We make 13 lucky!

During deep thought, Steve Rust has premonitions about things yet to come.

Events that happen in Amir Sigari's dreams tend to happen later in real life.

Olivia Peña (above) keeps a horse's tail on her keychain for good luck, as opposed to a rabbit's tail.

Louie Mancini (diagonal) knocks on wood for luck.

Before a big test Nate Stephens and Alison DeGennaro (right) high five each other for good luck

Pamela Jablonski feels she should always exit through the same door she enters.

Unlucky Rob Bushi breaks a mirror.

Tyler "TK" Kirkwood poses with his lucky necklace

John Motley and Morgan Plessner know that Stephanie Sona will have bad luck for walking under that ladder.

At track and field competitions, Gabi Mercurio always taps her toes on the ground before a pole-vault for good luck.

True Hillbilly fan Courtney Paganelli knows enough not to cross paths with a black cat.

The night before a big snowstorm, Elena Pelse places spoons in her freezer, hoping for a snow day.

Verona Music

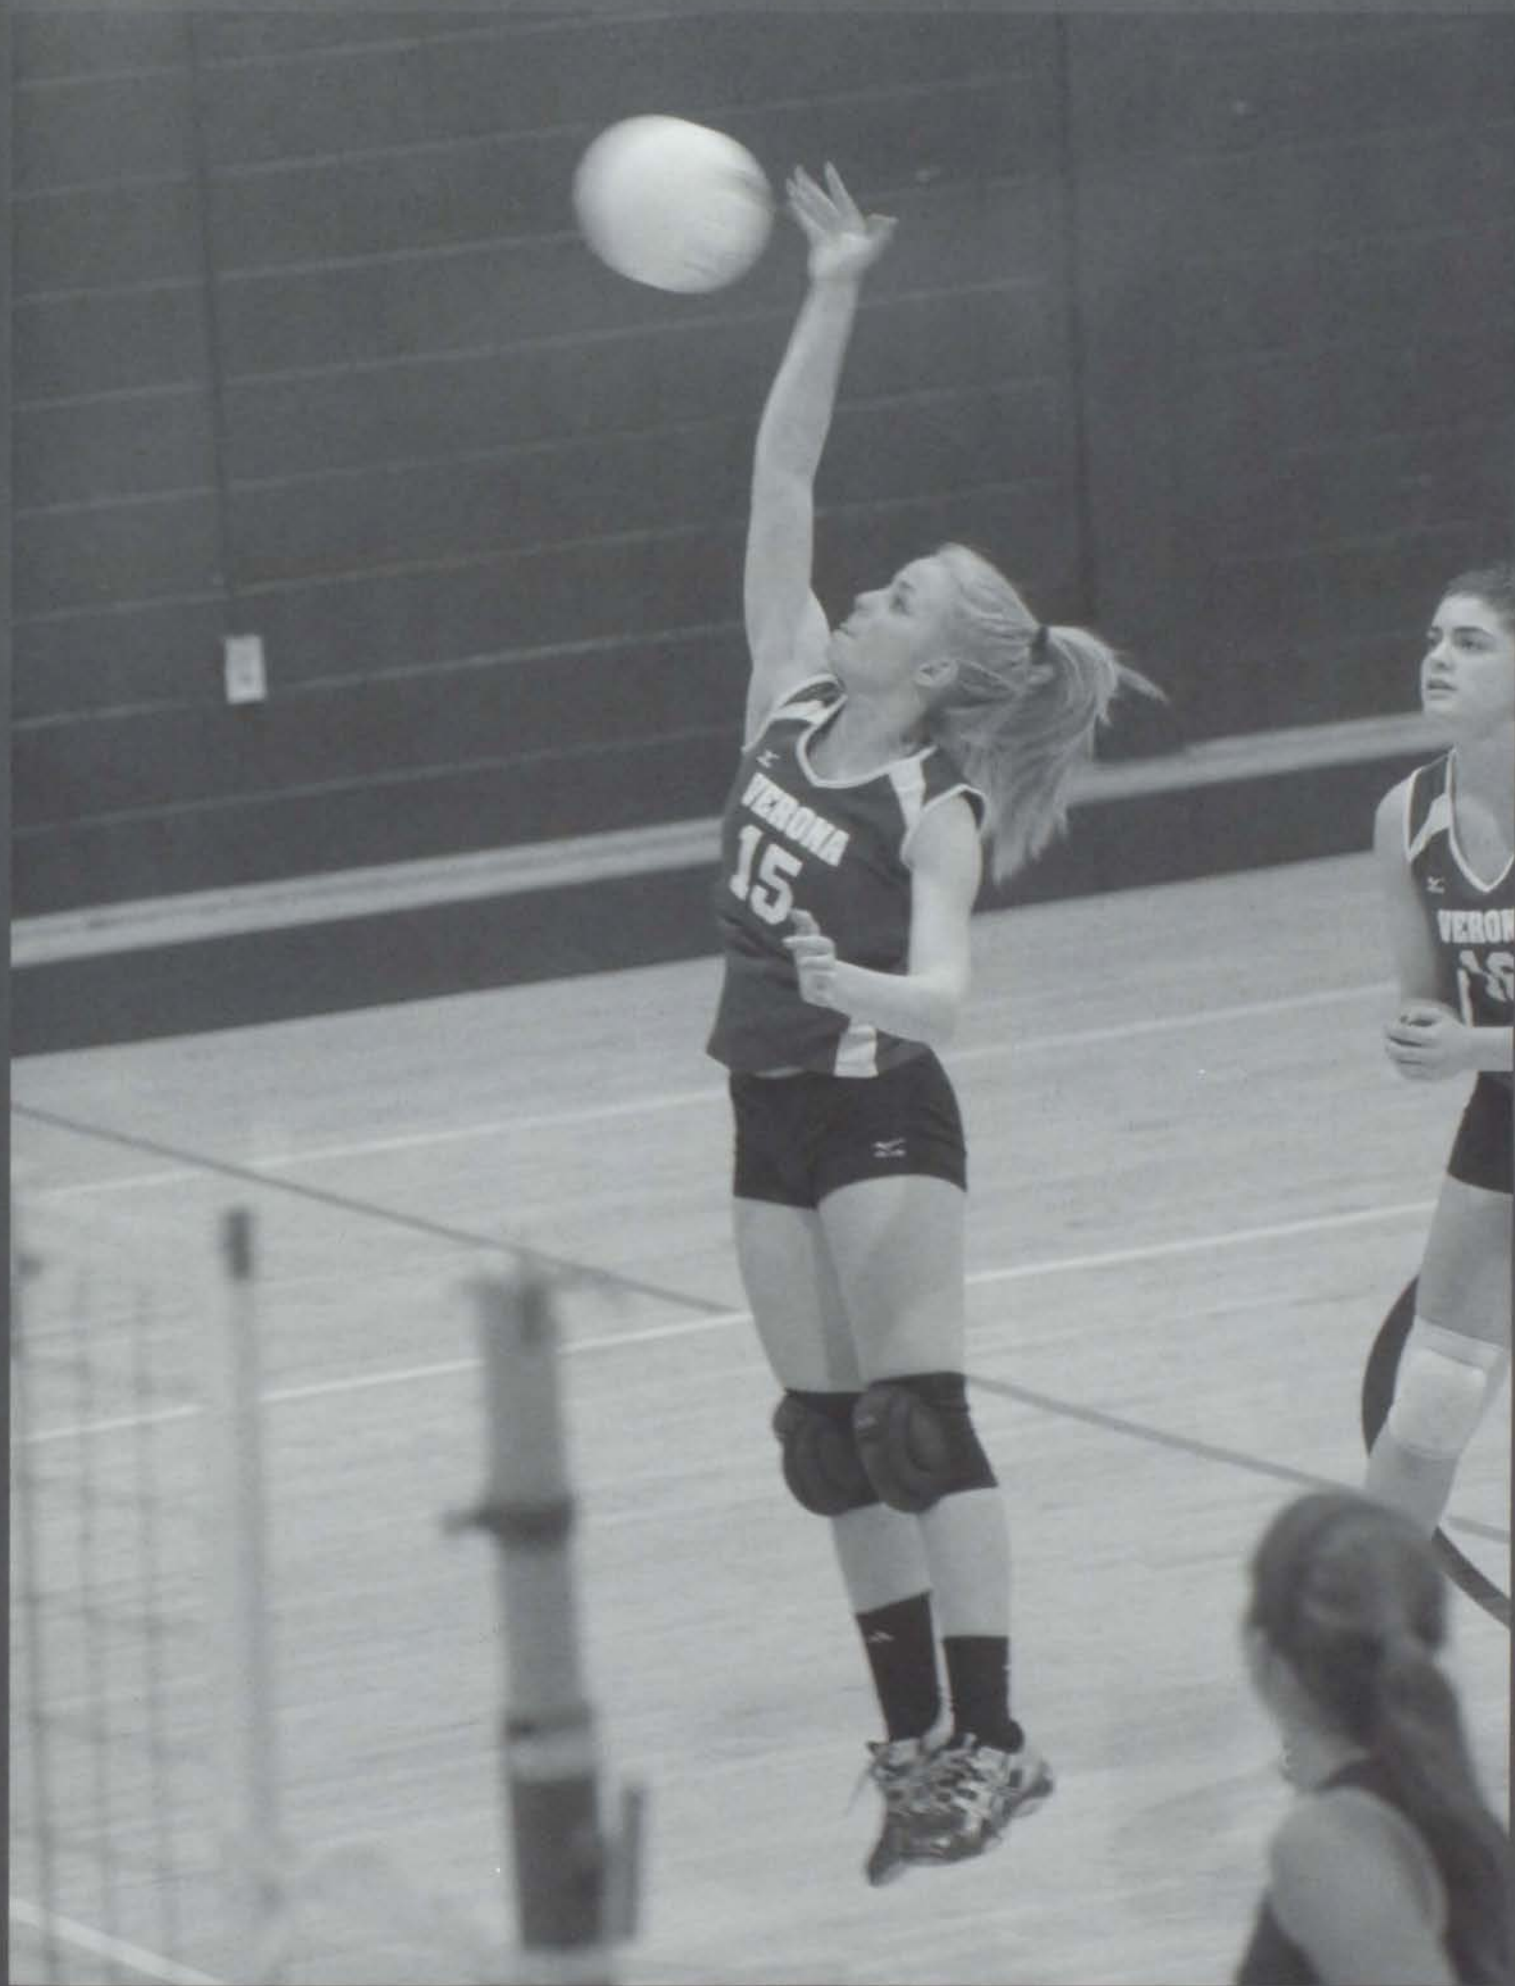

The VHS music department continued a tradition of excellence while embracing the future in the 2012-2013 school year. The Marching Maroon put the timeless Romeo and Juliet on the field while capturing third place at State Championships and winning the award for Best Percussion. The holiday and spring concerts featured every performing ensemble in the school with some students crossing over into different groups. The Verona Concert Band made history by playing at the iconic Carnegie Hall in March, drawing a standing ovation from the large crowd. The Verona Jazz and Beyond and Concert Choir dazzled the audience at Epcot while the Marching Maroon and White marched down Main Street in the Magic Kingdom while in Orlando. Verona Jazz and Beyond brought the house down once again at Jazz Night.

Hold on as you go, as you roll down this unfamiliar road.
Settle down, it'll all be clear.
Don't pay no mind to the demons that fill you with fear.
Your troubles they might drag you down,
If you get lost you can always be found.
Just know you're not alone, you're gonna make this place your home.

The future belongs to you, hold on to your dreams!
Love, Mom, Dad & Lou.

Congratulations Kelsey Maureen and the Class of 2013!

"We are on a roll, and there ain't no stopping us now."

Jack Johnson

Kelsey, we are so proud of you and who you have become. We love you so much that we thought we would express it through lyrics that seem to speak of you.... There's no combination of words to put on the back of a postcard, no song I could sing.... A brand new baby was born yesterday, just in time.... May God bless and keep you always, may your wishes always come true, may you always do for others, and let others do for you, may you build a ladder to the stars and climb on every rung, may you stay forever young.... Beauty queen of only eighteen.... And all along the good Lord knew what the world would be like without a girl like you, your love's the kind of beautiful that will never be surpassed, now I know why He saved the best for last.... I'll swim the ocean for you, the ocean for you whoa Kelsey....and she will be loved, she will be loved!!

We love you!

Mom, Dad, Keara, Kyle, Kathleen and Kailey

Kel, it's almost time for your next endeavor.
We always knew that your mind was clever and your soccer skills are even better.
We've seen you grow in many ways
even if we have had short stays and always cherished with you were our days
soon you'll depart
but not from our hearts
for your new adventure is about to start
You always overcome even the toughest day
So a good luck we need not say

Love and kisses, Kris & Kev
