THIRTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING.

President, Miss E. L. Starr's Address—A Successful Year's Work Ended.

The thirteenth annual meeting of the Willard Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held on Tuesday evening, Sept. 3, at the hall on Prospect street. Mrs. J. E. Brewer conducted the opening devotional exercises. The President, Miss E. L. Starr, made a short address as follows:

The secretary's report showed an enrollment of 70 active, and 15 honorary members, five new members and three removals by death—Mrs. J. D. Jacques, Miss Mary Patterson and Mrs. Julia Porst. One hundred and eighty-five meetings have been held.

We meet to-night for our thirteenth annual gathering. All who were with us at the beginning of the year are not with us now. Some of our members have been called to rest from their labors, some have withdrawn, necessarily, on account of changed residence, and others who joined us in the enthusiasm of some special meeting, failed to receive the seed into good ground. The word not being mixed with faith, proved unfruitful in good works, and we miss their help.

Some new names, however, have been added and although we are unable to report as large a membership as that of the previous year, we need not be discouraged or even afraid. Let us remember Gideon's band of three hundred. The work accomplished depends upon the quality of the workers, rather than upon the number. Let us also stay our minds and hearts on the word, "not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord."

Through the agency of the local press the work of the Union has been kept before the community. The literature distributed and the public meetings have spread a knowledge of our principles.

Our social meetings have brought new members to our ranks, and workers have been strengthened in our devotional meetings. The Flower Mission has carried gospel messages of comfort to the sick and sorrowing, and through the agency of the Italian Mission, the gospel has proved to be the power of God unto salvation, to souls sitting in the darkness of ignorance and superstition. The seed-sowing must be patiently performed, though sometimes with tears.

The Lord of the harvest will give the increase, for we have the promise, "he that sows forth and sows with precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

For the coming year let each promise to do her best. Let us be ready to carry out the suggestions for work as far as possible, which shall come to us from County, State and National officers. Let us welcome our public speakers, make greater efforts to spread the truth by the printed page and the press.

In the contest, that we are told is sure to come regarding the Anti-Canteen Law, let us be ready to do our part. The forces of evil seem to be combining to compel the repeal of the law, and we must be ready to join heart and hand with the forces of righteousness, to conquer by the grace of God, in this battle. Let us determine to become better informed this year regarding the work of our many departments. The Union Signal, the New Jersey Gazette and not least, the new Voice should be in the hands of our members. These are to us, as workers, what ammunition is to the soldier. Let each member feel her responsibility for some part of the work, her duty to be at the meetings always, when possible, and not to allow small things to hinder, and in the year just opening, we may find our Lord intrusting to us greater opportunities.

In closing let me remind you that God's work will be done. If we refuse He will find some one else to do it and we will miss the privilege and the blessing. The word to Esther was, "If thou art altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise from another place."

And the poet gives us this word, "If before his duty Man with listless spirit stands, Ere long the great avenger, Takes the work from out his hand. Let us be up and doing."

The following departments have been in charge of superintendents, Evangelistic, Flower Mission, Mother's Meetings, Work in Sunday Schools, Literature, Scientific Temperance Instruction, Press, Social Meetings and Work Among Foreigners. More or less work has been done along all these lines and was reported by the several superintendents.

The report of the treasurer showed a balance of over $40.

The superintendents then reported their department work.

Officers were elected and Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson, President of the County Union then made a short address.

Ice cream and cake were served and a social hour enjoyed by all present.

Great Train Under New Name.

New York, Sept. 4.—When the Southern Railway announces its winter schedule, its widely-known and popular Florida train service between New York and St. Augustine, its famous New York and Florida limited will have a new name. It will be called the Southern Palms Limited, and in spite of the elegance, luxury and comfort afforded heretofore, it will be demonstrated that the limit was not reached. The Pullman company is building entirely new equipment for the train, the perfection of which in completeness of appointment and beauty, it is promised, will surpass anything that has ever been attempted in passenger car construction.

The Yacht Races in New York.

The New Jersey Central has arranged to place its fast sea-going boat, the Monmouth, of the Sandy Hook Fleet, in service for the cup races. The Monmouth will leave Pier 8, North River, foot of Rector street, on each race day at 9 a. m., returning after the race. Tickets will be sold at $5.00 for each race. Though the boat has a far greater capacity, the number of tickets sold will be but 750, allowing ample accommodation for all. The Monmouth is noted for its fine table service and its excellence will not be curtailed at this time, and the rates will be reasonable. Tickets are on sale at the Liberty street station, New York, also at 484 and 1300 Broadway, New York. For staterooms or information apply to C. M. Burt, General Passenger Agent, New Jersey Central, New York City.

Great Race at Vallsburg.

The big event in cycling this week is the big three-cornered match race between Frank Kramer, Major Taylor and Ivor Lawson, the leading sprinters of America, at the Vallsburg Board Track, Newark, to-morrow. The purse is $500 and each rider will do his best in this event, as it will be the first time this year that they have met in the same heat. The race will be run in one mile heats, and three heats will be run to decide the possession of the purse. Each heat will be paced by riders on single wheels, and the pace will be very fast all the way. A race between motor tandem, the five mile New Jersey State amateur championship and short sprint races will fill up the program.

Woman's Suffering and Misery.

If women suffering from uterine or ovarian disturbance, from painful, irregular, distressing periods, know of the great comfort and prompt relief that may be had by the use of Wells' Stomach Elixir, existence for them would be more tolerable. The serious permanent dangers that may come from these troubles if not corrected is hardly fully realized by most women. This remedy was originally designed not exactly for Dyspepsia, but for a most miserable stomachic condition which is relieved or completely cured by Wells' Stomach Elixir. It is a most reliable, safe, and comfortable remedy, and has been found by the women of the household to be a most effective and comforting remedy at painful, distressing periods. For Stomach, Bowel and Abdominal distress and misery, Wells' Stomach Elixir gives prompt and salutary relief, comforting, soothing, and gently invigorant to a weak, feeble, debilitated stomach. A Morning Prayer.
Let me today do something that shall take
A little sadness from the world's vast store,
And may I be so favored as to make
Of joy's too scanty sum a little more.
Let me not hurt, by any selfish deed
Or thoughtless word, the heart of foe or friend;
Nor would I pass, unseeing, worthy need
Or sin or sorrow when I should defend.
However meager be my worldly wealth,
Let me give something that shall aid my kind,
A word of courage or a thought of health
Dropped as I pass for troubled hearts to find.
Let me tonight look back across the span
Twist dawn and dark and to my conscience
Say,
Because of some good act to best or man,
"The world is better that I lived today."

President McKinley's Condition.
Latest Report from Headquarters
Not Encouraging.
(Special to the Standard.)
At the hour of going to press, 2 p m., President McKinley's condition, while somewhat better than early this morning, is still serious and the doctors are constantly at his bedside.
Every effort is being made to relieve the sufferer and it is thought that his condition will improve before night.

ONCE TOO OFTEN!
Following the horror with which we received the news of the attempt upon President McKinley's life; and deeply grateful for every promise that his life will be spared we confess that we remain aghast before the perils of Anarchy with a desire for vengeance that is contrary to the spirit of Christianity.

Not since Judas Iscariot betrayed
the loving Christ with a kiss has there been a more inglorious act
than that of the loathsome creature Czolgors when he offered his open palm in friendly greeting to the people's President; and then, with a weapon concealed from view, shot in an attempt to assassinate his defenceless and confiding victim.

Words must fail to characterize so base a crime. Nor has the name yet been coined with which to brand the craven who has so shocked the civilized world to its foundations.
There can be no place in earth or hell or Heaven for such as he.
A deadly snake is none the less to be crushed under the heel of Society because it appears in the form of a man.

The horrible act of this odious creature is all the more shocking because he is but one of many who in this free land mistake Liberty for license, ready to assassinate even the man the people in the exercise of a priceless suffering, have chosen to be their chief.

There should be no place for an Anarchist's foot on American soil.
If we cannot force Anarchists out of the country we can at least stop letting them in!
Indiscriminate encouragement of "refugees" and criminal classes from abroad must be stopped.

The ballot in the hands of aliens
is a dangerous thing.
It is not too much to require a rigid Civil Service examination to show
the people whether the man who asks for the great privilege of voting in this country understands our institutions and is of good general character.
These are among the lessons our country has learned at a cost beyond all price.

Long life to the president!
Let us pour oil on the troubled mosquitoes.
Columbia has nothing the matter
with her Constitution.
Dover has received instructions from O'Neil to "go way back and sit down."
It is said the average Westfield woman reads the advertisements in the Standard more often than she curls

her hair.
Carrie Nation and George Washington kept busy as two bees; Carrie Nation hacking cherry bars, while George, hacked cherry trees.

We have long been aware that Westfield was shy one of its buttons.
But it is no longer so; for we have the pleasure of announcing that a local Brass Band is to be got together.

Perhaps, gentle reader, you can't make anything out of our jokes; but don't you care! The fellow who wrote them didn't make anything out of them either. This is one of our best jokes.

Mr. Retailer, Dear Sir—Don't wait to advertise till business gets better. Make it better by improving your advertising system now.
Yours truly,
Ad. Sharp.

Uncle Bill Pensley says that his newly invented road drier worked hopes with the addition of another something during wet weather.

the Oil Trust, in fact, all the trusts, seem to be doing well. All except his own.

DEAR CHARLIE:
You're altogether too good and too valuable a fellow to be anything but always well. It gives us an abiding pang of pain to learn that you have been confined to a sickbed. We send you herewith a large bouquet of the roses of High Hopes and Good Wishes, cut fresh from the garden of Fraternity, trusting that they will add something to the fragrance of your sick room.

Affectionately,
The Standard.
Mr. Chas. C. McBride,
Editor Elizabeth Journal.

PROF. SAVITZ.
DEAR SIR:
The Standard welcomes you to Westfield as the most important man of all her citizens; because you have charge of Westfield's Educational interests, and that in itself makes you so. Yet in a more personal way also, do we welcome
you; for we have heard only nice things about you, and we have been at some pains to inquire, being quite a busybody ourselves.
We learn, too, only the sweetest things about Mrs. Savitz, which makes a good matter better.
We bespeak for you a relation of happy usefulness in Westfield. And we promise to do all in our power to help in the materialization of the wish.
Be sure that the Standard's gratitude
is at your service—crank and all.

WHO THE TEACHERS ARE.

The Westfield schools have a particularly capable set of teachers this year
as follows:
High School—Misses Eggleston, Carter, Hardy, Nichols.
Grammar School—Misses Stryker, Dar-
by, Duguid, M. A. Brown.
Primary—Misses Harned, Clark, A. F.
Halsey, Hilton, S. I. Brown, Meeker, Boisselle, Hart, Newell, Pugh, Apgar.
Kindergarten—Misses E. A. Halsey,

The three new teachers are Miss Nichols, in the High School, and Misses Duguid and M. A. Brown, in the Grammar School; all three were with us last year.
Two who were with us last year have resigned, Miss Jones and Miss Van Arts-dale.

high grade specialists, spending several days here during the month; a system being now widely adopted.

HORATIA NELSON WHEELER.

Horatia Nelson Wheeler died at his residence on First street, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, and leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss. For some two weeks past he has been confined to his bed with an attack of Bright's disease, which finally resulted in his death.
Mr. Wheeler had been a resident of Westfield for eighteen years, was a member of the Methodist church, an honorary member of Willard W. C. T. U. and was always interested in the Italian Mission.
The funeral service will be held Sunday
from his late residence at 3:15 o'clock and will be conducted by Dr. C. M. Anderson. Interment at Fairview cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife,

HUDSONS LOSE TO WESTFIELD.

The conditions were against snappy ball Saturday in more ways than Van Zant being tired after participating in four games during the week up to the time he should have done his duty to Westfield.

The air was hot and still, and it was as distressing to the spectators as to the players. Again, it wasn't the real thing Hudson's, not the Hudson's who have given us the best article of ball heretofore.
Arrangements had been made by the Hudson management to have several minor League players on their team, but for reasons unexplained, these men don't appear. At no time in the game was there a chance for the visitors to do any damage. The home team commenced to make sure of the game and the wind up 11 to 7 surprised no one.

To-morrow's game must be different.
The Pearsall's have awaited this chance to get at Westfield with considerable faith in their ability to win. There is no team on the diamond that puts up a steadier team game, with possibly the exception of the Equitable Life, they work hard all the time, know the fine points and don't take defeat while there is any kind of a chance to win out.

Westfield will be strong, VanZant has had a good rest and there should be plenty of steam in his delivery. The season is approaching its end, the weather conditions ought to be favorable, and it is expected that to-morrow's game will be as good as any game yet played.

THREE GOOD GAMES.

Base Ball Season to Close with Excellent
Visiting Teams.

The uniformly good ball presented the entire season by the Westfield management has met with public favor, as is evidenced by the large attendance and interest shown at all games. The management have secured three good teams for the last games of the season and it is to be hoped that each game will be well patronized. To-morrow Westfield will cross bats with the Pearsall's, of Jersey City; the 21st with the well-known Everett College team, and on Oct. 5th with the Aeolian's, of Garwood. The latter will be strengthened for the game with Westfield and they will come prepared to make the home team look like thirty cents. Anyhow, that is what their manager says, but the Westfield team can be relied upon to play ball
every minute and may show the visitors
a trick or two yet unknown in ball circles down Garwood way. No game is scheduled for Sept. 28th, on account of the race meet of the Fair Acres Driving Club to be held in Westfield on that date.

DR. THEODORE VICTOR SMITH.

Dr. Theodore Victor Smith died at 5:30 Thursday afternoon at his residence
57 Clark street. He was taken sick about two weeks ago and became unconscious on Tuesday, remaining in that condition until the end. He was born in Williamsburg, N. Y.; was 49 years old and has been a prominent resident of Westfield for 25 years. As a physician he was held in high esteem and had a large practice. He leaves a widow and six children. Funeral services will be from his late residence. Monday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. J. R. Danforth officiating. Interment in Fairview cemetery will be private at convenience of family.

Kicked By A Horse.

Charence Lambert was severely injured late Sunday night by being kicked by a horse belonging to Scott Terry. Mr.
Lambert had spent Sunday evening out of town and upon his return entered Lawrence Power's stable to get his (Lambert's) horse and drive home. While passing Terry's animal, which was stable
there, he was kicked in the face and body and badly cut and bruised. Dr. Harrison was at once summoned and dressed the wounds.

BAMBERGER'S
ALWAYS BUSY STORE
MARKET & HALSEY STS.

SEPTEMBER TRADE SALE.
Most Stupendous Sacrificing in the History of Modern Retailing.

A stupendous, rarely if ever paralleled merchandising achievement. Manufacturers everywhere have been drawn upon, and tremendous stocks, including many sample lines have been acquired at prices not infrequently below actual cost of materials from which they are made. Never in the entire record of State famous sales has there been one to even approximate this in extent or importance. It fairly eclipses the most brilliant bargain demonstration here or anywhere in years, and unless there is an unaccountable lack of enthusiasm, the next few days will be characterized by the busiest selling ever known in the retailing history of Newark.

Mail or Telephone orders filled for everything remember, and charges prepaid on all purchases to any point within a radius of one hundred miles.

L. Bamberger & Co., NEWARK, N. J.

"NEW HAVEN ALL RIGHT."

Following the smash up on the Plainfield track Labor Day, there have been numerous inquiries as to the condition of Harry Sanderson's valuable horse,
"New Haven." Notwithstanding the fact that the peculiar accident was severe enough to turn the animal upside down, wreck the sulky, break the driver's watch and shred the harness, he came up smiling, for the situation was one to make a horse laugh, especially after he had won two out of the necessary three heats. He was hitched to another sulky.
It will be remembered, and won the third heat "in a walk," much to the satisfaction of A. C. Blum, superintendent of Mr. Fairbairn's Fair Acres, who has handled New Haven for Mr. Sanderson and who, since the accident, says he is all right.
When we asked "which or who—the horse or Sanderson?" The answer was,
"Both."
Which is, doubtless, according to the facts.

Letter to John Ingram.

Westfield, N. J.
Dear Sir: Some think we take a good deal of risk in inviting complaints of Devco lead and zinc—we authorize our agent to sell it under this guarantee:
"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on,
or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer
about it."
We authorize him to do what is right
at our expense.

The following story tells how little the risk is:
J. H. Asher & Co., hardware dealers, Rhinebeck, N. Y., have sold Devco from '76 to now, and have had just one complaint in all this time.

Three sides of a house were perfect;
the fourth was as bad as the three were good.

Explanation—It rained the night before the fourth side was painted; and the painters didn't wait for the wood to dry.

What is done in such a case? Whatever the dealer, who sold the paint, considers it fair to do. We leave it to him.
He may not do exactly what we should do if we were there; but we are not there.
The best we can do is to leave it to him.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & CO.

His score on the 500 yard range was 30 points and on the 600 yard range 32 points, a total of 61 points out of a possible 70. Company K qualified three men as sharpshooters and about 40 as marksmen, which is considered a remarkably good showing for a new company. The two sharpshooters besides Corporal Pearsall are Capt. Browning and Private Whitney.

The Fishing Otter.
The otter used by Scottish poachers is one of the most deadly fishing instruments known. In some waters it is far more effective than a net. It may be described as a water kite, which serves to take out over the water a line bearing 50 or more flies. The otter itself is a floating piece of board, tapered along one edge to keep it upright. The poacher walks along the side of loch or river, letting out the fly decorated line as he goes, the otter board gradually working out toward the center. An enormous area of water is fished at one time and numbers of fish are killed.

An Awakener.
A preacher, raising his eyes from his desk in the midst of his sermon, was paralyzed with amazement to see his rude son in the gallery, spouting the heaviest in the news below with horse chestnuts. But while the good man was preparing a frown of reproof the young hopeful cried out:

"You 'tend to your preaching, daddy. I'll keep 'em awake."

A Light Repast.
Hungry Horace—Kind lady, could you give me something to eat? It ain't no notion since day before yesterday.
Kind Lady—And what did you eat then?
Hungry Horace—Nothing but do more ket report in an old paper—Baltimore American.

Polished Furniture.
When a polished table is stained by a hot dish, one restoring process is to use first wood alcohol and then linseed or olive oil. This treatment is excellent for keeping any polished furniture in order and is one of the few things for which wood alcohol may be used. The latter is cheaper than the pure and for certain domestic uses is quite as good.

Depew and Platt.
Chauncey M. Depew used to have in his collection of curiosities a certain telegraphic dispatch which never failed to interest the politicians to whom he showed it. The telegram was sent to Mr. Depew, then president of the New York Central railroad, by Mr. Platt shortly before the latter's election to a second term in the senate. It is dated a few stations above Poughkeepsie and reads:

Please stop the noon express here to take on Mrs. Platt and Mr. Tuo.
"I stopped the train gladly," Mr. Depew would say when he exhibited it. "I am always willing to do a favor for a man who turns a joke on himself."

Westfield Has Clean Markets.

Westfield is noted for the usual cleanliness of its markets. Martin Snyder, proprietor of the Elm street meat market, takes particular pride in keeping his store clean and neat. The public appreciate this fact as is evidenced by his large and growing trade with the best families in this vicinity. It is well to sit at the dinner table and know that the meat is clean and the best the market affords. That's just the kind Snyder keeps.

Westfield to Have Brass Band.

A brass band has been organized in Westfield. Their first rehearsal was last night and was well attended. Westfield is large enough to support a good band and there are many good musicians in the town from which to select good players. The band expect to be prepared to accept engagements within one month.

WESTFIELD'S SUBSTANTIAL GROWTH.

Forty New Houses Erected Since Jan. 1—Considerable Building this Fall.

Westfield, so often called the garden spot of New Jersey, has received a substantial growth since January 1, over forty new houses having been erected during that period. While other towns have been sleeping, good old Westfield has been building houses to supply the great demand for homes within her borders, and even yet the supply by no means equals the demand. Among the new houses erected are Prospect street, houses for Charles Affleck, H. L. Abrams, Clark Perrine, 2; Dndley avenue, H. L. Russell, George Perry and James Fink; Elm street, two houses; Ross Place, Jas. Moffat; Central avenue, T. W. Powell; Park street, John Goltra, J. M. Ledley, Prof. W. A. Edwards; South Broad street, Francis R. Baker and George Baker; Charles street, James O. Clark; Summit avenue, T. H. Terrestrial Magnetism.

It is well known that clay baked in a brick furnace is magnetized along an axis which corresponds to the axis of the terrestrial magnetic field at the moment of baking, and it is noteworthy that the magnetization is very permanent. On these facts M. Folgerer has founded a method of studying the inclination of the magnetic needle in antiquity. He determines the direction of the magnetic axis of pottery of Etruscan and Roman times. The declination of the needle cannot be determined in this way on account of the impossibility of knowing exactly how the masses stood in the baking ovens; we know that they stood vertically, but no one can say which side was to the front. It is quite possible that this method may be extended to determinations referring to geologic epochs by observing the direction or magnetization of clay strata that have been transformed into brick by flows of hot lava. The latter question is now being studied in the volcanic region of the Mt. de-Dome in France.—Science.

The Fallings of Education.

The methods of public school instruction, as applied in New York City, do not always meet the approval of the parents of the pupils, as was evidenced the other day when a German woman of commanding figure strode into the school and approaching the principal demanded: "What is it, a lobster?" The principal politely explained that a lobster was a species of shell fish. "Well, how many legs has it—dis lobster?" "The number of legs was stated." "Well, I work me for a hurry, and if your teacher cannot find better things than to ask my boy, why he has many legs has it, a lobster, and make him come home to bodder his fadder, mit questions, What it is, a lobster? it is pad poeness." Youth's Companion.

Smell of the Black Beetle.

The disagreeable smell of the common black beetle is familiar in too many households. A French entomologist, M. Bordas, has minutely described the ramified, dichotomously branched glands that secrete the disgusting, volatile liquid that provides the insect with an effective means of defense against its smaller foes. Tested by litmus paper, the secretion is shown to be strongly alkaline, as are the majority of similar pungent substances. With the object of repelling animal enemies, its formation is continuous, though the approach of an enemy accelerates the process.—Science.

An Arab's Costume.

The child of the Arab's costume is a white cloak called the burnous, which covers the whole figure. It has a hood which protects the head from the sun. Beneath this there are all sorts of gorgeous vests and jackets. The legs are bare, but the feet are covered with rich red leather shoes dyed with the juice of the pomegranate. A group of Arabs is always striking, but few more remarkable gatherings will be seen than in the market place of Biskra, where hundreds of Arabs assemble each day to buy and sell cattle, dates, and other wares.—Baltimore American.

A Good Report.

A man returned home after a holiday of two weeks. His eight-year-old son loudly welcomed him. "Is everybody well, Jimmy?" the father asked. "The bestest kind," the boy replied. "And nothing has happened?" "Nothing at all, like been good, Jennie's all right and I never saw a behave as she has this time."—Tit-Bits.

Like a Woman.

"I have decided to be a hospital nurse," said Amy. "I saw it stated that 75 per cent of unmarried men fall in love and propose marriage to the women that nurse them through severe illness." "I saw that statement, too," added Mabel. "But my recollections of that said pretty nurse!"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Polaris as a Triple Star.

A recent bulletin of the Lick observatory confirms an earlier announcement that Polaris is a triple star. The bright star, the North star, moves about the center of mass of itself and a dark companion star in 3 days, 23 hours, 14 minutes. These two stars also move slowly around a third dark star in a long period.—N.Y. Sun.

A Misanthrope.

Mrs. Noozy—I think it's the most ridiculous thing to call that man in the bank a "teller."
Mrs. Chummi—Why?
"Because they simply won't tell at all. I asked one to-day how much my husband had on deposit there, and he just laughed."—Philadelphia Press.

Chubberty—Have you ever been so desperately in love that you felt as if you couldn't control it?
Castleton—No. All the girls I've been in love with have been only moderately well off.—Detroit Free Press.

Resented.

Sun—You'll put all de odder gals in de shade.
Dinah (indignantly)—I dunno what yo' mean by "in de shade," but I'd hah yo' to know dat I'd jest as soon be black as yaller, any day!—Puck.

UNION WATER COMPANY

Incorporated 1870. Organized 1870. The Union Water Company supplies the inhabitants of the villages of Westfield, Cranford and Roseland with water for domestic use.

"The Purest and Sweetest that Nature can Yield."

In June 1895 the water supplied by the Company was analyzed by Allen Hazen, Esq., a leading hydraulic expert of Boston, and pronounced by him to be "water of great purity," and in a letter to one of the Company's patrons he adds: "You are to be congratulated upon having so good a supply, and you have no anxiety whatever as to its wholesomeness." The interest of the Company is identical with the villages in which its plan is located, and it is the policy of the management to do its full share to promote their growth and prosperity.

The Company refers to all its Patrons. A representative of the Company will be pleased to call on parties who do not at present use water from its mains, and explain rates, terms, method of service, etc.

Just the Time for Fall Housecleaning.
Now is just the time for fall housecleaning and doubtless you will have more or less wall papering to be done. Perhaps some upstairs room needs new paper. Something attractive. Or, perhaps, there is some painting or touching up of woodwork in a few of the rooms. If you find such to be the case, consult Charles Crickenberger, No. 38 Elm street. Here can be found the newest creations in wall papers at most reasonable prices. He is also prepared to do all kinds of house painting and decorating at short notice.

A Tact Refuted.
The infant of a household was in its cradle. The head of the house was at home, peevish and fault finding. At length he became unendurable. "You have done nothing but make mistakes tonight," he growled.

CAMP WOOLFE SEASON CLOSES.

Farewell Meeting and Impressive Services
Addresses and Singing.

The closing services of the Fresh Air Mission were held at Camp Wolfe on Monday evening and the meeting was largely attended from all over the county. Many of the camp guests had returned to New York but Miss Curry, the matron, was present. The trolley cars brought many Endeavorers and Epworth Leaguers from nearby towns and a rousing meeting was held, led by Arthur N. Pierson, first vice president of the Union Fresh Air Mission Association. After a service of song, prayer was offered by the Rev. E. L. Fox, of New York, followed by reports of committees. The treasurer's report shows the Association to be in a healthy condition financially with a balance of over $100 in the treasury. Addresses were made by D. M. Torrey, of this place, Miss Sara Curry, of New York, the matron of the camp, and J. T. Spruille, of Essex County Christian Endeavor Union. The year just closed has been one of the most helpful since the camp was organized in 1894.

Academy Of Music.

"Arizona" continues at the Academy of Music the best patronized attraction in New York City. On Labor Day, Mr. Gilmore's enormous theatre was crowded to its utmost capacity at both performances. Brigadier General Hayes and Colonel Small of the United States Army, are among the numerous officers stationed about New York Harbor who have recently attended the performance of "Arizona." They occupied a box last Thursday night, and Gen. Hayes presented his compliments to Augustus Thomas, the author of the play, with the hearty declaration that the piece was a picture true to life of an Arizona army post in which he spent several years of exile from civilization.

Told Him.

An old Scottish farmer, being elected a member of the local school board, visited the school and tested the intelligence of the class by his questions. The first inquiry was:
"Noo, boys, can any o' you tell me what naething is?"
After a moment's silence a small boy in a back seat arose and replied:
"It's what ye gie me t'other day for haudin yer house!"—London Answers.

Too Busy for Business.

The importance of encounters for the championship was fully borne in upon the traveling man of business, who thus relates his experience:
When I arrived at Black Rock I inquired at the village tavern for a man of the name of Wharton, who had some land to sell.
"Do you mean old Bill Wharton?"
"Yes."
"Got land down on Bass river?"
"Yes."
"Well, he lives about three miles out of town."
"Can I get a horse?"
"Yes, but it won't do you any good."
"Is he ill?"
"Not that I know of, but he wouldn't see the president of the United States before next Wednesday. If you can wait seven or eight days, you can get to talk about that land with him."
"Then he has some special business on hand?"
"Special business? Well, I should say so and no mistake. To-day him and old Pete Davis sat down to a game of checkers or the championship of the county."—Philadelphia Times.

Mixing Their Metaphors.

Few things are more joyous to an audience than the mixed metaphors of an orator. The Irish race is famous for its contributions to merriment in this particular. Here are three illustrations:
"You are," said a late lord mayor of Dublin, "standing on the edge of a precipice that will be a weight on your necks all the rest of your days."
"The young men of England," remarked an English clergyman, "are the backbone of the British empire. What we must do is to train that backbone and bring it to the front."
And this is from a member of parliament: "Even if you carried those leading little reforms, it would be only like a flea bite in the ocean."—Academy.

A Holy Brick.

The Italian steamship Regina Margherita, lately arrived at Buenos Ayres from Italy, has brought one of the most extraordinary parcels that has ever appeared in the manifest of any vessel—viz, a holy brick. We do not mean a jolly friar in holy orders. He would not be manifested. We mean a real brick, a squared mass of burned clay, declared to be holy because it was taken from the Holy Gate in the Vatican. The parcel is forwarded by the pope to Argentina as a mark of special distinction.—Argentina Times.

American Exposition in London.

An exposition devoted exclusively to American products, manufactured and other, may be held in Crystal Palace, London, the scene of the first world's fair, 50 years ago. Several English papers argue that the best way to meet the increasing competition of this country is to study its methods and by that means ascertain where the British manufacturers and artisans are falling behind. As long as "the American invasion" causes so much comment in Europe the proposed exhibition ought to be welcome.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Lumber in the State of Washington.

Washington is the principal lumber state in the union. It has an estimated 200,000,000,000 feet of merchantable timber, an amount that would allow of cutting at the present rate for 100 years before its exhaustion. But the same wasteful methods prevail there which have denuded some of the older states of their timber, and there is the same lack of provision for the future.—Lumber Journal.

England's Beanfeast.

Beanfeast is the name given to an annual dinner given by employers in England to their work people—possibly so called because beans or a bean-goose figured prominently at the banquet. The beanfeast was regularly in older times observed on Twelfth Night in England and also some places on the continent, and is a very old institution.—N. Y. Sun.

Board of Health Meet.

The Board of health met in the town rooms last Friday evening all the members being present. Sometime ago the board notified L. E. Hart that complaint had been made regarding the condition of the closets in the rear of his four tenements on Clark street and to have the nuisance abated. The health inspector reported to the board that the closets were still in an unsanitary condition. Mr. Hart will be given thirty days to have same fixed or the matter will be turned over to the town council for action. A communication from A. L. Russell complaining of the dog nuisance in his neighborhood and asking the board for relief, was received and the clerk instructed to notify Mr. Russell that they were powerless to act in the matter and had no jurisdiction in cases of that kind.

A lot for a public dump was purchased by Messrs. Dennis, Wells and Connolly for $15.00. Clark Perrine and wife deeded the lot, 25X100, located on the corner of Lexington avenue and Elm street. Prospect Park, to W. W. Connolly, trustee. Dr. Harrison said there was considerable sewer gas in both school buildings resulting from the closets and the foul air chamber being left open. This matter was referred to district clerk J. J. Cogger for prompt attention. Dr. Harrison suggested that the closets in both schools be connected with the sewer at the first opportunity.

Mr. Woodcock of 270 Dudley avenue, came before the board and complained that the cellar of the house he occupies was wet and that his landlord, Mrs. L. V. Clark, had failed to have the trouble remedied. J. A. Dennis of the board told him that it was a case between landlord and tenant and not one for the board of health to enter into. Bills of Inspector E. Edgar for $11.50 and Dr. F. A. Kinch for $3.60 were passed and referred to the town committee for payment. The meeting then adjourned.

EDITOR STOREY'S NOTION.

Theory on which he remitted a fine and talked a salary. "I was slashing copy on old Storey's Chicago Times many years ago," said one of the guests at a reunion dinner. "We had a correspondent in an Illinois town who simply would not schedule his matter, but as he generally sent good stuff we let him run on, slashing his stuff to suit the exigencies of the night. Besides, his stuff always suggested good headlines, and that was one of Storey's hobbies."

"On one occasion the correspondent sent up about 700 words, which went into 100, with nothing over. On the 100 words I constructed a headline, which was right up to the mark. The next day I was instructed to tell the man who made out the checks for the country correspondents to knock $5 off the correspondent's pay."

"When he received his check, he wrote to Mr. Storey saying that under ordinary circumstances he wouldn't kick about the deduction, but in this particular instance he did because the fool headline over the item made by a fool telegraph editor had infuriated the man whose name was mentioned in the dispatch and brought on a fight between him and the correspondent. The result of which was that the correspondent was fined $5 in the police court."

"Mr. Storey was a very just man when you got at him the right way. He instructed the cashier to send the correspondent the amount of the fine and raised my salary because the headline I wrote had caused a row. What was his way of encouraging a headline writer?"—New York Sun.

Cities Without Slums.

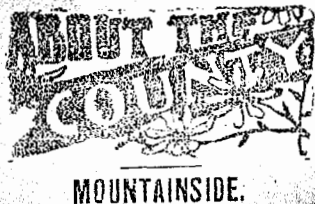

Berlin has none of the horrible areas which disgrace London and so many other English towns. Even in the poorest quarters the dwellings are good, the streets well paved, clean and comparatively wide. It also has no slums in the English sense of the word. Kyoto, in Japan, and Sevastopol, in Russia, both boast an absence of slums and paupers. In England the largest manufacturing town which is free from this reproach is probably Huddersfield, and after that would come Leamington Spa and London by the Sea.—Pearson's Weekly.

There They Were.

"I am here, gentlemen," explained the pickpocket to his fellow prisoners, "as the result of a moment of abstraction." "And I am here," said the incendiary, "because of an unfortunate habit of making light of things." "And I," said the forger, "on account of a simple desire to make a name for myself." "And I," added the burglar, "through nothing but taking advantage of an opening which offered in a large mercantile establishment in town."—Kansas City Independent.

Sleeping Rooms.

In all sleeping apartments where carpet is used, in the interest of health, an uncovered painted margin should entirely surround the room so as to prevent the accumulation of dust, possibly containing dangerous microbes in the cracks. If this border is regularly washed with water containing a disinfectant, it will also aid materially in purifying the room.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by the Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. J. J. CHENEY & CO., 201 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by Druggists, 70c.

In all departments of active service stand in need of the readiness of mind and promptness of action which depend on a healthy nervous system. Let a railroad man be "rattled," and every life depending on him is in danger. A great many railroad men have found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a valuable tonic for the overstrained nervous system. It builds up the body, purifies the blood, nourishes the nerves, and induces a healthy appetite and refreshing sleep.

"I suffered for six years with constipation and indigestion, during which time I employed several physicians, but they could not reach my case," writes Mr. G. Popplewell, of Eureka Springs, Carroll Co., Ark. "I felt that there was no help for me; could not retain food on my stomach; had vertigo and would fall helpless to the floor. Two years ago I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and little 'pellels,' and improved from the start. After taking twelve bottles of the 'Discovery' I was able to do light work, and have been improving ever since."

All beef is prime beef here; if it isn't the best beef we don't handle it. Same with veal and pork, and mutton. Customers who never think of buying elsewhere—who have been with us for years—are pretty good evidence that our meat suits particular people.
