Registry listing sex offenders may sit on shaky legal ground

BY ROB ERRERA
TODAY Staff Writer

Is it your right to know, as a taxpayer, property owner, or parent, if a convicted sex offender is moving into your neighborhood? Is it the police department's right to know? These are the questions facing Wayne, Clifton, and several other communities which are seeking to approve sex offender registration bills. The local ordinances, based on similar bills moving through the state senate, force individuals convicted of sex offenses to register with police within 30 days of moving into the township. Those who fail to register would face a fine of up to $1,000 or up to 90 days in jail. Clifton adopted its sex offender registration ordinance Tuesday night and Wayne followed suit on Wednesday. Both communities realize the law may be unconstitutional and nearly impossible to enforce, but officials in both towns say legislation is needed to protect the interests of local residents. "We've got to do something to protect the people of this township," said Wayne Councilman Joseph DiDonato. "When you lose law enforcement, you lose your community." Clifton Mayor James Anzaldi

Council OKs wetlands development Mayor wants details; town wants revenue

BY ROB ERRERA

WAYNE — The Township Council's not sure what's going to be built on the urban renewal tract near the intersection of Routes 23 and 46, but it wants something there besides mud and weeds.

The council gave unanimous approval Wednesday to a resolution that extends an agreement allowing Farcial Realty to purchase the land. Though Farcial vows to build "residential, retail and commercial projects" on the land, the firm has not clearly outlined its plans. The council approved the resolution with the promise from Farcial that it will offer a full presentation of the project in the coming weeks. While the council was unanimous in its decision, there were objectors. Mayor David Waks urged the council to carry the ordinance. "I wouldn't vote on this until you see what they're going to put there," Waks said. Attorney Charles Mysak, who successfully fought development on the urban renewal tract in 1988, voiced more strenuous objection. "I know what they're trying to build. They want to build high-rise towers, 12 to 19 stories high," Mysak said. "How any council can vote to build high-rise towers on wetlands is beyond me." Township Clerk John O'Brien, who also serves as Wayne's director of Urban Renewal, said Mysak is referring to Farcial's 1988 development plans which did include some large structures. But O'Brien said the township is "starting again from square one" regarding urban renewal development. "I really don't know what they are going to suggest building there. We'll find out at the Oct. 26 conference when Farcial makes its presentation," O'Brien said.

"The important thing is the town get some benefit from the land, some revenue. It's not doing us any good as an undeveloped lot." The council seemed to agree with O'Brien's philosophy when it approved the resolution Wednesday night. "There's no harm in extending this contract," Councilman Joseph DiDonato said. "The Planning Board and the council will get final approval over anything built there." The plot of land located in the Mountain View section was slated to be developed by Farcial Realty in 1988 under the federal (Continued On Page 3)

Hearing will weigh tighter security at 4 shopping malls

BY CHERYL MARINO
TODAY Staff Writer

WEST PATERSON — In efforts to provide additional safety for shoppers and reduce incidents of car theft, the Borough Council has voted unanimously to introduce an ordinance that will require mall owners to increase security within parking areas. A public hearing on the ordinance is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 12, when the measure will be discussed and considered for final adoption. The security measures would apply to four shopping malls: The Lenox Plaza, The Park West Meadows Shopping Center, Plaza 46 Shopping Center, and a lot of property adjacent to the Lenox Plaza which is slated to become the site of a mall. Each shopping center would have security personnel on duty from 10 a.m. to 30 minutes after the stores close.

The ordinance requires malls, from 150,000 square feet up to 500,000 square feet of parking space, to provide one security vehicle to patrol their parking lots. Malls larger than 500,000 square feet would need to provide two cars. The security could be increased during the holiday season, or if statistics present a need for the additional foot patrol or vehicle surveillance. Leo Frantzman, co-owner of the Plaza 46 Shopping Center, said he disagrees with the ordinance, noting that each store provides a security guard. He said that increased patrol of the parking lot is unnecessary. "This is not a high crime area," said Frantzman. "We've owned the shopping center for over 10 years and never had any incidents of muggings or other serious personal accidents which would cause a need for additional security measures." Frantzman said that increased security would be a costly procedure and force mall owners to impose rent increases for tenants, which may cause some to seek other locales for their stores. Police Chief Joseph Renne supports the ordinance, however, saying that patrolling security would act as a deterrent for car thieves. He also said that the sight of an officer is a reassurance to shoppers. (Continued On Page 2)

PEQUANNOCK — The Board of Education voted Monday to approve the sale of the former Pequannock School site for $500,000 to the Boys and Girls Club of Morris County. Located off Lincoln Park Road, the site was offered to the Township Council two years ago for conversion into a new library facility. But the council instead chose an alternate location. After extensive consideration by the council, it was decided that a facility to provide additional recreational activities and child care would be more beneficial for the community. The recently incorporated Boys and Girls Club of Morris County will provide a wide variety of programs and activities for youngsters in neighboring communities. "We're not just a recreational organization," said Mark Kosmack, Boys and Girls Club president. Schools target drugs in 'Red Ribbon Week'

BY CHERYL MARINO
TODAY Staff Writer

WEST PATERSON — Memorial School students will soon have the opportunity to participate in "Red Ribbon Week," a national event coupled with a program put into effect by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The significance of "Red Ribbon Week" is to commemorate Enrique "Kiki" Camarena, an agent of the Drug Enforcement Agency who was brutally beaten to death in Mexico several years ago. Beginning in 1988, during the month of October, red satin badges were worn in his memory to spread the word against drugs in the schools. According to Principal Alfred Baumann, the event, which includes a poster and essay contest, will be offered to all Memorial School students on a voluntary basis. A representative from the FBI bureau in Newark will visit students Oct. 11 and detail the upcoming contest. "This will give students two weeks to prepare themselves," said Baumann, who is upbeat about the "special" programs available to children in addition to their standard curriculum. The West Paterson FBI currently provides a 13-week program called the "Junior Law Enforcement Program" to sixth-graders, which includes a guest speaker every Tuesday from either the FBI bureau or the police department to talk with youngsters about aspects of law enforcement. The program has been running for two years, graduation will be in December. In addition to this informative instruction at an ongoing basis, "Red Ribbon Week" is expected to be a highly motivational event for students and bring about awareness upon the dangers of drugs and alcohol. "This is the first time we've ever held an event this big at Memorial School and we're hoping for a big turnout," said Gabe Esposito, a representative from the FBI bureau in West Paterson. During the week of Oct. 23, FBI officials will distribute two red ribbons to students, one to keep and the other to give to a friend. "The ribbons display a visible commitment to the war against (Continued On Page 3)

Elderly women attacked, robbed

Police seek 2 female suspects

WEST PATERSON — Two women bluffed their way into a McBride Avenue home on Wednesday, Oct. 5, robbed two elderly women, roughed up an 88-year-old and sprayed her with mace.

When Patrolman Anthony Galietti arrived at the two-family house near the Paterson border, he found the 88-year-old victim's face red and swollen. He said she declined medical treatment.

Suspects were both described as female, one being white in her late 30s or early 40s, with a thin build and medium complexion. She wore her hair tied back in a bun at the time of the incident. The other speaks with an accent, is also thought to be in her late 30s or early 40s, with short black hair and a medium build.

Sgt. William Gilhooley said the robberies occurred between 1 p.m. and 3 p.m., but the elderly victims, who were not identified, did not contact police until 7:30 p.m.

The occurrence began when the suspect with the accent began a conversation with the 79-year-old victim, near the house she inhabited with her husband and the older woman, who is her upstairs tenant.

The woman's husband was outside doing yard work at the time, but wasn't suspicious of the two women talking, according to police.

The resident invited the perpetrator into her house, unaware of the suspects' intentions. In the meantime, the second suspect entered the house through the back door and is believed to have then examined the layout of the house.

After the suspects left, the resident and her husband went out. This is when authorities say they believe the suspects saw an opportunity to return to the house.

In the apartment upstairs, the suspects grabbed the 88-year-old woman and threw her onto a chair. While one robber restrained the woman, the other broke into a trunk and stole money and other personal items, police said. The suspects then sprayed the victim with mace and fled the scene.

The 79-year-old was shaken up by the incident and was apparently unaware that she was being deceived by the women.

Jewelry, personal items and $800 were among the property stolen.

Gilhooley urges residents to call police immediately if they are approached by any suspicious individuals.

Burglary spurs highway chase

TOTOWA — Patrolman Keith Schaffer responded to an activated alarm located at the Aid Auto Store, located on Route 46 East, on Oct. 5, at 11:30 p.m.

When the officer arrived at the scene, he found the front of the building was secure. But when he checked the back of the building he observed a Pontiac Firebird parked up against the building.

The officer reported he then observed two males exit a garage panel that appeared to have been kicked in. He said after exiting the building the two males fled in the Firebird.

Schaffer said he proceeded to chase the vehicle down Route 46 East with both his flashing lights and siren on. But he said the suspects ignored his signals and exited the highway into Little Falls where the Firebird hit a curb, causing a blowout in the front left tire. The vehicle then swerved into a second curb and the front right tire was ruptured.

According to Schaffer, the suspects continued to drive, but were forced to abandon it on Millpond Road. Schaffer, assisted by West Paterson police said he pursued the suspects, who had fled on foot.

The suspects were apprehended and taken to Totowa police headquarters. They were identified as Walter Caizapanta, 33, of Lodi and Norberto Rodriguez Jr., 19, of Paterson. Both were charged with burglary, theft, alluding, possession of burglary tools and resisting arrest.

In addition, Caizapanta, the alleged driver of the Firebird, was charged with several motor vehicle violations.

Both men are presently in the Totowa jail awaiting arraignment.

Cat injured in attack

• POMPTON LAKES — Garden Road resident Marianne Cannataro reported to police on Oct. 3 that her cat was missing.

Cannataro said that when she returned from work at 5:05 p.m. her cat was nowhere in sight. She told police that her cat always greets her when she returns home.

According to police, Cannataro quickly assembled a neighborhood search for the cat. Subsequently, a neighbor spotted the cat hiding under another neighbor's porch. The cat appeared to be suffering from two broken legs.

Cannataro brought her cat to a veterinarian; she picked up the cat from the vet's office on Oct. 5.

According to police, the vet reported that the cat's leg wounds were the result of being hit by a .22-caliber bullet.

Police are investigating the matter.

Hotel room is plundered

• POMPTON LAKES — On Sept. 30, at 6:19 p.m., Ellsworth Harris, an employee at the Pompton Hotel on Wanago Avenue, reported that one of the rooms had been burglarized.

According to police reports, the room occupied by James McCallister was ransacked after the door was forced open while McCallister was away for the weekend.

A total of $25 in coins was also reported missing.

DWI charge is levied

• POMPTON LAKES — On Oct. 1, at 2:56 a.m. Stursberg L. Edwards, 49, of Pompton Lakes, was arrested and charged with driving while intoxicated.

While patrolling Colfax Avenue, Patrolman Ronald Barnickie said he observed Edwards' car proceeding at an extremely slow speed and drifting, ignoring traffic regulations.

After the car pulled over to the curb, the officer approached the driver and said he detected an odor of alcohol on his breath. Barnickie then had Edwards try to perform balance tests, which he was unable to do.

Barnickie accompanied Edwards to headquarters where he refused to take a breath test.

Edwards was charged with DWI, refusal to take a breath test and failure to exhibit an insurance card.

Barroom brawler suspect arrested

• POMPTON LAKES — Sgt. David Schaffer was dispatched to McKenna's Pub on Cannonball Road, on Oct. 1, at 11:14 p.m., to investigate a disruption at the establishment.

Upon arrival, Schaffer was met by the pub's owner who told the officer that one of the patrons was trying to initiate fights with the other patrons, was cursing and refused to leave. Schaffer entered the pub and said he discovered Charles Lopez, of Butler, acting in the fashion that the owner had described.

Schaffer said he attempted to persuade Lopez to leave quietly but he refused. The officer said he was forced to arrest Lopez in the bar. Lopez was charged with resisting arrest and disorderly conduct.

Antiques stolen from home

• POMPTON LAKES: On Oct. 1, at 12:25 p.m., Robert Gorden reported that items were missing from the home of his mother, Mimmi Gorden, who resides at Albert Street.

Among the items reported missing was an antique marble top table, valued at $500.

Hearing

Renne said Plaza 46 is considered one of the safest malls in the borough, but added that the issue of car theft is a big concern. The chief noted that statistics show a total of 32 vehicles were stolen from Plaza 46 Shopping Center over a three month period.

Renne said that private security personnel would be the "eyes and ears" for local police, but will not have police authority and cannot make arrests.

thing to make sure our residents are protected." If and when the state Legislature adopts a sex offender registration bill it will supersede any legislation enacted by local municipalities. The senate bill is also more stringent, forcing criminal detention centers and psychiatric facilities to notify communities when sex offenders are released. The local ordinances rely on sex offenders registering themselves with local police departments, a process many believe will be ineffective.

"These are obviously people of questionable character," said Wayne Council President William Van Giesen. "It's unlikely they'll walk into the police station on their own accord."

Wayne plans to discuss the ordinance further before voting on its final adoption. Councilman Scott Rumana suggested the sex offender registry be kept private, with only the police chief having access to the information.

"If home buyers see this registry, it will have a negative effect on property values in those areas," Rumana said. "I don't want to stonewall this ordinance, but we have to think about that aspect. I'd hate to see a community destroyed by something like this."

Last month, Edison became the first municipality to enact the sex offender registration ordinance. Passaic, Wanaque and Saddle Brook are also considering similar ordinances.

The concept of registering sex offenders arose after several young children were brutally assaulted and killed by repeat sex offenders who had moved into their neighborhoods.

Last year, 7-year-old Divina Genao was raped and murdered in Passaic. Last spring, 6-year-old Amanda Wengert was killed in Manalapan. In July, 7-year-old Megan Kanka of Hamilton Township was assaulted and killed. The proposed law currently moving through the state senate has been referred to as "Megan's Law."

Wetlands

Urban renewal plan. Farcal Realty and the Cooper Land Company of Wayne had planned to build residential, retail and commercial projects on a combined 93 acre tract. Farcal's portion of the land covers 15 acres, more than 10 of which are located in wetlands.

In 1988 the state courts overturned a wetlands exemption granted to Farcal by the council, citing procedural errors and environmental sensitivity as reasons for the rejection.

The urban renewal project was once seen as a potentially major source of revenue for the township. The project would have earned the township more than $25 million a year in new taxes as well as an additional $15 million from the sale of the remaining 58 urban renewal acres owned by Wayne.

In 1988 the state found that the council did not follow the mandates of the Municipal Land Use Law when it granted the preliminary site-plan approvals for the project. The revoking of the wetlands permits followed a similar ruling by Superior Court Judge Nicholas G. Mandak, who ruled the council's procedures violated the Open Public Meetings Act.

Mandak nullified the approvals granted to the developer's preliminary site plans.

drugs," said Esposito. A ceremony will be held in the school gymnasium on Friday, Oct. 28. The contest winners will be presented with awards. Two students from each class will be chosen to receive T-shirts and other prizes.

Esposito said that in addition to students, teachers and staff members, the West Paterson police chief will be present at the awards ceremony. He said parents are also invited to attend.

"It's a good program that's being offered at one other school in Newark this year," said Esposito. "Next year we're hoping to expand it to at another school in Paterson."

can help." He stressed the importance of giving youngsters a place to "hang out" as well as educating them.

Kosmack said programs the club has offered so far have been extremely well received. Some of which include roller hockey leagues, singing groups, a "Homework Help" after school program providing tutoring and counseling for kids, and a program known as "Rainbows for Children," which was designed to offer assistance and guidance to youths with one or no parents.

According to Chairman Raymond McCoy of the school board, the Boys and Girls Club will have a swimming pool, which will be available to the high school swim team.

"The building can be utilized for different clubs and organizations during certain hours of the day," said McCoy.

McCoy said the decision to sell the site privately rather than go through the public bidding procedure was considered at length by the board.

"Given the current condition of the building, which is showing signs of deterioration, I feel this is a fiscally prudent decision," said McCoy, adding that the bidding process would create delays, the deterioration will worsen, and in turn the bids would come in lower with the extended time period.

The Boys and Girls Club has committed to the national organization, but will not be nationally funded until a facility with a director has been established. Until then, the club will gain its funding through corporations, foundations and fund-raising events.

Historical Society lists 3 programs

Stop that Wrecker! Historic Preservation for Individuals and Communities is a series of three free lectures exploring the techniques of preserving historic buildings, sites and homes with a special focus on preservation projects in Passaic County. The lectures will be held on three successive Wednesdays in October, the 12th, 19th and 26th, at the Passaic County Historical Society's headquarters in Lambert Castle Museum from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

"Landmark Decisions: Preserving Community Treasures" is the title of the first program, scheduled for Oct. 12. The keynote speaker is Charles Scott, from the New Jersey Office of Historic Preservation. He will describe the various federal, state and local programs that exist to help preserve sites and buildings of historical significance. He will also discuss ways in which historic sites find new uses and new economic viability.

After Scott's presentation, local historical groups have been invited to describe their projects. These include the Paterson Historic Preservation Commission, the Wayne Township Historical Commission, and the recent effort in Passaic to preserve the Ayerig Mension (Passaic Masonic Temple).

The second program, From the Ground Up: Grassroots Preservation in Action will be given by Marion Harris, chair of the Morris County Trust and a trustee of Preservation New Jersey on Oct. 19. A lively speaker, her talk will focus on the community initiatives which are crucial to the success of any historical preservation program. She will be followed by representatives from several county grassroots preservation organizations including the Friends of the Morris Canal Park in Clifton, the East Side Neighborhood Association in Paterson, the Friends of the Long Pond Iron Works in Ringwood, and the High Mountain Park Project in Wayne.

The final presentation, "My Old House: Preserving and Living in an Historic Home," will be held on Oct. 26. The speaker will be John Bruce Dodd, AIA, one of New Jersey's pioneer preservation architects. Mr. Dodd will discuss the various pitfalls and delights encountered by owners of older homes, and the necessary balancing act between authenticity, affordability, practicality, appearance and livability.

"I believe these programs will fill a real need," said Historical Society Director Kate Gordon. "People often call us when local landmarks are threatened. But by then it's usually too late. The most effective preservation comes from advance planning and community support. We hope that this series of lectures will help people preserve the features which make their neighborhoods special, and put them in touch with other successful groups within the County."

The Passaic County Historical Society was founded in 1926 to preserve and share the county's rich heritage. This lecture series marks the third year of the Society's annual Jaqua Lectures, named in honor of the Jaqua Foundation which has provided generous support for the Society's educational programming since 1986.

The lectures are all free and open to the public. They will be held in the Historical Society's headquarters in Lambert Castle, which is located on Valley Road at the Clifton-Paterson border. Refreshments will be served. Call the Society at 881-2761 for directions or more information.

County opens new enviro-lab, revamps health inspections

Passaic County officials have formally dedicated the new County Environmental Health Laboratory, culminating the reorganization of the county's environmental health program.

The new state of the art lab, located in Passaic County Community College, will permit the County Health Department to conduct chemical and biological testing and monitoring of contaminated sites and get the results back quicker and at less cost, said Freeholder William Martini, chairman of the Health and Human Services Committee.

Martini, spearheaded the revamping of the environmental testing operation by consolidating its inspection and testing services under the direction of County Health Officer John Ferraioli. Previously, the county contracted with Paterson's health department for inspectors and laboratory work. Ending that arrangement, said Martini, has saved the county about $106,000 and streamlined the operation.

"This is an example of better government, not bigger government," said Martini at the lab dedication. "We took a fragmented program that was sporadically enforced and made it more efficient and less costly to the taxpayers. In the process we created a fairer system that is better able to protect the health and safety of county residents and deal with business concerns."

Freeholder Martini said the county has "significantly updated the technology of the testing lab and increased its capability and capacity in terms of the range tests it can perform."

The freeholder also noted that, by virtue of locating the laboratory in the county college, the county can offer students a hands-on work study program in chemistry and environmental science, which is unique in the state.

"We are maximizing county resources by creating an educational opportunity for our college students while we continue to offer quality protective services to our residents," said Martini. "As far as we know, no other county college offers this opportunity."

Ferraioli said students in the chemistry or environmental science programs will be able to get hands on experience taking field samples, conducting field research and bringing the samples back to the laboratory for testing. The County Environmental Health Act was revised by the state legislature in 1991 to provide greater protection for the public's health and improve environmental quality. The legislature provided that CEHA would be enforced through existing county health departments. The Passaic County Health Department is certified by the state Department of Environmental Protection to provide services to control air, water, noise, solid waste, hazardous materials and pesticide pollution within Passaic County.

The county health department employs a staff of 19 laboratory specialists, inspectors and clerical people to investigate citizen's pollution complaints, respond to hazardous waste spills and conduct routine environmental inspections and ongoing monitoring of suspected or known pollution points.

Ferraioli said the new lab "gives us total control over the testing process and will improve our productivity. It also gives us the opportunity to be of greater help to municipal health departments in conducting testing and ongoing monitoring operations."

Earlier this year the county health department revamped its emergency response system to hazardous chemical spills. The new Haz-Mat Response system, said Freeholder Martini, is more integrated, using the resources of the county, the sheriff's department and trained units from five municipalities. "We are now better able to respond to any hazardous material spill anywhere in the county within 15 minutes," said Martini.

The lab opening represents the final state of the CEHA enforcement reorganization efforts started by Martini last year. Under the old system, the county contracted with the Paterson health department for inspectors, who were supervised by Ferraioli from a remote location. The old system, said Martini, led to inefficient management of inspectors and conflicts between the county and the city over enforcement.

"I want the residents and business owners of the county to be assured that the CEHA regulations will be enforced fairly and evenly throughout every municipality in the county," said Martini. "Our goal is to work with the business community to prevent pollution incidents in the first place, and respond quickly when they occur."

Perch, pickerel and pike await eager Budd Lake anglers

BY OLIVER SHAPIRO
TODAY Correspondent

Casting out again, you begin to think it's really too chilly to be fishing, and you would have been better off watching the football game on television. Your new, comfortable couch, a nice cold drink and a bowl of peanuts at your side...

Suddenly your rod bends double. You gasp, and your pal turns to see what the fuss is all about. You rear back to set the hook into whatever monstrosity has grabbed your lure, and the rod just as suddenly snaps back to vertical. Disappointed, you reel in, feeling no resistance at all on the line. When you finally reach the end, the lure is gone, snipped clean off.

More than one hapless angler has had such an encounter with the northern pike, sometimes called the "water wolf" of freshwater. He's known to biologists as Esox lucius (which means, according to my limited initial research, something like "Lucius the eater," but this is probably way off base), and is the middle cousin of the smaller chain pickerel and larger muskellunge.

He shares the family's long, snakelike profile, duckbill-like mouth, and sharp teeth. He is most different from his relative by the bean-shaped marking on his body, and partly scaled gill covers and fully-scaled cheeks.

Many anglers think of points north, such as Minnesota, Canada, and Alaska for the northern pike, but folks on a budget can pursue them right here in New Jersey. Pike are found in any number of waters in New Jersey. One of the best is Budd Lake, the largest manmade freshwater body in the state.

Located in Morris County, the lake covers 376 acres, and is the site of a very successful pike stocking program, carried out by the Division of Fish, Game and Wildlife. They may be sought successfully year-round, as there is no closed season on pike in this state. Trophy-sized specimens have even been pulled through the ice.

In addition to basic tackle and equipment, an essential item to have when targeting these toothy predators is a wire leader on the end of your line. This, besides a

Rivals can't stop roll of Thunder

With the '94 fall season four weeks old, the Wayne Soccer Club Division IV Wayne Thunder is holding a respectable 13-2 record. The Thunder, playing in the prestigious Mid-New Jersey League "Elite" flight, has found the competition stiff at that level of play.

"The girls knew they would be playing against the best in Div. IV, and that the pace of the game and skill level would be high in the Elite flight," said coach Bob Minarick. "I didn't expect much from them during this season since we are still building on the year-old team. Their play to date has been a pleasant surprise."

Wayne started the season at home against Bridgewater and battled to a 0-0 draw. In game two, the Thunder traveled to Somerset Hills to battle the Shock Waves. Wayne dropped a close contest 1-0, with the lone score coming with only five minutes left to play. In week three, the game was away in Westfield and Wayne jumped out to 1-0 lead in the first half on a goal from striker Alison Grogan, and held on to win the game by the same score. Game four sent Wayne away to Cranford. As in game one, the results were a hard fought 0-0 tie.

"Defensively we match up well and can play with anyone, as can be seen by the fact that we have only allowed one goal in four games," Minarick said.

"Offensively I think we are a little slow to create quality scoring opportunities due to the new system we installed in early September," he added.

The Thunder will get a chance to work on that system while playing in the Parsippany Pride tournament this weekend and State Cup on Oct. 15. The Thunder 1994 roster consists of strikers Alison Grogan and Tara Hager; midfielders Debbie Minarick, Andrea Giannini, Lisa Ricciardi, Katy Swenson, Emily Hickey, Alison Kerr, and Brynne Gerson; defenders Stacey Del'Re, Michele Triolo, Stephanie Rosen, Lyndsey Kriftner and goalkeeper Jill Friedman.

Bloomingtondale battles with Little Falls

The Junior Chiefs 'C' squad remained undefeated as Leo Colombo scored two touchdowns, one on a 60 yard kickoff return to give the Chiefs a 12-12 tie with the Little Falls Hornets.

In the 'B' squad game, the Chief's defense kept the Hornets in check, as the Chief's scored a 24-0 victory. The defense was led by captains Ryan Kramer and Dan Kisthart and supporters Chris Neuberger, Bobby Jameson and Frank Cecer.

Captain and Quarterback John Pituch led the powerful BYO offense as they crushed the Hornet's 'A' squad 32-6. Running backs Josh Saunders, Jason Connelly and Steve Most all scored touchdowns running behind tight-end T.C. Sisco and Craig Wisniewski. Justin Kelsey intercepted a pass and returned it 38 yards to the Hornets three yard line and scored on a fine pass from Pituch. Ed Outwater added two points on a reception. Even the BYO defense got in on the scoring.

possible lapse in attention, was the basic fault shown by our angler at the beginning of this column. The remaining equipment should be reasonably sturdy, (medium to medium-heavy), tackle, as local representatives of the pike clan can weigh as much as 15, 20, or even 25 pounds. The state record, caught from Spruce Run Reservoir in 1977, was 30 pounds, two ounces.

Because of the pike's voracious nature, it will strike a variety of lures. Popular styles are large spoons, spinnerbaits, crankbaits, and jigs. Pike, like the other species, will often follow a lure for a long distance, so keep it in the water as long as possible. Sometimes an extra burst of speed near the end of retrieval can make the pike think that its prey is escaping, and it grabs the bait.

Flyfishing for pike and their cousins has become more popular in recent years. To give this a try, be sure to stick with heavier weight systems, (I recommend at least eight weight) and good-size streamer flies.

Live bait is also very effective for northerns. A common rule of thumb is to select a baitfish that is one-fourth the length of the size pike you'd like to catch. In other words, to catch a 32-inch pike, try a baitfish that is about eight inches long.

After a pike takes the fishbait, don't set the hook immediately. Pike tend to grab their meals sideways and swim off a bit, after which they stop, turn the fish in its mouth, swallow, and move off again. This can take anywhere from 20 seconds to 15 minutes, so wait until the pike swims off, pauses and starts moving again. Then after making sure all the slack is reeled in, set the hook for all you're worth!

Be aware that the minimum size of a pike that is legal to have in possession is 24 inches long; all others must be immediately and safely released. Also, no more than two pike may be retained per angler, per day.

Other cool-weather species in Budd Lake that will cooperate with the autumn angler include the yellow perch, smallmouth bass, and chain pickerel. The lake is very easily reached, located right on Route 46 in the area of Budd Lake and Mount Olive.

CLARIFICATION — In an Oct. 2 article about the Wayne Valley High School soccer team, five players were inadvertently omitted. Those players are midfielders Tom Bongiovanni, Wayne Campagna, and Timmy Fisher, and defenders David Isaacs, and Don Finnegan.

Hornets 'A' squad pounds Lincoln Park, 'B' and 'C' fall to Raiders

The 'A' Squad
 The Little Falls Jr. Hornets "A" Squad defense continued to dominate for its second straight game. After an opening game loss to West Paterson, in which it allowed only 101 combined yards on a rain soaked field, the defense proved it was for real by holding Lincoln Park to 33 yards rushing and no yards passing.

The defense is led by co-captains Victor Washington and Joe Romeo, followed by a solid line of Darrian Merza, Keun Soo Kwon, Peter Renne, Rich Bellina and Jerome Peterson.

The "A" Squad linebackers are Nick Marra, Brian Coats and Bruce Hanna, with secondary players Andrew Orlando, Brett Chichele, Kyle Westervelt, Patrick Fiorito, Mike Disimino and Albe De Young.

The offense struck for three touchdowns in the first half. The first score came on a pass by quarterback Steve Romano, who found Victor Washington in the end zone for the touchdown. The extra point try by Peter Renne was kicked wide. The second and third touchdowns came on runs of 18 yards and five yards by Joe Romeo, who had 110 yards rushing on 12 carries.

Andrew Orlando, Darrian Merza, Nick Marra, Rich Bellina and Brett Chichele all recovered fumbles. Joe Romeo ran behind a line made up of center John Monaco; guards Vinny Montalto, Mike Messina and Tommy Cooper; tackles Dan Keating, Rich Bellina and Peter Renne; and tight ends Brain Coats and Ralph Cocchi. Quarterback Robert Warcholik went four for six in the winning effort.

The Little Falls Jr. Hornets "A" Squad is waiting or John Hagen to join the team. Hagen, who has already lost 30 pounds, is a great inspiration for the Jr. Hornets.

The 'B' Squad
 The Lincoln Park Raiders clearly outplayed the Little Falls Jr. Hornets in the "B" Squad contest held at Passaic Valley High School.

The Raiders used a mix of pitch plays, dives and passes to move the length of the field. In the first quarter, the Jr. Hornets won the coin toss and received the kickoff at midfield. With no runback attempted, the Jr. Hornets managed only one first down before being forced to punt. An interference penalty on the punt gave the Raiders the ball on their own 32 yard line.

In the second quarter, Little Falls took the kickoff at their own 48 yard line, but again managed no return yardage. The first play resulted in a four yard loss, and two incomplete passes from quarterback Ismail Canbulut intended receivers Casey Billeaud and John Kilpatrick forced Little Falls to punt once again. An outstanding punt return by Lincoln Park was negated by a clipping penalty.

Lincoln Park began with a fine run which took the ball from deep in its own territory, to the Little Falls 33 yard line. John Kilpatrick took the kickoff from the Raiders, but could not manage to return for any yards. Once more the Jr. Hornets failed to pick up enough yards for a first down. The punt attempt by Little Falls proved disastrous. The kick went straight up, and after being batted around, Lincoln Park recovered on the Jr. Hornets' 32 yard line. A long pass reception put the Raiders inside the Jr. Hornets' 10 yard line. Two plays later, the score was 18-0 in favor of Lincoln Park.

In the second half, Rick Ricciardelli, Jamar Peterson and Kenny Sauter refused to give up any yardage. Fine work by Ricky Cristafol, Justin Viterito and Jay Fizzarotti handed the ball to the Jr. Hornets' offense. At midfield, possession changed twice again.

Finally Little Falls put together a scoring drive. A short pass reception by John Kilpatrick and a six-yard run by Justin Viterito gave Little Falls a third and one situation at the Lincoln Park 36 yard line. Ricky Cristafol took the hand-off and broke away for the score.

The 'C' Squad
 The Jr. Hornets "C" Squad put on a strong effort defensively against the Lincoln Park Raiders on Sunday, Oct. 2.

Despite the excellent defensive efforts of Bobby Cali and Michael Fizzarotti, the Jr. Hornets couldn't keep the Raiders from scoring. As Ricky DeFeo, Ryan Gaffney, Anthony Fier and Patrick Reilly tried to plow through the Raiders defense, Lincoln Park proved too strong and continued to push back. The Raiders clearly outplayed the Jr. Hornets, ending the game with a 31-0 win.

Murphy, Ortiz offices merge

CLIFTON — Murphy Realty/Better Homes and Gardens recently announced that it will join forces with the Ortiz Real Estate Agency.

Ortiz Real Estate, presently located at 344 21st Ave. in Paterson, will move to Murphy's Clifton Sales and Marketing location. The transition was completed Oct. 1.

Jose Ortiz, founder and owner of Ortiz Real Estate, brings eight licensed real estate sales representatives to Murphy Realty.

With 16-years of real estate experience, Ortiz is a dedicated professional. He received his real estate license in 1986 from Kovats Real Estate School. His success became apparent when he opened his own office in 1988.

"Joining forces with Murphy Realty/Better Homes and Gardens will benefit everyone involved," Ortiz said. "The company offers my staff and clientele the greatest opportunity for success through the Home Merchandising, Home Marketing, Home Buying and Home Information Systems. I offer Murphy Realty 16-years of real estate experience, working mainly with the Paterson community.

"As one of the owners of Paterson Falls Real Estate Agency for seven years, I gained extensive real estate experience, which gave me the opportunity to become Broker of Record of Ortiz Real Estate Agency Inc.," he said.

Joseph Murphy and Allan Dalton are the co-creators and co-developers of four national Better Home and Gardens Marketing Systems: The Home Merchandising, Home Marketing, Home Buying and Home Information Systems.

Joe Federico, vice president/manager of the Clifton Sales and Marketing Center, invites interested buyers and sellers of homes and properties to contact any of the highly trained and professional sales executives at Murphy's Clifton Sales and Marketing Center. The phone numbers are 881-8080 and 773-4141.

Boulder Ridge opening announced Hovnanian designs upscale townhomes

The land is beautiful, set on a Wayne Township hillside and bordered by trees. The community is aptly named Boulder Ridge and it will have newly designed K. Hovnanian townhomes with garages for just 54 fortunate families.

Value pricing will start from below the $200s. Interest in these homes is strong and so the community will open by appointment on Wednesday, Oct. 19 from the company's new Wayne Hills sales center at 401 Hamburg Turnpike, on the third floor. The phone number is 389-1100.

"If you're interested in a striking townhome with a garage, at uncommon value for Wayne, we suggest you phone us quickly as we're setting appointments on a first-call first-served basis," says Kevork Hovnanian, chairman and chief executive officer of New Jersey's leading home builder. "Boulder Ridge has only 54 homes and we believe once people compare our location, plans and prices, they will be bought quickly."

In addition to Boulder Ridge, the new Wayne office offers information on K. Hovnanian's other communities in the township. Three-dimensional videos of the homes, floor plans, aerial views of the communities and site locators are available. Horizon Heights features mansions priced from the $450s.

Almadera Estates, which opened on Sept. 24 from the Horizon Heights office, features stately single-family homes from the low-$300s. Boulder Ridge is an intimate-sized, affordably-priced townhome-with garage community that clearly stands apart from any comparable housing offered in the area.

"Residents will gain the maximum in privacy and tax benefits through fee-simple ownership of their own home and land," says Hovnanian. "And what homes they will be."

At Boulder Ridge, the company's cutting-edge designs have been refined to foster a better flow among the kitchen, living room and dining room. The eat-in-kitchen has been made larger and all family rooms will have vaulted ceilings.

Hovnanian said his firm has designed spacious two and three bedroom townhomes, from 1,860 to 2,260 square feet of living space plus garages, with soaring two-level ceilings and huge windows, gourmet kitchens and luxurious master suites with walk-in closets and sumptuous bathrooms.

"These are bright homes which bring in the views and foster indoor-outdoor living," he said. "They are designed both for ease of entertaining and for quiet private times."

All Boulder Ridge homes include such features as central air conditioning, a gas range and hood, a dishwasher, gas-fired water heater, ceramic tile flooring in the entry foyer and a 10-year homeowner's warranty. Buyers can personalize their homes from a wide choice of options.

Purchasing a K. Hovnanian home is so easy. One toll-free call from your home to 1-800-414-3380 can give you answers to your down payment and mortgage qualification questions in about five minutes.

Boulder Ridge is located minutes from Routes 1-80, I-287, 46, 3, 23 and 202 and a half-hour commute from either the George Washington Bridge or the Lincoln Tunnel. Residents will share Wayne's 24 square miles of rolling hills and valleys, dotted with parks, supported by excellent schools and echoing our nation's history.

Wayne was twice the headquarters of the American Revolution. Today its flatlands hold offices of international corporations and shopping malls which set a national standard.

"Boulder Ridge offers an unusual combination of lifestyle and home value," says Hovnanian. "We rarely uncover such land in a township like Wayne."

To visit the office from New York, take Route 46 West to the Riverview Drive Exit. Turn right onto Riverview and at the fifth traffic light turn right onto Valley Road. Again at the fifth traffic light turn right onto Hamburg Turnpike. Just after the second traffic light, across the road from Citizens First Savings Bank, make an immediate right into the 401 parking lot and the office is on the third floor.

Rankin gains honor

Bobbie Rankin, above, a sales associate with Weichert Realtors Wayne office, recently received a regional award for the greatest number of sold listings. A 13-year veteran of real estate, Rankin has been with Weichert for 12 years. Her sales and listing accomplishments qualified her for the company's Million Dollar Sales and Marketed Clubs. Rankin is married and has two children. She studied business at William Paterson College. She can be reached for real estate transactions at 696-6660. The Weichert office is located at 991 Hamburg Turnpike.

POMPTON PLAINS — The Coldwell Banker Schlott Pompton Plains office presented its Third Annual Scholarship awards to two recent graduates of Pequannock High School and Pompton Lakes High School.

Each graduate received a $500 scholarship donated by the sales associates from the Pompton Plains office.

As a convenience to the buyer, monthly payments are included in our ads. For purchase prices up to $253,937, monthly mortgage payments (principal + interest) quoted in our ads are to qualified buyers, based upon a 20% down payment and a conventional 30-year fixed rate loan at 8.375% with 3 points. A.P.R. 8.706%. As an example, a $100,000 loan would mean $60 monthly payments of $760.07. For purchase prices from $253,938 to $625,000, the monthly payments are to qualified buyers based upon a 20% down payment and a conventional 30-year fixed rate loan at 8.500% with 3 points. A.P.R. 8.821%. As an example, a $100,000 loan would mean $60 monthly payments of $764.57. Figures are approximate and do not include taxes, hazard insurance, or homeowners association dues for a condominium purchase. Interest rates quoted are as of September 1, 1994, and subject to change.
