"At all of the socials the girls would dance on one side and the boys would play basketball on the other. We would dance in big circles and the slow dances would always be a big deal. Everyone was worried about who would dance with who - it was all really dramatic." - Angie Diggs

Still frames in your mind

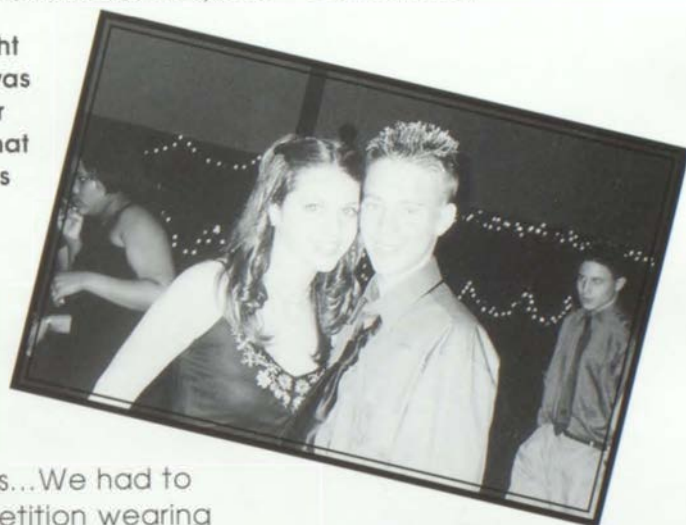

"The middle school plays were great because I loved learning the dance combinations and making new friends with my castmates."
- Jessica Hwang

"I remember there was a bird show at Stokes State Forest and everyone fell asleep because we were so tired...When we looked at the stars in the middle of the woods it was exciting because you could see every star." - Heather Capurso
"The woods were so dark that when we bit into a certain kind of Lifesaver, we could see the sparks!" - Brian Canavan

The semi was the best night of my life. I remember it was the first time I had my hair professionally done, so that was exciting. My emotions were built up before the dance and I was so nervous. The gym was nicely decorated but the food wasn't that great. It was a good time overall, though." - Allison Meade

"We always won everything at Music in the Parks...We had to get up so early for the bus and go to the competition wearing those ugly outfits - the red bowties and white shirts. It was always a fun time at Six Flags, though." - Gina Ferrara

Can't imagine all the pain I feel.
 Give anything to hear half your breath.
 I know you're still living your life, after death.
 Every step I take, every move I make,
 Every single day, every time I pray
 I'll be missing you.
 Thinking of the day, when you went away.
 What a life to take what a bond to break
 I'll be missing you.
 It's kinda hard with you not around.
 Know you're in heaven smiling down.
 Watchin us while we pray for you,
 Every day we pray for you,
 Until the day when we meet again
 In my heart is where I'll keep you friend.
 Memories give me the strength I need to proceed,
 The strength I need to believe...

The Spotlight Players performed three fantastic productions this year--a drama in the fall, a student produced musical in the fall, and the spring musical. Moon Over Buffalo is the story of a traveling troupe of actors who are working to preserve the theater in the face of the onset of television. The Fantasticks tells of two young lovers and a wall built between them by their sneaky parents. Footloose is a classic 80's musical that tells the story of Ren McCormack (Matthew Wojtal) and his quest to shake up the quiet town of Bomont by holding a high school dance. Pictured here are photos from the various productions.

WRESTLING

Its all about the attitude...

The 2005-2006 wrestling team was full of promise as the entire squad from the previous year returned. With a much tougher schedule, the Hillbillies competed at a whole new level, setting new standards for Verona. At the annual Bloomfield Tournament, five wrestlers took third in a strong effort by the Hillbillies. Then, after two Wrestlers advanced to the county finals, a total of five wrestlers placed in the District 13 Championships, including the first champion out of Verona since 2003. With five wrestlers moving on to the regions, the Hillbillies more than doubled their output of the 2004 and 2005 season combined.

Dearest Carly-

Your educational experience in Verona has truly been a wonderful voyage for us. A great student, athlete, Christian, and leader, we couldn't ask for anything more. We are SO proud of you!

People gravitate to you honey because of the person you are. You're as beautiful on the inside as you are on the outside. You define the word "Christian," Carly, you are most certainly a gift from God, and we thank Him everyday,

As you begin to embrace college life, remember the foundation you have created. Go confidently and enjoyably because these next four years will only reinforce your energy, your being. Realize how much you are loved, and know that we'll always be here for you.

Love Always, Mom and Dad

Carly - I can't believe you're graduating! It seems like yesterday that we were playing Barbies together - anyway time has passed, we've both grown up, and I couldn't ask God for a better sister. You are a beautiful young woman whom I admire. I am not only lucky to call you my sister, but also my best friend. I love you very very much and am so excited that you will soon be a Penn Stater. So here's to you! Congratulations, I am so proud.

Graduation is a celebration
A time for looking back
On lessons learned, adventures shared
And memories you want to pack.

As it must come to all today,
This phase of life's at an end.
It's a time to say goodbye to old friends,
And meet new ones around the bend.

Dan, recognize your milestones;
Commemorate your winnings.
Use them to reflect and grow,
For tomorrow's a new beginning.

We know how hard this last year's been,
With sadness and some trials;
We share the joy as you saw it through
We surely are so proud of you.

You faced your greatest challenges,
Overcoming obstacles and mistakes;
You never gave up, held your head high
And always had what it takes.

You have the capacity to warm surroundings
You can lead from darkness to light.
You brighten the hearts of those you touch
Your future is hope - filled and bright.

Your future can be all you desire
Though life gives you hurdles to face
Dream your dreams to the fullest
And we know you'll win your race.

We love you, Dan!

And we'll meet again to share our dream.*

Dearest Kristie,

We've loved you from the moment you were born (and before). What a blessing and joy it has been to watch you grow from a beautiful blonde curly haired adorable little girl; to the lovely young woman you are today.

It seems like only yesterday Poppy was picking you up for church and we were having slushies and watermelon drinks after going to the park. Yet here you are, perched on the threshold of adulthood, about to enter college and begin a new chapter in your life.

Always stay true to yourself and the values you were taught. We know you will be successful at whatever you do in life because that's the kind of person you are. You've lived with great examples of what love, hard work, and perseverance can do, your Mom and Dad.

We are so very proud of you and love you so much. God bless you always.

Xoxo Love Forever, Xoxo

To My Dear GD #1,

It seems like only yesterday that you were a tiny baby looking up at us with those big blue eyes, and now you're on your way to college and then to take on the world. Watching you grow into the intelligent, strong, beautiful young woman that you are has been one of the greatest pleasures in my life. I cannot wait to see all of the wonderful things you accomplish from here, and I know there will be many. Have fun in college, and in life ... and congratulations!! I love you so very much and could not be more proud of you than I am today. Go get 'em!! (and don't forget Ducky!!)

Oh, How They Grow!

For Tyler...

Yellow sky arising, and the starlight slowly dies
The full moon starts to fall down through the western sky/
New morning coming, a new day's gonna dawn
Well at rise with the sunshine, well at sing a different song.

Turn to greet the morning, reach out for the sun
Make your stand as best you can before your day is done
And when the time has come, and when the time is right
Break away from yesterday and walk out towards the light.

Speak right out so all can hear the words you've come to say
All your life you've listened, but that was yesterday
Try to make the difference, try to change it any other way.

Change not the beginning for you can only reach the end
Look not to the reasons, for it's you you must defend
And if you lose direction, well, keep on trying over and over again.

Yellow sky's arising, and a new day starts to dawn
I hear the wind a-changing, and sing a morning song.

-Michael Weber

Tyler - for all you have accomplished, and all you will achieve, we are so incredibly proud of you -

Mick:

Goatees will come
and goatees will go (please!)
but we'll always remember you as

Laughs out loud at Seinfeld
Screams at the Giants
Sings like a bird (a very sick one)
Steals jokes without shame
Sits with Grandma in church and
Runs just for the hell of it.

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOOD LUCK

We want to thank you for the privilege of being your parents. You always made us so very proud of you. You were well-spoken and achieved religious, charitable, academic and athletic accomplishments throughout your life. You were a good friend; your love and loyalty were endless. Your smile, your gleaming all-knowing eyes and the obvious warmth you possessed and readily showed impressed everyone. You were second to none, and no one can ever fill your space. You left us with beautiful memories and undying love. Thank you!

Even though we cannot touch you now, your spirit and love live forever in the presence of all. Enjoy the beauty and splendor of Heaven with God and His Angels, His Blessed Mother Mary, all the Saints and all of your relatives and friends that are with you in Heaven. You are always in our thoughts and prayers. We love and miss you with every inch of our beings. Every single day your presence is felt and realized. We are loving you always, forgetting you never. You are forever in our hearts.
