Another successful season for the Marching Maroon and White was highlighted by a first place finish at the All-States Championship of Group 4A in Allentown, Pa., their fourth consecutive year as Central Jersey Region Champs at TCNJ, and a second place finish in a state competition. This year's seniors were Adam Darrow (Drum Major), Allison Smartt (Assistant Drum Major), Matt Morden (Band Lieutenant), Matt Roeland (Sax Section Leader), Trisha Liggeri & Kristy Pema (Color Guard Co-Captain), Erin Dougherty (Flute Section Leader), Melissa Korte (Drum Line Section Leader), Ricky Tempesta (Percussion Coordinator), Breanna Sullivan, and Matt Autrand. This year's underclassmen leaders were Caitlin Dunleavy & Danielle Bachant (Co-Clarinet Section), Joe Burger (Low Brass Section), Ryan Smillie (Tuba/Bari Sax Section), Dan Zebrowski (Mellophone Section) and Andrew Caniglia (Trumpet Section)

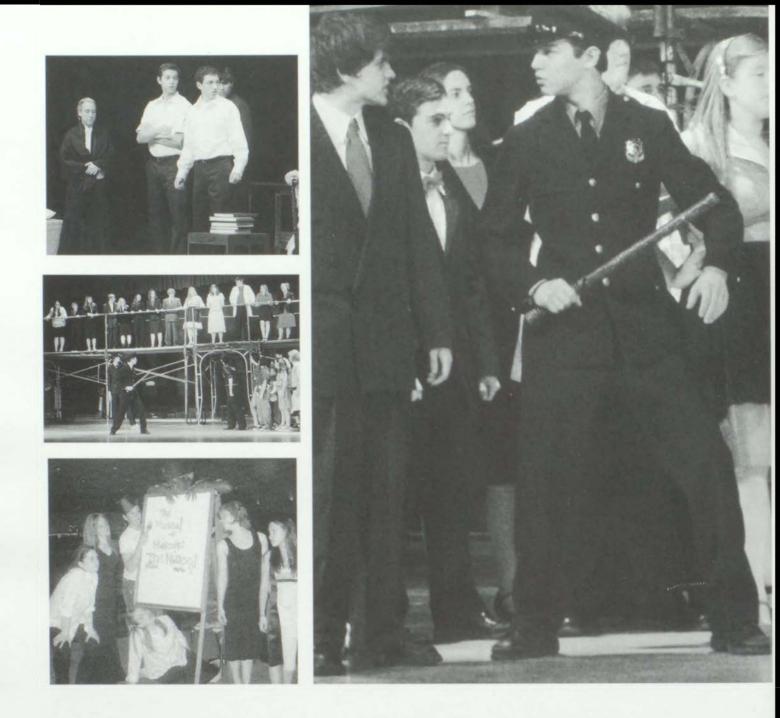

What If... ...Mr. Lynch knew how to spell "prastice"?

...Karras couldn't beat Mr. Lynch? ...Brandon came to band?

- ...we didn't Rock-moninoff!?
- ...Color Guard didn't have stomachs?
- ...band camp wasn't a monsoon?
- ...low brass wasn't awesome?
- ...Alyssa Maestas wasn't the cutest person ever?
- ...we had seats?
- ...we didn't pay Elizabeth's taxes? ...we knew what our cheers meant?
- ...Elliot wasn't a one man band?

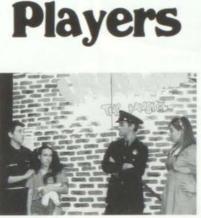

Another successful year for the Spotlight Players featured three major productions along with their annual trip to Bucks County, and performances at the Creative Arts Festival. Their performance of The Crucible in the fall was enjoyed especially by all the juniors who read it as part of the English III curriculum, The student-produced musical in the fall this year was Musical of Musicals. And the major spring production was of the unusually named but very well received Urinetown.

To the Class of 2007,

On the day you took those first tentative steps into kindergarten, you had the whole world before you. You were ready to learn, make friends, and have fun. High school seemed light years away.

Thirteen years later, you stand on the edge of adulthood. And, as you gather together one last time, you again have the whole world before you. Whether you are continuing on in academics or the performing arts, joining the military, or going straight into the business world, we hope you enjoy and reap the benefits of every new lesson, new friendship, and each new experience.

We are very proud of you, and thrilled to have been a part of your educational experience in Verona. We wish you much success, joy and laughter in the coming years.

Sher,

Congratulations! I can't believe you're graduating high school. It seems like not so long ago you were a freshman and I was so excited to be going to school with you. Playing volleyball with you was so much fun, but watching you run these past four years has been wonderful and I am so very proud of you. You have grown up so much. I still remember going to see you at the hospital when you first came into this world and I am so happy that we have grown so close over the years. I will miss you terribly next year and don't ever hesitate to call me when you need advice or just someone to talk to. I wish you nothing but the best wherever you decide to go. If you choose to run you'll do amazing things, but if you choose not to, you'll still do amazing things. Just focus on making yourself happy. I love you Sher!

When you were born in 1989, somebody gave you a shirt that said "Class of 2007". 2007 felt like it was a lifetime away but it seems like it happened overnight. From preschool, to your first day of kindergarten, through elementary, middle and high school, from the school plays, the concerts, games and even the 6:00AM hockey practices, we wish we could do it all over again but you have a new life to live. As you prepare to enter the Class of 2011, allow us to tell you what you mean to our family. You know how much we love you and how proud we are to call you our son, brother and grandson. You have grown into a wonderful young man who is intelligent, loving, funny, compassionate and loyal. We all thank God for you, especially your smile, your laugh and your love. As you continue your journey through life, remember to work hard, believe in yourself and treat others as you would like to be treated. We know you can "weather any storm" and be a success. May all of your hopes, wishes and dreams come true just as ours did when we were blessed with you. Remember, we will always be here if you need us. Joseph,

I remember your first day of school when you ran in with such excitement. It was me that did not want to let go.

I remember baseball, football, basketball, throwing the javelin, and all the practices and games. The music lessons and concerts.

I remember fractures, broken bones, stitches, and way too many emergency room visits.

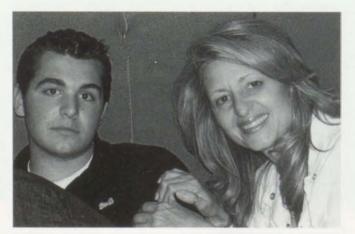

I remember the trips to Florida, the shore, the arcade, sand castles, your first surfboard, and planting that crazy spirally tree in front of the house.

I remember when things were not always the way we planned but still we knew that we would always have each other.

I remember your enthusiasm when you started your first business, your terrific grades, your scholastic trip to Washington, and your drive to be successful.

I remember that it is time to let go again, but wanted to thank you for all the love and wonderful memories that we have shared. I am so proud of you and wanted you to know that I will always be here for the wonderful memories yet to come.

Love, Mommu

Life

Life is an island in the ocean of solitude, where rocks are hopes, trees dreams, flowers solitude, and streams aspirations.

Your life is an island separate from all the other islands. However many vessels touch your shore, however many fleets sail to your ports, you will always be a separate island, suffering pangs of solitude and aspiring to happiness.

My sister, life of the spirit goes by in solitude, and without this solitude and the feeling of separateness you would be in no way what you are and what you will become.

Life without rebellion is like the seasons without spring, and rebellion without rights is like spring in a barren desert.

Life, rebellion, and rights are trinity which can neither be changed nor separated.

Life is like the changer of night; the faster it gallops the sooner in will come to dawn.*

Allison,

Graduation continues your Life's journey...separateness and solitude does not mean being alone but a requisite for independence and freedom. We are proud of who you are and look forward to the person, the individual, the Life...that continues to unfold before us.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Granma and Granpa

If a man is honest with others and with himself...

If he receives gratefully and gives quietly... If he is gentle enough to feel and strong enough to show his feelings... If he is slow to see the faults in others but quick to discover their goodness...

- If he is cheerful in difficult times and modest in success...
- If he does his best to be true to his beliefs... Then he is truly an admirable man.

Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go.

So make the best of this test, and don't ask why. It's not a question, but a lesson learned in time, It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right. I hope you had the time of your life. -Green Day
