The Warrior

Waldwick High School
 155 Wyckoff Avenue
 Waldwick, New Jersey 07463

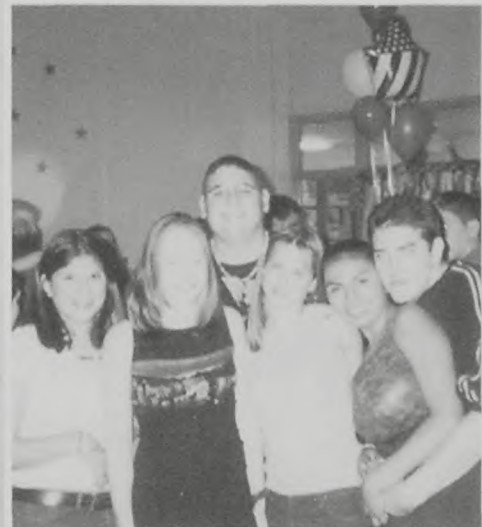

You can measure your life according to a book.

As each day passes, a new page is turned.

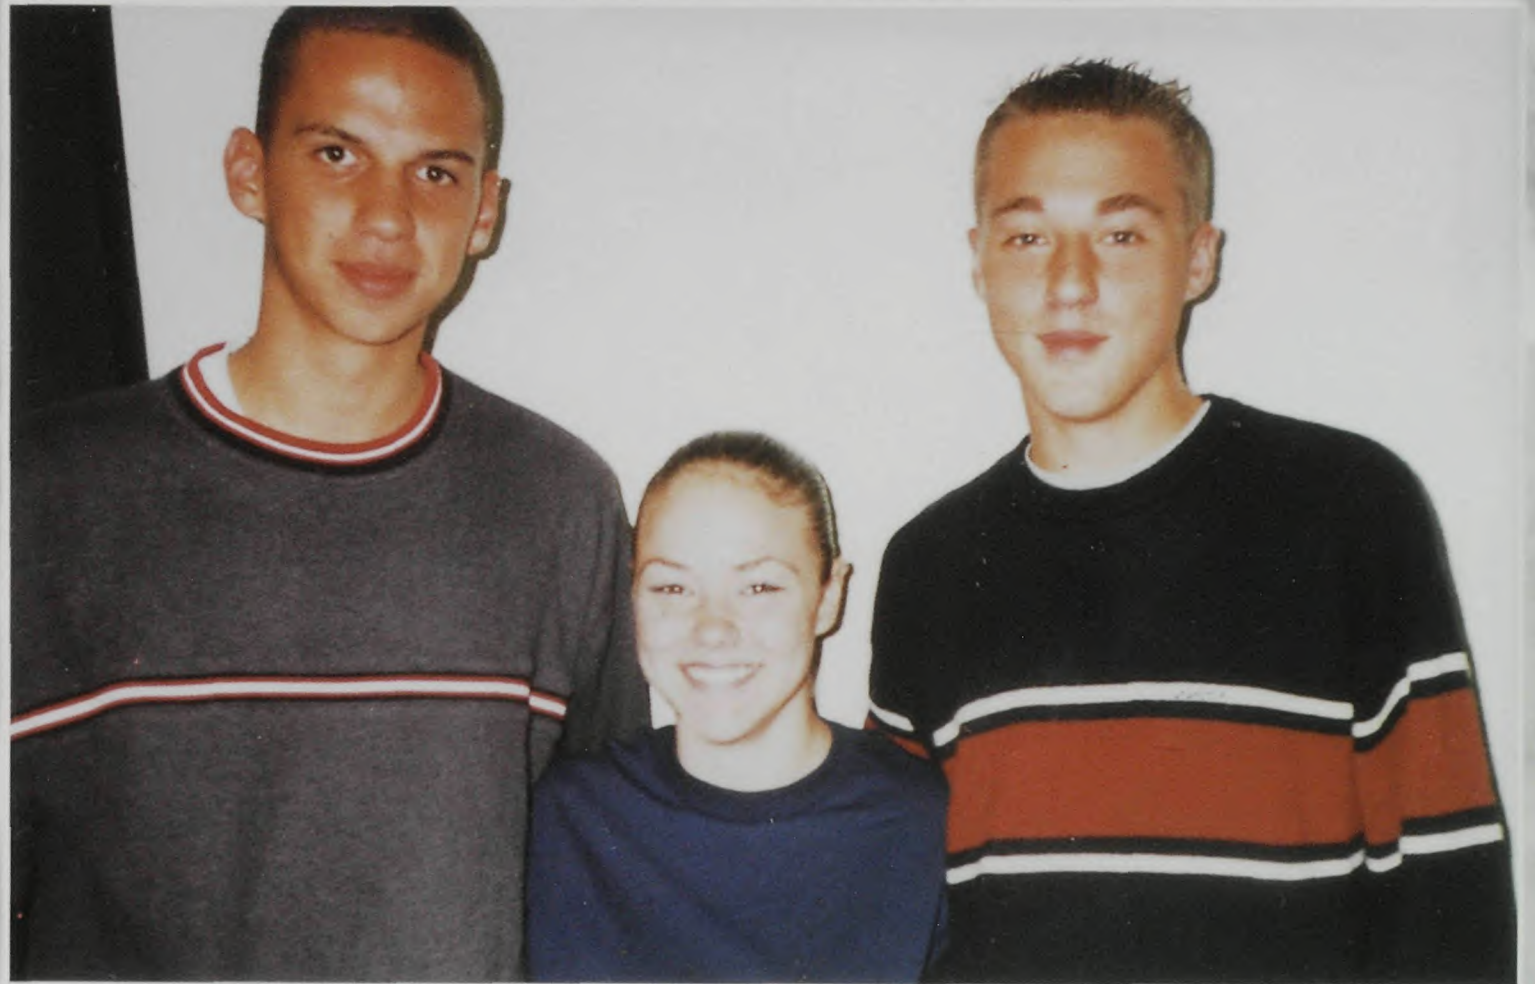

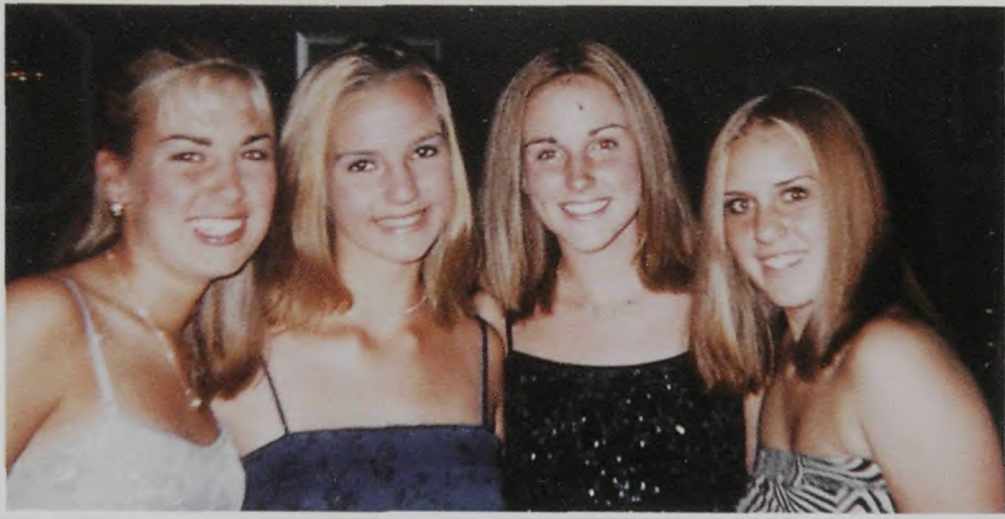

The path you decide and the road you take,

The mistakes you make and the lessons you learn,

These are the things that determine YOUR story.

Four years of high school teaches immeasurable lessons.

How to make friendships and keep them,
How to think for ourselves.

We all grow up with the help of one another and learn to unite together.

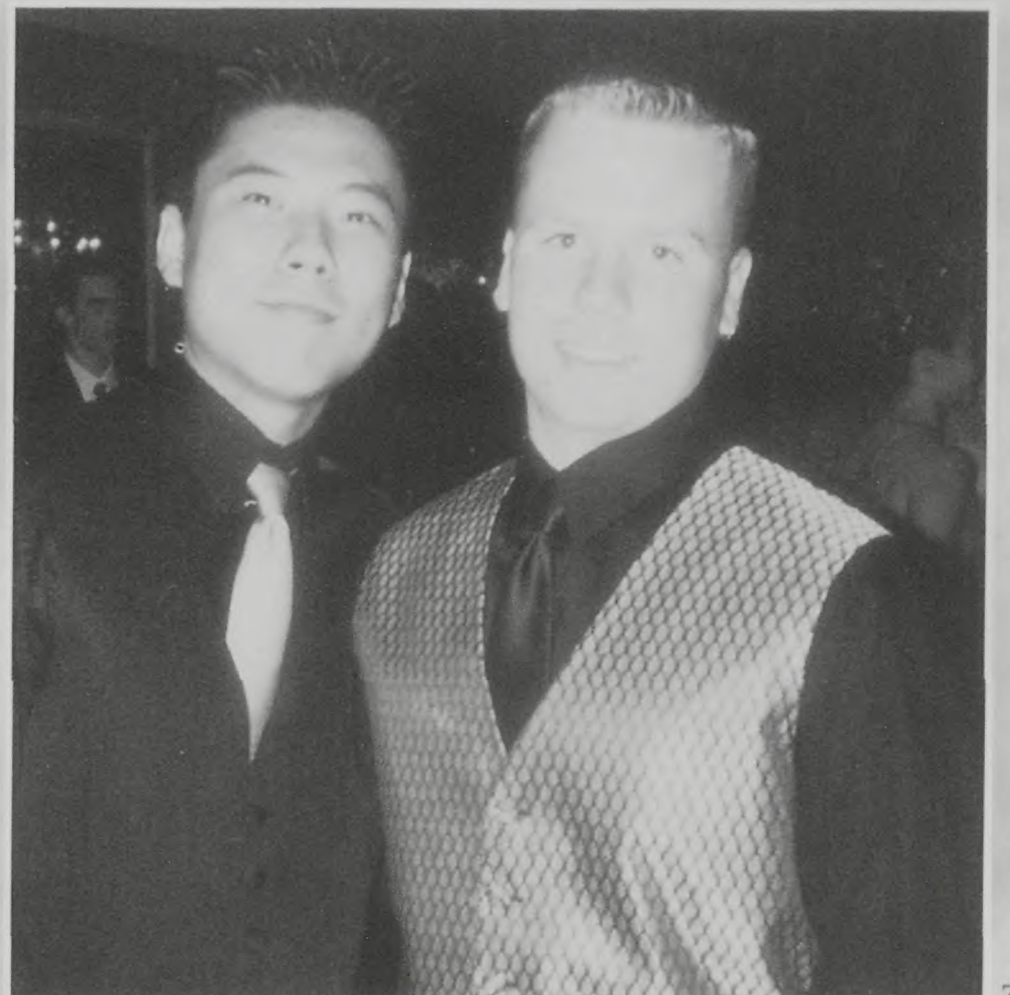

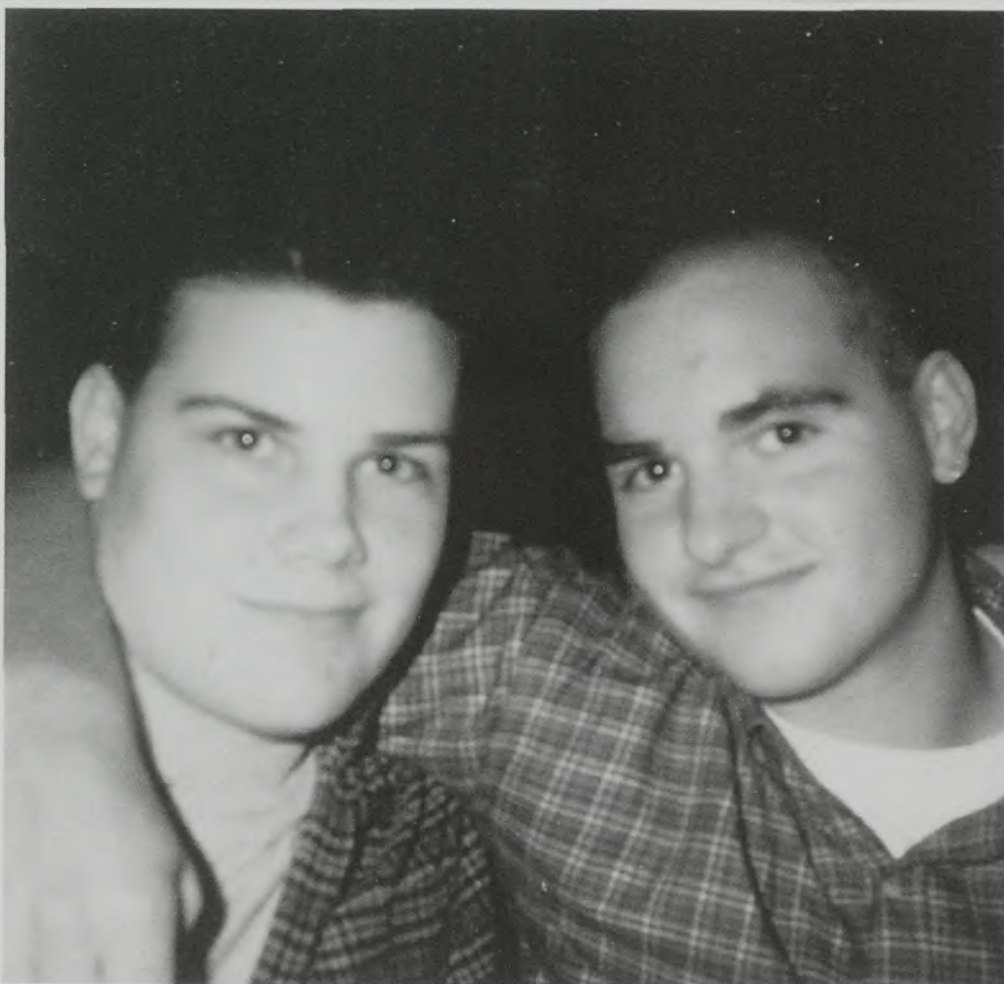

Freshman year begins with fear,

New faces, new classes, new experiences.

But, the friendly face of an upperclassman or a teacher

Erases the fear and begins the journey.

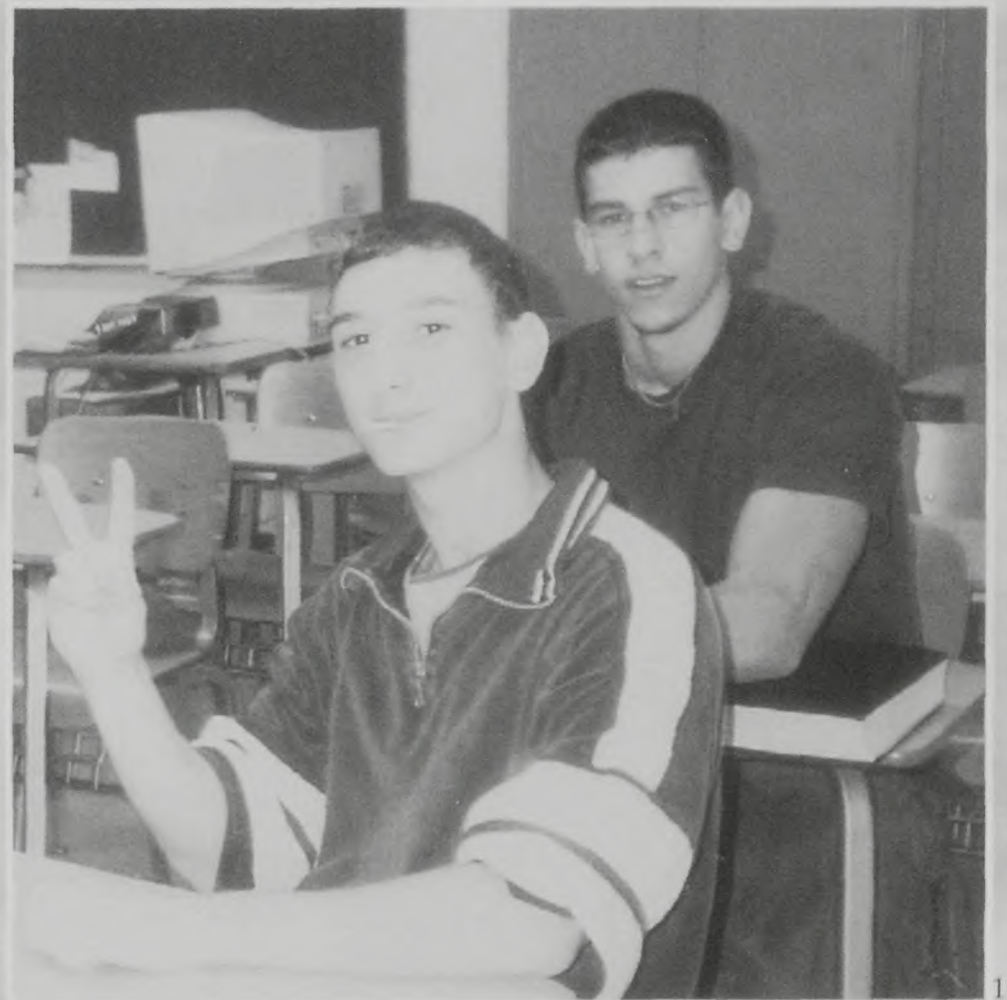

Senior year is about uncertainty and endings.

Not knowing where our paths will take us.
Saying goodbye to our best friends and
The school that has nurtured and protected us.

After four years we've solidified our bonds to one another,
So that we can leave, joined together, once and forever,

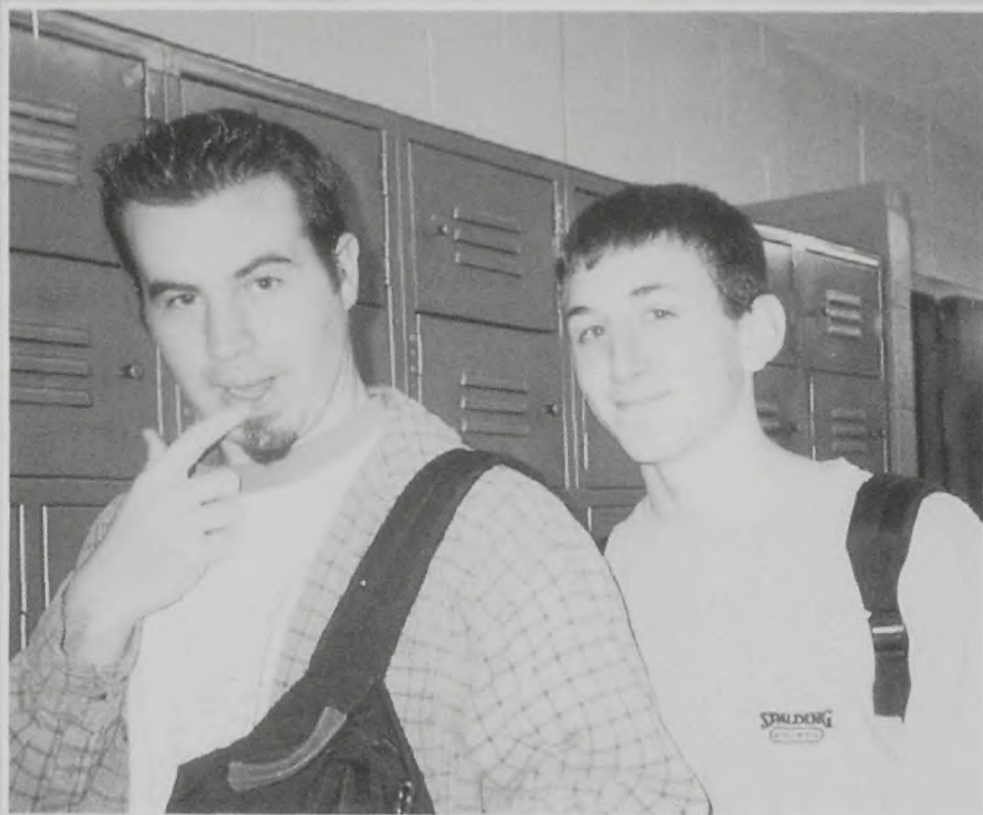

United.

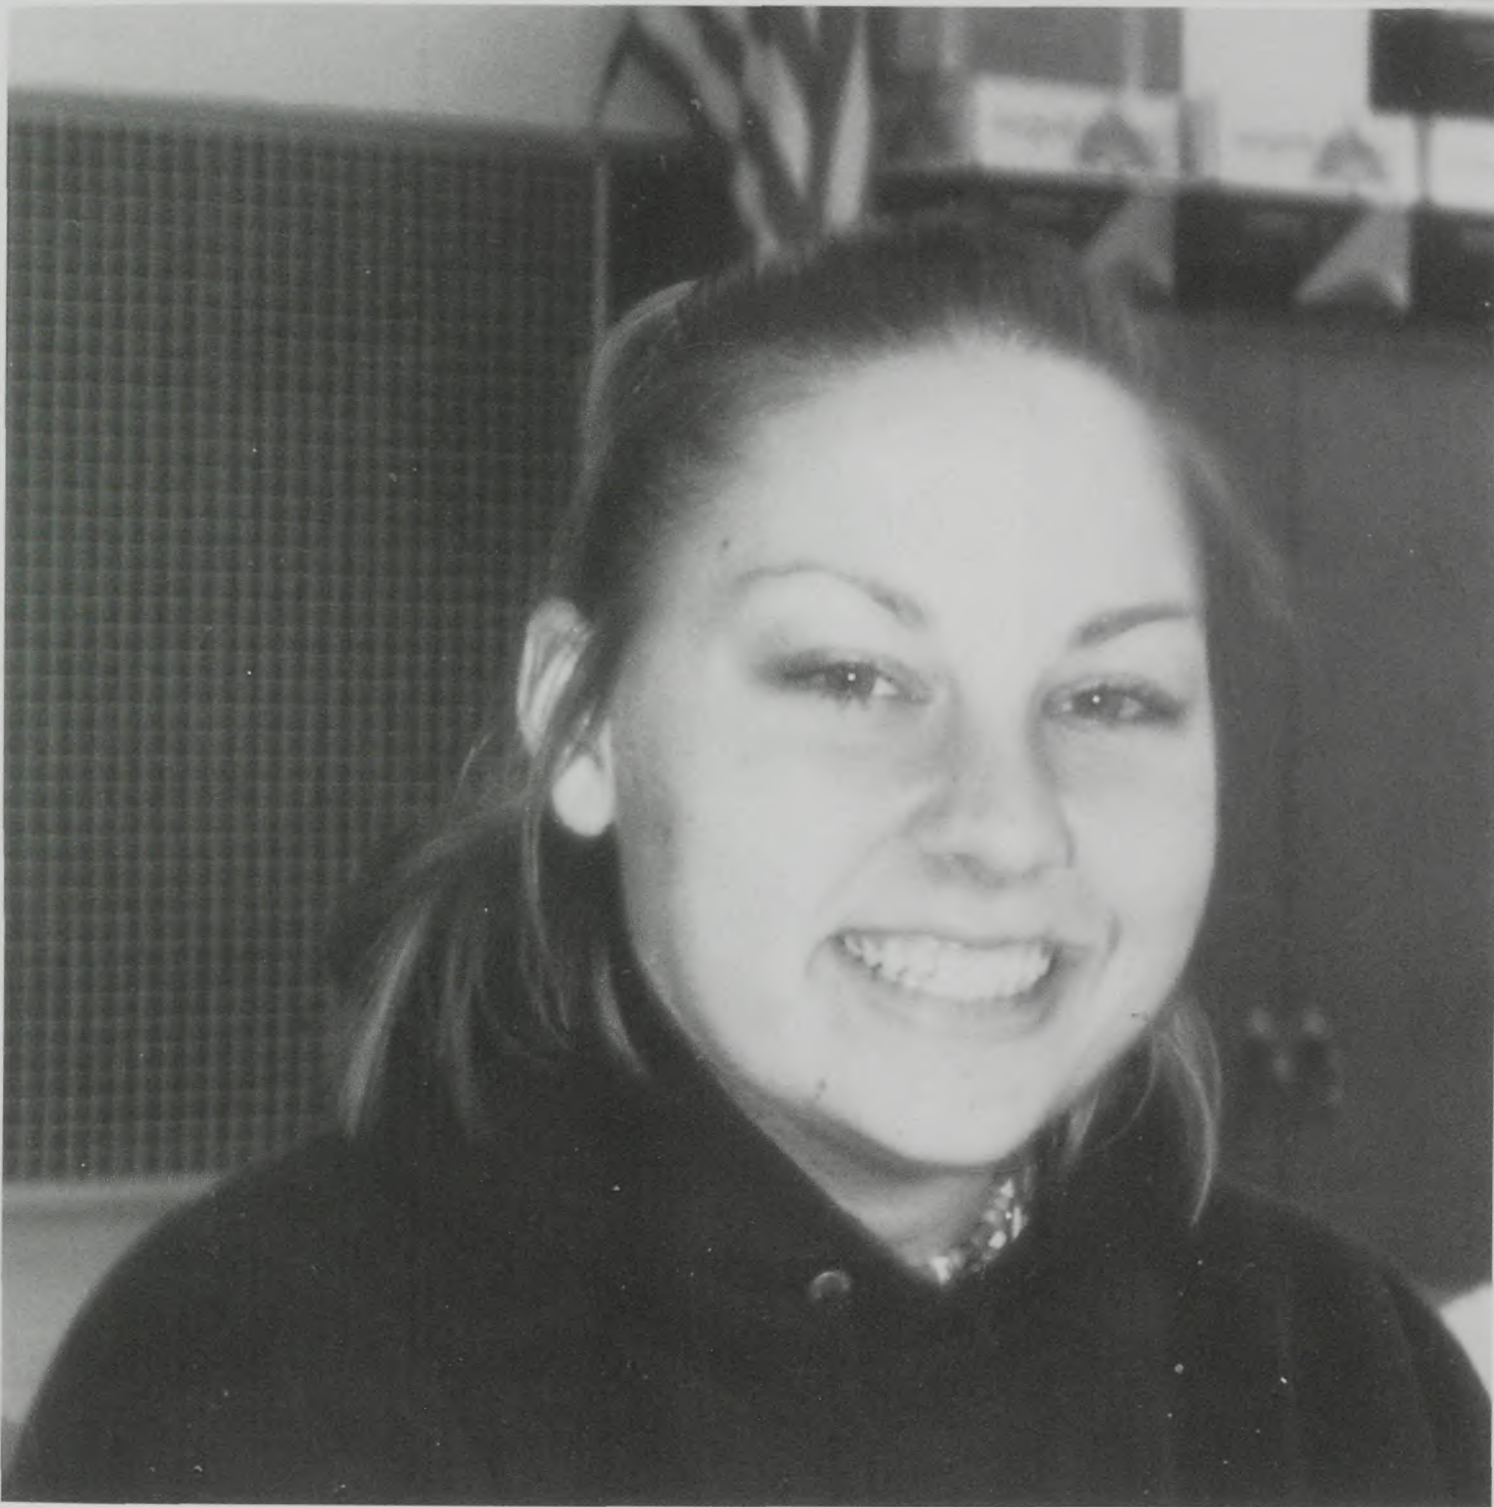

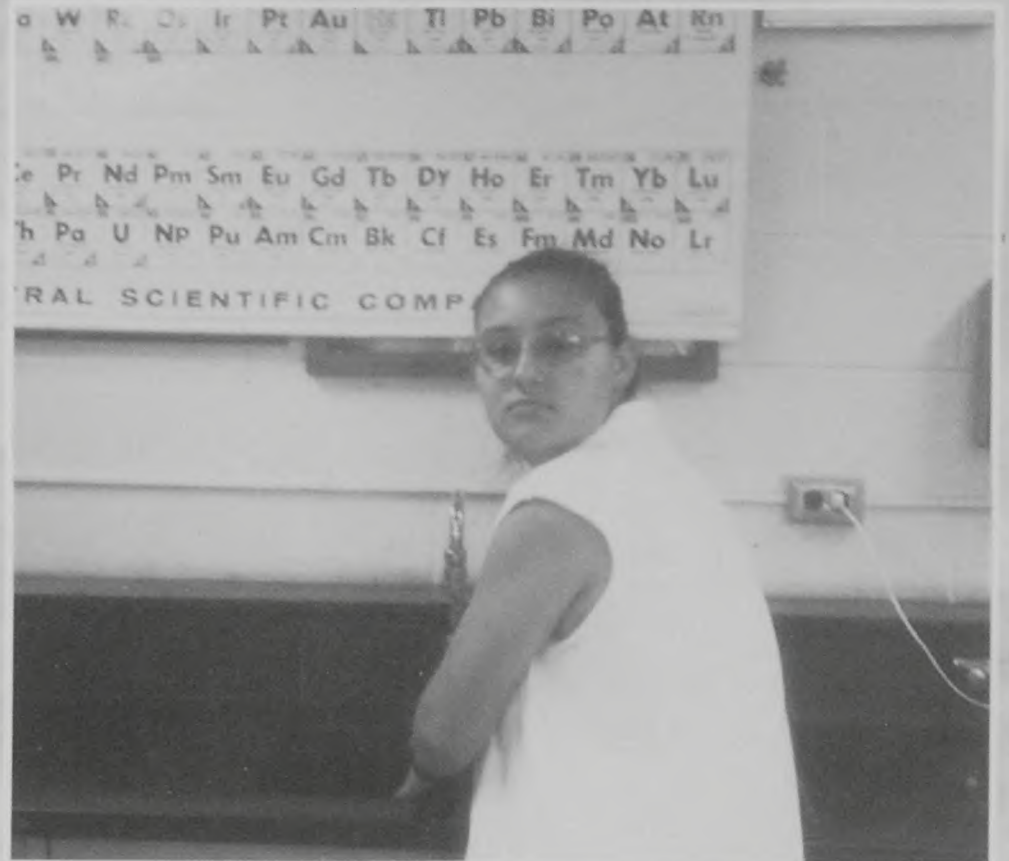

Dedication

In memory of;

Mrs. Helen Litchult

Mrs. JoAnn Chiari Krueger

As a member of the Waldwick school community for over nineteen years, Mrs. Helen Litchult spent countless hours as an advocate for the students. Her attention to detail, her artistic talents, her energy and vigor, and her willingness to go the extra mile to make each project perfect for the students and the school, will live on through the many areas she touched upon.

Mrs. JoAnn Chiari Krueger spent over twenty-five years inspiring her students as well as her fellow teachers. As a dedicated English teacher, Mrs. Krueger spent countless hours after school working with students to ensure their success. She loved drama and writing which translated to her students, encouraging them to love the arts as well.

Message to the class of 2002

It has been said many times and by many people throughout the course of history that, "We live in interesting times." This saying is most applicable to the times in which we live and for the graduating class of 2002. No one could have imagined the events that unfolded during this year. We suffered through our own personal losses with the deaths of Mrs. Litchult and Mrs. Krueger. Both of these women played invaluable roles in the lives of the students in our school. We will miss them, but what they stood for and their spirits will always be with us.

The events of September 11th shook us to our core. What we saw that day was beyond belief. How could something like this happen in America? When we recovered from our initial shock, we did what needed to be done. As always, the students and staff of Waldwick High School rallied to each other for support and comfort. We asked not what we were going to do for ourselves, but how we could help others. With the images of destruction and death still clearly before us, the high school community began the most concentrated fund raising in the history of the school. The students and staff could not do enough. By keeping busy and staying focused on the task of helping those in need, we helped ourselves to heal. Patriotism and volunteerism became the motto of this school year. The idea that we are all one family was reinforced. Out of a tragedy beyond our wildest imaginations, emerged a school, a community and country committed to building a better world, a more understanding and compassionate world.

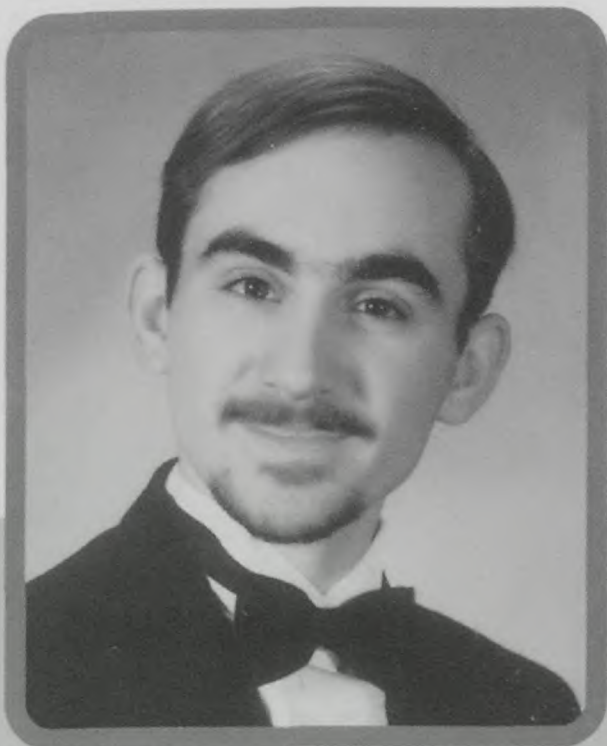

Seniors, as you leave Waldwick High School on your journey to places still unknown, you will look back on this year as a milestone in your own personal history. People will forever ask where were you and what were you doing on the morning of September 11, 2001. You can say you were part of the events of that day. You truly grew up that day. You were asked to and did face this brave new world as adults. Take what you have learned from the events of this tumultuous year and apply your new skills and knowledge to make a better world for all of us. Keep in mind the dedication and commitment to helping people that Mrs. Litchult and Mrs. Krueger demonstrated to you and apply those in your daily lives. You will be better people for it.

Class of 2002, you are entering a world very different from the world of September 10th. Be assured that you are prepared to face the challenges of this brave new world. Be prepared to give more than you take out of life. Remember life is precious. Cherish every day. Live life to the fullest, and make a difference in a positive way.

In Memory of Jonathan D. Caruso 1984-1996

"I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one, I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when day is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times; and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun, of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done."

If tears could build a stairway, and memories were a lane, we would walk right up to heaven to bring you home again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye, you were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. Our hearts still ache in sadness and secret tears still flow, what it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.

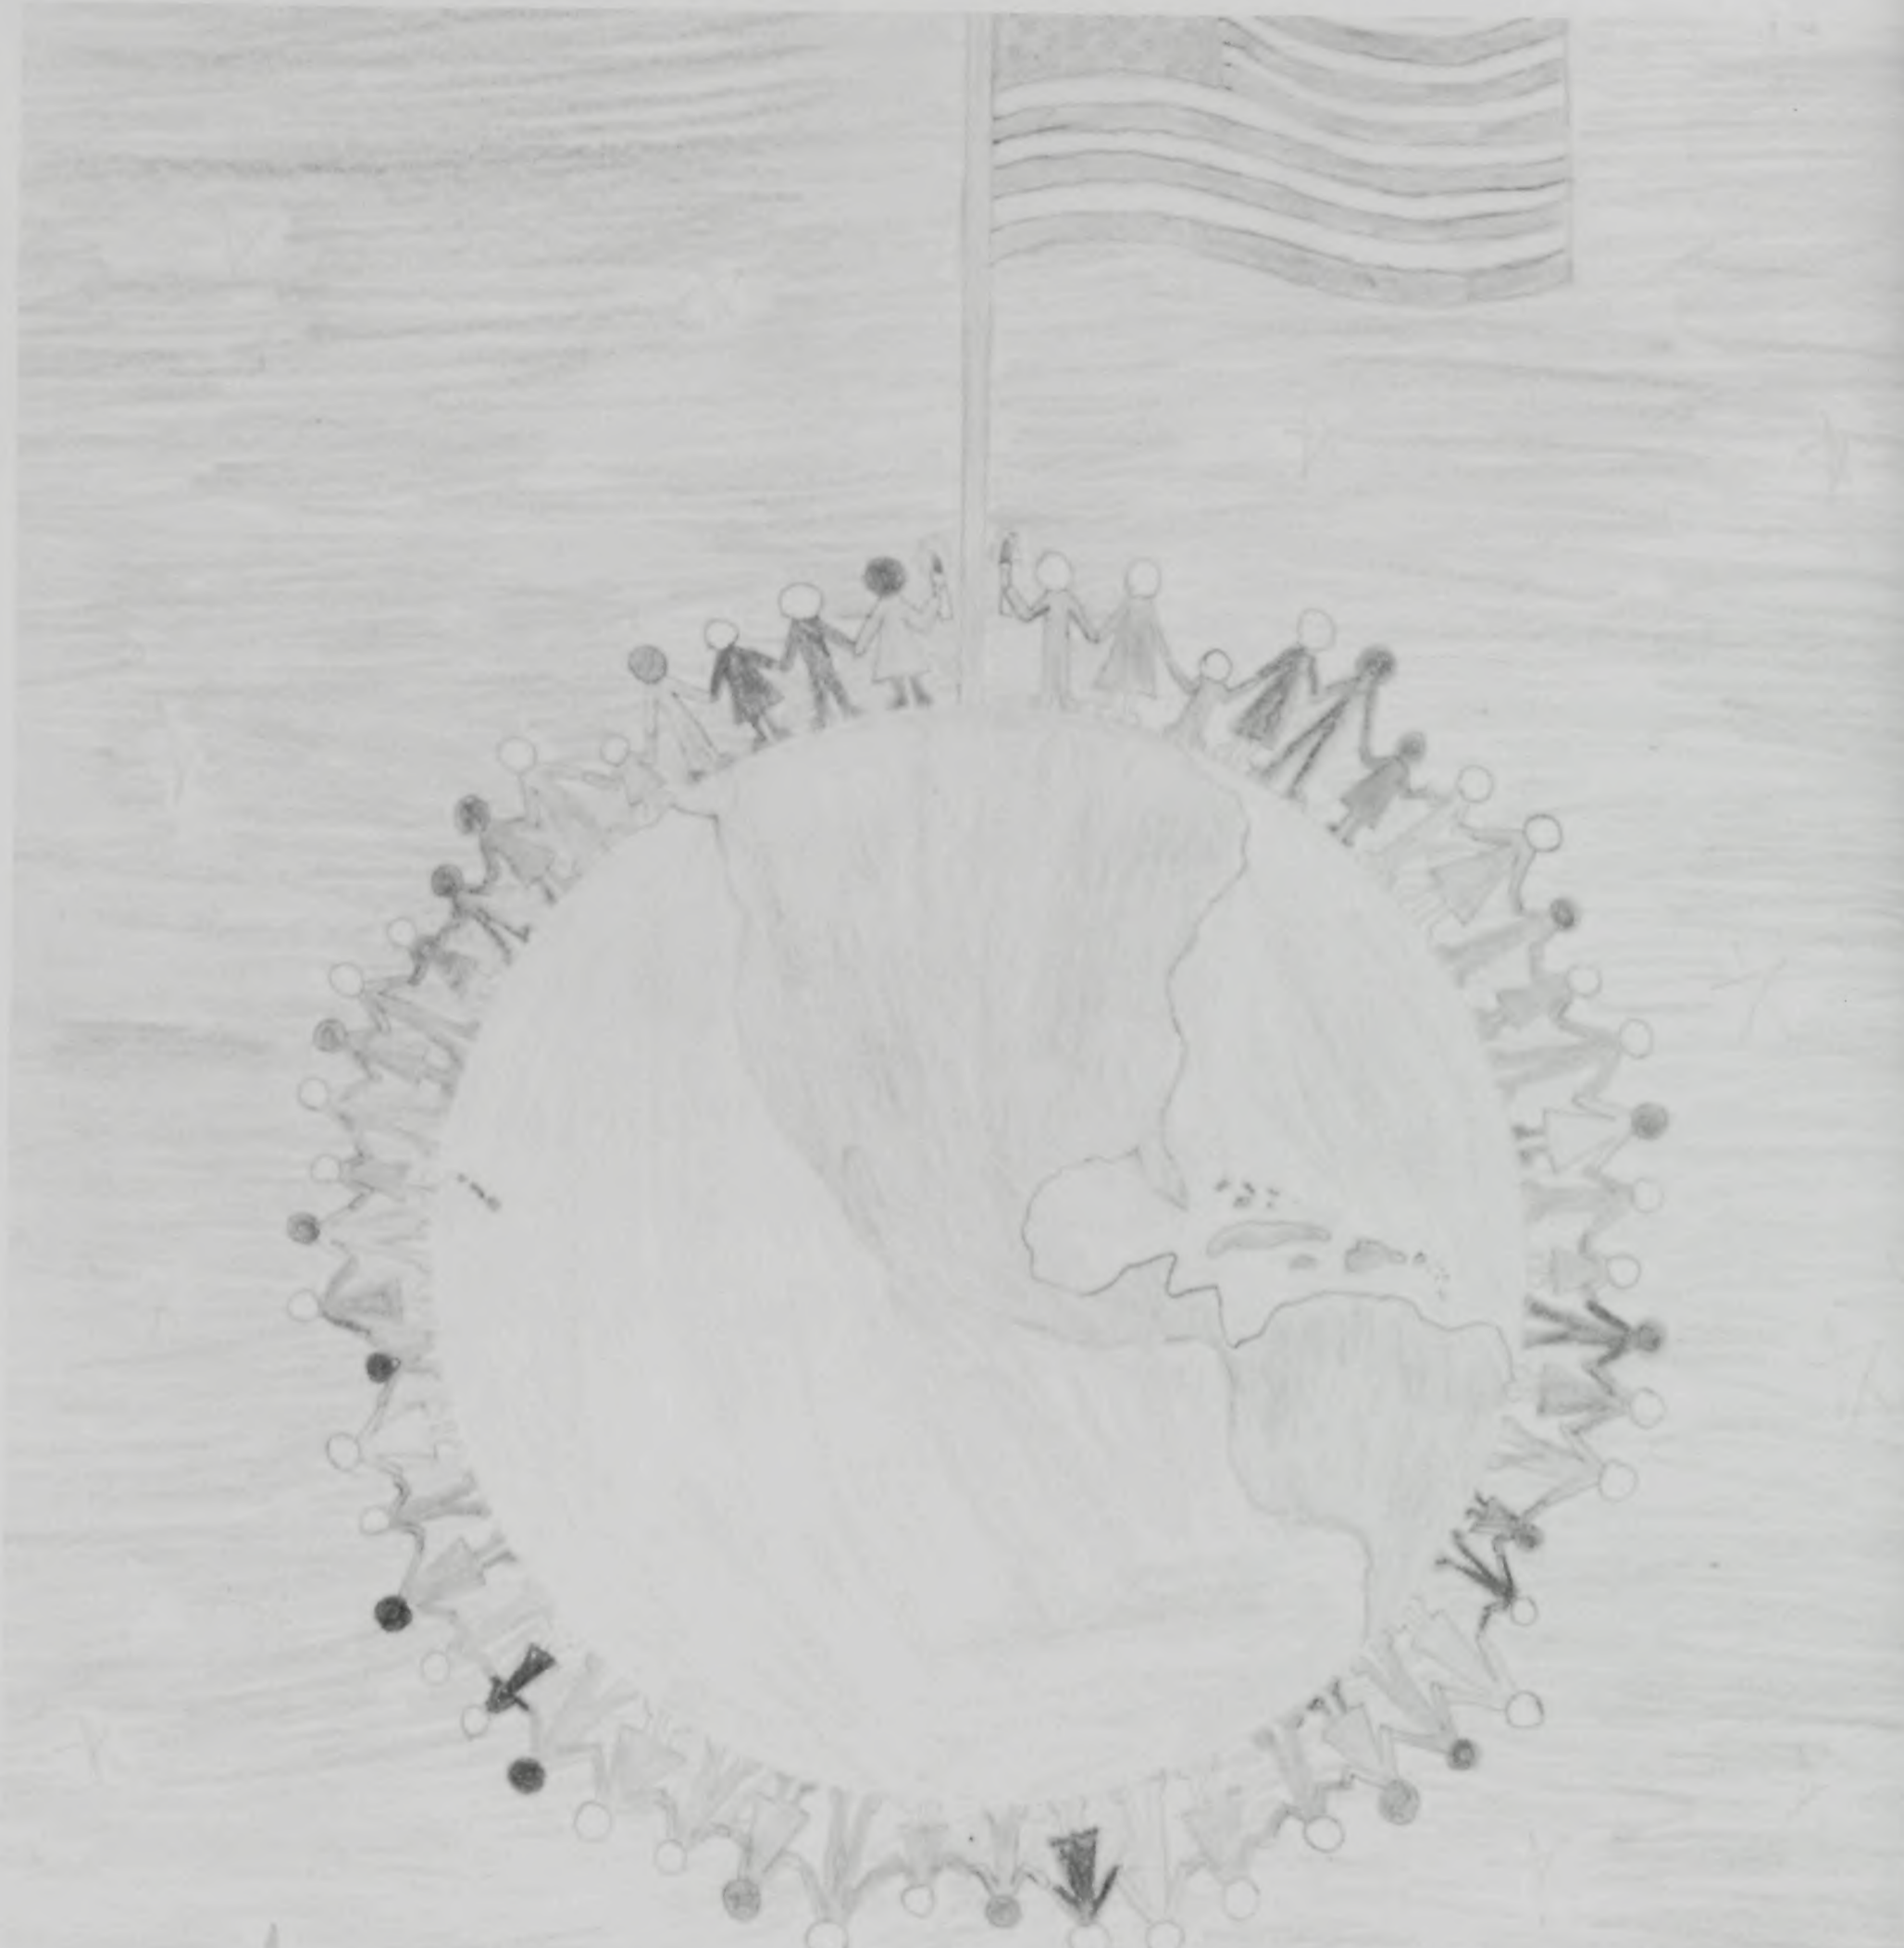

By Jamie Seifert and Mary Nielsen

"And I know you're shining down on me from heaven, like so many friends we've lost along the way, and I know eventually we'll be together...one sweet day."

MINDS EYE

Music

by Michael Mersch

Black notes on a white page

What do they mean?

To the average person

They don't mean a thing

Only when a musician

Sings or plays what they see

Do the notes flow off the page

And into the audience's mind?

The voice from the musician

Instrumentally or vocal,

Shows musicality and understanding

Of what the notes mean.

The Joy of Unselfish Giving

*Time is not measured by the years that you live
But by the deeds that you do
and the joy that you give--
And each day as it comes brings a chance to each one
To love to the fullest,
leaving nothing undone.
That would brighten the life
or lighten the load
Of some weary traveler
lost on life's road--
So what does it matter
how long we may live
If as long as we live
We unselfishly give.*

“For wisdom will enter your heart and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.”

--Proverbs 2:10

The Road goes ever on and on Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands
meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.
J.R.R. Tolkien

Congratulations!
Love, Mom, Dad, and Kaitie
