Story of Old Abe, Famous War Eagle

FOR centuries the eagle has been the emblem of liberty, the inspiration of poets and the terror of his feathered friends. The king of birds has furnished the story-writer with countless incidents, from aerial battles to child stealing. One of Victor Hugo's greatest poems begins: "L'aigle—c'est le génie—Oiseau de la tempe, qui de mont le plus haut cherche le plus haut faite." The poet parallels the struggles of genius with the battle of the eagle for existence, till both spread their wings in the plenitude of power.

These are the fanciful ways of looking at the bird of freedom, and it was doubtless similar ideas that induced the boys of the Eighth Wisconsin infantry to adopt Old

WATCHING THE HORRORS OF WAR.

Abe, the celebrated war eagle, as their mascot in the civil war. Abe's public career began in 1861. He had the true spirit of the eagle. Perched on his stick Abe fearlessly watched the horrors of 27 severe battles and as many skirmishes. When his company was mustered out the eagle entered civil life with the grace he had shown in war. He was exhibited through the country at soldiers' reunions, attended the anniversary fair at Chicago, occupied a prominent place at the Philadelphia centennial, and was the means of raising funds for many a good cause.

Abe gave the alarm of a fire at the capitol, which broke out near his cage, and when he was rescued he was found the smoke had injured his lungs. He died March 26, 1881, and his body is handsomely mounted, as an object of great curiosity in the War Museum at Madison, Wis.

This Eagle Killed at Gettysburg

THIS fine specimen of the American eagle was shot and killed on a part of the famous battlefield of Gettysburg on February 22, 1887, hence the inscription that is tied to his feet: "I Also Was Shot at Gettysburg." The eagle, or rather his stuffed figure, occupies a position of prominence in the picture framing story of C. V. Ashdown, on Ontario street, Cleveland. Mr. Ashdown has owned the eagle for the last ten years and has refused offers of large sums of money for it. The eagle measures seven feet from tip to tip of the wings. The bronze figures of eagles on the Soldiers' and Sailors' monument on the public square were modeled from it. During the national encampment of the Grand Army at Cleveland the eagle was exhibited in a show window, where it was continually surrounded by ever-changing groups of admiring veterans.

The Nation's Unknown Dead.

In 70 separate and distinct national cemeteries the bodies of nearly 300,000 soldiers who died during the civil war are interred. Some of the cemeteries contain each a silent army of over 10,000 soldiers, in serried ranks, nearly half of which is inscribed "Unknown."

Queen Quality

Sure to Fit.

The privilege of choice from a lot of styles is equal to an extra ten per cent. in value. All stores agree on this. Do you realize that the Queen Quality shoes originate nearly all the styles of shoes worn by women? "Queen Quality" is made to imitate possible style from original designs. Through style and design, size and shape for every kind of foot. We cannot fill this stock. It is practically impossible to produce a need for which there is not a "Queen Quality" shoe already designed and in our store today. And they are original designs found on no other shoe unless they are copied. It is equally impossible to produce a normal foot which we cannot accurately fit in this shoe. This is not true of other makes of women's shoes. With any other shoe you may or may not be fitted; but with "Queen Quality" you have nearly twice as many styles and far greater differentiation in sizes and shape. If you want a "glove" fit in shoes you cannot get it only in "Queen Quality"—remember that.

The New Jersey Central's New Suburban Book.

To interest the thousands of lived up Gothamites who ought to be "Suburbanites," the New Jersey Central has prepared a booklet of 48 pages, entitled "Within the Suburban Limits." The book is printed on the best of paper and has over fifty half-tone engravings.

The territory described is all within 35 miles of New York, and the information contained includes rates of fare, train information and details regarding schools, churches, social environs, health advantages, and in fact no details are lacking such as are demanded by the home seeker. The book will be forwarded to your address upon receipt of 4 cents in stamps by C. M. Burt, Gen'l Passenger Agent, New Jersey Central, New York City.

West Point Excursion.

The New Jersey Central will run an excursion up the Hudson to West Point June 6th, on the Steamer St. Johns.

The scenery throughout the trip is grand and an outing at this time of the year will be delightful as well as beneficial.

After leaving the commercial section of the river you see Grant's Tomb, Riverside Drive and the Palisades, while further along there is Anthony's Nose, the Crow's Nest and West Point.

The visit to the grounds and buildings of the Military Academy at West Point is both interesting and instructive as this is the place our Generals are trained and whom the safety of our beloved country often depends. This will be a first-class family excursion, no intoxicating liquors being offered for sale on the Steamer.

There will be music on the steamer and the restaurant will be in charge of a first-class caterer. The train leaves Westfield station at 8 12 a. m. Round trip tickets $1.00. Don't forget this trip.

An Important Change.

Norfolk & Western Railway changed schedule May 24th. One important change is the addition of a train on the Clinch Valley Division, making two daily passenger trains between Bluefield and Norton. Another change is the sleeper heretofore running between Norfolk and Roanoke will be run to Radford and the train carrying this sleeper will leave Norfolk 8.15 p. m. instead of 7.00 p. m.

Damaged Express' Nose.

An Ohio health food company lately lost a suit brought against it by a retailer in Germany, who demanded $500 damages because in the pictures which the company put on the plaintiff's nose of the express of Germany was so blurred that it appeared to be missing. The retailer alleged that the damage to the express' nose made it impossible for him to sell the goods.

him from his liquid crystal haunts.As soon as we have time to get shaved and photographed we will call on our Only Delinquent and ask him his opinion of the weather; we may incidentally inquire if the Standard is not a pretty slick article, considering the fact that we have to publish it without his help.It is almost impossible to see the handsome Washington public school building from Elm street. The fault is that the branches of the trees in the park are allowed to grow so low as to almost shut out the building from sight of passerby either in the trolley or carriage. A suggestion to the Westfield Board of Education: Hire a man or two and have the trees trimmed up twenty feet or so from the ground.
The People are proud of the new school and they want visitors to Westfield to be able to see it.For years some of the cross walks throughout Westfield have been in a much dilapidated condition, the former town committee paying little or no attention to them. Now that the new Town has come with the local machinery put in motion it might be well for the committee on roads, Arthur N. Pierson, Alfred L. Russell, Charles D. Loeoe and George B. Dickerson, to take the question up and see to it that Westfield does not fall behind other towns in such an important improvement.Councilman Arthur N. Pierson is to be commended for his strong fight in Monday night's council meeting for a $5,000 appropriation for roads. He did not win but his efforts were rewarded by an increase in the appropriation of $1,000.
Good roads and good schools are two very prominent "home winners" for any town and it is poor policy to cut down road appropriations.
Westfield, up to within a year or two, has been noted for her good roads. A present some of her roads are in a deplorable condition and the road committee, A. N.
Pierson, chairman, A. L. Russell, C. D. Loeoe and G. B. Dickerson will doubtless see to it that our public thoroughfares are put in good condition at once.

AGAINST H. B. MILLERPREFERRED BY DR. CHAUNCEY M. F.
EGEL.Miller Admitted Using Certain Indecent Language—Six Men Jury Could't Agree—Large Crowd Present at Hearing.A trial of unusual character took place in Recorder Toney's office Tuesday night before a six man jury. Dr.
C. M. F. Egel charged Henry B. Miller with using profane language directed to him while the two were in a heated discussion in the upper hall of the bank building on the corner of Broad and Elm streets, in which building the doctor has his office. The language claimed to have been used and for which Dr.
Egel preferred charges is unfit for publication.The unfortunate affair took place on the morning of May 16th last.Dr. Egel took the stand and stated to the jury what took place and said P. Q.
Oliver, Walter McBride, Charles Cook and a young lad named Shinn were present when it is claimed Miller used the language with which he is charged.
Dr. Egel further stated that he would have forcibly resented such remarks as were used but for the physical inability of Miller. His reason, he said, for pressing the charge was to punish the defendant and teach others a lesson.Mr. Oliver took the stand and stated that he was present and heard the language used by Mr. Miller. Mr.
Oliver's testimony was fully corroborated by that of Walter McBride.The defendant then took the stand and admitted using certain of the indecent language but not the whole as mentioned in the charge against him.
His testimony was backed up by the statement of Charles Cook and Mr.
Shinn who stated that they heard Miller use only a portion of the language with which he was charged. Shinn then made a statement that Mr. Oliver and Mr. McBride were not present at the time as they claimed to have been.Mr. Oliver for the complainant, and Mr. Taggart for the defendant, summed up the case and it was given to the jury.The crowd in the court room were ordered out and the jury went into executive session for an hour, when they agreed to disagree, standing four for conviction and two for acquittal. The jury was discharged.Under the old Blue Laws the fine to be imposed in like cases is but fifty cents.It is rumored that Dr. Egel will again prefer charges against Mr. Miller and have the case tried over again.The whole affair is unfortunate and the friends of both parties hope it will be settled out of court.The jury were: Matthias Clark, Frank B. Moffett, Arthur S. Hurst, S. Chase Coles, Eugene Lehr and Oscar Richardson.

THE STANDARD TO THE RESCUE.

Late Saturday night proprietor E. B.
Woodruff of the Westfield Steam and Hand Laundry, called on the Standard's manager and poured out a tale of woe several yards long. The facts in the case are these: A little over a year ago when Mr. Woodruff purchased new and modern laundry machinery, he also purchased from the Ames Iron Works of New York, a 30 horse boiler which, with his other equipment, made his outfit one of the most modern in this section of the State. It appears now that from some unaccountable reason the boiler tubes are completely gone and leak as badly as Bob Woodruff's sprinkling cart.
In fact, the boiler is out of active business and Mr. Woodruff pleaded his case so well the Standard agreed to help him out of his trouble by allowing him to look out to the Standard's boiler, until he could get a new one installed.In the meantime, the public must be patient. Mr. Woodruff will do his best to make his usual prompt laundry deliveries.

Peanut Party at Hall Game.

the party managed to get away with no less than a half bushel of peanuts. In the party were E. J. Whitehead, A. H.
Clark, H. L. Abrams, H. L. Abrams, Jr., E. S. Hall, C. E. Pearson and E.
Edgar.

ted up very comfortably.WILL CLOSE WESTFIELD SALOONSEVERY NIGHT AT ELEVEN THIRTY.
OPEN SIX O'CLOCK A. M.Town Excise Commission Drafts Ordinance And Town Council Will Probably Pass It at Next Meeting—License Jumps To $300 Per Year.The Town Council met Monday night and one of the most important items of business that came before the council was the ordinance submitted to the council by the committee on excise, C.
D. Loeoe, chairman, A. L. Alpers, A. N.
Pierson and F. S. Smith.The ordinance raises the license from the present rate, $150.00 to $300, and fixes the hours for closing every night in the week at 12:30 o'clock. The hour of opening will be six o'clock in the morning. All saloons will be ordered to remain closed all day Sunday. The ordinance was read and it was ordered that extra copies be printed so that each member of the council could peruse it and be ready to discuss the same at the next meeting.The committee on roads, sewers and water, recommended the appointment of H. C. Van Emburgh as town engineer and surveyor. The vote brought out 7 for Van Emburgh and one for F. B.
Ham. Mr. Van Emburgh received the appointment.Collector Clark offered his bond of $10,000 in the American Surety Co. and also submitted his report as to the town property in his possession. The committee on roads, sewer and water, police committee and treasurer also submitted their reports as to the property of the town in their possession. It appears to be the purpose of the new council to find out to a certainty just what the town has and where their various property is.The Board of Health ordinance was presented and passed on second and final reading.The committee on roads, sewer and water, asked that bids be obtained for crushed stone for road work. Bids will be asked for the several sizes to be delivered anywhere in the town as the council may direct.A. L. Alpers, A. N. Pierson and F. S.
Smith were appointed a committee to confer with the Garwood authorities regarding a settlement of claims resulting from the setting aside a portion of Westfield township for the new borough.The amount of the town treasurer's bond was raised to $15,000. It was originally placed at $10,000. The salary of the collector was placed at $650. An effort was made to cut the Town Attorney's salary to $100, but the scheme was defeated by a vote of 5 to 3. His salary will remain at $150 per year.The license ordinance was passed on second and final reading, with amendments.A. N. Pierson, chairman of the committee on roads, made a brilliant fight for a $5,000 appropriation, claiming the amount, $2,500 allowed, was entirely inadequate for the needs of the town.
He said Westfield has formerly had a reputation for good roads, that at present the roads were in a deplorable condition and that every penny of $5,000 was needed for the work. Mr. Wittke took up the question and made a bid for better cross walks. The efforts made by these two councilmen were successful in a way, the appropriation being raised from $2,500 to $3,500.

Elizabeth's Letter Carriers Parade.

With bands playing and flags flying Elizabeth's letter carriers will have a great parade to-morrow. Grand stands will be erected along the line of march from which the parade will be viewed by thousands from all over the county.Ex-Governor Foster M. Voorhees and other notables will review the parade from a grand stand on the corner of North Broad street and Salem avenue.
Letter carriers from all over the State will take part in the celebration.This Ordinance Should Be Passed in Westfield.Lately Elizabeth's City Council passed an ordinance compelling owners of "littered" vehicles to display lighted lamps after dark while driving through city limits. This week several arrests were made for violation of the ordinance and fines imposed. Such an ordinance should be passed in Westfield.

Letter to A. S. Flagg,

Westfield.
Dear Sir—You take interest in your work and want every stroke of the brush to do all that it can.Devos Lead and Zinc makes every stroke of the brush count. Mixed paint wastes fifteen to eighty per cent. of every stroke—depends upon the amount of adulteration in the mixed paint.That's what we mean by "fewer gallons." We can't dwell on every reason for using Devos Lead and Zinc. There are too many.E. R. Bowman, Girard, Pa., writes: Mr. Hart Young bought one gallon of Devos Lead and Zinc in halves to paint rooms on which he had always used one gallon of mixed paint; one-half gallon of Devos did the work and he returned the other half gallon.Yours truly, F. W. Devos & Co.

INSANE.WISEMAN WANDERED AWAY FROM HOME AND FRIENDS.Police Take Good Care of Him Until a New York Friend Takes Him Home.Tuesday night word was received at the police station that a suspicious character was walking up South avenue, and officers Young and Toucey went to investigate. They found the stranger wandering aimlessly about and after questioning him for awhile the officers came to the conclusion that the man was demented and took him to police headquarters.Dr. F. A. Kinch was called in to make an examination and found the man slightly out of his mind.Further investigation resulted in the finding of a letter in his pocket addressed to Julius Wiseman, Westfield, stating that if he was in trouble the writer would gladly help him out. The letter was signed by a J. W. Allan, of 150 Nassau street, New York. Wiseman claimed to be a playwright and told the officers that he had written many plays but as yet none of them had been put on the boards. He said the managers were combined against him just as he was about to reach the height of his success as a playwright.It is thought worry over business troubles caused an effection of his mind.A telegram was sent to Mr. Allen and he came to Westfield Wednesday afternoon and took the unfortunate man back to the city with him.It was learned that Wiseman had wandered from Hoboken on foot and upon reaching Westfield spent the day simply wandering about town.When taken to the police station Tuesday night officers Young and Toucey provided the man with a hearty meal and a good fifteen cent perfect, all of which seemed to be greatly relished as Wiseman appeared to be almost starved.

RECEPTION TO PASTOR.

Large Gathering Welcomes Rev. and Mrs.
Carter J. Greenwood.A reception was tendered Rev. C. J.
Greenwood, the new pastor of the Westfield Baptist Church, and his wife, on Tuesday evening last, in the church.
The decorations were very pretty, the chairs were removed from their regular order, and re-arranged, and with an abundance of flowers, ferns and palms, made the church decidedly pretty and attractive.The decorations were in charge of Mrs. L. G. Veim, Mrs. Charles E.
Smith, and Mrs. W. A. Dempsey; Mrs.
Walter Day was chairman of the social committee. Mr. and Mrs. Auson F.
Grant assisted Rev. and Mrs. Greenwood in receiving the guests, which numbered about one hundred. Ice cream and cake were served.

THIS WOMAN HATER JAILED.

"Jim" Downes Gets Ninety Days in Jail For Being Drunk and Disorderly.Last Saturday "Jim" Downes, an old time jail bird, was found drunk on the sidewalk on Ross Place, near Central avenue. He was very abusive to passersby and it became necessary for James Moffett to enter a complaint against him to the police. Downes was arrested and taken before Recorder Toney. He was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail, a light sentence for so worthless a character as he has proven to be.Not long since Downes served a term in Trenton prison for beating his sister with a fence rail. On other occasions he has been sent to serve short terms in the county jail. Downes has many times claimed that man was a d— fool to work. The chain gang is the place for such enterprising individuals.

State Audubon Society.

The New Jersey Audubon society met in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue Church, Plainfield, on Tuesday evening last. President Alexander Gilbert was in charge of the meeting and following the election of officers, Dr. William Dutcher, a member of the New York Ornithological society gave an interesting talk at the conclusion of which a motion was made and unanimously carried. That the society concur with the New York organization in its agreement with the Milliners' Association.

WEDDING.

WESTFIELD SOCIETY BELLE MARRIED

Wedding and Reception Largely Attended by Westfield Friends and Others From Far and Near.The wedding of Miss Ada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Sergeant, of 55 Boulevard, to Frederick Green Smith of New York, formerly of Plainfield, took place on Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents. The spacious residence had been transformed into a garden of green and white, by Florist Doerger, assisted by friends of the bride.
Palms, white roses, and great masses of fragrant syringas, were in every conceivable elaborate nook and corner. The ceremony took place at 7:30 o'clock and was witnessed by the immediate relatives, about forty in number. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white panne crepe, elaborately trimmed with duchesse lace.
She wore a beautiful Brussels point lace veil, an heirloom, which was fastened with a spray of orange blossoms, and fell gracefully over the train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The maid of honor was Miss Jean F. Clark of Brooklyn. She was gowned in white liberty silk with Irish point lace trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.The bride's two attendants were nieces, the Misses Elele and Marjory Phillips, who carried white ribbons, forming an aisle. They wore white embrodered muslin, with liberty satin sashes. The officiating clergyman were Rev. William Oscar Jarvis, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and Rev.
Harry Gilchrist of Roselle, a cousin of the groom. George Smith, a brother, was best man. Westervelt's orchestra of Newark, rendered many beautiful selections during the impressive ceremony and throughout the evening. A reception followed the service, from eight until ten o'clock and over one hundred and fifty guests were present.
Elaborate refreshments were served by Caterer Russ & Son of Elizabeth. The table decorations were most artistic.
The bride and groom were the recipient of a magnificent array of gifts, both numerous and exquisite.Late in the evening Mr. and Mrs.
Smith departed upon their wedding tour, which will be of two week's duration. Upon their return they will spend a short time in Westfield where they will be glad to meet their many friends.
Guests were in attendance from New York, Plainfield, Elizabeth, Roselle, profusion of American beauty roses and palm. The large veranda was enclosed and beautifully decorated with daisies.

The ceremony took place at four o'clock and was witnessed by the immediate families of the contracting parties.
A reception followed the service, which was attended by only very intimate friends.

Edwin F. Raynor, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her away, and little Miss Natalie Fairbairn, a niece, daintily gowned in white silk malle with embrodery trimming, was flower girl.
The bride wore a handsome creation of pauze crepe, trimmed with point duchesse lace. She wore a tall veil and carried a beautiful bouquet of lilies of the valley. Rev. Dr. Geo. R. Vande Water, rector of St. Andrews Church, New York, performed the ceremony.
The best man was Wyndham Anderson of New York.

After congratulations, Caterer Day of Newark, served a fine collation.

Amid a shower of rice the bride and groom left the house in an automobile and went to Rahway, where they took a train for New York, en route for Canada, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs.
Keller will reside in Amityville, L. I., for the summer.

The bride was becomingly attired in a brown foulard travelling dress, and wore a black picture hat.

The many gifts were costly and beautiful.

Some of those present were:—Mr. and Mrs. Adam Keller, Arthur Keller, the celebrated artist and illustrator; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keller, the Misses Keller, Dr. and Mrs. McGuire, Mrs. Tachepe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Content, Mr. Honigman, Charles Knox Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Raynor, Dr. and Mrs.
Schady, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tubbs and Miss Tubbs, of New York; and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fairbairn, Mr. and Mrs. William Alpers, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dohrman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W.
Gladwin, Mr. and Mrs. James Woodward, Edward F. Raynor, Jr., R. M.
Fairbairn, William Bogert, Jr., and Dr.
R. R. Sinclair of Westfield.

THE DASH HORSE CAN RUN.

Smashes New Wagon in Its Wild Dash Up the Railroad Track.

At eight thirty Friday night pedestrians who happened to be on Broad street witnessed one of the swiftest run-aways on record.

It appears that John Darsh and Harry N. Taylor, his son-in-law, were driving a new horse hitched to a new business wagon along Dudley avenue when the horse shied at a man hole cover in the street and threw both occupants of the wagon in the gutter. Mr. Taylor receiving a slight cut on the head, but Mr. Darsh was uninjured.

The horse started off at a mad gallop to Mountain avenue, successfully made the turn and tore down that thoroughfare at lightning speed. The animal turned into Broad street and fortunately had a clear road to the Broad street crossing.

At the crossing the horse started west up the track with the wagon bounding at every jump. The engineer of a train going east saw the runaway in time to bring his train to a stop, the headlight frightening the horse which turned sharply toward the bank, the wagon crashing against a signal post and becoming a wreck.

Officer O'Neill had followed the runaway and brought the horse back to the Darsh stable.

SPRINGFIELD—MILBURN CONSOLIDATED

Team Outclassed by Westfield Team—Score 13 to 4

There were 7001 spots in Saturday's game with the Springfield-Milburn Consolidated, but they were few and far between as it was the playing of the visitors' van. It was a comedy of errors for the consolidated boys and many of them actually seemed to be afraid of the ball.

The game started off well and there was some rather quick playing up to the third inning, but just then the farmer boys from across the country went up in the air and never had even a good look in at the game after that inning. In the fifth Westfield scored five runs and in the sixth tallied four more. The story of the game tells it all and here it is:

GOLF CLUB NOTES.

Last Saturday afternoon at the Westfield Golf Club was devoted to play in the finals of the Spring Tournament and general play in the first of the regular monthly handicap. In the former for the Gluck cup J. Sherman, Jr., beat J. A. Woodward 3 up and 2 to play, while for the Floyd cup E. R. Perkins beat R. I. Towley 6 up and 4 to play. In the

He Used a Tack.
As the story goes, an Irish undertaker was laying out the deceased husband of a weeping Hibernian widow. The corpse wore a wig and it was very difficult to induce it to stay on straight, as wigs ought always to do, even if they don't. The bereaved widow was called in to assist. "Go an' get me a pot of glue, Mrs. McGovern," said the undertaker, "so that I may keep his wig where it belongs."
Mrs. McGovern set out after the sticking material, and after a time she returned. "There is the glue for ye," she said with a sigh.
"Mrs. McGovern, you kin take back the mangle," said the undertaker, "the difficulty is fixed. I used a tack."

Brown and Green.
Bob is an old negro janitor in one of the New England colleges, and through long service has become part of the institution. Indeed Bob secretly believes that he outranks the president of the college in importance.
He is shrewd and quick witted, a ready match for the students who joke with him. One day he had burned off some of the dead grass in the college campus, when a freshman came along and said:
"Well, Bob, that grass is just the color of your face."
"Yes, sah," said Bob, suavely; "but dat don't matter. In about three weeks it'll be jes' de color o' yo' face."

Youngest Soldier in War Honored

THE war department recently added to its records the picture of the youngest union soldier in the war of the rebellion, "Little Johnny" Clem, now Lieut. Col. John L. Clement, of the quarter-master general's department, and stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., is the individual thus honored.

Clem was born in Newark, O., August 13, 1851; when less than nine years old he ran away from home and became a drummer boy in the army. He enlisted in the Twenty-fourth Ohio volunteers, but finding a uncle in the same regiment, he went to the Twenty-second Michigan as a drummer boy. He participated with his regiment in the battles of Shiloh, Perryville, Chattanooga, Chickamauga, Nashville, Kennesaw and others. Clem was captured by the confederates and confined in a Georgia prison. After being exchanged he returned to the army and served on the staff of Gen. Thomas.

At the close of the civil war Clem studied at West Point, but on account of his diminutive stature could not secure a commission. Gen. Grant appointed him a lieutenant and he rose in the regular service. During the Spanish-American war Clem was stationed at Porto Rico.

The Twelve Greatest Battles.

In the 12 greatest battles fought during the civil war the union losses were as follows: July 1-3, 1863, Gettysburg, 3,070 killed and 14,497 wounded; May 8-18, 1864, Spotsylvania, 7,225 killed and 13,413 wounded; May 5-7, 1864, Wilderness, 2,246 killed and 12,037 wounded; September 17, 1862, Antietam, 2,108 killed and 9,549 wounded; May 1-3, 1863, Chancellorsville, 1,606 killed and 9,702 wounded; September 19-20, 1863, Chickamauga, 1,556 killed and 9,749 wounded; June 14, 1864, Cold Harbor, 1,844 killed and 9,077 wounded; December 11-14, 1862, Fredericksburg, 1,284 killed and 9,000 wounded; August 28-30, 1862, Manassas, 1,747 killed and 8,452 wounded; April 6-7, 1862, Shiloh, 1,754 killed and 8,408 wounded; December 31, 1862, Stone River, 1,750 killed and 8,802 wounded; June 15-19, 1864, Petersburg, 1,688 killed and 8,513 wounded. Total in 12 battles, 23,478 killed and 120,859 wounded.

Union Will Live Forever.

With each annual recurrence of Memorial day it appeals more and more to all the people. Each year there are more who personally knew nothing of the bitterness of the war and who are, therefore, better able to appreciate the splendid courage of the men who took part in it on both sides. Of the great armies of men who volunteered in defense of the flag only a few survivors are left. In the columns which march to the cemeteries this year to decorate the graves of the soldiers will be a smaller number of those who wore the blue than ever before. But the number of those who "swell the chorus of the union" is increasingly larger. And to-day more truly than ever before the flag of the union floats over a reunited country.

Hardly a Fair Question.

"You are my ideal," he said earnestly; "the only girl I ever loved, the only girl I ever could love. No other could possibly fill the void in my heart."

"And if you never had met me, George," she asked anxiously, "would you never have cared for any girl at all?"—Stray Stories.

OLD MAN TIRES OF LIFE.

JAMES RILEY TAKES A DOSE OF PARIS GREEN.

Richard Carpenter Saves Old Man's Life By Heroic Treatment and an Ambulance Takes Him to Hospital.

Wednesday afternoon James Riley, formerly employed at Berner's green-houses, attempted to take his own life by taking paris green. Riley, who is about 75 years of age, went to the barn in the rear of Richard Carpenter's home at Voorhees Heights in the big woods, and after taking the poison took to his room in the Carpenter home where he has recently resided. When Carpenter called "Jimmie" to dinner he was informed that he did not care for anything to eat and stated that he had "done a mean trick," informing Carpenter that he had taken enough paris green to kill a dozen men and said he was sure he was about to die.

With quick presence of mind Carpenter took some hot water, mixed a little mustard in it and poured it down Riley's throat. The solution had the desired effect and up came the poison. Carpenter's act probably saving Riley's life.

The Westfield authorities were notified and Dr. Cooper attended the old man. Seeing his serious condition an ambulance was called from the Elizabeth Hospital and Riley was taken there late Wednesday afternoon.

Riley gave no reason for attempting to die other than he was getting old and wished to do away with himself.

BRANCH MILLS.

C. W. Schoonover led the C. E. meeting Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wilkins spent Sunday at East Orange.

Thieves entered the home of Wm. Darby late Sunday night or Monday morning. They broke in through the cellar and entered the rooms on the first floor but did not take anything of value. They also broke open a window in the residence of E. D. Miller, but did not get into the house and it is thought they were frightened away by Mr. Miller's two dogs, who did a great amount of barking.

A Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival will be held in the Chapel Friday evening, May 29. Cake, ice cream and strawberries, 25 cents.

The anniversary of the Sunday School will be held in the Chapel Sunday afternoon, May 31, at 3:30 o'clock. Dr. C. M. Anderson of Westfield, will address the school. Extra music will be given by J. R. and J. W. Miller of Orange. The exercises will be by the school. All are invited to be present.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Edith Annette Banister to Mr. George Weidner of Brooklyn, on June 3rd, at the Branch Mills Chapel.

Westfield, Jr., in the Ring.

Charley Deuman baptized them. That gives hopes for success, if not for beauty. They shied their custer in the ring against Garwood last Saturday and the score was 5 to 1 for Westfield. That is natural and right. Their Captain is Sutton and among their crack players are Huffman and Arthur Clark. Their diamond is on Mountain avenue. Their uniforms are very gorgeous and they rely for support on Westfield sentiment in favor of its own: for all the talent is Westfield talent. They will accept challenges from New York, Plainfield, Chicago or Elizabeth. This does not apply to Clark, or Mountaineer or Cranford.

Contractor E. C. Winter has just signed a contract to erect a handsome residence on Orchard street for Richard O. Witke of Brooklyn. Building operations will commence at once on the new structure which will cost about $5,000.

The Misses Edna W. and Marion Hackett will act as bridesmaids to their cousin, Miss Laura Howell Wickett, of Bensenville, who will be married Wednesday evening, June 3rd, at the Throop Avenue Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn.

MR. KEAN'S SIDE OF QUESTION.

Did Not Like the Standard's Criticism of County Committee's Action, Editor Union County Standard, Westfield, N. J.

Dear Sir:—

I noticed in your issue of May 15th a criticism on the action of the County Committee in not allowing the gentlemen named by the Primaries in Westfield to take their seats in the County Committee. As you have published this criticism in fairness, I hope you will be willing to publish the facts in the matter, which I enclose.

Yours very truly,
HAMILTON F. KEAN,
Chairman.

FACTS.
Article 8 of the Constitution of the Union County Republican Executive Committee:

"This constitution may be amended by a majority vote at any regular meeting of the County Committee, provided one month's notice shall have been given in writing of the proposed amendment at a regular meeting."

All amendments to the Constitution are proposed without debate in writing. A copy of each proposed amendment is mailed to the address of each member as soon after the meeting as it can be printed. At the next meeting, under new business, the proposed amendment is taken up and debated and voted on. If it is carried it becomes part of the Constitution and is the Law of the County Committee.

Before amendment, Article 3, Section 1, read as follows:
"This organization shall have as many members as there are election districts in the county, who must reside in the ward, township or borough, and in wards and townships with only one election district, two members shall be elected."

I was not present at the meeting at which the amendment was introduced, being absent for the first time in a year. Under these circumstances, when Mr. James O. Clark called me up, I had nothing before me but the Constitution as it then stood, under which Westfield would be entitled to two representatives for each ward, to which effect I advised him.

At the next meeting, each member having received a printed notice of the proposed amendment, the following amendment to the Constitution was passed:
Resolved, that Article 2, Section 1, of the Constitution shall be amended as follows:

"This organization shall consist of one member from each election district in the county, and no more; and each member shall reside within the limits of the ward, township or borough in which the election district he represents is situated; but the present members shall continue in office and be the sole representative of the territory which they were elected to represent, until the members elected at the primary meeting preceding the general election in the year 1908 meet for the purpose of organization, as provided in Article 3, Section 1."

After carefully reading this amendment it is evident that Westfield is entitled to no other members, except those elected at the primary last Fall, and when the question was raised, it was the duty of the Chairman of the County Committee to so rule, which I did at the last meeting of the County Committee. Mr. James O. Clark, at my suggestion, introduced an amendment to the Constitution, a printed copy of which I have not yet received, to allow Westfield to be represented this year by two members from each ward. This will be voted on at the next meeting of the County Committee.

The American Boy Wants to Be a Plumber.

A man who made millions by his mechanical inventions, a man whose inventions have changed the daily life of every American, told me, says Edward Everett Hale, in the June Cosmopolitan, that he had asked fifty boys what handiwork they would prefer; and that, in every instance, the boy replied that he would like to be a plumber. The curious truth was that plumbing was the only mechanical art which these boys, trained in our modern life, had seen in practice.

BIBLE CLASS SOCIAL.

On Monday evening last the ladies comprising the Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday school with their husbands gathered at the residence of their teacher Mrs. T. W. Powell on Central avenue for an evening of literary and social enjoyment. The program for the evening consisted of recitations by Mrs. Edith Kaylor of "Christmas at the Poor House" and "Little Meg," vocal solo by Miss Jennie Bailey, piano duet "Golden Youth," by Miss Mamie Huffman and Mrs. Powell, vocal solo, "Happy Birds," by Mrs. C. M. Anderson, and humorous stories told by A. E. Pearsall in his own style closing with the recital by him of a war poem entitled "Advance." Miss Carrie Dorsey gave two vocal solos, "The Violets" and a new version of "Nearer My God to Thee."

Following these refreshments and social conversation combined to make the evening a very enjoyable one and with an abundance of good wishes for their teacher who leaves Westfield for Ocean Grove for the summer the guests departed to their several homes.

Thousands of women who have suffered from backache, headache, and other consequences of womanly disease, have been made well women by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as it has done me so much good," writes Mrs. Henry Harrell, of Tarboro, N. C. Box 105. "I was so weak so I could hardly walk when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' I also had uterine trouble and could neither eat nor sleep only as I took morphine. Tried four different doctors and they all failed to do me any good, so one of my friends recommended your 'Favorite Prescription' to me and I took only three bottles and am now well and hearty. Can do almost any kind of work."
