Subdivision Cases Approved

Lots Granted Despite Moratorium

By BRIAN FARRELL

WAYNE John Phelan, chairman of the Planning Board, said Monday night at a meeting of the board that there is expectation that the Township Council would rediscuss its moratorium on subdivisions and possibly make an adjustment.

The Council had declared a moratorium on subdivision in acute drainage areas that presented the possibility of nullifying the planners' efforts. However, the board did make a final approval on cases that had been given preliminary sanction. The board also advised other applicants not to implement any extensive investments on their properties until the moratorium issue is resolved.

In a case which was referred to conference following testimony, a thirteen-subdivision for Casey Park on the Hamburg Turnpike at Oldham Road and Ratzer Road warranted concern by residents of what was actually going to be put in the vicinity.

Some of the people at the public hearing indicated that an increase in traffic would result from the plan which would have incompatible effects on the residential area. One resident noted that the drainage in the area was also deficient.

Attorney for the applicant, Paul Cavaliere, Jr., stated that the details were not on file, but that the plan would have to correlate to industrial park uses. The board also assured the residents that it would investigate the classification of what is allowed in an industrial zone.

Flood Control Meeting

Scheduled October 11

WAYNE Candidates for state and federal office from the Passaic River Basin area will get a chance to state their flood control plans and opinions at the next meeting of the North Jersey Committee for Flood Control and Water Protection to be held on October 11.

Committee chairman Louis T. Piccoli, announced that candidates from both parties for the House of Representatives, the state Assembly and the State Senate from the four-county area have been asked to tell the group their position on water-related problems in the Basin. In letters to the candidates, the committee asks that they come prepared with their specific proposals for dealing with water supply, flood control and other related problems.

The meeting to be held in the Parsippany-Troy Municipal Building, 1001 Parsippany

Boulevard, at 8 p.m. is open to the public.

Piccoli, in a statement today, urged residents of the Basin to be ready to discuss flood problems, flood problems, pollution problems and other water-related issues that have been around for decades. We hope that it is about time that candidates are asked for specific plans to solve these problems.

"Some already have made statements of a general nature. We think the candidates' specific proposals are needed. We hope that the proposals come out in force to add weight to our requests," said Piccoli.

The North Jersey Committee, which affords a voice to communities in the Passaic River Basin, is also urging citizens to bring up problems whenever they contact any of the candidates.

PROTEST — This woman of Harrison Road in Wayne registers complaint to the driver of school bus which reportedly picks up the children for the George Washington Junior High School fifteen minutes too early. The school does not open until 8:13 a.m., and two pick ups are necessary to transport all the children in the area to the school, bringing one group of children to the facility too early.

Stern, U.S. Attorney. To Speak in Wayne

WAYNE Herbert Stern, U. S. District Attorney for the State of New Jersey will be guest speaker at a Wayne Chamber of Commerce lunch on October 28.

The announcement that he would speak in this community came yesterday following a news release by George A. Dacey, President of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce.

Stern graduated with honors from Hobart College and was awarded the Ford Foundation National Honor Scholarship to attend the University of Chicago Law School where he graduated in 1961.

From September, 1962 to November, 1965 Stern served as Assistant District Attorney for New York County. During that time he conducted the grand jury investigation in the death of Malcolm X and ordered the arrest of the three individuals later convicted of murder in the first degree.

A resident of New Jersey, he resigned from the District Attorneys offices and assumed the responsibility of Trial At-

New Jersey Symphony Orchestra Schedules 3 Concerts in Wayne

The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra will present three concerts at Fairleigh Dickinson College, Wayne, in conjunction with Wayne Arts, Inc. as part of its 1971-72 season.

The Wayne series was announced by Benson E. Snyder, general manager of the orchestra as part of a schedule presenting series in 10 different communities in northern New Jersey.

The orchestra's season will be the most ambitious ever, with about 120 performances being planned including series, single concert dates and a heavy schedule of student performances. The season will include appearances at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D. C. and at Carnegie Hall, New York.

The series schedule will consist of 35 concerts, five more than last season. Two of the series, including Bergen County and Newark, are being expanded this season and one will be introduced for the first time in South

Wayne News In Brief

BICYCLE MISHAP

The Wayne Ambulance Squad responded to a bicycle-automobile accident over the weekend as nine year old Edward Rayfield of 163 Riveredge Road, Lincoln Park, was riding his bicycle in the Boonton Road, Fayette Avenue area of Lincoln Park when he swerved into the path of an automobile driven by Cornelius Heerschap, 48, of 76 Spencer Avenue, Clifton.

The driver of the car told police that the youth was riding towards him and by the time he altered his course, the boy had run into the vehicle. The youth was upset in the mishap and taken to Chilton Hospital for examination.

TWO CAR ACCIDENT

The confluence of Furno Place and Stuart Lane in Wayne Township was the scene of a two car collision on Sunday, at approximately 1:32 p.m. Involved in the crash were six people. The automobiles were driven by Samuel Peer, 24, of 57 Sherman Avenue, Paterson and Rosemarie Bruining, 37, of 15 Stuart Lane, Wayne. Both drivers were injured in addition to 20 year old Dennis Peer of 410 Madison Avenue, Paterson; Kimberly; Cynthia and Dedrdrie Bruining; ages 2, 12 and 11 respectively, all of the Stuart Lane address. All parties were taken to Chilton Hospital in the Wayne Ambulance. Police are continuing their investigation as to the cause of the crash.

SHOP-LIFTING OFFENSES

The Wayne Township Police Department reported four cases of shop-lifting over the weekend, all taking place in the Willowbrook Mall. Arrested for taking a cassette tape from the Harmony Hut was Sylvester Sammartino, 19, of 636 Passaic Avenue, Nutley. Also taken into custody was Norma Ayers, 20, of 70 Sweetwood Drive, Cedar Grove, charged with shop-lifting two stereo tapes in Bamberger's. Also arrested in Ohrbach's Department Store for taking a leather jacket were 20 year old Gregory Williams of 212 Harrison Street, and 21 year old George Baily, of 153 Fulton Place, both of Paterson. All four prisoners were released under $250.00 bail for a future appearance in Wayne Township Municipal Court.

SUSPICIOUS AUTOMOBILE

Extremely alert Wayne Township Patrolman Anthony Grassano observed a car acting suspiciously on Indian Road in Wayne this past weekend as the patrolman was driving home from the police headquarters. Keeping the vehicle in sight, he noticed a youth leap out of the car and break a mailbox from the post in front of the home of G. Prisco, of Indian Road, then get back in the vehicle and speed off. Patrolman Grassano pursued the car through the streets of the Pines Lakes Section and with the assistance of a patrol car apprehended the vehicle on Vail Road. The offender was identified as 18 year old Ronald Habrner of 18 Stylon Road, Wayne. He was charged with Disorderly Conduct and released pending court appearance today in Wayne Municipal Court.

ELUDING WARRANTS

Wayne Township Juvenile Officers over the weekend announced the arrest of a 17 year old former Wayne youth for whom arrest warrants had been issued by the Passaic County Juvenile Court for failing to appear in said court to answer previous charges. The youth, whose name was withheld because of his age, was taken into custody after he was stopped by State Police Officers for speeding on Route 80 near the Wayne-Fairfield line.

According to police, when stopped, the youth uncovered a gun and threatened to shoot the State Trooper but was quickly disarmed by the officer. Found in the car, which was stolen, were narcotics implements and two stolen guns. The youth has been confined in the juvenile section of the Passaic County Jail pending court hearings.

Passaic County College Awarded New Grant

PASSAIC COUNTY The U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has allotted $24,527 to Passaic County Community College under the National Defense Student Loan Program.

Dr. Robert S. Zimmer, president of the college, said confirmation of the funds came from Walter J. Gale, chief of the Loans Branch, Division of Student Financial Aid, Office of Education.

Robert Fontane, director of admissions and financial aid, said the program permits maximum loans of $1,000 a year.

Applicants must establish financial need and meet two criteria: Carry at least one-half the full-time academic workload, and be capable, in the opinion of the college, of maintaining good standing.

Approval of National Defense Student Loans is the second aid program the college has received from HEW. In August the college received an award of $39,005 for the Work-Study Program, which provides funds to provide jobs for needy students.

State Program for Students Outlined by College President

WAYNE — Passaic County has paid out more than $335,000 since 1968 to cover the cost of educating county students at community colleges throughout the state, but it has had no voice in the type of programs offered, said Dr. Robert S. Zimmer, president of Passaic County Community College.

Dr. Zimmer said that as of Sept. 15 the county paid out $338,102 in chargeback fees since the program was enacted by the State Legislature in 1968. It went into effect that autumn.

Basically, he said, the program enables students from counties that don't have colleges to attend community colleges in other areas, but at the same tuition rate as resident students.

Chargeback is the receiving county's share of the cost of education per student. This varies from county to county, and there is legislation pending to assess each sending county $200 per student for capital expenditures, Dr. Zimmer reported.

The program also permits students from counties with community colleges to participate in the program if the courses of study they seek are not offered in their local college.

The chargeback figure might have been higher, Dr. Zimmer said, noting that many students may have been unaware of the program and enrolled in other county colleges — paying the higher non-resident tuition.

As of this month, Passaic County has already paid $124,888.69 in chargeback for this year, according to records at the County Treasurer's office.

Bodine Named Coordinator For Democratic Campaigns

WAYNE — John Mazzacsa, Municipal leader Wayne Democratic Organization, announced his appointment of John Bodine as Wayne Campaign Coordinator for the Democratic Party Assembly candidates John Running, Vincent "Ozzie" Pellicchia and John Sinsimer.

John received his high school education at St. Peter's Prep. in Jersey City. His college work was interrupted by a two-year European tour in the U.S. Army. He then went on to graduate from Seton Hall University with a B.S. in Business Administration.

Bodine has been active on all levels of his professional associations. He is past president of both the High School Assn. and the Clifton Teachers Assn. He was on the Executive Committee of the Passaic County Education Assn. and was a Delegate Assembly member of the New Jersey Education Assn. on the state level.

Bodine was an opponent of Thomas Elm in the Democratic primary this past June for Wayne Councilman. Having lost this election and in the spirit of good "democratic political tradition", he now endorses and supports Thomas Elm in the general election in November because "Tom is the hard working, honest man needed to carry on the service Walter Hoffmann gave to the people of the second ward."

On Warning Flashers

Porter Disputes Claims by Jasinski

WAYNE Third Ward Council candidate Gerard Porter sharply disputed incumbent Walter Jasinski's claim that he, Jasinski, was responsible for the installation of school warning flashers on Ratzer Road.

Those lights were put up directly as the result of a two-year persistent fight by Mrs. Eloise Butler, the safety chairman of the Packanack School P.T.A., Porter declared.

Mrs. Butler appealed in a letter to Mr. Jasinski last winter to do something about putting up those safety flashers and he never gave her the courtesy of a reply," the Republican candidate continued.

Mrs. Butler finally decided to go direct to the Mayor. She sent him a letter in May and it was then that work began on installation of the signals.

Mrs. Butler's unsung role after reading, "Walter J. Jasinski, an incumbent, has announced that at his request school flashing lights have been installed at schools adjacent to the dangerous and highly-traveled Ratzer Road."

"I decided to check the story," Porter said, "and discovered the facts about Mrs. Butler's determined effort. It was she, not Jasinski, who deserved the credit."

Porter likened Jasinski to "a flower that blooms but once every four years. The only time he appears is during election campaign when he visits the residents' houses and discovers, according to another press release, that we have a mosquito problem."

"In view of his recent incorrect statement on the cost of the Township Employee Insurance Plan and his misrepresentation on the school warning lights project, I believe the voters have reason to seriously doubt the credibility of Jasinski's election statement," Porter said.

"I concede that Jasinski was right in calling Ratzer Road dangerous, but he hasn't done anything about that either. During his eight years in office, he should have been putting pressure on the County Freeholders to fix the road," Porter added. "If I get on the council, I certainly will."

"Jasinski also seems to think it's all right for him to ignore our other major Third Ward traffic dangers at the narrow bridge on Packanack Lake Road and at the Packanack Shopping Center intersection. Believe me, I won't ignore them," Porter said.

"My contention that it's time for a change is more than a slogan. It's the truth," Porter declared.

Eugene Heikoff Is Named To Associated Testing Post

EUGENE HEIKOFF

WAYNE—Associated Testing Laboratories, Inc., a major testing facility and manufacturer of environmental equipment for aerospace and industry, recently announced the appointment of Eugene Heikoff to the post of vice president of the manufacturing division. The announcement was made by Albert F. Erdman, president of ATL.

Mr. Heikoff joined Associated Testing in May, 1969, as manager of the manufacturing division, a position he will maintain with his vice presidency. He was formerly plant manager of the Lee Filter Corporation in Edison, N.J., from 1960 to 1969.

New Jersey Symphony Orchestra Slates Concerts

Orange - Maplewood. Other series, will be presented in Montclair, Millburn, West Essex, Elizabeth - Union, Westfield and Summit.

The orchestra will be under the direction of Henry Lewis for the fourth season. All concerts will be directed by him.

The Wayne Series programs are as follows:

• November 7 (Family Concert): The "Dream of the Witches' Sabbath" from Symphony Fantastique by Berlioz; Mozart's Bassoon Concerto with principal bassoonist Fred Alston as soloist; Britten's Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra with troubador-folk singer Leon Bibb as soloist and a sequence of songs to be sung by Bibb. Also, Humperdinck's Overture to "Hansel and Gretel".

• January 23: Two pieces by De Falla, the Three Corners Hat Suite and the Spanish Dance from "La Vida Breve"; Villa Lobos' "Little Train of the Caipira" and Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5; Mozart's Concerto for Flute and Harp with Mary Morisseau, principal flutist, and Beth Schwartz, as soloists. Also Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf".

• February 12: Pinchas Zukerman, soloist in Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto; Barber, School for Scandal Overture; Mahler, Symphony No. 1.

Soloists on this season's schedule represent the finest array of talent ever to appear with the orchestra. They include: Marilyn Horne, a Metropolitan Opera star and one of the world's great singers, who has sung many times before with the orchestra; Miss Patricia Brooks, one of the leading sopranos of the New York City Opera Company; pianist Alicia de Larrocha, a virtuoso from Spain; Philippe Entremont, a French pianist well known to American audiences; and Lynn Harrell, the former principal cellist with the Cleveland Orchestra whose budding solo career has attracted popular and critical acclaim.

Other soloists to appear with the orchestra will be: Vladimir Ashkenazy, virtuoso Russian pianist; pianist Garick Ohlsson, first American to win the International Chopin Competition; Pinchas Zukerman, young Israeli violinist; and Berl Senofsky, one of this nation's major violin talents.

In addition to the series concerts, Snyder announced that the orchestra would play two concerts for St. Peter's College's Centennial observance in Jersey City on January 22 and April 19 and two at Rider College in Trenton on December 4 and April 22. A single concert on November 8 at Rutgers University in New Brunswick was announced earlier this month.

Single concert dates are also scheduled during the season for the Women's Club of Orange and in Princeton University's series at McCarter Theatre. Both are set for January. Another single concert is scheduled next April for the State Museum in Trenton.

Tickets are available for the concerts, either singly or by subscription, by writing the New Jersey Symphony offices at 1020 Broad Street, Newark, or by telephoning the office at 624-8203.

Wayne Schools Speakers' Bureau Offers Services to Local Groups

Program chairmen for Wayne clubs and organizations were invited today to take advantage of free programs for their meetings sponsored by the Wayne Board of Education. David H. O'Grady, Wayne School Superintendent, said the Wayne Schools Speakers' Bureau has a variety of programs available and will be happy to supply them on request.

"Our repertoire covers a good range of topics," O'Grady noted, "presented by experienced lecturers or by a panel of teachers and students. Some programs consider the problems that are bothering so many of us today, such as parent-child relationships, and other programs are in a more light-hearted vein."

A show to be introduced this year is entitled "Reliving American History — How a Wayne Schools club learns history by reliving it." Through slides and other media the program will illustrate the activities of an unusual student group and will incidentally tell the audience a good deal about colonial times in Wayne and the township's historical sites. The speaker will be Walter Krawiec, social studies teacher at George Washington Junior High School.

A popular program available again this year, "What Happened to Arithmetic?" explains new mathematical concepts and teaching materials, including the use of the computer for instructional purposes. Other titles include "Generation Gap," "Reading Faster, Better," "Growing Up with Music," "Easing that step into High School," and "Careers in Education for You and Your Children."

O'Grady urged club chairmen who are interested in scheduling a speaking date to call Mrs. Jane Wallerstein, the district's community relations consultant, who, he said, would also develop new formalts and programs designed to meet the special needs of a club or to suit a special occasion. Chairmen are asked to phone 694-8600.

"In general," said O'Grady, "Speakers' Bureau panels or lecturers present a twenty-minute program, perhaps also using slides, records or tapes, and will then conduct a discussion involving the audience." The superintendent added that "it goes without saying that no 'electioneering' will be involved."

Assembly Candidate Nixes Caucus System

New Jersey Assembly candidate Vincent "Ozzie" Pellicchia has called for the end of the caucus system now being used by the state legislature. He said the voting public has the right to know how elected representatives are voting on any given legislation.

Pellicchia charged that under the current system, legislators meet in a private session and discuss and vote on legislation. If the matter is passed, it is acted upon again in public. But if it fails, he said, the public can never know where any particular lawmaker stood on the proposal.

He said that the practice makes it all too easy to promise voters a particular stand on matters of importance during election time only to forget it once elected.

Pellicchia commented that a special eight-member committee appointed by Governor Willites and have swelled our welfare rolls, with high interest rates being the main reason leading to our economic recession.

Mazzacca reported at the meeting that the registration of going people 18 to 21 years old in Passaic County was a failure as compared to Hudson and Bergen Counties. He said that the reason for it was the absolute lack of cooperation on the part of the county Board of Elections.

Ham Cahill is studying legislative reform and is expected to report their findings to the governor on Dec. 1. The assembly candidate urged that the committee consider the "open hearing no caucus" proposal.

He noted that others have shown interest in the proposal, naming the League of Women Voters and a private citizens group known as The Committee for a Responsive Legislature.

Pellicchia, who seeks the Assembly seat from the 14th District, is running for his first elective office. He is an international representative of the United Auto Workers. The candidate has served the city of Paterson and Passaic County for several years in various programs of public interest. He is a former chairman of the Paterson Task Force's Manpower Advisory Committee and former director of the Industrial Development for Passaic County.

Pellicchia, who resides at 258 Fifth Avenue, Paterson, commented that if elected, he would not keep voters in the dark as to his stand on any given piece of legislation.

"Legislators are elected by the public to serve the public, and the public has a right to know how well they are doing that job," he concluded.

Senate, Assembly, Freeholder Candidates Speak at Monthly Democratic Meeting

WAYNE — Candidates for this district's state senate, assembly and freeholder seats all gathered together for the first time at last week's monthly meeting of the Democratic Organization at Wayne Valley High School.

For the state senate, the candidates are William Hato, current freeholder director, Joseph L. Latta, former freeholder director and Joseph H. Harkins, current assemblyman from this district.

The candidates for the assembly are John B. Bunting, Vincent "Ozzie" Pellicchia and John Sinaimer. The two freeholder candidates are Sydney Reiss and Charles Dorman, former mayor of Little Falls.

Each candidate made a three-minute presentation of their views on the needs of the state and county and why they were running for office.

Referring to the objectives of the candidates, John Mazzacca, municipal leader of the Wayne Democratic Organization, stated: "With one common theme that stood out was their opposition to a state income tax.

These men fully realize the needs of the state in terms of transportation, education and welfare reform, and heavily stressed the need for flood control passage (Plan C) and the need to continue to strengthen the effort to root out corruption in all areas of government."

In addition, Mazzacca stated, "The candidates are deeply concerned over the economic conditions of the state and country which have led to a high degree of unemployment, reduced profits on the part of corporations

Mosquito Infestation Reported in Wayne

WAYNE — Polluted water within the area of Boulevard Drive in the Mountain View section has fostered breeding grounds for mosquitoes after the past heavy rainfalls.

The depth of the water in some spots is estimated at five or six feet with no apparent drainage taking place. The dirty water is reported to cover an area of approximately two square blocks.

Mrs. Edward Hubinger of 299 Boulevard Drive, has been attempting to have the polluted water removed from her neighborhood since hurricane Doria ended four weeks ago, and thus far has had little satisfaction from the township.

The mosquitoes pose a severe health hazard to the members of the community, especially the children who play in the vicinity. Each of Mrs. Hubinger's four children is sick in bed with what the family doctor diagnosed as a virus which she contends the mosquitoes carry, as each of her children have been bitten several times over the last few weeks.

Last week, Mrs. Hubinger spoke to the township public works department, who set up pumps and dug trenches. However, it was reported that pumps seem to be pumping the water directly back to the area where they were originally installed.

After complaining to Warren McDonald of the public health department, she was informed that the problem was not considered a health problem, and that she should contact the city engineer's office. Mrs. Hubinger immediately called the city engineer, Finley Neuberg, who, according to his secretary, refused to take the call.

Candidate Duggan Raps High Risers

EDITORS NOTE: James J. Duggan, candidate for Wayne Council, today issued the following statement)

"The residents of the Fifth Ward will have a dark cloud hanging over their heads if Swiss Village, Inc. is allowed to develop their 68 acre tract, called "Skyline Hilltop," into a high rise complex.

"This acreage, located between the Hamburg Turnpike and Colfax Avenue is in an area of antiquated roads which are not now able to carry the tremendous commuter traffic, and I can see no relief in the foreseeable future if the County acts as it has in the past.

"Furthermore, I feel the residents of this area did not move here to be overshadowed with skyscrapers, but rather to get away from them and surround themselves with a country-like suburban atmosphere.

"Spokesmen for Swiss Village are trying to get a zone change saying that the land is made up of solid rock, making it too expensive to install the necessary underground services for one family dwellings. This is their reason for wanting a zone change. In all honesty, what did these people think mountains are made of?

"I feel that this mountain can be developed so as not to strip the land of its natural beauty and still gain the much-needed tax ratable to help stabilize Wayne's tax structure."

One Willowbrook Center Nominated For 'New Good Neighbor' Award

WAYNE — One Willowbrook Center, Wayne, has been nominated as an entry in the Twelfth Annual "New Good Neighbor" Awards Competition, it was announced today.

Announcement was made by Leonard C. Johnson, President of the New Jersey Manufacturers Asso. whose monthly publication, New Jersey Business, annually conducts the competition to give recognition to new industries and new industrial facilities contributing to the economic and social well-being of New Jersey.

The One Willowbrook Center facilities were nominated by Mayor Newton Miller. Mayor Miller also called for recognition of the builder, Willowbrook Mall, Inc., Columbia, Maryland, and the architectural firm of Rouse, Dubin and Ventura, New York, New York.

Commissioner Ronald Heymann, New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry, chairman of the independent judging committee, and his committee of business leaders, representing major business associations and professional societies of the State, will select the 10 top award winners of the year. Judging will be on the basis of architectural design, landscaping and the company's contribution to the economic climate and community well-being of the areas in which they are located. To be eligible they must have moved into new buildings in the Garden State between July 1, 1970, and June 30 of this year.

Nominations are being received by New Jersey Business magazine, Newark, from local employers associations, chambers of commerce, industrial development committees, municipal, county and state officials. Judging will take place September 27 at the NJMA offices, Trenton. Winners will be announced immediately thereafter.

The annual New Jersey Manufacturers Association competition will culminate in an awards dinner early December at which representatives of the winning companies, architects, builders and those making the nominations will be guests of the Association.

'Greta's' Reopened In Wayne

WAYNE — Greta and Fred Hirsch, owners of Greta's Fashions, a retail store at the Packanack Lake Shopping Center, announced today the store has reopened. The fashion store was forced to close several months ago after a fire swept through four buildings in the shopping complex.

According to the proprietors, the store now stocks the latest fashions for the fall and winter seasons. Alterations to purchases made at the store can be done on the premises.

Greta invites all of the patrons who shopped in the store over the years to come in once again and celebrate the reopening with her.

torney in the Organized Crime Racketeering Section of the U. S. Department of Justice. In January, 1966, he was appointed Special Attorney and was delegated the responsibility to establish and conduct a special grand jury in the district of New Jersey.

In September of 1969, he was appointed Chief Assistant U.S. Attorney for the district of New Jersey. While holding that position he tried and convicted the defendants in U.S. vs. Addonizio wherein the Mayor of Newark and leaders of organized crime were charged and convicted of conspiring together to extort monies from contractors who dealt with the municipalities. In addition, he tried and convicted the defendants in U.S. vs. John V. Kenny in which eight public officials of Hudson County were convicted of extortion and conspiracy. On January 27, 1971, Stern was also awarded the Annual Distinguished Service Award by the Newark Jaycees and in 1971 won the Outstanding Young Man of New Jersey Award.

Priority of Town Names Questioned by Jasinski

Walter Jasinski, Third Ward Councilman today advised he is asking the Wayne Administration to find out why Wayne, New Jersey is not on any of the Route 80 road signs, yet smaller towns, such as Butler and Verona, are shown.

Jasinski stated I'm not trying to be provincial, but some years back, much energy was expended on the part of the Township and the Wayne Chamber of Commerce resulting in Wayne literally being placed on the map of major oil companies' road maps. I was astonished to ride on the new section open from Paterson and noted that Wayne is nowhere on the sign post.

"There is a mention of Route #23 North but Wayne is completely ignored."

"Here we are with about double the population of many other towns in the area, we have the world's largest shopping center; we have expectations of our population soaring to nearly 75,000 when the Master Plan is implemented — yet when you ride on a major artery feeding into our town, you see no mention of Wayne.

This may be an oversight, but I am asking the Town Administration to bend efforts to correct this apparent oversight by their contacting the various State and Federal officials having jurisdiction in this area of road signs. We should start all the wheels in motion necessary to having this matter handled as expeditiously as possible. I'm sure Congressman Roe would be happy to assist them.

Campaign Trail

Election time is here again and the familiar promises, attacks, complaints and provocations are beginning to rear themselves.

This periodic and hectic activity that appears so strange to people who haven't been raised in its fury is a part of our heritage and we should all be proud of the hotly contested elections that have been the mortar of our republic.

There are however, some who abuse the license of free speech, especially around election time. Instead of helpful and valid criticism, they sling mud. Realizing that even a lie once loosed upon the wind of public exposure is a strong and sometimes deadly weapon, these abusers of our heritage capitalize on public fear instead of competition.

As election time fast approaches, we hope all who are seeking office will vow to themselves and make it clear to their aids that to win an office is not all there is to politics. Along with the victory, there must be a worthiness of that victory.

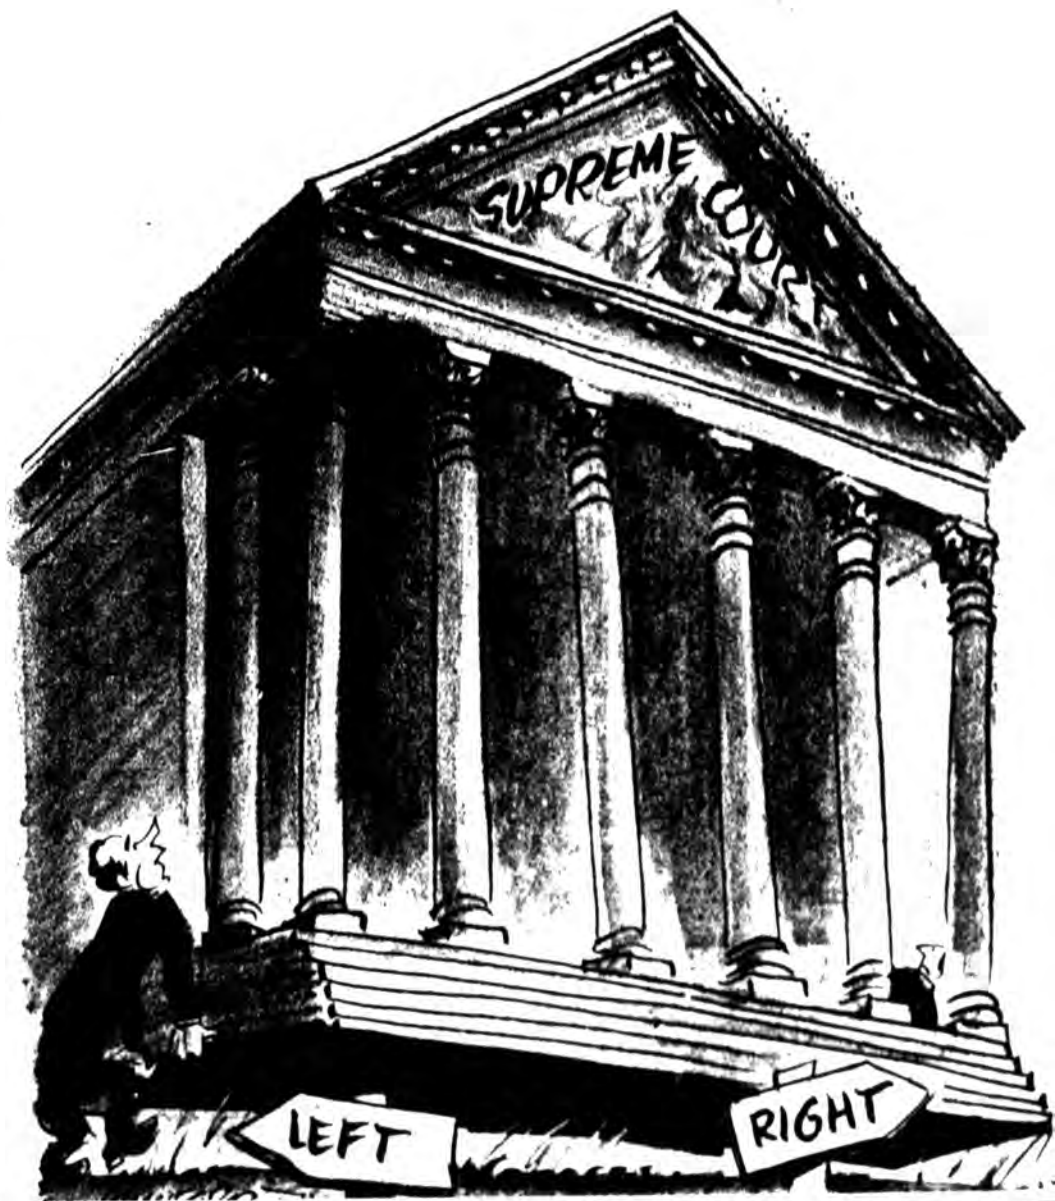

We feel that now, before the election, is the time to decide how the campaign will be conducted. When the charges, countercharges allegations and repudiations begin to fly, it may do the candidates well to remember the words of Abraham Lincoln who said, "When people don't know what they're talking about, they usually say it loud."

Needed Flood Relief

The communities in the Passaic County river basin in need of flood relief were encouraged last week when the Director of water resources under the state's Environmental Protection Agency told their representatives that an inspector would be reviewing the region to see which communities need the most relief while establishing priorities of what should be done.

We believe that the state is taking the correct procedure in assisting these communities in their attempt to alleviate the flood-prone conditions that have proven costly to the various towns. We anticipate an even distribution of the $4.1 million appropriation to these communities, which will hopefully produce effective results.

Report From Roe

WASHINGTON, D.C. Rep. Robert A. Roe is cosponsoring a bill which would limit the sale or distribution of mailing lists by Federal Agencies. The bill, known as H.R. 8903, would amend the Freedom of Information Act to prohibit the Government from selling mailing lists for commercial or other solicitations or for any illegal purposes.

Roe said that the bill resulted from an "in-depth study of mailing list sales by Federal Agencies." He continued, "A Survey of 50 departments and agencies revealed that there is an established Government policy on the sale of mailing lists. Some agencies provide such lists routinely; others do not. Curiously, all cite the Freedom of Information Act as the basis for their decisions.

Roe said that H.R. 8903 would prohibit the sale or distribution of any lists of names of Federal employees, past or present members of the Armed Forces, or persons who are required to register with any Federal agency, "where there is certification that such a list will not be used for solicitation or unlawful purposes."

The Freedom of Information Act was enacted in 1967 to provide the public with as complete a view as possible to public records. Its purpose is to prevent government agencies from withholding information that should be reasonably available to the public.

Roe says the Act overlooks completely the mailing lists compiled by Federal agencies in carrying out their proper roles and continues, "The Freedom of Information Act was not passed as a license for commercial organizations to acquire or purchase, or vary or to add them with illegal intent. Passage of this bill will result in the sale of mailing lists."

Senator Williams Speaks

WASHINGTON, D.C. U.S. Sen. Harrison A. Williams, Jr. (D-N.J.) today will introduce legislation which would permit the call up of Coast Guard reservists in the event of oil spills and natural disasters.

Under the legislation, the President could declare a state of "domestic emergency" in the event of natural or man-made water disaster including, but not limited to such problems as water pollution incidents, storms, hurricanes, earthquakes, tidal waves, fires, explosions or anything involving imminent danger to life and property.

The Secretary of Transportation, under whom the Coast Guard operates, then would be authorized to call up the ready reserve.

Sen. Williams noted that the call up would be limited to 30 days so as not to cause undue hardships on reservists. "And I think that in most instances any call up would be for a significantly shorter period."

The Senator, in a speech prepared for delivery on the Senate floor, pointed out that last year he authored legislation which prevented a one-third cut in the authorized manpower of the Coast Guard Ready Reserve.

"A major reason I advanced then was the vital mission that the reserve can perform in our war against pollution and other environmental problems," he stated. "This new legislation would greatly facilitate the use of the Coast Guard Reserve for those duties."

Sen. Williams said that the information he has received indicates that Coast Guard Reservists are eager to perform this mission.

"There are areas in which they are specialists and most certainly they are capable of fulfilling this mission. These reservists, volunteers from the Coast Guard Reserve, are needed expert service in the aftermath of an oil spill in Bayonne, New Jersey. And, this is not an isolated incident."

"Coast Guardsmen are highly trained in these matters. And, as these reservists pass into the active reserve, they provide our nation with a well trained manpower pool to deal with situations which create threats to our environment, our property and even our lives."

New Pure Milk Treatment

Estee Lauder uses milk, your very first nourishment, to help give your complexion the soft, fresh glow of a baby's skin. "Milk is good for everyone," says Estee Lauder, "even women with delicate, sensitive skins can use these treatment products because they're formulated to include soothing fresh milk."

Estee Lauder, who has always believed in natural ingredients, has combined the very best of science and nature to create these three remarkable new beauty formulations: New Pure Milk Creme Wash, New Pure Milk Freshener, and New Iced Milk Mask.

New Pure Milk Creme Wash is a rich milky white cream that's applied with the fingers—then splashed off with water. "It works to smooth and soften your skin while whisking away every trace of makeup, dirt and grime," says Estee Lauder. "I especially wanted a cream that could be removed with water so the skin would truly feel and look 'glowing' clean."

New Pure Milk Freshener is the natural follow-up to Pure Milk Creme Wash. A final splash of this mild, non-drying lotion helps to tone and clarify the skin—leaving it baby-soft and supple. "Now even women with the most fragile complexions can be brightened and toned safely," says Estee Lauder.

New Iced Milk Mask is a shimmery milky white gel mask that's creamed on the face and dries to form a transparent film that can be peeled off or washed away. The tightening action lifts away impurities and deepdown dirt without depleting the skin of its natural oils—while the milk protein leaves behind a protective coating that makes the skin feel soft and silky. "And of course," adds Estee Lauder,

"the deep cleaning action of the new Iced Milk Mask is so so gentle that women who never before could use a mask may do so with complete assurance."

Estee Lauder's New Pure Milk Treatment Products are packaged in frosted glass, with silver caps and graphics.

ON THE BEACH

On-the-beach hairstyles can be a preparation for your evening look. Those with short curly locks who want a somewhat straighter look for the evening should comb the hair while still wet in the opposite direction from which it is usually worn. Those with long, straight hair, looking for a romantic wavy look for the evening should tie the hair in a pony tail on the top of the head and put in several rollers or clips to hold the curls in place.

So Long Broadway; Hello Hackensack

By ROBERT COHEN
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (NEA) — All of a sudden, after some 90 years of total obscurity, this shabby industrial town on the banks of the Hackensack River is famous. All praise Wellington Mara.

Personally, I am convinced that the East Rutherford (the New York Giants, or whatever they are to be called, will detract substantially from the valiant exploits of the East Rutherford High School Wildcats, who play football in the fall at Riffin Field, hard by the proposed $300 million sports complex planned for the meadowlands. This is a shame. As a loyal FRHS alumnus and Wildcat freshman fan, I know the old team won't be able to stand the competition.

New Yorkers, of course, are properly mystified over Mara's decision to relocate in the "meadows" (known by residents of the Hudson River's east bank as the swamps), since neighboring New Jersey has always been that blur on the Palisades, rather formless and certainly not worth talking about.

On the other hand, residents of East Rutherford have sedom thought very much about the pincushion on the Hudson which is known as "the city" (e.g. "I'm going to the city tomorrow to see a show").

Near St. Joseph's Church, on Hackensack Street, there's a marvelous view of the New York skyline. Most residents are more interested in the crabgrass.

This is not odd. East Rutherford is known as "the Garden Spot of the Garden State." The only gardens I ever saw were those belonging to Bobbink & Atkins and Julius Roehrs, nurserymen. They were plowed over years ago for "garden" apartments.

It is a town of warehouses (W. & J. Sloane, Fiat) and factories (Beeton-Dickenson, Sun Chemical) and an old-fashioned hardware store (Lemort Bros.).

The New York visitor is not likely to find many social diversions, unless he is an American Legion member or an aficionado of diners (the Queen of East Rutherford dined on Paterson Avenue used to have great Boston Cream Pie).

There are a few motels and no hotels, unless one counts the Erie Hotel overlooking the railroad tracks. An odd hostelry, that one, for it has no windows.

The Rex Theater on Park Avenue, where I saw Roy Rogers westerns as a kid, has been a furniture warehouse for 15 years. But Jerry's Bar & Grill still serves decent pizza.

Some 20 years ago when Uncle Harold was mayor of the town, there were serious plans afoot to develop the meadowlands. Not a sports complex, but what amounted to a new city built on piles so that the much of the swamps wouldn't undermine the foundations.

Nothing came of that, which was fine for us school kids and especially for Leo Lowmy. Leo lived near the meadows and picked up a good deal of change by running muskrat trappings through the woods.

Leo was probably East Rutherford's greatest trapper. Each morning at dawn, as the sun rose from behind Manhattan's spires, Leo would wash his lines and I could occasionally go along.

One season we must have collected 300 muskrat skins, which made a lot of fur coats.

Now Sonny Werblin has discovered the swamps, or meadows. And he has a dream, partially shared by the governor of New Jersey. So instead of muskrats, there'll be thoroughbreds. Instead of weaving fields of reeds, there'll be weaving backs on the field.

And the East Rutherford of my youth, that seedy little bend in the road, is about to join the ranks of professional football. At least New Yorkers have discovered that there is something out there, beyond the Hudson.

Polly's Problem

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Is there any way to put elastic back in to the tops of socks? My little girl and my husband go through them in no time just because of the elastic and the socks are quite useless, even though they have no holes. — VIRGINIA

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is that manufacturers do not put false cuffs on work pants. It would be such a relief to get rid of those loose cuffs which are only dust and dirt catchers and tack catchers for my husband, who uses tacks all day. — ELLA

HEWITT

Time Out
For Beauty
By Dorothy Gray

What's Your Type
Skin, like people, comes in a variety of types and textures. Some people have fair complexions, others are dark complected; some have oily skin, others have dry or normal skin.
What type are you? There is a way to tell if you have oily, dry or normal skin—and once you find out you'll be able to work with makeup and other cosmetics better.
Dry skin always feels tight, there is a lack of give or elasticity. Your skin will chap easily and will readily react to heat, cold and wind. Dry skin also tends to have a glassy appearance. Dry skin needs special attention—and you should use moisturizers and creams to replenish oils.
Oily skin requires a different set of techniques. The symptoms are enlarged pores, shiny skin due to oil accumulation, and skin may often feel uncomfortably sticky. If you have oily skin, you should wash and cleanse it frequently and use a freshener after washing. A good cleanser for all skin types is Satura Algene's Conditioning Cleanser from Dorothy Gray. This deep cleanser draws dirt, excess oil and clogging makeup from pores and leaves skin with a velvety soft texture.
Normal skin feels smooth and soft and slightly dewy — it's every woman's desire. But most of us have a combination of dry/oily/normal skin. And, we all have individual problems that need special attention.

You can beef-up a skimpy lawn by
"seeding-in"

Best way to add new life to a thin lawn is to plant grass seed right into the existing turf. And Fall is the ideal time to do it.

Scotts FAMILY Brand lawn seed is America's longtime favorite. Why? Because it is the versatile blend that does well in sun or moderate shade. And it's priced right too. So if your lawn needs "beefing-up," get a box of Scotts FAMILY seed this week end.

Versatility for mobile home interiors starts with simulated pine beamed ceilings, colorful striped fabric for window shades and upholstery and a valet chest for "his" working corner. "Her" corner has single pedestal desk and bachelor chest for storage of sewing needs and clothing. Room is one of five in model mobile home.

Private corduroy in a nostalgic nosegay print makes a flattering covered-wagon dress with matching shawl.

Mink, long-time darling of the dressy set, now takes its place for casual wear as well and comes up a winner. Rench mink jacket (left) is the newest fashion silhouette, the blazer, and is the perfect companion for daytime or evening pants. White Apollo mink jerkin (right) is designed for both daytime and evening wear. These designs are from the Ben Kahn 1971 Couture Collection.

FOX FOR FALL is the message of this creation by Frank Olive of New York. A silver fox scarf is matched with a toque.

Panty Hose Problems Have Stretchable Solution

Do Put-Ons About Panty Hose Failings Bother You? Here's a Roundup of Right-Ons to Help You Get Perfect Fit and Longer Wear.
Do you have panty hose put-ons? Wrinkling at the ankles bother you, or bagging at the knees? Perhaps you are annoyed by sliding at the hips, or perhaps it's the crotch area that's not comfortable. Maybe runs pop out when you are just putting on your panty hose, or develop mysteriously when they are at rest in your bureau drawer.

For those of you who have gripes about less than perfect fit or long wear for four panty hose, Betty Curry, fashion director of Burlington, has some "right-ons" to suggest which may provide first aid for your budget.

"Be realistic about your weight and hip size, when you read size charts in panty hose packages and then select your size," advises Miss Curry. "Checking out complaints indicates that too many ladies are splitting themselves by thinking 'small' in these areas. Burlington studied the measurements of 10,000 women before developing size charts that evaluate height, weight and hip size as the key to selecting perfect fit.

"Don't stand up when you start to put on panty hose. Do put both feet in the stocking part of the panty hose before drawing up to the knee, while you sit.

"Don't attack panty hose with rough fingernails or sharp rings — short cuts to runs. Do stand up when you stretch the panty portion over your thighs and do it with slow motion.

"Don't smoke while you put on panty hose. Cigarette ash is another fast way to start a run. Do check waistband to be sure it is exactly at your waist. If it isn't start over and pull the fabric up slowly as far as you can. If the waistband still isn't at your waist, the panty hose size is wrong for you.

"Don't store panty hose with costume jewelry or anything else sharp. Don't drop the car keys or your lipstick on them. Even a dropped quarter can weaken nylon fibres.

"Do wash before wearing — that strengthens fibres; and always wash after wearing, no matter how tired you are, because perspiration deteriorates nylon.

"Do wear gloves when you wash panty hose, if you can't get those sharp rings off, or have rough nails. And don't, please, hang them on the faucet or anything else that's not smooth."

CHECK-ONS TO HELP YOU GET PANTY HOSE VALUE

"Do pick a panty hose wardrobe to fit your life style," urges Miss Curry. "All sheer panty hose are glamorous for dancing but not practical for the 9 to 5 routine. Support styles are a boon to the metermaid and anyone else on her feet for hours. Opaque is dressy for daytime wear and wears longer than sheers. End run styles which resist runs effectively are practical for on-the-job wear.

"When you sleuth for quality, check the panty portion of the style you're considering to make sure it's strongly constructed," Miss Curry suggests. "Check for top and toe run guards. Check for a full back panel — extra fabric that's sewn in the panty portion of quality panty hose to provide greater comfort and fit latitude. With some styles, a diamond shaped crotch panel is sufficient. All styles need some kind of extra stretch panel for better fit. Be sure the style you select has either a diamond shaped panel or a dart panel.

Don't Add Unnecessary Weight

By LAWRENCE LAMB, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I have been underweight for most of my life and would like to know ways to gain weight. I would also like to know ways to straighten rounded shoulders.

Dear Reader—Many young people think they need to gain weight. This is usually a matter of appearance rather than strictly a matter of health. Girls want more curves in the right places and boys want to be "big and strong." Usually this leads to doing the wrong thing. Putting a lot of unnecessary fast doesn't help the appearance and can even detract from it.

If a person is really underweight in a medical sense, then it is quite important to find out why. If it is caused by a digestive disturbance, it needs correction. If there is a chronic infection, it should be treated. Rarely, a person has an overactive thyroid that needs attention. In some ways being underweight if one really is deserves more attention than being overweight.

If you are healthy and just don't weight as much as you would like, I can't really suggest doing anything more than increasing your physical activity. This will help you build good, strong muscles and strong bones and that should be your goal.

Rounded shoulders usually mean that you need to develop the muscles in the back between the shoulders. Start doing exercises that rotate the arms up, out, and back, down, and up again. Use exercises that contract the muscles in the back between the shoulders. A light set of springs that you can pull out with both arms simultaneously helps, too. Good posture also makes a difference.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I want to know what causes a person to throw up blood.

Dear Reader—Vomiting blood can occur from the mechanical effects of forceful vomiting alone. It can be caused from any ulcer or erosion in the esophagus or stomach. Sometimes liver disease causes dilated veins at the junction between the esophagus and beginning of the stomach. If they rupture, there is usually a large loss of blood. Anyone who is vomiting blood should see a physician at once for a complete examination.

Dear Dr. Lamb—What is albuminuria due to and how can it be cured?

Dear Reader—Albumin is one of the natural occurring proteins in the blood stream. Normally, very small amounts of it are lost in the urine each day. When the amount lost is increased, it becomes abnormal and is called albuminuria. There are many causes, from an infection of the kidney or urinary tract to defects in the kidney caused by different diseases, including heart failure. It is sometimes caused by mechanical factors related to standing upright. The treatment depends upon what is causing it.

Save Money On Your Wardrobe

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor
NEW YORK — (NEA) —

If you've got the fashion blues you can revitalize your wardrobe without spending a small fortune. The secret is to screen the clothes you have and shop carefully for those you need. Today women are less inclined to submissively follow the latest fashion decree. They wear what they like and what looks right on them.

This is the opinion of Ethel Mooring, fashion executive of Peck & Peck, the nationwide specialty shops. She has designed a money-saving plan that helps to organize what you have and to figure out what you really need. Here's how it works.

Set aside some free time to go through your wardrobe.

Start by listing recent activities you've engaged in during the last month. Include occasional social events such as dinners, cocktail parties, PTA meetings, etc. Jot down the type of clothes worn and those you need for these occasions.

Try on everything in your closet and determine if your things are in good condition, fit, and most of all, whether or not you're tired of them.

Make a list of each item in your wardrobe, including coats, suits, dresses, jackets, blouses, sweaters and skirts and list next to each item how often you wear it. Weed out what you never wear or haven't worn in months.

List the clothes you are keeping and accessories that should be purchased to update them. Decide what you can afford to spend. Remember that financial authorities maintain that clothing should run about 12 per cent of net income. This is only a guide, however, and your own requirements should govern the amount spent.

First, decide on a basic color scheme. Buy the items and accessories you plan to use often and spend the most for them. Choose stores that are reputable and will guarantee their merchandise.

Read labels for special cleaning and laundering instructions. Ask sales personnel to help if you have questions.

Expand your wardrobe with coordinates, mix and match blouses, skirts, sweaters and pants.

Give yourself time to shop. Rushing to buy something for a particular occasion often results in an unhappy purchase.

Replace things before they are worn out so you won't have to compromise on what you're looking for. And accessorize your clothes as you buy them to avoid a last minute rush.

Look for double duty clothes that you can dress up or down — a raincoat that doubles as an evening coat, a coat with removable lining, a scarf that will go with any dresses and suits. You can also save fashion dollars by shopping at seasonal sales.

Take good care of your wardrobe, Miss Mooring cautions.

VELVET PLUSH

A unique Acrilan plush carpeting so incredibly velvety it actually shimmers in the light.

Here's a new height in broadloom carpet beauty . . . offered by Sandler & Worth at an incredible $3.00 sq. yd. saving. A special weave and shearing method in gleaming Acrilan have combined to produce a plush carpet so velvety it looks like the dress your grandmother wore. And yet, when you step on it, you're in for a new kind of luxurious ease. Primavera has unsuspected depths . . . a rich, thick pile of fantastically resilient Acrilan over our special sponge rubber padding makes walking a sensuous experience.

In the creamiest colors imaginable; Lime Green, Bitter Olive, Roman Olive, Butter Rum, Spun Gold, Corn Silk, Sunrise Gold, Indian Bronze, Willow Mist, Sapphire Blue, Seaspray Turquoise, French Plum, Cherry Red, Burnished Copper. 12' and 15' widths.

CAPE COD . . . NEW JERSEY
Brings to mind a very special kind of home. The Cape Cod house of New England. The best elements of Early American architecture and decorating. Right here in Passaic County, 4 bedroom Cape. Decorated with skill and ingenuity. Wooded setting. Natural cedar shakes, rustic charm. Williamsburg blue trimming. Split rail fencing. Terraced window. Cobblestone fireplace. Pine front yard. Living Room. Pictured panelling. Beamed ceiling — the real thing, too! No phony details. Formal Dining Room. Panelled and beamed. Brand new Kitchen. Pine Cabinets. Dishwasher. Self-Cleaning electric oven. Countertop range. Chopping block counter. Vinyl brick floor. Full bath 2 panelled bedrooms down. 2 large bedrooms upstairs. Built-in beds. Storage. Extra driveway 1/2 bath. Wainscoting. Panelled Rec Room. Cedar closet. Laundry area. Mud room. Tree house. Tool shed. HWBB. Lake privileges, too. Sound too good to be true — not really. Handy owner has already found his next project.

Fiat 850 Spider
$2295 P.O.E.

With a Fiat 850 Spider it's all there: great sports car feel, great sports car ride, great sports car look. A Bertone body jammed with the good things of driving like front disc brakes, radial tires, a new 58 hp engine with overhead valves, dash-mounted tachometer, 4-speed synchromeshed stick shift, bucket seats. The driver's car—all there because it's a Fiat!

JERRY ATKINS

A lobsterman said that the lobster's slender claw is called the cutter, and the largest one, the crusher, which can easily crush a man's finger. About half of all lobsters are "right-handed," and half, "left-handed." (Side the crusher is on.) Adult females create 3,000 to 100,000 eggs, but only one in a thousand grows to maturity. One takes six years to grow to one pound, and continues to grow as long as it lives. (Lobsters should be steamed in shallow water, not boiled.) We too continue growing because we give you TOP VALUE and service!

A more convenient telephone service comes to customers whose numbers begin with 628, 694 and 696.

It's a new electronic development that lets you dial all your Long Distance calls — including person, collect and credit card calls — and speeds them on their way.

And it begins Saturday in Lincoln Park, Pequannock and Wayne for customers whose telephone numbers start with 628, 694 and 696.

From these areas, here's all you do to dial a Long Distance call from your home or office:

1. Dial "O" (Operator) followed immediately by the Area Code where required and then the telephone number.
2. When the Operator comes on the line, she will ask you for the information she needs to assist you. While she is doing this, new electronic equipment will be completing your call.

There is no change in the way you dial station calls. And, of course, station calls you dial yourself are usually the most economical way to call. So be sure to dial calls yourself when you don't need the help of an Operator.

Detailed information about this convenient new phone service will be included with your next bill. If you have any questions, just call your Telephone Business Office.

Hair And Hats Together Once More

Not since the '40's has there been such a happy partnership of hats and hair styles as there is today. So it's no wonder that many of the new styles in headwear take cue from fashion's favorite decade, the '40's.

Knitted hats are especially popular on the teen scene this fall — so popular, in fact, that even girls who care enough about their hair to win a national hairstyling competition go for the new '40's-inspired knits.

The three finalists in America's Junior Miss Hair Style Competition feel that the super new knitted accessories are just the thing to set off their hair styles. Those bright young hats of Creslan acrylic fiber come in a wide variety of styles, patterns and colors so that each girl can choose her own version of the '40's look.

Remember the cloche? It's back, and so is the toque, the beret, and an updated version of the newsboy cap. These styles come in patterns including brilliantly contrasting checkerboard squares; lacy-looking "afghan" stitches; and colorful ethnic motifs. Often, the headwear comes with matching scarves, gloves, and knitted bags, reminiscent of the "reticules" that were carried you-know-when.

These knitted accessories do something flattering and feminine for even the simplest hair style. So it's no wonder that today's teens are discovering anew what their parents knew a generation ago: that hats and hair go together — beautifully!

GARLIC SMELL

For the women tied to the stove a quickie way to get rid of garlic or other food smells from the fingers is rubbing them with a slice of tomato.

Choose Your Coat To Compliment Your Figure

The coat scene for fall-winter is so beautiful and crowded with choices (including capes) that no young woman—no matter what her shape, size and tastes are—should settle for anything less than her dream coat. To help you choose it to compliment your figure GLAM-OUR Magazine put together this check list.

Broad Shoulders: Pick a very simple shoulder and armhole line, or try a cape. Sometimes a good set of shoulders is just what a cap needs. Stay away from padded, extended, epauletted or caped shoulders and coats that nip in very close over the rib cage from armhold to waist. They'll only accentuate your broad shoulders. Avoid heavy wide collars.

Very Tall: You'll look wonderful in a cape or mid-calf length, particularly if it's belted like a wrap or trench coat. The belt cuts the length.

Very Short: Look for a neat little body coat, fitted close like a reefer and without a belt or too much ornamentation like big hardware belting or big toggle closings. Keep the collar small. Just below the knee is a good length for you. If you want a cape, be sure it's short full-length is just too much for you.

Heavy All Over: Choose a tailored classic-shaped coat, a blazer or reefer. Dark solid colors in flat, not furry or plushy, fabrics are more slimming. A cape could work for you, but on a really heavy girl it sometimes calls attention to exactly what you're trying to minimize. Depends on just how heavy you are.

Big Bosom: Avoid anything double breasted, anything with a big collar or capelet. You'll look better proportioned in a coat that doesn't cinch in tight over the rib cage and waist and that has a flare or fullness to the skirt to balance your top. Try a blazer, reefer or cape.

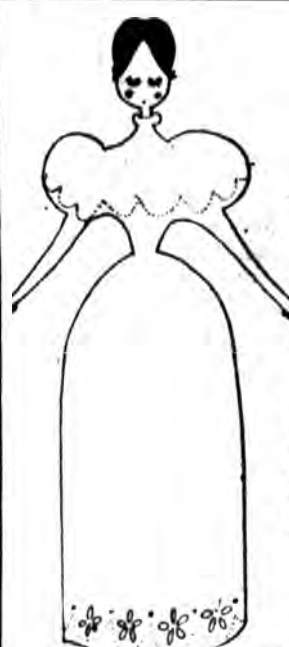

Bottom Heavy, Big Hips: The coat with a circular or flared skirt, perhaps a blazer or riding jacket look, helps conceal the hips. Anything belted is likely to call attention to them. A cape is good too.

Too Skinny: Add some volume by wearing a smock coat, or you might pick a trench or wrap coat in fabrics that have some depth, like piles, brushed woollens and blanket plaids, or the quilted poplins, tweeds and velvets.

Short-legged: Too long a coat will shorten your legs more. Look for a just-below-the-knees length. It'll appear to give the upper leg height.

Too Long-legged: Don't be afraid of the longer lengths—anywhere below the knee to mid-calf. They'll actually cover up too-long legs.

Estee Lauder Introduces New Skin Creme

"Beneath the surface of your skin there's a fresher beauty waiting to be revealed," says Estee Lauder. Now with the creation of New Skin Skimming Creme Estee Lauder makes it possible for you to uncover a younger, clearer, healthier complexion and to maintain it with new Lightweight Moisturizing Lotion.

"Nature constantly builds new cells and sloughs off dead ones," explains Estee Lauder. In childhood this process is rapid, but as a woman grows older the cycle moves more slowly leaving a surface layer of dead cells that make the skin look dull and lifeless. At the same time it creates a barrier to prevent moisturizers from being completely effective.

"New Skin Skimming Creme helps nature do its job better by speeding up the removal of surface flakes so that the fresh skin below can shine through," continues Estee Lauder. "Once or twice a week every skin needs this treatment in order to be completely clean."

New Skin Skimming Creme works with double action to dissolve surface flakes and bring forth a healthy glow. Apply it over the whole face and work in gently with the fingertips. You'll feel a warm tingle as it goes to work at once. Tissue off and rinse with warm water.

Now your skin is ready to receive new Lightweight Moisturizing Lotion. This apricot-colored lotion is completely free of fragrance. Designed to be absorbed instantly and completely by the skin, it's the ideal follow-up to New Skin Skimming Creme because it gently softens the bright new skin with invisible protection while it smooths the way for a more perfect makeup.

"The final result is a complexion as fresh and glowing as newborn skin," says Estee Lauder.

Hair Conditioning

Goes Organic

Products Use Plants,
Flowers, Bone Marrow

By JOYCE GABRIEL

NEW YORK — (NEA)

Pierre/Michel is an elegant New York beauty salon, divided in half: On one side are the usual styling chairs, hair-dryers, contoured sinks and magazine-covered tables; the other side, done completely in antiseptic white, resembles a hospital more than a beauty salon.

In a sense, it is a hospital for hair. Pierre and Michel call it their hair clinic. It is here that customers get their hair and scalp into condition before having it styled.

Pierre and Michel are two enterprising Frenchmen who have been in business for themselves for five years. Their hair treatment products are all natural, organic ones, developed by another enterprising Frenchman, Rene Furterer, 14 years ago.

When a customer arrives at the Pierre/Michel clinic, she is given a smock to wear and led into one of several cubicles where a curtain is drawn, for privacy.

Pierre or Michel massages a small section of her scalp, numbing it, then pulls out one strand of hair, painlessly. The hair is put on a slide and shown on a "Microvisionneur Projecteur," a device which magnifies the strand 200 times. Under magnification, Pierre and Michel can tell if the hair is too dry or too oily, if the ends are split or if the hair is breaking off. Once the analysis is made, they fill out a card for the customer, prescribing a treatment, explaining it to her as they write.

The products developed by M. Furterer are all made from various combinations of plants, pollen, animal embryo, bone marrow and flowers. There are no preservatives or chemicals added and there is no alcohol to dry the hair out.

There is a special treatment for dandruff, applied directly to the scalp. Another product treats oily hair; a conditioner treats dry ends. A special mud-pack, applied to the hair, seals it and keeps it healthy for one to three weeks. A massage is given to increase scalp circulation. Two natural bristle brushes are used simultaneously to brush the hair from back to front, in arcs.

An individual treatment rarely exceeds 45 minutes in length and the cost is $12 for short hair and $15 for long hair.

The number of treatments a customer needs depends on the condition of her hair or scalp.

Surprisingly, Pierre and Michel report that young, long-haired women have damaged hair more than older women who tease and spray their hair. The reason younger women have more severely damaged hair is that they tend to wash shampoos that are too harsh, their long hair every day with These dry the hair and scalp.

Barnert Memorial Hospital Patients Will Have Special Holiday Services

Jewish patients hospitalized at the Barnert Memorial Hospital Center during the High Holy Days will be able to participate in special Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur Services, according to Harvey Schoenfield, Executive Vice President and Director.

Rabbi Benjamin Yudin of the Orthodox Congregation of Fair

Lawn will deliver a special holiday sermon over the Hospital Center's closed circuit television system at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, September 19.

In addition, on Monday afternoon, September 20, Rabbi Charles Tannenbaum of the Eastside Jewish Center, Paterson and Sigmund Stobezki, Life Trustee, will make rounds throughout the hospital offering Jewish patients bedside services and an opportunity to hear the traditional ram's horn (Shofar).

Rabbi Martin Freedman of Barnert Temple, Paterson, will conduct Yom Kippur Services over the Hospital Center's closed circuit television at 12:45 p.m. on Wednesday, September 29.

The Brush-Off Approach

There's one question that's traditionally asked of all women: "If you were stranded on a desert island, what beauty accessory would you like to have?" Some women answer their eye makeup, others rouge and many women wouldn't part with their lipstick. But no one ever names the brush.

Yet, the brush is probably the most important beauty tool that women use. Women brush their hair 100 strokes a night for beauty, they brush their teeth, they brush on eye makeup, rouge, lipstick and even brush their eyebrows. But no woman really thinks of brushing her face.

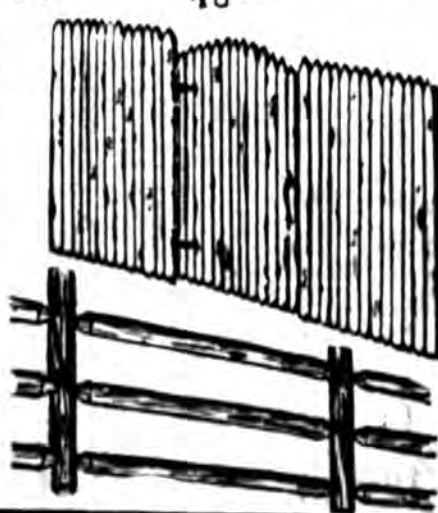

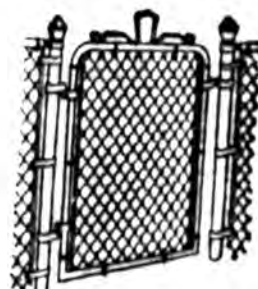

Brushing your skin is probably the best method you can use for stimulating circulation, promoting a healthy glow, and giving your face a thorough cleansing. That's why Givenchy developed the Cream Wash.

This gentle, cream-soap product is non-drying, has the texture of fine cream and is applied with a brush to stimulate circulation and to remove any final traces of makeup. All you have to do is hold the Givenchy Complexion Brush under lukewarm water, then cover it with 1/4 inch of Givenchy Cream Wash. Apply the cream wash in rotating motions to the entire face, working briskly upward. Rinse the brush with cool water and repeat the motions to remove all lather. If any remains, splash your face with cool water.

Treat your face kindly with a brush-off. It may be the nicest thing you ever did for your skin.

Noah's Ark

PARSIPPANY—The Noah's Ark Animal Welfare Association, Inc. have planned a busy season for fun-fund-raisers beginning on October 5 at 7:30 p.m.

The affair, sponsored jointly by the Jersey Central Power and Light Company and Brick Church Appliance, will be a "mouth-watering and informative food demonstration at Brick Church Appliance, 151 South Street, Morristown according to their chairman. Reservations are limited with a minimum attendance of at least 50 people. For additional information and reservations call 335-1074.

The group will hold a theater party at the Paper Mill Playhouse Friday October 29 for The Man of La Mancha starring Jeromes Hines. Reservations may be made by calling 887-6843 or 627-8851.

A Christmas Bazaar is in the planning stages under the chairmanship of Gladys Nemlow, 263-1338. The bazaar will feature a wide array of arts and crafts items so the group is asking for "creative contributions."

Fashion and Beauty Tips

CLEANING OLD GOLD
Been married too long? If your wedding band has lost the sparkle and shine it had a few years back, here's a helpful hint. A good way to clean gold rings, earrings and bracelets is by soaking them in ammonia and then brushing the dirt away with an old toothbrush.

NATURAL EYES

To avoid an artificial penciled look for the eyebrows, follow the natural contours of your brow, brush or pencil in with gentle strokes and use two shades, such as medium and dark brown, for a more natural effect.

BARGAINS ???

This is the season of bargain hunter's delight. Most stores have end-o-summer sales in which the merchandise is greatly reduced. But make sure you're really getting a good buy. Check the product for stains and damages. Don't ignore the possibility of style changes, particularly with shoes and dresses. And if your weight fluctuates greatly, think twice before buying something for next year.

SUMMER HOSE

"Barefoot hosiery" is a must for many summer outfits. When buying panty hose, be sure it's labeled sheer from waist to toes especially for hot pants, sandals or sling-back shoes.

WRINKLE-FREE

Living out of a suitcase? For the quickest way to eliminate those nasty little wrinkles, hang the garment in the bathroom while you take your hot shower. The steam will help get the wrinkles out and give the dress a freshly cleaned look.

FALSE LASHES

False eyelashes can be worn during the day, even to the office, if they are not too overpowering or heavy. Many firms manufacture lashes designed for daytime wear. Lashes may be longer and more dramatic for the evenings.

SMOOTHER FACE

A good way to help settle make-up and avoid a cakey look is to pat a cloth wet with cold water over the face. The cold water removes the excess make-up and gives the face a sheer smooth look.

SHAPELY HINTS

Since styles seem to be aiming at the women not-so-well-endowed, the voluptuous woman of the world have encountered difficulties. If you want to de-emphasize magnitudinous proportions, follow these don'ts. Avoid white tops that make you appear bigger. Stay away from jackets or shirts with pockets over the bust. Empire dresses are not designed for big-busted women. Never wear a size bigger in order to hide your bust. It does quite the opposite. Turtle-necks give you a stuffed look. A round or moderate V neckline is much more attractive. Avoid ruffles, large prints and, of course, horizontal stripes.

WELCOME TRAVELER

Good Food & Grog

As you approach Jorgensen's in Maywood you'll be attracted by our new Colonial blue and gold "landmark" sign. Our newly landscaped and painted exterior bids you enter and be enchanted by a fabulous newly completed replica of an Early American Inn. Wonderful weathered and hand hewn beams accented with authentic glowing brass and copper lamps, Colonial cooking utensils and antique wooden pieces and carvings tastefully displayed create the cordial surroundings in which you'll feast on huge and masterfully prepared servings of Prime Ribs of Beef, thick tender cuts of Roast Duckling, Sirloin or whatever you've chosen from our new menu. A perfectly set table and impeccable service are two more good reasons to dine at Jorgensen's when you dine out.

Mammoth carvings of Prime Rib Roast and Thick tender Sirloin Steaks — our specialty.

Mink, long-time darling of the dressy set, now takes its place for casual wear as well and comes up a winner. Ranch mink jacket (left) is the newest fashion silhouette, the blazer, and is the perfect companion for daytime or evening pants. White Apollo mink jerkin (right) is designed for both daytime and evening wear. These designs are from the Ben Kahn 1971 Couture Collection.

CHON KING ORIENTAL SKILLET DINNERS

CANTONESE STYLE CHOW MEIN: A blend of Oriental vegetables and a light sauce. Each carton contains a 14½-oz. can of bean sprouts, celery, bamboo shoots, water chestnuts, and sweet red peppers, plus a 1½-oz. packet of chow mein sauce mix. For a complete dinner, add chicken or turkey (chicken chow mein is the classic Cantonese dish). Makes five 6-oz. servings within 15 minutes.

SAN FRANCISCO STYLE CHOP SUEY: Chop suey was actually developed in American Chinatowns during the 19th century as a modification of traditional Chinese chow mein. Each carton contains a 14½-oz. can of bean sprouts, celery, bamboo shoots, water chestnuts, and sweet red peppers, plus a 1½-oz. packet of sauce mix. For a complete dinner, just add beef. Makes five ¾-cup servings within 25 minutes.

EGG FOO YOUNG: Egg foo young is often called the Chinese omelet and served as a light lunch or breakfast. Each carton contains a 14½-oz. can of bean sprouts, celery, bamboo shoots, water chestnuts and sweet red peppers, plus a 1½-oz. packet of pattie seasoning mix. For a complete meal, add eggs. Makes six 5-in. patties within 15 minutes.

SUKIYAKI: Sukiyaki a combination of beef and vegetables in sauce, originated among Japanese farmers who prepared it over open fires. Each carton contains a 16½-oz. can of bean sprouts, celery, bamboo shoots, water chestnuts, and sweet red peppers, plus a 1½-oz. packet of sauce mix. For a complete dinner, just add beef. Makes five ¾-cup servings within 15 minutes.

PEPPER STEAK: Also called stir-fried beef and peppers, this dinner consists of sliced beef, sweet red and green peppers, in a lightly spiced sauce. Each carton contains a 14½-oz. can of bean sprouts, green bell peppers, sweet red peppers and carrots, plus a 1½-oz. packet of sauce mix. For a complete meal, just add beef. Makes five 6-oz. servings within 15 minutes.

POLYNESIAN STYLE SWEET AND SOUR: Tropical fruits and Oriental sauce are combined. Glazed pork or ham is then warmed in the classic sweet and sour sauce. Each carton contains a 19-oz. can of pineapple, sugar, green bell peppers, carrots, tomato paste, vinegar, modified food starch, onions and salt, plus a 2-oz. glaze mix packet. For a complete meal, just add pork or ham. Makes five ½-cup servings within 25 minutes.

FRIED RICE MIX: The perfect side dish. Each carton contains a 5-oz. packet of long grain rice and a 1½-oz. seasoning mix packet. Makes six 3-oz. servings within 25 minutes.

The Union Plaza Hotel, Las Vegas' newest and most beautiful, has become one of 162 major hotels throughout the country to ease the language barrier which is said to deter many foreign travellers from visiting the United States.

In ceremonies in the U.S.

Senate, Sam Boyd, president of the Union Plaza, signed an agreement with the United States Travel Service of the Department of Commerce in which he pledged that many employees of his hotel would be able to speak a variety of foreign languages.

Offering New Mutual Funds

PERSONAL FINANCE
NOW A MUTUAL
BASED ON BONDS
By CARLTON SMITH

Why should you keep your spare money in a savings account, paying 4½ or 5 percent, when the highest interest rates since the Civil War have pushed yields on good corporate bonds to 8 percent and more?

Well, there are several reasons why the average family which has accumulated some reserves can't find its way to the table where the juicier melons are being cut — and that's why a new mutual fund, investing solely in bonds with good yields, is now being offered to the public.

Why haven't family savings been going into the bond market? First, this is where the game is played for big stakes. Bonds sell in "round lots" of 100 — and at $1,000 a bond, that means you're an odd-lotter unless you have $100,000 in your pocket.

Besides all this, the small investor discovers — some-times too late — that buying bonds can be just as tricky as buying stocks. It's easy to make serious mistakes.

So, the public may want bonds, but the public doesn't get many bonds — and Henry Neuwirth, who has successfully launched two mutual funds in recent years, decided to do something about it with a bond fund. A bond fund, Neuwirth Income Development Co., is not exactly unique — shares in 40 or more are now being publicly offered — but Neuwirth thinks his new fund is different enough to appeal to some new investors.

● It carries a low-load sales charge — 1½ per cent. With only a few exceptions, including one no-load fund, the major bond funds charge the usual 8½ per cent.

● Shareholders receive a monthly dividend check. NIDCO is the only low-load fund paying monthly, rather than the traditional quarterly dividends. Neuwirth thinks this will have special appeal to retired persons and others who depend on income from savings and investments to help cover living expenses.

● Through automatic reinvestment, dividends can be plowed back into your account to buy additional shares or fractional shares, giving the investor monthly compounding of his yield. As of early September, that was 7¼ per cent — and Neuwirth points out that, in terms of long-range results, 7¼ is twice as good as 5 per cent. (The interest on $1,000, compounded monthly, in 15 years amounts to something over $1,000 at 5 per cent — nearly $2,000 at 7¼.)

What happens to the investor if interest rates keep climbing and by next year we're seeing, not 8 per cent, but 10 per cent?

A Longer Life

By DON OAKLEY

There is no reason why the life of a human being could not be extended to 150 or even 200 years, says a prominent Soviet scientist.

The key to understanding and ultimately controlling aging is to learn more about the chemistry of cells, the building blocks of life, according to Dr. Ysakh Yenalyev, dean of the faculty of chemistry at Donetsk State University in the Ukraine.

Interviewed during a recent visit to the University of Akron, Yenalyev predicted that the secret of prolonging life would be found "in our life time." (Yenalyev is 43.)

By interesting coincidence, a few weeks later another prominent Soviet scientist warned of the growing threat to civilization in the increase in wealth and leisure time.

The technological revolution has already produced signs of social decay in highly developed capitalist countries, says famed physicist Peter Kapitsa. He goes so far as to suggest that not even the Soviet Union will be immune to the process.

"Young people, not having to fear for tomorrow, lack the necessity to fight for their existence and this gives rise to a situation in which they face no problems that require their strength and will," he says. "All this, taken together, deprives the life of young people of any permanent inner substance."

Thus, says Kapitsa, they have turned to sex, narcotics and cheap entertainment to keep busy.

It would be ironic if just when science was on the verge of discovering the fountain of youth (or of postponed senility), the generation which stood to benefit the most from it lost its taste for living at the ripe old age of 25 or 30.

SUE-DQCTOR LIST NOT PRACTICAL

It's claimed that one reason behind the soaring cost of medical care is the readiness of some people to sue at the drop of a surgical stitch.

To protect himself against the ever present possibility of a malpractice suit, the prudent physician covers himself at every available test and X ray, even though he knows some are unnecessary, prescribing lengthy observation in hospital and calling in specialists.

Tired of practicing such "defensive medicine" because he has no way of telling which patients are litigation-prone, surgeon Gen. Dr. B. Markle IV of Carlisle, N.M., has developed a counter plan.

Complete medical records, he suggests, are "made up" and would require visits to a lawyer who had even sued a physician to sue a physician. It would be similar to the "redneck" reports doctors already see.

A physician could "sue" the first "redneck" who attempts to sue a physician, he says. The patient would be "suecept in a genuine emergency, he would give him the full treatment.

This would be more expensive and more troublesome for those on the list, admits Dr. Markle, but it would be more than compensated for by the savings it would allow to other doctors.

As one of his ideas, and one on which he "sue" immediately, he says.

Next, he says, is to sue a "redneck" who sues a doctor, is "sue" and "sue" doctors. God given "redneck" and some people say "redneck" doctors.

Dr. Markle's medical society has a complete list of "redneck" doctors, even if it is "redneck" and "redneck" doctors. "Redneck" doctors find themselves in a "redneck" doctors' "redneck" doctors.

Meet The Lawn Doctor

This doctor is a specialist. He treats only one kind of ailment: sick lawns. If your lawn isn't a picture of health, and if you're plagued by the frustrating failures of nursing a ravaged lawn, you ought to give the Lawn Doctor a call now. First, he'll make a thorough diagnosis. Then he'll fill out a prescription. A treatment of custom-blended lawn building ingredients dispensed precisely by automated machinery. The cost is less than a few dollars, less than torturous do-it-yourself methods. But The Lawn Doctor brings you the best results. Call the Auto Lawn Doctor, and he'll be with you on your way to a more beautiful and healthy lawn. He also starts new lawns.

Aquino of Farleigh Makes Statement

The following is the text of a statement made by Mr. Oscar Aquino at Fairleigh Dickinson University in Teaneck on Aug. 10. Mr. Aquino is the Wayne Township Health Officer. He has been active in public affairs for many years and has held several state offices concern with the public's welfare. The statement deals with Chapter 15 of the N. J. Air Pollution Code.

My name is Oscar Aquino and I am president-elect of the New Jersey Public Health Association, a private non-profit voluntary organization whose membership includes physicians, dentists, veterinarians, pharmacists, nurses, health officers, sanitarians, public health administrators and scores of consumers interested in public health matters.

Objectives of the organization include:

- The promotion of health services on state and local level.
- The awakening of citizen interest to the serious public health problems of our state.
- The encouragement of interest by citizens in local health activities, and
- The promotion of professional health careers among the young.

I also appear today as the health officer of Wayne Township, a municipality in Passaic County with a population of 49,300 most of whom are quite familiar with the various hazards of driving daily on some of the most congested highways and roads of this state. As a health officer I have a more-than-average interest in this question of controlling and prohibiting air pollution from gas-fueled cars.

But first I want to dismiss the idea that the New Jersey Public Health Association or Oscar Aquino, Wayne Health Officer, are presuming any engineering expertise on how to control car pollution. The association simply endorses the concept in the interest of better health and will leave the technical arguments to the technically competent.

But we aren't Johnny-come-latelys in calling for car pollution controls. I think it should be mentioned in this connection that the late president of the

New Jersey Public Health Association, Denton Quick, appeared at a hearing of the Clean Air Council on March 26, 1969 and, among other things, he made this recommendation: that continuous generous funding be made of the research into control of the emissions of dangerous gases and air contaminants from the automobile — our biggest polluter.

There is no mystery in the health professional's case for cleaner air through reigning in the automobile. The evidence has been mounting on the causal connection between auto exhaust and the respiratory illnesses.

What we have known for years about carbon monoxide is that it is lethal... and if you want to call it a "killer", that's okay with us for all you need are the right connections. And we leave it to the experts to argue the tolerable levels of hydrocarbons out of your tail-pipe.

We in health prefer the evidence of Los Angeles on one of those just-right-sunny days with everyone tooling along the freeways, pouring the hydrocarbons into a photochemical smog. How many lung cripples and emphysema sufferers head for the hospital on those glorious days in L.A. we wouldn't know. They never take an accurate head count.

'Children's Faces Looking Up Holding Wonder Like a Cup---'

Such is the sight you would see should you enter into the Methodist Nursery School in Wayne any Monday, Wednesday, or Thursday morning from middle September through early June.

This church sponsored, non-denominational nursery school is located at 99 Parish Drive in the Methodist Education Building and is the happy habitat of some twenty children from 9:00 until 11:45 three mornings a week. This school is accredited by the New Jersey State Department of Education.

Overlooking the group are two qualified teachers, co-directors of the school, Mrs. Howard DeVold and Mrs. Hermann Menninghaus.

Since this is a cooperative nursery school, the mothers assist on a daily basis—each taking her turn helping with wraps, serving snacks, and assisting the teachers in various other useful ways.

Besides the necessary free activity period, there is also a music program and art program. An outdoor play area is equipped with slide, sandbox, jungle gym plus tricycles and cars varying in sizes and colors.

Different times during the year trips are taken by the class to visit such places as the farm, the library, the firehouse and other points of interest to delight and further educate the pre-school child.

Holidays and birthdays are celebrated and an end of the year program is presented by the children for the benefit of parents and friends.

The school is run by an able committee consisting of a president, a registrar, a secretary and a treasurer and with the help of each and every mother who in some way gives of her time to make this, the Methodist Nursery School in Wayne, the excellent school it is.

Creative Crochet

By LILA SCHNEIDER and JANE DERRYBERRY

This attractive pantsuit reflects a quiet elegance that should appeal to any fashion-conscious female. The delicately scalloped edges and flattering U-shape neckline are formed of Tr crochet and shells, making an attractive but simple hem. As an added bonus, this pattern can be duplicated in various forms to suit your wardrobe needs and tastes.

For example, it can go from a stunningly simple floor length after dark dress to midi, mini. Or it can show up on the court as a tennis dress.

For those who are in step with fashion, it can be interpreted in a micromini to wear over hot pants. Included in the instructions is a secret formula for shaping the pants so that the fit is tailored.

Practically anyone would appreciate the expertise exercised in the construction of this suit or dress, or those of the do-it-yourself caliber, this is a great way to obtain the handcrafted look at a fraction of the cost.

To order Pattern No. 303, send $1.50 plus 15 cents for postage in check or money order to Creative Crochet, (name of your paper), Box 4564, North Hollywood, Calif. 91607. Please print your name, address, ZIP code and pattern numbers plainly.

(If you have a question on knitting or crocheting, please send it to Creative Crochet in care of this paper.)

Delinquents: They Can't Make The Squad

(Last of Two Related Articles)

By TOM TIEDE

UPPER SADDLE RIVER, N.J. (NEA)—The other evening I was at a playing field in this community, my community, watching some very young boys at football.

It was not the pickup, giggly, split-lip shennanigan game of my youth. It was the organized practice of the Upper Saddle River Pee Wee Football Program.

The 8-9 year-old children were dressed in splendid uniforms and low-cut cleats. They were employing 20 pages of memorized offenses in a regimented, rather silent scrimmage. And they were strictly supervised (one coach for every seven boys) by adults who would alternately yell and whisper and plead and scold (Question: Is anybody out here tired? Answer from panting kids: "No sir!").

On the sidelines there were other children. Also uniformed. But skinnier than those on the field, or not as good at passing or blocking or whatever. They were substitutes. And one of them, picking his fingernails, looked up at me to ask:

"Hey, when do we go in?" I didn't answer. Because if I had it would have hurt. The truth is the boy and his buddies might never go in. They are in plain fact too skinny, or not as good at passing or blocking or whatever. Some of them will likely turn out the entire season, work and sweat, but get to play only briefly at the end of regular games.

And they'll be disappointed at that.

And they may quit football forever.

And that may be too bad for all of us.

Juvenile delinquency is out of control in this community, and the rest of the nation as well. Local police spend most of their time worrying about the 13-18 year old residents. On the national level, the FBI says juvenile arrests have doubled in a decade to 1.7 million a year—four times as fast as their population growth.

It is, in short, a period in history when any kids who drop out of any youth activity should be cause for anguish. Because once they drop out, they do not easily drop back in. And their chances of decorating police blotters are increased.

But instead of minimizing the drop-out possibility, it seems that society all too often contributes to it. The nation, young and old, loves good kids but ignores the rest. And so youth activities are formed to include only those children that measure up ("No smoking, no jeans, no long hair"). Kid clubs began on the premise that dumbbells are not allowed. And even sports—that is, especially sports—is based entirely on the principle of the survival of the fittest, when the crying fact is it is the not-so-fit whom we most need to reach.

Robert Foster, deputy commissioner of the federal government's Office of Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Development, puts it this way: "I certainly agree with competition among young people. But it should be a secondary consideration. The prime factor in a youth activity should be their individual development. I don't think it should be of great importance if some of them strike out more than others."

Yet as it is, striking out is of great importance in youth activities. And the Upper Saddle River Pee Wee Football Program is an illustrative example. It is not unlike thousands of other such programs in the nation. Football, basketball, baseball kids are organized as they have never been before. There are more than 2 million Little League baseballers in some 50 countries in the world. And though all this is fine for some, it can sometimes be destructive to others.

The idea in Upper Saddle River, as everywhere else, is to win. Not play. Not have fun. Win! The kids don't really care about it so much, but the coaches do. And in fact the coaches care about it so much they have altered the game to that purpose. Pee Wee football players do not play their own game. They play their coaches' game. The coaches are allowed on the field during competition, the coaches call all of the plays. And so in a sense if the team loses, the coaches lose, and whereas kids don't care about such things, adults surely do.

"Jones! You're loafing. Take a lap. Take two laps."

And so it is that here, as elsewhere, hot competition begins for the 8-9-year-old Pee Wees as soon as they begin practice

(three weeks before school opens, often twice a day). A kid soon learns that the game is no game as he knows games. He learns that the coaches concentrate mainly on the first 11 players, give a bit of attention to the second 11 and ignore the rest. He learns that if he doesn't make that first 11, or 22, he'll be spending his Saturdays on the bench. And he learns that sitting on a bench is no fun and makes a guy wonder what's the use.

Recently, I talked with a boy who learned these lessons well and bitterly. He's 14. I found him on my property, at 1 a.m., high on marijuana and looking for a window to break. Before I sent him home, we talked for a long while. "Well," he said at one point, "I used to turn out for football, but I quit. I never played. Nobody paid attention to me. They won most of their games, though."

I'm told this boy is in trouble. His parents are worried. He runs away from home. He does poorly in school. He is frequently questioned by area police. Sad. It is very sad. They won most of their games, though.

Upsala Vikings Ready For Arch-Rivals

EAST ORANGE — If one super-effort deserves another, then Upsala football coach John Hooper should be looking forward to Saturday's annual "Lutheran Bowl" contest with arch-rival Wagner at Upsala.

The Vikings launched the 1971 season last Saturday with a 13 to 7 victory over favored Drexel University. Wagner lost to C. W. Post, 21 to 14.

Hooper isn't letting the results of the two games lull him into a scene of complacency.

"We won by a super-effort and it will require another to defeat Wagner," the Upsala coach said. "The Seahawks are a strong team and whenever we play them in any sport, all kinds of fireworks take place."

Both line-ups will be studied with New Jersey players. Wagner's running threat is tailback Jack Kachadurian of Franklin Lakes. Its senior flankerback is Alonzo Brandon of Montclair and its senior offensive guard is John Farnell of Edison.

Upsala's line-up will include ace receiver Joe Scarpelli of Midland Park; halfback Ted Ciesla of Wallington who scored a touchdown in last Saturday's victory; linebacker Dwight Mitchell of Orange; fullback Ed Krupa of Edison who kicked an extra point in the Drexel game and corner-back Fred Byrne of Westfield.

Reflecting on last week's contest, Hooper had special praise for freshman Bill Cerullo of Wayne who played at the tight end position.

"He's one heck of a ball-player," Hooper said of Cerullo. "He caught a 38 yard pass in the last quarter at a crucial time in the game when we were trying to keep control of the ball after we went ahead."

The sale of season tickets for Seton Hall University home basketball games has begun, Rev. John J. Horgan, athletic director, announced today. Films of the team's games will be available to season ticket holders.

An invitation to meet Coach Bill Raftery and his squad at a pre-season practice and cocktail buffet will also be included with admission to ten home games, highlighted by contests with the University of California at Irvine, Lafayette, Fordham, Army and Providence.

Wayne PAL Takes Three

CHIEFS ROUT RAIDERS, 24-0

Exploding for three touchdowns in the third quarter, the Wayne Chiefs routed the Packanack Raiders, 24-0, in the final game of the triple-header. Although the Chiefs outplayed the Raiders during the first half, their scoring was limited to 6 points when PAL safety

Lou DeLaura ran back a Packanack punt 60 yards for a TD. Midway through the second quarter Al Cassera passed to Carmen Saginario for what seemed to be a second score only to be nullified by a penalty and the Chiefs were forced to settle for a 6-0 half-time lead.

Wayne took the second half kick-off on their own 34 and marched 46 yards to pay dirt in nine plays. The series was highlighted by halfback Dave Spisak's four carries, the last for 13 yards and 5 points through the middle of the Packanack defense. Two more TDs were added in quick succession by the Chief's defensive unit via interceptions. The first came with 1:45 left in the third quarter as linebacker Jim Engelert picked off a Raider pass on the losers' 30 and outran four Raiders for the score.

During the next Raider series Wayne's Ken Zukoll intercepted a side line pass and without breaking stride, scored untouched from the Packanack 25-yard line for the Chiefs' fourth touchdown of the game and scored within one minute.

Coach Ralph Vigorito put in his second unit for the final quarter. Packanack then mounted its longest drive of the game as they marched 33 yards in seven plays to the Wayne 13. But the defense stiffened and forced Packanack back to the 20 where a fourth and 15 pass was deflected by Wayne's Tim Convery giving Wayne the ball on their own 20. Steve Nerone, now at quarterback for the Chiefs, engineered a drive of nine plays, hitting on three of six passes, one each to Cliff Zwerver, Ralph Vigorito and Scott Holliday down to the 2-yard line as the clock ran out. Final score: Wayne 24, Packanack 0.

The PAL Warriors and Chiefs will host Kinnelon at Parish Oval Saturday, October 2, at 9 a.m. The Braves travel to Pompton Lakes on October 3 for a Sunday contest at 1 p.m.

BREAK AWAY—An unidentified Packanack back gets away from the first line of the PAL defense on Sunday in the Mayor's trophy game. The Pal gridders didn't let it happen often as they handed Packanack three losses.

DePaul Continues Winning Ways

Young Spartan Squad Brings 13th Straight

WAYNE — DePaul coach Fred Keil may have a team that's younger than springtime, but it made fall guys of Bayley-Ellard in a Paterson Diocesan Regional League season opener at the Wayne Valley High School field, here Sunday afternoon. It was the 13th straight win for the defending PDRL champs.

With only four of the six returning seniors seeing action, the young Spartans overcame their mistakes to blank the Bishops from Madison, 13-0. Greg Marotta, a senior and one of the co-captains, put DePaul on the scoreboard in the first quarter when he blasted 17 yards up the middle for a touchdown. Joe Nugent, a sophomore, place-kicked the extra point.

In the second quarter, sophomore quarterback Dick Gott heaved a 22-yarder to junior end Gene Sullivan in the end zone for the Spartans' second TD of the day. Nugent's try for the point was blocked.

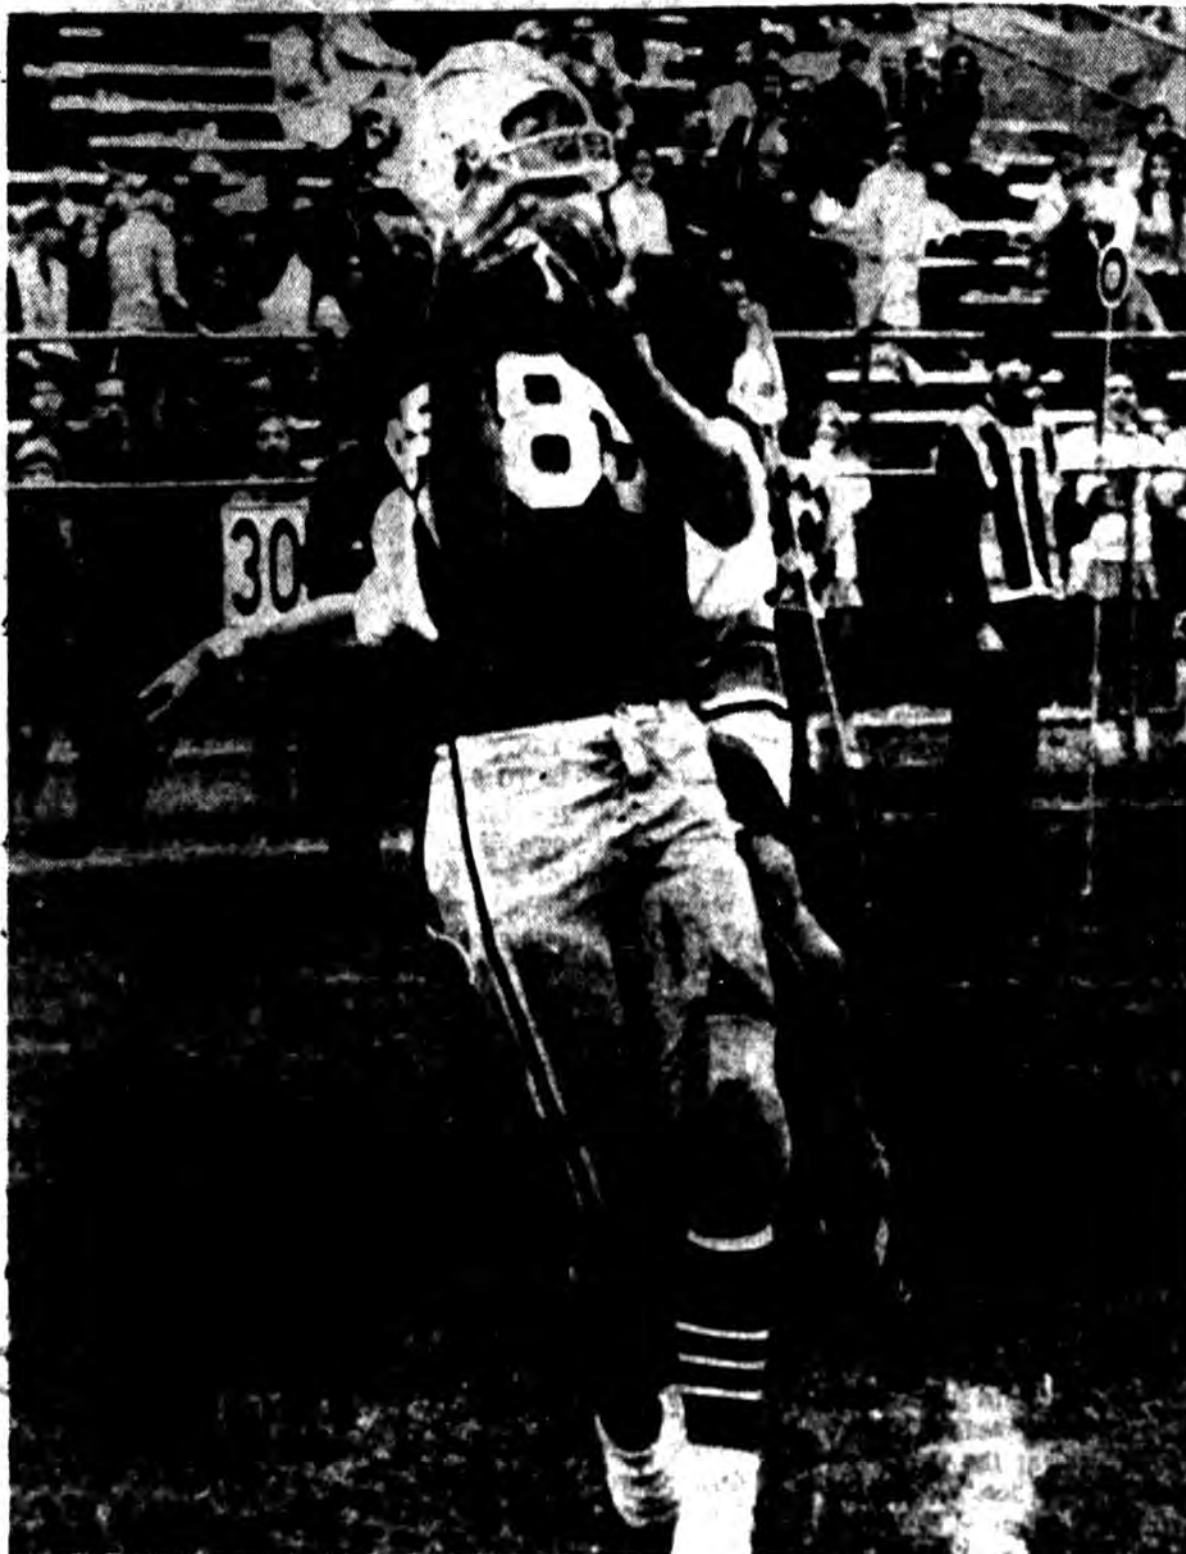

DePaul scored during the first series of downs it had the ball. Sullivan picked off a Frank Dolan pass and returned it 23 yards to give the Spartans possession at the Bishops' 43.

Gott threw a 17-yarder to Sullivan for a first down at the 24 and later handed off to Marotta, who slammed 22 yards in to pay dirt.

The Spartans had to travel 80 yards for their second TD. Dave Parker's left-footed punt went 33 yards before rolling dead on the DePaul 25. A five-yard penalty on the next play from scrimmage, put the ball back to the 20. Gott completed one of three passes in the drive, a 15-yard heave to Sullivan that was good for a first down at the Spartan 35. With the exception of a five-yard gain by Phil Klejbuk, a junior fullback, and a keeper that was good for 10 yards and a first down, Gott used the running of Marotta for the TD drive. Marotta, a 5:10, 170-pound fullback who was converted from a wingback, carried five times for 37 yards and two first downs to set the stage for Gott's scoring strike to Sullivan in the end zone.

Gott completed five of 13 passes for 70 yards, three first downs and a touchdown. He was not intercepted.

Bayley's Dolan, used the running of Dave Parker for his ground attack, hit on four of 13 passes for 28 yards and two first downs. He was intercepted twice.

TOUCHDOWN—An unidentified DePaul end scores in the second quarter against Bayley Ellard. DePaul now has kept its winning streak alive: 13 in a row.

Neumann Prep Harriers Split, In Opening Action This Season

By ACE JACKSON

WAYNE The harriers of Neumann Prep began the season on a mixed note this week when they trounced Morristown but fell to a strong Eastern Christian team.

The Wayne runners were upset by Eastern Christians, 29-28, in a duel which went down to the wire Monday afternoon. For their effort, Eastern Christian picked up their third victory against only one loss.

Jim Morro proved to be the strongest runner for the Wayne squad moving under the wire in 12:44. He was followed closely by his teammates Hans Goebel and David Piccoli.

Neumann's strength in the second, third and fourth finishing positions, however, was not great enough to offset a diversified Eastern Christian squad.

In the match yesterday afternoon, however, Neumann drubbed the harriers of Morristown in a 32-24 effort. The winning combination of Morro-Goebel-Piccoli proved to be too much for the opposition which wasn't able to send a man under the wire until 40 seconds after Morro.

Neumann will move into action again October 5 when they travel to Englewood.

The Prepmen were state champions in cross country last year, but lost much of their strength for this season due to graduations.

Wildcat Soccer Team Scores Fourth Win

by JOHN TIERNEY

WAYNE The Neumann Prep soccer team took its fourth consecutive victory this season in a strong 4-3 win over Morristown.

The boosters controlled the ball for most of the four quarters, sending the opposition's defense into a deep formation. On defense, Neumann proved to be more than equal to the challenge with Neumann's goalie, Jim Klein, having to make only four saves for the entire afternoon.

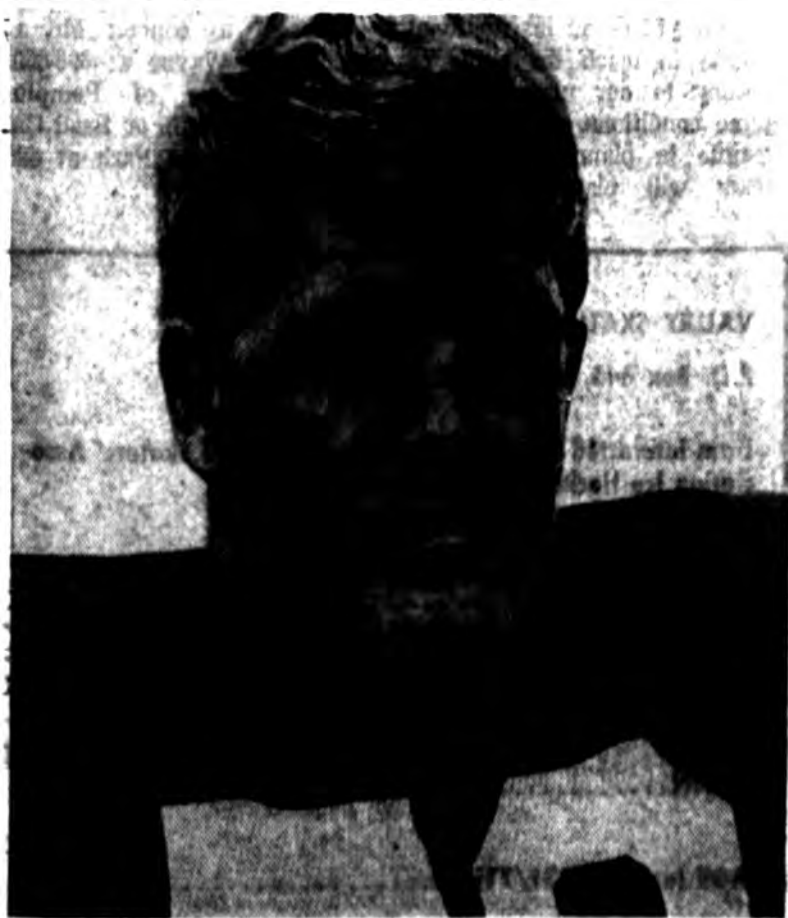

Neumann's scores came in the second and third periods after break aways were picked up by Chris DuHaine, Tom Redman, Larry Michalov and Rich Novak.

Morristown was held scoreless until the middle of the third period, however, Neumann was able to contain their opponents to pull out the win.

In previous matches, Neumann tumbled St. Bernard, High Point and Rutgers Prep.

Pre-season predictions about the team from Wayne were unimpressive, however, the strong coaching of Jim Menary has turned the team into a strong contender for the state title in that division.

Wayne PAL Takes Three From Pack

LAWRENCE & PONSONBY— WAYNE PAL

The Wayne PAL swept all three games against Packanack Lake on Sunday at Wayne Hills High School for the Mayor's Trophy. In the first game the 8 and 9 year old PAL Braves beat the Bonecrushers, 14-0. In the second game the 10 and 11 year old Warriors topped the Packanack Lake Panthers, 13 to 0. In the final tussle the 12 and 13 year old Chiefs completed the sweep by a score of 24-0 over the Packanack Lake Raiders.

BRAVES TOP BONE- CRUSHERS, 14-0

After a scoreless first quarter when neither team could move the ball, Wayne took over on a punt at their own 21-yard line. On the third play, Tom Potosnak scampered 58 yards on a double reverse for the TD. Quarterback Craig McConeghy dove over for the PAT and a 7 to 0 lead.

Packanack took the kick-off but on the third play Vince Caruso intercepted a Steve Foulds pass at the Packanack Lake 30-yard line. A clipping penalty thwarted a Wayne drive and the half ended 7-0, Wayne.

Wayne took the second half kick-off on their own 30-yard line. Seven plays later Craig McConeghy found Terry Davis in the open and the pass was good for 38 yards and a TD. Ken Christian's fine block wiped out defenders at the 10-yard line giving Davis a score. Again McConeghy dove over for the PAT; a 14-0 lead, then the defenses took over. Twice Packanack Lake was forced to punt after failing to move the ball. The third time they had But Mike Dodds picked off off a Foulds pass at the mid-field stripe. Wayne drove 32 yards in eight plays to the Packanack 11-yard line as the gun sounded.

WARRIORS EDGE PANTHERS, 13 TO 0

Wayne took the opening kick-off on their own 35-yard line and marched 41 yards in six plays to the Packanack four. On the seventh play of the drive, Tommy Vigorito swept over for the TD only to have it nullified by an offside penalty. Three plays later quarterback Ted Payne found Jack McConeghy in the end zone and the 6-yard pass was good for the TD. Vigorito's PAT attempt failed giving Wayne the lead at 6 to 0.

Packanack took the kick-off and started driving downfield, nack's Jim Schneelock recovered Geoff Tierney's pass to give Wayne possession on their own 21. Seven plays later Packanack's Englert picked off a Raider and a Wayne fumble on the Packanack 20 to thwart a Wayne drive.

Again Packanack was held on downs and forced to punt. Tommy Vigorito gathered it on his own 38 and turned it into a spectacular TD as he raced and bulled his way around and over the defenders' 42 yards to pay dirt. Kevin Convery's PAT made it Wayne 13, Packanack Lake 0.

QUICK RELEASE—PAL's Quarterback lets one go against Packanack. All day the Packanack boys had trouble stopping Wayne PAL.

Valley Skaters Need Boys

Boys Between the ages of 11 and 18 inclusive who are interested in playing hockey are invited to tryouts with the Valley Skaters Hockey League. This year the Valley Skaters will be organizing two ice hockey leagues.

The senior league for boys

15 to 18 years of age will start early in October with tryouts planned for Sunday, October 3 afternoon. Present plans call for this league to consist of eight teams. Games will be played Thursday and Friday nights with practice ice time on Sunday afternoons. Each team will skate at least once per week and twice per week when a practice is scheduled.

The younger league is being established for players between the ages of 11 and 14. This league will be an instructional league to teach the skills of hockey to our players under game conditions. A four team league is planned and each team will play on Friday nights and Saturday afternoons. The teams will be organized into lines based on age, size and skill.

The complete schedule will be played on the new regulation sized arenas of Ironbound and Kennedy. Each player will be registered in the AHAUS (Amateur Hockey Assoc. of United States) and will be insured through the same organization.

Boys who have questions concerning either program are requested to contact Mr. G. Addley of Wayne at 696-6502, Peter Dufour of Pompton Plains at 833-5679 or Basil Galgano of Lincoln Park at 696-6481.
