You know you went to Laning when... Ms. Love yelled "10-4" at you, you remember Dayo, you would spend days trying to figure out Mr. Albano's brain teasers, your school was the only one floor elementary school, Colleen was attacked by a dog during recess, the tire swing was off limits.

Success:
To laugh often and much;
to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, to know even one life has breathed easier
because you have lived.

These past four years have been crazy! Our class has been through everything imaginable. It's been so weird watching everyone change and grow. I've known all these kids for years, some better than others, and I wish there was enough time to get to know everybody. I can't wait to see who everybody has become at our 10 year reunion.

I arrived in Verona as a stranger but was quickly received as one of the group. I'll never forget the Class of 2009 and the band, who have become part of my family. This has been the best year of my life and it kills me to say goodbye.

What if...

- We didn't crash the bus into that car...
- Band football didn't result in dislocated shoulders...
- We had cheers at the competitions...
- The low brass section listened to Alyssa...
- Anyone could resist yelling 'Isaac!'
- 'One more time' wasn't Swahili for 'fifty more times'...
- Lynch didn't slide tackle unsuspecting students...
- We didn't have to be bribed with Fuddruckers...
- The only people over 6ft in the drumline weren't freshmen...
- Liz didn't live in the band cage...
- Mike Theobald wasn't 'The Golden Child'...
- The saxophone section could rap battle...
- We played at the football games this year...
- The Color Guard didn't have dinner rolls...
- Our seniors were intimidating...
- We didn't have band camp's first pool party...
- We didn't open the concert at Rutgers...
- We didn't get the highest score in VHS HISTORY?!...

Welcoming in Ms. Dana Sarno as the new faculty drama advisor, The Spotlight Players performed three amazing shows this year. Two student-directed productions including The House On Pooh Corner, which is a heartwarming tale of Winnie the Pooh and the adventures of the forest, and The Great American Trailer Park Musical, a funny parody on so called "trailer trash" folks in southern Florida. The final production of the year was the annual spring musical, Smile, a tale of a beauty pageant gone wrong. Here are the pictures of their extremely successful year.

Ryan,

Seems like it was yesterday when you were that happy, laughing, beautiful baby looking up at me with those big blue eyes. You have now turned into a wonderful, intelligent and caring young man -- beautiful inside and out. I know Poppy is so proud of you as we all are... I love you very much and am always here for you. Best of luck in wherever your path leads you, and remember -- enjoy the journey! You are destined for success...Look out world, here comes Ryan!!!

Dear Ryan,

From the time you were a little guy, you've always been Grandma's sweetheart. With your kind of heart and loving ways, you truly are a "gentle giant". I love you so much.

The World is not an easy place to go out into, especially at this time. I know though that with your courage, brains and tenacity you can accomplish anything. If you are willing to buckle down and put your nose to the grindstone for the next few years in particular, it will render benefits to you for the rest of your life. God Bless you always with good health, happiness, love and success.

Love always,
Grandma

PS- I know Poppy is looking down on you with love and pride also.

"New Horizons"

Well I've had dreams enough for one
And I've got love enough for three
I have my hopes to comfort me
I got my new horizons out to sea

But I'm never going to lose your precious gift
It will always be that way
Cos I know I'm going to find my own peace of mind
Someday...

Where is this place that we have found
Nobody knows where we are bound
I long to hear, I need to see
Cos I've shed tears too many for me

But I'm never going to lose your precious gift
It will always be that way
Cos I know I'm going to find my own peace of mind
Someday...

On the wind soaring free
Spread your wings
I'm beginning to see
Out of mind far from view
Beyond the reach of a nightmare come true

On the day you took those first tentative steps into kindergarten, you had the whole world before you. You were ready to learn, make friends, and have fun. High school seemed light years away.

Thirteen years later, you stand on the edge of adulthood. And, as you gather together one last time, you again have the whole world before you. Whether you are continuing on in academics or performing arts, joining the military, or going straight into the business world, we hope you enjoy and reap the benefits of every new lesson, new friendship, and each new experience.

We are very proud of you, and thrilled to have been part of your educational experience in Verona. We wish you much success, joy and laughter in the coming years.

From the day you were born, we knew how special you were. You light up a room with your beautiful smile and contagious laugh and yet you can be so intensely serious and focused at the same time. We are so proud of the tremendous young woman you've become, always striving for excellence in your own, quiet "Tori" way. As you begin this new journey, we pray that the love and compassion you show towards others will follow you wherever you go. Continue to work hard and dream big, but most of all continue to be you! Words can never express the love we feel for you and how proud we are to have you as our daughter.

All our love forever, Mom and Dad

To my little sister and best friend,

I love you so much. You have been there for me through thick and thin. We made it a long way from when I first wanted to put you in the refrigerator to now, when you leave my side I cry and can't wait to see you again! You are my rock and my heart. Good luck next year. Give 'em hell.

Love you-forever and always, Ali

Tori,

You love me in a way that makes me feel special. I hope you know I love you the same way. You will always have a place in my heart. I'll miss you.
