car is broken. Oh we're just fixing the bed. Romantic? Did we ever go out? Could u help me clean? "You made 6 plans with 6 different people for Friday? Yeah, but I really don't want to hang with any of them." No Katy I didn't tell N E one. Oh except for Graham. "Stealing salad dressing. U so loud when u laugh. Melissa can I have the HW? U always sit in front of me. Lolly pops for English, parking ticket w/mikes car. Wake up! U won't believe what mikes just did. Prom merris: fight in the limo, down the shore? At one time we liked each other, but nothing ever happened. That was for the better because it would've never worked. I know u to well, I'll always think of u when I see ritz crackers. I hope you're life is awesome. Remember I want to meet your boyfriend in college. & I want to go to your wedding! Love ya, always be there 4 ya. Peanut Jones: Mike, Ant, Jay- our band rocks, lets take it all the way. Laz, Italy hats, my brother sean drew the skull. Lay down tracks, church gig in snow storm. Record deal? John: We became friends through TIGS, had so much fun chlin, 11:30's good, jose tejas with Sara D, smelly feat, moesha, happy waitress, brets house, sorry bout the stuff I put u through. I want u to know that your friendship means a lot to me and I'll always be there for ya. your really strong for dealing with everything. Holly: Get off the stage. Leah: Jays a jerk. Kim: Yes I have a juicer, gossip, cleaning, down the shore, coming over on new years. Adrienne: I have that tape 4 U to watch. U r a fine piece of woman, my "girlfriend" when I didn't have a girlfriend. New years at my house. Your hysterical. Love ya hope u become a successful actress. Dan: We were friends and had fun. Mike D: Soccer merris, U R a good guy and a good friend, your fashion needs help (orange vest). Erica: My first wife, love ya hon. Laol: Keep it real pimp, playing tennis & chillin, good luck @ Harvard! Mike McManus: we have the mems: ALDO, strock, videos, N.E.T.S. nets, pill & freeds, bilizard of 96, good luck with whatever u do! Spruce Lane: Matt & Shawn: childhood mems! TIGS friends U R the best. Mom, Dad, Matt, Rebecca, I love you! "Life's so short to live in a hole so bust into your funkiest strole." Anthony Kedis RHCP

ADRIENNE: Its been four long years of fun, laughter, good times and bad. It all turns into a memory in such a short time. Memories made of friends and experiences that will last for a life time. Nicole G. and her awesome summers down the shore. Nicole G: you've been a great friend through the years, I have a lot of my highschool memories with you and I'll miss you the most after graduation, remember our obsession with the Nets, how you almost got with Ed O Bannon, thinking we saw Sleepy Floyd in the park but you couldn't tell without your "glasses", and the three legged dog we kept telling to clap: ha ha! I'm really glad we were so close maybe we can be that way again, because we've grown up and apart in highschool. Friends grow apart and new ones are made to compensate a loss that can never totally be filled. Freshman year, Nic G. remember when a gorilla grabbed your butt, how about when I saw Drew's friend sneaking out to Dave's house at two in the morning, trying to come up with ways to extend our curfews. We sure had a lot of adventures: gettin' crazy in gym class with Hensley, boy were we goofy. Sophmore year sitting on the heater in chemistry talking about our guy roubles- Dave and Scott both in the picture, going to our booth at IHOP everyday after school to talk, going to see the hottie dentist on purpose. Losing my friend Willie, I miss you. Me and Hollie P. going off in Cooking class. Junior year me dating a stripper and everybody passing around his picture everyday in physics, Graham being my "boyfriend", Mr. Treitter doing cartwheels in class. Senior year, Kim S., Crissie M. and Melissa R. going to the strip club to check out the beefcakes with me. Katie T.'s dad laying off my mom, just kidding Kate, me putting eyeliner on K.T. for the first time, you know you looked good. Going clubbing with Mike P. and Jerry P., we sure do know how to have a good time and look good doing it. Mike P., Daria P., Kim S., Amy C., Oscar: got snowboarding and horseback riding in the Poconos, that kicked butt, Mike P. getting some dough out of the game machines w/ me on the lookout. Me and Daria P. with our inside scoops. Going to the gym with Mike P., Oscar and Kim S. playing basketball and working on our "hard" bodies. Dating Adrian from the gym what a "poppi-chulo". Kicking some butt at States in DECA with Tommy G., Nicole C., Kristen C. and the crew, "who wants Roy Rodgers?". Derek what can I say that guy was cute and funny. Me and Kennedy R. trying to get to Florida, Kenny R. being a "montel" hey "burnabaciot". Serena A. I loved always being able to connect with you, we are on the same level, don't ever change. Shafer, Sara B., Kelly S., and Doni S: never forget Virginia boy did we have a good time as a matter of fact it's on tape. Graham all the good times we had making our movies, and buggin' out in physics class, going in the back closet. New Year's Eve. Melissa G. and me knowing all the songs and lines to Grease II. For those who I forgot to mention there's no doubt that I will remember you to, all of my friend's will always be in my heart. Highschool's been a blast and it definitely went by very fast with memories and friends new and old lasting forever in our hearts and minds, goodbye V.H.S. it's been the bomb!

April, Erica & Kelly

April

APRIL - High school was definitely a time in our lives that nothing can recreate. To all my friends - everything is going to be incredibly different without you all there, everyday in the same places I saw you the day before. I'm gonna miss you, along with everything else. Kelly - we've been friends for what seems like forever. Nothing will be the same without you guys there when I'm upset or incredibly happy or just blah. Our friendship has gone through many stages, like when we fought at least once a day for a year straight, or when we barely talked the next year. But we've always been there for each other. And all of those stupid home videos we made, and then our parents found them and showed them to everyone, that was...special. The three of us have always been together, or so it seems. Pgonna miss you guys so much: sitting in Erica's house after her family had gone to church on Sunday mornings, sleeping over at Kelly's house torturing the one to fall asleep first (erica). None of us are going to be anywhere near each other next year but I have a feeling that that won't change how close we are. I love you both as sisters and friends. Jamie: Well this year has definitely been one smooth bumpy ride, thanks alot for coming along with me for it. I don't think I could have made it through some of the times without you, thanks I'm going to miss you a lot. Quinn, Marissa, and Andrea The three of you have been like my older sisters. Each of you have a different and unique personality, nothing has been the same without you here. I hope all of you know how much you mean to me. Quinn You were always the voice of reason, someone who kept everything in perspective when nothing seemed like it ever would be again. Thank you, I hope you know how much you mean to me. ILU, Marissa You can always make people laugh no matter how serious the situation. Thank you for never letting my spirits slip to low without even trying to cheer me up. Andrea - You've never let anyone make me feel bad about myself. Thank you for always talking when I couldn't on my own behalf, senior year was ruff w/out you around, but you know stuff always works out. I love you and miss you so much. Staci well, it's all over and you are on your way. I still can't believe how much like a real person you are. Your own apartment, hmmm, I don't know, very grown-up. It's a shame that we only kinda talked the first three years, and only really talked talked this year, I missed out I guess, huh? I'm gonna miss our little everything'sucks drives and our last minute drive to the beach, but hey school next year should be fun, I can't wait to break in the new pad. tim thank you. You've done a lot for me this year and you might not even know the half of it. Thanks for always being you, and never being serious. Matt - hmmm, what to say here? School definitely wasn't the same w/out you around and I hope that you have fun this summer on your little cruise. Thanks for making me more like me, I love you. Mom and Dad - You put up with a lot these past four years, thank you for never really losing it, I don't know how you did it, but it has really meant a lot to me. You both always acted as though I was the perfect daughter (even though we all know that I am far from it). Thank you and I will miss you next year, who is going to clean up my mess when you aren't visiting. Jennifer - yup, I'm out. Are you excited? We have an original relationship that for some reason I hope doesn't change too much. It's good to have someone to show you how horrible and how sweet you can be in the same minute, it show you a lot about yourself, ya know? I'm gonna miss you and hope you come visit as much as you say you will, we might have fun together. High school is irreplaceable but I am glad its over in a way. I hope you have fun, enjoy it, it goes faster than you think. I love you, Jenn.

"In kindergarten, our idea of a good friend was the person who let you have the red crayon when all that was left was the black one. Together we can make it through anything, help each other pack up for college and just slightly hug one another, as we look through blurry eyes at years of memories we're leaving behind. On those last days of childhood, we all went out of our way to give one another reassurance that we would make it."

It is so hard to wrap up so many years in a small space, but you've been there with me through everything. You've always been able to make me laugh, and you've greatly affected who I am today. Thanks for everything. To all my friends: Where we go from here cannot be foreseen, but whatever shall come, always know that what you have given me will never be forgotten, and you will always carry part of me with you. Thanks for always being there for me, for your love and support, and for the fun times we've shared. I'll miss everything and I'll miss all of you. Thank you to all of my family. Mom, Dad, Kelly, and Pumpkin-I love you! Thanks for everything. Grandma-Thank you for all your love and support. You are my inspiration and you are behind everything I accomplish. Anita R.: Mom and Dad-Thanks for everything. You believed in me, and helped me cope with life. Dad, even though you're gone you remain in my heart, and I think about you a lot. Your sarcastic ways and jokes will live on in me, Carla, and John. And remember: "No matter what happens, I'll always be your Big Bombolini!" Mom, you'll always be here forever, you're not getting away that easy. No matter what happens, things will always be all-right in the end. The Sausage loves us (and Dr. Taggart too) because we did what we thought was best. The doggies, hamsters, birds and bunny love you too. We all end up together in the end. Everything will be OK, no need to worry. I Love You Guys. Thanks, thanks a lot. Pop and Vicki-Thank you for your support and your many good wishes. Dave-I love ya! Remember all the fun times. If you ever want to give Fatso away, I'll take him. Remember listening to Alice in Chains, and Meatloaf. Try to forget my evil ways, I'm sorry. EHA-I! you don't know what means I'll tell you later. DIMYH? YBY! The cat, which is really a bunny, sends her love. Kill the sun, it's pretty and all, but you know why I feel the way I do. My legs actually did fall off, but I had a clever and skillful surgeon attach them back on. Don't I worry about you all the more? I'm a replacement until my real ones grow back (betcha couldn't tell they weren't real-just kidding No, really Anita, I thought you were telling the truth. Well, all I have to say now is: HIGH SCHOOL IS OVAH, and may we be happy with whatever we do. I Love You. Carla-Mo, eez Teal? OH-HI-HI, CAHL! Ah! you're a sicko! EEE! C. E. You know what I mean. They send their love. The little Amoeba. The book of life I made in art class. "only Anita would create something to do with evolution." BUSH-(Gavin and the rest of the circus). Till didn't let everyone into the concert, it wasn't his fault, but he could have used his German power, and a push-up bra. "WHERE'S CHRISTOPHER?" Numerous going bays of saucy's (you better understand that because I am not writing it out). I'd bet you'd like to drive that stick. Don't ever forget when I broke you leg-oh wall I didn't. (That doesn't mean what you think it does). 6/25/98-11/1/99 (includes 1,2,3,4 included, and 5 is coming up soon-by the time the yearbooks are printed we'll probably be up to 10). GOOHHYYYYY! (TLL). Lisa-hell-o, diss iz Tell No, wait, it's Bimebag (hock laugh). Jock meeting, A-HOYAH! (read Carla's for the whole version). Lisa your idea about your engagement and wedding is a good idea, except that you have to get your boyfriend to agree to get engaged on Friday the 13th and get married on Halloween. And, if agrees, Carla, and I will have those long black gowns and we'll throw chicken bones when you walk out of the place you get married in (church, courthouse, jail, etc). We'll go to the Ramstein concerts aplenty. We'll go to the 7-eleven and get shot by a mad trucker on the way there, and then after that (if we survive), we'll set shot in the cross-fire of a customer shooting the clerk, (after arguing and yelling at each other for a while). Ennyvayvay all of the other stuff we already know in our hearts, and we'll talk about them forever, so there's no use for me to sit here and type my fingers to the bone. Love-ya, and I'll see you all the time. Good luck at everything you do. Goonbyy (Till). We'll eventually get that job at Sound-A-Rama. Toni, Maureen and Anita-HEY, here the hell should I start? All right, here we go (deep breath and sigh) Always remember all the loves of our lives, wait, your lives. Yes Anita, you too. Remember Sergei freshman year? (Did I spell that right?) But, whatever you do, don't remember Kate's loves (remember what she used to talk about?) Chris from Germany (Katie never talked about him, mere coincidence that he appeared right after I mentioned her no, seriously she doesn't have a clue of who he is, only we are fortunate enough to know.) That kid must have tried to hit every mall in the tri-state area, I know I saw him at half of 'em. Wouldn't you though. I mean, how many good malls could there possibly be in Germany? "I should have worn a skirt." "I should have brought my gun." "What?" "This should be fun." Anita-Always remember singing Smashing Pumpkins "Bullet With Butterfly Wings" on the way to sixth period English and once we got there, you know, CARL. How annoying was that? All Year Long. That project we did with Anton, A.J., and Graham. The voice-overs. Mr. Candon's community tests and quizzes, and gum, and counting down to the last second of his class with a calculator. Just like Mr. Luks. Your photographic memory. Art class (I was your inspiration). Alphabet noodles shooting out of your nose at lunch 5th period, sophomore year. After school that year when we used to play UNO outside with Fran, Katie, Michelle, Kim Zipf, Jen, and all of those other passersby. Painting the Caesar portraits as our project that we aced. Cleaning up the day after the arts festival, stepping on tacks and walking around with them on our shoes and tap dancing. Do you know I had over 30 of them in both shoes combined? John farting and making pig noises at Maureen's birthday party in '97 (so annoying). Our Simpsons talk at Maureen's party last year. Rich "Hey ladies!" Me pulling my hair out (today, 3/7/99) Finally, good luck at Montclair State and whatever you do. I'll see ya. Love Ya. Bye! Maureen-Chris from Germany was yours, but he was a part of all of our lives. Don't worry about what's his face. Toni said we'll go to the prom together!!! Sophomore lunch with you and I (proper English) sitting right near Katie, boy I wish we didn't hear some of the things she was saying. Lunch this year was interesting. Carla and her foul language about what's his face. Stick boy (nuff said). Ennyvay. Good Luck in whatever you do, and at whatever school you choose to go to. Love it, and whatever you do, don't ever forget Bobby tromping over the hockey goal net and then falling into it. Now that was funny. (So was the test Toni gave at the end of the year). Toni- I'm sure that you have read Anita's and Maureen's by now. That Bob thing was funny, we still laugh about it to this day, whenever we play hockey. Nick and you will be a good looking couple at the prom. If you and Nick pull a few strings you have a better chance of becoming prom queen and king. I know you'd like that, you'd finally be one instead of just acting like one, well that of a princess (Prince William)! Please don't beat me with your lunch sack, not box, but a bag-like structure-which would be a sack which I said in the first place. Whatever I said about John last year at the prom I meant, you just weren't supposed to hear it. Just kidding, well, sort of, no, you both looked nice together at the prom. Anyway, if your still reading this and not plotting my death, good luck at Georgetown, and have fun, in D.C. Just don't drink too much because I don't want to hear that you got alcohol poisoning. Just kidding about your drinking too much. You wouldn't do that Right? Just kidding again. I'm such a kiddo. By the way, the thing I said about acting like a queen, it was all part of lunch time fun. Shannon-I met your freshman year and what a ride it was from there. Oh boy. Most of the stuff we'll remember in our hearts, but we'll run through them now. Physical Science, Algebra I-A with that note to P.R. We waited the whole summer D.M., ya know Biology labs, Math class with Mrs. G-R, all we did was talk, and eat Skittles and M&M's. Remember the party you had in the summer of '96 with Elizabeth, her boyfriend, his friends, and the water fight with the plastic cups, JJ and co. were throwing at us. Your birthday party in '96 when your dog was eating the dip, and your baby cousin was in the bag of potato chips. The time you drove into the bushes in front of the hermits house. "Shannon, your supposed to stop at red lights and stop signs!" Anyway, good luck in college, and in your life, and no hard feelings of our insults about your driving. I'll see ya. Love Ya! Bye! Fran-Thanks for the things you have offered me, such as bringing me to Caldwell College to meet Josh's friends, and bringing me there to buy a Caldwell sweatshirt. I have known you for a long time, the memory will always be there. Have fun at Coker, and good luck in your life. I'll see ya around. Bye!! Holly-Last year's luck was fun and everything. Don't forget Shannon's guys. Bob was fun, the Poopie list. We were all goofy. Don't forget me, and our wacky times which I think is virtually impossible. The talent show, the dances, the stail... OK, I think I'll stop typing now. We'll keep in touch, and I'll see you at school when I come to pick Carla up. Sarah-Your freshman year, and my sophomore year was cool. The funniness at the lunch table was outrageous. The wackiness will remain in our hearts forever. If you ever need advice for anything, and you have no one to turn to, feel free to give me a call anytime. I'll see ya when I come to visit the school when I come to pick Carla up. Good luck in life. See ya! Love ya! Bye!

I'm glad we became friends, M.J., even if I don't remember exactly how it happened! What would I have done without you? (Let's be seen slightly less insane, had a few less headaches-just kidding, really!) Preppy Boy! Aka Him aka your favorite band officer. Muzzy, Muzzy, come back! Remember GT Elizabeth? Beheading me wasn't very nice. I mean your own cousin, Mary, me! And don't give me that I was trying to steal your throne thing because it just doesn't work. He'll protect you from the dark side and guys with tails who morph into Luke Skywalker without a light saber. Random thoughts! My overuse of the word so, which so annoyed you. Deciding at Mandee's that we were Six, Blossom, and Joey (we needed a third for Anita K.) Driving to the mall Left blinker on for like 10 blocks, getting out of the front seat and in the back while stopped at the light. Our fave analogy this year-life as a bad Happy Days rerun-you as Mary Beth-you finally saw her! Me as Joanie, Hallelujah High, going down to Arnold's to what happens with the bet between Ralph and Patzie, near-rumble at Wendy's. Favorite movie lines: "I just honestly don't know what I'll have in common with these people anymore. What am I supposed to say? I killed the President of Paraguay with a fork, how have you been?" Our personal favorite (at the band banquet) "I should have worn a skirt, I should have brought my gun. What? This should be fun." Okay "Godzilla". "Uh, wrong floor." "running would be a good idea". A person with long hair is seen from behind, swinging on a swing set. They are wearing a dark t-shirt with a graphic that says "SEMI-TRAILER". The background is a park with trees and a grassy area.

My feet are so dependent on this foundation,
My imprints have become like a memorable mold in the dirt,
From the first time inexperienced and skeptical legs
Quivered to make their first advancement towards a gradually
Aging afternoon sky.

Each sway was like a stimulant to this new atmosphere,
Stirring a sensitivity to distinct opinions, panics, passions . . .
Surging to their most heightened horizons
With only the little onset of some trigger incident,
Then being balanced far back with reason or recovery in the next second.
I remember
My soft hands attempted little by little to loosen their grasp from those irritating chains,
And with only the releasing of perhaps finger from a link came a shy inspiration
To stretch my tight limbs completely open
In those alarmingly breezy yet beautiful heights.

Now, my hands are calloused from those toils,
All heartache, adolescent anguish from these intense phases has finally rusted,
Not into regret or wasted time,
But some sort of weathered wisdom.
I realize now that there was so much rhythm in each swing taken over the years,
Individuality in what I always heard shrieking irregularity,
Character that now carries me so completely over the border
Where grounded beliefs blend with a setting of infancy.
Personality that still keeps pulse in both worlds,
I am now an ambitious scholar of the distant skyline,
Yet my footprints are deep enough to help others one day grow to the same height.
