Miss Bessie Johnston's Oration.

An announced previously the Standard will publish the three orations delivered at the oratorical contest recently held at Washington School. It was the intention to start with that of Miss Helen Savitz who was awarded the prize. As none of the contestants was aware that her oration was to be published it has been impossible to get the copy prepared as early as expected, and the orations of Miss Savitz and Miss Hohenstein will appear later. Miss Bessie Johnston's is as follows:

WESTFIELD—PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE.

Away back in 1700 a few hardy pioneers ventured out from "Elizabeth Town," by means of blazed tree trails—crossed Cranes Ford, and located at a place known as "West Fields," or the fields west of "Elizabeth Town." This tract of land was not wrested, but was honorably purchased from the Indians, and history tells us the price was ten acres for a penny. We are now living on that same tract of land known as Westfield. This town had for its foundation a piece of worship. The pioneers who came here so long ago at first held services in "Elizabeth Town," but their numbers increased to such an extent that they were forced to find another place where they could hold services on the Lord's Day, so they came here, and were the founders of the present Presbyterian Church. They met in a log meeting house, about one half mile east of the present town. The congregation was called together by means of a big bass drum, and each man carried a musket, for red skin was plentiful in those days.

Westfield was half a century old at the time of the Revolution, and took a prominent part in that great struggle for independence. She sent her quota to help fight and the surrounding country was fired with military ardor. General Washington and his troops often strolled at Westfield, camping near the old spring back of the Presbyterian Church. Other troops were constantly marching between this town, Scotch Plains and Springfield, while skirmishes with the British were frequent. The bell which now hangs in the steeple of the Presbyterian Church is a very historic one, and could it speak, would tell us just how many times the British laid hands on it. In 1755 a frame church superseded the log house, and was located quite near the present site. The bell was taken from an apple tree, which served for a belfry until the erection of the frame church, and placed in the steeple.

During the war this bell was buried from the steeple, taken to New York, and returned after the war, uninjured, while the church was often taken and retaken by the British.

In the old cemetery just across the way from the Presbyterian Church, are some very old burial stones bearing the names of quite a number of the early or fore-fathers who took some part in the war. Most common among these names are those of the Millers, Woodruffs, Chriss and Hetfield. In this same cemetery there are cut on the stones a few names of the Scotch Covenanters who came and settled here long ago, for conscience sake. One of these laid for a Christian name that of Reconpense, another Reconpense, and there are others as odd. Not far from the Fairview Cemetery is the burial ground of a few of the Monticans, a tribe of barbarous Indians, who lived somewhere around this section of New Jersey. All that remains of this cemetery now, are a few mounds shrouded by pine trees, but we are proud in a way to have even these.

Let us pass on to the Westfield of today; it gives one of the best solutions to the great economic question—where shall we live? All agree that it is an ideal suburb with its many improvements, splendid location and fine train service, bringing New York and Philadelphia within easy access.

Free delivery system was introduced here several years ago, but the present force have become insufficient to meet the demands of the people, and an effort should be made to induce the government to increase the service. We have as yet no rural free delivery. This would be a great improvement, and also a benefit for the farmers and people in the outlying districts, for often it is impossible for them to get their mail.

The town's people have just voted in favor of a free public library which we hope to see in a few years in the form of a beautiful structure. An excellent site for the library building would be on the southwest corner of Broad and Elmer streets; the picturesque property of the Presbyterian Church, the historic residence of Dr. Kinch, together with the Congregational Church grounds, make very appropriate surroundings for a library.

Our town hall is looming up in the near future, and it is not too soon to be looking around for a suitable location. The town should have a fine building of its own, where all the various departments of local government could have headquarters. The best place for an edifice of this kind, would be on North avenue where the Barton stables and the Burtis Building now stand. These unsightly structures should be removed, and a building of proper architectural beauty placed in their stead. If it were placed there, people arriving at our station would gain a better impression of the town.

The following letter from Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., is instructive: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." Sold by Frutchey & Hathaway.

THE STANDARD CALENDAR.

Notes—The Standard will try to keep this calendar of events to occur in Westfield correct and complete. Persons interested in having the dates of meetings, entertainments and other functions kept before the public may do so by sending notice of same to the Standard.

June 24. Monday: Meeting of Woodmen of the World in Arcanum Hall at 8 p. m.

June 28. Wednesday: Meeting of I. O. O. F. in Mowble Hall at 8 p. m.

July 7. Friday: Meeting of Central Council, Jr. O. U. A. M. in Arcanum Hall at 8 p. m.

July 15. Saturday: Boat carnival at Crauford in the evening.

July 18. Tuesday: Sunday School excursion to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove.

August 3. Thursday: Annual Sunday School excursion to Asbury Park.

should be established in Westfield, and it would receive high appreciation from school children as well as from the young men and boys of the town. A gymnasium is greatly needed by the schools, and this would be an easy way of obtaining it. It would be a great addition to the town, and could be easily supported. The young men would have somewhere to spend their evenings, and would surely prefer it to the street corners. A building of this kind would look very well on the vacant lot on the corner of Walnut and Elm streets.

Let us hope that before very many more years we will have in our midst all these improvements and perhaps many more. Indeed there is very little doubt as to our not obtaining them, for never yet has Westfield wished for anything without receiving it in due season. And if with our growing population and increased prosperity, we are able to retain the principles of the old Scotch Covenanters who came here for conscience sake, the future will find Westfield no mean city.

Literary Circle Meets.

The ladies of the Social and Literary Circle of the Methodist Church held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. J. S. A. Witke on Hillside avenue, Wednesday, 21st.

Although the afternoon was stormy, there was a fine attendance as usual and the genial hospitality of their kind hostess was thoroughly enjoyed. The program opened by Ethelbert Nevins' Country Dance played by Misses Ethel and Linda Wright, after which Mrs. Bently gave a very instructive paper on the current topics which constitutes one of the interesting features of each meeting. A vocal solo, "Fiddle and I" by Mrs. Arthur Goddard was beautifully rendered by Miss Helen Wright. Long-fellow was the one selected for the afternoon's study and a sketch of his life and writings was read. Mrs. Lee Pearsall favored her many admirers with a vocal solo, "The Mistletoe Bough," which was followed by a reading from the Courtship of Miles Standish by Mrs. Franklin S. Reed. The courtship although well known received even more than its share of interest due to the charm of the rendering. After the program came the social hour.

The refreshments served so artistically, and the many attractions both within and without greatly heightened the sociability and good feeling which is so evident in these gatherings.

When the stage finally appeared reminding the ladies that the best of times must end they bade farewell to their hostess, all agreeing that the June meeting could fully cope with the meetings of other months as being equally successful both from a literary and social standpoint.

On the first indication of kidney trouble, stop it by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by Frutchey & Hathaway.

Another Trolley Accident.

While rounding the curve just east of Jerseyland Park last Saturday night on a Trenton trolley car George H. Sawyer, of Camden, received painful injuries by being struck by a car passing the other way or something projecting from it. The accident occurred so suddenly that the real manner of it is difficult to determine. The injured man's shoulder was dislocated, his arm broken and a finger fractured. He was brought to the North Avenue Hotel where physicians attended him and where he still remains. Mr. Sawyer was accompanied by his brother and a friend, the three having set out for a trip to Coney Island.

PASSING THROUGH A CRISIS.

The Royal Arcanum is passing through a crisis in its history. It has been found necessary to raise the rates of assessment for insurance, because under the old rates the actual cost of carrying the insurance has not been paid. This is a business proposition, and an increase in rates sufficient to pay the mortality cost of the individual members will doubtless be accepted with good grace. The chief quarrel with the new table of rates is regarding that part which has placed upon the older men, those who are 65 and over—of whom there are 10,000 in the order—a rate of assessment about four times the present rate, and one which in most cases is practically prohibitory, meaning that most of those men must leave the order, because of their inability to meet the increase. The answer of the Supreme Council to this is: These men have been carried so long at a rate much lower than the actual cost of their insurance that this new rate for them is necessary to make up the deficiency of that paid by them in years past. That seems reasonable from a mathematical point of view, but the soundness of it extends only to the fact that there is such a deficiency and that it must be made up. When it came to the question of how it should be made up the Supreme Council should have considered these things:

1. Granted that we must make up this deficiency. Is there no practicable and just way to do it without driving out of the order 10,000 old men who have given their years to the support and progress of the Arcanum, and who are now too old to obtain insurance elsewhere?

2. If such an increase in rates as proposed is necessary to carry these old men along now it means that some time back a mistake was made by the Supreme Council in fixing the rates. It is not the fault of the men that they did not formerly pay a larger regular rate, while able, instead of having to meet an excessive rate in their old age. They paid what they were told was necessary. They could not help growing old. They are in no way to blame for present conditions. The mistake that was made was one of the Supreme Council who represented not 10,000 old men, but the entire order. The entire order numbers 314,000 members. Is it not just that the burden of this mistake should be shared proportionately by 314,000 men instead of being singled out to be borne by 10,000 of those least able to stand the expense? Does not the fraternity feature of the order dictate that the members shall endeavor to relieve its aged from an oppressive condition for which they are in no way responsible? Do mercy and charity say that they shall suffer from a mistake, not theirs, but that of the whole order? The Supreme Council who prepared the mistaken table were the representatives of all.

If the principle of the order stands for anything it should stand for taking care of its own. The progress and stability of the order depend on gathering in new members. Is it possible to approach strangers with the applications for membership to an order which dropped its old men in this fashion? Is there any guarantee that there will be no repetition of it in future years?

The Supreme Council must take this burden from the shoulders of the old men and distribute it more fraternally by adding the proportionate amount to the regular assessment of all, or else fraternal insurance orders must disappear from the institutions of the earth. The Royal Arcanum can better afford to lose from its rolls those of the younger men who refuse to stand for the sharing of the burden than to publish to the world this picture of old men driven forth. This is a great test. Fraternity must prove itself, if it be good.

The Police Department call attention to the following provisions of the Public Peace Ordinance which, it is understood, will be strictly enforced, and parents will do well to warn their children against its infraction:

Section 4. No person shall set off fire-crackers or squibs, throw fireballs made of combustible materials or make bon-fires on the streets or public ways, or fire or discharge any gun, pistol or fowling piece, or any kind of firearms or cannon in any public street within the town limits, except on the Fourth day of July.

Section 11. Every person offending against any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to the penalty of a fine of $10.00, or in case of non-payment thereof to imprisonment in the county jail for ten days.

It looks very much as though there may yet be ball games between Plainfield and Westfield. The general disregard of alleged league rules on the part of many managers throughout the country is understood to be embarrassing to manager Danb, who is being put in the attitude of being a lone stickler for technical construction of the "agreements."

The agreement of various merchants in town to close their stores all day on July Fourth is commendable. The employees will have an equal opportunity with others to celebrate the day.

Local Organizations Record Their Sorrow.

The following letter has been sent by the Woman's Club, of Westfield, to the family of the late Mrs. James A. Woodward:

WESTFIELD, N. J., June 15, 1905.—The members of the Woman's Club have been deeply grieved to learn of the untimely death, on the afternoon of June 8, of Mrs. James A. Woodward.

The Executive Committee, in special session, desires to record the club's appreciation of Mrs. Woodward's worth and valued comradeship, and the painful sense of personal loss to its members.

Her helpful cheerfulness and attractive personality will long be missed, and the Woman's Club is distinctly poorer that Kate Woodward has gone from among us.

The committee desires also to express to the bereaved family the club's great sorrow and profound sympathy.

"While yet in love with life,
And reaped with the world,
She passed to silence and to better rest."

CHILDREN'S COUNTRY HOME MEETING

At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Children's Country Home, held Monday, June 10, the following preamble and resolution was presented and adopted:

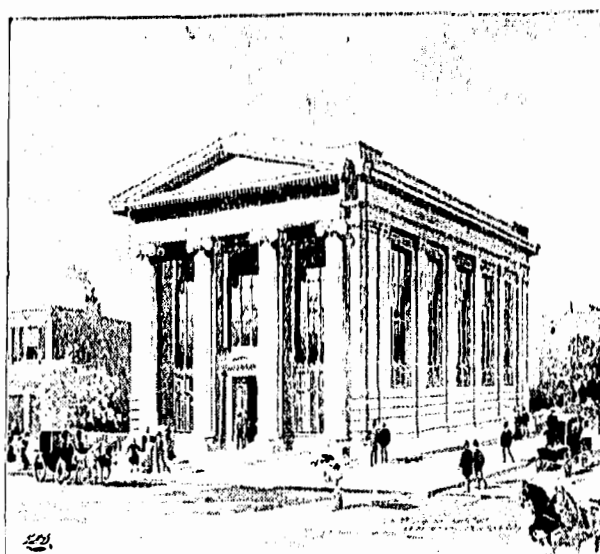

WESTFIELD, N. J., June 20, 1905.—The Board of Managers of the Children's Country Home at Westfield desire to put on record their admiration and loving appreciation of the work of the late Mrs. James A. Woodward (a member of the board). Always joyful, hopeful and enthusiastic she gave herself in unstinted and unwearied measure to whatever came into her hands to do. She planned wisely and liberally for many entertainments, and her co-workers will always remember her loving service and shall greatly miss her cheerful presence and wise counsel.

Resolved, That this expression of the thought and feeling of the managers of the home be spread in full upon the records and be sent to Mr. Woodward with the heartfelt sympathy for the husband and family so sadly bereft by this visitation of sorrow and death.

Mr. Ketcham's Contribution.

Dr. Morse, who is Secretary of the Union County Bible Society, came into THE STANDARD office and said:

"I have an item of news for you, and a good one, too. You know John C. Ketcham? Ask your readers to get their eyes on him! He has set an example worth following. I can tell you! Do you know he has given $20 to the Bible Society—the fullest contribution from any Westfield man that I ever knew. (Good example for others!) The Presbyterian Church gave $35 last year and $13.42 in 1901. The Methodist Church gives $16 a year and the Congregationalists are also good givers; but when it comes to an individual going ahead, his name is John C. Ketcham, and it makes one want to yell in football measure: 'We like Ketcham!'"

The Plainfield Trust Company of Plainfield, N. J., About to Erect a Modern Fireproof Bank Building for Their Exclusive Use.

The Plainfield Trust Company has met with such unqualified success during the three years of its existence, that it has entirely outgrown its present quarters, and in order to provide for its rapidly increasing business, the Directors have decided to erect a building that will not only fulfill its present needs but one that will do credit to its occupants in the years to come. To this end a block on Park Avenue in that City has been purchased; the buildings standing upon it have been torn down and the street is to be widened ten feet, making it sixty feet in width. The bank will occupy several lots on Second Street corner, and on the balance of the block modern office buildings will be erected by one of the Directors. The bank building is to be built of Italian Limestone, and is to have a frontage of forty-five feet on Park Avenue and a depth of eighty-five feet on Second Street.

The building will be equipped with steel vaults of the most approved type. The building room fixtures will be of marble and copper and the furnishings of mahogany. The Company numbers many women among its patrons, and their comfort and convenience has been carefully considered in the interior arrangement and equipment.

The building when completed will be one that will be worthy of the company that it is designed to house, and one that will be an adornment to the city in which it will be erected.

The Plainfield Trust Company began business on June 4th, 1902. So successful has it been that to-day its deposits amount to more than One Million Three Hundred Thousand Dollars, a continuation of this splendid growth will place the Company, at no distant date, in first rank among the banking institutions of the State.

The Officers of the Company are: O. T. Waring, President; A. V. Heely, Vice-President; H. A. McGee, Vice-President; J. Herbert Case, Secretary; Edward F. Feickert, Assistant Secretary.

The Directors are: Ernest R. Ackerman, President Lawrence Cement Company, New York; J. Herbert Case, Secretary and Treasurer, Plainfield, N. J.; Frederick Geller, Attorney and Counselor-at-law, New York; Augustus V. Heely, The Farmer's Loan and Trust Company, New York; Francis deL Hyde, First Union County Investment Co., Plainfield, N. PRESIDE COUNCIL HOLDS LIVELY MEETING.

Largest attendance in history last night—New rate tables subject of animated discussion—Protests to Supreme Council.

It seemed as if the entire membership of three hundred and fifty had turned out to attend Fireside Council meeting last evening in Arcanum Hall. Past Grand Regent Washburne, a delegate to the Supreme Council which recently fixed a new table of assessment rates was present to explain the action of the Supreme body and the new tables with the various options. Mr. Washburne first gave his own version of conditions, and then asked that questions be put to him. He did not have to wait long. Member after member tried to get the floor and the questions were put fast and furiously. It seemed to be the general consensus of opinion that while the rates need to be raised the method of doing so, involving such hardship upon the older men, is wrong, and harmful to the reputation of the order. Resolutions of protest were passed and the meeting adjourned at a late hour.

Reese Lot for Library.

The Board of Trustees of the Free Public Library met last night and decided upon a plan for securing a site for new public library building. It is proposed to purchase the property owned by S. W. Reese which consists of a lot sixty feet front on Broad Street, corner of Elmer Street, running 150 feet deep, and a lot 50 feet front on Elmer Street, running back to the rear of the Broad Street lot, forming an L. The price of the property is $5,000. The Trustees will endeavor to sell the present Prospect Street lot and the Reese lot which fronts on Elmer Street, and then raise by subscription the balance necessary to make up the $5,000, leaving them in possession of the Reese lot on Broad Street for the library building. If the Prospect Street lot should be sold for what it cost, $1800, and the Elmer Street lot at twenty dollars a foot, or $1,000, there would be $2200 left to be raised by subscription.

Ten Years in Bed.

R. A. Gray, J. P., Oakville, Ind., writes, "Forten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." Sold by Frutchey & Hathaway.

EVERY PIANOLA PIANO

Has the Metrostyle

"THE first complete piano" would be a misnomer werenot the owner able at will to command authoritative guidance in interpreting unfamiliar music for the first time. Few persons read well from a poem or play with the periods, dramatic climaxes and literary style of which they are unfamiliar.

Fewer still can render well an unfamiliar musical composition. The thin red Metrostyle line upon a music roll, clearly recording the tempo of the composer or an authoritative interpreter, gives the most difficult music interest from the outset, enabling the player to render any composition with emphasis and character.

It constantly invites the music lover into broader fields of pleasure and study. Yet when this purpose has been fulfilled, the Metrostyle line may be abandoned if desired and one's own interpretation substituted. It is as helpful as the footnotes in a book, yet may be disregarded as easily.

The Metrostyle is so inseparable an aid to the full enjoyment of the Pianola Piano that it has been included in every instrument just as it is also embodied in all Pianolas. Found only in these instruments, it puts at the disposal of the player a great library of Metrostyle music, many of the rolls in which have been interpreted by living composers themselves. In this library are signed authorized interpretations by Paderewski, Richard Strauss, Edward Grieg, Cecile Chaminade, Teresa Carreno, Harold Bauer, Gabriel Faure, Gabrielowitch, Magdeleine Godard, Moszkowski, Alfred Hertz, Emil Paur, Raoul Pugno, Sousa, and others, and it also includes scholarly interpretations of hundreds of the greatest classics.

Purchasable on moderate monthly payments.

The Pianola Piano does not differ from the ordinary upright piano in any outward aspect. Both Piano and Pianola are fully as effective as the separate instruments, while being more convenient and economical of space. Prices of the Pianola Piano $500 to $1,000. Descriptive literature and music catalogues, showing repertoire, sent to any address on request.

It is to be in the nature of a Japanese festival and a number of appropriate amusements have been provided. There will be a Japanese tea table and souvenirs. The ladies of the First Congregational Church give a cordial invitation to their friends to be present, and to bring their friends. Ice cream and cake will be furnished. The admission fee is set at the modest sum of twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; the cause of deafness is caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh of the Eustachian tube, which cannot be cured by local application. Send for circulars, free.

DOG ORDINANCE IS PASSED.

LICENSE NOW REQUIRED FOR ALL DOGS IN THE TOWN.

Council Also Passes Ordinance Regarding Police Department—Steam Roller to Be Purchased—Downer Street Ordinance Held Over.

The Town Council passed the ordinance providing for the licensing and destruction of dogs at the meeting Monday night. Hereafter every person who owns, harbors or possesses a dog will have to pay a yearly license of $1 for males and $2 for females. The entire ordinance is printed in THE STANDARD to-day and copies of it may be had from the Town Clerk. It takes effect July 1. Blank forms of application for license may be obtained from the Town Clerk.

The Council also passed the Police Ordinance, practically reorganizing the Police Department, though not affecting the position of any of the present members of the force.

Ordinances, providing for stone sidewalks on Clark street, and repealing the ordinance, providing for sidewalks on Dudley Avenue, were passed on their final reading.

On recommendation of the Road Committee the Council voted to lease from a Buffalo concern a steam roller on terms which will enable the town ultimately to purchase it by easy payments at a total cost of about $3,000. The present horse roller will be taken in exchange as part payment.

The resolution recently passed, providing for a sewer in Lenox Avenue, was amended so as to carry the sewer to the end of the Avenue so far as it is a public street.

A bill of Dr. R. R. Sinclair for $31 was referred to the Board of Health. Certificates of improvement and indebtedness were ordered issued.

Mr. Ledley brought up the ordinance for Downer street sidewalk on second reading. A debate ensued and was terminated by allowing the ordinance to lay over on consent.

The meeting adjourned to last night.

Adjourned Meeting.

The Council met again last night and held a brief session. Reports of officers were read and ordered filed. Communication from T. M. Brush on behalf of the insurance companies, suggesting a re-numbering of houses in Westfield, was read and filed. The Clerk was directed to return checks of W. G. Peckham deposited with Spring street sidewalk proposals, and to pay Mr. Peckham $95 on account of the Grace-land road work. The amended tax budget was passed on first reading, several of the appropriations being cut down because of the fact that the fiscal year of the town will end January first next instead of May first. The petition of W. J. Kennedy for sidewalks on Walnut street was ordered advertised for hearing on July 17th. The Council will meet again on July 3rd.

General Ordinance No. 30.

AN ORDINANCE to Establish, Regulate and Control a Day and Night Police, and to Regulate and Define the Manner of their Appointment and Removal, their Duties and Compensation.

Be it ordained by the Council of the Town of Westfield, as follows:

1. That there shall be established a day and night police of the Town of Westfield, in the County of Union, and that such police force (excluding officers) shall not exceed more than one policeman to every one thousand inhabitants in said Town of Westfield, and that no policeman or police officer shall be removed except for neglect of duty, misbehavior, incompetency or inability to serve.

2. The police force of the Town of Westfield shall consist of a Chief of Police and as many regular and special policemen as the Board of Police, as hereinafter constituted, may deem necessary, and by resolution declare. The Chief of Police and policemen shall be appointed by the Board of Police, and confirmed by the Council at a regular meeting, and shall hold office until removed for lawful cause.

3. The headquarters of the Department shall be located at the police station, and all members of the Department will, unless otherwise ordered, report there for duty.

4. Persons who are now members of the police force, either as regular or special policemen, are hereby recognized as members of the Police Department, providing they shall signify their willingness and ability in writing to conform to the rules and regulations governing the Police Department.

5. The Chief of Police shall be the recognized head of the Police Department, and all orders and instructions to members of the police force shall be made through him. He shall have power to designate night and day beats, the hours of duty and the policemen who are to patrol the various posts; he shall have power to suspend for cause from duty without pay any subordinate member of the department until after a final hearing and disposition of any charge or charges that may be made against him. Charges made by citizens against any member of the force must be made to the Board of Police. Charges must be preferred in writing, and the accused officer or chief cited to appear before the Town Council within ten days from the date of suspension. Officers suspended shall be reinstated only by resolution of the Town Council.

6. The Mayor of the Town and the Police Committee of said Council shall constitute and be known as the Board of Police of the Town of Westfield, and said Board of Police as so constituted, shall possess and exercise full authority to establish and cause to be enforced such rules and regulations for the government and efficient working of the entire force of said town, and issue such public notice as the said Board may deem necessary to secure the greatest possible protection to the person and property of citizens, and the supremacy of law, peace, health, order, morality and temperance throughout the town; provided, nevertheless, that any such rule or regulation may be annulled and set aside by the Council at any regular meeting.

7. The regular and special policemen appointed by virtue of this ordinance shall constitute and be recognized and obeyed as the town police, and shall possess and exercise all the police powers conferred by the laws of the State. They shall be faithful and diligent in preserving the public peace, in detecting and arresting within the town all offenders against any ordinance of the town, or law of the State, in protecting the rights of persons and property, and in maintaining decorum and morality in the public streets and places of resorts and in public assemblies, and in rendering timely and efficient aid and protection in all cases.

8. The Chief of Police shall, at the first regular meeting in each month, report to the Town Council the number of arrests made during the month previous thereto, and any other matter pertaining to his office which he may deem proper to report upon. He shall also render a full report in writing of the duties of his office for the preceding year at each annual meeting of the Council. He shall be subject to the general rules governing the Department, and in case of sickness he shall notify the Board of Police, who shall designate the person to act during his absence. He shall keep a book wherein shall be entered the name and address of each policeman; also a roll showing the time of night each policeman shall go on duty, the beat on which he is stationed and the hours of actual duty.

9. The Chief of Police shall not absent himself from town without the permission of the Mayor, the Chairman of the Police Committee or a member of the Board of Police.

10. It shall be the duty of the Chief of Police to communicate to the local Board of Health the presence of any contagious or infectious disease, or the existence of any nuisance in the town which shall be detrimental to public health.

11. The uniforms of the chief and the policemen shall be of the regulation pattern, and must be worn on all occasions when on duty, unless otherwise ordered.

12. Qualifications necessary before persons can hereafter be appointed members of the Police Department by the Town Council:

(1.) Be able to read and write the English language.

(2.) Be a citizen of the United States two years prior to his appointment.

(3.) Be a resident of the Town of Westfield two years.

(4.) Never have been convicted of a crime.

(5.) Be not less than five feet, seven inches in height.

(6.) Not less than twenty-five or over forty years of age.

(7.) Of good health and sound body, as shown by a certificate of a physician appointed by the Board of Police.

(8.) Of good moral character.

(9.) All applicants prior to their appointment as regular policemen shall be re-examined by a physician of the town designated by the Board of Police and shall not enter upon their duties until the Town Council approves of the physician's report.

(10.) Articles 6 and 7 of the above section do not apply to policemen or any member of the Police Department, at the date of the passage of this ordinance.

*13. Discipline. Any officer or member of the force shall be subject to reprimand, suspension, deduction of pay, or dismissal, according to the nature and aggravation of his offense, for any of the following causes:

(1.) Intoxication while on duty.

(2.) Willful disobedience of orders.

(3.) Indecent, profane or harsh language.

(4.) Disrespect to a superior officer.

(5.) Unnecessary violence to prisoners.

(6.) Leaving post without just cause.

(7.) Neglect in paying just debts for rent or necessities contracted while in the service.

(8.) Immorality, indecency or lewdness.

(9.) Absence without leave.

(10.) Incompetency, lack of energy and respectability, mentally or physically.

(11.) Entering liquor saloons, unless in discharge of duty, while in uniform.

(12.) Sleeping on duty.

(13.) Neglect of duty.

(14.) Violation of any criminal law.

(15.) For making known the proposed action or movements of the force, or the provisions of any orders, to persons outside the force.

(16.) Conduct not becoming an officer and a gentleman.

(17.) Conduct subversive of good order and the discipline of the force.

(18.) Not properly patrolling post.

(19.) Publicly commenting on the official action of a superior officer or any town official.

(20.) Violation of any rule or order of the Town Council.

14. Each and every regular member of the police force shall devote his whole time and attention to the business of the department, and he is expressly prohibited from following any other calling, or being employed in any other business. Although certain hours are allotted to the respective members for the performance of duty on ordinary occasions, yet at all times they must be prepared to act immediately on notice that their services are required.

15. Punctual attendance, prompt obedience to orders and conformity to the rules of the department will be rigidly enforced.

16. Each and every member, in his conduct and deportment, must be quiet, civil and orderly; in the performance of his duty he must maintain decorum and attention, command of temper, patience and discretion. He must at all times refrain from harsh, violent, coarse, profane or insolent language; yet at the same time, when required, act with firmness and sufficient energy to perform his duty. Members must be civil and respectful to each other on all occasions.

17. No member of the department shall, in the police station, or elsewhere, while on duty, drink any kind of intoxicating liquor, or (except in the immediate performance of his duty) enter any place in which any intoxicating drink may be sold or furnished. No intoxicating drink of any kind upon any pretext, shall be introduced into the police station, except when prescribed by a physician. Smoking while on duty is strictly prohibited.

18. Members of the force in full or partial uniform are prohibited from visiting places of public resort, except in the performance of their duty.

19. No members shall accept from any persons while in custody, or after he shall have been discharged, nor from any of his friends, any gratuity or gift, directly or indirectly, nor from any person without the written permission of the Town Council compensation for damages sustained in the discharge of his duty.

20. Members of the department shall not receive any compensation, remuneration or reward for services, other than their pay as police officers of this department, unless by permission of the Town Council.

21. Members of the department must not compound any offense committed against the laws, or withdraw any complaint made.

22. No member shall communicate to any person any information which may enable any person to escape from arrest or punishment, or enable them to dispose of or secrete any goods or valuable things stolen or embezzled.

23. No member shall communicate, except to such persons as directed by his superior in office, any information respecting orders which he may have received, or any regulations that may be made for the government of the department.

24. Each member shall at all times have with him a small book in which he shall enter the names of persons taken in charge by him, and such particulars in each case as will be important in case of trial, and shall file the same with the Chief of Police.

25. No member of the department shall be permitted to apply for a warrant in any court, or make a complaint for damages, or adjust the same, unless he shall have received permission from the Chief of Police.

26. No member of the Police Department shall be absent from duty without permission from the Chief of Police or the officer in charge of the department.

27. All persons who may be arrested shall immediately be taken before the Recorder, but if the arrest shall be made in the night time, or when the Police Court is not in session, the person arrested shall be in like manner conveyed to the police station. When any person charges another with the commission of crime, and insists that the person charged shall be taken into custody, the policeman shall require the accuser, if unknown to him, to accompany him as a witness, with the accused, to the police station, and shall then with as little delay as possible, return to his beat, and inspect the same with great care, to see that no depredations have been committed during his absence.

28. In case of fire, no policeman shall leave his beat.

29. Policemen must carefully examine every part of their respective beats, especially in the night time, and see that doors and windows of stores and private houses are not left unsecured.

30. They must not render any assistance in civil cases, except to prevent an immediate breach of the peace, or to quell a disturbance actually commenced, but all warrants issued of a criminal nature from the office of the Recorder must be served in all cases by the members of the Police Department.

31. A policeman who shall find horses, cattle or animals astray or running at large in violation of the town ordinances must cause them to be conveyed to the pound.

32. Members of the force shall be particular in endeavoring to prevent the destruction of flowers, plants, shrubs, etc., in the courtyards of citizens.

33. When a person is brought to the police station accused of having committed a felony or misdemeanor, the officer on duty to whom the complaint is made is only to ascertain from the person preferring it that the act charged constitutes a felony or other offense for which a person can be lawfully detained, and that there is reasonable ground for complaint against the party accused. He will then enter the name of the prisoner on the blotter, and will cause him to be detained in the police station until the said prisoner can be taken before the Recorder, which must be at the earliest possible moment. He will also enter the names and addresses of the complainant and the witnesses on the blotter, and take the necessary measures to insure their appearance before the Recorder at the same time with the prisoner.

34. The right of every member of the police force to entertain political or partisan opinions and to express the same freely, when such expression shall not concern the immediate discharge of his official duties, and the right of the elective franchise, will be deemed sacred and inviolate. But no regular member of the police force will be permitted to be a delegate or representative to, or member of any political or partisan convention whose purpose is the nomination of any candidate or candidates to any political office. Neither shall any member act as clerk or judge of any Board of Registry or Election, or clerk or judge of a primary election.

35. No member of the force shall withdraw or resign while charges are pending against him, except by permission of the Town Council. Unexplained absence for five days of any member of the force shall be deemed and held to be a resignation by such member and accepted as such.

36. Members of the force are required to report their places of residence to the Chief of Police with such particularity as to enable the residence to be easily found, and also report any changes of residence within twenty-four hours after such change shall occur.

37. Policemen must, to the extent of their ability, enforce all ordinances of the Town Council and the Board of Health, prevent assaults, breaches of the peace and all crimes about to be committed.

38. Any member of the regular force while off duty and wishing to leave town, must get a permit from the chief, or in his absence from a member of the Police Committee.

39. Property stolen or embezzled, or alleged or supposed to have been stolen or embezzled, or any species of property whatever, found in the possession of persons arrested, shall be delivered forthwith to the Chief of Police or officer in charge of the station house, who shall keep a record in a book thereof, with all the facts in the case. All lost property coming into the possession of any member of the department must be delivered forthwith to the chief, so that it may be advertised for the benefit of the owners.

40. Any member of the force who may be prevented by sickness or any other cause from reporting at the station house at any time when it may be his duty to do so, shall immediately and without delay report or cause to be reported the reason for his absence to the chief or officer in charge of the station house, together with a certificate from a physician of the town. Members of the force absent from duty because of sickness shall be given full pay for one week of such sickness, but after one week of such sickness the said officer may be paid his salary at the discretion of the Police Committee.

41. Every officer when reporting for duty must be neat in his person, his clothes and shoes clean, and his dress in conformity with the regulations.

42. Officers and policemen when on duty shall wear the shield on the outside of the outermost garment over the left breast, so that the entire surface of the shield may be easily and distinctly seen; and it will be deemed a neglect of duty on the part of any officer carelessly to lose his shield or other insignia of office, or when losing the same to fail to report the fact as soon as practicable thereafter to the chief or officer in charge of the police station.

43. Officers of every rank in the police force when on duty or when attending court, or at the meetings of the Police Committee as witnesses, or on trial of charges preferred against them, shall appear in full uniform, unless excused by the Chief of Police.

44. Members of the force dismissed or resigning therefrom shall immediately surrender to the Chief of Police their shields and their insignia of office, and all property of the department which may be in their possession, and members suspended from duty by the chief shall surrender their shields or other property that belongs to the town.

45. The officers and men will wear service stripes upon the sleeves of their uniformed coats to denote the length of service in the department as follows: For each five years of actual service one stripe will be placed upon the sleeves just above the cuffs and running from seam to seam, straight across the forearm. All members of the force shall wear uniform caps or helmets, shields, belts, batons, gloves, or other insignia of office selected by the Board of Police.

46. No regular member of the force shall be a member of the Fire Department or military corps.

47. Policemen shall carefully observe and report to the Board of Police any defects in the streets or sidewalks; they shall be familiar with the location of all streets, lights and carefully note and report any that may fail to burn. They shall also report any curbs, that may not carry off water freely. They shall observe and report generally anything in the streets or elsewhere within their beat likely to produce danger or public inconvenience, or anything offensive or unpleasant to the residents.

48. Members of the police force who shall willfully maltreat or use unnecessary violence toward a prisoner or citizen shall, on complaint being made and the fact being established by competent testimony, be immediately dismissed from the department.

49. When a crime has been committed and the chief has cause to suspect that negligence is attributable to the policeman on whose beat this crime has been committed, the patrolman shall be required to show by his own affidavit or the testimony of other persons, that he was strictly attending to his duties in accordance with the rules and regulations, or he will be subject to suspension or dismissal, in the discretion of the Town Council.

50. Each member of the department is required to enforce strictly the law against vagrancy, and for that purpose must apprehend all persons found begging in the streets and deal with them as prescribed by law.

51. A physician appointed by the Board of Police shall examine all ap pointments on the force whenever required by the Town Council, and report in writing the result of such examination, with his opinion as to their fitness for the position sought.

52. No person shall be permitted to remain in the police station without permission from the officer in charge, except members of the department and persons on business.

53. The compensation of the police force shall be sixty dollars per month for regular policemen, seventy-five dollars per month for the Chief of Police, except as herebefore provided in case of sickness, and twenty-five cents per hour for times of actual service of special policemen.

54. That the ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance for the appointment and regulation of a Police Force," passed and adopted June 15, 1903, and the ordinance entitled, "An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled, 'An ordinance for the appointment and regulation of a police force,' passed and adopted March 25th, 1901," be and the same are hereby repealed.

55. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Passed and adopted June 10, 1905.

RANDOLPH PERKINS, Mayor.

Attest: LLOYD THOMPSON, Town Clerk.

General Ordinance No. 31.

AN ORDINANCE providing for the licensing and destruction of dogs.

Be it enacted by the Council of the Town of Westfield in the County of Union, as follows:

Section 1. Every person who owns, harbors or possesses one or more dogs, within the limits of the Town of Westfield, shall procure a yearly license for each dog, and shall pay the sum of one dollar as a license fee for every male dog, and the sum of two dollars as a license fee for every female dog, to be paid and collected as provided hereinafter.

Section 2. Every person who harbors or possesses any dog for a period of fifteen days or more, shall, for the purposes of this ordinance, be deemed to be the owner of the dog or dogs so harbored or possessed.

Section 3. The Town Council shall appoint a suitable person as Dog Warden of the Town, who shall possess and exercise the powers herein conferred and perform the duties hereinafter required of him, under rules and regulations to be adopted by the Council. The owner of every dog shall pay the said license fee to the Town Clerk on or before the first day of June in each year, provided, however, that applications for license fees for licenses to run until June 1st, nineteen hundred and six, shall be made on or before the 15th day of July, nineteen hundred and five. The said Town Clerk, upon the payment to him of the said license fee, shall thereupon issue, to each person paying such license fee, a license for the keeping of a dog, which license shall contain the name and address of the owner of such dog, a short description of the dog indicating name, breed, sex and markings, also the number of such license, and such license shall bear the signature of the Town Clerk, and a copy of the said license shall be retained by the Town Clerk in a suitable book provided for such purpose. The said license shall expire on the first day of June in the year following the granting of the license.

The Town Clerk shall also issue, together with the said license, a numbered metal tag, which tag shall be, by the owner of the said dog, securely fastened or fixed to a strap or collar, to be worn around the neck of the dog so licensed, and which tag shall have stamped thereon the words, "Licensed Dog, Westfield, N. J." with the year for which issued. The tag for a female dog shall have stamped on it the words, "Licensed Female Dog, Westfield, N. J." and the year for which issued. Duplicate tags shall be issued only upon proof in writing by the owner or some member of his household above the age of sixteen years, satisfactory to the Town Clerk, of the loss of the original tag, and the payment to the Town Clerk of the sum of fifty cents.

Section 4. Every owner of a dog, within the said town, who shall neglect or refuse to cause such dog to be licensed in the manner herein provided on or before the time prescribed by this ordinance, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this ordinance, and upon conviction thereof shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each and every offense; provided, however, that any owner of a dog bringing such dog into the Town of Westfield in any year, who shall cause the same to be licensed within fifteen days thereafter, shall be taken and deemed to have complied with this ordinance in respect thereto.

Section 5. Any owner who shall suffer any unlicensed dog to run at large, or who shall allow any dog, whether licensed or not, to run at large without the tag herein provided for, or shall cause or permit any unlicensed dog to wear such tag, shall, upon conviction thereof pay a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each and every offense.

Section 6. Any dog or dogs not licensed, pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be subject to seizure by the Dog Warden, and if not redeemed, as hereinafter provided within seventy-two hours after being seized, may be killed by said Dog Warden, and any dog which shall not have securely fixed or fastened as aforesaid the tag issued with the license for such dog, shall be deemed to be unlicensed and subject to seizure.

Section 7. Any owner of a dog which may have been seized by the Dog Warden under the provisions of this ordinance shall upon establishing ownership thereof, to the satisfaction of the Dog Warden, be entitled to reclaim or redeem such dog, upon payment to the Dog Warden of the sum of two dollars, which sum shall be for the use of the Town, and upon such payment the Dog Warden shall deliver the dog to the owner thereof, provided, however, that such claim shall be made and established by such owner before the dog so seized has been killed as provided in the preceding section hereof; and provided further that the owner of any dog which shall have been licensed, pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance, and which shall have been seized, because of the failure of the owner to have securely fixed or fastened to a strap or collar around the neck of the dog so licensed, the tag provided for in Section three of this ordinance, may reclaim or redeem such dog, upon the payment to the Town Clerk, for the use of the Town, of the sum of fifty cents; but such redemption shall not release or discharge the owner from the penalty provided by section five hereof.

Section 8. Any person or persons who shall hinder, interfere with or molest the Dog Warden, or any assistant employed

CRANFORD TEAM DEFEATED.

FIRST OF CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES
WON BY HOME PLAYERS.

Close Contest from Start to Finish—
Waller Gets a Holiday—Westfield at Trenton Tomorrow.

Westfield put the kibosh on Cranford Saturday in the first of a series for the county championship honors. The victory was well earned in a smart and sharply played game. "Red" Waller was excused for the day to play at an outing party with a team that lives on his street in Jersey City and Nick Altrock of the Chicago American, fresh from his Friday drubbing of the Highlanders, officiated in the box. Altrock worked well to the extent of pulling Al Farmer's right hand the size of a small ham from stopping his ugly drops. Cranford showed the marked weakness in its team by the mixing of very good players with a few very poor ones. The team as it now stands is decidedly unbalanced. The weak men showing up like green motormen on a trial trip. The home team's hitting ability tells the story of the game. Bertwhistle getting a three-sacker and Farmer, Altrock (Wilson) and Robertson each hitting for bases. The game was interesting and the scoring so seldom as to raise hopes on either side at critical stages. Cranford drew the first batter in the first inning, but Westfield silenced the Cranford megaphone roster, by earning two in the second. Cranford scored another in their fifth, but the home team got that run back in their up. And it was another case of getting the best of your nearest neighbor.

The following is the score:

Earned Runs—Westfield, 2; Cranford, 1. Two-Base Hits—Stratton, Farmer, Wilson. Three-Base Hits—Bertwhistle. Struck Out—By Wilson, 6; by Maurer, 3. Bases on Balls—Off Wilson, 2; off Maurer, 1. Sacrifice Hits—Flynn. First Base on Errors—Westfield, 1; Cranford, 1. Left on Bases—Westfield, 3; Cranford, 3. Double Plays—Kellogg to Rotchford. Umpire—Hennings. Time—1 hour and 20 minutes.

Westfield's errors were a missed throw by Rotchford from the pitcher to catch Poole napping, from which Poole eventually scored and Barry juggling one of the kind he generally cuts.

One of Cranford's hits was a Texas leaguer from Poole, which either Mallen or Bertwhistle could have had by a little effort. Both fielders waited for each other with the result that neither got it. The play belonged to Bertwhistle, as Mallen was playing right center for a left-handed batter.

Both of Cranford's errors fell to Flynn, usually reliable. The miscues were yellow and came at bad times.

Hoffman and Gray couldn't hit a string of toy balloons.

Big Jim Robertson hasn't stopped grovin yet. He graduated from Fordham this week and is to have a try out with the Philadelphia Americans.

Matty McIntyre, of the Detroit Americans, is out of the game with paralysis of the right hand.

The Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. has had a shake-up. Manager Roth is succeeded by Herman Fredericks, who gave the entire old team their walking tickets and presented an outfit last Saturday that trimmed the fast Brooklyn Field Club 2 to 0.

Rahway is in the doldrums. While the team has been putting up good ball the attendance at the open lot game has looked for their pleasure on the graft basis.

The team goes to Trenton to-morrow for their third try against the Y. M. C. A. and is about due for a win.

When the Philadelphia Giants did get at Plainfield they did it good and proper—11 to 0—Plainfield's 0 coming after the Giants had enough and were through.

REHEARS

Kellogg's show for this week is both strong and seasonable, replete with comedy, dancing, musical and acrobatic acts—the kind that will amuse without minding undue strain upon mid-summer mentality. Headling the list is May Voltes, the cleverest impersonator of quaint servant girl types, in a new comedy entitled, "A Model Maid." The Mysterious Zanzigs offer the greatest psychic act of modern times; the 4 Lakens lead the roster of "casting" novobots; the 4 Avolos are peerless performers upon xylophones.

"The Crust of Society," an adaptation of Dumas' cleverest dramatic satire, will be offered at Proctor's 5th Avenue Theatre for the coming week with a cast containing names so well known to Broadway playgoers that it conveys the assurance of a capital performance.

At Proctor's 59th Street Theatre, week of June 26, another Broadway success will be presented when Sol Smith Russell's greatest triumph, "A Poor Relation," will be offered.

The entertainment which will be offered at Proctor's Newark Theatre next week will be of special merit, and will compare favorably with the strong bills he has been presenting to his Newark patrons. Among the headliners will be found the Heugler Sisters, late features of the "Silver Slipper" Company, and entertainers of the "400."

The offering at Proctor's 23rd Street Theatre for the week of June 26 is tremendous in its make-up, for as the special attraction Mr. Proctor has secured Mr. James J. Corbett the celebrated pugilist-actor, who lately starred in his own production, in which he scored heavily. As the extra feature, Mr. Proctor will offer McMahan's Watermelon Girls.

The picturesque drama of Southern life entitled, "Tennessee's Pardner," will be the attraction at Proctor's 125th Street Theatre for the week of June 26.

Manch Chunk for July 1th.

There is no grander scenery anywhere than you will find on the journey to Manch Chunk via the New Jersey Central.

Jersey is attractive, especially in the Northern section, and the rolling country offers a variety of attractions, the like of which no other section can boast. Pennsylvania and its mountains are too widely known to need elaboration, but Manch Chunk and vicinity is a garden spot, if ever there was one. The Switchback Railroad is novel in as much as no motive power is needed for operation. The inclines are gradual and in the fourteen mile journey there are many interesting experiences and fascinating scenes are unfolded with a startling rapidity.

For a day's outing there is no place more thoroughly enjoyable than Manch Chunk, and when the small cost of a day's trip is considered there is little left to be said. The New Jersey Central will run one of its popular one-day excursions to Manch Chunk on the Fourth of July by special train which will leave Westfield at 9:12 a. m., arriving at Manch Chunk before noon. The returning train does not leave the mountain resort until 5:30 p. m., hence there is ample time for journeying over the Switchback, visiting Flegg Staff and Glen Onoko.

Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.

Daniel Banta of Otterville, Iowa, writes: "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house. I sincerely recommend it to all." Sold by Frutchey & Hathaway.
