Dedication

An individual faces many challenges. As students, we have been taught to overcome the obstacles encountered in an academic life. Following graduation, whether we further our education, take part in the business world, or defend our country in the Armed Forces, we will have to face many new challenges. It is necessary for us to understand and accept the challenges and find a place for ourselves in the ever growing society of the future.

Academic and extra-curricular activities have provided a never ending stream of challenges. In every academic activity from English to Driver's Education, we have been constantly confronted with challenges. They might have been to get a term paper into the form desired, trying to remember the steps in starting a car, or completing a science lab. No matter what, we have been challenged to overcome every one of them. Sports have not only challenged the body, but the mind as well. Every participant in a sport has known exhaustion and the anxiety of putting all his strength into a contest. Taking part in a club or organization has taught us how to work cooperatively with others. All such challenges have their value.

School has been an essential part of our growth. We have not only learned academic subjects or how to play a game correctly, we have learned that whatever obstacles we face, we must acknowledge, understand, and overcome them. We therefore dedicate this book to the challenges we have acknowledged as well as those still to come.

Dr. Edward F. Donahue
Superintendent of Schools

Dear Class of 1967,

The task of a public educational system in any community is to make itself unnecessary each year to a large group of students. We do this by working to prepare you for higher education, productive employment, or the armed services and contributing citizenship.

If you feel a slight wrench at leaving Waldwick High School, realize that we, too, like parents, are saddened to see you leave. We feel this way because we shall miss you in many different ways and for many different reasons!

Another reason for this feeling is that we are slightly deflated because you no longer need our guidance. However, we shall have another class coming along, and you will proceed on to greater achievements.

Your class has amassed a record of many achievements for which you can be proud. Those of you who wish - and who prepared well for it - have been accepted to some of the finest colleges, nursing, technical and business schools in the country. Others have received offers of good positions in business and industry and a few graduates will serve their country in military service. As you begin these next tasks, remember to give more than you hope to receive, treat your associates better than you would hope to be treated, and accept in yourself nothing less than your best. Then your success and happiness will be assured. We wish you boundless measures of both of these.

Edward F. Donahue
Superintendent of Schools

The challenge of tomorrow is not the task you find before you, but the unaccomplished left behind.

FEATURES

Color Guard And

The Color Guard, under the direction of Mr. Di Petrillo, assisted by captain Kathy Kuklinski, has worked diligently this year to produce colorful half-time shows.

Along with the Band and the Banner Guard, it has emerged as a recognized activity. The Color and Banner Guards serve in presenting and guarding our country's and our school's flags before the public at football games.

Under the fine direction of Mrs. Stoyell, this year's Majorette Squad did a grand job exhibiting the popular steps of twirling. They gave an added dimension to all football games and halftime shows.

Assisting Mrs. Stoyall is captain, Barbara Cook. Barbara, a present sophomore, is a champion twirler and has received many awards for her excellent talent.

Four whistles and a drum cadence signaled the start of the half-time show and another successful year for the marching band. This year the band, under the direction of Mr. DiPetrillo and Drum Major Pete Dreyer, expanded in sound and style. The crowds at the football games were treated to tunes such as "Combat," "Black Magic," "Across the Field," and the school's victory song "The Victors." Fine maneuvers and formations proved that the band is really marching on.

Mrs. Miller directing the chorus.

Junior and Senior High Choruses, directed by Mrs. Miller and accompanied on the piano by Karol Koehler, seek to give students a sense of personal achievement while at the same time giving them a chance to serve their school in a way of which they may be justly proud.

The members of both choruses are truly talented, and show this talent in a way which provides opportunities for self-expression.

Challenge

Yearbook Advisor, Mr. Heidloff; Editor, Denise Tracy; Assistant Editor, Janie Sievert; Business Mgr., Bob Di Ferdinando.

The Challenge – Waldwick's second yearbook, is the first volume under that name. It was prepared by the Class of '67 not only for itself, but also for the school. It has broken ground for the future, establishing new precedents and conquering new situations, setting down foundation for future yearbook staffs to build on.

In establishing this foundation, the CHALLENGE has, quite appropriately, challenged the following staffs to continue the growth it has exhibited. The yearbook staffs, guided by Editor Denise Tracy, Assistant Editor Janie Sievert, and advised by Mr. Heidloff, had its share of situations – indecisions, delays, missed deadlines – but the way it handled these situations is what had made the 1967 CHALLENGE something of value, something of which to be proud.

1967 Sports Queen

1967 Sports Queen Jan Petzold

Each year the Waldwick High School Athletic Boosters Association selects a Sports Queen and Court. This year's Queen, Jan Petzold, was chosen on the night of October 16, when 20 girls competed for the title.

Five finalists were selected on the basis of poise, appearance, and the way in which each girl handled a particular question she was asked.

Jan, her first runner-up Debbie Joyce, and second runner-up Betty Wescott, were officially crowned at the half-time show during the Thanksgiving Day Game. The lovely Coronation Ceremony marked the beginning of a wonderful year's reign at all the Athletic events of Waldwick School.

Congratulations Kathleen!

Members of the class of 1967 who displayed characteristics of scholarship, citizenship, leadership, and service were inducted into the National Honor Society in April and December of 1966. The ceremonies were impressively presented before the members of the class.

The society members were of service to the school by tutoring students.

Under the direction of Mr. Brush, the Honor Society will continue to flourish and excel at Waldwick High School.

A lecture on service.

Key Club International

The Waldwick High School Chapter of Key Club International, chartered by the Kiwanis Club of Ridgewood, and supervised by Mr. Surak, is a working part of the school's activities. This past year the Key Club has undertaken projects such as restoring the bell of the first Waldwick public school to a place in the high school courtyard and collecting canned goods for the poor.

Library Council

The Library Council is a very important group in school. Under the direction of Mrs. Kelsh, the council devotes its free time and efforts to performing many tasks which keep the library functioning. Council members keep the books in order and help the librarians by carding many items.

The boys in charge of the audio-visual aids are another facet of the council. They run projectors and instruct others in how to run them and operate them.

L. to R.: Bill Plavier, Jeff Weiss, Matthias Effratz, Greg Kuklinski.

Folk Singing Club

From "Blowin in the Wind" to "Rocky Road," the members of the folk club gather to sing folk songs of various origins. They also listen to recordings by American folk singers, trying to imitate their styles. Above all, the members of this club have a wonderful time through their enjoyment of melodious strains of the American folk song.

"Well, I still like this song."

Advanced French

Le Circle Francais is the French Club for students in their third and fourth years of French studies. The club stresses the use of the French language and study of some parts of the French culture. Some of the club's activities are singing French songs, reading letters from French pen pals, a Christmas party in the French style, and a banquet at the end of the year consisting of the actual French cuisine.

Officers:
SEATED: Mrs. Chiara, Steve Brash. STANDING:
Val Nichols, Debbie Morone, Denise Tracy.

This club is made up of the first and second year French students. Here the skills of using the French language are bettered and the culture of France is taught to the members. Activities in which the students may become better acquainted with their new field of study are the programs. This club is designed to further the students interest in the French language.

German Club

The adage, "size is of only relative importance," applies well to the Waldwick High School German Club. Being a club with few members allows the participants to gain a more proficient working use and knowledge of the Teutonic language as well as a cultural understanding of the people.

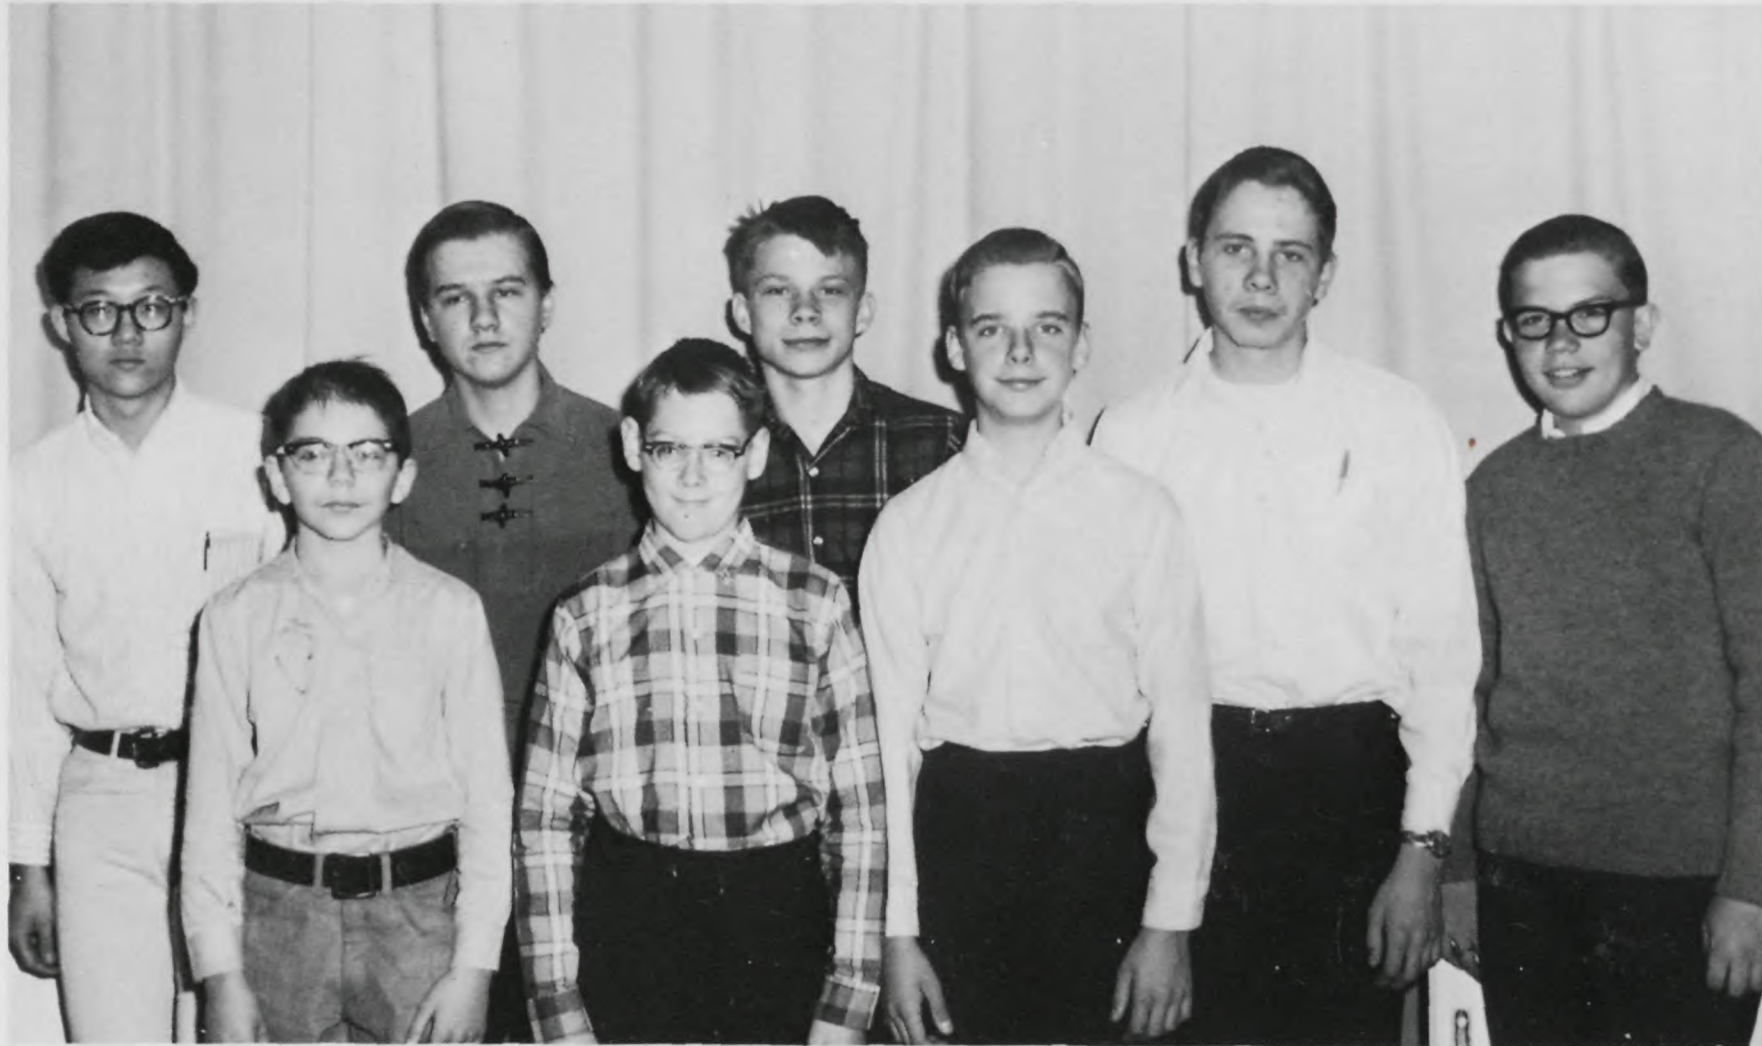

Mr. Keil demonstrates the use of radio equipment.

Physical Science Club

The Physical Science Club combines the photography and radio clubs of last year. They obtained a radio license, and now operate as station WB2YCJ. They also arranged for and equipped a dark room for photo developing.

Meteorology Club

The meteorology club supplements the earth science curriculum. Mr. Branca, the club's advisor, teaches the members meteorology fundamentals.

A request should be put in for sunny skies on graduation day.

Math Team

The Math Team is made up of a group of students who are particularly talented in the field of mathematics. The team participates in interscholastic competition.

Mr. Flegler is the advisor of this group. Their main objectives are to represent the school and improve math skills and techniques.

Future Nurses Club

Through a background of science, mathematics, and visitations to neighboring hospitals the girls of the Future Nurses Club gain more insight into the field of nursing. These girls assist Mrs. Krauss and Mrs. Vander Els in the nurses' office daily. This prepares them for their future vocation and provides insight into nursing skills.

The wheelchair, a too familiar sight in the halls, is demonstrated by Linda Johnson and Jane Wilson.

President, Allison Brown, learns techniques of ear testing.

Junior High Student Council Association

The Junior High Student Council Association is a governmental organization designed to give the students themselves a say in their activities. It is patterned after the Senior High Student Council, and often acts as one with that of the Senior High. The advisor is Mr. Knowles, and he works very hard to bring governmental procedure into the activities of the Junior High School classes. Eric Borrelli, the President of this organization, acts as a student interested in keeping the rules of the school and promoting the interests of his classmates.

President, Eric Borrelli; Advisor, Mr. Knowles; Vice-President, Janice Simmons; Secretary, Susan Lottes. Absent is Arlene Hansen, Treasurer.

THIRD ROW: Bonnie Niblette, Mary Anne Cenno, Misha Faulkenberg, Kevin Grimmedale, Bob Kleban, Milton Dana, Charlie Stapleton, Chris Cleaver, Val Wong Wah, Libby Bell, Beverly Bolding, Inger Katz.

The varied activities of the Junior Theater groups are guided by Miss Renna and Mr. Carroll. This organization provides experience for its members in all phases of the theater: In original skits, lighting, demonstrations, and instruction in technical aspects of the medium.

Junior High Art Club

The Art Club has several functions: extra experience for students who have an interest in art; experience in art production; learn techniques of display. Students in the junior high are enrolled in an art course which lasts for thirteen weeks, but as evidenced by the many members of the club, a considerable portion of the junior high students enjoy this chance to further their study in this exciting area.

The Face is Familiar . . .

This completed form of the 1967 CHALLENGE is a culmination of several months of the hard work of many people. At times, the work that had to be completed seemed impossible. The growth of the book seemed to be painfully slow, but the final outcome has justified all our work.

I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. A. Montouri, E. M. Courtney, Karl Harman, Ronnie Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kriesmer, Mrs. A. J. Wallner, Nick and Joan DelVecchio, Mr. and Mrs. Streceli, George J. Burlie, Mrs. John F. Wrocklage, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, for donating money to THE CHALLENGE as patrons, and wish to extend my regrets that their names were excluded from the list of patrons.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who supported or helped create THE CHALLENGE. My deepest thanks to Mr. Heidloff, the yearbook advisor, for enabling us all to put together this book under his guidance. Thanks should also be given to Janie Sievert, Assistant-Editor of THE CHALLENGE for an excellent job, the Delmar Photographic Studio and the Delmar Publishers for their wonderful cooperation. A commendation is also in order for the administration, faculty, and students of Waldwick High School for cooperating during the school photography sessions. I would, above all, like to thank Janie Ackerman, Phillip Allogramento, Debbie Brubaker, Chris Cottone, Bob DiFerdinando, Gary Freitag, Russ Haidinger, Debbie Joyce, Dana Kasdan, Dave Kelso, Karol Koehler, Bob Lottes, Sue Niblette, Sue Piscitello, Howard Sam, Lydia Schapter, Dominic Trifilio, and everyone else who helped in the creation of the first volume of THE CHALLENGE.
