THE ALUMNI DANCE.

The annual election of officers of the Westfield High School Alumni Association took place on Monday evening last at the Westfield Club hall, and resulted in the following choice: President, Mrs. Lloyd Thompson; Vice President, Robert Carberry; cor. secretary, Miss Isabelle French; Rec. secretary, Miss Julia Fink; Treasurer, Miss Florence Brewer. A dance followed the business meeting which was attended by about 250 members and their friends, who enjoyed dancing for several hours to the strains of Westervelt's excellent music. The hall was prettily decorated by florist Doerren with palms and ferns. Ice cream and cake were served.

To Be One Week in Westfield.

Mr. Leo H. Battalia will open to-day in Westfield for one week only. This will give Westfield people an opportunity to have their pianos rebuilt or tuned thoroughly by a man who has made a life work of this profession. Mr. Battalia has met with great success in Plainfield and has done considerable work for some of the best families in Westfield from whom he has testimonials.

Mr. Battalia rebuilds pianos as good as new in every particular. He thoroughly studies the requirements needed in each individual piano to make that instrument as good as it was when it came from the factory new.

Method in Her Madness.

The feminine coterie was holding a garrulous powwow in the drawing room, when suddenly a mouse loomed up amid the scenery. It was all of the fair ones in a go-as-you-please race to the lawn with the exception of one maid of more or less uncertain years. "Why didn't you run, too?" asked the strong man who rushed gallantly to the rescue.

"I—I was in h-hopes," sobbed she of the unrecorded birthday anniversaries, "that I might be scared out of a-several years g-growth if I re-remained."

Whereupon the strong man took on a sympathetic look and said never a word.—Chicago Daily News.

IF YOU HAVE A COUGH

Don't neglect it until there is danger of it becoming incurable. Take Trenchard's Cough Syrup and avoid all risk. Use Trenchard's and you can cure your cough as quick as you got it. A 25c. Bottle will cure any ordinary cough. It will strengthen the entire system and enable it to withstand the strain. Many people take it through the entire winter to avoid coughs and colds.

W. H. Trenchard, Prescription Druggist
112 Broad Street, Westfield, N. J.

The sunrise Westfield will usher in the glorious Fourth when the old Revolutionary cannon will belch forth a welcome. It will then be young America's turn to celebrate and they will make things hum until bed time. It is rumored that the private display of fireworks this year in Westfield will be unusually brilliant and numerous.

There will be nothing of particular moment going on the Fourth at Fair Acres, this year the driving association giving way to the Plainfield race meet.

The Golf club will furnish an exciting tournament for enthusiasts of the links, and the Westfield tennis courts will doubtless be the scene of several match games.

The greatest interest will center both morning and afternoon at Recreation Park and if it is a clear day the crowd in attendance at both games promises to be a record breaker.

In the morning the Pearsall's of Jersey City will be the Westfield's opponents. The Pearsall's need no introduction to local fans. Their work has been seen in Westfield on several occasions and it is has always been on the fast play order.

At 3:30 p. m., the St. Mary's of Plainfield will be the attraction and the game should be close and exciting. They have a team far superior to any of the Plainfield league clubs and have been playing fast ball all the season.

Get our your flags and bunting and have them in readiness to display on the Fourth.

STR. "ASBURY PARK" QUEEN OF THE BAY.

ASBURY PARK CITIZENS PRESENT LOVING CUP.

Initial Trial Trip of the Jersey Central's New Steamer a Great Success—Seven Hundred Guests Aboard.

Yesterday was a great day for Asbury Park citizens, for Jersey Newspaper men who are fortunate enough to live along the line of the Jersey Central Railroad, and for the Jersey Central Railroad itself.

It was the occasion of the initial trip of the new Sandy Hook steamer "Asbury Park" one of the most palatial steamers afloat in New York Bay and certainly the fastest craft of her kind. She may well be called the "Queen of the Bay."

As guests of the management of the Jersey Central, the Asbury Park contingent boarded the handsome boat at Atlantic Highlands and then proceeded to the Central's ferry house in Jersey City where several hundred other guests were in waiting to be picked up on the way up the beautiful Hudson.

The new boat is wonderfully roomy, handsomely furnished and equipped and is the largest of the Sandy Hook fleet.

Shortly before two o'clock a beautiful collation was served. Music was furnished during the trip by the Neptune Township High School Orchestra, an orchestra of talented young musicians.

On the trip up and down the Hudson the new boat was given an ovation from all the craft in the river.

At three o'clock the guests were gathered together and Mayor Keator, representing the citizens of Asbury Park, presented vice president Beaser and the officials of the Central Railroad with a handsome solid silver loving cup. At the close of Mayor Keator's presentation speech, Mr. Beaser responded fittingly and to the point. Three cheers were then given for Mr. Beaser and the railroad officials, three more for the

"Asbury Park" and another three cheers for the city of Asbury Park, one of the most delightful and bustling resorts on the Jersey coast.

The new steamer "Asbury Park" goes into commission June 28th and will make three round trips each day, leaving foot of Rector street New York for Atlantic Highlands at 11.00 a. m., 4.00 p. m. and 8.00 p. m.

Asbury Park citizens should be proud of the steamer named after their bustling city and should be proud of the enterprise shown by the present management of the Central Railroad.

Settled For a Five Dollar Note.

The Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Trolley Co. settled last night with nine Westfield people who were in the recent trolley wreck at Lorraine. The passengers received a five dollar note each and signed off, releasing the company from further responsibility of future claims for damages. The company gets off easy.

Triple Dose.

She (at the reception)—Excuse me, but are you an artist, a musician or a poet?
He—I happen to be all three, madam.
"Poor fellow! You have my sympathy."
"Your sympathy?"
"Yes, Your poverty must be something terrible!"—Chicago Daily News.

A New Theory.

"No," said the chronic bachelor, "I'm not an advocate of marriage. According to the good book, you know, there will be no marrying or giving in marriage in Heaven."
"Oh, that is easily accounted for," replied the girl with the cherry-blotched hair. "All the bachelors will be in the other place."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Sollicitous About His Mustache.

Cholly (examining first print from the negative)—Isn't there some way to make my mustache show a little plainer?
Photographer—Why, yes; you might wait a few years, and then come again.—Cleveland Leader.

LESSONS OF PATRIOTISM

Young Men Must Learn Them or the Republic Is in Danger.

EVERY citizen of this great republic owes it to himself and the land of his birth to develop all that is best in him, since it is character that is needed if the nation is to grow into its finest possibilities. This thought leads the Westfielder to observe that the great task before the boys and young men who are now about passing through Fourth of July fevers is to make men of themselves. That really is what we are here for—not to gather money, to do a few things large or small, to win fame, to achieve power, but to grow into worthy manhood. If he is a benefactor who makes two blades of grass grow where there was only one growing before, he is much more a benefactor who adds some new quality to his own character, making himself a somewhat better man. Patriotism demands of young men the very best manhood they can build.

They should be true. Truth is one of the foundation stones in every fabric of worthy character. It is not enough to be truthful in speech, never uttering any false word. One may conform to the law of truth in this way and yet lack truthfulness in other ways. Strength is another quality of patriotic manhood. It is not easy to be good in the business world, in politics, in society. One needs to be strong in order to live out noble principles and to do the things which a man must do if he would take his place among men and live righteously. He must be able to stand in the face of all manner of opposition and temptation and of all subtle influence. Then while the patriotic man must be true and strong, he must also be gentle. Gentleness is the flower of noble character. There are men who are true and strong, but are ungentle, and thus fail of a really noble manhood. Courage is another essential element in manliness. Courage is not merely a quality by itself in a noble life—it is a necessary element in all other qualities. It takes courage to be true, and to be strong, and even to be gentle in a worthy sense.

Another duty of patriotism is interest in all that belongs to the life of the country. Every young man should train himself in the affairs of good citizenship. Voting is not merely a privilege—it is a sacred duty, as well. The voting should be intelligent. Young men should learn to think and to inquire, not casting their ballots blindly, and thoughtlessly with the party to which they are attached, but making sure that they are casting them for men who are worthy. The twentieth century patriot ought to be independent enough never to be compelled by party rules to vote for an unworthy candidate.

Robbed Right and Left.

Mrs. Homestay—I'll bet lots of the people who closed up their houses and went away to the summer resorts to spend the Fourth have been robbed.
Mr. Homestay—That's so. These summer resort men are becoming bolder from year to year.

Something Quite Unusual.

Mrs. Peck—Did anything unusual happen to your boys on the Fourth?
Mrs. Jones—Sure. Johnny and Sammy were not injured at all.

A Day of Hard Work.

"Are you going to take a day off on the Fourth, Splicer?"
"Not on your life; I have three kids at home."

Right Up to Date.

"Johnny," said the wise old gentleman, "have you any idea who made this a day of celebration?"
"Sure. It was the firecracker trust."

Private.

Irate Landlord (to couple who are taking a lovers' walk on his property)—Now, then, can't you read?
Amorous Youth—Oh, yes, we can read.
Irate Landlord—Then go to the end of this road and read the sign there.
Amorous Youth—We have read it. It says "Private," and that's just why we came down here.—Till-Bits.

Phrenology Theory Exploded.

Notwithstanding the deductions of phrenologists, a criminologist, after studying and photographing more than 40,000 pairs of ears of persons, including those of 2,000 insane and 800 criminals, and those of 300 animals, is forced to conclude that the ear gives no clew to personal traits.—Science.

Cared Nothing About the Color.

Uncle Josh (in restaurant)—Say, how yew got enny fish?
Waiter—Yessah. We has black bass, striped bass, bluefish, an' whitefish, can.

"I don't keer nothin' erbout the color, jist so long as they be fresh."—Cleveland Leader.

The Parson's Mistake.

"Don't you know it's wicked to fish on Sunday?" demanded the horrified parson.
"Oh, I ain't really fishin'," replied Johnnie, as he rebaited his hook. "Haven't caught a single one to-day. I'm jist practisin' fur to-morrow."—N. Y. Sun.

Real Unkind.

"I have an idea," began young Softleigh, "hnt I—"
"Are you quite sure," interrupted Miss Cutting, "that you can distinguish between ideas and wheels?"—Chicago Daily News.

THE FOURTH AT BOSHVILLE

Account of an Old Fashioned Celebration, Condensed From the Columns of the Bosh County Clarion and Vindicator.

The Procession.

Greatest celebration ever known. Thousands of citizens and visitors thronged busy thoroughfares. Beautiful decorations everywhere. Everybody out and stirring. Boshville's fairest daughters wearing sashes—red, white and blue. Faces betraying patriotic interest. Sight pleasing to gods and men. Great commotion. Band begins to play. Boshville's famous Silver Cornet band. Renders Yankee Doodle. Unbounded enthusiasm. Procession moves. Semper Paratus Hose company in lead. Truck embellished with flowers and ribbon streamers. Company A, Boshville Rifles, nobly uniform. Capt. Julius Caesar Runaway commanding. Evolutions superb. Peers of Kaiser Wilhelm's grenadiers. Everybody applauds. Fair women wave handkerchiefs. His Honor, Mayor Smithy-mith, aldermen, city officials, in carriages. Knights Errant with plumed hats, swords flashing in bright summer sun. Two hundred Quaker Fellows, full regalia. Two hundred Workmen. Other orders. Nine hundred men in line. Unparalleled success. Boshville outdoes all competitors. Greatest town in state. We are the people. Don't forget it.

Thousands gayly dressed men, women, children at fair grounds. Music, unexcelled, by Boshville Silver Cornet band. Tribune in center of grounds. Music ceases. Genial mayor declares speaking in order. Prayer, Rev. Mr. Smallpay. Reading Declaration of Independence, Miss Birdie O'Rourke. His honor introduces Hon. Timothy Bellowhard, M. C., tenth district. "Glorious country, glorious people, glorious municipality. (Cheers.) Land of the free, home of the brave. Liberty of speech, free press, free pulpit, free everything. E Pluribus Unum. I'm servant of people. Your servant, fellow citizens. Tariff must be revised. Bellowhard will do it. Tariff must not be meddled with. Bellowhard will see to it. Bellowhard is your servant. Command Bellowhard. Bellowhard knows everything. (Prolonged cheers.) Wonderful country. Give me liberty or give me death. (Cheers.) Bellowhard favors public buildings for Boshville. (Tremendous cheers.) Bellowhard will introduce bill for public building. Boshville's all right. (So's Bellowhard.) Election next fall. Bellowhard is not electioneering, hence will stop. Bellowhard is modest, hence will close with three cheers for Boshville." (Hip, hip, hurrah!) Exit Bellowhard. Exit gay throng. Exit empty lemonade tub. Exit omnes.

The Small Boy.

Youth enjoyed itself. From early morn to dewy eve boys enlivened community. Firecrackers, nigger chasers everywhere. Timid ladies stuffed ears. Made no difference to boys. Enjoyed themselves all the more. Johnny Green, son of respected townsman, Ebenezer Green, Main street grocer, fired toy pistol all morning. Sad accident at noon. Lost two fingers. Sam Smith, son of Tonsorial Artist Smith, Bellevue avenue, shot off giant firecracker and right hand. Other calamities numerous. Saddest of all: Little George Peck, only child of Widow Selina Peck, corner Mulberry street and Hawthorne avenue, found lamented pa's pistol on shelf in closet. Thought it was unloaded. Played with it. Sudden explosion. Funeral Saturday, two p. m. Unhappy widow. Public sympathy goes out to her. Poor little George. Sad tale of woe. G. W. WEIPPERT.

THE ACME OF HEROISM.

Yell O. Dog—They talk about the heroism of the man behind the gun. Why, he ain't in it for heroism with the dog in front of the firecracker.

He Was Proud of It. Mrs. Goody Good—Aren't you ashamed, little boy, of tying a tin can and a firecracker to that poor dog's tail? Little Boy—No'm. He's an English bull pup and this is the Fourth of July.

We Liked the Noise. "So you enjoyed hearing the men reading the Declaration of Independence, Johnny?" "Yes, but I did. The guy roared through a megaphone and made a d-d-d-d-d noise."

TONY PASTOR.

Tony Pastor will present a great bill next week at his popular Fourteenth Street play house. Here it is: Callahan & Mack, "In the Old Neighborhood," Sully Family, original comedy, "An Interrupted Comedy," Annie Hart, Folly Trio, Maynard & MacDonald, The Lovitts, King & Stance, Meyer & Mason, Renner & Gardner, Dentrice and Elsie, Edith W. Richards, Steinert & Thomas, Charles H. Duncan, Charles H. Herbert, The American Vitagraph.

KEITH'S THEATRE

Seldom it is that any novelty is strong enough to hold the stage at Keith's longer than two weeks, but Howard Thurston has proved such a drawing card, that he has again been held over to head the bill for the coming week. Thurston is the supreme sovereign in the realm of marvels, and is without doubt the greatest illusionist the world has ever known.

In tire keeping with this great act is the balance of the program. Comedy in abundance will be furnished by Gallagher and Barrett, The 3 Hickmums, Frederick Bond & Co., and Mr. and Mrs. Roby; Sallie Stambler, Satsuma, The Rees Bros., Howe & Scott, Josie and Willie Barrows, Polk and Collins, Bean & Hamilton, Silver & Euerie, and more of the moving pictures telling or sometime honored fairy tale for the benefit of the younger patrons. This brings the bill up to Mr. Keith's highest standard.

Lake Hopatcong.

Lake Hopatcong has become justly famous for several reasons but chief of these is its location. High up in New Jersey's beautiful mountains, a thousand feet above the sea level, surrounded by verdant hills and charming landscape, it is the perfection of outing places. To reach it is a delightful journey through a series of picturesque valleys, and the time of the traveler is so occupied feasting on the scenic sights that the few hours journey are like fleeting moments. For a Sunday excursion no place is more popular than Lake Hopatcong, and if you want a day of enjoyment take in the $1.00 excursion to Lake Hopatcong, the New Jersey Central is to run on June 28th. There will be a special train from Westfield at 9.15 a. m., and the return train does not leave the lake until late afternoon. There is ample opportunity for a trip over the lake or such enjoyment as one may care to indulge in.

THE WOMAN VOTE.

There was an old-time belief that if women were enfranchised they would mass themselves into one great party by themselves, and make it their sole object to antagonize men. But there never was a "Woman's Party," and there never will be.

In every commonwealth there are numerous classes of votes which the political leader must consider: the "labor vote," a force so powerful that he quails before it; the "farmer vote," which he seldom underestimates; the "business vote," the "corporation vote," the "trust vote." Then there is the "slum vote," the prolific soil of political corruption and crime.

In the enfranchised States there is also the "woman vote," and no politician fails to give it due consideration. With him it is a business proposition; he knows that it must be won, and he sets about to win it in the same business-like way that he seeks to win the votes of any other class. He knows that candidates must be nominated who will be acceptable to the women voters, and, as women look especially to the character of the men for whom they vote, he seeks to secure the best men of his party for the ticket.

Queen Quality

Sure to Fit.

The privilege of choice from a lot of styles is equal to an extra ten per cent of value. All stores agree on this. Do you realize that the "Queen Quality" shoe originates nearly all the styles of shoes worn by women?

"Queen Quality" is made in every possible style from original designs. In each style there is every size and shape for every kind of foot. We carry all this stock. It is practically impossible to produce a need for which there is not a "Queen Quality" shoe already designed and in our store today. And they are original designs found on no other shoe unless they are copied.

It is equally impossible to produce a normal foot which we cannot accurately fit in this shoe. This is not true of other makes of women's shoes.

With any other shoe you may or may not be fitted; but with "Queen Quality" you have nearly twice as many styles and far greater differentiation in sizes and shape. If you want a "glove" fit in shoes you can get it only in "Queen Quality,"—remember that.

PUBLIC HEARING SET FOR JULY 13TH

Hotel Closing Hour Again Causes Much Discussion in Town Council—The Amendment Lost.At Monday night's meeting of the town council Frank J. Schaefer presented an application for a hotel license for his property on Grove street and Central avenue. Accompanying his application was his license fee of $350. A public hearing will be given the application on Monday night, July 13th.Much time and discussion was given regarding the clause in the new excise ordinance closing the hotels at 11:30 p.
m. Councilman Wittke offered an amendment, making the closing hour 12 o'clock. Councilman Pierson jumped to his feet and wanted to know why such an amendment was offered at this time when the proposition had been defeated twice. Mr. Wittke thought it unfair to raise the license fee and to also cut down the hours. He said many citizens had asked him to have the hour changed to 12 o'clock. Mr. Russell stated that many capable men had spoken to him about the proposed change and they all thought the present hour of closing too early. He thought it might be well to concede the half hour and then make all hotel keepers live up to the ordinance. Mr. Loise said the time for the hotel keepers to object to the closing hour was at the public meeting recently held. Not one, he said, complained of the hour at that time. When it came to a vote the amendment was lost 6 to 3.Many complaints were received regarding the poor conditions of Westfield roads. They were all referred to the committee on roads.O. E. Bartis applied for a permit to allow piano playing and other music in his building on Elm street. He also asked permission to operate a moving picture machine. The matter was referred to the excise committee.Chemicals Killing Off the Large Fish.
The State fish commissioners are investigating the cause of so many fish dying at Lake Hopatcong. The surface of the lake is almost covered with dead perch, pickerel and large black bass.
It is thought the chemical company at the southern end of the lake is responsible and many of the old guides claim that the poisonous chemicals from the works are allowed to flow into the lake causing the fish to die.

new machinery he is able to do the best work at the most reasonable prices. Do not be afraid to send him your most de-

LAWS?So Claims Willard T. Johnston And He Furnishes His Reasons For His Conclusions.Westfield, N. J., June 25th, 1903
Editor Union County Standard:
Westfield, N. J.Dear Sir:—
Regarding the ordinance recently passed by the town Council, I have given considerable attention to the subjects covered thereby, and I desire to call your attention to my conclusions on the following points:Excise Ordinance. This ordinance is remarkably well drawn and practicable;
and if the police ordinance was as well formulated you would get very satisfactory results from the excise ordinance;
but the organization of your police force as arranged in the police ordinance, is of such a non-descript character, without a responsible head for the enforcement of the laws, you will find the excise ordinance will be observed in the breach.
In the town of Bloomfield, N. J., where this excise ordinance, almost "verbatim et literatim" was passed in 1900, they have a fully organized police force, with a recognized head to enforce its provisions, which you will not have.Police Ordinance. This ordinance establishes a "Police Board." This board
"So constituted, shall possess and exercise full authority to establish and cause to be executed such rules and regulations for the government and efficient working of the entire force of said town, prescribe such penalties for the enforcement of same and issue such notices as may by the said board be deemed necessary." The council hereby delegates the control to this board, composed of the Chairman of the Council and the Police Committee, who might learn, if they would consult the State law, that Section 90 of 1895 says: "That the council shall have power by ordinance to provide for regulate and control a night and day police and shall regulate and define their duties." Would the town laws have any standing in court should the council have occasion to try a policeman for neglect of duty when the council have failed in their duty to establish by ordinance the duties of said policeman?(Why could not the members of the Town Council act as members of the Board of Health? Because, Section 24 of the laws of 1895 says, "That no officer of the town elected or appointed under this act shall hold any other office of profit or trust under this act, and any such officer who shall accept any other office under this act, shall be deemed to thereby vacate the office to which he was first elected or appointed." The Town Council is empowered to establish by ordinance such minor offices as the interest of the town may require, and define their duties, as in the case of the Superintendent of Roads and Sewers; under this authority your council has established a distinct "Board of Police," constituted (contrary to law) of the members of the Town council. If Section 24 above referred to applies to the Board of Health, Superintendents of the Roads and Sewers, why does it not apply to the distinct "Board of Police"?
and if it does apply are not all the members of the "Board of Police" by virtue of this law now ex members of the Town council?As the council has shown their good judgment in adopting the Excise Laws of the Town of Bloomfield, why do they not also adopt the Police Laws also of that town as they comply strictly with the State laws and you would be on the safe side.Yours respectfully,
WILLARD T. JOHNSTON.

Red and Blue to Play Later.

Westfield, N. J., June 20, 1904.

Dear Mr. Editor:

My Goodness! Did you ever see so much rain?

It was perfectly awful. We had our Red and Blue teams all "trained down", fit to play the game of their lives, provided it could be played on land, but somehow they all, to a man, objected to be compelled to swim to first. Then Bunzie kicked and said "I must be crazy to want him to stand up to his neck in water and try to put the ball over the plate." Do you think I am a Baptist?"
said Bunzie.We want to publicly thank all of the Fireside friends who so liberally bought tickets; and to add that Charley De-man says we can have the grounds the next time his team go out of town, so we will have our game after all. Hang on to your tickets for they will all be good on that day—whenever it is. Due notice will be in the Standard.Yours for a clear day next time, E. G. HANFORD.

Westfield is Certainly Base Ball Crazy.

It is reported on seemingly good authority, that a picked nine of the Royal Arcanum Red's and Blue's will challenge any team in Westfield composed of lodge men. The A. O. U. W. have selected a nine from among its members and suits have been ordered. Now comes the Jr. O. U. A. M. with a team to tackle the best of them. It would seem that considerable amusement is on the calendar for the Westfield fans.But of course anyone wishing to thoroughly enjoy the National game will visit the Big Show at Recreation Park.

Business May Continue.

G. W. V. Moy of Plainfield, has been appointed receiver of the Hyard Pharmacy Co. The business will be continued, for the present at least, by J. Louis Ollif. Frank E. Brownell, who was secretary of the corporation, has withdrawn his interests from the business.Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them.
Hill's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
In buying Hill's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by I. T. Fitch, Price 75c per bottle.
Hill's Family Pills are the best.OUR NEW steam shirt press. The most modern piece of laundry machinery yet invented.

SHALL WE GET ACQUAINTED?

We have adopted a new system for ironing. We iron all shirts by a new steam heated machine which presses instead of rubs. We press them perfectly flat, giving you a perfect fit. The button-holes and eyelets always match.

We Will Do Our Part.

The old way of ironing was to put them through a machine under heavy pressure with rolls running in opposite directions to get a friction. You will see how that wears the linen. The new way there is positively no friction, that's how we save linen.We don't believe you would be content with the ordinary way of laundering after trying our superior methods. Bosoms never bulge.
We render you better service, but our prices are no higher.

A Hanging Railroad.

A hanging overhead electric railroad
for London, similar to that in Berlin, Germany, is projected by a group of German, American and English financiers. A parliamentary concession will be asked to allow the single track required over the Thames from its south end for eight miles.—

Not Necessarily.

"One Wife Too Many," exclaimed Mrs. Wederly, as she glanced at the headlines of her husband's paper. "I suppose that is on account of the delings of some bigamist."
"Not necessarily, my dear," replied her husband, without daring to look up.—Cleveland Leader.

Chinese State Ceremony.

The Chinese court started recently for the western tombs of the royal house of China. There was an immense amount of ceremony observed in relation to the visit, and so less than 400 railway cars were requisitioned to convey the royal pair, their courtiers and baggage on their journey.—N. Y. Sun.

A REPUTATION WELL EARNED.

In this age of business activity, it is interesting to look back, and to note failures and successes that have been made even in a decade. Notoriety is cheaply achieved; but a solid reputation is the almost imperceptible yet steady growth of years. Once it is gained, the same causes must keep it guarded. It takes time to make; but one error may unmake. Like the price of Liberty, eternal vigilance is its safeguard.

The well known house of J. and C. Fischer, Piano Manufacturers, is a case in point. Founded in 1840, and with an output of Pianos which, compared to the present, was trifling indeed, the steady growth of reputation has widened the field for the FISCHER PIANO until the mark of 120,000, made and placed in homes, has been reached. Though this product is large, yet the reason for it is quite obvious. A thoroughly trustworthy and reliable Piano in the essentials of the finest Tone-quality, combined with an Artistic Individuality of both exterior and interior construction, and marvelous durability—this not only amply explains the reason for the "Fischer" reputation for the past 63 years and over, but it invites the still further confidence of those who desire to place in their homes a Piano that is high in the esteem of the professional musical artist as well as the player in the home circle.

The latest and most artistic specimens of Glassware of all kinds for Wedding Gifts may be seen at the Dorfinger Glass stores, 3 and 5 West 19th Street, near Fifth Avenue, and 86 Murray Street, New York.

THE FIREMEN'S OUTING.

RAIN DID NOT PREVENT OCCASION BEING MUCH ENJOYED.

General Manager Butler and General Passenger Agent Bart, of the Jersey Central gave the Fire Ladders a Great Time at Beautiful Lake Hopatcong.

Though the rain of Tuesday did its very best to dampen the ardor of the firemen and their wives on the excursion to Lake Hopatcong given by General Manager W. G. Bealer and General Passenger Agent C. M. Bart, the occasion was one that will long be remembered by Westfield fire ladders.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the mammoth engine No. 820, with Billie Smith of Westfield, at the throttle, and Chris Riley of Jersey City, piling on the coal, pulled out of Westfield with eighty-seven on board, all pleasure bent. It was a jolly crowd and Mr. Bealer and Mr. Bart did all that was possible to do toward providing an enjoyable outing.

One pleasant feature of the trip that was not on the original schedule was taking the special train through the mountains of New Jersey, over the Delaware river to Easton and on through picturesque Pennsylvania to Allentown and thence back to Lake Hopatcong.

The train stopped at Allen's pavilion at Nolan's Point, one of the prettiest sections of the lake, where an excellent dinner was served at 1:30. As soon as dinner was through with Mr. Bealer invited his guests aboard the commodious side wheel steamer for a sail around the lake. While the lake was by no means seen at its best on account of the cold winds and rain, everyone pronounced it a delightful sail.

At the dancing pavilion "Al" Berner sat down to the piano and his work on the ivories put Paderewski's playing in the shade. Dancing was indulged in until five o'clock, the hour for the return trip.

A box lunch was served on the train and Mr. Bealer and Mr. Bart entertained in their private car "Central" until Plainfield was reached, where Mr. Bealer left the party amid hearty cheers from the firemen.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the special pulled into the Westfield depot the party alighting to the platform, where they gave three cheers to Mr. Bart as he waved a good bye from the rear platform of the "Central."

The conductor in charge of the train was M. A. Knapp of Newark, and the brakeman were F. J. Feltus, of Elizabeth, and William Colon, of Newark.

Enterprising Cigar Firm.

Burkowitz & Braskin formerly Kirstein's, Westfield's most enterprising cigar firm, will make a special on cigars for Fourth of July and their effort is likely to appeal to every smoker in Westfield. Their stock of cigars and tobaccos is second to none in Union county in size and quality. Read the special announcement in this issue of the Standard.

"Get the Habit."

Our readers have read with interest the weekly announcements of Brill Brothers in our advertising columns. This progressive men's clothing and outfitting house is one of the largest and most up-to-date in the city of New York. It urges all to "get the habit," go to Brill Brothers, and it boasts truly that those who are once customers are customers always.

Needed a Rest.

"Rest is not quitting the busy career," says the poet. The truth of the saying was impressed on an Arkansas family by Lula, their colored cook. She was fat, lazy and "notional" but her cooking was perfect, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawton ignored her whims and reduced her work to minimum.

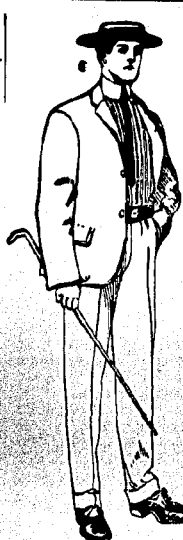

Good cooks were so hard to get that the question of adding a feather's weight to Lula's duties was discussed in a subdued whisper. One day Lula resigned her position.

"Why, Lula," asked Mrs. Lawton, "what is the matter? Is the work too hard for you?"

"Well, ma'am," replied Lula, "I'm all tired out. I'm going home and take in washing, and rest up."—Harper's Magazine.

WESTFIELD TEAM

ON HAND.

RAIN PREVENTED GAME WITH NORTH ENDS.

Special Car Took About Forty Rooters to Phillipsburg—Everybody Had a Good Time.

It was no fault of Westfield that the Phillipsburg game was not pulled off. The team and about 40 ardent and anxious rooters took the special train and reached the manufacturing town among the hills as per original schedule. Rain was coming down in bucketful and special busses took the crowd to the Mount Vernon hotel at Easton where supper had been engaged.

On the east and west trip on the train, Jack Burke and his comedians gave a vaudeville show that was amusing to say the least. "Andy" Smith did a turn or two that received applause. Little "Jake" gave a recitation in the Russian lingo that made a hit, principally because no one understood what he was talking about. McMannus told the boys how popular he had been in Nashua (New England League) and explained that he had been released in order to witness the Westfield-Phillipsburg game. Probably another attempt will be made some time after Labor Day to get at the Phillipsburg team with the hope that the rain will let up a little for the occasion.

Since the defeat of the home team by the Aeolians, overtures have been made to them by the management for a series of five games or one game. Manager Lenz has admitted that Recreation Park, where the patrons of the game have every convenience, was the place for the games but he is not willing to accept as a guarantee any reasonable amount. As much as the Westfield team desires to wipe out its Aeolian defeat, the unreasonableness on the part of the Aeolian management is such that it is hardly probable that further games will be played. This state of affairs, however, will not prevent the securing of the very best of attractions at somewhat under bankrupt guarantees.

Games played and results to date:
April 25th, Westfield 0; West Side 7.
May 2nd, Westfield 0; 7th Regiment 5.
May 9th, Westfield 0; Aeolian 3.
May 16th, Westfield 6; Madison 5.
May 23rd, Westfield 13; Milburn-Sp'g'd 4.
May 30th, a. m. Westfield 5, Alis 3.
May 30th p. m. Westfield 13; Rahway 9.
June 6th, Westfield 21; Roselle 0.
June 13th, Westfield 4; Scotch Plains 0.
June 20th, no game account of rain.

Westfield has made a total of 77 runs against their opponents 36 runs.

"Pop DeVos," manager of the Brooklyn Field Club, will bring a very fast aggregation of ball players to Westfield tomorrow. They have a great record so far this season and have an idea that Westfield will be an easy victory for them. Be on hand promptly at 4 o'clock and root good and hard for Westfield.

BIG SHOW SCHEDULE.
Here are the dates ahead that will interest base ball fans in this section:
June 27th, Brooklyn Field Club.
July 4th, a. m., Pearsall A. O.

Matthew McIntyre, a rising young outfielder, is a New York National League team possibility, so to speak. Manager McGraw has heard much that is good about this youngster, and it is rumored that he is now trying to land him, even though he may not come here until next season.

McIntyre now is playing with the Buffalo club of the Eastern League, and is batting above the .400 mark. He is a particularly fast base runner and covers a lot of ground. The Worcester club also is after him. His home is on Staten Island. "Matty" is a Westfield graduate, having played with Westfield in 1899 and 1900.

It is understood that there are no games scheduled on the Fourth at Garwood. Everybody will attend the two game at Recreation Park.

The Aeolian team has given up the idea of playing on the Cranford ball ground.

The umpire question has given the management as much bother as the work of the men dissatisfaction. In the league the umpire is protected in a large measure by his power to put out of the game obnoxious players. In semi-professional ball this power is out of the question and as in the Scotch Plains game, the attempts of Davis and Cruzes to gain the crowd's sympathy unreasonably, have been to the detriment of the umpire's work. Another drawback to the ordinary umpire is that his work is but once a week and men accustomed to indoor work during the week cannot be expected to get out in the open air on Saturdays and have an accurate vision as to balls and strikes; in any event he will suffer in comparison with a man who umpires regularly. With the idea in view to do the best possible, beginning with tomorrow the umpire who has been the official for Manhattan College all through its schedule at home will be the judge of play at Recreation Park.

July 4th will be a big ball day. The morning display will be against the Pearsall A. C., of Greenville. Every fan remembers with a bunch of satisfaction the 1-0-10 inning game and the 1-0-9 inning game Labor morning and the Saturday before, last year, against this speedy outfit. The one choice determination of the Pearsall's is to defeat Westfield. This question disrupted their team at the opening of this season and two Pearsall clubs were started through their decision to get a team that could do Westfield. All differences were healed early in May and the Pearsall team of today is the old reliable, with a point or two strengthened, making them even stronger than last year. In the afternoon the St. Mary's team, the best of the recently disbanded Amateur League of Plainfield, will have a go at the big show. The St. Mary's own the larger portion of the Plainfield rooters and they are coming down in droves with their team braced to the limit.

GOLF.

Despite the rain a number of players went the round last Saturday in the regular Monthly Handicap at the Westfield Golf Club. It was won by Charles Hansel with 101-15-98. Other contestants were R. I. Townley, J. A. Woodward, H. W. Gladwin, E. B. Prouditt, F. P. Condit, J. A. Worth, S. A. Trevett.

Fourth of July at the Westfield Golf Club will be celebrated by an 18 holes medal play handicap at 9 a. m., and "Driving" and Approaching and putting contests at 2.30 p. m.

David Honeymann, the Westfield Golf Club "pro" is entered in the "Open Championship" in which play commenced this morning at the Baltusrol Golf Club. It is a 73 holes medal play competition, which keeps a man on edge all the time. The contest will draw a great many Westfield golfers to Baltusrol.

Slating for the Phonograph.
"Once in a while," said the manager of a public phonograph concern, "we can persuade a man or woman who has made a song popular to come to our warehouse and sing for a record, but in nine cases out of ten the game is not worth the candle. We can get better results for the same song from performers trained to phonographic work, but who could scarcely earn their salt in a music hall. Professional singers do not seem to get the low and even pluck that makes a song for the phonograph a success. Not one man in 50 who applies for work in this line is fit for it. If a man insists we give him a trial and then let him listen to his own voice. With the women we have more trouble still. That is why so many songs sung by women in the comic opera are trotted out by men over the phonograph. One fellow who gets along well enough in the music halls listened to his own voice here lately. 'Say,' he exclaimed in disgust, 'if I thought I screamed like that it would be the fishheart for mine!'"—N. Y. Times.

In the Barber's Chair.
"Want a shampoo, sir, also?" says the barber, as his razor goes over your upper lip. "Um-m-m," you answer, fearing to open your mouth during that delicate operation. The barber smiles. "Funny thing," he explains, "how nine men out of ten in the barber's chair are afraid to speak while the razor is near their lips. And they'll talk whenever they please when their chins are being shaved. Yet it is lots more dangerous to do that than the other. They don't realize that most persons move their chins more when talking than they do their lips. Yet it is a fact. So don't be afraid to answer when the saw is going over your lips, or at least, don't try to answer by shaking or nodding your head. That's worse yet, and nevertheless, nearly every man will without stopping to think that it puts him in more danger of being cut than if he were to speak. 'Which is it, sir? Yes, sir, Next.'"—Washington Times.

Christening a Railway.
Engineers are, as a rule, sternly utilitarian, but there are occasions on which they indulge in sentimental practices. One of these occurred the other day on the completion of the first transcontinental railway in Africa. When the plate-laying gangs from Bulawayo and Salisbury, respectively, came within 20 chains of each other a telegram was sent to the contractors and engineers, who at once arrived on the scene. The rails were joined and two engines proceeded slowly toward each other from each side. Attached to the drawhead of the engine from Salisbury was a bottle of champagne and as the two engines met it was broken and the new railway was named in the orthodox manner.—London Telegraph.

Beautiful African Turtle.
One of the most beautiful turtles in the world is found in Africa and a few fine specimens were recently captured there and taken to Europe. That they will thrive in a strange country is by no means certain, though a few naturalists, who have spent some months in German East Africa and who have carefully studied these turtles, are confident that they will quickly become acclimatized. The beauty of these torpid and rather ungainly animals is in the shell, which covers and protects almost the entire body. Unlike that of the ordinary turtle, which is singularly lacking in richness and variety of color, this shell attracts the eye at once by the beautiful gold and brown stripes which run down it and by the little clusters of crimson which are found here and there.—Detroit Free Press.

What He Could Do.
A son of the Emerald Isle, just over, was being examined orally by a police captain to whom he had applied for a position on the force. Without a smile the captain, himself an Irishman, said: "What is the first thing you would do if a citizen should ask you, as a policeman, on St. Patrick's day, if you were an Orangeman?" "The first thing? Well, the second would be to bundle the remains into an ambulance."—Chicago Chronicle.

One Way to Acquire Prominence.
"This Mr. Muggins is one of your prominent men, I suppose."
"O, yes."
"What did he ever do?"
"Nothing at all. You see, he has always kept in the background when anything was to be done, so that he could outshine those who did it. That's what made him so prominent as a citizen."—Stray Stories.

Proof.
A lady who had been traveling abroad was describing an Irishwoman whom she met.
"She was so refined, so well-educated!" she said. "Why, she was so careful in avoiding all temptations to brogue that she invariably called the crater of Mount Vesuvius 'the creature!'"

OBJECTS TO METHOD OF RAISING SEWER BARN MONEY.

Mr. Johnston Thinks Amount Should Be Raised By Vote of People.

Westfield, N. J., June 23rd, 1933.
Editor Union County Standard,
Westfield, N. J.

Dear Sir:—
In looking over the items estimated as required for the wants of the town for the coming year I find they are as follows:

Street Lights.....	$3,500
Police.....	2,700
Fire Department.....	1,500
Roads.....	3,500
Support of the Poor.....	800
Fire Hydrants.....	800
Interest.....	1,200
Salary of Clerk.....	600
" Treasurer.....	825
" Collector.....	650
" Assessor.....	600
" Recorder.....	150
" Attorney.....	150
" Overseer of the Poor.....	100
Election expenses.....	400
Board of Health.....	450
Surveys, &c.....	500
Rent.....	500
Sewer.....	1,800
Barn on Sewer Farm.....	500
Furniture.....	150
Printing.....	250
Fuel.....	50
Telephone.....	25
Deficit.....	2,000
Small Exp.....	1,400
Sewer Bond.....	3,000
Total.....	$30,625 00

And the Tax Levy is as follows:—
For Street Lights.....$3,500
Police.....2,700
Fire Department.....1,500
Roads.....3,500
Support of the Poor.....800
Fire Hydrants.....800
Interest.....1,200
Incidentals.....10,000
Receipts from sundry sources outside of taxes.....4,900

Excess of taxes levied over estimated wants.....$9,375
Add the cost of the barn, which it is illegal to assess.....500

Regarding the assessment for the barn, if this barn were to be used by the town for fire purposes, say to protect a garage, it would be a necessary expense and could be assessed, but as they are building this barn for the purpose of renting it, it should have been submitted to the vote of the people as an unusual expenditure, for the council has not the power to assess for anything outside of the ordinary expenses of the town. If they are authorized to build this building they can also build several houses for the purpose of renting them and assess the cost on the town. Can they find a barn that will give them the power to do this? If they cannot they can be held responsible for illegally spending this amount.

Would it not be much better for the town to save this amount and keep the tax rate down to a possible $2.80 per $100, instead of $2.81 as stated in your recent issue.

Yours respectfully,
WILLARD T. JOHNSTON.

Best Things Grow Farthest North.
The interesting fact has lately come to the attention of the government scientists that the frog (the edible variety) attains its greatest and best development, not, as one would imagine, in the semi-tropical swamps of Florida and Louisiana, but in far northern Canada, on the extreme northern limit at which these reptiles are found. This bears out an old and pretty safe rule that both plants and animals attain their best development at the northernmost point of their habitat. Thus the diamond-back terrapin of the Chesapeake brings nearly eight times the price of the diamond-back of Louisiana, and the best oranges are grown, not in tropical Cuba (people of the older generation still remember the coarse-grained, sourish Havana oranges), but in northern Florida, where the trees are frequently cut down by the hard frosts and cold weather.—Washington Post.

Tested.
Jones, just back from the frozen north, was unpacking his trunk and his imagination in the presence of his family.

"The last week that I was there," he said, carelessly, holding up a thermometer as he spoke, "this stood at 40 degrees below zero."

Jones' brother, a wag, and something of a dower, took a slender glass tube out of his waistcoat pocket.

"And this," he said, coolly, "has been successfully used to determine the temperature of a lady bachelor of arts."

"There is something in degrees, after all," their father remarked, with a gracious glance that included a freshman and an undergraduate daughter.—Youth's Companion.

SNAILS FROM FRANCE.

Imported in Enormous Quantities by the High Livers of New York and New Orleans.

Grass hoppers and snails and such small deer are supposed to be confined to the dietary list of the Digger Indians; it may therefore be a little surprising to learn that the most fastidious buyers in New York consume about 20,000 snails a week during the winter, when they are in season. New Orleans is another great market for them, and during the height of the season from 50,000 to 75,000 a week are brought into the country. They come from Burgundy and the Dordogne districts of France, where all summer long they disport themselves on the grape leaves that form their sole diet. Old vineyards are given over to them, and the snails prove a remunerative though not bustling crop. With the first frosts the snails crawl into their shells, put up their storm doors, and retire for the winter. They are then shipped to market, packed in sawdust or bran to prevent breaking the shells, and kept on ice for if the temperature becomes higher the snails pop their heads out to see whether spring has come, and are thus damaged in transit. They sell for $1.50 per 100, and usually retail for about 50 cents a dozen. They are cooked in a variety of ways, but are most frequently served in the shell, on a platter having little depressions to hold them, appearing on the bill of fare as escargots à la Bordelaise. Snails are now devised for convalescents, it being believed that they are so assimilated as to replace waste tissue, but this is no new idea; in England a century or more ago it was customary to order a snail diet for people affected with wasting diseases. Common or garden snails were taken raw or in scalded milk, and this practice is still common in rural England. — Rural New Yorker.

Planning the Season's Work.
One of the chief leaks on many farms is the loss of time and energy because the management is not carried out on any definite system. A study of any old and successful business will show that success has been largely due to a methodical and systematic way of doing things. All work should be carefully planned so there will be no waste time in carrying it out. Plans should also be made so as to counteract any adverse conditions of weather that may come. — Midland Farmer.

Equally Divided.
"You allow no beer in the house?"
"No, my wife and I never drink anything but wine and water."
"In what proportion do you take it?"
"I drink the wine and my wife drinks the water." — Lippincott's Magazine.

Otherwise a Work of Art.
The Actor—Do you really think that picture looks like me?
The Sourette—Yes; but I have no other fault to find with it. — Stray Stories.

A Pessimistic View.
"We have only one world here, haven't we?" asked the boy.
"Yes, my son."
"Then what is the world of politics I hear so much about?"
The defeated candidate sighed heavily.
"It is not a world at all, my son," he replied. "It is only a delusion and a snare." — Chicago Post.

Another Testimonial.
"Yes, Dad Bill was well pleased with your hair, only I drew Amber Pete. He gave it a trial and it raised his first-rate!"
"But Dad Bill is still bald," said the agent.
"Oh, he didn't try it on his head, pard, he tried it on his bear-skin breeches!" — Chicago Daily News.

Women in India.
In northern India it is still considered not genteel for a woman, even when veiled from head to foot, to walk on a railway platform to get into the cars. She has to be carried in a closed palanquin right up to the window of her compartment. — London Mail.

MRS. M. B. G. EDDY REPLIES.

Discusses Claim That Ralph Waldo Emerson Was the Author of Christian Science.

Recent claims that Ralph Waldo Emerson is the author of Christian Science have called forth the following statement from Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy:

TO WHOM IT CONCERNS.
"I was early the pupil of Miss Sarah J. Bodwell, the principal of Sanborn Academy of New Hampshire, and finished my course of studies under Prof. Dyer H. Sanborn, author of Sanborn's Grammar. Among my earliest studies were Comstock's Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Blair's Rhetoric, Whately's Logic, Watt's 'On the Mind of Moral Science.'"

"At sixteen years of age I began writing for leading newspapers, and for many years wrote for the best magazines in the south and north. I have lectured in large and crowded halls in New York City, Chicago, Boston, Portland and at Waterville College, and have been invited to lecture in London and Edinburgh."

"In 1888 I started the Christian Science Journal, and for several years was the proprietor and sole editor of that Journal. In 1893 Judge S. J. Hanna became editor of the Christian Science Journal, and for ten subsequent years he knew my ability as an editor. In his recent lecture at Chicago he said 'Mrs. Eddy is, from every point of view, a woman of sound education and liberal culture.'"

"Agassiz, the celebrated naturalist and author, wisely said: 'Every great scientific truth goes through three stages. First, people say it conflicts with the Bible. Next, they say it has been discovered before. Lastly, they say that they have always believed it.'"

"The first attack upon me was: Mrs. Eddy misinterprets the Scriptures; second, she has stolen the contents of her book 'Science and Health' with Key to the Scriptures' from one P. P. Quimby (an obscure, uneducated man); and he is the founder of Christian Science. Falling in these attempts, the cumulative has resorted to Ralph Waldo Emerson's philosophy as the authority for Christian Science. Lastly, the defamer will declare as honestly (?) 'I have always known it.'"

"In Science and Health, edition 271, page 98, paragraph 3, I briefly express myself unmistakably on the subject of 'vulgar metaphysics.' And the manuscript and letters in my possession which 'vulgar' defamers have circulated stand in evidence. People do not know who is referred to as 'an ignorant woman in New Hampshire.' Many of the nation's best and most distinguished men and women were natives of the Granite State."

"I am the author of the Christian Science text-book, 'Science and Health' with Key to the Scriptures, and the demand for this book increases, and the book is already in the 274th edition of one thousand copies each. I am rated in the National Magazine (1903) as standing eighth in a list of twenty-two of the foremost living authors."

"I claim no special merit of any kind. All that I am in reality God made me. I still wait at the cross to learn definitely more from my great Master, but not of the Greek nor of the Roman schools—simply how to do his deeds."

Pleasant View,
Concord, N. H., June 4, 1903.

Change Only Once a Day.

"Yes, we carry an evening suit," said the arctic explorer.
"But isn't it a lot of trouble changing so often in those cold climates?" protested the friend.
"We don't change often. You know the nights are six months long up there." — Stray Stories.

Real Thing.

"What game have you to-day?" asked the half-starved eastern man, as he registered at an Arizona hotel.
"Seven-up and poker, sir," replied the proprietor, as he extended the glad hand. — Chicago Daily News.

The Cause of It.

Hassett—The way people rave over slender girls makes me tired. I think the plumper a girl is the prettier she is.
Gessett—Ah, I congratulate you, old man! So Miss Dimples has accepted you, eh? — Cleveland Leader.

Applause is Cheap.

Don't keep so busy applauding the acts of those who are making a brave struggle, that your hands never get down to your pockets to help them. — Atchison Globe.

FIRESIDE ROLL.

Often I've thought, as I've gone o'er the list
Of all the good brothers you see in our midst,
They're all jolly fellows of this you'll agree,
So take off your ear flaps and listen to me.

Our roll just at present is twenty-four;
It's all the time growing, and soon will be more.

We touch all the alphabet, skip only two,
The last one is X, while the other is Q.
I'll read off the names, check off as I call,
Will read the list slowly, and try to get all.

We've Alpers and Arnolds and Affleck boys three,
Arkel and Aikman, Reverend Anderson, D. D.
Of the "B's" there's a lot, a regular bliv:
Together they add up to just twenty-five.

There's Barton and Brown, and Boxer, no Turk, There's Bogerts and Baker, and old John T. Burke.
There's Bachman and Beil, and Bennett and Bent,
Though some call him Broken, with joking intent.

There's Bodensiek, Burhans, Butler and Bunce, Whose been to our meeting, I think only once.

There's Birdsall, and Bushnell, Basanta, Brownell,
To make out the rhyme, out of turn take Udel.

There's Bruner and Bowler, and Burner and Buime,
We're there any more B's I wouldn't have room.

Next comes the Crosby—Joseph and Ben;
And then Doctor Cooper, who tends to sick men.

Coger and Cadmus, Codding and Clark,
Reverend Cadwell, who preaches 'gainst ways that are dark.

Carberry, Clotworthy, Collins, and Claas;
From C's on to D's we'll now have to pass.

There's Dallas and Delamater, Jack Dennis and Bob;
And Dits who once held the Collector's bum-job.

There's Denman, and Decker, Delator, Darsh;
To finish the rhyme, out of turn we take Marsh.

There's Davis and Davies, Dickerson, Dence, Dominick, Doerrier, Dunham, Dempsey.

Of E's there's a few, 'tis quite easy to tell,
Of Embree and Evans, Elliott and Egel.

Es start with Farmer, Ferris and Fink;
How to get them to rhyme makes me scratch at my think.

There's Frances, and Foster, and Felver and Freau,
With old Jimmy French to wind up the team.

There's Anson F. Grant, and Gilby and Groo, Gauzel and Green, Joe Gallagher, too.

There's Jonnie Gillick, Jr., and Giblin, Gilmore,
Which takes all the G's I have in my store.

There's Hammer and Hodges, four Harbison men,
Harrison, Hawkins, Hunt and Hansgren,

Hastings and Hubert, Hanlon and Hough;
Hurst, Halstead and Hann, guess that's enough.

John Irving, John Ingram and John Isenman;
As I have no more I's, we'll take Jim Ierson.

Which leaves me two Johnstons, both live on Broad street,
Though 'Charley's the one in the auto you meet.

Two Kinches come next, Wallace Kaylor, and Krause,
You seldom can Ketcham away from the house.

Two Knights, and a Keegan, just now hear me sing
Of Bernard and Coursan, and Harlan A. King.

There's Lightfoot and Lambert, and two brothers Lee,
Will Lynde, Kunt Lofgren, and Charles D. Loses.

Six Millers we have, James L., John and Joe,
A Robert, a Jackson, and one Alonzo.

There's Moffett, and Mahner and Morton and Mages, McDonnell, and Mitchell, Major, Mason, and Land sakes!

Noe and Nobbs—N's has but a few,
Oshorn and Oliver—Nether O's but two.

Estarrs with Peddie, Pierson and Peck; Pearalls, Perrine, and Peckham, the meek.

Perry and Perkins, Paterson and Pray—
There's where I gladly the P's throw away.

R starts with Ritoble, Rogers and Ring;
If I'd been smart, might here have used Kling.

There's Rider and Ruggles, Randolph and Reece,
Aud Russell and Reifer, that's the end of R's lease.

S is a corker, there's just twenty-one;
We'll take as a starter P. G. B. Sphetum.

There's dear brother Sinclair, his son Doctor Bub;
When we join the Aroamun, why, he gets the job.

There's Schuckler and Seybold, and Scholler and Smith,
There's a bunch of the Smithies, as well as John Schmitt.

There's Shearer and Singer, and Sansom and Schlive; Schoonover (Charles Wesley) Branch Mills he doth live.

Snyder and Sumner, and Professor Savitz,
With Matthew Sinclair, fills up the long list.

The T's all start off, so easy and nice,
There's Tompkins and Trimmer, and Taggart and Tice.

Four Taylors, one Townley, and Tuttle buys two.
How! Trenchard and Torrey, and Trues, cide mit you?

Lloyd Thompson is last, he's now the town clerk;
Next following after, comes George V. Boskerck.

With Leonard G. Venn, and Bennie Vervoort,
He's always home early, for his wife says heought.

I'm traveling now near the end of my line,
The harder it gets to make decent rhymes.

Look over the W's, there's not much to

A woman worn-out, who never has to lift a hand for herself, who does not know the meaning of the word "worry!" How can it be possible? That it is possible is proved by the experience of many a woman who, because of sleeplessness, nervousness, backache and other womanly ills, becomes an utter physical wreck.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives new life and new strength to weak, worn-out, run-down women. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

I suffered for five years with inflammation which caused violent pain and often torture so bad at times that I could not be about to attend to my daily duties," writes Mrs. Julius C. Bell, of Bathurst, Kingston, Ont. "Life was simply misery to me and I did not know which way to turn for relief. Had tried doctors but found they did not help me. My druggist advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—and giving it in glowing terms, I decided to give it a trial and brought a bottle home. I am happy today that after the use of the first bottle I felt so much improved I decided to take another and after that a third bottle. I have good reasons to be pleased for I am today a well woman, work as easy and the world looks bright. I have perfect health, thanks to your medicine."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

But Alphabet Charley, and J. S. A. Witke.

Now comes Woodruff and Winant and Wilson, J. B.

There's Wyckoff's, one Warneke and Welch, Charles Leslie.

Three Westenfelder, Wiukelmann, Watkins, Watts.

Next, Whitaker, Winters and Welch, two spots;

This cleans up the W's, except Billy Webb.

And when I've got him, no more need be said.

And now brothers all, the roll is most done.

The Y's man you see is Thomas Yocum; And last but not least, come guess if you can.

You can't? Well, I'll tell you—it's George Zimmerman.

EUGENE G. HANFORD.

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY.
Made-Up Carpets For Less Than Wholesale Price, at Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd., of Newark.

One of the remarkable opportunities of the season is announced by Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd., 73 Market St., Newark. They have very wisely taken all their discontinued spring patterns and incomplete rolls of carpets of all weaves and carefully made them up into room sizes, placing them at their actual cost from the mills; velvets, brussels, mequettes, ingrain and other popular weaves are included, making the display an attractive one for those interested in an opportunity of this kind.

The Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd., people are also stirring up matters in their furniture lines; they also report a marvelous increase in sales in all departments, which is far from surprising, considering the generous terms they are willing to make, where people prefer paying a little at a time rather than all cash when purchase is made.

BRANCH MILLS.

A Campfire entertainment will be held in the Chapel Tuesday evening, June 30. E. D. Miller led the C. E. meeting Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. Wilkins will spend her vacation at her home at Barnegat Bay.

The Sunday School held its election of officers Sunday afternoon and the following were elected: E. D. Miller, Superintendent; E. G. Fink, assistant Sup't.; Miss Kittie S. Parkhurst, treasurer; Walter Tipping, secretary; Gilbert Brown, assistant Sec'y; and Mrs. O. W. Schoonover, pupil.

Giant Mica Crystals.
The peninsula of India is famous for the excellence of its mica deposits. On account of its delicacy mica quickly suffers from the crushing effects of earth movements, and the superiority of the Indian deposits is ascribed to the geologically long and perfect quietness that the great peninsula has enjoyed. In the Nellore district crystals, or "books," of muscovite-mica have been obtained, measuring ten feet across the basal planes. Usually they are much smaller; and even in India the stability of the earth has not been sufficiently continuous to prevent the destruction of large quantities of this delicate and valuable mineral. — Science.

The Gila Monster's Venom.
I write to correct the impression that the gila monster is a harmless reptile. The experiment in Douglas with the monster and a dog might mislead some one to be careless in handling the reptile. I have heard of three or four people who lost their lives foolishly experimenting with gila monsters. One man in Fairbank, in the early 80s, let one bite him and, though he was full of snake bite antidote, of Jerry Barton's best brand, he died in four hours. One man in Congress, Ariz., was bitten in a vein or artery and died in five minutes. — Tombstone Epitaph.

To Much Chunk on the Fourth.

Everyone just now is making plans for some kind of an outing on the Fourth of July. Too often in the past has the day been followed by rain wishes that it had been spent in some other way than the one selected, but no such regrets ever attend the trip to Manch Chunk. Many people travel half over Europe without viewing more romantic scenery than in this, the so called "Switzerland of America." Rugged mountain peaks are in awe-inspiring contrast to deep chasms and gorges while there is hardly a spot in this section where the artist does not long to plant his easel or the amateur photographer to expose a plate. And the beauty of it is that the junk may be made at very moderate expense and within the limit of a day's outing. The New Jersey Central announces an excursion on July 4th to Manch Chunk, Glen Onoko and the Switchback, the round trip costing only $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. It is alone worth making the trip to have experienced the novel ride of 14 miles over the gravity road known as the Switchback. There is nothing quite like it anywhere in the country. While it is exciting, the most timid have nothing to fear for the trip is quite safe. A fast special express train will leave Westfield about noon. There is ample opportunity to see and enjoy everything, as the return train does not leave until 5.40. The nearest ticket agent will supply circulars giving full details. People who decide to make this excursion will have something to remember all their lives and much to tell their friends.

She Had Lost Her "Child."

A sweet old lady, of the sort that is always young, went shopping the other day with her daughter. They visited a great department store, and there, by some chance, became separated. It was "bargain day," and an immense crowd was surging back and forth. The daughter had the memoranda and the purse.

The dear old lady grew distracted. She ran this way and that, peering into strange faces and following false clues.

"What is it, madam?" asked a sympathetic floor-walker. "Can I help you?"

"Oh, I don't know!" she cried. "But I do wish you'd try."

"Have you lost something?"

"I've lost my child!"

"How old was it?"

"Fifty-two!"

Then they both burst into laughter, and a minute or two later the well-grown "child" came into sight. — Youth's Companion.

QUESTIONS OF HEALTH

Jim Dumps was father of a lass
Who, by her brightness, led her class.
The teacher asked Miss Dumps the question:
"How can you best assist digestion?"
"By eating 'Force,'" When told to him,
This story tickled "Sunny Jim."

Boy Did and Healthy.

"My little boy was very sick and would not take any nourishment. I got a package of 'Force' and fed him on it, and am pleased to say he is thriving. I will now give him to any boy of his age, as he is big and healthy. All I feel him on is 'Force.'"
