Councilmen shoot down pistol range

BY JOANNE C. HANLON

WAYNE — Police Chief Joseph Alvino was not convincing enough for Councilmen Joseph DiDonato and James Russo, in his bid to relocate the Police Department's pistol range.

Alvino went before the council this week seeking authorization to construct a $150,000 200 foot by 75 foot area, with water, sewers and electric, in order to provide a "safer" environment for the officers to qualify with their shooting.

Alvino explained the present site at Babour's Pond near the Calvin Klein plant, is not safe for his men, who fire into a sand pit, nor for the people in the area who jog or walk their dogs. This present site has been the department's pistol range for the last 23 years.

Alvino brought along Richard Sorrentino of the National Rifle Association (NRS) who said the present site was "unacceptable" according to NRA standards. When Sorrentino said he visited the proposed new site, located behind the P.A.L. Building and North Cove Park, he riled Russo. "Did you smell the sewage plant, see the township garage, the recycling center, and the fire school, all of which affect my residents?" Russo asked. When Sorrentino said he did not, Russo retorted "Now you are asking this councilman who represents the police department and the residents who put him here to allow a pistol range there beside all the other problems." He said the fire school building was only supposed to be used a few times per year but now is used weekly, and everytime the hydrants are opened, residents get brown water.

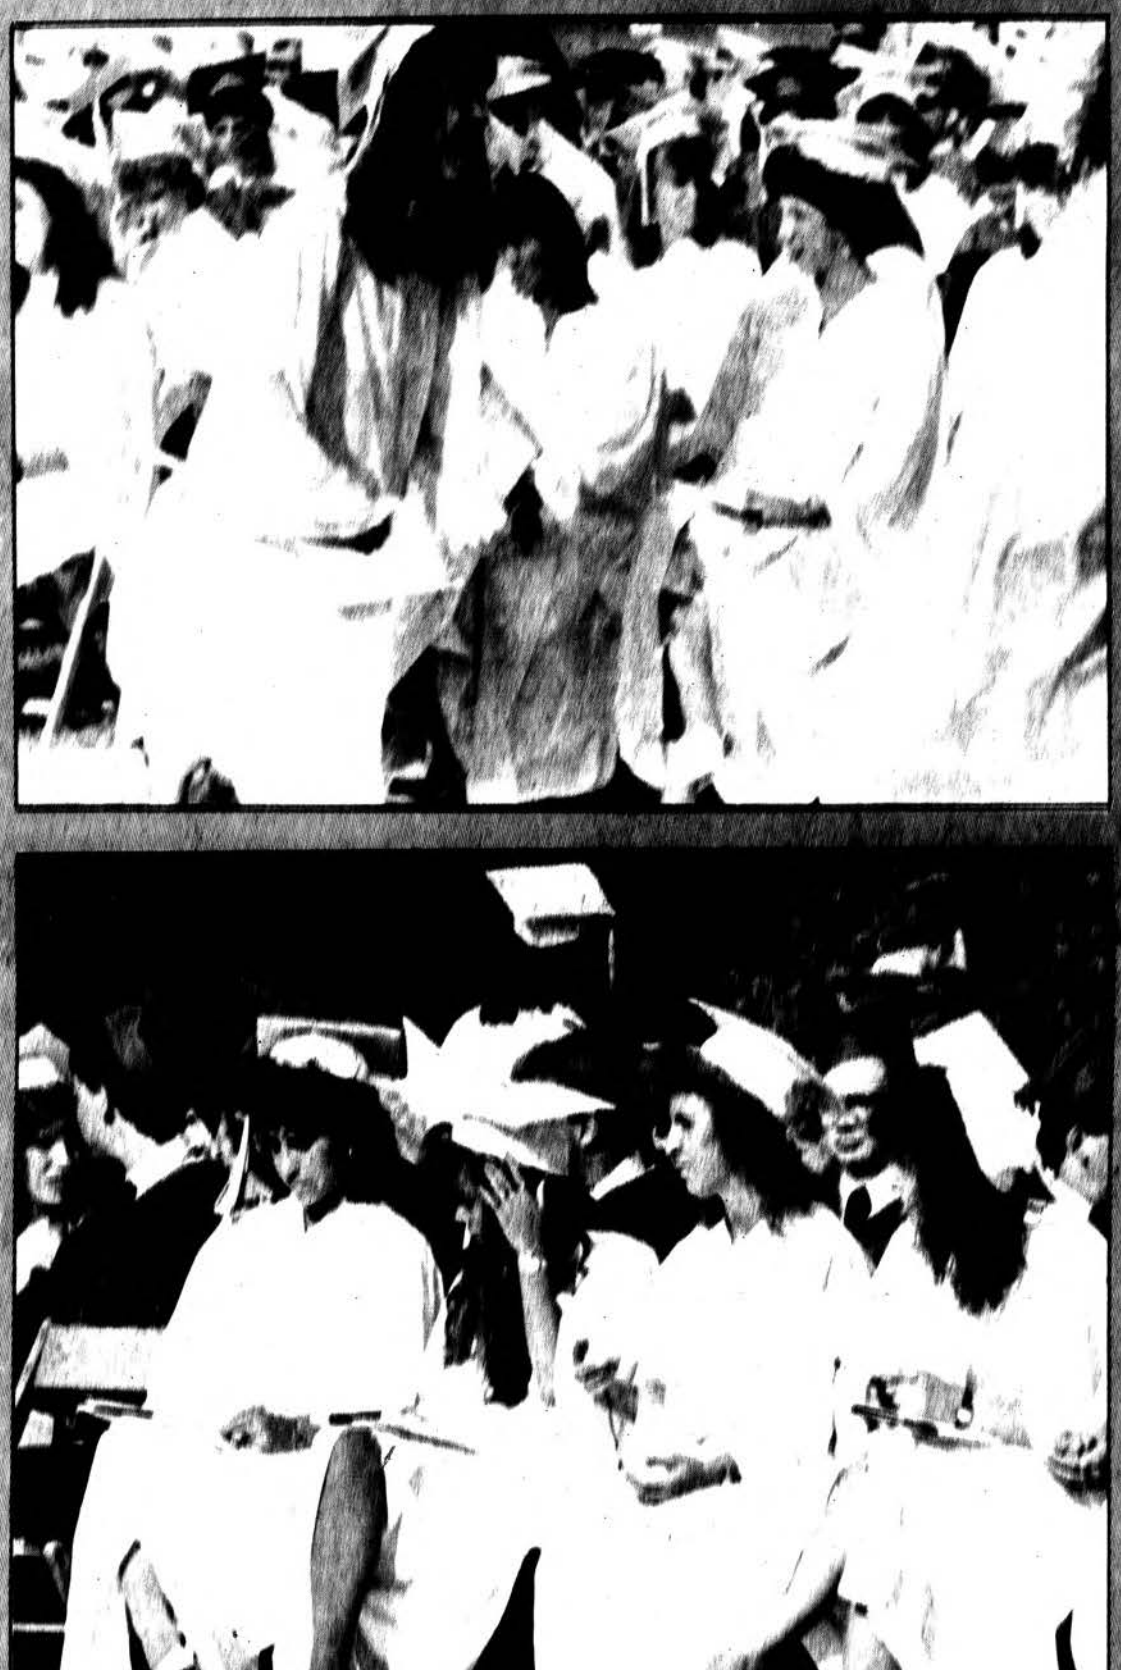

DiDonato, who noted he very rarely agreed with Russo, did this time. He questioned why water, electric and sewers could not be added to the present site along with the new structure, a 15-foot walled and buffered area, and a classroom. The township presently owns that property, which prompted DiDonato to ask "Is there a consideration of selling the land off or proposals from someone who may want to build it?" He received a negative reply.

Councilwoman Annette Barone asked for information from Riverdale concerning an indoor range used by the police and others, which pays for itself. Alvino said that was not a consideration because of cost.

The location of the present site is 900 feet from the Calvin Klein plant. The new site would be slightly closer to neighboring homes in the area of Lewis Street, Parish Drive and Westervelt Avenue.

Russo said he would have to advise his ward residents of the situation so they could come to the June 30 council meeting and voice their opinions.

Vandalism at station is probed

BY JOANNE C. HANLON

WAYNE — Attacks on the cars of commuters by vandals last week at the Mountainview Train Station prompted former Councilman Bert Tucker to pass out flyers to commuters asking for help from the township to stop the vandalism.

"Windshields were smashed and hoods severely dented on three cars on Thursday, Tucker's flyer said. "This is only the latest. Vandalism has become so common that you and your car have probably been victimized. If you have been lucky enough to escape, you are on borrowed time." It urges commuters to contact elected officials and provides phone numbers for all.

First Ward Councilman James Russo, when asked if he had been contacted regarding the incidents, replied negatively. He did acknowledge however, that there has been an ongoing problem with "kids throwing stones" in the area, adding he has known about it for sometime. "Show me a way to stop it" Russo said, adding that $535,000 has been received from New Jersey Transit for the new Mountainview Train Station and parking lot, including new lighting. "It is a real problem maintaining the lot," Russo said.

However, a different reply came from Wayne Deputy Police Chief William Monzo that afternoon. "The flyers were not directed to the Police Department but to politicians. We don't have a crime problem down there," he said. He confirmed, however, the area is being given extra attention.

At that evenings council meeting, Police Chief Joseph Alvino told Councilman Michael Krause, who asked about the problem, that the department did not have enough manpower to stay at the site, but he acknowledged that rocks are being thrown from railroad tracks. "We will put people down there on an interim basis," he said.

Business Administrator John McClellan said he did not doubt a lot of incidents took place but that he would only acknowledge those incidents reported by police records. McClellan, reading from the agreement between Wayne and the New Jersey Transit, cited the fact that the town's responsibility is to control traffic for commutors during peak periods. Nothing is said regarding security, other than what is provided for the rest of the town.

Krause said parents and citizens should bring a positive attitude to their children and have them behave in an appropriate manner. He said he would favor restitution and possibly community service if a juvenile is caught.

According to statistics from the Wayne Police Department, criminal mischief to autos was reported at 719 for 1985, dropping to 620 for 1986 and rose to 780 incidents in 1987. Thefts from motor vehicles in the township rose from 759 in 1985 to a high of 1078 in 1987.

Miller, vets see end in battle with state for park

BY DOUG LANG
Staff Writer

WAYNE — Some efforts do pay off.

Assemblyman Newton E. Miller (R-34th) told TODAY that a bill he sponsored, A-1920, that appropriates $90,000 to the township, was favorably considered and released by the Senate County and Municipal Government Committee in Trenton on June 16.

It now must be voted on and passed by the full State Senate before going to Governor Kean for his final approval.

Under Miller's bill, the township would receive a grant to improve property along old Route 23 in the Mountain View area of Wayne. The property, which was turned over to the township several years ago under an agreement with the New Jersey Department of Transportation, will be used for additional parking facilities for Mountain View area shoppers and for a Veterans Memorial Park.

The property is adjacent to Wayne American Legion Post 174, whose commander, Wally Lech, has joined with Miller in his efforts over the past two years to get the state to allot the township the funds needed for such a project. However, previous bills sponsored by Miller for that purpose have been rejected by the Senate.

The Assemblyman is more confident this time. "I've worked dilligently for the passage of this bill and I'll continue my efforts to bring $90,000 to Wayne as quickly as possible."

If and when the township gets the money "it will be used for plantings, park benches, and similar items which will create a park-like setting in addition to much needed parking facilities in this area," Miller said.

"This site," he continued, "is especially significant to Wayne's history because early government was conducted at this location. Not only will this proposed park and parking facilities complement the Mountain View Restoration Project but it will help to preserve some of Wayne's heritage."

Miller also said that Lech and the members of Post 174 will make the "Veteran's Honor Roll," a plaque listing the names of deceased members of 174 members a permanent part of the proposed park. "A place of remembrance will be created where visitors can reflect upon the freedom and remember the men and women who served our country."

Wayne, Wanaque impose water use restrictions

BY BETH WINKELMANN
and DOUG LANG
Staff Writers

Wayne and Wanaque have begun water use restrictions for their residents. As of yet, no other towns in the TODAY area have started similar bans.

Effective June 20, Wayne imposed a 90-day water restriction for residents. The rationing is taking place under an odd-even system; buildings and homes with odd numbered addresses may use water for sprinkling lawns, shrubbery, gardens and other non-essential outdoor uses on the odd numbered days of the month; even numbered addresses may use water for the same purpose on even numbered days of the month.

Charles Moeller, township superintendent of water and sewers, said "Hopefully, people will abide by the system--if they do, we should make it through the summer all right."

Moeller added that the township is a lot more fortunate than some neighboring communities. "Basically, residents can use water in whatever manner they choose on their allotted days. We probably won't have to go on a full-fledged water ban like some other towns have, as long as everyone obeys the current restrictions."

In the short time the rationing has been in effect, "people seem to be cooperating," said Moeller.

Wanaque borough administrator Kevin Boyle says the rationing will continue through September. "In order to keep up with the demands of water, we decided it was wise to go to the odd-even system."

The optimum use of borough pumping stations is 18 hours a day, Boyle says. Recently, the four borough pumps have been operating around the clock.

"We have the availability of water, that's not the problem. We just have to give the pumps a rest at some point." Having residents with even-numbered houses water their lawns or wash cars on even-numbered days, with odd-numbered days being set aside for odd-numbered residences will, hopefully, provide that rest, Boyle says.

"The mayor (Angelo Cutillo) said he would give the okay for a full ban on outside water use, if necessary. But our people say we're doing fine, we are holding our own."

In Wayne, charts indicating the status of the township's water supply were distributed during Wednesday's council meeting. The levels of the Oldham Road and Indian Hills water tanks during the first three weeks show pronounced increases in the amount of water being used each day that high temperatures continue. The annual average daily use is 4.8 million gallons, the graphs showed. However, during the week of June 15, it was 10.1 million gallons per day.

Project could help fulfill Mt. Laurel obligation

Developer offers senior housing for Nellis tract

BY JOANNE C. HANLON

WAYNE — Land/Toombs Development Co., told the planning board it is willing to help build senior citizen housing on the Nellis tract. Mayor Louis Messercola said the reality of the development could be only 18 months away.

Scott Toombs and Peter Van Ord of the Urban Renewal Development Company said they would commit to the actual construction of 80 senior citizen units if they were "on a level playing field with other developers." The developers view this as their committment to helping Wayne fulfill its 1,000-unit Mount Laurel obligation, which can include senior citizen housing.

Cooper/Toombs, which is developing more than 50 acres of its own property and six acres of urban renewal, does not have residential housing included in that plan, only five luxury office towers. Toombs committed an eight-man construction team to actually building the units. "We are willing to do this to make this a better place," Toombs said.

Messercola said he was "thrilled" with the agreement, but added "I've been thrilled before." He said he would like to see township residents served first but he is not willing to go into the "construction business."

"We are looking for the construction industry to build it for us, they can do it cheaper and quicker," he said.

According to Mount Laurel regulations, approximately 25 percent of Wayne's 1,000-unit allotment, or 250 units, is deemed for seniors.

First Ward Councilman James Russo, leery of all the proposed development activity in his ward, publically applauded Messercola for his efforts. Russo said he views the Cooper/Toombs project a "pure ratable." He said it will not be drawing on any municipal services but will bring approximately $3.5 million in ratables into Wayne.

At the special meeting, board member Francis Boyle asked what would happen if Cooper-Toombs were standing alone, without the joint venture with other urban renewal developers.

Messercola said that would not happen because the township is presently putting together a formula for the fulfillment of Mount Laurel that will be used by all future developers in the township. Specifics for that formula have not been released.

Town attorney warns council not to link contributions from developers to project

BY JOANNE C. HANLON

WAYNE — The issue of Mount Laurel housing has more plot twists than a soap opera.

Township attorney Ronald Breslow told the council of a new Appelate Court ruling on Mount Laurel that is so recent that his copy is only days old.

Presently the council is embroiled in negotiations with developers looking to beat the state on the wetlands issue and deal with a 1,000-unit Mt. Laurel housing obligation at the same time.

Breslow explained the ruling in the case of Nunziate, Keller and Acciardi versus the Planning Board of Edgewater, May 19, is that, in his interpretation, it is improper for a township to consider approval or disapproval of a project based on contributions for affordable housing from a developer. He said determination must be made on merits of the project, not contributions to be made. He warned the council if discussions consider that facet, it could "jeopardize the application." He said, "I think you should back away from seeking conditions."

Breslow said discussing contributions of money to a municipal trust fund to purchase units elsewhere would be a disadvantage.

Race is on to beat cutoff before July 1 wetlands law

BY JOANNE C. HANLON

WAYNE — Lincoln Properties, Cooper-Toombs, and Farcal Realty came to the council this week looking for preliminary site plan approvals on their urbvan renewal tracts.

The developers are attempting to beat out the deadline for tougher wetlands restrictions scheduled to go into effect July 1. The plans will be up for a council vote June 30.

Attorney Michael Breslin representing Spyros Lenas and Farcal Realty, proposing to build retail, commercial and residential housing at the cloverleaf of Routes 80, 46 and 23, said his client would make a fair contribution to Wayne's Mount Laurel effort. Breslin said however, he was not prepared to specify exactly what that contribution would be.

He said his client's sole purpose for coming to the council was to seek preliminary site plan approval because of the impending restrictions that would impinge on the development of the project.

Breslin was angered by the suggestion of council members to condition the mixed-use proposal. "To attach it as a condition of approval won't fly. It hasn't been advertised or given a public hearing. This attempt is extortion and blackmail to get a condition at this time." Breslin admitted, to the surprise of council members, he had just received a copy of the Mixed-Use Zone from the new master plan and has not had a chance to digest it. "I'm not sure senior citizen housing is what everybody wants. But my client is going to do something," he said.

Master Plan Committee member Stephen Gerber urged the council to pass the Mixed-Use ordinance so it can be applied as soon as possible.

Marshall Tischler of Lincoln Properties - Kelied-McBride where all housing units as planned, said it was "critical" for his project to get preliminary site plan. "The Department of Environmental Protection will be putting up whole measures (for wetlands) that haven't been created yet." Urban Renewal Director Tom Lauricella chastised the council saying "You can go with reality or you can go with Walt Disney."

Scott Toombs spoke about his meeting the night before with the planning board and is also looking for the approval.

Mayor Lou Messercola, a member of the planning board, told the council the preliminary site plan could be approved with conditions to be added later, but final site plan cannot be denied once preliminary is granted.

Tischler asked the council to impose conditions on his project now if they desired.

The council appointed a committee of Harry Folan, Donald Rainey, and Michael Krause to meet with the township representatives and developers' representatives to come up with a workable solution before the vote next Wednesday.

Car stereos plucked from eight autos

TOTOWA — Police arrested two Paterson men who allegedly broke into eight cars early Thursday morning in the borough's Echo Glen section.

Alfred Cortez, 23, and Allen Hernandes, 22, were arrested by Patrolman Carl Cifaldi shortly before 5 a.m. Cifaldi observed the pair walking in the roadway and carrying something wrapped in their shirts. "They were found in possession of car stereo equipment from three different thefts," said Detective Daniel Ramm.

Ramm said Cifaldi was on patrol when he spotted the pair. He said none of the car owners had been aware of the break-ins.

The pair was charged with possession of stolen property. Ramm said additional charges against them are pending until further investigation is completed.

Totowa police are currently looking for a third person involved in the auto burglaries. Ramm said this third suspect is believed to have driven a car while Cortez and Hernandes allegedly commited the thefts.

Alumnus raises record ruckus at PTHS

POMPTON PLAINS — A visit to his alma mater prompted a summons on June 21.

Police say Walter Todd Smith, 22, presently of Virginia Beach, Virginia, was arrested at Pequannock Township High School for causing a disturbance.

Ptl. Daniel Balunis was called to the high school around noon by school officials after Smith had requested a copy of his high school records. "When they asked him to sign a release, he refused, and began making loud noises, and yelling and carrying on," Lt. John Reeves said.

Police said Smith was kept in the lock-up, and then transfered to St. Clare's Hospital for psychiatric observation.

Teen loses control of car, lands in brook

BLOOMINGDALE — An 18 year old resident lost control of her car on Glenwild Avenue near Kampfe Lake.

Susan Wilson, 18, was driving an 1988 Chevrolet Baretta when "she went off the road into the woods, and wound up in the brook there," said Sgt. Donald Fagan.

Two juvenile passengers, aged 16 and 17, were also injured in the accident. All three were brought to Chilton Memorial Hospital by the Tri Boro First Aid Squad for treatment of head injuries.

Ptl. Mark Gildersleeve is investigating the accident. "Wilson stated in that she was traveling too fast, going north on Glenwild Avenue, she went into a sharp turn and lost control of the vehicle," Fagan said.

The report also said that the car turned completely around, after hitting trees, and came to rest in the river. Fagan said Wilson received three summons, for careless driving, having alcohol in the vehicle, and for one insurance verification.

Radar devices reported stolen

KINNELON — Two radar detectors were stolen in the borough.

On June 22, Shawn Harron, of Lake Hopatcong, and Mark Nachman, of Kinnelon, reported that radar detectors, valued at $90, were stolen from their vehicles parked on Hill Top Road. According to Det. Elmer Bott, the men were working on a house in the area between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m., when the thefts took place.

Ptl. Jeff Pinkssaw is investigating.

Bike-car sideswiping injures boy

KINNELON — On June 22, at 8:15 a.m., a bicycle collided with a car on William Lewis Arthur Drive.

As a result, a 13-year old boy received lacerations requiring ten stitches, an arm broken in three places, and numerous abrasions.

The accident occured on Morris County Park Property. Park police issued several summons to Karl Ludwig, 18, of Kinnelon, the driver of the silver, four-door 1985 Honda which collided with the boy.

The summons were for failure to report an accident, and leaving the scene of an accident. Det. Elmer Bott said "Both vehicles sideswiped each other."

"There is a very steep hill at the entrance to Silas Condict Park, and the young man had a tough time on his bicycle," Bott said. Ludwig stopped to help the boy, and asked another driver coming up the roadway, to help the boy and take him for some help.

"He left and continued up into the park. At no time did Ludwig or the other vehicle that transported the boy call the police. We were notified when the father called us," Bott said. Ptl. Greg Driscoll is investigating.

Unregistered ATV, suspended driver in accident

WAYNE — A 23-year-old man was taken to Wayne General Hospital in serious condition after losing control of his four-wheel all-terrain vehicle and hitting a tree.

Deputy Chief William Monzo said that Patrolman Eugene Seitz responded to the scene at 47 Clifford Drive on June 22 at 4:43 p.m. His investigation revealed that Darren Terhune of Passaic Street in Rochelle Park had been driving with a suspended license and no insurance and that the vehicle was unregistered.

Terhune was brought to the hospital by the Wayne First Aid Squad.

DWI-charged, woman pulled from car fire

WAYNE — Marianne Geosse, 17, of South Road in the township was taken to Wayne General Hospital with head injuries and charged with drunk driving after losing control of her 1982 Chevy and striking a telephone pole on June 23.

Patrolman John Costable investigated the accident which took place at 2:22 a.m. on Black Oak Ridge Road near Wendi Lane said Deputy Chief William Monzo. Two passers-by, Tim Tryon of Franklin Lakes and Don Bepler of West Paterson, pulled Geosse out of the car which had caught fire. The telephone pole was also ignited, temporarily knocking out service in the 600 block of Black Oak Ridge Road.

The fire department extinguished the flames and Geosse was taken to the hospital by the Wayne First Aid Squad where she remians in fair condition.

Heart attack is fatal for man at dance

WAYNE — A 65-year-old man collapsed and died of an apparent heart attack during a dance held by the Parents Without Partners organization at the Wayne Manor on June 21.

Fred Tescatore of Richfield Park was pronounced dead on arrival at Wayne General Hospital after the first aid squad and police department arrived at the scene at 10:49 p.m. said Deputy Chief William Monzo.

Arrest made on drug charge

RIVERDALE — Patrolman Charles Quant arrested Horst Hops, 24, of Pompton Plains on drug charges on June 22.

Dispatcher Cheryl Marion said Quant stopped Hops after observing him drive from a wooded area in a pick-up truck with two passengers. Further investiation revealed that Hops was in possession of marijuana.

Quant brought him to police headquarters where he was given a summons for possession of less than 50 grams of marijuana.

Boro gets a boot up on fire equipment

BY AL SULLIVAN

WEST PATERSON — Business administrator Alfred Reda said that bids for the purchase of fire equipment have been reviewed, and seven out of 10 bidders had been selected to meet the borough's needs.

"We got a very good price," Reda said, pointing to the boots, which cost $165 per pair two years ago. "This year (the boots) cost us under $160." Reda said part of this was due to the quantity ordered. The borough is to purchase 80 pairs.

Packanack pothole probe becomes political potboiler

BY DOUG LANG
Staff Writer

WAYNE — Was the repairing of some potholes politically motivated?

Mayor Louis Messercola says no, but Council President Harry Folan and Councilman David Waks said they feel the fixing of potholes by township road crews at the Packanack Lake Country Club last week was motivated in part by the mayor's desire to "get in good" with voters in the township's Third Ward.

In 1985's mayoral election, Messercola lost the ward, which includes Packanack Lake. "I would think if we were going to go on private property, there should be some public purpose," Waks said.

Folan also pointed out that the repairs came at the same time the township was repaving the Packanack Elementary School parking lot, "something I expected the school board to pay for."

Messercola responded, "The administration helps everyone. If what I did is wrong, then it's wrong."

He added that he had not checked with township attorneys to find out whether he was violating any laws in approving the filling of the potholes because "I believed I was doing the right thing."

The repairs were done to make the lot suitable for the club's annual block party scheduled for June 25.

The mayor has defenders. Third Ward Councilman Donald Rainey said the accusations from Waks and Falon are tantamount to a "witch hunt." He said the country club shares its parking lot with a post office and two businesses. "That's quite differen from repairing the driveway of a private residence," he said.

Township Business Administrator John McClellan said, "We've been fixing the Packanack club's parking lot for years."

McClellan continued, "I have no intention of billing them for a few potholes." He said the cost of fixing them was minimal and that he has no cost estimate for either those repairs or the repaving of the school parking lot.

"Hopefully we haven't violated any laws," Messecola concluded, referring to the work the administration has allowed to be done.

Township attorney Ronald A. Breslow and assistant attorney Holly Stern said they wouldn't be able to provide legal opinions on the matter until they had researched the question at a township official's request.

Paterson PCT students booked for brawling

WAYNE — Police arrested one Passaic County Technical High School student on June 23 and four on June 24 for fighting.

Deputy Chief William Monzo said a patrol car was dispatched to the school, located on Reinhardt Road, on the 23rd between 10 and 11 a.m. after police received a call from the school about a disturbance involving some students. A Paterson juvenile was brought to police headquarters and released to the custody of his parents.

On June 24 at approximately noon, police who were stationed outside the school witnessed another skirmish. This time four juveniles, also from Paterson, were being detained at the police station until their parents arrived.

Three police departments lodge charges against man

LITTLE FALLS — An 18-year-old Paterson man was charged with various crimes by three different police departments on Friday, June 24 after a spree which ended in a car chase down the streets of Little Falls.

It began at 10 a.m. in Paterson when Christobel Sanchez allegedly snatched the purse of an unidentified Totowa woman who had parked her car and was walking to work. Since the purse contained her car keys as well as forms of identification with her address on them, she contacted Totowa police, fearing that Sanchez would attempt to rob her home.

Upon his arrival at the Crew Street residence, Totowa Patrolman Dennis Blakeley saw Sanchez pulling out of the driveway in the 1977 station wagon and gave chase down Crew Street onto Route 46 East.

Entering Little Falls, Blakeley radioed for assistance where Little Falls Patrolman Richard Stryker joined the pursuit. During the chase, Sanchez hit 10 parked cars on Ames Street.

The officers set up a road block where Sanchez rammed Blakeley's car and then escaped on foot. Blakeley and Stryker finally apprehended Sanchez when they found him hiding in a brook behind the former Little Falls Laundry on East Main Street.

Over $2,000 in merchandise belonging to the woman was found in the stolen car including a television, a VCR, and a compound bow.

Sanchez was booked on the following charges: robbery, burglary, theft, possession of stolen property, various traffic violations, and aggravated assault for ramming Blakeley's car.

Patrolman Blakeley was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in Paterson with minor injuries to his arm.

Interim superintendent to be named in Wanaque

BY DOUG LANG
Staff Writer

WANAQUE — A search for a new Superintendent of Schools is underway but business continued as usual at Tuesday's Board of Education meeting.

Board members went into executive session at the conclusion of the regularly scheduled workshop meeting to discuss a replacement for Margaret A. Fischer who last week announced her resignation effective June 30. Before doing that, though, the board motioned to approve amendments on various policies which will then be passed at June 28's meeting.

Set to be revised are district policies on qualifications for being a board member; the evaluation of district administrators; ceremonies and observances such as saluting the flag and recognizing holidays; homework; and reporting cases of suspected child abuse. The revisions in all the policies are minor, simply a matter of amending existing rules and regulations in order to bring them up to date in accordance with state board of education regulations.

At the regular meeting's adjournment, school business administrator Mary Sweeney said that an interim replacement for Fischer will be announced at the meeting of June 28. She also confirmed an item on the agenda that an executive session was also scheduled to further discuss the matter.

The district is seeking retired superintendents from area school systems to temporarily fill the position while the board searches for a permanent replacement. "That may take as long as four or five months," said Fischer, "but the board is trying to shorten it."

Fischer, who has been with the district since 1985, said that she is leaving to pursue a doctorate at Rutgers University.

LASER SURGERY
THE RIGHT WAY TO TREAT MANY FOOT PROBLEMS

The Surgical Laser is one of the most significant medical advances in years. Instantly vaporize damaged tissue associated with warts, ingrown or fungused nails, certain types of corns, callouses and other common foot disorders. Problems that can be treated with the laser almost never return and laser surgery allows for a much faster recovery than conventional techniques. Patients can usually walk out of surgery, free of pain, and resume normal activities the very same day.

At North Jersey Podiatry, Dr. Klein has been a leader in the clinical application of the surgical laser in Podiatric Medicine. Laser Surgery is just one aspect of his modern practice. Dr. Klein employs only the latest ambulatory surgical techniques for the in-office correction of hammertoes, bunions, or bone spurs and other debilitating foot problems.

CARNEVALE IN OAKLAND

ENJOY THE 3 MOODS OF ITALY

Overflowing Portions, Creative Preparations, and Modest Prices

by Gail Gerson, CTN Cable TV News Reviewer. Editing Design by Tim Brimbele.

Your choice of three dining rooms are available in this lovely spot with its wood and brick decor and skylighted enclosed garden. Each of the rooms have their very own unique charm and atmosphere. The cafe is perfect for sipping Cappuccino and dining on a light dish or some of Carnevales homemade pastry. The garden room is wonderful for large parties to gather for a business lunch or a family party. For more formal dining where two can dine in privacy in a most romantic atmosphere, the center dining room is truly most impressive.

Each day of the week this extremely popular restaurant is full of loyal patrons experiencing a new dish off of the extensive ten page menu that offers such traditional delights as Tortellini Bolognese, Veal Valentino, Chicken Oreganata, and my favorite Calamari Marinara. Carnevale has the finest selection of imported pasta's available along with their very own homemade pastas. Seafood lovers should try the Lobster Arragado (A whole Maine Lobster with clams, mussels and calamari, marinated and sauteed in a lemon sauce), or the Shrimp Mediterranean. Steak lovers will surely appreciate Carnevale's Sirloin Steak Pizzaiola, and Prime New York Cut Steak, truly mouthwatering. Each dish served at this dining gem comes in generous sized portions, that are so large you'll take home what you could not finish for the next days meal. Remember to set aside some room for the sinful desserts such as their homemade Cannoli, Spumone, and Cheese Cake.

N.J. offers pass for nature lovers

Assemblyman Gerald Zecker announced recently that this summer the state's Division of Parks and Forestry is offering the New Jersey State Park Pass, which will permit free parking in areas that do charge parking fees.

The fee for the New Jersey State Park Pass is $35. "A frequent visitor to the State Park System could realize a significant savings over the course of the summer," said Zecker.

Parking fees range from $2-$5, depending on the park and time of the week. "Island Beach State Park, for instance, charges $5 to park on weekends and $4 on weekdays," he said. Parking at all parks is free on Tuesdays.

Possession of a New Jersey State Park pass does not guarantee admittance to park facilities that have been closed when the parking areas have been filled to capacity.

Zecker said that the New Jersey State Park system includes 36 State Parks, 11 State Forests, five recreation areas, 24 historic sites and 38 natural areas. "Our park system is one of the largest in the country, encompassing more than 300,000 acres. The park pass is a great was for New Jerseyans to get out and enjoy our state," he said.

"The State Park System offers opportunitites for swimming, picnicking, boating, hiking, fishing or touring nature trails or historic sites," he added.

Information about state park service areas or about the New Jersey State Park Pass is available at any state park service location or by calling the Trenton office at (609) 292-2797.

Pisarz powered Lakers to state tennis crown

BY DAN BREEMAN
TODAY SPORTS EDITOR

BUTLER — On a team loaded with young talent, Jason Pisarz fit right in as part of the Mountain Lakes High School state champion tennis team this past spring.

The 15-year-old freshman from Butler moved into the talented Lakers' lineup as the second singles player and along with the rest of the team, enjoyed an outstanding 1988 season on the court. Pisarz helped the Lakers win their first state crown since 1974.

"It was a lot different (playing on a team) than what I was used to playing," said Pisarz, who scored the deciding victory in the Group 1 state final title match against Haddonfield. "I'm used to playing tournaments where there's a lot more individual pressure. But here, everyone plays as a team."

And the Lakers' certainly did this year. The Morris County school posted a 19-2 record and broke a four-year state tournament jinx when they topped Haddonfield in the final, 3-2. In that match, Pisarz scored the decisive victory when he topped Dan Hitchcock in straight sets.

"Jason really came through for us in that match," said Mountain Lakes head coach Mickey Ferguson. "It was one of the best matches he played all year and it allowed us to finally beat Haddonfield for the state championship."

As an eighth-grade student last year, Pisarz competed in 14 tournaments. This year, in addition to his heroics on the Mountain Lakes squad, he has taken part in three local tournaments for players 16 and under and has won all three.

"Winning those three tournaments helped my game and gave me confidence," said Pisarz, who finished the high school season with a final record of 20-6. "I won eight straight high school matches after one of the tournament wins."

Pisarz decided to attend Mountain Lakes because of its rich tennis history and also for its fine academic reputation.

"I went because of the tennis program and because it's one of the best high schools in the area," said Pisarz. "I want to get into a good college when I graduate."

Moving into a lineup that won the a sectional title in 1986 was no easy task for the freshman, who showed what he could do on the court at second singles this year.

"I thought I would be playing second singles," said Pisarz, who played behind first singles teammate Kyle Cicchetti. "I'm hoping that maybe next year I'll make first team all-conference. The fact that Mountain Lakes has a rich tennis history really didn't bother me that much."

And what did Pisarz see as the key to the Lakers success in his rookie season?

"The team had no weak positions," said Pisarz, who began playing tennis at the age of 6. "We had a good solid team and the doubles were really good too."

And next year's team should be just as strong. The Lakers graduate only first doubles player Eric Jandorf from their lineup. Returning will be all three singles players, one of the first doubles players and the unbeaten second doubles team of Rene Kathawala and Steve Buechman.

The Lakers only two setbacks of the season came against Colonial Hills Conference rival Chatham Borough, a team which they later beat in state play and powerful Millburn in the all-groups state tournament.

This summer, Pisarz plans to work more on his game as he will be taking part in "five or six tournaments."

In addition to the experience the young tennis star gained through playing on a state champion and in outside tournaments, Pisarz also qualified for the state singles tournament which was held earlier this month in Hamilton Township. The event brought together the top high school players in the state.

In the tournament, Pisarz won his first and second-round matches in straight sets before bowing to Chris Gambino of Christian Brothers Academy in the third round. Gambino, a nationally-ranked amateur player, was the eventual champion of the tournament.

"It was a really good learning experience," said Pisarz. "He is one of the best players around."

So is the Butler resident, who in his freshman season has already proven that he belongs among the premier players in the state.

TENNIS TALENT — Mountain Lakes High School freshman Jason Pisarz, a resident of Butler, helped the Lakers' tennis team win its first state championship since 1974 this past spring. Pisarz compiled a 20-6 record at second singles and also won two matches in the state singles tournament earlier this month. (TODAY photo by Dave Levitan)

Giants, PBA aid burn victim with benefit softball contest

RINGWOOD — Several members of the New York Giants football team tried their hand at a new sport recently when they took on members of the Ringwood and Wanaque Police Departments in a benefit softball game at Happ Field.

The game, which featured such gridiron stars as Joe Morris, Jim Burt, George Martin, Lionel Manuel and Lee Rouson, was a benefit to aid the medical expenses for 7-year-old Nicole Wilson, who survived an electrical shock while climbing a tree. Wilson was badly burned in the accident.

The Giants came away with a 15-14 victory in the well-played, seven-inning game. Several home runs were hit in the contest by both teams.

The lead changed hands throughout the game. In the top of the fifth inning, the Ringwood team held an 8-6 lead before the Giants stormed back to tie it at 11-11. In the top of the seventh, the visitors took a 15-13 advantage.

In their final at-bat, Ringwood was able to score one more run but the Giants held on for the 15-14 victory.

More than 700 tickets were sold for the benefit game, which provided the fans with a chance to see some of their favorite Giants while helping out Nicole Wicks.

Other Giants' participants included Dave Wilson, Mick Black, Terry Jackson, Brendon McCormack, Jerry Kemp and Gary Kemp.

Playing for the Ringwood team were Robert Anderson, ANthony Calabrese, Kevin Daly, Bernard Lombardo, Richard Manchur, Paul Rothlauf, Richard Smith, John Sowskinas, Joseph Sullivan, Gary Armitage and Red McDowell. The team was coached by Armando DiMusico and Arthur Baker. Also playing from Wanaque were Robert Jordan and Terry Baker.

Game coordinators were Jack and Andrea Weaver. Jack Weaver in a teacher and softball coach at Paramus High School. Several Paramus High School students were also in attendance, helping to collect tickets.

The Ringwood First Aid Squad, which is seeking volunteers, treated several youngsters who suffered cuts and bruises during the event.

Another softball game is scheduled for this afternoon at 2 p.m. at Happ Field in Ringwood. Tickets will be available at the gate as you enter. The same Ringwood team will be taking on the CBS All-Stars with Jim Jensen.

For additional information, call Tommy's Texaco in Ringwood at 835-9720.

CLAMBAKES FOR TWO

Our Clambakes for Two are so fresh, they sell like hotcakes.

You'd have to travel far and wide to find all the fresh ingredients for one of our Clambakes for Two.

The 18 Little Neck Clams are from Long Island's Great South Bay. The two Lobsters are from Tenants Harbor in Maine. The three ears of partially husked Summer Sweet Corn are from Florida. And the pre-steamed Baby Red-Skinned Potaotes are from California.

So let Tom Rachel, Bob Bollard and our other Seafood Corner associates at Kings in Wayne prepare a Clambake for Two just for you.

The cooking pot is layered on the bottom and at the top with fresh Maine rockweed. The Little Necks are neatly packed in a mesh bag. And once you take home your Clambake for Two, you can refrigerate it for as long as 24 hours.

Then just add a cup and a half of water before cooking and allow either 25 minutes for an indoor range or 40 minutes for an outdoor grill.

And if you have a large gathering in mind, think about our Clambake for six.

Like our Clambakes for Two, they're yours to order and ours to prepare in almost no time at all.

Weekly Health Tip

NUTRITIONISTS

Likely you don't need a nutritionist. However, if your are overweight and unable to lose pounds on your own, or if some medical problem such as diabetes, high cholesterol, hypertension, or a high-risk pregnancy requires a special diet, your physician may suggest a specialist to arrange a diet for you. As there are no license requirements, anyone can call himself a "nutritionist", thus it pays to ask for a referral from your doctor, hospital, or local health department.

Your nest egg could be more than you ever dreamed.

U.S. Savings Bonds offer opportunity without risk with a new variable interest rate and minimum guarantee.

You could always count on U.S. Savings Bonds. Safe and steady, they could help you build a nice little nest egg.

Now there's a big change. A new variable interest rate lets you share in the higher returns of the money market. A minimum guarantee of 7½% keeps it safe.

Since that's only minimum, joining the Payroll Savings Plan today could mean a bigger nest egg than you ever dreamed.

Just hold your Bonds 5 years or more for this golden opportunity without risk. It's something to crow about.

Salute

State Bar Assn. is flying high

The New Jersey State Bar Association has once again won the right to fly the red, white and blue C-Flag, the symbol of the President's Citation Program for Private Sector Initiatives.

The flag, which bears the slogan "We Can-We Care," recognizes outstanding contributions to the community.

The State Bar qualified for the 1988 C-Flag because of its statewide Mock trial Competition program for high school students. The program, which just completed its sixth year, will now be considered for the top 100 Private Sector Initiatives awards and citations to be presented by President Reagan at the White House in July. It won C-Flag awards in 1985 and 1986 as well.

Vinkara covers world of floors

BY JOHN WYZALEK
Staff Writer

POMPTON LAKES — The route to success has been a carpeted one for Vince and Karen Taporowski, owners of Vinkara Flooring. Or maybe it was tiled or hardwood.

The Taporowskis began their venture into the flooring business in 1975, when they sold remnant carpeting from a 2,000 square foot store on Wanaque Avenue. Today, Vinkara Flooring is housed in more than 18,000 square feet, which includes a warehouse, offices and a showroom.

The business has expanded its inventory to include specialty rugs, hardwood flooring, vinyl floor covering and wall-to-wall carpeting.

One reason for Vinkara Flooring's success has been Vince and Karen's commitment to the business they founded.

Vince recently returned from a weekend tour of flooring mills in Texas, Louisiana and Tennessee. He and his wife regularly attend the twice-yearly Atlanta Market for flooring retailers. "We try to keep up with the designs and the colors. All the samples in the store are the latest," he said.

The Taporowskis maintain the hectic travelling schedule to ensure that their stock has the best quality, lowest price and latest design. "If I get a call in the middle of the night to go to Georgia because the price is right for a carpet at that moment, I pack my bags and get on a plane," Vince said.

Vince and Karen are not the only business travelers at Vinkara Flooring. The staff is regulary sent on seminars offered by the manufacturers whose product the store carries.

When not travelling, the Taporowkis are busy overseeing every phase of their business's operation. Vince regularly travels to clients every morning to measure flooring for clients. "Whatever measures are schedule that morning I'll do it; whether it's for a living room or a for a new office building. Even if it's a pittance of a measure, I'll go out into the field and do it," he said.

Another important aspect the Taporowskis overses is the installation of the flooring they sell. "We employ all are our installers. None of them are sub-contracted out," said Vince. The installation crew currently has a staff of 15.

The area's thriving construction has been another factor for Vinkara Flooring's growth. "It's a split between commercial orders and orders for homes," Vince said.

Vinkara Flooring has won contracts for new homes, condominiums and businesses as far away as Bedminster. "That type of business is nothing you can advertise for; you earn it," he said.

Vinkara Flooring's success has posed one problem for the Taporowskis. "The problem with growing is that you can't see everyone involved," Vince admitted. Despite this hindrance he did say he does try to keep as involved as possible. "I'll do anything. If it's winter and the trucks are stuck in snow, I'll go and move them out," he said.

"It's hard work but that's business," he said.

If there is something Vince or Karen cannot fit into their schedule, they can depend on another family member to do it. "We employ a lot of family," Vince said. Some of the family members he cited are his son, Brett; a daughter, Stacey; and a future son-in-law, Tim Meehan.

"That has been one of the rewards. Now that the kids are grown, we can take some time off do to some of the things we never had the time to do before," he said.

Collusion action is applauded

The New Jersey State Bar Association applauds the action of Attorney General Cary Edwards in joining eight other states in a federal anti-trust suit against insurance companies for illegal collusion, New Jersey State Bar President Saul A. Wolfe announced today.

"In March the Association petitioned the Attorney General to investigate whether New Jersey should join in the federal anti-trust suit," said Dr. Wolfe.

"The culmination of this two month investigation in a federal lawsuit bears out what the New Jersey State Bar Association has always held to be true - that basic industry practices are to blame for skyrocketing insurance rates and the unavailability of coverage," Dr. Wolfe added.

In March the Association's Board of Trustees passed a resolution urging the Attorney General to take appropriate action. The resolution pointed out that for years insurance companies hav perpetuated the sham that so-called "frivolous lawsuits" were to blame for spiraling insurance premiums.

Bradstreet introduces students to first-job interview basics

HELPING STUDENTS PREPARE — The essential job interview is the topic explained by Bradstreet's Agnes Gomez, left, Jean O'Neill and Ronnie Hanclich as they spell out the basics for high school students.

TOTOWA — For the all-important first job, whether it be a part-time temporary job or the first permanent full-time job of one's career, the interview is vital.

Helping students to overcome their fears of the dreaded one-on-one encounter with the prospective employer has been the objective of visits to high schools and colleges in the area by consultants from Bradstreet Executive Search and The Temp Place located in Totowa.

Bradstreet and The Temp Place realized the need for giving information to students from the agency's point of view which, in turn reinforced the points the teachers had been making. Using skits to demonstrate the do's and don't's of conducting oneself on an interview and through open discussion, the students were given glimpses of the corporate world they'd soon be entering.

The presentations were conducted by Bradstreet Consultants Agnes Gomez, Ronnie Hanclich and Jean O'Neill and were received with enthusiasm and appreciation by both students and faculty.

Schools visited included Passaic County Community College, J.F. Kennedy High School, Paramus Catholic High School, Eastern Christian High School, Mary Help of Christians Academy, Eastside High School and Passaic County Tech.

Bradstreet and The Temp Place, headed by Ed Scerbo and Connie Martin, specialize in Accounting, Banking and Office Support in both a temporary and permanent placement capacity. Ed Scerbo is a CPA and formerly associated with Touche Ross and Company; Connie Martin, a professional in the personnel field is a former senior vice president with Accountants On Call.

Computer crime, abuse rises as security threat

Computer use in small business is on the rise and expanding. The notion that high-tech products are reserved for big business has been put to rest with the advent and affordability of the personal computer.

But with this growing use comes a new set of concerns for the small business person — computer crime and how to effectively control it through a security system.

Computer security is not just a concern for big business. Small businesses are as vulnerable, if not more so because they usually lack the financial resources or computer expertise to recover from computer crime and abuse.

Types of computer crimes and abuses that may affect a small business include: mechanical or electrical failures that can damage data or a firm's ability to function effectively; environmental hazards such as fire, flooding, or dust; theft of confidential data or money; accidental or intentional alteration or destruction of data or computer programs; theft or vandalism of equipment; and accidental misuse of equipment by employees.

Many small business owners think that computer security measures are too expensive or too complex. Not true. While some security practices are costly, many computer security safeguards are often simply an extension of good management and cost very little.

Steps to improve computer security for your small business are: identify the data and applications that are most significant to your business; schedule corrective measures; develop control measures such as:

—Administrative Controls
—Physical and Equipment Controls
—Information and Data Controls
—Software Development and Acquisition Controls
—Backup and Contingency Planning Controls

Communicate the security policy to employees both orally and in writing; and monitor the results. Check to see if policy is being followed.

While computer losses can be insured under coverages designed for general office contents, specialized policies covering computer security may be preferable and could be less expensive. Make sure to shop around and compare types of coverages and prices before purchasing insurance.

IT'S A COOL BUSINESS

WAYNE — McDonald's and Burger King has competition this summer as businessman David Vihonski has entered into a price war for beverages.

This four-year-old Wayne resident opened up an iced tea stand for $.03 per glass and when the day was through and it became time to tally up the profits, David decided that it was a very hot day to sit and sell iced tea at such a low price.

Here's hoping for moderate temperatures this summer so that Wayne residents can get a discount on drinks. Good luck to this young entrepreneur.

Me and My Pet

ANDRIA AND STORMY

KINNELON — Andria White, a second grade student at Kiel School is interested in dance, art and her favorite cat named Stormy. She writes:

"We got Stormy a year ago when he was six weeks old. He's a small tiger cat with long fur. He has a very strange cry that makes him sound like a baby lamb. Ma ma ma!

Sometimes he chases his tail down the stairs and ends up falling. And he likes to attack your toes and fingers sometimes. When he's naughty, he jumps up on the counter or table and knocks things over and steals food. Also, when it is time to feed our dog Buffy, Stormy comes running out crying for something to eat and tries to steal the dog food out of her dish. (Someday, he will be missing his head. Buffy is a large dog!)

My Mom took Stormy for a long ride one day and he found his way back home! Me and my sister were very happy to see him scratching at the backdoor because we love him very much.

OFF TO FRANCE!

KINNELON — Eagerly packing to go see old neighborhood pals, Nicole and Peter Tricarico are heading off to France to visit their friends Erica and Tucker Smith who left Kinnelon this year to live in Europe.

Nicole is a 7th grade student at Pearl R. Miller and enjoys dance, soccer, swimming, tennis, art and collecting porcelain masked dolls. This is her first trip to France and she's anxious to visit Erica, a close friend of hers since kindergarten. Peter, a fifth grader from Stonybrook School, has also been Tucker's pal since kindergarten and is anxious to find out if Tucker has Nintendo games! (Peter was one of the video games experts offering tips for Kids Today.) He also enjoys soccer and baseball and is an avid reader and writer.

Hoping to see all of the tourist spots in Paris, the Tricaricos are looking forward to staying in the huge chateaux in the mountains and visiting Erica's private boarding school.

Packing everything they thought they might need, Nicole said no to Peter's squishing a telescope into a suitcase.

"I believe the children should be entertained," said Ryan's mother Diane, a four-year resident of Wayne. She and her husband Jack have offered puppet shows and pony birthdays to their other children John, six-years-old and Jason, two-years-old. ARGENZIANO BROTHERS ARE SKATEBOARD WIZARDS

KINNELON — Ten-year-old Chris Argenziano has become such a skateboarding wiz, he's already on his second board.

Having purchased two top of the line pieces of equipment, he was introduced to the thrill of skateboarding on a Gonzales board and earned his own money to get a Mike McGill professional board. Why two so quickly? "I skateboard all the time!" he said.

Having practiced for seven months, Chris, a fifth grade student at Stonybrook School, has mastered such stunts as an ollie (traveling while the tail of the board is up), a 360 (board and body spinning), handstands while moving and jumping off homemade rocket air ramps.

Chris enjoys this summer sport with his eight-year-old brother Michael who "can do a handstand better than I can" says Chris. Michael, a second grade student at Kiel School, has been practicing for four months.

With no major spills to report, Chris said he is conscientious about where he practices and tries to avoid accidents.

"I love it," he said and is proud of the professional decals he has decorated on his prized possession, his board.

Joke of the week

Mrs. Setterfield's sixth grade students at Lakeside School stumped everyone but four-year-old Ashley Kehrier of Kinnelon with last week's joke.

Ashley knew that the reason the skeleton wouldn't cross the street was "because he didn't have the guts to do it." Congratulations Ashley.

Keeping Wayne a nice place to live is master plan goal

BY DOUG LANG
Staff Writer

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a six part series introducing Wayne's Master Plan to local residents. Mayor Louis Messercola and the council and the Planning Board are currently reviewing the Plan's policy report recently submitted to them by the Citizens Advisory Committee.

WAYNE — Keeping Wayne a nice place to live.

This simple goal is what lies at the heart of the purpose of Wayne's Master Plan. The Citizens Advisory Committee on Wayne's Master Plan and Zoning states in the introduction to their policy report "While some may view this Committee's recommendations as a dramatic departure from previous planning documents, in reality they represent a return to the traditional values on which Wayne was built. Decisive action must now be taken in order to prevent this community from deviating even further from those values on which it was built and which we still recognize as our own."

In March 1988, after a year of research and labor, this goal was set into action when the report was completed. In discussing the evolution of the Plan, it is first necessary to report how the input of Wayne residents affected the Committee's final decisions. For it is the residents who are ultimately affected by the results of the actions taken on the basis of the recommendations in the report.

In January 1987, Mayor Louis Messercola sent letters to seven township residents--businessmen and professionals--to form the Citizens Advisory Committee "to review the Master Plan and make revisions and changes." With the aid of Hintz Nelssen Associates, the committee's planning consultants, the Committee set about the task of studying and analyzing possible improvements in the following areas: development land, the environment, land use and zoning, housing, and transportation.

The Master Plan is nothing new--the State requiring that every municipality have one as a foundation for its future--in the sixties but this Committee's approach was. When the Plan was revised every five years the burden of responsibility was left to the Planning Board who, already busy, could not give the job the proper attention it merited. Thus most Master Plan policy reports were content with only dealing with the next five years until the next report was due. The current report not only takes Wayne up to 1993 in a detailed and orderly manner but beyond.

Early in 1987 Hintz-Nelessen used a research technique, the Visual Preference Survey, which determines the positive and negative impressions a community has of its land use pattern. Slides of 240 images, 60 percent from Wayne which were considered to represent a good cross-section of the various land uses and intensities currently found in the township were presented to an audience of 140 citizens in the auditorium of Wayne Valley High School.

The residents were asked to rate the value of the image in each slide from a scale of one to ten with the most positive images providing the ideal picture of Wayne for policy-making purposes. The survey determined that one area of great concern to residents is the preservation of the environment and open spaces--woods, parks, lakes and perhaps even increasing the amount of such recreational resources in the township. Wayne's roadways and traffic situations also garnered much attention in the survey with residents rating both areas among the township's worst problems.

A questionnaire, the Socio-economic and Land Evaluation Questionnaire, was administered jointly with the VPS. This was then followed in the spring and summer of 1987 by three open forums--two for the general public, one for businessmen.

In all three instances, the results contributed toward development of the recommendations in the Committee's final report. When it was presented to the Planning Board and Council in March 1988 it was with the knowledge that it contained, in essence, what the public wanted.

The largest part of the Master Plan, the township's housing and zoning policies, specifically its Mount Laurel obligations and future building plans for senior citizens and low income housing, will be the topic of the next article.

Deadline tomorrow for WGH medicare program

BY BETH WINKELMANN
Staff Writer

WAYNE — Senior citizens, are you tired of medicare cut backs?

There's something you can do to combat the decreasing trend in health aid. Tomorrow is the deadline to register for a medicare information exchange sponsored by Wayne General Hospital.

"This is part of a national campaign to get senior citizens to urge their legislators to stop further cuts in medicare benefits," says hospital spokesman Richard Jones.

Hospital president Justin Doheny will join other health professionals on June 30 to discuss answers to medicare questions posed by area senior citizens at half-day workshop. They will also offer advice on how to contact legislators and provide a sample letter that senior citizens can modify for their use.

The information exchange runs from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the hospital conference room, and is given at no charge for senior citizens.

"The legislature cut the medicare budget 34 percent," Jones says. "That's one of the reasons that hospitals cannot always serve the people, because they are not getting reimbursed properly."

Interested senior citizens may contact the hospital at 942-6900.

Children believe what their parents tell them.

Hewitt Plaza offers new variation with exciting office condominiums

WEST MILFORD — An office in the country is one variation on the American dream of a house in the country, and for those professionals who find that dream appealing, Hewitt Plaza — the office condominium project in rapidly growing West Milford, can be the answer to their office needs.

Sales are underway at the three-story elevator building in the Hewitt section of West Milford in northern Passaic County. The 15,000 square foot building offers offices ranging from 1,000 to 3,500 square feet, and at this stage, with interior construction underway, offices can be built to suit customer needs.

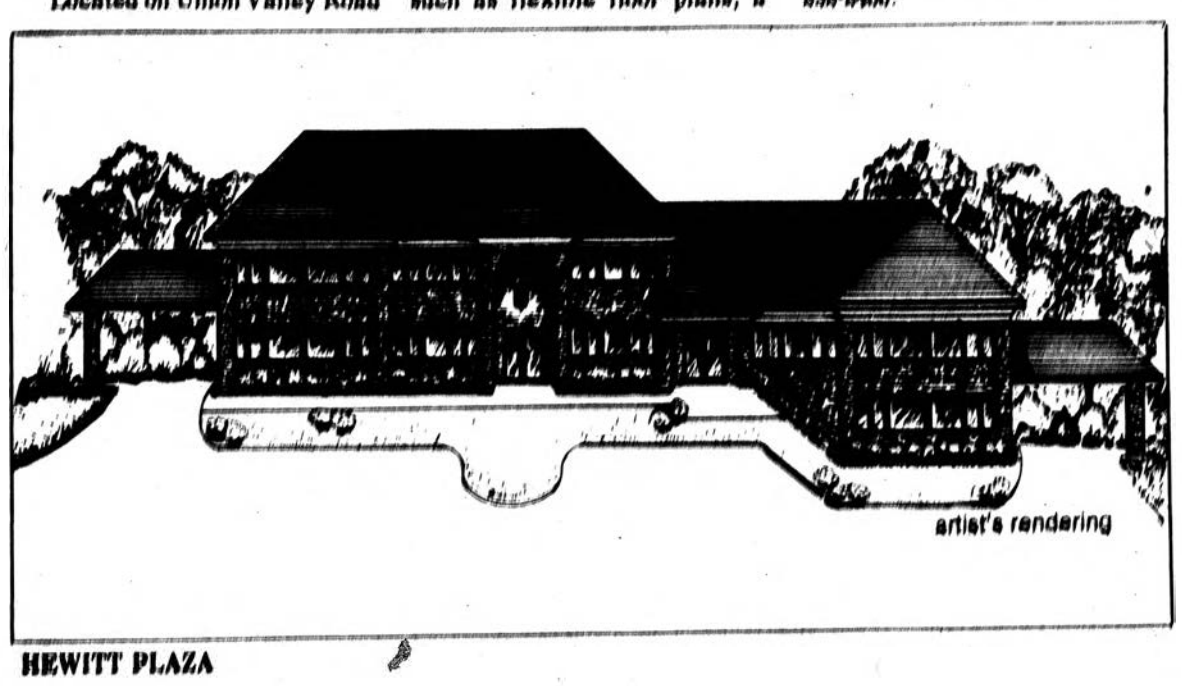

Located on Union Valley Road in an area zoned for professional offices, the three units already sold have been bought by medical practitioners. "Hewitt Plaza will be a full service medical/office complex," said Schlott Realtors' project manager Tom White. "West Milford is an area of dramatic growth, and this is a central location in the town."

Priced from $138 per square foot, Hewitt Plaza is designed to bring a modern appearance to a classic design. The maintenance-free brick building features operable windows and ample parking on a two-acre site.

With a maximum of 12 office suites, the two-story office complex allows for the utmost in spacious, modern conveniences, such as flexible floor plans, a minimum common area, individual heating and air conditioning units, and direct outside entrances to most offices. White noted the canopy drive-thru entrance will be convenient for patients visiting doctors in the Plaza.

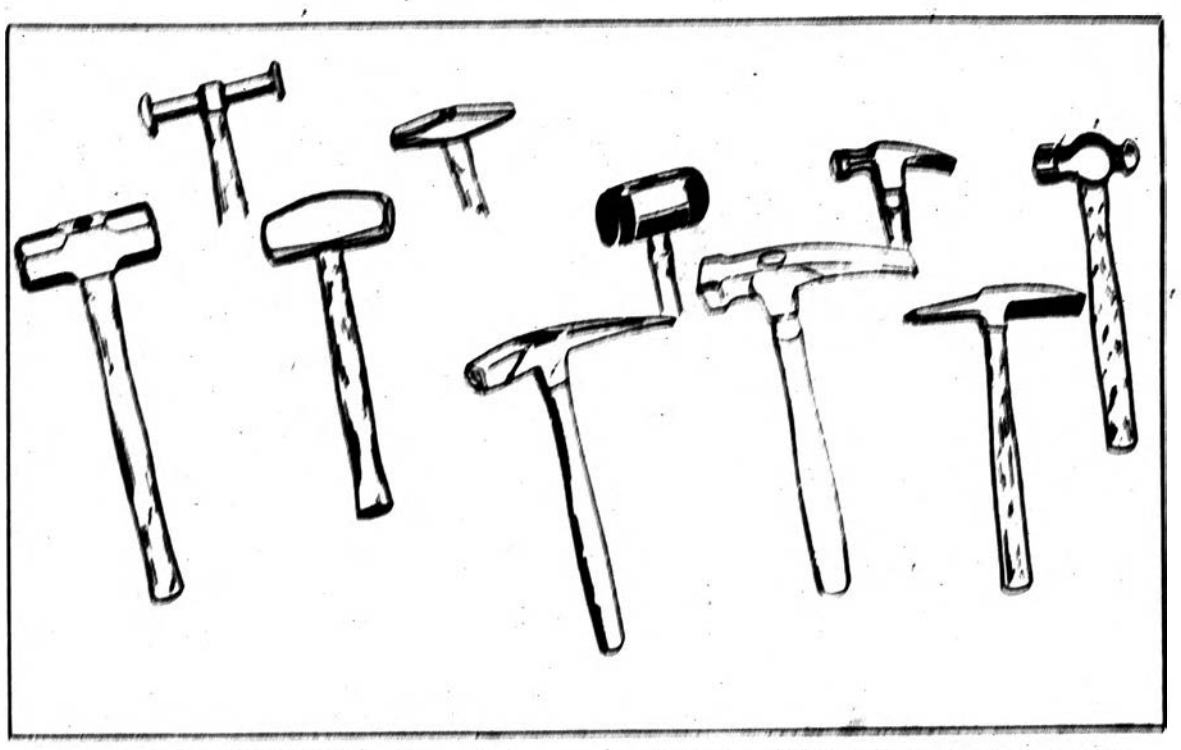

Hewitt Plaza is convenient to Routes 23, 208, Skyline Drive, and Greenwood Lake Turnpike. To visit, take Route 80 to Route 23 North. Follow Route 23 to the Union Valley Road exit, and continue to the site.

For more information regarding Hewitt Plaza, call Tom White at Schlott Realtors' West Milford office, 149 Union Valley Road, telephone 728-3600 or 838-8400.

HEWITT PLAZA

TYPES OF HAMMERS—These hammers (left to right) are a sledge, body and fender, hand drilling or mash, machinists' riveting, prospecting pick, plastic face, bricklayers', nail claw, chipping, and ball pein types.

Selection of hammers aids in safe use

Manufacturers of hammers and other striking and struck tools emphasize that selection of the proper tool for the job is the first step in using them safely.

These manufactureres, through their trade association, the Hand Tools Institute (HTI), offer guidelines to help consumers put together a basic set of striking tools for most routine jobs.

The institute stresses that no matter what striking or struck tool is selected, safety goggles should be worn for all projects involving the use of hand tools.

Here is the basic set of striking tools suggested by HTI for the beginning handyperson.

1. A medium weight (16oz.) nail hammer - to accomplish the many household projects requiring common, unhardened nails. Not for: masonry nails, cold chisle, star drills, or other hardened metal.

2. A medium (12 oz. or 16 oz.) ball peen hammer, for striking small hand chisels and punches, and for riveting, shaping and straightening unhardened metal.

3. A hand drilling hammer or 2-1/2 pound sledge - for use with steel struck tools - cold chisels, brick chisels, star drills and for hardened masonry nails.

4. A magnetic tack hammer. Has a magnetic face on one end to help set tacks before driving the home with the other end.

5. A half hatchet for splitting or shaping wood and driving common unhardened nails.

For the more advanced, better-equiped handyperson, HTI recommends these additional striking tools.

1. A 20 oz. ripping hammer - to help with rough, heavy work. Its straight claw helps in prying apart nailed boards.

2. A soft-faced hammer of plastic, rubber, or rawhide - for gentle hammering or tapping of surfaces that could be damaged by a metal striking face. Helpful for gluing furniture, closing doweled joints, replacing hub caps, etc.

3. An eight-pound sledge - for heavier work such as driving wood-splitting wedges, steel posts, and breaking concrete.

4. A 24 oz. brick hammer - for use on brick or concrete blocks. The sharpened blade is used for chipping mortar and for scoring bricks before breaking them with the flat face - not for striking brick chisels and sets, masonry nails, or stone.

5. A 3-1/2 pound single bit axe - use for cutting wood and splitting logs for the fireplace. Its blunt end, or face can be used for driving wooden stakes.

6. An eight-pound woodchoppers' maul - for splitting wood. It sharp edge is for splitting small logs and for starting a notch in larger diameter logs into which a wood splitting wedge is placed. The wedge is then driven by the striking face of the maul.

HTI reminds the user that there are many other types and sizes of hammers, and other striking tools, to fit various jobs and individuals. It stresses that the individual should take care to fit the hammer to the job.

Safety Tips

Some safety rules to follow for any hammering, splitting or chopping job.

1. Always wear safety goggles.
2. Never strike one hammer against another hammer or a hatchet.
3. Strike blows squarely - avoid glancing blows and over and under strikes.
4. When striking another steel tool (cold chisel, punch, etc.) the striking face of the proper hammer should have approximately twice the diameter of the face of the struck tool.
5. Never use an axe or hatchet as a splitting wedge.
6. Never use a hammer with loose or damaged handle.
7. Discard hammer or hatchet when face shows excessive wear, mushrooming, chipping, deformation, etc.

THE HOMEFRONT

by Joseph J. Murphy
Founder/Chairman
Murphy Realty Better Homes and Gardens

Now in its sixth year of expansion, our economy will continue to improve this year, with housing markets reflecting the positive effects of relatively low interest rates.

The U.S. Department of Commerce reported that the annual rate of growth of real inflation adjusted gross national product in the first quarter of 1988 reached 2.3 percent.

While this rate was less than half the 4.8 percent advance recorded in the fourth quarter of 1987, it substantiates that the effects of the stock market crash did not weaken the fundamental strength of the economy.

It appears that enough of our economy's momentum in the latter half of 1987 carried forward into 1988 but may not be enough to push inflation up at a much faster rate.

The risk to this 'just right' rate of economic growth may be a slowly improving trade deficit that would cause another slide in the dollar.

I predict that the rate of real GNP growth will reach 2.9 percent in 1988, with the second half of the year being stronger than the first six months.

Although consumer spending fell sharply in the fourth quarter, its strong rebound in the first quarter explained most of the GNP advance. Since last October's stock market crash, consumer spending has been on the upswing again after slumping through much of 1987.

In four of the last five months, retail sales, excluding the volatile auto component, have increased by rates much higher than the average monthly gain for 1987. These higher monthly advances translate into significant gains in real GNP, documented by the first quarter real GNP report.

Consumer spending is expected to be a key component of continued growth in output during 1988. But the resurgence in consumer spending does carry with it some of its own pitfalls as consumers may remain partial to imported goods.

While most of the reports on the economy's health are promising for the future, the monthly fluctuations in the trade deficit still are cause for some concern.

According to the most recent data available, the February trade deficit widened to $13.8 billion, from $12.5 billion in January.

However, the trend in trade is still positive. February exports rose to $23.6 billion in January. Most of the concern is focused on the import figures, which showed imports rising to $37.4 billion in February, from $34.8 billion in January.

Something is evident in these numbers the trade deficit is improving, but it could be slowed by economic growth, which boosts consumer incomes and demand for imports.

The Federal Reserve Board has been trying to hold the line on interest rates while keeping inflationary expectations in check. After the October crash, the federal government provided enough money to meet the short-term demand for increased liquidity. Earlier this year, concern about keeping the economy from falling into a recession led the federal government to postpone tightening up on the money supply.

Recently, the federal government has been convinced that the economy is not at risk of falling into a recesson. As a result, it has tightened up on short-term interest rates, hoping to head off fears of rising inflation. As a result, long-term interest rates, paticularly sensitive to inflation fears have risen steadily over the last two years. The latest GNP report likely will hold the federal government to its tight money course aimed at stifling inflation.

I believe that there is strong potential for long-term interest rates to gradually rise. The probability is that mortgage rates will increase next year from the current level.

I project that the secondary market yield on securities backed by 30-year fixed rate Federal Housing Administration mortgages will reach 10.4 percent in the current quarter. That rate is expected to rise steadily during the remainder of the year, reaching an annual average of 10.5 percent for 1988. In the spring of 1989, the interest rate is expected to reach 11.0 percent.

Last March, housing starts rose to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1.543 units, up two percent from February. This latest report on housing starts activity confirms that the housing sector is still strong even this late in such a prolonged economic expansion. A combination of demographic factors and the potential for higher mortgage rates likely will push housing starts to an annual total of 1.53 million unis in 1988.

Sales of new single-family homes rose 4.0 percent in March from the previous month. The welcome news on new-home sales combined with the improving performance of housing starts activity gives us a positive outlook for out spring buying and building season.

The low mortgage interest rates available during March was the most significant factor leading to the resurgences in demand for new homes. My forecast is that the sales of new single-family homes will reach 639 thousand units in 1988, down 4.7 percent from the 1987 total.

Sales of existing single family homes reached seasonally adjusted annual rate of 3.33 million in March, up 2.5 percent from the previous month. Renewed power in existing-home sales also has been largely due to lower interest rates during the opening months of 1988.

While mortgage rates are expected to rise gradually during 1988, the popularity of adjustable rate mortgages (ARMs), which is again on the rise, will probably keep the rate of existing home sales healthy.

Existing home sales should reach an annual rate of 3.31 million units nationally in 1988, 6.0 percent less than the 1987 total of 3.53 million units. At that annual rate, the 1988 total would rank as the third best year for existing-home sales in the 1980s.

While the median existing single-family price could rise by a faster rate of about 8.3 percent. At no cost or obligation, you can find information available at no cost or obligation on any real estate matter at any Murphy Realty/Better Homes and Gardens office.

Home merchandising system revolutionizes industry

The Home Merchandising System, a one of a kind, sophisticated, innovative, scientific system created by Joseph J. Murphy, founder/chairman and Allan Dalton, President of Murphy Realty/Better Homes and Gardens, is revolutionizing the entire real estate industry.

Murphy and Dalton, two of their industry's most innovative and progressive leaders, had devoted long hours of research, planning, creating and developing to produce the successful formula for their Home Merchandising System. Utilizing similar scientific processes employed by the largest brand name national advertisers in other industries, they tested and retested the system not only in their own market areas but with other prominent Realtors of different sizes throughout the country to ensure its total perfection.

"In our own metropolitan New York and New Jersey areas as well as in other areas of the country, our Home Merchandising System has generated unequalled enthusiasm from consumers, real estate sales and marketing professionals, educators, trainers as well as the media," Murphy explained. "Because of the positive impact and value the Home Merchandising system will have on the entire real estate industry, we have filed registration application in the U.S. Patent Office to protect our exclusive rights for it. Our system, only available through Murphy Realty/Better Homes and Gardens, is an extraordinary service to homeowners that enables us to continue to outdistance any competitors," Murphy emphasized.

"Our Home Merchandising System is an accepted, acclaimed, authoritative-nationwide and worldwide pre-appraisal presentation program that ensures owners of homes, condominiums and co-ops in having their properties marketed at their optimum values. Brokers and salespersons joining our firm now have the opportunity to increase their sales, incomes, images, knowledge, skills, profits, prestige and professionalism of their sales staffs and themselves by using the system," Dalton declared.

"The system consistently helps more and more people purchase and sell residential properties. They have the distinct advantage of having their properties effectively and efficiently priced for their ultimate values at no cost or obligation by our Murphy Realty/Better Homes and Gardens trained sales and marketing staff," he added.

The Mill grinds out fast sales

Using the priority list established at their May 10 lottery, held in response to the overwhelming demand for condominiums at The Mill, Schlott Realtors, exclusive agent for The Mill at Little Falls, scheduled 50 potential homebuyers per day to visit their on-site sales center.

Over the first three selling days, The Mill at Little Falls generated more than $9,000,000 in sales. David Ingrams, The Mill's sales manager, reports that eight out of the first ten homebuyers signed contracts.

The first contract went to Wendy Olivieri, a resident of Wayne. Upon signing the contract she said: "I read about The Mill in the real estate section of my newspaper and knew that this would be an ideal condominium for me. What impressed me most is the location. I love the idea that my unit is situated along the banks of the Passaic River and can still be just 15 miles from New York."

Andrew Jubelt, president of Affirmative Development Company, the developer of The Mill, says: "The Mill at Little Falls is comprised of 180 units in four renovated buildings and 150 units in one new nine-story mid-rise building offering homebuyers both the old and the new. It is the best of two possible worlds. Whether a potential buyer is looking for the charm of complete interior renovation or seeking totally new construction, The Mill has a condominium for them. And regardless which they choose, they will also share the luxurious amenities and our magnificent grounds."

The wooded and landscaped 13-acre site provides outstanding outdoor amenities that take full advantage of their proximity to the Passaic River. Residents will be able to stroll along a multi-level pedestrian plaza, enjoy spectacular views of the rushing waterfalls, swim at the riverview pool, relax poolside at the cabana area, or exercise at the private riverside tennis courts and jogging paths. There is also on-site parking for 660 cars, a ratio of two parking spots per unit.

All of the apartments in the mid-rise will feature balconies with dramatic river views. In addition, they all offer creative use of interior space, large windows overlooking The Mill's landscaped scenery as well as a long list of amenities such as European or traditional style kitchen cabinets, designer color plus carpeting, top-line Whirlpool refrigerator-freezers, automatic dishwashers, self-cleaning ovens and microwave ovens.

Jubelt says: "The mid-rise at The Mill represents one of the best home values in New Jersey. Studio units will begin at $132,000, one-bedroom units range from $160,000 to $208,000 and two-bedroom units sell from $229,000 to $319,000. I believe these prices are lower than any comparable mid-rise in the state's northern metropolitan market."

Due to the overwhelming success of the initial sales, and the substantial waiting list for the new mid-rise, The Mill will begin to take contracts for condominiums in the mid-rise beginning the first week of June. David Ingrams, sales manager for The Mill, says: "I urge anyone interested in living in this new building to decide quickly. The mid-rise only contains 150 units, and we expect them to be bought almost immediately."

The Mill is ideally located in a residential section of Little Falls, near the intersection of Main Street and Union Boulevard. Ideal for commuters, it is easily accessible to Interstate 80, Route 23, Route 46 and the Garden State Parkway. It is on a main bus line and the commuter railroad station is just one block away.

Affirmative Development Company, the developers of The Mill at Little Falls, was founded by Andrew Jubelt in 1981. Other major residential renovations completed by the company include 35 Wooster Street in New York City, a certified rehabilitation of a limestone and cast iron building, the 176-unit Emerald Green Apartments in Orlando, Florida, and a 178-family gut rehabilitation in Brooklyn, New York. Success Magazine cited Andrew Jubelt as one of America's leading young entrepreneurs.

Interior designer will do townhouses

LINCOLN PARK — In keeping with the luxurious tone of the townhomes at Skyline Village, Custom Living Homes and Communities has engaged the services of the Jean Lee Group, an affiliate of Norman Harvey Associates, Inc. According to Custom Living's Marketing Coordinator Mary Boorman, the Chicago-based design firm is responsible for the interior decor of two newly decorated models in Phase III of the upscale townhome community in Lincoln Park.

"They've created the kind of elegant look most townhome buyers at Skyline Village are searching for," she said recently, "and they've done it with a great deal of flair and taste."

The recently-completed Barclay, with its dramatic contemporary styling, is a fine example of the design group's work. White ceramic tile and sparkling brass lighting fixtures adorn the entry foyer. In the adjacent living room, the pale peach carpet is suffused with the light from a large picture window crowned with fanlights and twin skylights set in the cathedral ceiling. Striking beveled-mirror columns draw attention to a flat ceramic-tile fireplace. A creamy crescent-shaped sofa and round club chairs form an intimate conversation area around a glass-and-marble coffee table set before the hearth.

The subtle "peaches-and-cream" motif introduced in the living room is carried through to nearby dining and breakfast areas, where white furniture is softened by peach-colored accessories. Marble and glass add sophistication to the dining area, which is accented by a fully-mirrored wall and a light-blue built-in breakfront. A cozy octagonal breakfast nook just off the dining area is warmed by sunlight shining through its multiple windows.

This unusual room adjoins the kitchen whose oak cabinets and cream-colored countertops enhance the brightly-lighted cooking space, complete with General Electric refrigerator, oven, microwave and a potscrubber dishwasher. Just beyond the kitchen's sliding glass doors is a wolmanized wood deck along the rear of the model, inviting residents to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors.

A carpeted limed-oak stairway ascends to a second-floor landing which overlooks the living room below and leads to the townhome's upper level. There, homeowners will enjoy total relaxation in a spacious master suite designed to provide extraordinary luxury and privacy. A charming alcove, encased in a bay window, is just perfect for lounging and is set off from the bedroom by brass rails and blue, iris-patterned paper coordinated with the draperies as well as the covers on the queen-sized platform bed.

Mirrored closet doors from an angled dressing area leading to the master bath, whose lavish appointments include a twin-size shower stall, oak-accented formica cabinets and a spacious linen closet. A pair of glass doors leads to another private deck off the master bedroom.

Opposite this elegant suite is a second bedroom designed, in recognition of the busy lifestyle of today's families, to accomodate the avid exercise enthusiast. It features a stationary bicycle and mirrored closet doors and even has a stylish free-standing gym locker. The room doubles as a cozy retreat as well, with a loveseat, chair and coffee table. A well-proportioned main bath completes the second-floor layout.

Custom Living invites homeseekers to visit Skyline Village and tour the exquisitely decorated Barclay. Those interested in learning more about this outstanding luxury community are encouraged to call Sales Manager Dion Finch at (201) 694-1111. To visit Skyline Village, take Route I-80 West to Exit 52. Make a left at the end of the ramp. Make another left onto Two Bridges Road. Continue to a right turn onto Skyline Drive. Turn left onto Kerri Lane to the Sales Office. Or, take Route I-287, and proceed north to the end. Continue on Route 202 North through the center of Lincoln Park. Skyline Drive and the entry sign are on the right. The Sales Center is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

On-Line Mortgage service is new

METUCHEN — The Sun Mortgage Company will be presenting a special seminar to introduce real estate brokers to On-Line Mortgage Services, Sun's latest program designed to show brokers innovative, important services that they can now offer to their customers.

The On-Line Mortgage Services Seminar will be held free of charge, June 21, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Ramada Inn, 3050 Woodbridge Avenue, Edison. Refreshments will be served. For more information contact Sun Mortgage Co., 167 Main Street, Metuchen, NJ 08840 or call 549-4502.

According to Sam Salter, president of Sun Mortgage Company, the seminar will detail the many services that On-Line Mortgage Services offers: Mortgage Potential Analysis - tells brokers and customers how much home the consumers can really afford to buy; Loan Express Care - personal card given to potential home buyers who have been pre-qualified for a mortgage even before deciding on a home; Ultra-simple Computerized Mortgage Applications - a simplified application form filled via the computer for assuring immediate action; Mortgage Counseling - helping customers search for the right mortgage plans to suit their financial needs with the help of the computer; and 24-hour Application Status Monitoring - finding out the exact status of any On-Line application at any time, day or night, by telephone or computer.

Salter founded Sun Mortgage Company in 1983. In 1984, the Small Business Association presented him with the Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award.

Sun Mortgage Company, a licensed first and second, residential mortgage lending institution, offers a broad range of mortgage programs and services, such as the exclusive On-Line Mortgage Services for real estate brokers.

REAL ESTATE UPDATE

By Walter Unnasch

THAT BEAUTIFUL LEVERAGE

QUESTION: What is meant by the word "leverage" when used in conjunction with investing in real estate?

ANSWER: Leverage arises because ALL of the income and ALL of the appreciation belongs to the property holder regardless of the amount of the loan. To illustrate, assume a $100,000 property was purchased for only $10,000 cash and a $90,000 mortgage loan. Five years later, the same property is sold for $150,000 (a 50% gain in value). After paying off the $90,000 mortgage, the investor would realize, not a 50% gain, but rather a 500% gain on his initial cash investment because he only invested $10,000 for the property. That's leverage!

TOWNSHIP OF WAYNE
COUNTY OF PASSAIC
STATE OF NEW JERSEY

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 159 (SEWERS AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL) OF THE REVISED ORDINANCES OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WAYNE

BE IT ORDAINED by the Township of Wayne in the County of Passaic,State of New Jersey, as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 159 (Sewers and Sewage Disposal) of the Revised Ordinances of the Township of Wayne is hereby amended as follows:

Article VI (Industrial Pretreatment) is hereby amended by adding a new Section 159-74.1 (Industrial Wastes Discharged to the POTW by Truck, Rail, or Dedicated Pipeline Prohibited) to read as follows:

159-74.1 Industrial Wastes Discharged to the POTW by Truck, Rail, or Dedicated Pipeline Prohibited

A. The discharge of hazardous wastes (as defined in Section 1004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act) into the POTW by truck, rail, or dedicated pipeline is strictly prohibited. Only domestic strength wastewater from residential or commercial facilities located within the Township of Wayne will be accepted by the POTW at discharge points and at hours designated by the Superintendent of Pollution Control. No industrial processed waste will be permitted.

B. Any person engaged in the hauling of such domestic strength wastewater shall apply for a permit on forms provided by the Pretreatment Program office of Wayne Township Sewer Department. Permits will be granted for wastewater from a single source only. No septage will be accepted. Permitted haulers shall be responsible for complying with all the terms and conditions contained in the permit, in addition to the provisions of Article VI herein. Any person discharging to the POTW, or at any point within the system without a permit, will be subject to the penalties provided for in Section 159-80 of this chapter.

C. Wastewater discharge limitations shall be as required by Sections 159-50 and 159-51 of this Article. Samples of the wastewater contained in each truckload shall be taken by the staff at the Mountain View Treatment Plant before the load is discharged. Samples will be analyzed by a NJDEP certified laboratory. The permittee will bear the cost of such analysis. The results of the analysis will be forwarded to the POTW, with copies to the permittee. Frequency of analysis will be determined by the Superintendent of Pollution Control. The POTW will take unannounced samples from the trucks as deemed necessary by the Superintendent.

D. The POTW will not accept any wastewater until laboratory analysis of samples has been completed and reviewed and the strength to the waste proven to be within the limits provided by Sections 159-50 and 159-51 of this Article.

Section 159-84 (Charges and fees) is hereby amended by adding a new subsection A (6) thereto to read as follows:

A(6) Fees of Discharge of domestic strength wastewater to the POTW by truck, rail, or dedicated pipeline:

Permit Application Fee: $500 plus the cost of initial sample analysis

Annual Permit Fee: $1,000 plus cost of regularly scheduled sample analysis, cost to be determined when permit is issued.

These fees relate solely to the permit for discharge, and are separate from costs for treatment, and all other fees chargeable by the Township.

The present subsection A (6) is hereby renumbered A(7).

SECTION 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances which are inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after final passage and publication as prescribed by law.

Choose safe place to play this summer

"How many times have you heard the familiar lament, 'What can I do' "? asked Tom Rankin, traffic-safety manager of AAA-North Jersey. "Keeping youngsters safely occupied during the summer months means keeping them out of the streets."

The AAA-North Jersey official said that some youngsters may have vacation time already planned out, while others might attend summer classes. "But for most boys and girls," he continued, "the main summer priority will be finding safe places for recreational activities."

Rankin referred to a design garnering top honors in the American Automobiles Association's Traffic Safety Poster Program. "The young girl is playing in an area separated from moving vehicles. In a protected location, all energies can be directed to the game at hand."

The AAA Traffic Safety Manager did point out that not all communities may have the space or the facilities for a supervised playground. "Be creative," he urged. "If children live in high-rise apartment buildings or urban areas where space is at a premium explore safe play area alternatives such as blocking off a parking lot or courtyard."

AAA's annual School Traffic Safety Poster Program encourages student's to illustrate responsible traffic behaviors. This year, over 64,000 young artists entries were submitted. June's poster was drawn by Vanetta Smith, a former fourth grader at Gregory Drive Elementary School in Jacksonville, Florida.

"Real Estate Forum"

by Jim Farese

Q. My mother is widowed and planning to remarry. She owns a home and so does her fiance. They plan to sell both homes and retire in Florida. I've pleaded with her to sell the home before they marry, but she does not feel the need for urgency since they will be vacationing in Europe for several months after their marriage and are planning to live in this house until they settle everything. Is my advice correct.

A. Absolutley. According to the rules of 55 and over one time exclusion, a person is allowed to exclude $125,000 of gain from the sale of their residence. However, if two people are married, the one time exclusion applies to both of them. In other words, they can use your mother's deduction on her house and then use his deduction on his house. If they marry first, they will only be able to use the $125,000 exclusion on one house, and pay full tax liability on the gain of the other house. There is alot of money at stake here, postpone the wedding if you have to and sell your mother's house first.

Q. I recently rented an apartment and was under the impression that the apartment should be painted by the landlord prior to a new person moving in. My landlord refuses to paint the apartment. He offered to buy me the paint if I would paint. I'm a 67 year old widow and don't feel I should have to paint. What could I do?

A. The ordinance 878-11(H) simply state that "No owner shall let an apartment unless it is clean, sanitary and suitable for human occupancy." It does not specificially mention painting. If you feel it is intolerable, call your local housing department, or Board of Health at City Hall.

Rock Ridge estate homes

Rock Ridge Estates in Lincoln Park, New Jersey is a development off 40 luxury homes nestled high on top of Hook Mountain, overlooking the untouched Green Acres sanctuary of Great Piece Meadows.

Developed by the Procida/Chartwell Group, each estate home was creatively designed by architect Jerry Valk, as either a California contemporary or an elegant traditional.

Sales Director of Rock Ridge, Carol Stark says: "Living at Rock Ridge Estates evokes a quality lifestyle that one would normally expect in homes costing twice as much. And the Estates prime location in the town of Lincoln Park brings to these homeowners at Rock Ridge a lifestyle that is convenient, comfortable and rewarding. It's a combination that cannot be beat."

The Borough of Lincoln Park is seven square miles, sixty percent of which cannot be developed. Rich and verdant, Lincoln Park not only has the beautiful Green Acres sanctuary, but also three large wildlife preserves called The Bog, The Vly and Great Piece Meadows.

Stark, who is also a resident of Lincoln Park, continues: "Lincoln Park has grown and changed much over the years and is gradually attracting all types of homebuyers, from young families seeking townhomes or apartments to executive families seeking large luxury homes. Lincoln Park seems to have everything for everyone. And even though the town has grown up, Lincoln park retains its rural feeling, with a population of only 10,000.

Convenient for commuters, the area of Lincoln Park has a network of major highways such as routes 80,46 and 23 that connects residents in just 30 minutes to midtown Manhattan and in even less time to northern New Jersey sports and recreational facilities. Routes 287 and 202 are also convenient to Lincoln Park. Public transportation is easily accessible and supplied by the Erie Lackawanna rail system or the Lakeland bus system.

For aviators and aviator buffs, Lincoln Park has three private airports in the area, including its own Lincoln Park Airport just ten minutes away from Rock Ridge. Stark comments: "I cannot think of many towns in New Jersey that have theeeir own airports, especially one with a restaurant. Bob's Flight Deck offers fine cuisine and an exciting atmosphere. The nearby Caldwell Airport in the town of Fairfield also offers excellent dining at its famous '94th Bomb Group' that is situated alongside of the airport runway and is designed to look like a World War II American Bomber Base in England. Needless to say, it offers an atmosphere that is quite different from other restaurants in the area. Both airports and the local Morristown Airport offer helicopter and limousine services."

The town's transportation facilities are not only ideal for its residents but also for the growing number of businesses in the area. Companies such as the large pharmaceutical firm, Becton Dickinson and Company, as well as smaller businesses, like the landmark restaurant, "Sam's Maple Grove."

Start says: "Sam's Maple Grove has been in Lincoln Park since 1945 and serves delicious Italian food at very low prices. Along with Gulliver's Jazz Club and Restaurant, it is one of the more popular eating places in the area."

Residents at Rock Ridge Estates have a wide selection of entertainment spots in and around Lincoln Park, as well as a large selection of recreational facilities. Just below Rock Ridge Estates, golfers can enjoy a round or two of golf at one of the two golf courses in Lincoln Park. Just a few minutes away from Rock Ridge is the Public Meadows II golf course. There is plenty of room for sunbathing and swimming at either Lincoln Park's private swim club or at the refreshing Lincoln Park community lake and beach. A game of tennis can be played at the public tennis courts in the area. And old Indian trails offer a peaceful path fooor horseback riding, walking or jogging. Construction is underway for a new Beavertown Community Park that will contain baseball fields and running trails.

The Lincoln Park area is convenient for shoppers. Stark says: "Rock Ridge residents will have a well-rounded selection of stores at their fingertips. The Willowbrook Mall in the town of Wayne is just five minutes away and the Wayne Hills Mall is also nearby. There is an abundance of mini-malls in the area such as the American Way Mall, Lincoln Park Center and Lincoln Park Plaza. The stores in the area truly reflect the idea that Lincoln park caters to various lifestyles and tastes."

Food stores such as the A&P are located in the center of town, along with a large brand new Shop-Rite mini-mall.

Stark notes, "Lincoln Park also offers children a variety of activities, including Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts and Brownies, Little League, P.A.L., an extensive summer camp program and even an amateur theater."

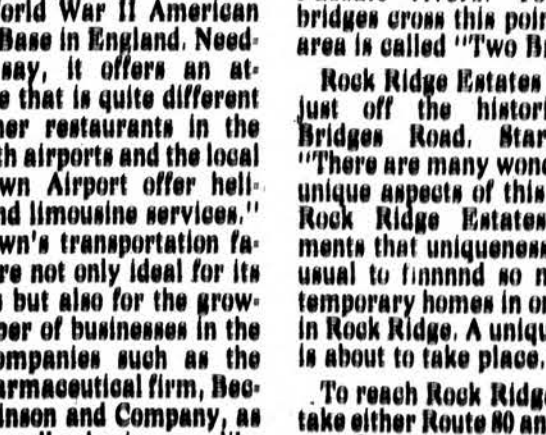

Surrounding towns such as Wayne, Montville, Pompton Plains and Fairfield also offer recreational as well as educational facilities.

Lincoln Park has an excellent school system. The public elementary schools serving the area are Chapel Hill, Pine Brook and Ryerson, all within Lincoln Park. The secondary school is Boonton High School in Boonton. Private schools in the area are St. Joseph's School in Lincoln Park, DePaul High School and Newman Preparatory School in Wayne, and St. Andrew's Nursery School and a Kindercare program in Lincoln Park.

History is sprinkled throughout Lincoln Park. Back in 1778 the Continental Army, established a commissary depot in the southern portion of the Borough of Lincoln Park at the confluence of the Pompton and Passaic rivers. Today two bridges cross this point and the area is called "Two Bridges."

Rock Ridge Estates is located just off the historical Two Bridges Road. Stark notes: "There are many wonderful and unique aspects of this area and Rock Ridge Estates complements that uniqueness. It is unusual to finnnnd so many contemporary homes in one area as in Rock Ridge. A unique concept is about to take place."

Buyers have many options to choose from

With the glut of existing homes now on the market, those looking for a home should now take advantage of the opportunity to scan those listings for the things they have always wanted in a home, says New Jersey Association of Realtors President Anthony J. Camassa.

"Whether it's a built-in pool, a redwood deck, hardwood floors, or larger kitchens, buyers are likely to find more options at this time than in last summer's market," says Camassa.

The price of the home, however, is what most buyers will first look at before even thinking about the options. But Camassa believes that with the competition sellers are now facing, buyers should not shy away from making what they feel is a reasonable offer.

In fact, NJAR members are now reporting that the gap between the listing price and the buyer's bid is widening. "Buyers should make their bid, if it is reasonable, without worrying about how far away they are from the listing price," Camassa explains. "You've got nothing to lose, and perhaps the home of your dreams to gain."

"As for the sellers, those willing to adjust their price and realize the realities of today's market rather than wait for a magical turn of circumstances will be the winners along with smart buyers who realize their position in the driver's seat and take advantage of the opportunities in negotiating," said Camassa.

The New Jersey Association of Realtors, based in Edison, is comprised of 46,000 real estate licensees covering all of the recognized specializations within the industry, and is one of the state's largest trade associations.
