

Carl Ecklof

In a letter from Carl Ecklof who is at Physical Instructor's School at Bainbridge, Md., he says that he had a nine day leave starting the first of February. Carl is in charge of 120 boys of which he says about 75 are rebels still fighting the Civil War. He says he thinks they would like nothing better than to wash only with the change of seasons.