What are the worst things about being a sophomore:

- #1: You can't drive..
- #2: You're still not an upperclassmen..
- #3: You still have 2 years left.

"You know you're a sophomore when..."
...you can boss around the frosh, but the juniors and seniors still boss you around.

What If

Mr. Valente didn't love the students...Mrs. Sloan didn't know everyone's names...Miss Hemsley was the cheerleading coach...Mrs. Lanno lost her voice...Mrs. Schoenig dwarfed Mr. Demond...Mr. Maher was ever absent...Mr. Trietler tore off someone's head and threw it in their face...Mr. Sabaday didn't give a curve...Miss Gonzalez-Roig had an unhappy Monday...Mr. White didn't hang out with the history department...Miss Sherris didn't have an accent...Mrs. Warshaw hated animals...Senor spoke English...Miss Sepcie and Mr. Galbierczyk tied the knot...Mr. Brennan didn't have his review game...Mr. Luks didn't dress up as literary characters...Mrs. Young was an actress instead of an English teacher...

TEACHERS

Paint their minds
and guide their thoughts
Share their achievements and advise their faults

Inspire a love
of knowledge and truth
As you light the path
Which leads our youth

For our future brightens with each lesson you teach
Each smile you lengthen
Each goal you help reach

For the dawn of each poet
each philosopher and king
Begins with a Teacher
And the wisdom they bring

Girls Basketball

A Day in the Life of VHS Girls Basketball...

It's 6:30 a.m. As the sun rises on another day of windsprints and Sprayburry drills, T-$ Throne rolls out of bed and debates which sweater will best fit the day's events. Meanwhile, in a nearby town, the Pingry refs search for their glasses before they leave for work, but decide they won't use them today -- people fall down all the time in basketball anyway. As first period begins, Sue's stone bruise is acting up again, and she stops for a quick drink at The Hole on her way to the nurse's office. In the hallway she passes by Jen Collins, who is on her way to the bathroom for another pit stop. As 8th period ends, Eleni and Jen decide to go for a quick drive-- they plan to make it back in time for practice, but "What About Us?" comes on the radio, and taking another lap around the block is just too "tempting." When they finally reach the locker room, they are greeted by Ashley, who is screaming something about shooting lay-ups "like a machine!". To add to the chaos, Sue and Frani are mooning each other in a corner, Sam is throwin' 'bo's, and Jackie is still looking for the hula hoop she never got for Christmas. As the girls head to practice, they wonder at how, in spite of the daily madness, they have managed to pull off a winning season and a trip to the state play-offs for the first time in five years.

CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU
AND THE CLASS OF 2002

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Elizabeth, Mamaw, Grandad, Natalie, Joan, Joe,
and Eric

To Our Dear Stephanie,

These four years have gone by so quickly. It feels like yesterday when you were dropped off in August for band camp and a whole new adventure started. Meeting new friends was only the beginning.

It is so wonderful that Verona High has given you the opportunities to grow in so many different ways. You have experienced physical growth in all your sport activities, mental growth in the challenging courses that you have tackled, and spiritual growth in the friends and support around you.

Because of you, our family has also grown. Going to band competitions and concerts, baseball games, soccer, javelin events and school plays have certainly kept us all busy. We got the chance to spend time together as a family and also meet wonderful new friends too.

We have watched you grow in a wonderful and confident young lady. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments in the past four years. College will start a whole new adventure for you. Think of it as band camp and imagine all the unknown possibilities.

Good luck and success in the challenges ahead, and always know that we love you and that you have our support.

Love,
Mommy, Daddy, Gerald, and Joseph

Dear Joanna:
Now is the time for you to celebrate your accomplishments. We are so proud of you. You are everything we hoped you would be and more. As you go off to college we know
you will meet each challenge with the same spirit and determination. Always believe in yourself and follow your dreams.

Congratulations to you, we love you.!

CONGRATULATIONS ANDY

So this marks the culmination of your education in Verona. All the joys and challenges of your small class at Brookdale to H.B. Whitehorne where you met so many of the friends you have to this day, and then Verona High, where you and your friends found yourselves as members of the marching band and orchestra. You kept yourself involved outside of school when years ago you played soccer, football, baseball and basketball. There were the years of Scouting, where you attained the coveted rank of Eagle, your involvement in church youth activities, and now your work with the rescue squad. You've always had a big heart when dealing with others and we know the caring will continue. We wish you all the best in whatever may lie ahead, and know that our thoughts and prayers will remain ever constant, no matter what your future may hold. We have been blessed with one very special son and it is a title we are very proud to use.

So many memories created: "Uncle Baba for the Uncle Baba. Smoosh!, Giller Mickey, "Don't touch da" ballon game, pick-up sticks at Nana's, "Goodbye old friend, Hello new friend", and trading, singing and dancing to show tunes; and the potential for many more to come. I will always be here to help you hatch schemes and realize dreams. Thank you for being a wonderful brother and a great Godfather. Love always, your little big sister.

Lisa

This nine-pound darling was sweet from go,
No crying, no fussing. She took life slow.
No terrible two's, no temper, not wild.
She came to the world a quite placid child.

But her sister was bossy, thought she could rule.
So Lisa got tough. She was no fool.
Gave one swift kick to her off-guard kin,
and was bullied no more. No, never again.

She learned to cook at the age of four.
By five, she made cookies, cobblers and more.
Lasagna, crepes, grilled cheese, bread,
But visions of chocolate always dance in her head.

Witty, bold, irreverent, sunny,
Speaks her mind, is often funny.
Can't hold a tune, but her heart's full of song,
A good friend to lean on. She's mighty strong!

You have always been there when I needed a girl to talk to and I always tried to return the favor. Never forget color guard, rag shop, the mall (your indecisiveness and getting your hair cut) and of course our heaven, AC MOORE!! Andy- I don't even know where to start: You were mybff for 2 and 1/2 years and we had the greatest time together. Never forget all of our memories: Dil Dil Vidil, your melodic tunes coming from your body, our long long talks, pokémon, buying presents for our uncle, and Kitty and Alf. Thank you for bringing me out of my shell and teaching me how to stick up for myself. That's means the world to me. I love you very much! Meg- You're great. We have always been Winifred and Wilma, two peas in a pod. Never forget Oklahoma and our Leo addiction. Our great times during bball season and everything that we have helped each other with. I love ya! Jenn and Steph- What can I say to the two of you? You two have helped me through many things and I thank you. Jenn I have known you for 13 years and it has been an interesting ride but in the end it worked out for the best. Steph- you are a great friend and have helped me through many tough spots that I have gone through. "The little black bag hates me!" I love both of you Jamie and Loren- You 2 are great and fun to be around. We have all gone through some drama with each other but in the end it all worked out with us on top!! I love you 2 very much and sorry for all mean things every said that came in-between us! Non-Seniors- You guys are all great and have helped make my senior year and other years of high school so very memorable. Thank you all for everything and I love each and everyone of you!!

Laura- You've been my best friend for 14 years/what can I say that I haven't told you already. We have been through thick and thin, and it has only made us stronger and closer. I definitely would not be the person I am today if you hadn't had a part in my life. "I can't remember when you weren't there. I swear, we've been through everything there is. Can't imagine anything we've missed; can't imagine anything the two of us can't do. Through the years, through all the good and bad, I know how much we've had. I've always been so glad to be with you." Dave, Farbs, Andy and Steve- You guys are unbelievable. You have brought out the best in me. Thank you. I don't think I will ever meet anybody like you guys.
